Ib. come] See it at Mat. xxv. 11. being the ſame as in the 20th Verſe here.

Ver. 32. Brethren] Many Copies add and thy Siſters, which Mills embraces, but it does not appear by Matthew nor Luke.

Ver. 4. of the Air] A great many have not this, and Mills deemed it of other Goſpels, Prol. 1100. but Matthew is without it Ch. xiii. 4. and I think it is more uſual for Mark to add ſuch to him, than for Luke to Mark.

Ver. 8. one—one—one] A pretty many MS. Copies have in or with repeated, that is ἐν for ἓν and ſo Ver. 20. but the Criticks condemn it.

Ver. 11. to know] not with a few, and exploded by Mills for Matthew's or Luke's, Prol. 1466. but ſo Mark muſt ſubduct from Matthew, what is unuſual, beſides the Senſe requiring this.

14. The Sower ſows the Word.
15. Next theſe are they by the Way, where the Word is ſown, that when they have heard, preſently Satan comes, and takes away the Word which was ſown in their Hearts.
16. And theſe are they in like Manner that are ſown on in ſtony Places, who when they have heard the Word, preſently receive it with Joy.
17. Yet they have not Root in themſelves, only exiſt for a Time; afterwards there being Affliction or Perſecution for the Word, they are preſently offended.
18. Theſe too that are ſown on among Briers, are ſuch as hear the Word;
19. And the Cares of this World, the Deceit of Riches, with the Deſires concerning other Things entering in, choak the Word together, ſo that it becomes unfruitful.
20. Theſe alſo are they that are ſown on in good Land, who hear the Word, and receive, and bear fruit, one thirty, one ſixty, and one a hundred-fold.
21. Beſides he ſaid to them; Does a Candle come, that it may be put either under a Buſhel or a Bed; not that it may be put in a Candleſtick?
22. For there is not any Thing hid, which will not be made manifeſt; nor has been hidden, but that it will come to Manifeſtation.
23. If any one has Ears to hear, let him hear.
24. Moreover he ſaid to them; Mind what you hear: with what Meaſure you ſhall meaſure, it will be meaſured to you; nay there will be ſome added to you who hear.
25. For to him whoever has, ſhall be given; and from him who has not, ſhall be taken even what he ſeemingly has.
26. And he ſaid; Thus the Kingdom of God is, as if a Man ſhould caſt Seed on the Land:
27. Then ſhould ſleep, and get up Night and Day; and the Seed ſhould ſprout out, and ſpring up, he does not know how.
28. For the Land bears fruit of it ſelf; firſt the Blade, afterwards the Ear, after that the full Corn in the Ear.
29. But when the Fruit is yielded forth, preſently he puts in the Hook, becauſe Harveſt is come.
30. Again he ſaid; To what ſhall we liken the Kingdom of God? Or to what ſhall we make a Compariſon of it?
31. As to a Grain of Muſtard, which when it is ſown on the Land, is the leaſt of all the Seeds there.
32. Nevertheleſs when it is ſown, it comes up, and becomes the greateſt of all Herbs, nay yields great Branches; ſo that the Fowls of the Air can dwell under its Shadow.
33. And with many ſuch Similitudes he ſpoke the Word to them, according as they could hear.
34. But he did not ſpeak to them without a Similitude; however he explained all the Things privately to his Diſciples.
35. He alſo ſays to them that Day, when it was Evening, Let us go along to the farther Side.
36. So they ſending away the Company, took him as he was in the Ship; and there were likewiſe other little Ships with him.
37. And there was a great tempeſtuous Wind, which drove the Waves into the Ship, ſo that it was quickly filled.
38. In the mean while he was on the Stern, aſleep on a Pillow; with that they awaken him, and ſay to him, Maſter, doſt not thou care for our periſhing?
39. At this he got up, and rebuked the Wind, and ſaid to the Sea, Be ſilent, hold thy peace; whereupon the Wind ceaſed, and there was a great Calm.
40. Beſides he ſaid to them, Why are you ſo fearful? How have you no Faith?
41. Whereas ſeized with a great Fear, they ſaid one to another, Who indeed is this, that even the Wind and Sea obey him?

Ver. 15. that] which rendering is requiſite to be proper.
Ver. 17. only] as Mat. xiii. 21. not and ſo.
Ver. 18. are ſuch as] many are deſtitute of, but ſee Whitby's Exam. L. ii. 2.
Ver. 19. this World] two or three have but the World, which Mills ſeizes as a Prey, and tells us [this] is Matthew's, Prol. 410. But Mark uſed rather to make ſome Addition to Matthew.
Ib. Deſires] Luſt being now ſeldom uſed but for carnal Deſire.
Ver. 24. nay there will be ſome added to you who hear] omitted in ſome Copies, probably to make it like Mat. vii. 2. Luke vi. 38. the Caſe of other various Readings. But Mills uncanonizes to you who hear, as added from the foregoing Part of the Verſe; which is gratis dictum, a mere Say-ſo.
Ver. 31. As to a Grain] It is likely Mark retained the dative Caſe of Matthew, as the received Reading is; yet many have an accuſative, which would be As a Grain, and a few a nom. in the Manner our Tranſlators have turned it. Whitby's Anſwer is of the worthleſs Kind.
Ver. 33. many] four Copies and the like Number of Verſions are without; what ſhall be done for its Vindication? It wants none, and ſurely not ſuch as Whitby's, one Verſion and one Author that have it.
Ver. 34. all the Things] viz. of the Similitudes, not all indiſcriminately, John xiv. 25, 26. & xvi. 12, 13.
Ver. 37. which drove the Waves] in this Manner the Original.

CHAP. V.

AT length they came to the farther Side of the Sea, into the Country of the Gadarenes.

2. And he coming out of the Ship, there preſently met him from the Tombs, a Man with an unclean Spirit.

3. Who had a Dwelling among the Tombs; and Nobody could bind him, even not with Chains:

4. Becauſe he had been often bound with Fetters and Chains, but the Chains were torn aſunder by him, and the Fetters broke in pieces; ſo Nobody was able to tame him.

5. And always Night and Day, he was on the Mountains, and among the Tombs, crying out, and cutting himſelf with Stones.

6. However when he ſaw Jeſus far off, he ran, and worſhipped him.

7. And crying out aloud, ſaid, What haſt thou to do with me, Jeſus, the Son of the Higheſt God? I conjure thee by God, that thou wilt not torment me.

8. For Jeſus ſaid to him, Come out of the Man, O unclean Spirit.

9. He moreover aſked him, What is thy Name? Who made anſwer, It is Legion, becauſe we are many:

10. As alſo beſought him much, that he would not ſend them out of the Country.

11. Now there at the Mountains was a great Herd of Hogs feeding;

12. So all the Devils beſought him thus, Send us into the Hogs, that we may enter into them.

13. And Jeſus permitted them preſently: upon which the unclean Spirits coming out, entered into the Hogs; when the Herd ran with violence down a ſteep Place into the Sea (being about two thouſand) and were ſtiffled in the Sea.

14. The Keepers of the Hogs then ran away, and related it both in the City and the Fields; and the People came out to ſee what was done.

15. And coming to Jeſus, they behold him in whom the Devils were, that had the Legion, ſitting, and cloathed, and being ſober; at which they were afraid.

16. Beſides thoſe who ſaw told them, how it was done to him in whom the Devils were, and concerning the Hogs.

17. With that they began to beſeech him, to go away from their Borders.

18. Who going aboard the Ship, he in whom were Devils beſought him, that he might be with him.

19. Yet Jeſus did not let him, but ſays to him, Go into thy Houſe to thy own Folk, and relate to them all the Things which the Lord has done for thee, and had mercy upon thee in.

20. Accordingly he went away, and began to proclaim in Decapolis, whatever Things Jeſus had done for him; at which they all wondered.

21. And Jeſus paſſing over in the Ship again to the farther Side, a great Company gathered together to him, while he was by the Sea.

22. When behold there comes one of the Rulers of the Synagogue, named Jairus, and on ſeeing him, fell down at his Feet;

23. And beſought him much, ſaying, My little Daughter is near her End; ſo that come, and put the Hands on her, that ſhe may be made well; and ſhe will live.

24. At this he went away with him; as likewiſe a great Company followed him, and thronged him.

25. And a certain Woman that was with a Flux of Blood twelve Years,

26. Having alſo ſuffered many Things by many Phyſicians, and all which belonged to

Ver. 1. of the Sea] Finding this deficient in a Copy or two, Mills ſuppoſes it taken from the laſt Verſe of the foregoing Chapter, there being the ſame without it, Ch. iv. 35. But the latter might be the Occaſion of omitting this, and Mark accuſtoms himſelf to add a little to Mat. as this to Ch. viii. 28. Our great Critick to enforce it more, ſays, Luke the Follower of Mark in almoſt all Things, diſmiſſes all Mention of the Sea. But does he follow him here in the other Words, Ch. viii. 26? Certainly No. And where could Sea be inſerted there?

Ver. 2. from the Tombs] agreeable to among in the next Verſe.

Ver. 7. ſaid] that is the unclean Spirit by the Man, Ver. 2. Luke viii. 28, 29. ſo related as done by the Man, with the foregoing Things.

Ver. 11. Mountains] Abundance have Mountain, and with a different Gr. Caſe; but as the Criticks bring no Writ of Ejectment, we may quietly poſſeſs our Mountains; and that they never may, let it be conſidered, that probably Mountains was thought too much for one Herd, and the contrary Change ſeems utterly improbable.

Ib. great] an Explanation, ſays Mills, he means inſerted afterwards; becauſe not found with a few, which he ſo often prefers before many for genuine Reading. If I may gueſs alſo, it is that a great Herd of Hogs might ſeem too many for the Jews to have, who muſt not eat them, and thoſe Creatures being very uſeleſs otherwiſe, and therefore great was dropped, not I ſuppoſe as Mark's, but as ſome other's counted to be got in.

Ver. 12. all] ſome are without.

Ver. 15. that had the Legion] Mills outſtretching Grotius himſelf, turns this out for a Comment; whereas it was left out, I ſuppoſe, by a few, as what might be ſpared; not added by many, as wanted.

Ver. 16. them] where the Comma is in the Gr. and properly; the like Ver. 18.

Ver. 19. in] which the Eng. Conſtruction requires.

Ver. 22. behold] Matthew's or Luke's, ſays Mills, in his Way of thinking, Prol. 401. but he had now ſpoken of Luke as conſtantly following Mark, whether with or without Matthew, n. 398. if ſo Mark muſt have behold.

her

her being ſpent, yet ſhe nothing profited, but was got rather to be worſe;

27. Now having heard concerning Jeſus, ſhe came in the Company behind, and touched his Garment.

28. For ſhe ſaid, If I but touch his Cloaths, I ſhall be made well.

29. So the Fountain of her Blood preſently became dry, and ſhe knew in her Body that ſhe was healed of the Diſtemper.

30. And Jeſus preſently knowing in himſelf that Power was gone out from him, turned about in the Company, and aſked, Who touched my Cloaths?

31. Whereas his Diſciples ſaid to him; Thou beholdeſt the Company thronging thee, and doſt thou enquire, Who touched me?

32. Nevertheleſs Jeſus looked about to ſee her that did this.

33. The Woman then being afraid, and trembling, as ſhe knew what was done in her, came, and fell down to him, and told him all the Truth.

34. Upon which he ſaid to her, Daughter, thy Faith has made thee well; go away in Peace, and be ſound from thy Diſtemper.

35. While he was ſpeaking, they come from the Ruler of the Synagogue's, ſaying, Thy Daughter is dead; why doſt thou trouble the Maſter any more?

36. But Jeſus preſently hearing the Matter that was ſpoken, ſays to the Ruler of the Synagogue, Do not fear, only believe.

37. And he let none follow after him, excepting Peter, James, and John the Brother of James.

38. At laſt he came into the Ruler of the Synagogue's Houſe, and beheld the Buſtle, thoſe who wept and lamented much.

39. Thus he being entered in, ſays to them, Why do ye make a noiſe, and weep? The Girl is not dead, but aſleep:

40. At which they derided him; nevertheleſs he put them all forth, and takes the Father of the Girl, and the Mother, as alſo thoſe with him, and goes in where ſhe was lying.

41. Next he took hold of the Girl's Hand, and ſays to her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Maid (I ſay to thee) riſe up.

42. And preſently the Maid aroſe, and walked; for ſhe was twelve Years old: whereupon they were ſeized with great Amazement.

43. He notwithſtanding commanded them much, that none ſhould know this; and ſaid there ſhould be Something given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

AFTER this he went out thence, and came into his own Country, and his Diſciples follow him.

2. And when it was the Sabbath, he began to teach in the Synagogue; and many who heard were ſurprized, ſaying; Whence has he theſe Matters? And what Wiſdom is given to him, that even ſuch powerful Things are done by his Hands?

3. Is not this the Carpenter, the Son of Mary, as likewiſe the Brother of James, Joſes, Judas and Simon? And are not his Siſters here with us? So they were offended at him.

4. But Jeſus ſaid to them, that a Prophet is not without Honour, excepting in his own Country, among Relations, and in his own Houſe.

5. And he could not do any powerful Thing there, except that he put the Hands on a few Sick, and cured.

6. He alſo wondered by reaſon of their Unbelief; and went on round about in the Villages, teaching.

7. Afterwards he called thither the twelve, and began to ſend them two by two, and gave them Authority over unclean Spirits.

8. However he ordered them, that they ſhould take Nothing for the Road, excepting a Stick only; not a Bag, not Victuals, not Braſs in the Girdle:

Ver. 35. Synagogue's] Houſe being underſtood, as with us, nay denoted by the Apoſtrophe.

Ver. 36. preſently] Mills, though this immediately follows that at Ver. 22. in his Proleg. ſuppoſes the Word put in by ſome Scribe, as being not in Luke viii. 50.

Ver. 38. he] Some have they came, as may ſeem made from the preceding Ver. and Luke viii. 51.

Ver. 41. Talitha] Beza juſtly condemns the Lat. and Gr. Copies which have Tabitha from Acts ix. 40. but I doubt with more Affectation of Knowledge than he had in the Heb. Tongue, through Ignorance of which, he ſays, that was made; ſince this Word is neither Heb. nor from it, but Syriack the Mother-tongue of our Lord, and from the Chald. which has in one Targum taliyetha. Eſt. ii. 9. and in another talitha, Deut. xxii. 21. the Heb. and Chald. being and ſignifying alike in the other Word, the Imperat. fem. of קוּמִי

Ver. 42. old] as rendered in Luke ii. 42. Acts iv. 22. 1. Tim. v. 9. and of age, Luke iii. 23. & viii. 42.

Ver. 3. The Carpenter] Juſtin Martyr, who was of Samaria, and born about 70 Years after the Death of Jeſus Chriſt (in his Dialogue with Trypho the Jew, lately tranſlated into Engliſh by Brown) relates that he made ἄροτρα καὶ ζυγὰ, Ploughs and Yokes, working at the Trade of a Carpenter.

Ver 7. over] A Power of the genitive Caſe, as in Rom. vi. 9. & vii. 1. 1 Cor. ix. 12. John xvii. 2. which might be comprehended, though not ſo well expreſſed, in of.

9. But to have Sandals tied on, and not to put on two Coats.

10. Beſides he ſaid to them, Whereſoever you enter into a Houſe, remain there, until you go out thence.

11. And to as many as ever will not receive you, nor hear you; go out thence, and ſhake off the Earth underneath your Feet, for a Teſtimony to them. I, tell you certainly, It will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorra on the Day of Judgment, than for that City.

12. Accordingly they went out, and proclaimed that People ſhould repent.

13. Moreover they expelled many Devils, and anointed with Oil many ſick Perſons, and cured.

14. Which King Herod heard (for his Name was made publick) and ſaid, John the Baptizer is riſen from the Dead, and for this reaſon powerful Things operate in him.

15. Some ſaid, He is Elias; as did others, He is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets.

16. But Herod hearing, ſaid, This is John whom I beheaded, he is riſen from the Dead.

17. For Herod himſelf had ſent, and taken hold of John, and bound him in Priſon, by reaſon of Herodias, the Wife of his Brother Philip, becauſe he had married her.

18. For John ſaid to Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy Brother's Wife.

19. Thus Herodias bore him a grudge, and would have killed him, but could not.

20. For Herod was afraid of John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy Man; ſo he obſerved him, and on hearing him, did many Things, as alſo heard him gladly.

21. At length there was a ſeaſonable Day, when Herod on his Birth-day made a Supper for his Grandees, Colonels, and the chief Men of Galilee;

22. And the Daughter of this Herodias coming in, danced, and pleaſing Herod, as likewiſe thoſe who were ſate down together, the King ſaid to the Maid, Aſk of me whatever thou wilt, and I will give thee.

23. Nay he ſwore to her, Whatever thou ſhalt aſk of me, I will give thee, to half my Kingdom.

24. And going out, ſhe ſaid to her Mother, What ſhall I aſk? And ſhe anſwered, The Head of John the Baptizer.

25. So ſhe came in preſently with Haſte to the King, and asked as follows, I am willing that thou ſhouldeſt give me the Head of John the Baptizer, at this Time on a Plate.

26. At which the King becoming very ſorry, would by reaſon of the Oath, and of thoſe who were ſitting together, not reject her.

27. Accordingly the King preſently ſent away the Executioner, and ordered his Head to be brought; ſo he went away, and beheaded him in the Priſon.

28. Moreover he brought his Head on a Plate, and gave it to the Maid; as ſhe alſo did to her Mother.

29. Which his Diſciples hearing, came, and took up the dead Body, and put it in a Grave.

30. The Apoſtles alſo gathered together to Jeſus, and declared to him all Things, both whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught.

31. And he ſaid to them, Come ye your ſelves privately into a deſart Place, and be refreſhed a little: for there were many coming and going, ſo that they had not Time to eat.

Ver. 11. I tell you certainly, It will &c.] All this to the End of the Verſe, five or ſix MSS. and a Verſion or two are without, ſo that ſome Criticks judge it tranſplanted hither from Mat. x. 15. Should it be ſo, it would be Scripture, but there is not Country here, which may denote otherwiſe, and Mark uſes to add Sentences or Expreſſions to Matthew, rather than leſſen them, when treating of the ſame Matter.

Ver. 12. proclaimed] to be different, as the Gr. is, from that in Luke ix. 6.

Ver. 15. or] Many leave out, and Mills, with Grotius, thought we ſhould, Pr. 674. which I ſhall not contradict.

Ver. 16. This is] Matthew's, cries Mills, in Prol. 411. ſince not with a few.

Ib. John] Is it not ſurprizing in the great Variety of Reading which Mills found, and ſo laborioufly collected, that he ſhould ſo often throw Stumbling-blocks in our Way, by giving the Preference to a very few out of very many undiſtinguiſhed Votes, and generally againſt our received Reading? So here again the (little known) Coptick Verſion, and one (very particular and ſtrange) Manuſcript (as I may well diſtinguiſh them, and neither of them the ſame as before) not having John, our Critick pronounces it an Addition from Luke ix. 9. Prol. 402. when he had been juſt telling and repeating, how Luke carefully follows Mark; according to which then Mark had this Word.

Ver. 20. righteous and holy] Of whom Wither wrote,

And that his Voice might not alone
Informe us what we ſhould believe
His Life declar'd what muſt be done,
If Thee [Chriſt] we purpoſe to receive:
His Life our patterne therefore make,
That we the courſe he tooke may take.

Ver. 21. ſeaſonable] Gr. well-timed.

Ver. 27. the King] is repeated, Mills ſays, from the laſt Ver. How many ſuch Words may it be ſo pretended of, in the Hiſtorical Books of the Old Teſtament!

Ib. preſently] the vul. Lat. only being without, is alſo condemned by Mills, Prol. 413. But how odd would it have been for any one to put it, according to his Hypotheſis, in the Marg.

Ib. went away] the ſame, on no more Authority than the laſt, tells us he thinks this is of the Scribes, not St. Mark. But what ſhould the Scribes add it for? It is much eaſier to think they omitted it, becauſe they thought it might be; and this with all other Copies and Tranſlations againſt that one.

32. With

32. With that they went away into a defart Place, in a Ship privately.

33. But the Multitude ſaw them going away, and many knew him; whereupon they ran together on Foot thither from all the Cities, and got before them, then went together to him.

34. Upon this Jeſus going out, ſaw much Company, and was moved with Affection to them, becauſe they were as Sheep that had not a Shepherd; and he began to teach them many Things.

35. And it being now a late Hour, his Diſciples came to him, and ſay; It is a defart Place, and the Hour now late:

36. Send them away, that they may go home into the Fields and Villages round about, and buy themſelves Bread; for they have Nothing to eat.

37. But Jeſus made anſwer to them, Do ye give them ſome to eat. And they ſay to him, Shall we go away, and buy two hundred Penny-worth of Bread, and give them to eat?

38. Whereas he aſks them, How many Loaves have you? go, and ſee; and on knowing, they reply, Five, and two Fiſhes.

39. Next he ordered them to make thoſe all ſit in Companies on the green Graſs.

40. And they ſate down in Parcels, by hundreds and by fifties.

41. He alſo taking the five Loaves and two Fiſhes, looked up to Heaven, bleſſed, and broke apart the Loaves, then gave to his Diſciples, that they might ſet before them; the two Fiſhes likewiſe he divided to them all.

42. Who all did eat, and were filled.

43. Nay they took up twelve Baſkets full of Fragments, and ſome of the Fiſhes.

44. And there were who did eat of the Loaves about five thouſand Men.

45. He then preſently compelled his Diſciples to go aboard a Ship, and to go before to the farther Side towards Bethſaida, while he himſelf ſent the Company away.

46. And when he had taken leave of them, he went away on a Mountain to pray.

47. It being Evening too, the Ship was in the midſt of the Sea, and he himſelf alone on the Land.

48. And he ſaw them tormented in driving on (for the Wind was contrary to them) ſo about the fourth Watch of the Night he comes to them, walking on the Sea, and would have paſſed by them.

49. But on ſeeing him walk there, they thought it was an Apparition, and cried out.

50. (For they all ſaw him, and were troubled) and he preſently ſpoke to them in this manner, Take courage, it is I, do not fear.

51. Beſides he went up to them into the Ship, and the Wind ceaſed; ſo that they were very much amazed in themſelves, and wondered.

52. For they did not underſtand about the Loaves, ſince their Heart was hardened.

53. At laſt paſſing over, they came on the Country of Genneſaret, when they were got to Shoar.

54. Who being come out of the Ship, the People preſently knowing him,

55. Ran round about that whole Region, and they began to carry about thoſe who were ill on Beds, to the Place where they heard that he was.

56. Nay where-ever he entered into Villages, Cities or Fields, they put the Sick in the Market-places, and beſought him that they might but touch the Skirt of his Garment; and whoſoever touched him were made well.

Ver. 33. and got before them] according to Mills not in three Copies; but Whitby ſays in two, and charges Mills (inſtead of others he mentions) that he would have it be a Scholium, when he ſays expreſly the contrary both in his Note and Pr. p. 42. c. 2. or in Kuſter's Edit. num. 398. As Jeſus and his Apoſtles might ſail round ſome Promontory, the People underſtanding whither he was going, could get thither before him by Land on Foot.

Ver. 36. Fields] to the publick Houſes in Roads, &c. the Gr. being plural, and meaning ſo.

Ib. Bread; for they have Nothing to eat] Mills after a few ſuppoſes it curtailed originally thus, what they may eat, the reſt, as he declares, being from Ch. viii. 2. Strange fetching and carrying, as vulgarly ſaid, at this Rate! but Bread is not there. How wrong and uncertain is Whitby's Examen on this!

Ver. 44. about] wanting in about fifty MSS. beſides Verſions, and Mills ſays is of the other Evangeliſts; truly it is ſuſpicious, and Mark might have a more punctual Information (as ſuppoſed from Peter) viz. that there were full five thouſand: for why ſhould ſo many omit the Word in this only of all the four?

Ver. 45. towards] For it appears they did not go to Bethſaida, Ver. 53. John vi. 17. which ſurely they would, if Jeſus had ſo conſtrained them.

Ver. 46. taken leave] This is not the Verb in the foregoing Ver. but the ſame as in Acts xviii. 18, 21. 2 Cor. ii. 13. Luke ix. 61. there rendered in this Manner.

Ver. 51. and wondered] From a Couple of Tranſlations and another of MSS. Mills affirms theſe Words crept out of the Margin; but has not been ſo liberal as to tell us how they came in, or what they did there firſt.

Ver. 53. when] not after they came into that land.

Ver. 54. the People] which is divers times the proper Subject of Scripture Verbs, and here as ſhewn by Mat. xiv. 35. and Chriſt's Diſciples doubtleſs knew him before, Ver. 45. nor is it to be thought, they that came out of the Ship carried the Sick.

Ver. 56. touched him] underſtand on any Part of his Cloaths.

CHAP. VII.

NOW there gather together to him Phariſees, and ſome of the Scribes, who came from Jeruſalem.

2. And ſeeing ſome of his Diſciples eating Victuals with polluted Hands, that is not waſhed, they found fault.

3. For the Phariſees, and all the Jews, except they waſh their Hands rightly, do not eat, holding the Tradition of the Elders.

4. When come from Market, except they are waſhed, they do not eat; and many other Things there are which they have received to hold, the Waſhing of Cups, Jugs, Kettles and Beds.

5. Next the Phariſees and Scribes aſked him, For what reaſon do not thy Diſciples walk according to the Tradition of the Elders, but eat Victuals with Hands not waſhed?

6. But he made anſwer to them: Eſaias propheſied well concerning you Hypocrites, as it is written; This People honour me with the Lips, but their Heart is far from me;

7. Thus they worſhip me in vain, teaching the Doctrines, the Commandments of Men.

8. For putting away the Commandment of God, you hold the Tradition of Men, the Waſhing of Jugs and Cups; and many other ſuch like Things you do.

9. He alſo ſaid to them: You reject the Commandment of God effectually, that you may keep your own Tradition!

10. For Moſes ſaid, Honour thy Father and thy Mother; and, Let him who curſes Father or Mother be quite put to death.

11. Yet you ſay; If a Man ſhall tell Father or Mother, Whatſoever thou mighteſt be profited with by me is Corban, that is a Gift;

12. You then permit him no more to do any Thing for his Father or his Mother:

13. Repealing the Word of God with your Tradition which you have delivered; and many ſuch like Things you do.

14. Moreover he called thither all the Company, and ſaid to them; Hear me, all, and underſtand:

15. There is Nothing without a Man that enters into him, which can pollute him; but the Things which come out from him, are thoſe that pollute a Man.

16. If any one has Ears to hear, let him hear.

17. And when he was entered into the Houſe from the Company, his Diſciples asked him concerning the Similitude.

18. Whereupon he ſays to them; Are you alſo ſo ſimple? Do not you underſtand, that every Thing without which enters into a Man, cannot pollute him?

19. Becauſe it does not enter into his Heart, but into the Belly, and goes out into the Vault, which purges all Meat.

20. But continued he; What goes out of a Man, that pollutes him.

21. For from within out of the Heart of Man evil Reaſonings go, Adulteries, Whoredoms, Slaughters,

22. Thefts, Covetings, Spite, Deceit, Wantonneſs, a ſpiteful Look, Blaſphemy, Pride, Folly:

23. All theſe wicked Things go out from within, and pollute a Man.

24. Afterwards he roſe up, and went away thence into the Limits of Tyre and Sidon; and entering into a Houſe, he would have Nobody know, but could not be concealed.

25. For a Woman whoſe little Daughter had an unclean Spirit, hearing about him, came, and fell down at his Feet;

Ver. 6. anſwer] The Coptick Tranſ. with three or four others omitting the Word for this, Mills aſcribes it to Mat. xv. 3. but the Copt. has it not there neither.

28. Yet ſhe made anſwer to him, Yes, Lord; foraſmuch as Puppies underneath the Table eat of the Boys Crumbs.

29. And Jeſus replied to her, For this Saying go: the Devil is gone out of thy Daughter.

30. Accordingly ſhe going away into her Houſe, found the Devil gone out, and her Daughter put on the Bed.

31. And again going out of the Borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the Sea of Galilee, through the midſt of the Borders of Decapolis.

32. Where they bring to him a deaf Man, who could hardly ſpeak; and beſought him, that he would put the Hand on him.

33. So he took him away from the Company privately, and thruſt his Fingers into his Ears; as alſo ſpitting, touched his Tongue.

34. Beſides looking up to Heaven, he groaned, and ſays to him, Ephphatha, that is be opened.

35. When preſently his Ears were opened, and the Bond of his Tongue was let looſe, and he ſpoke rightly.

36. He notwithſtanding commanded them, that they ſhould tell Nobody; yet ſo much as he commanded them, the more abundantly they proclaimed it.

37. And they were ſurprized above meaſure, ſaying, He has done all Things well; he both makes the Deaf hear, and the Dumb ſpeak.

CHAP. VIII.

IN thoſe Days the Company being very much, and not having any Thing to eat, Jeſus called thither his Diſciples, and ſays to them;

2. I am moved with Affection to the Company, becauſe they have remained with me now three Days, and have Nothing to eat;

3. And if I ſhould ſend them away faſting home, they will be faint in the Way: for ſome of them came far off.

4. At which his Diſciples anſwered him, Whence can any one fill theſe here with Bread in the Wilderneſs?

5. And he aſked them, How many Loaves have you? To which they ſaid, Seven.

6. So he ordered the Company to ſit down on the Ground. Next he took the ſeven Loaves, and giving thanks, broke, and gave to his Diſciples, that they might ſet them; which they did before the Company.

7. They had likewiſe a few little Fiſhes, and bleſſing, he bade to ſet theſe alſo before them.

8. With that they eat, and were filled; nay they took up of the Fragments that were over and above ſeven Baſkets.

9. Now thoſe who eat were about four thouſand; at laſt he ſent them away.

10. And preſently going into a Ship with his Diſciples, he came into the Parts of Dalmanutha.

11. Where the Phariſees came out, and began to query with him, and ſought a Sign of him from Heaven, tempting him.

12. Upon this he groaned deeply in his Spirit, and ſays; Why does this Generation ſeek for a Sign? I tell you certainly, There ſhall not a Sign be given to this Generation.

13. Thus he left them, and going again into the Ship, went away to the farther Side.

14. Moreover they had forgot to take Bread, and had none with themſelves in the Ship, excepting one Loaf.

15. And he commanded them as follows, See, beware of the Leaven of the Phariſees, and that of Herod.

Ver. 31. and Sidon, he came] for which ſome have, he came by or through Sidon; which might not be worth minding, did not Mills vindicate it, and his Opinion without Proof advances it but little, Prol. 404. which the learned Saubert alſo confutes, as contrary to Mat. xv. 24. in Proleg. Var. Lect. there; nor does it appear that was the Way to the Sea of Galilee.

Ib. Decapolis] which by this Ver. evidently lay on the weſt Side of the Sea here mentioned, as likewiſe by Mat. iv. 25. but by Mar. v. 1, 20, 21. on the eaſt Side, being alſo a Matter of Controverſy among Writers; to be decided, I ſuppoſe by its lying on both Sides, and round the north End of that Sea; ſee of it Whitby in the Table of Places. N. B. it ſignifies ten Cities.

Ver. 12. his] is but an Expoſition according to Mills, who has multiplied ſuch in Oppoſition to the com. Reading.

16. Therefore they reaſoned thus one to another, It is becauſe we have no Bread.

17. And Jeſus knowing, ſays to them; Why do ye reaſon, becauſe you have no Bread? Do ye not yet underſtand, nor mind? Have ye your Heart ſtill hardened?

18. Having Eyes, do ye not ſee? And having Ears, do ye not hear? And do ye not remember?

19. When I broke the five Loaves to the five thouſand, how many Baſkets full of Fragments did you take up? They anſwer him, Twelve.

20. When the ſeven alſo to four thouſand, how many Baſkets full of Fragments did you take up? And they anſwered, Seven.

21. He ſaid further to them, How do ye not mind?

22. At length he comes into Bethſaida, and the People bring a blind Man to him, and beſought him that he would touch him.

23. And taking hold of the blind Man by the Hand, he brought him out without the Town; and when he had ſpit in his Eyes, and put the Hands on him, he aſked him whether he ſaw any Thing.

24. Whereupon looking up, he ſaid, I ſee Men as Trees walking.

25. Afterwards he put the Hands again upon his Eyes, and made him look up; when he was reſtored, and ſaw all clearly.

26. Next he ſent him away to his Houſe, ſaying, Neither enter into the Village, nor tell any one in it.

27. Jeſus too went out, and his Diſciples, into the Villages of Ceſarea Philippi; and in the Way he aſked his Diſciples in this manner, Who do Men ſay that I am?

28. And they anſwered, John the Baptizer; ſome, Elias; and others, One of the Prophets.

29. He then enquires of them, But who do ye ſay that I am? And Peter makes anſwer to him, Thou art Chriſt.

30. However he charged them, that they ſhould ſpeak to Nobody concerning him.

31. Beſides he began to teach them, that the Man muſt ſuffer many Things, and be rejected by the Elders, chief Prieſts and Scribes, as alſo be killed, and three Days after ariſe.

32. And he ſpoke the Saying ſo boldly, that Peter took him aſide, and began to rebuke him.

33. But he turned about, and looking at his Diſciples, rebuked Peter as follows, Be gone behind me, Satan; ſince thou doſt not mind the Things of God, but thoſe of Men.

34. And calling thither the Company, with his Diſciples, he ſaid to them; Let him who would come after me deny himſelf, and take up his Croſs, and follow me.

35. For whoever would ſave his Life, will loſe it; but whoever ſhall loſe his Life for my ſake and the Goſpel's, he will ſave it.

36. For what Profit will it be to a Man, if he ſhould gain the whole World, and ſuffer the loſs of his Soul?

37. Or what ſhall a Man give for the Exchange of his Soul?

38. For whoever ſhall be aſhamed of me and my Words, in this adulterous and ſinful Generation, the Man too will be aſhamed of him, when he comes in the Glory of his Father with the holy Angels.

CHAP. IX.

HE alſo ſaid to them, I tell you certainly, that there are ſome of them that ſtand here, who will not at all taſte Death, until they ſee the Kingdom of God come in Power.

2. And after ſix Days Jeſus takes Peter, and James, with John, and brings them up on a high Mountain privately alone; where he was transformed before them:

3. So that his Cloaths became glittering, very white like Snow, ſuch as no Fuller on the Earth can whiten.

4. Moreover Elias appeared to them with Moſes, and were talking with Jeſus.

5. And Peter expreſſes himſelf thus to Jeſus, Rabbi, it is well that we ſhould be here; and let us make three Tabernacles, one for thee, one for Moſes, and one for Elias.

Ver 16. one to another] not as in Mat. xvi. 8.

Ver. 22. he comes] by a few they come, which paſſes with Mills for authentick, and to have been changed into ours, becauſe of the following they bring. Weak Conjecture!

Ver. 25. made him look up] In two Copies and the vulg. Lat. he began to look up: this Mills puts his Approbation to, and ſays Chryſoſtome and Victor Antioch. confirm it; which is giving them a ſtrange Authority.

Ver. 31. three Days after] that is the third Day, as in Ch. ix. 31. Mat. xvi. 21. &c.

Ver. 32. aſide] coherent with his turning about to his Diſciples, and Peter being then behind him, Ver. 33. but how unintelligible is took alone?

Ver. 34. come] Divers have follow, Mills ſuppoſes rightly, and ſays come is of Mat. Pr. 675. viz. Ch. xvi. 24. he having before remarked that it is follow in Ch. x. 38. ſo that one might have thought here would not have been an Alteration to either; yet an Alteration there is, and thus attended with Difficulty. However as Mark himſelf kept much to the Words of Mat. when he made no Addition, we may ſuppoſe him here following the Expreſſion that is moſt like his own, and that was in the ſame Order of the Hiſtory, which is that in Ch. xvi.

Ver. 2. takes] Here is no more [with him] than in Mat. xvii. 1. Luke ix. 28.

6. For

6. For he did not know what to ſpeak, ſince they were terrified.

7. Beſides there was a Cloud overſhadowing them; and a Voice came out of the Cloud, ſaying, This is my beloved Son; hear him.

8. And ſuddenly looking about, they ſaw none any more, but Jeſus only with themſelves.

9. Now as they came down from the Mountain, he commanded them that they ſhould tell Nobody the Things they ſaw, except when the Man ſhould ariſe from the Dead.

10. And they retained the Saying with themſelves, ſo as to diſpute together what the ariſing from the Dead was.

11. With that they thus aſked him, Why do the Scribes ſay, that Elias muſt come firſt?

12. And he made anſwer to them; Elias indeed will come firſt, and reſtore all Things; nay there will be ſo as it is written of the Man, that he will ſuffer many Things, and be contemned.

13. But I ſay to you, that even Elias has come (and they did to him whatever they would) as it is written of him.

14. And coming to the Diſciples, he ſaw a great Company about them, and the Scribes diſputing with them.

15. When preſently all the Company ſeeing him, were aſtoniſhed, as alſo ran thither, and ſaluted him.

16. Upon this he asked the Scribes, What are you diſputing with them?

17. At which one of the Company made anſwer; Maſter, I have brought to thee my Son, that has a dumb Spirit.

18. And where-ever it takes him, it tears him; inſomuch that he foams, and gnaſhes his Teeth, and waſtes away: ſo I told thy Diſciples, that they might expel it, and they were not able.

19. But he makes anſwer to him, O unbelieving Generation, how long ſhall I be with you? How long ſhall I bear with you? Bring him to me.

20. Accordingly they brought him to him; and when he ſaw him, preſently the Spirit tore him; ſo that he fell on the Ground, and rolled about, foaming.

21. He further asked his Father, How long ago is it ſince this came to paſs on him? And he ſaid, From Childhood.

22. Nay often it has alſo thrown him into the Fire, and into the Water, that it might deſtroy him; but if thou canſt do any Thing, help us, and be moved with Compaſſion for us.

23. And Jeſus ſaid to him, If thou canſt believe it, all Things may be to him who believes.

24. Upon which the Father of the Lad preſently crying out, ſaid with Tears, I believe, Lord, help my Unbelief.

25. And Jeſus ſeeing that the Company ran together, rebuked the unclean Spirit, ſaying to it, O dumb and deaf Spirit, I bid thee, do thou come out of him, and enter into him no more.

26. Therefore crying out, and tearing him much, it came out; and he became as it were dead, ſo that many ſaid, He is dead.

27. But Jeſus took hold of him by the Hand, and raiſed him up; ſo that he aroſe.

28. Afterwards he being entered into the Houſe, his Diſciples aſked him privately, Why could not we expel him?

29. And he anſwered them, This Kind can come forth by Nothing, but by Prayer and Faſting.

30. At length going forth thence, they

Ver. 10. diſpute] The King's Tranſlators have not put one with another to this Verb, as Part of it, any where elſe, and but once together, Ch. xii. 28. tho' the Word is uſed ten times, and here Ver. 14, 16.

Ib. the ariſing] viz. that of Jeſus, which he ſpoke of; but Somebody to make it plainer it ſeems altered the Words thus, as three or four Books have them, what it was, when he ſhould ariſe from the Dead; which Mills nevertheleſs ſets over the common. But who would have made the perſonal Verb impersonal for the ſake of Obſcurity? Nay ſo much that Mills himſelf did not underſtand it, but took it for the Reſurrection in general.

Ver. 11. Why] The Gr. Particle being very unuſual in the Meaning of this, ſee the Proof of it in Whitby's Annotations.

Ver. 12. reſtore] fut. like Mat. xvii. 11.

Ib. there will be] which is only the Verb-ſubſtantive, ſo frequently underſtood in Scripture, and needful here to make the Expreſſion intelligible as well as proper. One may perceive our Tranſlators introduced it with told, to make this Part oblique, and not the direct Words of Chriſt, but the following in the next Verſe ſhew they were the latter.

Ver. 13. as it is written of him] viz. that he ſhould come, Mal. iv. 5. but not the other, which therefore ſhould be in a Parentheſis, as divers more Members of Sentences; and for this read Whitby, with Charles le Cene's French Eſſay for a new Tranſ. printed 1696, tranſlated by Hugh Roſs, Part 1. 1701, Ch. 7.

Ver. 16. the Scribes] This Mills denies, as a few have them, which he interprets to be the Diſciples; when it is plain they were the Scribes, Ver. 14.

Ver. 19. to him] or to it. However I be with you, that is alſo in Mat. xvii. 17. Luke ix. 41. ſeems moſt ſuitable to the Diſciples, and unbelieving Mat. xvii. 17. with their Unbelief, Ver. 20. notwithſtanding Guyſe labours ſo hard with a Note in each Book, among ſo few that he has in his Practical Expoſition, printed 1739, to ſhew theſe were the Scribes, &c.

went along through Galilee; which he was not willing that any one ſhould know.

31. For he taught his Diſciples, and ſaid to them, The Man is delivered up into the Power of Men, who will kill him; and being killed, he will ariſe the third Day.

32. Yet they did not underſtand the Saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33. And he came into Capernaum, where being in a Houſe, he asked them, What did you reaſon with your ſelves in the Way?

34. Whereas they were ſilent: for they had reaſoned with one another in the Way, who ſhould be greateſt.

35. And ſitting down, he called the twelve, and ſays to them, If any one would be firſt, he ſhall be the laſt of all, and Waiting-man to all.

36. He alſo took a little Child, and ſet him in the midſt of them; then taking him in the Arms, ſaid to them,

37. Whoever ſhall receive one of ſuch little Children in my Name, receives me; and whoever ſhall receive me, does not properly receive me, but him who ſent me.

38. But John made him anſwer, Teacher, we ſaw Somebody expelling Devils in thy Name, who did not follow us; and we forbade him, becauſe he did not.

39. However Jeſus ſaid: Do not forbid him; for there is none who ſhall do a powerful Thing in my Name, can alſo quickly ſpeak ill of me.

40. For he that is not againſt us, is for us.

41. For whoever ſhall give you to drink a Cup of Water in my Name, becauſe you are Chriſt's, I tell you certainly, will not at all loſe his Reward.

42. Whoever too ſhall offend one of the little ones that believe in me, better would it be for him, if a Milſtone were put about his Neck, and he thrown into the Sea.

43. Nay if thy Hand ſhould offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter a Cripple into Life, than having the two Hands, to go away into Hell, into unextinguiſhable Fire:

44. Where their Worm does not die, nor is the Fire quenched.

45. Thus if thy Foot ſhould offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into Life lame, than having the two Feet, to be thrown into Hell, into unextinguiſhable Fire:

46. Where their Worm does not die, nor is the Fire quenched.

47. As likewiſe if thy Eye ſhould offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the Kingdom of God with one Eye, than having two Eyes to be thrown into Hell Fire.

48. Where their Worm does not die, nor is the Fire quenched.

49. For every one will be ſalted with Fire, and every Sacrifice be ſalted with Salt.

50. Salt is good; but if Salt become freſh, with what will you ſeaſon that? Have Salt in your ſelves, and be at peace among one another.

Ver. 38. becauſe he did not] which reads heavy in the com. Tranſ. while our Language has a peculiar Advantage of expreſſing Repetitions by the Signs of the Verbs, as I rather call them than Auxiliaries. A few have left this out, through ſome Offence at the Repetition, as Mills quotes Eraſmus ſaying well; yet he himſelf afterwards in his Prof. N° 407. ſays it is Luke's; but how much better according to his own Maxim, did Luke follow Mark.

3. And

3. And he made anſwer to them, What did Moſes command you?

4. To which they ſaid, Moſes permitted to write a Bill of Divorce, and to ſend away.

5. Again Jeſus made anſwer to them; For the Hardneſs of your Heart he wrote you that Commandment.

6. But at the Beginning of the Creation, God made them Male and Female.

7. For this cauſe let a Man forſake his Father and Mother, that he may cleave to his Wife;

8. Since the two ſhall be one Fleſh. So that they are no more two, but one Fleſh:

9. What God therefore has yoked together, let not Man ſeparate.

10. And in the Houſe his Diſciples aſked him again concerning it.

11. Whereupon he ſays to them; Whoſoever ſhall ſend away his Wife, and marry another, commits Adultery againſt her.

12. If a Woman likewiſe ſhall ſend away her Huſband, and be married to another, ſhe commits Adultery.

13. Next they brought little Children to him, that he might touch them; but the Diſciples rebuked the Bringers.

14. Whereas Jeſus ſeeing, was much diſpleaſed, and ſaid to them; Permit little Children to come to me, and do not forbid them: for the Kingdom of God is of ſuch.

15. I tell you certainly, Whoſoever ſhall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little Child, will not at all enter into it.

16. So taking them in the Arms, he put Hands on them, and bleſſed them.

17. Afterwards he went forth into the Road, and Somebody ran thither, and kneeling down to him, aſked him, Good Maſter, what ſhall I do, that I may inherit everlaſting Life?

18. To whom Jeſus ſaid? Why doſt thou call me good? None is good, excepting one, even God.

19. Thou knoweſt the Commandments: Thou ſhalt not commit Adultery, thou ſhalt not murder, thou ſhalt not ſteal, thou ſhalt not give Evidence falſely, thou ſhalt not wrong, honour thy Father and Mother.

20. And he made anſwer to him, Maſter, all theſe Things I have obſerved from my Youth.

21. Now Jeſus looking on him, loved him, and replied to him, There is one Thing wanting to thee: go, ſell whatever thou haſt, and give to the Poor, and thou wilt have Treaſure in Heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the Croſs.

22. But he was ſad at the Saying, and went away ſorry: for he was one who had many Poſſeſſions.

23. Therefore Jeſus looked about, and ſays to his Diſciples, How difficult will it be for thoſe who have Wealth to enter into the Kingdom of God!

24. Whereas the Diſciples wondered at his Words: but Jeſus made anſwer again to them; Children, how difficult it is for thoſe who truſt in Wealth to enter into the Kingdom of God!

25. It is eaſier for a Camel to go through the Eye of a Needle, than for a rich Perſon to enter into that Kingdom.

26. Which they were ſurprized at exceeding much, ſaying with themſelves, Then who can be ſaved?

27. However Jeſus looking on them, replies, With Men it is impoſſible, yet not with God: for with God all Things are poſſible.

28. Upon this Peter began to ſay to him, Behold we have left all, and followed thee.

29. And Jeſus made anſwer; I tell you certainly, There is Nobody who has left Houſe, Brothers, Siſters, Father, Mother, Wife, Children, or Land, for the ſake of me and the Goſpel;

30. But that will receive a hundred-fold now at this Time, Houſes, Brothers, Siſters, Mothers, Children, and Land, with Perſecutions, and in the Age hereafter everlaſting Life.

31. But many firſt will be the laſt, and laſt the firſt.

32. Now they were in the Way, going up to Jeruſalem, and Jeſus was going along before them, who wondered, and as they followed, were afraid; when Jeſus took the twelve again, and began to tell them the Things that would come to paſs on him;

33. Behold we are going up to Jeruſalem, and the Man will be delivered up to the chief Prieſts and Scribes; and they will condemn

Ver. 3, 4. According to Whitby theſe two Verſes are to come in between Mat. xix. 7 & 8.

Ver. 6. of the Creation] not in one Copy and two Verſions, but Mark might likely add it in his Manner to Mat. xix. 4.

Ib. them] not with three or four, whence Mills concludes it ſhould not with all, being he ſays of Mat. xix. 4. but much likelier it was left out by thoſe, becauſe deemed unneceſſary.

Ver. 19. wrong] either by Force or Fraud, as Beza obſerves.

Ver. 21. taking up the Croſs] ſome being without, Mills declares it a Scholium taken from Ch. viii. 34. or elſewhere: not thence, ſince it ſtands there before follow me; ſo that it may remain in quiet Poſſeſſion, unleſs ſome farther Bill of Ejectment comes.

Ver. 29. Wife] Mills ſeems well to obſerve, this is left out with ſome by means of the or repeated.

him to Death, as likewiſe deliver him up to the Gentiles;

34. Who will mock him, whip him, ſpit on him, and kill him; and the third Day he will riſe up.

35. After this there come to him James and John, the Sons of Zebedee, ſaying, Maſter, we would have thee to do for us whatſoever we ſhall aſk.

36. And he ſaid to them, What would you have me do for you?

37. Whom they anſwered, Grant that we may ſit, one at thy right Hand, and one at thy left, in thy Glory.

38. But Jeſus replied to them, You know not what you aſk: can you drink the Cup which I drink, and be baptized with the Baptiſm that I am baptized with?

39. However they told him, We can. Jeſus then ſaid to them, You will indeed drink the Cup which I drink, and be baptized with the Baptiſm that I am baptized with;

40. Nevertheleſs to ſit at my right Hand, and at my left, is not mine to give; but is for whom it is prepared.

41. This when the ten heard, they began to be enraged at James and John.

42. But Jeſus calling them thither, ſays to them; You know that thoſe thought to be the chief of the Gentiles rule over them, and their Grandees have authority above them.

43. Yet it ſhall not be ſo among you; but whoſoever would become great among you, ſhall be your Waiting-man:

44. And whoever would become the firſt of you, ſhall be the Servant of all.

45. For even the Man is not come to be waited on, but to wait on, nay give his Life a Redemption for many.

46. At length they come to Jericho; from whence as he went forth, with his Diſciples, and much Company, blind Bartimeaus, the Son of Timeaus, ſate by the Way begging.

47. And when he heard that it was Jeſus the Nazorite, he began to cry out in this manner, O Son of David, Jeſus, have mercy upon me.

48. Many therefore rebuked him, that he ſhould be ſilent; but he cried out much the more, Son of David, have mercy upon me.

49. And Jeſus ſtanding ſtill, ordered he ſhould be called; accordingly they call the blind Man, ſaying to him, Take courage, riſe up; he calls thee.

50. Upon which he threw away his Garment, and ariſing, came to Jeſus.

51. Who made anſwer to him, What wouldeſt thou have me do to thee? The blind Man then ſaid to him, Rabboni, that I may have ſight.

52. So Jeſus replied to him, Go; thy Faith has made thee well; when preſently he had ſight, and followed Jeſus in the Way.

CHAP. XI.

AND when they were come near Jeruſalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he ſends two of his Diſciples,

2. To whom he ſays; Go to the Village oppoſite to you, and preſently entering into it, you will find a Colt tied, upon which no Man has ſate; him undo, and bring.

3. And if any one ſays to you, Why do ye this? anſwer, The Lord has Need of him; ſo he will preſently ſend him hither.

4. Accordingly they went away, and found a Colt tied to a Door without at a double Way; and they undid him.

5. Whereupon ſome of thoſe who ſtood there ſaid to them, What are you at in undoing the Colt?

6. But they anſwered theſe as Jeſus bade them; ſo they let them go.

7. Thus they brought the Colt to Jeſus, and caſt their Cloaths on him; and he ſate upon him.

8. Moreover many ſpread their Cloaths along in the Way; as alſo others cut off Boughs out of the Trees, and ſpread there.

9. They likewiſe that went before and followed, cried out thus; Pray ſave, he is bleſſed who comes in the Name of the Lord.

Ver. 35. ſaying] by their Mother, as their Mouth, Mat. xx. 20. Whit. but both in his Paraph. and Annot. it ſtands as the Expoſition of come to him.

Ver. 42. thoſe thought] left out by Weſley.

Ver. 43. among you] The latter Mills imagines to be made from the former, though not with the leaſt Countenance of any ſingle Copy or Tranſ. If the Scripture throughout was to be pared away at this Rate, it might look like ſome modern Compoſition, and next be taken for ſuch.

Ver. 46. Bartimeaus] The moſt remarkable of the two I ſuppoſe in Mat. xx. 30.

Ver. 51. Rabboni] as in John xx. 16. the two Places where it is; and Syr. from the Chal. Ribbon, I ſuppoſe.

Ver. 1. to Bethphage] repudiated by our Mills; but in Mat. xxi. & Luke xix. 29. then ſee on Ch. v. 22.

Ver. 3. anſwer, The Lord] By the Pointing and capital Letters in the Gr. here and Luke xix. 31. the Expreſſions are direct, as thus rendered, without that or becauſe, but in Mat. xxi. 3. oblique with that; notwithſtanding the King's Tranſlators have ſo varied from it in each.

10. The Kingdom of our Father David which comes in the Name of the Lord is bleſſed; pray ſave be to him that is in the higheſt Places.

11. At length Jeſus entered into Jeruſalem, and into the Temple, and when he had looked round at all Things, it being now the Evening Hour, he went forth into Bethany with the twelve.

12. The next Day alſo they coming out from Bethany, he was hungry.

13. When ſeeing a Fig-tree far off, that had Leaves, he came, if indeed he might find any Thing on it; and coming to it, he found Nothing but Leaves, ſince it was not a Time of Figs.

14. So Jeſus ſpoke in this manner to it, Let none eat Fruit from thee any more for ever: which his Diſciples heard.

15. They alſo come into Jeruſalem; and Jeſus entering into the Temple, began to put forth them who ſold and bought in the Temple; and he overthrew the Tables of the Money-changers, as likewiſe the Seats of thoſe that ſold Doves.

16. Nay he would not permit that any one ſhould carry an Inſtrument through the Temple.

17. And he taught, ſaying to them; Is it not written, My Houſe ſhall be called the Houſe of Prayer for all Nations; but you have made it a Cave of Robbers.

18. Which the Scribes and chief Prieſts heard, and ſought how they might deſtroy him: for they feared him, becauſe all the Company was ſurprized at his Doctrine.

19. Afterwards when it was Evening, he went forth without the City.

20. And in the Morning they going by, ſaw the Fig-tree withered from the Roots.

21. Upon this Peter called to remembrance, and ſays to him, Rabbi, lo the Fig-tree which thou didſt curſe is withered.

22. And Jeſus makes anſwer to them: Have Faith in God.

23. For I tell you certainly, that whoever ſhall ſay to this Mountain, Be taken away, and caſt into the Sea; and ſhall not doubt in his Heart, but believe that the Things which he ſays will come to paſs, there will be to him whatſoever he ſhall ſay.

24. For this reaſon I ſay to you, All Things whatever ye in praying ſhall aſk for, believe that ye will receive, and they will be to you.

25. And when ye ſhall ſtand praying, forgive, if ye have any Thing againſt any one; that your Father alſo who is in Heaven may forgive you your Offences:

26. Whereas if ye ſhall not forgive, neither will your Father who is in Heaven forgive your Offences.

27. Next they come again into Jeruſalem, and as he was walking in the Temple, there come to him the chief Prieſts, Scribes and Elders,

28. And ſay to him, By what Authority doeſt thou theſe Things? And who gave thee this Authority, that thou ſhouldeſt do them?

29. But Jeſus made anſwer to them; I will alſo aſk one Matter of you; ſo anſwer me, and I will relate to you by what Authority I do theſe Things:

30. Was the Baptiſm of John from Heaven, or from Men? Anſwer me.

31. And they counted thus to themſelves; If we ſay, From Heaven; he will retort, For what reaſon then did not you believe him?

32. On the contrary if we ſay, From Men; we are thoſe who feared the People: for they all held that John was really a Prophet.

33. So they make anſwer to Jeſus, We do not know. And Jeſus gives reply to them, Neither tell I you by what Authority I do theſe Things.

Ver. 10. in the Name of the Lord] is from the laſt Ver. Mills ſays; ſo we may think too, if we will prefer about four Copies, beſides Verſions, to all the reſt; and it might likelier be left out by thoſe becauſe ſaid before, as which comes is by four or five. Whitby on the other hand brings for it Mat. xxi. 9. & xxiii. 39. Pſa. cxviii. 26. where the Reader may ſee this Part is not, but that in the foregoing Verſe.

Ver. 11. Jeſus entered] he entered by three or four. Jeſus crept in, ſays Mills in his Note, from the Gr. Readers; but Prol. 408. he aſſerts it is of (other) Evangeliſts; why not rather of this, with a vaſt Majority of Copies?

Ver. 13. a Time of Figs] being not a Year for the Fig-trees bearing, as Hammond with great Judgment and Reaſon ſhews, and expoſes yet which our Tranſlators added; and tho' Whitby ſays it was five Months before Figs were ripe, it cannot be proved of that Tree, if of any there: nor is that in Chap. xiii. 28. Mat. xxiv. 32. about Summer, as he ſays; but as it ſeems green Figs were early in the Spring, and ſo might be fit to eat at the Paſſover.

Ver. 17. for all] as Iſa. lvi. 7. whence it is cited, and agreeable to the Gr. here.

Ver. 24. aſk for] The ſame Verb Mat. xxi. 22.

Ver. 31. counted to] not the ſame as in Mat. xxi. 25. excepting in ſome Copies, according to Lucas Burgenſis made from thence.

CHAP. XII.

HE further began to ſpeak to them in Similitudes: A Man planted a Vineyard, put a Hedge about it, dug a Place under the Wine-preſs, built a Tower, let it out to Huſbandmen, and travelled away.

2. And he ſent a Servant to the Huſbandmen at the Time, that he might receive from them ſome of the Fruit of the Vineyard:

3. But they taking him, beat, and ſent away empty.

4. And again he ſent to them another Servant; and him they ſtoned, nay broke his Head, and ſent away diſgraced.

5. Again too he ſent another; and him they killed, as likewiſe many others, beating indeed ſome, and killing ſome.

6. Having therefore yet one Son, his beloved, he ſent him alſo to them the laſt, ſaying, They will reverence my Son.

7. But thoſe Huſbandmen ſaid with themſelves, This is the Heir, come, let us kill him, and the Inheritance will be ours.

8. Him accordingly they took, and killed, and threw forth without the Vineyard.

9. What therefore will the Maſter of the Vineyard do? He will come, and deſtroy the Huſbandmen, and give the Vineyard to others.

10. Have you not read that Scripture, The ſame Stone that the Builders rejected, is become the Head of the Corner:

11. This is come to paſs by the Lord, and it is wonderful in our Sight?

12. And they ſought to take hold of him, but feared the Company; for they knew that he ſaid the Similitude to them: ſo leaving him, they went away.

13. However they ſend to him ſome of the Phariſees and Herodians, that theſe might catch him in Diſcourſe.

14. Who coming, ſay to him; Maſter, we know that thou art true, and doſt not care for any: for thou lookeſt not at the Perſon of Men, but teacheſt in Truth the Way of God. Is it lawful to give Tribute to Ceſar, or not?

15. Shall we give, or not give? But he perceiving their Hypocriſy, ſaid to them, Why do ye tempt me? Bring me a Penny, that I may ſee.

16. Which they brought: and he aſks them, Whoſe Image and Superſcription is this? And they ſaid to him, Ceſar's.

17. With that Jeſus made anſwer to them, Render Ceſar's Things to Ceſar, and thoſe of God to God. And they wondered at him.

18. Next the Sadducees come to him, who ſay there is no Reſurrection, and aſked him as follows:

19. Maſter, Moſes wrote to us, if any Man's Brother dies, and leaves a Wife, leaving no Children, that his Brother ſhould take his Wife, and raiſe up Offspring for him.

20. There were then ſeven Brothers, and the firſt took a Wife, and dying, left no Offſpring.

21. The ſecond alſo took her, and died, neither left he Offspring; and the third likewiſe.

22. Nay the ſeven took her, and did not leave any: the laſt of all the Wife alſo died.

23. In the Reſurrection therefore, when they riſe, whoſe Wife of them will ſhe be? For the ſeven had her for a Wife.

24. And Jeſus made anſwer to them; Do ye not for this reaſon err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the Power of God?

25. For when they ſhall riſe from the Dead, they neither marry, nor are married, but are as the Angels of God who are in the Heavens.

26. And concerning the Dead, that they are raiſed up, have not ye read in the Book of Moſes, when at the Buſh God ſaid thus to him, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob?

27. He is not the God of the Dead, but the God of the Living: You therefore err much.

28. And one of the Scribes came thither, who heard them diſpute together, and perceiving that he anſwered them well, aſked him, Which is the firſt of all the Commandments?

Ver. 3. taking him] according to the Pointing of Mills's Edit. &c. as alſo Ver. 8. and left doubtful in others.

Ver. 4. ſtoned] not here in a ſmall Remnant of Books, and ſo caſt off by Mills for Matthew's; whereas Mark writing after him, does not uſe to leſſen the Circumſtances. But I had almoſt overlooked his great Plea, that Luke has nothing of ſtoning; which may ſhew then the Rule of his adjuſting himſelf to Mark is not univerſal: neither does Luke mention breaking the head, though he comprehends both under beating.

Ver. 11. Sight?] Here ſeems the proper Place for the Note of Interrogation, as in Mat. xxi. 42. Luke xx. 17. though Mills has it at Scripture, as if he conformed the Original to our Tranſlation, being ſupported by inaccurate Copies.

Ver. 14. Is it lawful] This and the firſt Part of the next Verſe would have been much better in one, nay in a Verſe ſeparate both from the 14th and 15th; and that not only agreeable to the Matter, but alſo to the Diviſion of Mat. xxii. 16, 17, 18. Luke xx. 21, 22, 23. and with more Reaſon here, as the Verſe would have been longer. So ſaying, which ends Ver. 18. begins Mat. xxii. 24. Luke xx. 28. For the Partition of the Books of the New Teſtament into Verſes was made of late, but not of the Old; ſee Prid. Connect. An. 446.

Ver. 20. then] or therefore, not now.

Ver. 27. the God] the latter ſeveral are without, and ſome have God at firſt, both as in and from Mat. xxii. 32.

29. Whom

29. Whom Jeſus anſwered; The firſt of all the Commandments is, Hear, Iſrael, The Lord our God is one Lord.

30. And thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole Heart, with thy whole Soul, with thy whole Mind, and thy whole Might; this is the firſt Commandment.

31. Moreover the ſecond being alike, is this, Thou ſhalt love thy Neighbour as thy ſelf. There is no other Commandment greater than theſe.

32. Upon which the Scribe ſaid to him; Well, Maſter, thou haſt ſaid in Truth, that there is one God, and there is no other beſides him.

33. And to love him with the whole Heart, with the whole Underſtanding, with the whole Soul, and the whole Might, as alſo to love a Neighbour as one's ſelf, is more than all Burnt-offerings and Sacrifices.

34. Thus Jeſus perceiving that he anſwered diſcreetly, ſaid to him, Thou art not far from the Kingdom of God. And none any more dared to enquire of him.

35. Jeſus further ſpoke in this manner, as he taught in the Temple; How do the Scribes ſay, that Chriſt is the Son of David?

36. For David himſelf ſaid by the Holy Spirit; The Lord ſaid to my Lord, Sit at my right Hand, until I make thy Enemies thy Footſtool.

37. David himſelf therefore pronounces him Lord, whence then is he his Son? And a great Company heard him gladly.

38. Beſides he ſaid to them in his Doctrine; Beware of the Scribes, that like to walk in Robes, and love Salutations in the Markets,

39. As likewiſe the firſt Seats in the Synagogues, with the firſt Places at Suppers;

40. Who devour Widows Houſes, and pray long in Pretence: theſe will receive more abundant Judgment.

41. Jeſus alſo ſitting oppoſite to the Treaſury, ſaw how the Company put Money into it; and many rich Perſons put in much.

42. And one poor Widow coming, put in two Mites, which is a Farthing.

43. Whereupon he called thither his Diſciples, and ſays to them; I tell you certainly, that this poor Widow has put in more than they all who put into the Treaſury.

44. For they all put in out of their Abundance; whereas ſhe out of her Want put in all that ever ſhe had, her whole Livelihood.

CHAP. XIII.

AFTERWARDS he going out of the Temple, one of his Diſciples ſays to him, Maſter, ſee what ſort of Stones, and what ſort of Buildings there are!

2. And Jeſus made anſwer to him, Doſt thou ſee theſe great Buildings? One Stone will not be left at all upon another, which will not be quite demoliſhed.

3. He alſo ſitting down on the Mount of Olives, oppoſite to the Temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew aſked him privately,

4. Tell us, when will theſe Things be, and what the Sign when they are all hereafter to be finiſhed?

5. At this Jeſus anſwering them, began to ſay: Beware that none may ſeduce you.

6. For many will come in my Name ſaying, I am Chriſt; and will ſeduce many.

7. Beſides when you hear of Wars, and News of Wars, be not troubled: for they muſt come to paſs, but the End not yet.

8. For one Nation will riſe up againſt another, and one Kingdom againſt another; and there will be Earthquakes throughout the Places, as there will alſo Famines and Troubles: theſe will be the Beginning of Pangs.

9. But look to your ſelves: for they will deliver you up to the Councils, and to the Synagogues; you will be beat, and before Governors and Kings will be ſet for my ſake, for Evidence to them.

10. Yet the Goſpel muſt firſt be preached in all Nations.

11. However when they have you along, delivering you up, be not careful before what you ſhall ſpeak, nor ſtudy; but whatſoever is

Ver. 29. our] Four Verſions and a Copy or two having thy, it ſeemed to Mills to be ſo at firſt, hence he writes that our is an Amendment from Deut. vi. 4. Prol. 1197. An Amendment indeed!

Ver. 32. God] Mills thinks is not expreſs'd, only underſtood, in the genuine Reading, Prol. 1097, 1098, 1101. 'tis true a pretty many MSS. are without it, but there is ſo much curtailing (more than adding) that it might be ſo here, and this Word ſeems neceſſary.

Ver. 42. which is] i. e. which Money or Sum is, the Gr. Article and Verb being both ſingular.

Ver. 8. and Troubles] Mills ſays is of ſome Gloſſariſt, not St. Mark, and was put in the Marg. to Earthquakes, then at length taken into the Text in a wrong Place. O frightful! what inſpired Scripture then is this! Troubles alſo to be the Interpretation of Earthquakes, as a Gloſs is! But let my Reader partake of my Comfort, that theſe Things have no Proof, and are quite too improbable for Realities. Whitby ſays Nothing of this.

Ver. 9. to the Synagogues] as to the Councils, and according to the approved Pointing.

Ib. ſet] being ſo in the Gr. and different from that in Mat. x. 18. Luke xxi. 12.

given you the ſame Hour, ſpeak that: for you are not they who ſpeak, but it is the Holy Spirit.

12. And a Brother will deliver up the Brother to Death, as likewiſe a Father the Child; Children too will riſe up at the Parents, and cauſe them to be put to death.

13. Nay you will be hated by all for my Name; but he who perſeveres to the End, ſhall be ſaved.

14. And when you ſee the abominable Thing of Deſolation, ſpoken of by the Prophet Daniel, ſtand where it ſhould not (let him who reads underſtand) then let thoſe in Judea flee to the Mountains;

15. Let him too on the Houſe-top not come down into the Houſe, nor enter in, to take any Thing out of his Houſe;

16. And let him that is in the Field not return back to take his Garment.

17. Wo alſo will be to them who are with Child, and to ſuch as give ſuck in thoſe Days.

18. But pray that your Flight may not be in the Winter.

19. For on thoſe Days will be ſuch Affliction, as there has not been from the Beginning of the Creation which God created till now, nor will be at all.

20. And if the Lord did not ſhorten the Days, no Fleſh would be ſaved; whereas for the ſake of the choſen ones whom he choſe, he has ſhortened the Days.

21. And then if any one ſhall ſay to you, Behold here is Chriſt, or behold there; do not believe.

22. For falſe Chriſts and falſe Prophets will riſe up, and give Signs and Wonders; to the ſeducing away, if poſſible, even the choſen ones.

23. But do ye beware: behold I have foretold you all the Things.

24. Whereas in thoſe Days, after that Affliction, the Sun will be darkened, the Moon not give its Light,

25. The Stars of Heaven will be falling, and the Powers in the Heavens be ſhaken.

26. And then will they ſee the Man come in the Clouds, with much Power and Glory.

27. Then alſo he will ſend his Angels, and gather together his choſen ones from the four Winds, from the End of the Earth to that of Heaven.

28. Moreover learn a Similitude from the Fig-tree; When its Branch is now tender, and ſprouts forth Leaves, you know that Summer is near:

29. So alſo when you ſee theſe Things come to paſs, know that it is near at the Doors.

30. I ſay to you certainly, that this Generation will by no means paſs away, till all theſe Things are done.

31. Heaven and Earth will paſs away, but my Words will not at all.

32. Nevertheleſs concerning that Day and Hour none knows, not the Angels in Heaven, nor the Son, but the Father.

33. Beware, watch and pray: for you know not when the Time is.

34. It being as a Man who travelled away, and leaving his Family, gave Authority to his Servants, and to each his Work, in particular commanded the Porter that he ſhould watch.

35. Watch therefore (for you know not when the Maſter of the Family comes, at Evening, Midnight, Cock-crowing, or in the Morning)

36. Leſt he ſhould come ſuddenly, and find you aſleep.

37. Nay what I ſay to you, I ſay to all, Watch.

Ib. but it is the Holy Spirit] Whitby ſays, From this and Luke xxi. 14, 15. collated together, it is evident, that this belongs to the Apoſtles alone, when they were brought before Kings and Rulers, Annot. here; if ſo, what was all their Preaching and Writing? Was it from their own Wiſdom? for thus he expounds ye that ſpeak; or from their own Abilities, as he ſays at Mat. x. 20? And what Interpretation will prove falſer than that of his, if collated with Acts ii. 4. & i. 8. & viii. 29. & xiii. 2, 4. 1 Cor. ii. 4, 5, 13. & vii. 10. & xii. 3. & xiv. 24, 25. 2 Pet. i. 21. Mat. xxviii. 20. Eph. v. 18, 19. Rom. viii. 26. & xv. 19. &c? What a great Pity it is that this great Commentator of our national eſtabliſhed Church, ſhould write ſo oppoſite both to the Scripture and Book of Common Prayer in divers Places, in his Rage againſt the ſenſeleſs foolish and ignorant Harangues of the Quakers! which could not merit it from ſo wiſe a Man, whatever the far ſuperior Wiſdom of his Antagoniſt Mills might at other Times; and as his Station of Dr. of Divinity was inconſiſtent with his certainly knowing much of their extemporary Effuſions, it may better be accounted for by ſome Malice or Revenge, than by mere bearing falſe Witneſs, as unknown, againſt his Neighbours.

Ver. 14. ſpoken of by the Prophet Daniel] added from Matthew according to the Criticks; but Mills owns if ſo, it muſt indeed be in the firſt Ages. Probably then by Mark himſelf.

Ver. 16. back] as in John vi. 66. tho' Eraſmus and Tyndal have rendered it otherwiſe.

Ver. 18. your Flight may] There is pretty much Variety, but of no great Moment, in this ſhort Verſe; Mills is for the genuine Reading to be it may, he ſaying, your Flight is drawn hither from Mat. but why might not Mark write it as well as he? eſpecially as he does not uſually omit ſuch of his. And there are not many leave it out, with all their Variety.

Ver. 19. Days will be] thus the Gr. and emphatically, as Amos v. 20.

Ver. 23. all the Things] but not all things indiſcriminately.

Ver. 33. and pray] One only, and beſides being very ancient, perhaps the worſt Copy that is, has not this, and yet by Mills was vehemently ſuſpected of being put in; and I reckon twenty ſuch with him from the ſame Copy, in theſe four Books alone, Prol. 1278, 1279, 1280.

Ver. 34. It being] namely the Matter or Affair, ſee Mat. xxv. 14.

CHAP. XIV.

NOW there was the Paſſover, and unleavened Bread, two Days after; and the chief Prieſts and Scribes ſought, how they might take hold of him by Deceit, and kill.

2. However they ſaid, Not at the Feaſt, leſt at any time there ſhould be a Tumult of the People.

3. And he being in Bethany, in the Houſe of Simon the Leper, as he ſate down, there came a Woman who had an Alabaſter-box of Ointment, of coſtly liquid Spikenard; which Box ſhe broke open, and poured that on his Head.

4. But there were ſome enraged with themſelves, and ſaying; What is this Waſte of the Ointment made for?

5. Since that could have been ſold for above three hundred Pence, and this given to the Poor: thus they grumbled at her.

6. Nevertheleſs Jeſus ſaid; Let her alone, why do ye give her Trouble? For ſhe has wrought a good Work for me.

7. Since ye have always the Poor with you, and when ye will can do well for them; but have not me always.

8. She did what ſhe had to do: ſhe has undertaken before to anoint my Body for Burial.

9. I tell you certainly, Where-ever this Goſpel is preached in the whole World, what ſhe has done, ſhall alſo be ſpoken in Remembrance of her.

10. And Judas Iſcariot, one of the twelve, went away to the chief Prieſts, that he might deliver him up to them.

11. Which they hearing, were glad, and promiſed to give him Money: thus he ſought how he might ſeaſonably deliver him up.

12. On the firſt Day too of unleavened Bread, when they ſacrificed the Paſſover, his Diſciples aſked him, Whither wouldeſt thou have us go, and get ready, that thou mayeſt eat the Paſſover?

13. So he ſends two of his Diſciples, and ſays to them; Go into the City, and a Man carrying a Pitcher of Water will meet you; him follow.

14. And whereſoever he ſhall enter, tell the Houſholder, Maſter ſays, Where is a Room, whereat I may eat the Paſſover along with my Diſciples?

15. Upon this he will ſhew you a great Chamber furniſhed, and got ready: there get ready for us.

16. And his Diſciples went out, as alſo entered into the City, and found according as he ſaid to them; ſo they got the Paſſover ready.

17. While it was Evening, he alſo comes with the twelve.

18. Moreover as they ſate down, and did eat, Jeſus ſaid, I tell you certainly, that one of you who eats with me will deliver me up.

19. And they began to be ſorry, and to ſay to him one by one, Is it I? and another, Is it I?

20. At which he made anſwer to them; One of the twelve, who dips with me in the Diſh.

21. The Man indeed goes, as it is written concerning him; but wo will be to that Man by whom he himſelf is delivered up: it would have been well for that Man, if the ſame had not been born.

22. And as they were eating, Jeſus took Bread, and bleſſing, broke; then gave to them, and ſaid, Take, eat; this is my Body.

23. The Cup likewiſe he took, giving thanks, and gave to them; and they all drank of it.

24. He alſo ſaid to them; This is my Blood of the new Covenant, ſhed for many.

25. I tell you certainly, that I will no more at all drink any of the Product of the Vine, till that Day when I ſhall drink it new in the Kingdom of God.

26. And having ſung praiſe, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

27. Beſides Jeſus ſays to them; You will all be offended at me this Night: ſince it is written, I will ſmite the Shepherd, and the Sheep ſhall be diſperſed.

28. Yet after I am riſen up, I will go before you into Galilee.

Ver. 1. after] See Mat. xxvi. 2. this referring more directly to the Paſſover, which the other followed.

Ver. 3. he being] See Mat. xxvi. 6.

Ib. liquid] Gr. πιστικῆς of which conſult Beza.

Ib. broke open] for if ſhe brake the box, would not the Ointment run out without pouring it? But the Greek Word may denote that the Lid was broke in pieces.

Ver. 14. whereat] with where, as the Gr. ὅπου with πῦ.

Ver. 15. got ready] four or five not having this, Mills firſt ſuppoſed it was from Mat. (very well! by Mark as uſual, tho' our Author did not intend ſo) afterwards an Explanation of furniſhed, when furniſhed might rather of that.

Ver. 17. While it was Evening] exactly as in Mat. xxvi. 20.

Ver. 19. and another, Is it I?] neglected by ſome of the old Tranſlators, as not neceſſary; but from their Omiſſion, our Reading Criticks fancy it added to the com. Text by Way of Interpretation; of which Mills gives a particular Account, as if he had been at the doing of it, when it is all Imagination.

Ver. 22. eat] Divers Copies have not this Word, and Grotius ſuppoſes it added from Matthew.

Ver. 27. this Night] Mills ſcarce doubted, as he writes, is of Mat. being not in four or five Copies, Prol. 1475. but then Mark left his Cuſtom of keeping Matthew's Expreſſions, or not leſſening them.

29. Whereupon Peter ſaid to him, But if they ſhould all be offended, yet not I.

30. And Jeſus anſwers him, I ſay to thee certainly, that this very Night, before the Cock has crowed twice, thou wilt deny me thrice.

31. But he replied much the more, If I muſt die with thee, I will not at all deny thee: and in that Manner alſo they replied all.

32. Next they came into a Place, the Name of which was Gethſemane, and he ſays to his Diſciples, Sit here, while I pray.

33. So he takes Peter, James and John, and began to be aſtoniſhed, and grieved.

34. He likewiſe ſays to them, My Mind is very ſorrowful to Death; remain here, and watch.

35. And going on a little, he fell on the Ground, and prayed, that if it was poſſible, the Hour might paſs away from him.

36. And he ſaid, Abba Father, all Things are poſſible to thee, take away this Cup from me; yet not what I would, but what thou.

37. Afterwards he comes, and finds them aſleep, and ſays to Peter; Simon, art thou aſleep? Waſt not thou able to watch one Hour?

38. Watch, and pray, that you may not enter into Trial: the Spirit indeed is ready, but the Fleſh weak.

39. Moreover he went away again, and prayed, ſpeaking the ſame Matter.

40. And when he returned, he found them aſleep again: for their Eyes were heavy, and they knew not what to anſwer him.

41. He comes too the third time, and ſays to them; Sleep on, and be refreſhed; it is received, the Hour is come, behold the Man is delivered up into the Power of Sinners.

42. Riſe up, let us go along; behold he that delivers me up draws near.

43. And preſently while he was ſpeaking, there comes Judas one of the twelve, and with him a great Company, with Swords and Sticks, from the chief Prieſts, Scribes and Elders.

44. Now he that delivered him up had given them this Token, Whomſoever I ſhall kiſs is he; take hold of him, and have away ſafely.

45. And coming, he preſently going to him, ſays, Rabbi, Rabbi; and kiſſed him.

46. Accordingly they put their Hands upon him, and took hold of him.

47. However one of thoſe who ſtood by drew a Sword, and ſmote a Servant of the high Prieſt, ſo that he took off his Ear.

48. And Jeſus made anſwer to them; Are you come out as againſt a Robber, with Swords and Sticks to take me?

49. I was daily with you in the Temple teaching, and you did not take hold of me. But it was that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.

50. Moreover all left him, and fled.

51. And a certain young Man followed him, with fine Linen thrown over his naked Body; whom the young Men took hold of.

52. But he left the Linen, and fled from them naked.

53. Thus they had Jeſus away to the high Prieſt; and all the chief Prieſts, Elders, and Scribes come together to him.

54. And Peter followed him far off, to within the Hall of the high Prieſt; ſo that he ſate down along with the Officers, and warmed himſelf at the Fire.

55. Next the chief Prieſts, and the whole Council ſought for Witneſs againſt Jeſus, to put him to death; yet they found none.

56. For many gave Evidence againſt him falſely, but the Evidences were not alike.

57. At length ſome ſtanding up, gave the following falſe Evidence againſt him;

58. We heard him ſay, I will deſtroy this Temple made with Hands, and in three Days build up another made without Hands.

59. But neither ſo was their Evidence alike.

60. And the high Prieſt riſing up in the midſt, aſked him as follows, Doſt not thou anſwer any Thing? What do they teſtify againſt thee?

61. But Jeſus was ſilent, and anſwered Nothing. Again the high Prieſt aſked him in this manner, Art thou the Chriſt, the Son of the Bleſſed One?

62. And Jeſus ſaid, I am; nay you will

Ver. 39. Matter] ſing. and as the Continuers of Poole's Annotations obſerve, blaming the preſ. Tranſ. ſince Chriſt did not ſpeak the ſame Words, as may be ſeen Mat. xxvi. 39, 42.

63. Now the high Prieſt tore his Garments aſunder, and ſays, What Need have we of Witneſſes further?

64. You have heard the Blaſphemy: how does it appear to you? And they all condemned him to be guilty for Death.

65. Some further began to ſpit on him, as alſo to cover over his Face, and to beat him, then ſay to him, Propheſy; nay the Officers laid him on with Strokes.

66. And while Peter was in the Hall below, there comes one of the young Women of the high Prieſt;

67. Who ſeeing Peter warming himſelf, looked on him, and ſays, Thou alſo waſt with Jeſus of Nazareth.

68. Whereas he denied as follows, I am ignorant of, nor do I underſtand, what thou ſayeſt. So he went out into the Entry, and the Cock crowed.

69. And a young Woman who ſaw him again, began to ſay to thoſe ſtanding by, He is one of them.

70. But again did he deny. And a little after they again who ſtood by ſaid to Peter, Truly thou art one of them: for even thou art a Galilean, and thy Speaking is alike.

71. He notwithſtanding began to curſe and ſwear, I do not know this Man whom you ſpeak of.

72. And the ſecond time the Cock crowed. Upon this Peter called to remembrance the Words which Jeſus ſaid to him, Before the Cock has crowed twice, thou wilt deny me thrice. And reflecting on himſelf, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

PRESENTLY too in the Morning, the chief Prieſts had a Conſultation with the Elders, Scribes, and the whole Council; and bound Jeſus, as alſo carried away, and delivered him up to Pilate.

2. Who aſked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he made anſwer to him, Thou ſayeſt it.

3. And the chief Prieſts accuſed him of many Things, but he anſwered Nothing.

4. Whereupon Pilate aſked him again thus, Doſt not thou anſwer any Thing? Lo how many Things they teſtify againſt thee!

5. Nevertheleſs Jeſus did not yet anſwer any Thing; ſo that Pilate wondered.

6. Now at the Feaſt he releaſed one Priſoner to them, whomſoever they deſired.

7. There was alſo a Perſon called Barabbas, bound with ſome that made mutiny together, thoſe who had done Murder in the Mutiny.

8. And the Company crying out loud, began to requeſt, ſuch as he had always done for them.

9. So Pilate anſwered them as follows, Would you have me releaſe to you the King of the Jews?

10. For he knew that through Envy the chief Prieſts had delivered him up.

11. But the chief Prieſts ſtirred up the Company, that he ſhould rather releaſe Barabbas to them.

12. And Pilate made anſwer again to them, What then would you have me do with him whom you call the King of the Jews?

13. To which again they cried out, Crucify him.

14. Whereas Pilate ſaid to them, What Evil forſooth has he done? Yet they cried out more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15. Thus Pilate being willing to do what was ſufficient for the People, releaſed Barabbas to them, and delivered up Jeſus, having ſcourged him, that he might be crucified.

Ver. 70. is alike] Mills aſſerts this is not Mark's own, Prol. 396. becauſe it does not occur in two Tranſlations, and two or three Copies, when thoſe are alſo void of thy Speaking, and yet Mills acknowledges that. But ſtrange as it is, what follows may be ſtranger, that it is very probable this was brought hither from Mat. xxvi. 73. though it is not there; which however was not an Overſight, ſince he inſinuates it ſhould be there, from one Copy only. And the ſtrangeſt of all may be, his eſteeming it to be put firſt in the Margin here, when there was Nothing for it in the Text.

Ver. 72. And—crowed] Better in the foregoing Ver. as Mat. xxvi. 64.

Ib. reflecting on himſelf] or putting it on himſelf; for the Gr. is caſting or putting on. The Eng. Biſhops, as well as ſeveral others following the old Lat. have, hee began to weepe; Beza, taking the Meaning from Matthew inſtead of the Word here, tranſlates, when he had withdrawn himſelf, he wept; our anonymous Tranſlator in 1729, and J. Weſley, he cover'd his head, and wept; and Hammond expounds it look't on Chriſt.

Ver. 3. but he anſwered Nothing] This is but in ſome Copies, and might be inſerted from Mat. xxvii. 12. as Mills thought.

Ver. 7. thoſe who] For who alone is uncertain to which it is referred.

Ver. 10. without a Parentheſis, as in Mills's Edit. and Mat. xxvii. 18.

Ver. 12. him whom you call] the Vulg. (omitted in Mills's Various Readings) and four or five more leave out.

16. Upon this the Soldiers brought him away into the Hall, which is the Judgment-hall, and called together the whole Regiment.

17. And they cloathed him with Purple, as alſo plaiting a thorny Crown, put it on him;

18. Then they began to ſalute him, Hail, King of the Jews.

19. Moreover they ſtruck him on the Head with a Reed, and ſpit on him; after they had put down the Knees, and worſhipped him.

20. And when they had mocked him, they ſtript him of the Purple, and put his own Cloaths on him; ſo had him out, that they might crucify him.

21. They further compelled Simon a certain Cyrenean, who paſſed by, coming from the Country, the Father of Alexander and Rufus, to take up his Croſs.

22. At length they bring him to the Place Golgotha, which is interpreted The Scull Place.

23. Where they gave him to drink Wine with Myrrh ſteeped; but he did not receive it.

24. And they crucified him, and divided his Garments, caſting Lots for them, who ſhould take any Thing.

25. It was alſo the third Hour when they crucified him.

26 And there was the Superſcription of his Crime written above, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27. Beſides they crucify two Thieves with him, one at the right Hand, and one at his left.

28. So the Scripture was fulfilled which ſays, And he was reckoned with the Unrighteous.

29. As likewiſe thoſe who went by blaſphemed him, moving their Heads, and ſaying, Ah, thou who wouldeſt deſtroy the Temple, and in three Days build up,

30. Save thy ſelf, and come down from the Croſs.

31. And in like Manner alſo the chief Prieſts mocking one to another, with the Scribes, ſaid; He ſaved others, he cannot ſave himſelf.

32. Let Chriſt the King of Iſrael come down now from the Croſs, that we may ſee, and believe. Nay they who were crucified with him, reproached him.

33. Now it being the ſixth Hour, there was Darkneſs in the whole Country till the ninth.

34. At which Hour Jeſus cried out thus aloud, Eloi, Eloi, lama ſabachthani, that is being interpreted, My God, my God, for what haſt thou forſaken me?

35. And ſome of them who ſtood by hearing, ſaid, Behold he calls Elias.

36. Whereupon one running, filled up a Spunge with Vinegar, which he put on a Reed, and gave him to drink, ſaying, Do ye let alone, let us ſee whether Elias will come to take him down.

Ver. 16. which is] not called, however it came into the Biſh. Tranſ. which our laſt followed. Mills mentions four Tranſ. in Prol. 410. that have of the Judgment-hall (which is not in the Notes, and there is a Contradiction beſides) and for that he pleads as Mark's own. But tho' he ſays the Hall is not the Prætorium, yet if it was of that, it was a Part belonging to or of the ſame; and he owns from Matthew and John, that Jeſus was brought by the Soldiers into the Prætorium or Judgment-hall.

Ver. 19. after] as by Mat. xxvii. 29, 30. and the manifeſt Coherence of this with Ver. 18.

Ver. 21. Alexander and Rufus] probably thoſe in Acts xix. 33. Rom. xvi. 13.

Ver. 25. third Hour] The Gr. ὥρα hora denotes ſome Space of Time, and not only an Hour, as any one may be fully ſatisfied by divers Places where it is uſed in the Writings of the New Teſtament, ſo that by this the Quarters of the Day, anſwerable to the four Watches of the Night, Ch. vi. 48. Luke xii. 38. might be, and it appears were called; by which this is to be reconciled with John xix. 14. where look, for more Exactneſs. Accordingly as the Day began at Sun-riſing, which did not vary much in that Country, and the Length of their Hours varied with it; this third great Hour commenced at Noon, and continued till the Middle of the Afternoon, the Time that Jeſus was crucified, which ſeems to be what Mark here intended, and not the Beginning of it. For Want of this laſt Conſideration Expoſitors do not clear it up, tho' they take in the other of the major Hours: for the neareſt to make the 3d and 6th Hour the ſame Time, muſt be at their Beginning; but the 3d greater Hour began in the Middle of the Day, and the 6th leſſer one an Hour before; ſo that if he began to be crucified at that 3d Hour, he could not be crucified an Hour ſooner, Mat. xxvii. 45. Luke xxiii. 44. But the Aſſembly's Annotations have this 3d Hour, nine of the clock in the morning, and the 6th John xix. 14. noon; whereas he was not crucified ſo long before he was condemned; that alſo in Heinſius's Exercit. of counting this our modern 3d Hour is a poor Pretence, and altering the Word in Gerhard's Harmony worſe; as for what Hammond ſays on John xix. 14. that all the ſpace from nine of clock till twelve was called the third houre, by which the firſt muſt begin at 3 o'Clock in the Morning, neither at Midnight nor Sun-riſing; and his expounding the third Hour here to be betwixt the third and the ſixt houre, i. e. 9 & 12 of the Clock, as if it was neither of them, and could not be the 3d Hour neer our twelve of clock, his ſuppoſed time of Chriſts crucifixion at John; of thoſe the Reader may think as he pleaſes.

Ib. when] as Beza ſhews, and the Context demands.

Ver. 30. Though this Saying is longer in Mat. xxvii. 40. than here, it is there put all into one Verſe, which is beſt, but not and ſaying with it; ſo that the Diviſion is ill made in both Places.

Ver. 34. Eloi] See Mat. xxvii. 46.

37. But

37. But Jeſus uttered forth a loud Voice, and expired.

38. When the Veil of the Temple was divided into two, from Top to Bottom.

39. So that the Centurion who ſtood over againſt him ſeeing, that ſo crying out he expired, ſaid, Truly this Man was the Son of God.

40. And there were Women too looking far off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, with Mary the Mother of James the leſs and Joſes, as alſo Salome;

41. That even when he was in Galilee, followed him, and miniſtred to him; nay many others who came up with him to Jeruſalem.

42. Moreovèr when it was now Evening (ſince it was the Preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43. Joſeph one from Arimathea came, an honourable Counſellor, who alſo himſelf was looking for the Kingdom of God, went in boldly to Pilate, and aſked for the Body of Jeſus.

44. Surprized that he ſhould be dead already, Pilate called thither the Centurion, and aſked him whether he had been dead ſome Time.

45. Which knowing from him, he gave the Body to Joſeph.

46. Who bought fine Linen, and taking him down, wrapt in it, and laid him down in a Grave which was cut out of a Rock; next he rolled a Stone on the Door of the Grave.

47. Mary Magdalene likewiſe, and Mary the Mother of Joſes beheld where he was laid.

CHAP. XVI.

AND when the Sabbath was paſſed over, Mary Magdalene, with Mary the Mother of James, as alſo Salome bought Spices, that they might come, and anoint him.

2. Accordingly very ſoon in the Morning of the firſt Day after the Sabbath, they come to the Grave, at the riſing of the Sun.

3. And they ſaid with themſelves, Who will roll away the Stone for us from the Door of the Grave?

4. And looking up, they beheld that the Stone was rolled away: for it was exceeding great.

5. With that they went into the Grave, and ſaw a young Man ſitting on the right Side, cloathed with a white Robe; at which they were aſtoniſhed.

6. Whereas he ſays to them; Be not aſtoniſhed; ye ſeek Jeſus of Nazareth who was crucified; he is riſen up, he is not here: there is the Place where they put him.

7. But go, tell his Diſciples and Peter, that he goes before you into Galilee; there ye ſhall ſee him, according as he told you.

8. They accordingly went out quickly, and fled from the Grave; nay Trembling and Amazement ſeized them, ſo that they told Nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9. Now he riſing in the Morning on the firſt of the Week, appeared firſt to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had expelled ſeven Devils.

10. She went, and declared to thoſe that had been with him, who were lamenting and weeping.

11. However when they heard that he was alive, and had been ſeen by her, they did not believe.

12. But after theſe Things he appeared in another Form, to two of them walking along into the Country.

13. And though theſe went away, and declared it to the reſt, neither did they believe them.

14. Afterwards he appeared to the eleven, as they were ſitting down, and reproached their Unbelief and Hardheartedneſs, becauſe they did not believe thoſe who ſaw him after he was raiſed up.

15. Moreover he ſaid to them; Go into all the World, and preach the Goſpel to every Creature.

16. He who believes and is baptized, ſhall be ſaved; but he that does not believe, ſhall be condemned.

Ver. 41. others] without women, as Luke xxiv. 10.

Ver. 44. that] as this Gr. Particle is rendered Acts xxvi. 8, 23.

Ib. Pilate] It having been thought, that the Book of Mark was an Abſtract of Matthew's; I would here take notice, that on the contrary I have oftener I think found, the latter enlarging on the ſame Paſſages which he has of the former, but has quite omitted a Deal more.

Ver. 47. the Mother] not in the Greek like Chap. xvi. 1.

Ver. 1. bought] beſides thoſe which they had got ready before, Luke xxiii. 56. not had bought, as Doddridge obſerves, that alſo ill agrees with when.

Ver. 5. aſtoniſhed] The Word is in Ch. ix. 15. & xiv. 33. with this and the next Verſe only.

Ver. 8. nay] for in a Copy or two after the Lat. Vulg.

Ib. ſeized them] according to the Gr.

17. And theſe Signs ſhall follow them who believe: they ſhall in my Name expel Devils, ſpeak with new Tongues,

18. Take up Serpents; and if they drink any deadly Thing, it ſhall not at all hurt them; they ſhall put Hands upon the Sick, who ſhall be well.

19. Therefore indeed after the Lord had ſpoken to them, he was received up into Heaven, and ſate at the right Hand of God.

20. So they went out, and preached every where, the Lord working together, and confirming the Word by Signs that followed after: ſo let it be.

NOTES

NOTES upon the BOOK of LUKE.

CHAP. I.

FORASMUCH as many have attempted to compoſe an Account, concerning the Matters that have been evidenced among us;

2. According as they delivered them to us, who from the Beginning themſelves ſaw, and were Miniſters of the Word:

3. It ſeemed well alſo to me, having traced up all Things diligently, to write to thee ſucceſſively on, very powerful Theophilus;

4. That thou mighteſt know the Certainty of the Things concerning which thou haſt been inſtructed.

5. There was in the Time of Herod King of Judea, a certain Prieſt named Zacharias, of the Courſe of Abia, as alſo his Wife one of the Daughters of Aaron, and her Name Elizabeth.

6. Who were both righteous before God, going in all the Commandments and Ordinances of the Lord faultleſs.

7. And they had no Child, becauſe Elizabeth was barren; nay they were both advanced in their Days.

8. Now in his executing the Prieſthood, in the Order of his Courſe before God;

9. According to the Ceremony of the Prieſthood, he was allotted to burn incenſe, on going into the Temple of the Lord.

10. And as all the Multitude of the People was praying without, at the Hour of Incenſe;

11. There appeared to him an Angel of the Lord, ſtanding at the right Side of the Altar of Incenſe.

12. Whom Zacharias ſeeing, was troubled, and Fear fell upon him.

13. But the Angel ſaid to him; Do not fear, Zacharias: becauſe thy Supplication is hearkened to, and thy Wife Elizabeth ſhall bear thee a Son, whoſe Name thou ſhalt call John.

14. So that thou ſhalt have Joy and Rejoicing, nay many will rejoice at his Birth.

15. For he will be great before the Lord, and ſhall not at all drink Wine or ſtrong Drink, and will be full of the Holy Spirit ſtill from his Mother's Womb.

16. Moreover he will turn many of the Iſraelites to the Lord their God.

17. And he will go before him in the Spirit and Power of Elias, to turn the Hearts of the Fathers to the Children, and the Diſobedient into the Prudence of the Righteous, to prepare for the Lord a People made ready.

18. Whereupon Zacharias ſaid to the Angel, By what ſhall I know this? For I am aged, and my Wife advanced in her Days.

19. And the Angel made anſwer to him; I am Gabriel, who ſtand before God; and am ſent to ſpeak to thee, and declare to thee theſe Things.

20. So behold thou wilt be ſpeechleſs, being unable to ſpeak, till the Day that theſe Things ſhall be done; becauſe thou didſt not believe my Words, which will be fulfilled in their Time.

21. In the mean while the People were waiting for Zacharias, and wondered that he delayed in the Temple.

22. At length coming out, he could not ſpeak to them; and they knew that he had ſeen a Viſion in the Temple, ſince he himſelf beckoned to them, and continued dumb.

26. In the ſixth Month likewiſe the Angel Gabriel was ſent by God, into a City of Galilee, named Nazareth;

28. And the Angel coming in to her, ſaid, Hail, O favoured one; the Lord is with thee, thou art bleſſed among Women.

32. He will be great, and ſhall be called the Son of the Higheſt; the Lord God too will give him the Throne of his Father David.

34. But Mary ſaid to the Angel, How ſhall this be, ſince I have not the knowledge of a Man?

35. And he made anſwer to her; The Holy Spirit will come upon thee, and the Power of the Higheſt overſhadow thee: therefore alſo the Holy Thing born of thee, ſhall be called the Son of God.

38. To which Mary replied, Behold a Servant of the Lord, let it be to me according to thy Word. Then the Angel went away from her.

44. For behold as ſoon as the Voice of thy Salutation was made in my Ears, the Infant leaped in my Womb for Joy.

45. She too who believes is bleſſed; becauſe there will be an Accompliſhment of the Things ſpoken to her from the Lord.

46. Mary likewiſe ſaid: My Soul magnifies the Lord,

47. And my Spirit has been joyful through God my Saviour.

48. Becauſe he has looked upon the Lowneſs of his Servant; for behold henceforth all Generations will count me bleſſed:

up, for her to be delivered, ſhe brought forth a Son.

58. When her Neighbours and Relations hearing, that the Lord had magnified his Mercy with her, did rejoice as well as ſhe.

59. On the eighth Day alſo they came to circumciſe the Child, and called him, by the Name of his Father, Zacharias.

60. Nevertheleſs his Mother made anſwer, No, but he ſhall be called John.

61. Yet they ſaid to her, There is none among thy Relations who is called by this Name.

62. Therefore they made ſigns to his Father, what he would have him called.

63. And he aſking for a Writing-table, wrote thus, His Name is John; at which they all wondered.

64. His Mouth alſo was opened immediately, with his Tongue, ſo that he ſpoke, bleſſing God.

65. Whereupon there was Fear on all who dwelt about them, nay all theſe Words were publiſhed in the whole Hill-country of Judea.

66. Which all that heard took notice of, ſaying, What Child indeed will this be? And the Hand of the Lord was with him.

67. His Father Zacharias too, full of the Holy Spirit as he was, propheſied as follows;

68. Bleſſed is the Lord God of Iſrael, becauſe he has viſited, and wrought Redemption for his People;

69. As alſo raiſed up a Horn of Salvation for us, in the Family of his Servant David;

70. According as he ſpoke by the Mouth of his holy Prophets ſince the World has been:

71. Salvation from our Enemies, and from the Power of all who hate us;

72. To perform the Mercy that was with our Forefathers, and to remember his holy Covenant;

73. The Oath which he ſware to our Forefather Abraham,

74. To cauſe us to ſerve him without Fear, being delivered from the Power of our Enemies,

75. In Holineſs and Righteouſneſs before him, all the Days of our Life.

76. And thou Child ſhalt be called the Prophet of the Higheſt: for thou wilt go before the Face of the Lord, to prepare his Ways:

77. To give the Knowledge of Salvation to his People, in the Forgiveneſs of their Sins;

78. By the Affections of the Mercy of our God, in which the Sun-riſing from on high has viſited us;

79. To appear to thoſe who ſit in Darkneſs and the Shadow of Death, to direct our Feet into the Way of Peace.

80. So the Child grew, and became ſtrong in Spirit, and was in the Wilderneſs till the Day of his ſhewing to Iſrael.

CHAP. II.

NOW in thoſe Days there came out an Order from Ceſar Auguſtus, that all the World ſhould be enrolled.

2. (This Enrolling was the firſt of what was done when Cyrenius was Governor of Syria)

3. So all went to be enrolled, each to his own City.

4. And Joſeph alſo went up from Galilee, out of the City of Nazareth, into Judea, to the City of David, which is called Bethlehem (by reaſon he was of the Family and Offspring of David)

5. To be enrolled with Mary an eſpouſed Wife to him, who was with Child.

6. And while they were there, the Days were fully up for her to be delivered:

7. As ſhe was of her Firſt-born Son, whom ſhe ſwathed up, and laid in a Manger, becauſe there was not Room for them in the Inn.

8. There were alſo Shepherds in that Country abiding in the Field, and keeping Watch over their Flock at Night.

9. And behold an Angel of the Lord came there, and the Glory of the Lord ſhone about them: at this ſeized as they were with a great Fear,

10. The Angel ſaid to them; Fear not: for behold I declare to you great Joy, which will be for all People.

11. Becauſe there is born to you this Day the Saviour, who is Chriſt the Lord.

13. Of a ſudden too there was with the Angel a Multitude of the heavenly Army, praiſing God, and ſaying,

14. Glory be in the higheſt Places to God, and on the Earth Peace, good Will among Men.

15. As ſoon as the Angels were gone away from them into Heaven, the Men who were Shepherds ſaid one to another, Let us go along now to Bethlehem, and ſee this Matter that is come to paſs, which the Lord has made known to us.

16. Accordingly they went in Haſte, and found both Mary and Joſeph, with the Infant lying in the Manger.

17. Which having ſeen, they made known concerning the Matter ſpoken to them about that Child.

18. So that all who heard, wondered at the Things ſpoken to them by the Shepherds.

19. Whereas Mary obſerved all theſe Matters, conſidering them in her Mind.

20. At length the Shepherds returned, glorifying and praiſing God, for all the Things which they had heard and ſeen, according as there was ſpoken to them.

21. And when the eight Days were fully up to circumciſe the Child, his Name alſo was called Jeſus, which it was called by the Angel before he was conceived in the Womb.

22. As likewiſe when the Days of their Cleanſing, according to the Law of Moſes, were fully up, they brought him to Jeruſalem, to preſent to the Lord,

23. (According as it is written in the Law of the Lord, that every Male who opens the Womb, ſhall be called holy to the Lord)

24. And to give a Sacrifice, according to what is ſaid in the Law of the Lord, a Couple of Turtle-doves, or two young Pigeons.

25. When behold there was a Man in Jeruſalem, whoſe Name was Simeon; which Man was righteous and religious, looking for the Comfort of Iſrael; and the Holy Spirit was on him.

26. By whom he was divinely admoniſhed, that he ſhould not ſee Death, before he ſaw the Chriſt of the Lord.

27. Thus he came by the Spirit into the Temple: and when the Parents brought in the Child Jeſus, that they might do according to the Cuſtom of the Law concerning him;

28. He himſelf took him into his Arms, and bleſſed God, and ſaid;

29. Thou now letteſt thy Servant go, Lord, according to thy Word, in Peace:

30. Becauſe my Eyes have ſeen thy Salvation;

31. Which thou haſt prepared before the Face of all People,

32. To be a Light for Revelation to the Gentiles, and the Glory of thy People Iſrael.

33. In the mean while Joſeph, and his Mother, were wondering at the Things ſpoken about him.

34. Beſides Simeon bleſſed them, and ſaid to Mary his Mother; Behold he is put for the Fall and Riſing of many in Iſrael, and for a Sign that will be ſpoken againſt;

35. (And a Sword too will paſs through thy own Soul) that the Reaſonings may be diſcovered out of many Hearts.

36. There was likewiſe Anna a Propheteſs, the Daughter of Phanuel, one of the Tribe of Aſer; ſhe being advanced in many Days, having lived but ſeven Years with a Huſband from her Virginity.

38. She alſo coming thither in that Hour, made confeſſion to the Lord, and ſpoke concerning him to all that looked for Redemption at Jeruſalem.

39. At laſt when they had accompliſhed all Things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their City by Nazareth.

40. So the Child grew, and became ſtrong in Spirit, being full of Wiſdom; and the Grace of God was on him.

41. Now his Parents went yearly to Jeruſalem, at the Feaſt of the Paſſover.

42. And when he was twelve Years old, they going up to Jeruſalem, according to the Ceremony of the Feaſt;

43. And the Days being ended for them to return, the Boy Jeſus ſtaid in Jeruſalem; which Joſeph and his Mother did not know.

44. But ſuppoſing him to be in the Company, they came a Day's Journey; when they looked for him both among the Relations and Acquaintance.

45. Moreover not finding him, they returned to Jeruſalem, and ſought for him.

46. Whom they found three Days after, ſitting in the midſt of the Teachers, and not only hearing them, but enquiring of them:

48. They likewiſe ſeeing him, were ſurprized; and his Mother ſaid to him, Child, why didſt thou do ſo to us? Behold thy Father and I have ſought after thee ſorrowing.

49. But he ſaid to them, What have you ſought after me for? Did not you know that I muſt be in my Father's Affairs?

50. However they underſtood not the Saying which he ſpoke to them.

51. And he went down with them, as alſo came to Nazareth, and was ſubject to them; but his Mother preſerved all theſe Sayings in her Heart.

52. Jeſus further proceeded in Wiſdom and Stature, nay in Favour with God and Man.

CHAP. III.

NOW in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of Tiberius Ceſar, Pontius Pilate being Governor of Judea, Herod Tetrarch of Galilee, his Brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea and the Country of Trachonitis, and Lyſanius Tetrarch of Abilene;

2. Under the high Prieſts Annas and Caiaphas, John the Son of Zacharias had God's Commiſſion in the Wilderneſs.

3. And he came into all the Country about Jordan, preaching the Baptiſm of Repentance, for the Forgiveneſs of Sins:

4. As it is written in the Book of the Words of the Prophet Eſaias, who ſays; There is the Voice of one crying out in the Wilderneſs, Prepare the Way of the Lord, make ſtraight Roads for him.

5. Every Valley ſhall be filled up, and every Mountain and Hill be made low; as alſo the crooked ſhall become ſtraight, and the rough be ſmooth Ways.

6. Nay all Fleſh will ſee the Salvation of God.

7. He ſaid therefore to the Multitude that went forth to be baptized by him; Offſpring of Vipers, who has ſhewn you to flee from the Wrath hereafter?

8. Therefore yield Fruit worthy of Repentance. And do not begin to ſay in your ſelves, We have Abraham for a Father; ſince I tell you that God can from theſe Stones raiſe up Children to Abraham.

9. And now alſo the Ax is put to the Root of the Trees: therefore every Tree that does not yield good Fruit, is cut down, and thrown into the Fire.

10. Whereupon the Multitude aſked him as follows, What then ſhall we do?

11. And he makes anſwer to them, Let him who has two Coats, impart to him that has none; and let him who has Meat, do in like Manner.

12. Nay there came alſo Publicans to be baptized, and ſaid to him, Maſter, what ſhall we do?

13. To whom he ſaid, Do no more than is ordered you.

15. Now the People expecting, and all reaſoning in their Hearts concerning John, whether or no he was Chriſt;

16. John made anſwer to them all; I indeed baptize you with Water; but there comes one ſtronger than I, the Latchet of whoſe Shoes I am not fit to undo, that will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and Fire.

17. Whoſe Fan is in his Hand, and he will cleanſe out his Floor; putting the Wheat together into his Granary, but will burn up the Chaff with unquenchable Fire.

18. Therefore indeed many other Things alſo exhorting, he preached to the People.

19. At length Herod the Tetrarch being convicted by him, concerning Herodias the Wife of his Brother Philip, and concerning all the wicked Things which Herod had done;

20. Added likewiſe this above them all, that he ſhut up John in Priſon.

21. But when all the People were baptized, Jeſus being baptized, and praying, the Heaven was opened;

22. And the Holy Spirit came down in a bodily Appearance, as a Dove on him; when there was a Voice from the Heaven ſaid, Thou art my beloved Son, with thee I am pleaſed.

Ver. 21. when] Whitby in his Examen Milii ſays this is wanting in MSS. as if in divers or all Manuſcripts, for he mentions all the Verſions and no MS. that has it, tho' the Ethiop. Verſion too has it not; thus in his Manner he tells us from Mills where it is wanting, and yet Mills does not ſay ſo of any MS. but relates that one only and the Eth. Verſ. have after for when. What an Anſwer to Mills is this! but ſuch as may ſtand among Whitby's, than which perhaps I never peruſed any Treatiſe more incorrect.

Ver. 23. beginning, was] Verbally, or joined together began; but without to be, which makes poor Senſe. It may refer to Ch. iv. 1.

Ib. that] only an Article in Gr. but what is far worſe in the com. Eng. than merely adding in [which] is its being made a Relative to the Perſon next before, inſtead of [Son] here, and ſo making Matthew and Luke irreconcileable; for how could Joſeph have two Fathers, Heli and Jacob, Mat. i. 16? Whereas now, and as modern Writers expound, Mary the Mother of Jeſus being the Daughter of Heli, Jeſus himſelf, not Joſeph, was the Son of Heli lineally, and ſo at laſt he, and not Adam, the Son of God. Thus the two Genealogies are not ſo much as redundant, but on the contrary very neceſſary, this being Mary's, and the other in Mat. Joſeph's. And indeed if one is not hers, how is Jeſus proved hence to be of the Offspring of David according to the Fleſh, as in Rom. i. 3. John vii. 42. Acts xiii. 23? Or to what Purpoſe did Luke add this to Matthew's? Whitby's Diſcourſe to the contrary, is ſo confuſed and infirm, that a clear-headed Reader may peruſe it for farther Confirmation. In ſeveral Places of the learned Broughton's Works in a large Folio, may be ſeen how he exclaims againſt our Tranſlators for putting it as they have done; and the Biſh. Bib. 1575, in a Page for that Purpoſe, has Heli the natural Father of the Virgin Mary.

Ib. Heli] According to Tradition, the Father of Mary the Mother of Jeſus, was named Joakim; but Mills ſhews that Eliakim was a ſynonymous Name to Joakim, and Eli to Eliakim, Prol. 668, 669.

Ver. 36. Cainan] Though Whitby makes a very great Matter of this Name being here, and not in Gen. nor Chron. reſerving it till after his 15 Years Study in the Paraphraſe and Commentary on the New Teſtament, yet at laſt he has neither, as I think, taken the beſt nor right Determination, in his 1ſt Pref. not the beſt, becauſe he brings it to a Corruption, not inſerted by Luke; nor the right, ſince he labours to ſhew it was not with the Septuag. as their own, but an Addition in ſome Copies (and ſo corrupt indeed, and would be too great a Blemiſh in our Bible) which is doubly unaccountable (and therefore I ſuppoſe wrong) how it came thus into their Verſion, and being only a various Reading from thence into Luke. Whereas it is eaſily to be accounted for, that the LXX themſelves put it into Gen. xi. 12. to increaſe the Length of Time, as they added 100 Years to the Age of ſeveral others, in order to match the pretended Antiquity in Egypt, where that Tranſlation was made; and that Luke followed them in this, as he did in the ſeventy five, Acts vii. 14. &c. according to which it is right, as a Quotation from them in Conformity to the vulgar Reading; ſee the Note of Mills. Beza left it out of his Tranſ. following, he ſays the Authority of Moſes, and a very old Copy (but withal very erroneous) that he had; for which the Rhemiſh Tranſlators expoſe him in their Pref.

CHAP. IV.

SO Jeſus being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from Jordan, and was led in the Spirit into the Wilderneſs,

2. Being forty Days tempted by the Devil; during which Time he did not eat any Thing, but when they were finiſhed, he afterwards was hungry.

3. With that the Devil ſaid to him, If thou art the Son of God, command this Stone that it ſhould become Bread.

4. And Jeſus returned this Anſwer to him; It is written, Man ſhall not live upon Bread alone, but upon every Word of God.

5. The Devil further bringing him up to a high Mountain, ſhewed him all the Kingdoms of the World in a Moment of Time.

6. And he ſaid to him; I will give thee all this Authority, with the Glory of them; ſince it is delivered to me, and I give it to whomſoever I will.

7. If thou therefore wilt worſhip before me, all ſhall be thine.

8. At which Jeſus made anſwer to him; Be gone behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou ſhalt worſhip the Lord thy God, and ſerve him alone.

9. He alſo brought him into Jeruſalem, and ſetting him on a Turret of the Temple, ſaid to him, If thou art the Son of God, throw thy ſelf down hence:

10. For it is written, He will command his Angels concerning thee, to keep thee;

11. And they will hold thee up in their Hands, leſt at any time thou ſhouldeſt ſtrike thy Foot againſt a Stone.

12. But Jeſus made reply to him, It is ſaid, Thou ſhalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13. Thus the Devil finiſhing all the Temptation, departed from him till the Time.

14. And Jeſus returned in the Power of the Spirit into Galilee; at length the Fame concerning him went forth throughout the Country round about.

15. Moreover he taught in their Synagogues, being extolled by all.

16. He likewiſe came to Nazareth, where he was bred up; and entered into the Synagogue according to his Cuſtom, on the Sabbath-day, and ſtood up to read.

17. When there was delivered to him the Book of the Prophet Eſaias; which unfolding, he found the Place where it was written;

18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, becauſe he has anointed me to preach to the Poor; has ſent me to heal thoſe who are of a broken Heart, to proclaim Diſcharge to the Captives, and receiving ſight to the Blind, to ſend the Bruiſed away diſcharged;

19. To proclaim the acceptable Year of the Lord.

20. Then he folded up the Book, and delivering it to the Miniſter, ſate down; when the Eyes of all thoſe in the Synagogue were looking ſtedfaſtly at him.

21. And he began to ſay to them, To Day this Scripture is fulfilled in your Hearing.

22. Upon which they all teſtified for him, and wondered at the gracious Words that came out of his Mouth, and ſaid, Is not this the Son of Joſeph?

23. And he replied to them; You will entirely ſay to me this Proverb, Phyſician, cure thy ſelf: what Things ſoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do alſo here in thy own Country.

24. But added he; I ſay to you certainly, that no Prophet is accepted in his own Country;

25. Nay in Truth I tell you, there were many Widows in Iſrael in the Time of Elias,

Ver. 1. in the Spirit] as at Rev. i. 10. and more explicitly here in Ver. 14.

Ver. 2. afterwards] which Mills publiſhes to be Matthew's, Proſ. 415. as often; but I would know why Mark might not as well follow him.

Ver. 7. all] Though a great many have it ſingular, the received Reading is all the Things, but I follow ours.

Ver. 8. Be gone behind me, Satan] Some have not this, and Grotius ſuppoſed none of the Greeks before Theophylact owned it here, which Whitby anſwers: Mills counts it taken from Mat. behind me being added afterwards; but the laſt, tho' of much greater Moment than the other, Whitby ſays is not worth ſearching out. On the Suppoſition that it is authentick, by the Authority and Advantage of its Copies, the Vulg. might draw others into the Omiſſion of it, and that may be found the likelieſt Caſe. How ſtrange alſo would it be for this Place to be twice corrupted by Addition, and for behind me to be put in here by the Scribes, and not in Mat. yet for that to be added when the reſt was taken from Mat. would be ſtranger ſtill.

Ib. for] a great many are without, and Grotius thought was added, being one too forward that Way.

Ver. 14. Galilee] where he now ſpent ſome Years in a private Life, Wall, Whitby, Uſher, &c. as it ſeems about three and a half.

Ver. 18. to heal thoſe who are of a broken Heart] Nothing will ſerve Mills, as two Copies, ſome Tranſlations and Authors are without it, but that this is ſupplied from the Verſion τῶν ὁ, of the Septuagint, viz. Iſa. lxi. 1. and by Grot. from the Heb. juſt as if Luke, or rather Jeſus, would not quote or read the Scripture right.

Ib. receiving ſight to the Blind] in the Verſion of the LXX Iſa. lxi. 1. from which Jeſus may be ſuppoſed to read, and as not in the Heb. there, taken from Ch. xlii. 7.

Ver. 23. done in Capernaum] which according to Wall's Critical Notes follow after out of Courſe, at Ver. 31, 33, &c. compared with Mark i. 21, 23.

when the Heaven was ſhut up for three Years and ſix Months, when a great Famine was in all the Country ;

26. And to none of them was Elias ſent, excepting into Sarepta of Sidon, to a Widow Woman.

27. There were likewiſe many Lepers in Iſrael under the Prophet Eliſeus ; and none of them was cleanſed, excepting Neeman the Syrian.

28. At this all in the Synagogue who heard theſe Things, were full of Wrath ;

29. And riſing up, put him forth without the City ; and brought him to the Brow of the Hill, on which their City was built, to throw him down headlong.

30. Whereas he going through the midſt of them, went away.

31. He went down too into Capernaum a City of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbaths :

32. Inſomuch that they were ſurprized at his Doctrine ; ſince his Word was with Authority.

33. Beſides in the Synagogue there was a Man who had the Spirit of an unclean Devil, and he cried out aloud,

34. Saying, Let alone, what haſt thou to do with us, Jeſus of Nazareth ? Art thou come to deſtroy us ? I know who thou art, the Holy One of God.

35. However Jeſus rebuked him thus, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Accordingly the Devil throwing him in the midſt of them, came out of him, and did him no more hurt.

36. And there was Aſtoniſhment in them all, and they talked together one to another as follows, What Word is this, that with Authority and Power he bids the unclean Spirits, and they come out ?

37. Whereupon the Noiſe concerning him went forth into every Place of the Country round about.

38. Next getting up out of the Synagogue, he entered into the Houſe of Simon ; whoſe Mother-in-law was oppreſſed with a great Fever, and they intreated him concerning her.

39. Upon this he ſtanding over her, rebuked the Fever, and it left her ; ſo that ſhe immediately got up, and waited on them.

40. And the Sun ſetting, all whoever had thoſe weak with various Diſeaſes, brought them to him ; and he putting Hands on each of them, cured them.

41. Even Devils alſo came forth from many, crying out in this manner, Thou art Chriſt, the Son of God ; but he rebuking, did not let them ſpeak, becauſe they knew him to be Chriſt.

42. At length when it was Day, being gone out, he went into a deſart Place ; yet the Multitude ſought after him, and came to him, and held him that he might not go from them.

43. But he ſaid to them, I muſt preach the Kingdom of God alſo to other Cities, becauſe for this I am ſent.

44. Accordingly he preached in the Synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

NOW while the Company were urgent at him to hear the Word of God, he was ſtanding by the Lake Geneſaret.

2. By which he ſaw two Ships ſtanding ; but the Fiſhermen being gone down from them, were waſhing the Nets.

3. So going aboard one of the Ships which was Simon's, he intreated him to put off a little from the Land ; and ſitting down he taught the Multitude out of the Ship.

4. At length as he left off ſpeaking, he ſaid to Simon, Put off into the Deep, and let down your Nets for a Draught.

5. To whom Simon made anſwer, Maſter,

Ver. 33. the Spirit of an unclean Devil] Some officious Scribe thinking an unclean Devil was ſufficient or more proper, ſeems to have altered it ſo, it being thus with a few. Whereas the Opinion of Mills ſeems too diſingenuous, if not abſurd (for the ſake perhaps of his beloved vulg. Lat. authenticated by the Popiſh Council of Trent) for that to be Luke's own, and this now of ours Mark's ; when he ſo much inculcates, that Luke keeps the other's Words. Spirit, he ſays, was firſt prefix'd ; but Mark has it in a different Termination, Ch. i. 23. and who would deſignedly put a Spirit an unclean Devil, though one Copy may have it ſo by Miſtake ? Afterwards, adds he, it was changed as now for right Conſtruction. Was that other Reading then prevalent before ? Incredible ! Or would ſuch as thought it ungrammatical alter it without conſulting other Copies ?

Ib. aloud] We are told by Mills theſe Words in the Original are crept in, as lacking in the Gothick Verſion, and one MS. but, adds our Author, Mark does not own them. The more Sign, ſay I, that they are genuine.

Ver. 35. Two Verſes Mark i. 25, 26. an Inſtance how ill they were parted.

Ib. no more] See Mark i. 26.

Ver. 41. art Chriſt] Some few are without this Chriſt, which Mills aſcribes to Mat. Prol. 416. yet no ſuch Word appears in the parallel Paſſage Ch. viii. 16.

Ver. 42. being gone out] viz. long before Day, Mark i. 35. not departed when it was day, but went into the Deſart then.

Ver. 1. Now] After thoſe of the two Ships, Ver. 2. had been fiſhing all Night unſucceſsfully, Ver. 5. and were near come to Land, I ſuppoſe, Jeſus walking there, called to Simon and Andrew as they were caſting a Net (not to waſh it, as Ham. and Whitby merely fancy, but) for fiſhing, Mat. iv. 18, 19. and ſo on Ver. 20, 21, 22. a little after on the ſame Day a Company reſorted to him, as in this Verſe, and the two Ships, or Boats as Ham. calls them, lying there vacant, becauſe the Servants were gone out, and waſhing (not had waſhed, as our Commentators would ſtrain it) the Nets, Ver. 2. the Narrative proceeded as here follows.

in labouring the whole Night long, we have taken Nothing; yet at thy Word I will let down the Net.

6. And doing this, they incloſed a great Multitude of Fiſhes, inſomuch that their Net was torn aſunder.

7. Upon this they beckoned to the Partners in the other Ship, to come and help them; who came, and filled both the Ships, ſo that they were ſinking.

8. Which Simon Peter ſeeing, fell down at the Knees of Jeſus, ſaying, Go forth from me, Lord, becauſe I am a Man that am a Sinner.

9. For Aſtoniſhment ſeized him and all thoſe with him, at the Draught of Fiſhes which they had taken;

10. And in like Manner alſo James and John, the Sons of Zebedee, who were Partakers with Simon. And Jeſus ſaid to Simon, Do not fear, henceforth thou ſhalt be a Catcher of Men alive.

11. With that they brought away the Ships to Land, and leaving all, followed him.

12. And when he was at one of the Cities, there was a Man full of Leproſy, who ſeeing Jeſus, fell on the Face, and prayed him, ſaying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canſt cleanſe me.

13. Whereupon he ſtretching forth the Hand, touched him, and ſaid, I will; be thou cleanſed: and preſently the Leproſy went away from him.

14. And he ordered him to tell Nobody; but going away, ſhew thy ſelf to the Prieſt, and offer for thy Cleanſing, as Moſes commanded, for a Teſtimony to them.

15. Nevertheleſs the Diſcourſe concerning him went about the more; and great Multitudes came together to hear, and to be cured by him of their Ailments.

16. Afterwards he withdrew into the Wilderneſs, and prayed.

17. Beſides on one of the Days he was teaching, when the Phariſees and Teachers of the Law were ſitting, who were come out of every Town in Galilee, Judea and Jeruſalem; and there was the Power of the Lord to heal thoſe.

18. And behold Men carried on a Bed a Perſon who had the Palſy; whom they ſought to bring in, and put before him.

19. When not finding in what Manner they might bring him in by reaſon of the Company, they went up on the Roof, and let him down through the Tiling with the Couch, into the midſt before Jeſus.

20. Who at ſeeing their Faith, ſaid to him, Man, thy Sins are forgiven thee.

21. At which the Scribes and Phariſees began to reaſon thus, Who is this that ſpeaks Blaſphemies? Who can forgive Sins, excepting God alone?

22. Whereas Jeſus knew their Reaſonings, and made anſwer to them, What do ye reaſon in your Hearts?

23. Which is eaſier, to ſay, Thy Sins are forgiven thee; or to ſay, Ariſe, and walk?

24. But that you may perceive, the Man has Authority on the Earth to forgive Sins (he ſaid to him who had the Palſy,) I order thee, Ariſe, and taking up thy Couch, go home.

25. Accordingly he forthwith riſing before them, took up that which he lay on, and went away home, glorifying God.

26. Amazement ſeized them all at this, and they glorified God; nay were full of Fear, ſaying, We have ſeen admirable Things to Day.

27. After which he went out, and beheld a Publican named Levi, ſitting at the Cuſtom-houſe, and ſaid to him, Follow me.

28. So leaving all, he roſe up, and followed him.

29. Moreover Levi made a great Feaſt for him in his Houſe; and there was much Company of Publicans, and others who were ſitting with them.

30. Therefore their Scribes and Phariſees murmured to his Diſciples, ſaying, For what reaſon do ye eat and drink with Publicans and Sinners?

31. And Jeſus made anſwer to them, Such as are well have no Need of a Phyſician, but thoſe who are ill.

32. I am not come to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance.

33. In the next place they ſaid to him, For what reaſon, when the Diſciples of John faſt frequently, and make Prayers, and in like Manner thoſe of the Phariſees, do thine eat and drink?

34. However he ſaid to them? Can you make the Sons of the Bridegroom faſt, while he is with them?

35. But the Days alſo will come when the Bridegroom will be taken away from them, then ſhall they faſt in thoſe Days.

36. And he alſo ſpoke a Similitude to them; None puts a Patch of a new Garment upon an old one; for if ſo both the new does rend, and the Patch from the new agrees not with the old.

37. None likewiſe puts new Wine into old Bottles; for if ſo the new Wine will break the Bottles, be ſhed out, and the Bottles will periſh;

38. But new Wine is to be put into new Bottles, and both are preſerved together.

39. Nay none having drunk old, preſently would have new: for he ſays, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

AND he went on the firſt Sabbath after the ſecond Day of the Paſſover through the ſtanding Corn; and his Diſciples plucked the Ears, and did eat, rubbing in the Hands.

2. But ſome of the Phariſees ſaid to them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?

3. And Jeſus made anſwer to them; Have you not read this which David himſelf did, when he was hungry, and thoſe who were with him?

4. How he entered into the Houſe of God, and did take and eat the Preſence-bread, and gave alſo to thoſe with him; which it is not lawful to eat, excepting for the Prieſts only.

5. He ſaid further to them, The Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.

6. Now in another Sabbath alſo he entered into the Synagogue, and taught; and a Man was there, whoſe right Hand was withered.

7. At which the Scribes and Phariſees watched him, whether he would cure in the Sabbath, that they might find an Accuſation of him.

8. Whereas he knew their Reaſonings, and ſaid to the Man who had the Hand withered, Get up, and ſtand in the midſt of them; which he did accordingly.

9. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them; I will aſk you Something, Is it lawful to do good, or to do evil on the Sabbath? to ſave Life, or to deſtroy?

10. When looking round about at them all, he ſaid to the Man, Stretch forth thy Hand; and he doing ſo, that was reſtored as ſound as the other.

11. Upon this they were full of Madneſs, and talked publickly one to another what they ſhould do to Jeſus.

12. At that Time alſo he went out on a Mountain to pray, and paſſed the Night in Prayer to God.

13. And when it was Day, he called to his Diſciples; and choſe out from them twelve, whom he alſo named Apoſtles;

14. Simon, whom he alſo named Peter, and his Brother Andrew, James, and John, Philip, and Bartholomew,

15. Matthew, and Thomas, James of Alpheaus, and Simon called Zelotes,

16. And Judas the Brother of James, and Judas Iſcariot, who alſo was the Betrayer.

17. Afterwards Jeſus going down with them, ſtood in a Place of the Plain; with the Company of his Diſciples, and a great Multitude of People from all Judea, and Jeruſalem, nay the Sea-coaſt of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their Diſeaſes;

18. As alſo thoſe that were troubled by unclean Spirits: and they were cured.

19. And all the Company endeavoured to touch him; becauſe there went out Power from him, and healed them all.

20. Beſides he looking up on his Diſciples, ſaid: Bleſſed are you that are poor; ſince the Kingdom of God is yours.

21. Bleſſed are ye who are hungry now; ſince you will be filled. Bleſſed are ye that weep now; ſince you will laugh.

22. Bleſſed will ye be when People ſhall hate you, when they ſhall ſeparate you, reproach, and caſt out your Name as wicked, for the Man's ſake.

Ver. 36. the Patch] is not found with divers, and Mills aſſerts crept from the former Part of the Ver. Prol. 1378. he being at laſt much inclined to that Way of thinking; but is there not much more Probability it was left out becauſe there, and as that is by fewer than thoſe he ſuppoſes took it in?

Ver. 1. firſt Sabbath] The ſecond firſt Sabbath, as it is in the Original, being the firſt Sabbath of ſome ſecond.

Ver. 5. There is ſubjoined to this Verſe in two Manuſcript Greek Copies, both as Junius ſays very old, and I think was in that called The Goſpel of Nicodemus; On the ſame Day ſeeing one at work on the Sabbath, he ſaid to him, Man, if thou knoweſt indeed what thou art doing, thou art bleſſed; but if thou doſt not know, thou art curſed, and a Tranſgreſſor of the Law: of which however Beza ſays, it did not ſeem to him to ſavour of the Majeſty or Truth of the Goſpel.

Ver. 16. the Brother] as Jud. 1.

23. Be

23. Be glad at that Time, and ſkip for joy; for behold your Reward will be much in Heaven: for according to theſe Things your Forefathers did to the Prophets.

24. But wo is to you rich ones; ſince ye receive your Comfort.

25. Wo is to you who are filled; ſince ye will be hungry. Wo is to you who laugh; ſince ye will lament, and weep.

26. Wo is to you, when all Men ſhall ſpeak well of you: for according to theſe Things your Forefathers did to the falſe Prophets.

27. On the other hand I ſay to you who hear; Love your Enemies, do well to them that hate you,

28. Bleſs them that curſe you, and pray for ſuch as moleſt you.

29. To him that gives thee a Blow on the Cheek, yield alſo the other; and to him who takes away thy Coat, do not forbid alſo the Waiſtcoat.

30. Nay give to every one that aſks of thee, and aſk not again from him who takes away thy Things.

31. And as ye are willing that Men ſhould do to you, do ye alſo to them in like Manner.

32. Since if ye love but thoſe who love you, what Favour is yours? For even Sinners love thoſe that love them.

33. If ye likewiſe do good but to ſuch as do good to you, what Favour is yours? For even Sinners do ſo.

34. And if you lend to thoſe from whom you hope to receive back, what Favour is yours? For even Sinners lend to Sinners, that they may receive back equal.

35. But love your Enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for Nothing back; ſo your Reward will be much, and you will be the Sons of the Higheſt; ſince he is kind to the Unthankful, and the Wicked.

36. Become therefore merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

37. As likewiſe do not judge, and you will not at all be judged: do not condemn, and you will not at all be condemned: releaſe, and you will be releaſed.

38. Give, and there will be given to you, good Meaſure, ſqueezed, ſhaken, and running over will People give into your Boſom: for with the ſame Meaſure which you meaſure, there will be meaſured again to you.

39. Moreover he ſpoke a Similitude to them: Can a blind Perſon guide a blind one? Will not both fall into a Pit?

40. A Scholar is not above his Teacher; but every one who is compleated will be as his Teacher.

41. And why doſt thou look at the Mote in thy Brother's Eye, and not obſerve the Piece in thy own?

42. Or how canſt thou ſay to him, Brother, let me pull out the Mote in thy Eye, not ſeeing thy ſelf the Piece in thy own? O Hypocrite, pull firſt the Piece out of thy own Eye; and then thou wilt ſee throughly to pull forth the Mote in thy Brother's.

43. For a good Tree does not yield corrupt Fruit, nor yet a corrupt one that which is good.

44. Since each Tree is known by its own Fruit: for People do not pick off Figs from Briers, nor gather Grapes from a Buſh.

45. A good Man from the good Treaſure of his Heart produces a good Thing; and a wicked Man from the wicked Treaſure of his Heart produces a wicked Thing: for his Mouth ſpeaks from the Abundance of the Heart.

46. And why do you call me, Lord, Lord, and not do the Things which I ſay?

47. Every one that comes to me, and hears my Words, and does them, I will ſhew you whom he is like.

48. He is like a Man that built a Houſe, who digged, and that deep, and laid the Foundation on a Rock: then there being an Inundation, the Flood daſhed on that Houſe, and it could not be ſhaken; ſince it was founded on a Rock.

49. But he that hears, and not does, is like a Man who built a Houſe on Earth without a Foundation: on which the Flood daſhed; ſo that it preſently fell, and the Overthrow of that Houſe became great.

Ver. 23. ſkip for joy] comparatively.

Ib. to you] being abſent from many Books, Mills ſays crept in, Prol. 1230. but he was quite too partial towards ſuch Subductions, I hope not to make his Work the more important; though if I had a leſs Opinion of his Sincerity, I might ſuſpect it.

Ib. all] Mills thought put in, being indeed out of divers, Prol. 820, 1230. after he had ſaid in his Note here, There is no Cauſe for it to be added, ſome for it to be taken away, which conſiderable Argument of his own he does not anſwer.

Ver. 38. you meaſure] Why is withal thruſt in here in the Biſhops and K's Tranſlations, without diſtinguiſhing it too, any more than at Mat. vii. 2?

Ver. 42. How much better this long Verſe is parted Mat. vii. 4, 5. though both together ſhorter! But how diſcordant is the Partition there and here?

CHAP. VII.

NOW after he had compleated all his Words in the Hearing of the People, he entered into Capernaum.

2. When a Servant of a certain Centurion, who was dear to him, was ill, and about to die.

3. But hearing about Jeſus, he ſent to him ſome Elders of the Jews, intreating him, that he would come, and ſave his Servant.

4. So being come to Jeſus, they beſought him earneſtly, ſaying, that he was worthy on whom he ſhould beſtow this.

5. For he loves our Nation, and has himſelf built us a Synagogue.

6. Accordingly Jeſus went with them, and he being now not far diſtant from the Houſe, the Centurion ſent to him Friends, ſaying to him; Lord, do not trouble thy ſelf: for I am not fit that thou ſhouldeſt enter under my Roof.

7. Therefore neither did I count my ſelf worthy to come to thee; but ſpeak in a Word, and my Lad will be healed.

8. For thus I, who am a Man appointed to be in Authority, having Soldiers under me; ſay to one, Go, and he goes; to another, Come, and he comes; and to my Servant, Do this, and he does.

9. And when Jeſus heard theſe Things, he wondered at him, and turning about, ſaid to the Company who followed him; I tell you, I have not found ſo much Faith in Iſrael.

10. And thoſe that were ſent returning to the Houſe, found the Servant who was ſick become well.

11. Beſides on the Day following he went to a City called Nain; when many of his Diſciples went with him, and a great Company.

12. Now as he came near the Gate of the City, behold alſo one dead was carried out, the only begotten Son of his Mother, and ſhe a Widow; with whom there was much Company of the City.

13. And the Lord ſeeing her, was moved with Affection to her, and ſaid to her, Do not weep.

14. Next he went near, and touched the Coffin (thoſe who carried it ſtanding ſtill) and ſaid, Young Man, I ſay to thee, Riſe up.

15. At this the dead one ſate up, and began to ſpeak; and he gave him to his Mother.

16. Upon which Fear ſeized them all, and they glorified God, ſaying, A great Prophet is riſen up among us; and God has viſited his People.

17. Nay this Account went forth in all Judea concerning him, and in the whole Country round about.

18. Moreover the Diſciples of John told him of all theſe Things.

19. Who called thither two in particular of them, and ſent to Jeſus enquiring, Art thou he who was to come, or are we to expect another?

20. And the Men being come to him, ſaid; John the Baptizer ſent us to thee with Enquiry, Art thou he who was to come, or are we to expect another?

21. In that Hour too he cured many of Diſeaſes, Sores, and wicked Spirits; nay to many blind ones he gave Sight.

22. Whereupon Jeſus made anſwer to them; Go, and tell John what Things you ſee and hear; that the Blind have ſight, the Lame walk, the Leapers are cleanſed, the Deaf hear, the Dead are raiſed up, the Poor are preached to;

23. And whoever ſhall not be offended at me is bleſſed.

24. Beſides when John's Meſſengers were gone away, he began to ſpeak to the Multitude concerning John; What did you go out into the Wilderneſs to ſee? A Reed ſhaken by the Wind?

25. But what went you out to look at? A Man dreſſed in ſoft Cloaths? Behold thoſe who are in gay Cloathing and Pleaſure, are in Palaces.

26. However what went you out to look at? A Prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a Prophet.

27. This is he of whom it is written, Behold I ſend my Meſſenger before thy Face, who ſhall make ready thy Way before thee.

28. For I ſay to you; There is not a greater Prophet, among thoſe that are born of Women,

Ver. 11. many of] Strange, if not incredible, is the Relation which Mills gives, for this to have crept in (irrepſiſſe, a trite Word with him) from the following Verſe, did not he put to it videtur, it ſeems, viz. to himſelf, Prol. 416. when it is uſed of different Perſons, and here plur. there ſing. and that only the twelve were in that great Company is unlikely, as well as without any Proof.

Ver. 16. ſaying, A] Both the ὅτι here, which otherwiſe ſignify that, being apparently Expletives, as ſometimes.

Ver. 22. Jeſus] is Matthew's, ſays Mills in his Manner, Prol. 417. but as it was not ſuperfluous in Mat. xi. 4. why ſhould Luke leave it out, to give others Occaſion to add it in?

Ver. 24. Multitude] as Mat. xi. 7.

Ver. 25. in brilliant Cloathing] So the Gr. has a Prep. Adj. and Subſt.

Ver. 27. before thee] not in two very odd Copies, yet adjudged to Mat. by Mills.

Ver. 28. Prophet] about a Dozen are without, and Mills eſteemed it born of an Interpretation, that the Baptiſt might not be ſaid to be greater than Chriſt himſelf; but would not ſuch careful Notioniſts then have added it likewiſe in Mat. xi. 11.? And how much likelier was it omitted here, becauſe there!

men,

men, than John the Baptizer; yet the leaſt in the Kingdom of God is greater than he.

29. And all the People who heard, with the Publicans, juſtified God, being baptized with the Baptiſm of John.

30. Whereas the Phariſees and Expounders of the Law rejected the Counſel of God to themſelves, being not baptized by him.

31. The Lord alſo ſaid; To what therefore ſhall I liken the Men of this Generation? And what are they like?

32. They are like Boys that ſit in the Market, and calling one to another, ſay, We have piped to you, and ye not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye not cried.

33. For John the Baptizer is come neither eating Bread, nor drinking Wine; and you ſay, He has a Devil.

34. The Man is come eating and drinking, and you ſay, Behold a Man who is a Glutton and a Wine-drinker, a Friend of Publicans and Sinners..

35. Yet Wiſdom is juſtified by all its Children.

36. And one of the Phariſees intreated him, that he would eat with him; ſo going into his Houſe, he ſate down.

37. When behold a Woman in the City, who was a Sinner, knowing that he ſate down in the Phariſee's Houſe, brought an Alabaſter-box of Ointment.

38. And ſtanding by his Feet behind weeping, began to wet them with Tears; and wiped with the Hair of her Head, as alſo kiſſed them, and anointed with the Ointment.

39. Which the Phariſee who invited him ſeeing, he ſaid thus in himſelf, If this was a Prophet, he would have known who, and what ſort of a Woman it is that touches him; ſince ſhe is a Sinner.

40. And Jeſus made anſwer to him, Simon, I have Something to ſay to thee; who replied, Teacher, ſay it:

41. Some Creditor had two Debtors, one owed five hundred Pence, and the other fifty;

42. But they having not to pay, he forgave them both: tell which of them therefore will love him moſt?

43. To which Simon made anſwer, I ſuppoſe he to whom he forgave moſt. And he rejoined to him, Thou haſt judged rightly.

44. Then turning to the Woman, he ſaid to Simon; Doſt thou ſee this Woman? When I came into thy Houſe, thou gaveſt no Water for my Feet; but ſhe wet them with Tears, and wiped with the Hair of her Head.

45. Thou gaveſt me no Kiſs; but ſhe, ſince ſhe came in, has not ceaſed kiſſing my Feet.

49. Thou didſt not anoint my Head with Oil; whereas ſhe has anointed my Feet with Ointment.

47. For which Cauſe I ſay to thee, Her Sins that were many are forgiven, ſince ſhe loved much; but he to whom little is forgiven, loves little.

48. He likewiſe ſaid to her, Thy Sins are forgiven.

46. Upon this they who were ſitting down together began to ſay in themſelves, Who is this that even forgives Sins?

50. Nevertheleſs he ſaid to the Woman, Thy Faith has ſaved thee; go in Peace.

CHAP. VIII.

AND thenceforward he travelled throughout City and Village, proclaiming and preaching the Kingdom of God: the twelve being with him;

Ver. 37. a Woman] That this is not the ſame Perſon nor Hiſtory as in Mat. xxvi, Mark xiv. and John xii. ſee by Hammond here, and Wall's Critical Notes, with Whitby, &c.

Ver. 38. Tears] by Weſley a ſhower of tears; though the original Word ſignifies ſimply Tears, as he himſelf alſo renders it in Ver. 44. and every where elſe.

Ver. 42. tell—of them] Some omit one, or the other, or both of theſe, only at firſt perhaps becauſe it might be done, and then Mills concludes it ſhould. They came, ſays he from the Margin, Prol. 417. but what brought them thither? No Need of Interpretation, or Explanation.

Ver. 43. he] or that he will: for that, as in our com. Reading, diſturbs the Propriety of Speech; and the Gr. Particle may be redundant, as at Ver. 16.

Ver. 45. ſhe came] as ſome Copies and Tranſlations have, and according to the Remark of Doddridge appears undoubtedly right by Ver. 17. and it may be added the common wrong; for how could it be from the Time Jeſus came, which is more expreſs in the Gr. than the Eng. when ſhe was not there at firſt? The Difference is ſo ſmall as o and ε.

Ver. 46. my Feet] Mills ſuſpected to be brought from Ver. 38. though lacking only in three Copies, and neceſſary here.

Ver. 47. ſince] Ham. and Whit. ſtrenuouſly inſiſt this ſhould be therefore, though to ſay ὅτι ſignifies it; in the plain Scripture Style too, is like calling black white, and as for the latter ſaying one of the two muſt bear that Senſe in John xiv. 17. there is not the leaſt Neceſſity for it. Beſides For this Cauſe here is ſtronger than ſince or for, and both agreeable to Ver. 50. and ſince if not caſual, may be demonſtrative.

Ver. 2. were come out] the Form of the preterpluperfect Tenſe to a Verb Neuter, and the ſame as at Ver. 35, 38.

Ver. 3. Joanna] or Joan.

who miniſtered to him of the Things which they had.

4. At laſt when a great Company was together, and coming to him throughout the Cities, he ſaid by a Similitude:

5. A Sower went forth to ſow his Seed. As he was doing this, ſome indeed fell by the Way, ſo that it was trod on, and the Fowls of the Air eat it up.

6. And another Part fell on a Rock, and when it ſprung withered, becauſe it had not Moiſture.

7. Moreover another fell amongſt Briers; which ſpringing together, choaked it.

8. And another fell in good Land, and being ſprung produced Fruit a hundred-fold. Having ſaid theſe Things, he cried out, He that has Ears to hear, let him hear.

9. Afterwards his Diſciples aſked him thus, What may this Similitude be?

10. And he ſaid: It is given you, to know the Myſteries of the Kingdom of God; but to the reſt in Similitudes: that when ſeeing they may not clearly ſee, and hearing they may not underſtand.

11. Now the Similitude is this; The Seed is the Word of God.

12. Next they by the Way, are thoſe who hear; afterwards the Devil comes, and takes away the Word from their Hearts, that they may not believe, and be ſaved.

13. They alſo on the Rock, when they hear, take the Word with Joy; and theſe have not Root, who believe for a Time, and in that of Trial go away.

14. That likewiſe on which it fell among Briers, theſe are who having heard, are choaked as they go on, by the Cares, Riches, and the Pleaſures of Life together, and do not bring it to perfection.

15. That too of good Land, theſe are who having heard the Word, with a good and upright Heart keep, and bear Fruit with Patience.

16. And none lighting a Candle, covers it with a Veſſel, or puts underneath a Bed; but puts upon a Candleſtick, that they who go in may ſee the Light.

17. For there is not a Thing hid, which will not be manifeſt; nor has been hidden, which will not be known, and come to Manifeſtation.

18. Beware therefore how you hear: for to him whoever has, ſhall be given; and from him whoever has not, ſhall be taken even what he ſeems to have.

19. There were moreover come to him his Mother and Brethren, and could not get to be with him for the Company.

20. And it was told him as follows, Thy Mother and thy Brethren ſtand without, who would ſee thee.

21. But he made anſwer to them, My Mother and my Brethren are theſe that hear the Word of God, and do it.

22. One Day alſo he went into a Ship, with his Diſciples, and ſaid to them, Let us go along to the farther Side of the Lake: ſo they went off.

23. But as they ſailed, he fell aſleep; in the mean while there came down a tempeſtuous Wind into the Lake, and they were filled up, ſo as to be in danger.

24. So coming near, they awakened him, and ſaid, Maſter, Maſter, we are periſhing; but he roſe up, and rebuked the Wind, with the Waves of Water; which thereupon left off, and there was a Calm.

25. Beſides he ſaid to them, Where is your Faith? But they were afraid, and wondered, ſaying one to another, Who indeed is this, that he even bids the Winds and Water, and they obey him?

26. At length they were ſailed to the Country of the Gadarenes, which is over againſt Galilee.

Ver. 8. Having ſaid &c.] All this to the End of the Ver. Mills ſays was taken from the Lecturers, and put in the wrong Place, they having it, as alſo ſeveral Copies, at the End of Ver. 15. and it is wanting in a few here, Prol. 1426. What Pity it is that great Man at laſt ſo far fruſtrated the right End of his worthy Labour!

Ver. 14. on which it fell] Let the intelligent Reader conſider how neceſſary this is, with [of] in the next Verſe, and compared with Mat. xiii. 22, 23. Mark iv. 18, 20.

Ver. 19. his Mother and Brethren] Gr. the Mother and Brethren of him, becauſe his is added in the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 25. that] as Mat. viii. 27. Mark iv. 41.

27. When he coming out to Land, there met him ſome Man from the City, who had Devils for a great while, and did not wear Cloathing, nor remain in a Houſe, but among the Tombs.

28. However when he ſaw Jeſus, with crying out, he fell down to him, and ſaid aloud, What haſt thou to do with me, Jeſus, the Son of the Higheſt God? I pray thee, that thou wilt not torment me.

29. For he ordered the unclean Spirit to come out from the Man: ſince it many times caught him; upon which he was bound with Chains, and confined with Fetters; yet he tore the Bonds aſunder, and was driven by the Devil into the Wilderneſs.

30. Whom Jeſus thus aſked, What is thy Name? To which he ſaid, Legion; becauſe there were many Devils entered into him:

31. As alſo beſought him, that he would not bid them go away into the Deep.

32. Now a Herd was there of many Hogs feeding on the Mountain; ſo they did beſeech him, that he would permit them to enter into them, which he did.

33. Accordingly the Devils coming out from the Man, entered into the Hogs; when the Herd ran with violence down a ſteep Place into the Lake, and were choaked.

34. The Keepers then ſeeing what was done, ran away; and being gone, told it both in the City and the Fields.

35. So the People came out to ſee what was done; and when they came to Jeſus, they found the Man ſitting, from whom the Devils were come out, cloathed, and being ſober, at the Feet of Jeſus; at which they were afraid.

36. Nay thoſe alſo who ſaw told them, how he in whom the Devils were was made well.

37. With that all the Multitude of the Gadarenes of the Country round about intreated him, to go away from them, becauſe they were preſſed with great Fear; and he going aboard the Ship, returned.

38. And the Man from whom the Devils were come out prayed him, to be with him; yet Jeſus ſent him away, ſaying,

39. Return to thy Houſe, and tell whatever Things God has done for thee. Accordingly he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole City, all the Things which Jeſus had done for him.

40. At the Return alſo of Jeſus, the Company received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41. When behold there came a Man whoſe Name was Jairus, and he was a Ruler of the Synagogue; and falling down at the Feet of Jeſus, he beſought him to come into his Houſe:

42. Becauſe he had an only begotten Daughter, about twelve Years old, and ſhe was dying. But at his going, the Multitude crouded him.

43. And a Woman that was with a Flux of Blood for twelve Years, who having conſumed her whole Livelihood on Phyſicians, could not be cured by any;

44. Now came near behind, and touched the Skirt of his Garment; and immediately the Flux of her Blood was ſtanched.

45. And Jeſus aſked, Who touches me? But when all denied, Peter ſaid, and thoſe with him, Maſter, the Multitude preſs thee, and throng, and doſt thou enquire, Who touches me?

46. Jeſus notwithſtanding ſaid, Somebody has touched me; for I know that Power is gone out from me.

47. The Woman then ſeeing that ſhe was not hid, came trembling, and when ſhe was fallen down to him, told him before all the People, by what Motive ſhe had touched him, and how ſhe was healed immediately.

48. Upon which he ſaid to her, Take courage, Daughter, thy Faith has made thee well; go in Peace.

49. While he was ſpeaking, Somebody comes from the Ruler of the Synagogue's, ſaying to him, Thy Daughter is dead; do not trouble the Maſter.

50. But Jeſus hearing, made him anſwer, Do not fear; only believe, and ſhe ſhall be made well.

Ver. 27. from the City] not out of, as Grotius and Wall remark, who take it to mean he was one of the City; but I rather think it was from the Tombs at the Outſide of the City.

Ver. 31. As alſo beſought] ſing. the very ſame as in Mark v. 10. and here in Ver. 41. but indeed Beza and the old Lat. have both the ſame Fault, whom our Tranſlators ſeem too implicitly to have followed.

Ver. 33. a ſteep Place] Weſt. the ſteep only.

Ver. 34. being gone] is not in a great Parcel of Books, and by Mills is of Mat. but as Omiſſion in general, and as it appears in Fact, is far likelier than Addition, by Overſight, why not here?

Ver. 36. in whom the Devils were] added, ſays Mills without any Authority at all for it, for the ſake of Clearneſs; but could any one not know who he was? And are the inſpired Writings to be handled thus?

Ver. 42. But at] How unſuitably have our Tranſlators here put a long Parentheſis, and not in Mark v.

Ver. 48. Take courage] Matthew's, ſays Mills; but rather Luke went in his Footſteps.

Ver. 49. the Maſter] Mills ſays is Mark's, Ch. viii. 35. and imagines as at Ver. 36. here ſhould be him for it; but why any more than there? Such Work is blaſted with ſuch Inconſiſtency.

51. In the next place when he went into the Houſe, he let none go in, excepting Peter, James and John, with the Father of the Girl, and the Mother.

52. And as they all wept, and lamented her, he ſaid, Do not weep; ſhe is not dead, but aſleep.

53. At which they derided him, knowing that ſhe was dead.

54. Nevertheleſs he put them all out, and taking hold of her Hand, called out thus, Girl, riſe up.

55. And her Spirit returned, and ſhe aroſe immediately; when he ordered there ſhould be Something given her to eat.

56. Whereupon her Parents were amazed; but he charged them that they ſhould tell Nobody what was done.

CHAP. IX.

AND calling together his twelve Diſciples, he gave them Power and Authority over all Devils, as likewiſe to cure Diſeaſes.

2. Whom he ſent to preach the Kingdom of God, and to heal the Sick.

3. However he ſaid to them; Take Nothing for the Road, neither Sticks, nor a Bag, nor Victuals, nor Money; nor have two Coats apiece.

4. And into whatever Houſe you enter, remain there, and go out thence.

5. And to as many as ever will not receive you; at coming out from that City, ſhake away even the Duſt from your Feet, for a Teſtimony againſt them.

6. So going out, they went through the Towns, preaching and curing every where.

7. Now Herod the Tetrarch heard all that was done by him; and doubted, becauſe it was ſaid by ſome, that John was riſen from the Dead;

8. And by ſome, that Elias appeared; and by others, that one of the old Prophets was riſen up.

9. Whereas Herod ſaid, I have beheaded John; but who is this, concerning whom I hear ſuch Things? Therefore he ſought to ſee him.

10. The Apoſtles alſo returning, told him whatever Things they had done; with that he took them, and withdrew privately into a deſart Place belonging to the City called Bethſaida.

11. Yet the Multitude knowing, followed him; and he receiving them, ſpoke to them concerning the Kingdom of God, and healed thoſe who had need of Cure.

12. At length the Day began to decline; when the twelve came, and ſaid to him, Send the Company away, that they may go hence into the Villages and Fields round about, and lodge, as alſo get Victuals; becauſe we are here in a deſart Place.

13. But he anſwered them, Do ye give them ſome to eat. And they ſaid, There are not with us more than five Loaves, and two Fiſhes; except we ſhould go, and buy Meat for all theſe People:

14. For they were about five thouſand Men. Next he ſaid to his Diſciples, Cauſe them to ſit down by fifties in a Company.

15. And they did ſo, making them all ſit down.

16. When he taking the five Loaves and two Fiſhes, looked up to Heaven, bleſſed them, and broke apart; then gave to the Diſciples, to ſet before the Company.

17. Who did all eat, and were filled; nay there were taken up what was over and above to them of Fragments twelve Baſkets.

18. While he was praying too alone, his Diſciples were with him; and he aſked them as follows, Who do the Multitude ſay that I am?

19. And they made anſwer, John the Baptizer; ſome, Elias; and others, that ſome old Prophet is riſen up.

20. He further enquired of them, But who do you ſay that I am? And Peter made anſwer, The Chriſt of God.

21. Nevertheleſs he charging them, ordered they ſhould tell this to Nobody;

22. Saying, that the Man muſt ſuffer many Things, and be rejected by the Elders, chief Prieſts and Scribes, as alſo be killed, and the third Day be raiſed up.

23. Beſides he ſaid to them all; If any one would come after me, let him deny himſelf, and take up his Croſs daily, and follow me.

Ver. 54. put them all out, and] condemned for Mark's by Mills, Proleg. 417. although he ſo frequently tells how Luke follows Mark.

Ver. 1. his twelve Diſciples] Many have but the twelve, and Mills looked on the other to be taken from the Evangelizers, as tho' he would catch at what he could againſt the received Reading, and ſome have the twelve Apoſtles.

Ver. 3. Sticks] Some have Stick, not well conſiſtent with Mark vi. 8.

Ver. 10. belonging to the City called] Mills diſcharges, as not in one Copy, Prol. 417. yet among his various Readings has from the ſame the Town called (by another Gr. Word;) and as for the Verſions, he quotes them having which is, or what is like it.

Ver. 17. were taken up what] The Gr. having a true Concord ſing. tho' not the Eng. was taken up twelve.

Ver. 18. alone] from the Multitude, as Mark iv. 10. at his private Devotion.

Ver. 23. come] elthein in the 2 Aoriſt, which notwithſtanding Mills quotes Origen to be of Mat. xvi. 24. Pr.

24. For

24. For whoever would ſave his Life, will loſe it; and whoever ſhall loſe his Life for my ſake, he will ſave it.

25. For what Profit will it be to a Man, when he has gained the whole World, but loſt himſelf, or is ruined?

26. For whoever ſhall be aſhamed of me and my Words, of him the Man will be aſhamed, when he comes in his Glory, and the Father's, and the holy Angels.

27. But I tell you truly, There are ſome of them that ſtand here, who will not at all taſte Death, until they ſee the Kingdom of God.

28. About eight Days alſo after theſe Sayings, he taking Peter, and John, with James, went up on a Mountain to pray.

29. Where in his praying, was another Appearance of his Face, and his Cloathing was gliſtering white.

30. Moreover behold two Men talked with him, who were Moſes and Elias;

31. That appearing in Glory, ſpoke of his Deceaſe, which he was about to fulfil at Jeruſalem.

32. But Peter and thoſe with him were heavy with Sleep; however awaking, they ſaw his Glory, and two Men ſtanding with him.

33. And at their parting from him, Peter ſaid to Jeſus, Maſter, it is well that we ſhould be here; and let us make three Tabernacles, one for thee, one for Moſes, and one for Elias: not knowing what he ſaid.

34. Now as he ſpoke, there was a Cloud, and it overſhadowed them; but they were afraid at their entering into it.

35. And there was a Voice out of the Cloud ſaid, This is my beloved Son; hear him.

36. And when the Voice was done, Jeſus only was found; and they held their peace, and declared Nothing of the Things which they ſaw to any one in thoſe Days.

37. Next on the Day following, as they came down from the Mountain, much Company met him.

38. And behold a Man from the Company cried out loud, ſaying; Maſter, I pray thee, look upon my Son, becauſe he is my only begotten one.

39. And lo a Spirit takes him, and he cries out of a ſudden, ſince it tears him with Foaming, and hardly departs from him bruiſing him.

40. So I prayed thy Diſciples, that they would expel him, and they could not.

41. But Jeſus made anſwer, O unbelieving and perverſe Generation, how long ſhall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring thy Son along hither.

42. However while he was coming near, the Devil tore him, and mangled; but Jeſus rebuked the unclean Spirit, and healed the Lad, whom he delivered to his Father.

43. Hereupon they were all ſurprized at the Majeſty of God. And they all wondering at all the Things which Jeſus did, he ſaid to his Diſciples,

44. Do ye lay up theſe Words in your Ears: for the Man is about to be delivered up into the Power of Men.

45. Yet they did not underſtand this Saying, and it was concealed from them, that they might not be ſenſible of it; and they were afraid to aſk him concerning the ſame.

46. Afterwards a Reaſoning entered into them, who it was ſhould be the greateſt of them.

47. And Jeſus knowing the Reaſoning of their Heart, took hold of a little Child, and ſet him by him;

48. And ſaid to them, Whoever ſhall receive this little Child in my Name, receives me; and whoever ſhall receive me, receives him who ſent me: for he that is the leaſt among you all, will be great.

49. But John made anſwer, Maſter, we ſaw Somebody expelling Devils in thy Name; and we forbade him, becauſe he did not follow with us.

50. And Jeſus ſaid to him, Do not forbid; for he that is not againſt us, is for us.

51. At laſt when the Days for him to be taken up were fulfilled, he fixed his Face to go to Jeruſalem.

52. And ſent Meſſengers before himſelf; who going, entered into a Village of the Samaritans, for them to make ready for him.

53. Whereas they did not receive him, becauſe his Face was to go to Jeruſalem.

679. I ſhould chooſe to think Luke followed him, and that it was altered to erchesthai to be more ſuitably as imagined in the preſent Tenſe, as ſome Copies have it.

Ib. daily] many Copies are without, and Mills againſt it, Prol. 676, 1363. tho' Grotius for it; I incline to the former, for though it is notable, it might more likely be added, and as being in 1 Cor. xv. 31. and unlikely to be omitted, whereas the Vulg. having it would promote it, tho' that had it not at firſt.

Ver. 28. eight] The two Days on which the Things were, being added to the ſix whole ones of Mat. and Mark between.

Ver. 36. when the Voice was] ſhewing it ſpoken of Jeſus, not of Moſes nor Elias; and agreeable, as it muſt be, to the Beginning of Ver. 33. as likewiſe to the Gr. which is, in the being of the Voice: ſo that the Vulg. and Eraſ. have dum, while; Caſt. Interea dum, In the mean time while; and a late Eng. Tranſ. before the ſound was gone.

Ver. 42. tore] as in Ch. v. 37. Mat. vii. 6. Mark ix. 18. not threw down.

Ver. 44. lay up theſe Words in your Ears] that is, remember you have heard them.

Ver. 48. will be] Vulg. Lat. &c. is, which Mills allows to be a Miſtake among a few others.

54. Which his Diſciples James and John ſeeing, they ſaid, Lord, wilt thou have us ſpeak for Fire to come down from Heaven, and conſume them, even as Elias did?

55. But he turning about, rebuked them, and ſaid, You know not what Spirit you are of.

56. For the Man is not come to deſtroy, but to ſave Men's Lives. Then they went to another Village.

57. As they were going, Somebody alſo ſaid to him, I will follow thee whither ſoever thou goeſt, Lord.

58. To whom Jeſus ſaid, The Foxes have Holes, and the Fowls of the Air Neſts, but the Man has not where he may lay down the Head.

59. He alſo ſaid to another, Follow me; whereas he anſwered, Lord, permit me firſt that I may go away to bury my Father.

60. But Jeſus replied to him, Leave the Dead to bury their own Dead; and do thou go away, and declare the Kingdom of God.

61. And another likewiſe ſaid, I will follow thee, Lord; but permit me firſt to take leave of thoſe at my Houſe.

62. Upon which Jeſus ſaid to him, None who puts his Hand upon the Plough, and looks backward, is fit for the Kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

AND after theſe Things the Lord alſo pointed out ſeventy others, and ſent them two together before himſelf, into every City and Place whither he was about to go.

2. So he ſaid to them: The Harveſt indeed is great, but the Workmen few; pray therefore to the Maſter of it, that he would ſend forth Workmen into his Harveſt.

3. Go; behold I ſend you like Lambs into the midſt of Wolves.

4. Do not carry a Purſe, nor Bag, nor Shoes; and ſalute none by the Way.

5. Beſides into whatever Houſe you enter, firſt ſay, Let there be Peace to this Houſe.

6. And if indeed the Son of Peace be there, your Peace ſhall reſt upon it; but if otherwiſe, it ſhall turn back upon you.

7. Nay in that Houſe remain, eating and drinking the Things with them: for the Workman is deſerving of his Wages. Do not depart from Houſe to Houſe.

8. And into whatever City alſo you enter, and they receive you, eat the Things ſet before you.

9. As likewiſe cure the Sick in it, and ſay to them, The Kingdom of God is come near you.

10. But into whatever City you enter, and they do not receive you; come forth into the Streets of it, and declare,

11. Even the Duſt that ſticks to us from your City, we wipe off to you; nevertheleſs know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near you.

12. Yet I ſay to you, that it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that Day, than for that City.

13. Wo is to thee, Chorazin, wo is to thee, Bethſaida; ſince if the powerful Things done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented of old, ſitting in Sackcloth and Aſhes.

14. But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon, in the Judgment, than for you.

15. And thou, Capernaum, exalted as thou art to Heaven, will be caſt down to Hell.

16. He who hears you, does me; and he that rejects you, does me; nay he that rejects me, does him who ſent me.

17. At length the Seventy returned with Joy, ſaying, Lord, even the Devils are ſubject to us through thy Name.

18. Whereupon he ſaid to them; I ſaw Satan as Lightning fall from Heaven.

Ver. 54. ſpeak for Fire] In Rider's preſent Propoſals for his Chriſtian's Family Bible, he inſiſts that in 2 Kings i. ſhould be rendered Fire will come down; but this may ſhew it to be otherwiſe, eſpecially with Chriſt's not taking it ſo, as he apparently did not here in Ver. 56. by his making a Diſtinction between his own Work and that particular one of the Prophet; ſee likewiſe the Power of the two Witneſſes, Rev. xi. 5, 6.

Ib. even as Elias did] It did not diſcourage me from vindicating the Scripture, either to find that Mills was turned againſt owning this, or that Kuſter ſo gladly embraced his latter Opinion: for what is the Authority of a Couple of ſtragling Copies, and three looſe Verſions only, when oppoſed to all the reſt? But there is the vulg. Lat. for one, which Mills manifeſtly preferred above the preſent received Original; and what do the Popiſh Writers more? His Query, What ſenſible Perſon would have blotted out ſuch notable Words? may be anſwered by another, How would Luke then have been ſenſible in omitting them? And he who did it might not be very ſanus, ſound, rather than one of the moſt elegant inſpired Penmen.

Ver. 60. Jeſus] Mills, as if to ſwell his Catalogue of Diſcoveries, refers this to Mat. Prol. 419. for lo a very bad Copy, Prol. 1492. and an uncertain Tranſ. are without it.

Ver. 61. to take leave of thoſe at my Houſe] which is what, and all that the Gr. has. The beſt I can make of the vulg. Reading is, that the Tranſlator firſt turned it at home, and then mended it by at my houſe, without croſſing out the other; whereby both were printed, and ſo have continued.

Ver. 1. ſeventy] Very few, but the Vulg. for one, have ſeventy two, from Tradition, ſays Mills; rather firſt from Imagination, of ſix to each Tribe or Apoſtle.

Ver. 11. near] Some have not to you, which Mills therefore pronounces crept from Ver. 9. Prol. 419. but his Credit in this Reſpect is almoſt gone with me.

19. Behold

19. Behold I give you Authority to tread upon Serpents and Scorpions, and over all the Power of the Enemy; nay not any Thing ſhall at all do you injury.

20. Nevertheleſs do not rejoice at this, that the Spirits are ſubject to you; but rather rejoice, that your Names are written in Heaven.

21. At that Hour Jeſus was joyful in Spirit, and ſaid; I make acknowledgment to thee, Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, ſince thou haſt hid theſe Things from the wiſe and underſtanding ones, and revealed them to little Children: yes, O Father; becauſe there has thus been good Will before thee.

22. All Things are delivered to me by my Father: and none knows who the Son is, excepting the Father; and who the Father is, excepting the Son, and he to whom the Son is minded to reveal him.

23. And turning to the Diſciples, he ſaid privately; The Eyes are bleſſed that ſee the Things which you ſee.

24. For I tell you, that many Prophets and Kings would have beheld the Things which you ſee, and did not; and heard the Things which you hear, and did not.

25. And behold ſome Expounder of the Law ſtood up, trying him in this manner, Maſter, what ſhall I do to inherit everlaſting Life?

26. Upon this he ſaid to him, What is written in the Law? How doſt thou read?

27. To which he made anſwer, Thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole Heart, with thy whole Soul, with thy whole Might, and thy whole Mind; and thy Neighbour as thy ſelf.

28. And he ſaid to him, Thou haſt anſwered rightly; do this, and thou wilt live.

29. But he being willing to juſtify himſelf, interrogated Jeſus, And who is my Neighbour?

30. Which Jeſus taking up, ſaid; Some Man went down from Jeruſalem to Jericho, and fell among Robbers; who even ſtripping him, and laying on Blows, went away, and left him being half dead.

31. When as it fell out ſome Prieſt went down that Way, and ſeeing him, paſſed oppoſite.

32. And in like Manner alſo a Levite who was at the Place, coming and ſeeing, paſſed oppoſite.

33. But ſome Samaritan who travelled, came by him; and ſeeing him, was moved with Affection.

34. So that going thither, he bound up his Wounds, pouring in Oil and Wine; then ſetting him on his own Beaſt, he brought him to an Inn, and took care of him.

35. And on the next Day when he went away, pulling out two Pence, he gave to the Landlord, and ſaid to him, Take care of him, and whatſoever thou ſpendeſt more, I will pay thee at my coming back.

36. Which therefore of theſe three, does it ſeem to thee, was Neighbour to him that fell in with the Robbers?

37. To this he anſwered, He who uſed Mercy with him. Jeſus therefore ſaid to him, Go, and do thou in like Manner.

38. Now in their going, he entered into ſome Village; where a certain Woman named Martha received him into her Houſe.

39. And ſhe had a Siſter called Mary, who alſo ſitting by the Feet of Jeſus, heard his Word.

40. But Martha was buſy about much Service, ſo that coming thither, ſhe ſaid, Lord, haſt thou no Care that my Siſter has left me to ſerve alone? Bid her therefore that ſhe ſhould aſſiſt me.

41. On the contrary Jeſus made anſwer to her; Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many Things;

42. Whereas there is Need of one: now Mary has choſen the good Part, which will not be taken away from her.

Ver. 20. rather] Such Abundance are without it, that one can ſcarce pretend it is genuine.

Ver. 22. Mills begins with, And turning to the Diſciples, he ſaid, from old Manuſcripts, tho' in his Prolegomena, as Kuſter obſerves, he ſuppoſes it introduced from the next Ver. Wetſten joins it to Ver. 21.

Ib. knows] How much better would our Language have ſuited the Marcionites, to turn it from the preſent Time into knew, than as they did from γινώσκει to ἔγνω· but now another Way is taken, to expound or merely aſſert it away.

Ver. 25. everlaſting] Marcion blotted out, ſays Mills, as he ſhews from Tertullian; yet afterwards Mills changed his Mind, and pretends it crept in from ſome other Place, Prol. 291, 1511. Surely he muſt have entertained a mean Opinion of the received Reading, and have a ſtrange Belief (nec dubito, nor do I doubt) to reject this Word, only becauſe a Heretick and Corrupter of the Scripture (whom he himſelf reckons ſuch) did.

Ver. 30. taking up] more ſuitable to the Gr. and that in Acts i. 9. than anſwering; ſee alſo Beza's Annot.

Ver. 31. it fell out] as Hammond ſays the rendring will moſt exactly be. And Weſley ſays, 'The common Tranſ-'lation is, By chance. Which is full of groſs Impro-'prieties.'

CHAP. XI.

AND at his praying in ſome Place, as he ceaſed, one of his Diſciples ſaid to him, Lord, teach us to pray, according as John alſo taught his Diſciples.

2. Upon this he ſaid to them: When you pray, ſay; Our Father, who art in Heaven, ſacredly reverenced be thy Name; let thy Kingdom come; may thy Will be done, even on the Earth according as in Heaven;

3. Do thou give us our daily Bread according to the Day;

4. And forgive us our Sins, for we our ſelves alſo forgive every one who treſpaſſes againſt us; and do not bring us into Trial, but deliver us from Wickedneſs.

5. He further ſaid to them: Which of you ſhall have a Friend, to whom he ſhall go at Midnight, and ſay to him, Friend, lend me three Loaves;

6. Since a Friend of mine is come to me from a Journey, and I have Nothing which I can put before him:

7. To which he from within will make anſwer, Do not give me Trouble: the Door is now ſhut, and my little Children are with me in Bed; I cannot riſe to give thee?

8. I ſay to you, If he even will not riſe and give him, by reaſon that he is his Friend; yet by reaſon of his Importunity, he will get up, and give him as many as he has need of.

9. I alſo ſay to you; Aſk, and there will be given you; ſeek, and you will find; knock, and there will be opened to you.

10. For every one who aſks, receives; and he that ſeeks, does find; and to him who knocks, there will be opened.

11. And what Father of you, that a Son ſhall aſk for Bread, will give him a Stone? And if for a Fiſh, will he give him inſtead of it a Serpent?

12. Or even if he aſk for an Egg, will he give him a Scorpion?

13. If therefore you being wicked, know how to give good Gifts to your Children; how much more will the Father who is from Heaven, give the Holy Spirit to thoſe that aſk of him!

14. And he expelled a Devil, that was dumb; but when the Devil was come out, the dumb Man ſpoke; at which the Multitude wondered.

15. Yet ſome of them ſaid, He expels Devils by Beelzebul the Prince of them.

16. Whereas others tempting, aſked of him for a Sign from Heaven.

17. But he perceiving their Imaginations, ſaid to them: Every Kingdom divided aſunder againſt it ſelf, is made deſolate; and one Houſe againſt another, falls.

18. So if Satan alſo be divided againſt himſelf, how will his Kingdom ſtand? becauſe you ſay, that by Beelzebul I expel Devils.

19. Nay if I by Beelzebul expel Devils, by whom do your Children expel them? For this reaſon they will be your Judges.

20. But if I by the Finger of God expel Devils, then the Kingdom of God is come to you.

21. When a ſtrong Man armed keeps his own Hall, the Things which he has are in Peace.

22. However a ſtronger than he coming upon him after, overcomes him, takes his whole Armour in which he truſted, and diſtributes his Spoils.

23. He who is not with me, is againſt me; and he that does not gather with me, diſperſes.

Ver. 2. Why two Verſes in Mat. are but one here, may be aſcribed to Careleſſneſs, as likewiſe the Continuance of it; ſince Authority has not thought them worth mending.

Ib. Our—who art in Heaven] This too according to Mills crept in, though he found but one Copy without it.

Ib. let thy Kingdom come] By Tertullian, who flouriſhed in the latter End of the 2d Century, we learn that Marcion in the former Part of it had a Copy, which Mills commends in other Things, as had alſo Gregor. Nyſſen. in the 4th Cent. wherein there was for this, let thy Holy Spirit come upon us, and bleſs us: which might be, as this Prayer beſides is not the ſame with that in Mat. nor delivered at the ſame Time; and that Sentence might be an Expoſition of the other in Mat. which is obſcure of it ſelf; nor is this the moſt that may be ſaid for it, ſince Ver. 13. here, and which is not in Mat. ſeems to refer to ſuch a Petition, as Mat. vi. 14. does to another. Moreover the great Occaſion of altering the Text, being to make it as in ſome other Place; that might alſo be the Caſe here: and on the other hand, if this had been originally the ſame as in Mat. one would ſcarce have been changed without the other.

Ib. may thy Will &c.] This to the End of the Ver. if Origen and Auguſtine may be credited, beſides the Omiſſion of two or three Copies, does not belong to Luke; but ſee Whit. Examen.

Ver. 7. To which he will] Whereby it is good Senſe, with the Note of Interrogation at laſt.

Ver. 13. the Holy Spirit] The chiefeſt thing, ſays the Gen. Note, that wee can deſire of God, is his holy Spirit.

Ib. Holy] Mills reciting ſix or ſeven Gr. Copies, with two Verſions, and Eraſmus aſſenting, that have it Good, fairly and clearly, as his Practice is; Whitby falls on him very unfairly, in his Examen, Lib. 2. C. 1. nay with glaring Falſehood, that all the Gr. Copies agree in Holy, when he had mentioned four from Mills which did not; and that all the oriental Verſions render it ſo, when he ſaw the Armenian did not, nor the Ethiopick as he ſays they do, and again Cap. ii. that all the Verſions are repugnant to Good. This good undoubtedly came from that before, to make the comparative Clauſes more alike.

Ib. aſk of him] For aſk him in the com. Verſ. may be the Holy Spirit, and is doubtful which.

Ver. 21. Hall] Thoſe that have Palaces, do not uſe to keep them themſelves.

24. When

24. When the unclean Spirit is gone forth from a Man, he goes through dry Places, ſeeking Refreſhment; and upon not finding, he ſays, I will return into my Houſe, whence I came forth;

25. And coming, he finds it ſwept, and adorned.

26. Then goes he, and takes ſeven other Spirits, more wicked than himſelf, and they entering in, dwell there; ſo that the laſt Things of that Man become worſe than the firſt.

27. Now on his ſpeaking theſe Things, ſome Woman of the Company with an exalted Voice, ſaid to him, Bleſſed is the Womb that did bear thee up, and the Breaſts which thou didſt ſuck.

28. But he pronounced, Nay indeed bleſſed are thoſe who hear the Word of God, and keep it.

29. At length the Multitude being got together, he began to ſay: This is a wicked Generation; it ſeeks for a Sign, and none will be given to it, excepting that of the Prophet Jonas.

30. For as Jonas became a Sign to the Ninevites, ſo will the Man alſo be to this Generation.

31. The Queen of the South will riſe up in Judgment with the Men of this Generation, and condemn them; becauſe ſhe came from the Ends of the Earth to hear the Wiſdom of Solomon, and behold one above Solomon is here.

32. The Men of Nineveh will ariſe in Judgment with this Generation, and condemn it; becauſe they repented at the Preaching of Jonas, and behold one above Jonas is here.

33. And none lighting a Candle, puts in Secret, or under a Buſhel; but on a Candleſtick, that they who go in may ſee the Brightneſs.

34. The Eye is the Lamp of the Body; when thy Eye therefore ſees diſtinctly, even thy whole Body is light; whereas after it is bad, even thy Body is dark.

35. Watch therefore, that the Light in thee may not be Darkneſs.

36. And if thy whole Body be light, not having any Part dark, the whole will be as light as when a Lamp enlightens thee with the Glittering.

37. Beſides at his ſpeaking, ſome Phariſee intreated him, that he would dine with him; ſo he went in, and ſate down.

38. This the Phariſee ſeeing, wondered that he was not firſt waſhed before Dinner.

39. The Lord notwithſtanding ſaid to him: Now ye Phariſees cleanſe what is without the Cup and Plate; but what is within you is full of Pillage and Wickedneſs.

40. Fooliſh ones, did not he who made what is without, make alſo what is within?

41. Nevertheleſs give Alms of the Things poſſeſſed; and behold all Things are clean to you.

42. But wo is to you Phariſees; becauſe ye give tithe of Mint, Rue and every Herb, and paſs by Judgment, and the Love of God: ye ought to do theſe, though not to leave them.

43. Wo is to you Phariſees; becauſe ye love the firſt Seats in the Synagogues, and Salutations in the Markets.

44. Wo is to you, Scribes, and Phariſees, Hypocrites; becauſe ye are as Sepulchres that do not appear, which the Men who walk over know not of.

45. But one of the Expounders of the Law made anſwer to him, Maſter, in ſaying theſe Things thou alſo abuſeſt us.

46. Whereupon he ſaid: And to you Expounders of the Law is Wo; becauſe ye load Men with Loads grievous to be born, and ye your ſelves do not touch the Loads with your own Fingers.

Ver. 29. the Prophet] we need not doubt, ſays Mills, is of Mat. Prol. 1404. when only a few very exceptionable Books are without it.

Ver. 36. And] A 2d therefore, as in com. Tranſ. as I have elſewhere remarked of for, when it is to be referred back to the ſame Matter as the 1ſt, as this is to Ver. 34. is after the Manner of our Language, in which a cloſe Connection is regarded, more clear and proper to be turned into and, whereby there is a joining alſo to that immediately before. Whereas Doddridge's Propoſal to change the Meanings of ουν therefore and γαρ for (by which latter he renders the former here) is the Way to Uncertainty, and may be to hurtful Miſinterpretation, which Expoſitors ſhould endeavour to guard from. Nay, they are ſo oppoſite, that it has the very Look of Abſurdity.

Ver. 38. ſeeing, wondered that] three or four have, reaſoning in himſelf began to ſay, Why; and Mills approves of it, Prol. 240, 291, 420. which may be enough to mention, among ſo many Criticiſms of his remarked beſides.

Ver. 41. the Things poſſeſſed] The Vulg. having quod ſupereſt, what is over and above or remains, Nary in his Pref. would juſtify it under the Ambiguity of the Latin, as if it might mean like our Engliſh; which is intolerable Sophiſm: nay to help out his Popiſh adopted Tranſ. he affirms, The Latin being taken from the Greek, and the Greek from the Hebrew, it is certain the Latin Sentences, &c. can have no other literal Senſe than that which the Hebrew has; but this tho' audaciouſly falſe, is making the Original the full Teſt of Scripture Verity.

Ver. 44. Scribes, and Phariſees, Hypocrites] a few Books (and then ſome Criticks would quite) diſmiſs.

Ver. 45. us] They being ſuch as are deſcribed, and alſo comprehended in Scribes; which is for, not againſt, the Genuineneſs of that in the preceding Verſe.

47. Wo

47. Wo is to you; becauſe ye build up the Sepulchres of the Prophets, but your Forefathers killed them.

48. Surely ye teſtify, and conſent to the Deeds of your Forefathers; that they indeed killed them, but ye build up their Sepulchres.

49. For this reaſon alſo the Wiſdom of God ſaid; I will ſend them Prophets, and Apoſtles; ſome of whom ye will kill, and perſecute:

50. That there may be required from this Generation, the Blood of all the Prophets ſhed from the founding of the World;

51. From the Blood of Abel, to that of Zacharias, who periſhed between the Altar and the Houſe: yes I tell you, it will be required from this Generation.

52. Wo is to you Expounders of the Law; becauſe ye have taken away the Key of Knowledge: ye your ſelves neither go in, and thoſe who were going in ye have hindered.

53. But when he ſpoke theſe Things to them, the Scribes and Phariſees began vehemently to urge, and to make him ſpeak about many Things;

54. Lying in wait for him, and endeavouring to catch Something out of his Mouth, that they might accuſe him.

CHAP. XII.

AMONG which ten thouſands of Company being gathered together, ſo that they trod on one another, he began to ſay to his Diſciples firſt: Take heed to your ſelves of the Leaven of the Phariſees, which is Hypocriſy.

2. As there is Nothing covered up, which will not be revealed; and hid, which will not be known.

3. For which cauſe whatever you have ſpoken in the Darkneſs, will be heard in the Light; and what you have talked to the Ear in the Cloſets, will be proclaimed on the Houſe-tops.

4. And I ſay to you my Friends; Be not afraid of them that kill the Body, and after theſe Things have not any Thing to do over and above.

5. But I will ſhew you whom you ſhall fear; Let it be him that has Authority, after he has killed, to caſt into Hell; yes I ſay to you, fear him.

6. Are not five Sparrows ſold for two Halfpence, not one of which is forgot before God?

7. Whereas even the Hairs of your Head have been all numbered. Therefore do not fear; you excel many Sparrows.

8. I further ſay to you; Every one whoever makes confeſſion of me before Men, the Man will alſo make confeſſion of him before the Angels of God.

9. But he that denies me in the preſence of Men, will be quite denied in the preſence of God's Angels.

10. And every one who ſhall ſay a Word in oppoſition to the Man, it will be forgiven him; but he that blaſphemes againſt the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

11. However when they carry you to the Synagogues, Principalities and Powers, be not careful how or with what you ſhall make defence, or what you ſhall ſay;

12. Since the Holy Spirit will teach you in that Hour, the Things which you ſhould ſay.

13. And one of the Company requeſted him, Maſter, ſpeak to my Brother to divide the Inheritance with me.

14. To whom he ſaid, Man, who made me a Judge or a Divider over you?

15. He alſo ſaid to them, See, and take heed of Covetouſneſs; becauſe to any one his Life is not in the abounding of the Things which he has.

16. Moreover he ſpoke a Similitude to them as follows: The Ground of ſome rich Man did bear well.

17. And he reaſoned thus in himſelf, What ſhall I do, becauſe I have not where I may gather together my Fruits?

18. This, added he, will I do: I will pull down my Barns, and build up bigger; and there will I gather together all my Product and my good Things.

Ver. 49. the Wiſdom of God] Chriſt ſo termed by Luke, as 1 Cor. i. 24.

Ib. ſaid] as in Mat. xxiii. 34, 35, 36. and ſo theſe three Verſes added by Luke, being what Chriſt ſaid at another Time.

Ver. 51. Houſe] not temple as Mat. xxiii. 35.

Ver. 53. urge] faſten upon him, by Weſley, and much farther from the Original.

Ib. make him ſpeak] in Imitation of the Heb. Conjug. Hiphil, as Hammond ſhews on Mark xiv. 54.

Ver. 1. firſt—to your ſelves] Mills was ſo fond of the Vulg. that he would throw theſe out; but he ſhould not be ſo free with his aliunde, when he cannot ſo much as gueſs from whence his rejected Words are inſerted.

Ver. 14. or a Divider] Marcion or ſome other pruning away this from the Scripture, has notwithſtanding the Approbation of Mills, Prol. 292.

Ver. 15. Covetouſneſs] Divers MS. Copies and ſome Tranſlations having all to it, though της the Article might ſuffer the Change into πασης by Overſight, I ſuppoſe it rather deſignedly, to mend the Scripture; which was a Trade formerly on the Books of the New Teſt. lately on thoſe of the Old.

Ver. 17. gather together] Weſt. ſtow.

Ver. 18. and my good Things] Theſe Words being not in two Copies and one Author, Mills declares, but only from Imagination, were firſt written at the Marg. from the next Ver. and at length crept into the Context. How much has he injured his valuable Labours by his Notions at laſt! and Whitby's Exam. may be ſeen.

Ib. good Things] which his Ground ſhould yield.

19. And

19. And to my Soul will ſay, Soul, thou haſt many good Things laid up for many Years; be refreſhed, eat, drink, be merry.

20. But God ſaid to him, O fooliſh one, this Night thy Soul will be demanded from thee; and who will have the Things which thou haſt prepared?

21. Thus is he that treaſures up for himſelf, and is not rich to God.

22. Beſides he ſaid to his Diſciples: For this reaſon I ſay to you; Be not careful for your Life, what you ſhall eat; nor for the Body, what you ſhall wear.

23. The Life it ſelf is more than the Food, and the Body than the Apparel.

24. Obſerve the Ravens; ſince they do not ſow, nor reap; have neither Storehouſe, nor Barn; but God feeds them: how much more excellent are you than Fowls:

25. Nay which of you being careful, can add one Cubit to his Stature?

26. If you are therefore not capable of the leaſt Thing, why are you careful about the reſt?

27. Obſerve how the Lillies grow; they do not labour, nor ſpin: yet I tell you, Solomon in all his Glory was not cloathed like one of theſe.

28. Now if God thus array the Herbage in the Field, that exiſts to Day, and to Morrow is thrown into the Oven, how much more will he you, ye of little Faith?

29. So do not you ſeek what you ſhall eat, or what you ſhall drink; and get not up in Imagination.

30. Though all theſe Things the Gentiles of the World ſeek for; nay your Father knows, that you have need of theſe:

31. Nevertheleſs ſeek the Kingdom of God; and they will all be added to you.

32. Do not fear, little Flock; ſince your Father is pleaſed to give you the Kingdom.

33. Sell the Things which you have, and give Alms: make for your ſelves Purſes that become not old, a Treaſure in Heaven that does not fail; where a Thief comes not near, nor Moth deſtroys.

34. For at the Place where your Treaſure is, your Heart alſo will be.

35. Let your Loins be girded about, and the Lamps burning;

36. And be you like Men who look for their own Maſter, when he will return from the Marriage; that he coming, and knocking, they may preſently open to him.

37. Thoſe Servants will be bleſt, whom the Lord when he comes ſhall find watching: I ſay to you certainly, that he will gird himſelf about, and make them ſit down; and paſſing along, will miniſter to them.

38. And if he comes in the ſecond Watch, or does in the third, and finds them ſo, thoſe Servants will be bleſſed.

39. But this know, that if a Houſholder had known in what Hour the Thief would come, he would have watched, and not permitted his Houſe to be broke through.

40. And be you therefore ready; ſince the Man comes in an Hour which you do not think.

41. Whereupon Peter ſaid to him, Lord, doſt thou ſpeak this Similitude to us, or even to all?

42. At which the Lord ſaid: Who then is a faithful and wiſe Steward, whom the Lord will ſet over his Family, to give their Allowance of Food in Seaſon?

43. That Servant will be bleſt, whom his Lord when he comes ſhall find doing ſo.

44. Truly I tell you, that he will ſet him over all the Things he has.

45. But if that evil Servant ſays in his Heart, My Lord delays to come; and begins to beat the Servant-men and Maids, nay to eat and drink, and be drunk:

46. The Lord of that Servant will come in a Day that he does not expect, and in an Hour that he does not know of; and will cut him aſunder, and put his Part with Unbelievers.

47. That Servant too who knows his own Lord's Will, and does not get ready, nor does according to his Will, ſhall be beat with many Stripes.

48. Whereas he that does not know, and does Things deſerving of Stripes, ſhall be

51. Do ye think, that I am come to give Peace on the Earth? No, I ſay to you, but Diviſion.

52. For henceforth there will be five in one Houſe divided, three againſt two, and two againſt three.

53. A Father will be divided againſt the Son, and the Son againſt him; a Mother againſt the Daughter, and the Daughter againſt her; a Mother-in-law againſt her Daughter-in-law, and ſhe againſt her Mother-in-law.

56. You Hypocrites, ſee how to find out by the Face of the Earth and the Heaven; but how do you not find out by this Time?

57. And why do not you alſo of your ſelves judge what is righteous?

58. For as thou goeſt with thy Adverſary to the Ruler, give a Fee in the Way to be delivered from him; leſt at any time he ſhould hale thee away to the Judge, and this deliver thee to the Conſtable, ſo that the latter ſhould throw thee into Priſon.

AND ſome were preſent at that Time who told him concerning the Galileans, whoſe Blood Pilate mixed with their Sacrifices.

2. To whom Jeſus made anſwer; Do ye think, that theſe Galileans were Sinners above all the Galileans, becauſe they ſuffered ſuch Things?

3. No, I ſay to you; but except ye repent, ye will all in like Manner periſh.

4. Or thoſe eighteen on whom the Tower at Siloam fell, and killed them; do ye think, that they were Treſpaſſers above all Men who dwelt at Jeruſalem?

5. No, I ſay to you; but except ye repent, ye will all likewiſe periſh.

6. He further related this Similitude; Somebody had a Fig-tree planted in his Vineyard, and came ſeeking for Fruit on it, but found none.

7. Upon this he ſaid to the Workman of the Vineyard, Behold three Years I come, ſeeking for Fruit on this Fig-tree, and find none; cut it down, why ſhould it even make the Ground void?

8. But he made anſwer to him; Lord, let it alone alſo this Year, until I ſhall dig about it, and put Dung.

9. And if indeed it will yield Fruit, let it; but if not, thou mayeſt cut it down hereafter.

10. Now he was teaching in one of the Synagogues, on the Sabbath.

11. And lo there was a Woman had a Spirit of Weakneſs eighteen Years; ſo that ſhe was bowed together, and could not ſtand upright by any means.

12. Whom Jeſus ſeeing, ſpoke to, and ſaid to her, Woman, thou art releaſed from thy Weakneſs.

13. He alſo put Hands on her, and ſhe was immediately made ſtraight, and glorified God.

14. Yet the Ruler of the Synagogue, enraged that Jeſus cured on the Sabbath, ſaid thus to the Company, There are ſix Days in which it is fit to work; in them therefore come, and be cured, and not on the Sabbath Day.

15. The Lord therefore made anſwer to him; O Hypocrite, does not each of you on the Sabbath let looſe his Ox, or Aſs from the Stall, and take away to watering?

16. Is it not fit then that ſhe, being a Daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound lo eighteen Years, ſhould be let looſe from this Bond on the Sabbath Day?

17. And he having expreſſed theſe Things, all who oppoſed him were aſhamed; and the whole Company rejoiced, at all the glorious Things that were done by him.

18. Moreover he ſaid; What is the Kingdom of God like? And to what ſhall I liken it?

19. It is like a Grain of Muſtard, which a Man took, and caſt into his own Garden; and it grew up, nay became a great Tree; and ſo the Fowls of the Air dwelt in the Branches of it.

20. And again he ſaid; To what ſhall I liken the Kingdom of God?

21. It is like Leaven, which a Woman took, and hid in three Pecks of Flour, until the whole was leavened.

22. Afterwards he paſſed throughout the Cities and Villages, teaching, and making a Journey to Jeruſalem.

23. When one ſaid to him, Lord, are there few that will be ſaved? And he ſaid to them:

25. Whenever the Houſholder is riſen up, and has ſhut the Door: whereupon you begin to ſtand without, and to knock at it, ſaying, Lord, Lord, open to us; and he ſhall make anſwer to you, I do not know whence you are:

26. Then you will begin to ſay, We have eat before thee, and drunk, and thou haſt taught in our Streets.

27. But he will reply, I tell you, I do not know whence you are; be gone from me, all you that work Unrighteouſneſs.

28. There Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth will be, when you ſhall ſee Abraham, Iſaac, Jacob, and all the Prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you thruſt out abroad.

31. On that Day ſome of the Phariſees came, ſaying to him, Be gone, and go hence; becauſe Herod is minded to kill thee.

32. And he anſwered them; Go and ſay to that Fox, behold I expel Devils, and accompliſh Healings to Day and to Morrow, and on the third I ſhall be compleated.

33. But I muſt go on to Day, and to Morrow, and the next; ſince it cannot be that a Prophet ſhould periſh out from Jeruſalem.

34. O Jeruſalem, Jeruſalem, that killeſt the Prophets, and ſtoneſt thoſe who are ſent to thee, how often would I have gathered thy Children together, in the Manner as a Hen her own Chick under the Wings, and ye would not!

AND at his going into the Houſe of one of the Rulers of the Phariſees, to eat ſome Victuals, they were watching him.

2. When behold there was ſome Man before him that had the Dropſy before him.

Ver. 25. Lord, Lord] being doubled, is with Mills, as of Mat. Pr. 423. which is as if Luke himſelf might not as well copy him, and as if (for both are neceſſary) a Copy or two, with a couple of Verſions, exceed more than ſeventy.

Ib. not know whence you are] or not know of you whence you are, idiomatical as it may ſeem from the Heb. as in Gen. i. 4. &c. by Beza as in this Verſion.

5. As alſo ſpoke to them in this manner, Which of you ſhall have an Aſs or an Ox fallen into a Well, and will not preſently pull him up on the Sabbath Day.

6. And they were not able to give anſwer againſt him to theſe Things.

7. He further ſpoke a Similitude to them who were invited, giving heed how they choſe out the firſt Seats, ſaying to them;

8. When thou art invited by any one to a Marriage, do not ſit down in the firſt Seat; leſt at any time one more honourable than thou ſhould be invited by him.

9. Whereby he that invited thee and him will ſay to thee, Give the Place to this Man; and then thou wilt begin with Shame to take up with the laſt Place.

10. But when thou art invited, go and ſit down in the laſt Place; that when he who invited thee comes, he may ſay to thee, Friend, come up hither above; then wilt thou have Reputation before thoſe who ſit down with thee.

11. Since he that exalts himſelf, will be humbled; and he that humbles himſelf, will be exalted.

12. Nay he ſaid alſo to him who invited him; When thou makeſt a Dinner or Supper, do not call thy Friends, nor thy Brothers, nor thy Relations, nor rich Neighbours: leſt at any time they alſo ſhould invite thee again, and a Recompence be made.

13. On the contrary when thou makeſt a Feaſt, invite the Poor, the Maimed, the Lame, the Blind.

14. So thou wilt be bleſſed, ſince they have not to recompenſe thee: for it will be recompenſed to thee in the Reſurrection of the Righteous.

15. And one of them that ſate down together hearing theſe Things, ſaid to him, He will be bleſſed, who ſhall eat Bread in the Kingdom of God.

16. Whereupon he told him: Some Man made a great Supper, and invited many.

17. And ſent his Servant at the Hour of Supper, to ſay to thoſe who were invited, Come, becauſe all Things are now ready.

18. But they all began in particular to make excuſe: the firſt ſaid to him, I have bought a Field, and had need go out, and ſee it; I intreat thee, have me excuſed.

19. As another did, I have bought five Yoke of Oxen, and am going to prove them; I intreat thee, have me excuſed.

20. Another too ſaid, I have married a Wife, and for this reaſon cannot come.

21. Upon which that Servant came, and related to his Lord theſe Things. Then the Houſholder being angry, ordered his Servant, Go out quickly into the Streets and Lanes of the City, and bring in hither the Poor, Maimed, Lame and Blind.

22. Afterwards the Servant ſaid, Lord, it is done as thou didſt bid, and there is yet Room.

23. To whom the Lord replied; Go out into the Ways and Hedges, and oblige them to come in, that my Houſe may be filled.

24. For I tell you, that none of thoſe Men who were invited, ſhall taſte my Supper.

25. Now a great Multitude went with him, and turning about, he ſaid to them:

26. If any one comes to me, and does not ſlight his own Father, Mother, Wife, Children, Brothers, Siſters, nay and further his own Life, he cannot be my Diſciple.

27. Moreover he who does not bear his Croſs, and come after me, cannot be my Diſciple.

28. For which of you being minded to build a Tower, does not firſt ſit down, and count up the Coſt, whether he has Things to compleat it?

29. That when he has laid the Foundation, and is not able to accompliſh, all who ſee may not at any time begin to mock him,

30. Saying, that this Man began to build, and was not able to accompliſh.

31. Or what King going to meet with another King in War, does not firſt ſit down, and conſult whether he is able with ten thouſand, to meet him that is coming againſt him with twenty thouſand?

32. But if otherwiſe, while he is yet far off, he ſends a Meſſage, and aſks for Matters belonging to Peace.

Ver. 5. an Aſs] Divers Gr. Copies have a Son, viz. υἱὸς for ὄνος, which Mills in his various Readings counts genuine; but in his Prolegomena to be made from οἶὸς a Sheep, and with Kuſter that to be genuine. Yet Aſs ſuits better both with Ox, and with the Matter, according to Ch. xiii. 15, 16. And Sheep ſeems made from Mat. xii. 11. but by another Gr. Word nearly like that for Aſs as above, and then Son for Sheep according to Mills, which makes the beſt Reſemblance; ſee alſo Whitby's Exam.

Ver. 7. invited] For bidden in this Senſe is ſo far out of Uſe, even beneath vulgar, that it is Time for it to be laid aſide.

Ver. 8. by any one] Mills rejects on ſmall Authority, Prol. 420,

Ver. 15. Bread] In the greateſt Part of the MSS. a Dinner, by ἄριστον for ἄρτον.

Ver. 22. there is yet] to diſtinguiſh yet from the Conjunction for nevertheleſs.

Ver. 23. oblige them to come in] Whitby here writes, 'How vainly theſe Words are brought, to prove that 'Men may be compelled by the ſecular Arm to embrace 'the true Faith, appears, 1ſt; From the nature of a Banquet, to which no Man is compelled by Force. 2dly, 'From the Scope of the Parable which reſpects the Calling 'of the Gentiles.' See alſo Doddr. hereon, who tranſlates by preſs.

Ver. 24. A pretty many Copies conclude it with that in Mat. xxii. 14. taken from thence, ſays a Note of Wetſten, by Somebody into the Margin, and by another into the Text.

33. Thus therefore, every one of you, who does not take leave of all that he has, cannot be my Diſciple.

34. Salt is good; but if Salt is become inſipid, with what ſhall it be ſeaſoned?

35. It is neither fit for the Land, nor for Dung; People throw it out. He that has Ears to hear, let him hear.

CHAP. XV.

NOW as all the Publicans and Sinners were coming nigh him, to hear him;

2. The Phariſees and Scribes murmured thus, He receives Sinners, and eats with them.

3. Whereupon he ſpoke to them the following Similitude:

4. What Man of you who has a hundred Sheep, and loſes one of them, does not leave the ninety nine in the Wilderneſs, and go for the loſt one, till he finds it?

5. Which finding, he puts on his own Shoulders, rejoicing;

6. And when he comes home, calls together his Friends and Neighbours, ſaying to them, Rejoice with me, becauſe I have found my Sheep that was loſt.

7. I tell you, that ſo there will be Joy in Heaven for one Sinner that repents, more than for ninety nine righteous Perſons, who have not Need of Repentance.

8. Or what Woman who has ten Drams, if ſhe loſes one Dram, does not light a Candle, and ſweep the Houſe, and ſeek carefully, till ſhe finds it?

9. This finding, ſhe calls together her Friends and Neighbours, ſaying, Rejoice with me, becauſe I have found the Dram which I had loſt.

10. So I tell you, There is Joy before the Angels of God, for one Sinner that repents.

11. He ſaid further: Some Man had two Sons;

12. The younger of whom ſaid to the Father, Father, give me the Part of the Subſtance that is appointed: accordingly he divided to them the Living.

13. And not many Days after the younger Son gathering all together, travelled away into a Country far off; and there diſperſed his Subſtance, by living luxuriouſly.

14. At length he having ſpent all, there was a great Famine throughout that Country, and he began to be in want.

15. Upon this he went, and got to be with one of the Citizens of that Country; who ſent him to his Fields to feed the Hogs.

16. And he wiſhed he could fill his Belly with the Huſks which the Hogs eat, moreover Nobody gave to him.

17. Thus coming to himſelf, he ſaid; How many hired ones of my Father abound with Victuals, while I am periſhing with Hunger!

18. I will riſe up, and go to my Father, and ſay to him; Father, I have ſinned againſt Heaven, and before thee,

19. Inſomuch that I am no more worthy to be called thy Son; make me as one of thy hired Men.

20. Accordingly he roſe up, and went to his Father: who ſaw him when he was far diſtant, and was moved with Affection; ſo that he ran, and fell on his Neck, and kiſſed him.

21. And the Son ſaid to him, Father, I have ſinned againſt Heaven, and before thee, inſomuch that I am no more worthy to be called thy Son.

22. But the Father ſaid to his Servants; Bring out the chief Robe, and cloath him with, as alſo put a Ring on his Finger, and Shoes on the Feet.

23. Moreover bring the fatted Calf, and ſlay; then let us eat, and be merry.

24. Becauſe this Son of mine was dead, and is alive again; was loſt too, and is found. So they began to be merry.

25. In the mean time his elder Son was in the Field; and as he came along, and got near to the Houſe, he heard Muſick and Dancing.

26. When calling thither one of the Servants, he enquired what theſe things were.

27. Who ſaid to him, Thy Brother is come; and thy Father has ſlain the fatted Calf, becauſe he has received him, and he is well.

28. Angry at this, he would not go in; therefore his Father came out, and beſought him.

29. But he made anſwer to the Father; Behold ſo many Years I ſerve thee, and have never tranſgreſſed thy Commandment, and thou haſt never given me a Goat, that I might be merry with my Friends;

30. Yet when this Son of thine is come, who has devoured thy Living with Whores, thou haſt ſlain for him the fatted Calf.

31. Whereas he replied to him; Child, thou art always with me, and all my Things are thine.

32. But it was fit to rejoice, and be glad; becauſe this Brother of thine was dead, and is alive again; was loſt too, and is found.

Ver. 7. righteous Perſons] thoſe that are really ſo, according to Expoſitors, and the plain Words of the Text; which I mention, becauſe they have been thought pretended ones, like the Phariſees.

Ver. 8. ſweep] Several of the vulg. Lat. Copies, we are told, even all that Eraſmus had ſeen; inſtead of everrit, ſweep out, had evertit, overthrow.

Ver. 9. Friends and Neighbours] fem. here, as maſc. Ver. 6. ſo great a Regard there is in the Original to Decency and Propriety.

Ver. 12. appointed] Gr. caſt or put on.

Ver. 28. beſought] Vulg. began to beſeech, and you may think with the Liking of Mills, though deſolate before.

CHAP. XVI.

AND he ſaid to his Diſciples: There was ſome rich Man who had a Steward, and the ſame was accuſed to him, as ſquandering away the Things which he had.

2. Upon which he called him, and ſaid to him, What is this I hear concerning thee? Render an Account of thy Stewardſhip; for thou mayeſt no more be Steward.

3. At this the Steward ſaid in himſelf; What ſhall I do, becauſe my Lord takes away the Stewardſhip from me? To dig I am not able, to beg I am aſhamed.

4. I know what I will do, that when I am removed from the Stewardſhip, People may receive me into their Houſes.

5. So he called thither each one of his Lord's Debtors, and ſaid to the firſt, How much doſt thou owe my Lord?

6. And upon his anſwering, A hundred Firkins of Oil; he replied to him, Take thy Bill, and ſitting down quickly, write fifty.

7. Next he ſaid to another, And how much doſt thou owe? Upon whoſe anſwering, A hundred Cors of Wheat; he ſays to him, Take thy Bill, and write eighty.

8. The Lord alſo praiſed the unrighteous Steward, ſince he had done wiſely; becauſe the Sons of this World are wiſer in their own Generation, than the Sons of Light.

9. And I ſay to you; Make to your ſelves Friends out of the Riches of Unrighteouſneſs, that when ye fail, they may receive you into the everlaſting Tabernacles.

10. He who is faithful in the leaſt, is alſo faithful in much; and he that is unrighteous in the leaſt, is alſo unrighteous in much.

11. Therefore if you have not been faithful in unrighteous Riches, who will intruſt you with true?

12. As likewiſe if you have not been faithful in another's, who will give you to be your own?

13. No Servant can ſerve different Maſters: for he will either hate one, and love the other; or cleave to one, and deſpiſe the other: you cannot ſerve God and Riches.

14. Now the Phariſees too that were Lovers of Money heard all theſe Things, whereupon they ſneered at him.

15. And he ſaid to them: You are Juſtifiers of your ſelves before Men, but God knows your Hearts; ſince what is eminent among Men, is Abomination before God.

16. The Law and Prophets were till John: from that Time the Kingdom of God has been preached, and every one preſſes into it.

17. However it is eaſier for Heaven and Earth to paſs away, than one Tittle of the Law to fall.

18. Every one who ſends away his Wife, and marries another, commits Adultery; and every one who marries her that is ſent away from a Huſband, commits Adultery.

19. Moreover there was ſome rich Man, and that wore Purple and fine Linen, taking delight in a ſplendid Manner daily.

20. There was likewiſe ſome Beggar named Lazarus, who was caſt at his Gate with Sores;

21. And deſiring to be fed with the Crumbs which fell from the rich one's Table: however even the Dogs came, and licked his Sores.

22. At length the Beggar died, and was carried away by Angels into Abraham's Boſom. Nay the rich one alſo died, and was buried;

23. And in Hell looking up, being in Torments, he ſees Abraham far off, with Lazarus in his Boſom.

24. Whereupon he himſelf cried out, and ſaid, O Father Abraham, have mercy upon me, and ſend Lazarus, that he may dip the Top of his Finger in Water, and cool my Tongue; becauſe I am tormented in this Flame.

25. But Abraham alleged; Child, remember that thou didſt receive thy good Things in thy Life, and Lazarus in like Manner ill Things; whereas now he is comforted, but thou art tormented.

26. And beſide all this, there is between us and you ſuch a great Gulf fixed, that they who would, cannot go over hence to you, nor paſs over thence to us.

27. Then he ſaid; I therefore intreat thee, Father, that thou wouldeſt ſend him to my Father's Houſe.

28. For I have five Brothers; in order for him to teſtify to them, that they may not alſo come into this Place of Torment.

Ver. 10. He] Clemens in the 2d Epiſtle aſcribed to him has before this, If you have not kept a little, who will give you a great deal? For I ſay to you; and Irenæus, If you have not been faithful in a little, &c. which Mills ſuppoſed to be taken from ſome Apocryphal Goſpel.

Ver. 12. another's] viz. the Things of this World, Ham. and Whit.

Ver. 17. fall] This, which the Gr. Verb ſignifies, and may in general by one Word be beſt defined by ſink, appears more apt than fail, or be deficient, both to this Paſſage, and the parallel ones in Mat. v. 18. Iſa. xl. 8. & li. 6.

Ver. 21. however] or but, being an adverſative Conjunction, rather than diſcretive as in the com. Lat. Gram. denoting what it introduces to be contrary to that before.

Ver. 24. he himſelf] now turned a Beggar, emphatical in the Gr.

29. Abra-

29. Abraham replies to him, They have Moſes, and the Prophets; let them hear thoſe.-
30. Who ſaid, No, Father Abraham; but if one ſhould go to them from the Dead, they would repent.
31. Whereas he anſwered him, If they do not hear Moſes and the Prophets, neither would they be perſuaded, if one ſhould riſe from the Dead.

CHAP. XVII.

HE ſaid further to the Diſciples; It is impoſſible Offences ſhould not come, yet wo is to him they come by:
2. It would be better for him if a Milſtone were tied about his Neck, and he thrown down into the Sea, than that he ſhould offend one of theſe little ones.
3. Take heed to your ſelves: ſo that if thy Brother ſins againſt thee, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.
4. If he even ſins againſt thee ſeven times a Day, and ſo often returns to thee, ſaying, I repent; thou ſhalt forgive him.
5. Moreover the Apoſtles ſaid to the Lord, Add to our Faith.
6. To which the Lord ſaid; If you had Faith as a Grain of Muſtard, you might ſay to this Mulberry-tree, Be thou rooted out, and planted in the Sea; and it would obey you.
7. Beſides which of you has a Servant ploughing, or feeding, who will ſay to him preſently at coming in from the Field, Go along, and ſit down?
8. But will not ſay to him, Get ready what I may ſup with, and being girded about wait on me, till I have eat, and drunk; and after theſe Things thou ſhalt eat, and drink?
9. Has he Thanks for that Servant, becauſe he did the Things that were ordered him? I preſume not.
10. So alſo do ye, when ye have done all theſe Things that are ordered you, ſay, We are unprofitable Servants, we have done but what we ought to do.
11. Now as he was going to Jeruſalem, he went through the midſt of Samaria and Galilee.
12. And at his entering into ſome Village, ten leprous Men were meeting him, who ſtood far off;
13. Where they raiſed up their Voices, ſaying, Jeſus, Maſter, have mercy upon us.
14. Whom ſeeing, he ſaid to them, Go ſhew your ſelves to the Prieſts. And in their going, they were cleanſed.
15. When one of them ſeeing that he was healed, did return, and glorify God aloud;
16. Nay fell on the Face at his Feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
17. At this Jeſus made anſwer; Were not ten cleanſed? But where are the nine?
18. There are none found returning to give Glory to God, excepting this Foreigner.
19. And he ſaid to him, Riſe, and go; thy Faith has made thee well.
20. Being aſked too by the Phariſees, when the Kingdom of God would come, he made anſwer to them; The Kingdom of God does not come with Obſervation.
21. Nor ſhall People ſay, Behold it is here, or, Behold it is there: for lo the Kingdom of God is within you.
22. Again he ſaid to the Diſciples: The Days will come, when you will deſire to ſee one of the Days of the Man, and ſhall not behold.
23. And ſome will ſay to you, Behold it is here, or, Behold it is there; do not go, nor follow.
24. For according as the Lightning that lightens out of one Place under Heaven, gives light into another there; ſo will alſo the Man be in his Day.

Ver. 1. impoſſible] Not abſolutely but morally impoſſible, conſidering the perverſe Temper of moſt Men, Nary.
Ver. 3. ſo that] which connects it to the foregoing, as is neceſſary, and as the Gr. does.
Ver. 4. to thee] left out by many.
Ver. 7. feeding] As our Tranſlators add cattle, ſome have added Oxen, and others Sheep.
Ver. 10. unprofitable] How aſtoniſhing would it be, were it not ſo common, for Mills to ſuſpect this Word crept from the Margin, when only the Ethiop. Verſ. is without it! for which he gives the pretended Reaſon, that it does not ſeem to be properly ſaid of him who does all Things that are ordered; then the more unlikely to be added, but doubtleſs ſuch are unprofitable to God.
Ver. 12. ten] The ſame Number of Lepers, either Maundrell or Rauwolf (as I remember) relates that he ſaw not far from hence.
Ver. 21. within] In the 2*d Epiſtle of Clement to the Corinthians*, which Bp. Wake ranks with the Genuine ones of the Apoſtolical Fathers, it is related, that the Lord Jeſus being aſked by ſome Perſon, when his Kingdom would come, anſwered, Οταν ἔσαι τὰ δύο ἕν, καὶ τὸ ἔξω ὡς τὸ ἔσω, καὶ τὸ ἄρσεν μετὰ τῆς θηλείας ὔτε ἄρσεν ὔτε θῆλυ· When two ſhall be one, and what is without will be as that which is within, and the Male with the Female will be neither Male nor Female. Of this the Author has Part of an Explication, which Wake has tranſlated, and pieced out from Clemens Alexandrinus; as that two are one, when we ſpeak the Truth to each other, and there is one Soul in two Bodies; but the ſpiritual minded may perhaps perceive a higher Meaning, according to what Chriſt ſays here: ſo the Male and Female are interpreted to be Anger, and Concupiſcence or Deſire; whereas it might be better underſtood perhaps by 1 Cor. vii. 29, 30, 31. And if that Epiſtle is ſuppoſititious, as has been moſtly thought, yet thoſe Words might be really ſaid by Jeſus, and preſerved among the primitive Chriſtians, as they may ſeem unworthy of neither.

25. But firſt he muſt ſuffer many Things, and be rejected by this Generation.

26. And as it was in the Days of Noe, ſo will it alſo be in the Days of the Man.

27. They did eat, drink, marry, were given in marriage, till the Day that Noe entered into the Ark; when the Flood came, and deſtroyed them all.

28. In like Manner alſo as it was in the Days of Lot; they did eat, drink, buy, ſell, plant, build.

29. But the Day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained Fire and Brimſtone from Heaven, and deſtroyed them all.

30. According to theſe Things it will be on the Day the Man is revealed.

31. On that Day let him who ſhall be on the Houſe-top, and his Goods in the Houſe, not come down to take them; and let him in the Field in like Manner not return back to the Things.

32. Remember the Wife of Lot.

33. Whoſoever ſhall ſeek to ſave his Life, will loſe it; and whoſoever ſhall loſe it, will revive it again.

34. I ſay to you; On that Night there being two Men in one Bed, one will be taken, and the other left:

35. Of two Women grinding in the ſame Place, one will be taken, and the other left:

36. Two Men will be in the Field, one taken, and the other left.

37. And they made anſwer to him, Where, Lord? At which he replied to them, Where the Body is, thither will the Eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND he alſo ſpoke a Similitude to them, that they ought always to pray, and not to be ſlothful,

2. Saying; There was ſome Judge in a certain City, who did not fear God, nor reverence Man.

3. There was ſome Widow too in that City, who came to him, ſaying, Revenge me on my Adverſary.

4. And he would not for a Time, yet after theſe Things he ſaid in himſelf; If I even fear not God, nor reverence Man;

5. Foraſmuch as this Widow gives me Trouble, I will revenge her, that ſhe may not ſubdue me by coming for ever.

6. The Lord further added; Hear what the unrighteous Judge ſays.

7. And will not God at all execute the Vengeance of his choſen ones, that cry out to him Day and Night, though he be forbearing to them?

8. I tell you, that he will execute their Vengeance quickly. Yet when the Man comes, will he find Faith on the Earth?

9. And he alſo ſpoke this Similitude to ſome who truſted in themſelves that they were righteous, and deſpiſed the reſt:

10. Two Men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Phariſee, and the other a Publican.

11. The Phariſee ſtanding, prayed thus with himſelf; O God, I give thee thanks, that I am not according as the reſt of Men, Extortioners, unjuſt, Adulterers, or even as this Publican.

12. I faſt twice a Week, I give tithe of whatever I poſſeſs.

13. And the Publican ſtanding far off, would not even look up to Heaven, but ſtruck on his Breaſt, ſaying, O God, be merciful to me a Sinner.

14. I ſay to you, this went down to his Houſe juſtified, more than that: ſince every one who exalts himſelf, will be humbled; but he who humbles himſelf, will be exalted.

15. And they alſo brought Infants to him, that he might touch them; which the Diſciples ſeeing, rebuked them.

16. Whereas Jeſus calling them thither, ſaid; Permit little Children to come to me,

Ver. 7. forbearing] namely with their Oppreſſors; and Wall ſays it never ſignifies bearing long with ones Friends before one relieves them, Crit. Not. that being alſo improper. The Gr. is a Participle, and the Verb as in our *com. and and do not forbid them: for the Kingdom of God is of ſuch.

17. I tell you certainly, Whoſoever ſhall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little Child, will not at all enter into it.

18. Afterwards ſome Ruler aſked him thus, Good Maſter, by doing what ſhall I inherit everlaſting Life?

19. To whom Jeſus ſaid? Why doſt thou call me good? None is good, excepting one, even God.

20. Thou knoweſt the Commandments; Thou ſhalt not commit Adultery, thou ſhalt not murder, thou ſhalt not ſteal, thou ſhalt not give Evidence falſely, honour thy Father and thy Mother.

21. And he ſaid, All theſe Things I have obſerved from my Youth.

22. Now Jeſus hearing theſe Things, replied to him, There is yet one Thing deficient to thee: ſell all whatever thou haſt, and give to the Poor, and thou wilt have Treaſure in Heaven; and come, follow me.

23. But he hearing theſe Things, became very ſorry: for he was exceeding rich.

24. Whereupon Jeſus ſeeing him become very ſorrowful, ſaid; How difficult will it be for thoſe who have Wealth to enter into the Kingdom of God!

25. For it is eaſier for a Camel to go into the Eye of a Needle, than for a rich Perſon to enter into that Kingdom.

26. Which they hearing, ſaid, Then who can be ſaved?

27. However he replied, The Things impoſſible with Men, are poſſible with God.

28. Moreover Peter ſaid, Behold we have left all, and followed thee.

29. And he ſaid to them; I tell you certainly, that there is Nobody who has left Houſe, Parents, Brothers, Wife, or Children, for the ſake of the Kingdom of God;

30. Who will not throughly receive manifold at this Time, and in the Age hereafter everlaſting Life.

31. Beſides he took the twelve, and ſaid to them; Behold we are going up to Jeruſalem, and all the Things will be fulfilled that are written by the Prophets relating to the Man.

32. For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, abuſed, and ſpit on;

33. Nay they will whip, then kill him; and the third Day he will riſe up.

34. And they underſtood none of theſe Things; ſince this Saying was hid from them, and they did not know the Things that were ſpoken.

35. Now at his being near to Jericho, ſome blind Man ſate by the Way begging.

36. But when he heard the Company go along, he enquired what it was for.

37. Whom they told, that Jeſus the Nazorite paſſed by.

38. Then he cried aloud thus, Jeſus, Son of David, have mercy upon me.

39. They therefore who went on before rebuked him, that he ſhould be ſilent; but he cried out much the more, Son of David, have mercy upon me.

40. At this Jeſus ſtood ſtill, and commanded him to be brought to him; who coming near, he aſked him as follows,

41. What wouldeſt thou have me do to thee? He then ſaid, Lord, that I may have ſight.

42. And Jeſus replied to him, Have ſight; thy Faith has made thee well.

43. When preſently he had ſight, and followed him, glorifying God; which all the People ſeeing, gave Praiſe to God.

CHAP XIX.

AND having entered, he paſſed through Jericho.

2. Where behold a Man called Zaccheaus by Name, that was himſelf chief of the Publicans, and he was rich;

3. Who endeavoured to ſee which was Jeſus, but could not for the Company, becauſe he was of little Stature:

4. Therefore he ran before, and climbed up into a Sycomore-tree, that he might ſee him; becauſe he was about to paſs along by that.

5. And Jeſus, as he came to the Place, looking up, ſaw him, and ſaid to him, Zaccheaus, make haſte, and come down: for to Day I muſt remain at thy Houſe.

6. Accordingly he made haſte to come down, and received him joyfully.

7. Which ſeeing, they all murmured, ſaying, that he was gone to be Gueſt to a ſinful Man.

8. But Zaccheaus ſtood, and ſaid to the Lord, Behold half of the Things which I have, Lord, I give to the Poor; and if I have got any Thing by accuſing any one falſely, I recompenſe fourfold.

9. At this Jeſus ſaid to him; To Day there is Salvation to this Houſe, foraſmuch as even he is a Son of Abraham.

10. For the Man is come to ſeek, and ſave, that which is loſt.

Ver. 35. being near] as he went forth, Mark x. 46. Mat. xx. 29. not was come nigh to Jericho; and ſo I ſince find Whitby explaining it on Mark.

Ver. 37. paſſed] or elſe that is to be omitted, and ὅτι counted expletive, with the Saying direct, as in divers Places.

11. And on their hearing theſe Things, he ſpoke further a Similitude, becauſe he was near Jeruſalem, and they thought that the Kingdom of God was about to appear immediately.

12. Therefore he ſaid: Some Nobleman went to a Country far off, to receive for himſelf a Kingdom, and return.

13. And calling ten Servants of his, he gave them ten Pounds, and ſaid to them, Trade till I come.

14. But his Citizens hated him, and ſent this Meſſage after him, We will not have him reign over us.

15. Afterwards when he came again, having received the Kingdom, be bade theſe Servants be called to him, to whom he had given the Money, that he might know what each had done in trading.

16. So the firſt came, ſaying, Lord, thy Pound has gained ten Pounds.

17. Upon which he anſwered him, Well, good Servant, becauſe thou haſt been faithful in very little, be thou one having Authority over ten Cities.

18. Moreover the ſecond came, ſaying, Lord, thy Pound has made five Pounds.

19. And he likewiſe anſwered him, Be thou alſo over five Cities.

20. Another alſo came, ſaying; Lord, behold thy Pound, which I had has been laid up in a Handkerchief.

21. For I was afraid of thee, becauſe thou art a ſharp Man: thou takeſt up what thou haſt not put down, and reapeſt what thou haſt not ſown.

22. But he ſays to him; Out of thy own Mouth will I judge thee, wicked Servant, that thou kneweſt I am a ſharp Man, who take up what I have not put down, and reap what I have not ſown.

23. For what reaſon then didſt not thou deliver my Money into the Bank; that on my coming, I might have had it employed with Intereſt?

24. Beſides he bade thoſe that ſtood by, Take the Pound from him, and give to him who has ten Pounds;

25. Notwithſtanding they ſaid, Lord, he has ten Pounds.

26. For I tell you, that to every one who has ſhall be given; but from him that has not ſhall be taken away even what he ſeemingly has.

27. But thoſe Enemies of mine, that would not have me reign over them, bring hither, and kill before me.

28. Now having ſaid thus, he went before, going up to Jeruſalem.

29. And as he came near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount called that of Olives, he ſent two of his Diſciples,

30. Saying; Go to the oppoſite Village, into which entering, you will find a Colt tied, on which no Man did ever ſit; him undo, and bring.

31. And if any one aſk you, For what do ye undo him? thus ſhall you anſwer him, The Lord has Need of him.

32. Accordingly thoſe who were ſent going, found as he ſaid to them.

33. Nay they undoing the Colt, the Maſters of it ſaid to them, Why do ye undo the Colt?

34. But they anſwered, The Lord has Need of him.

35. Thus they brought him to Jeſus; and throwing their Cloaths upon the Colt, they ſet Jeſus on.

36. Moreover as he went along, they ſpread their Cloaths under in the Way.

37. And he being now come near to the Deſcent of the Mount of Olives, all the Multitude of the Diſciples began rejoicing, to praiſe God aloud, for all the powerful Things which they had ſeen, as follows,

38. The King is bleſſed who comes in the Name of the Lord; Peace be in Heaven, and Glory in the higheſt Places.

39. Whereas ſome Phariſees of the Company ſaid to him, Maſter, rebuke thy Diſciples.

40. But he made anſwer to them, I tell you, that if theſe ſhould be ſilent, the Stones would cry out.

41. And as he came near, at ſeeing the City, he wept for it thus;

42. If thou alſo wouldeſt have known, even at this Time too of thine, the Things belonging to thy Peace! But now they are hid from thy Eyes.

43. Since the Days will come on thee, when thy Enemies will throw up a Rampart

45. He alſo entered into the Temple, and began to put forth thoſe who ſold in it, and that bought,

46. Saying to them; It is written, My Houſe is the Houſe of Prayer; but you have made it a Cave of Robbers.

47. And he was teaching daily in the Temple; notwithſtanding the chief Prieſts and Scribes, with the principal of the People, ſought to deſtroy him.

48. Yet they could not find what they ſhould do: for all the People were attentive at hearing him.

CHAP. XX.

NEXT on one of thoſe Days as he taught the People in the Temple, and preached, the chief Prieſts and Scribes came upon him, with the Elders,

2. And ſaid thus to him, Tell us by what Authority thou doeſt theſe Things, or who it is that gave thee this Authority.

3. But he made anſwer to them; I will alſo aſk one Matter of you; ſo tell me.

4. Was the Baptiſm of John from Heaven, or from Men?

5. Whereupon they argued thus to themſelves; If we ſay, From Heaven; he will retort, For what reaſon then did not you believe him?

6. But if we ſay, From Men; all the People will ſtone us: for they are perſuaded that John was a Prophet.

7. So they anſwered, they did not know whence.

8. And Jeſus ſaid to them, Neither tell I you by what Authority I do theſe Things.

9. Next he began to ſpeak to the People this Similitude: Some Man planted a Vineyard, let it out to Huſbandmen, and travelled away a great while.

10. And at the Time he ſent a Servant to the Huſbandmen, that they might give him ſome of the Fruit of the Vineyard: but the Huſbandmen beat him, and ſent quite away empty.

11. And he proceeded to ſend another Servant; but him alſo they beat, as likewiſe diſgraced, and ſent quite away empty.

12. He alſo proceeded to ſend the third; but this too they wounded, and threw out.

13. At this the Maſter of the Vineyard ſaid, What ſhall I do? I will ſend my beloved Son, him perhaps ſeeing, they will reverence.

14. But the Huſbandmen ſeeing him, reaſoned thus with themſelves, This is the Heir, come, let us kill him, that the Inheritance may become ours.

15. Him accordingly they threw forth without the Vineyard, as well as killed. What therefore will the Maſter of the Vineyard do to them?

16. He will come, and deſtroy theſe Huſbandmen, and give the Vineyard to others. Which they hearing, ſaid, Let it not be.

17. But he looking on them, replied; What then is this that is written, The ſame Stone that the Builders rejected, is become the Head of the Corner.

18. Every one who falls on that Stone, will be broke to pieces; but it will daſh him, on whom it ſhall fall to ſhivers.

19. And the chief Prieſts and Scribes ſought to lay Hands on him the ſame Hour, but feared the People; for they knew that he ſaid this Similitude to them.

20. However they watched, and ſent Spies,

Ver. 48. were attentive] Tynd. ſtacke by him, Gen. hanged upon him, Biſh. did hang of him, Rhem. worſt of all, was ſuſpenſe.

Ver. 10. Parted into two Verſes Mat. xxi. and Mark xii.

Ver. 16. will] So Wall ſays, Lege will.

Ib. Let it not be] The Ways that Whitby directs, of adjuſting the Account given here with Matthew's, how much ſoever laboured (as his Diſquiſitions commendably are, but ſometimes without a happy Mixture of Judgment) fall ſhort of the Matter: for to reconcile the ſame Anſwer being given by Jeſus himſelf to his Queſtion, as thoſe he ſpoke it to gave in Mat. xxi. 41. (not in Mar. xii. 9.) they might anſwer it firſt, as would be proper, and then Jeſus repeat their Anſwer, which you may obſerve is accordingly abridged, to apply it to themſelves, as if he had ſaid in our Manner of ſpeaking, Well then it will be ſo; which they apprehending, now ſaid this commented on; and ſo Mark having made an Addition to Mat. Luke adds more to Mark, as they often do. Thus beginning right, the Path is plain, but otherwiſe intricate; the Deprecation belonging to the whole, both of doing and being puniſhed as the Huſbandmen, not to the former and diſtant only; and the People Ver. 9. were particularly the chief Prieſts and Elders, Mat. xxi. 23. with the Scribes, Mark xi. 27. who anſwered before, Mat. xxi. 31, 41.

Ver. 19. the People] Divers Copies have not this, ſufficient perhaps to make it doubtful to ſome; but Mills pronounces it not Luke's haud dubie, without doubt, Pr. 294. Whereas it is manifeſt this was not added from other Places, as Mills pretends, becauſe there is a different Word both in Mat. xxi. 46. & Mar. xii. 12.

who pretended themſelves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his Diſcourſe, in order to deliver him up to the Principality and Authority of the Governor.

21. And theſe aſked him as follows; Maſter, we know that thou ſayeſt and teacheſt rightly, and doſt not reſpect the Perſon, but teacheſt in Truth the Way of God.

22. Is it lawful for us to give Tax to Ceſar, or not?

23. But he obſerving their Craftineſs, ſaid to them, Why do ye tempt me?

24. Shew me a Penny; whoſe Image and Superſcription has it? And they made anſwer, Ceſar's.

25. At which he ſaid to them, Render therefore Ceſar's Things to Ceſar, and thoſe of God to God.

26. Thus they could not take hold of his Words; and wondering at his Anſwer, they held their peace.

27. Now ſome of the Sadducees coming to him (who deny that there is a Reſurrection) aſked him as follows:

28. Maſter, Moſes wrote to us, if any Man's Brother dies, having a Wife, and he dies childleſs, that his Brother ſhould take the Wife, and raiſe up Offspring for him.

29. There were then ſeven Brothers, and the firſt taking a Wife, died childleſs.

30. The ſecond alſo took the Wife, and he died childleſs.

31. And the third took her, nay likewiſe even the ſeven; however they left no Children, and died.

32. Moreover laſt of all the Wife alſo died.

33. In the Reſurrection therefore whoſe Wife of them will ſhe become? For the ſeven had her for a Wife.

34. And Jeſus made anſwer to them; The Children of this World marry, and are given in Marriage.

35. But thoſe who are counted worthy to obtain that World, and the Reſurrection from the Dead, neither marry, nor are given in Marriage;

36. Nor indeed can they die any more: for they are like the Angels, and are the Sons of God, being the Sons of the Reſurrection.

37. And that the Dead are raiſed up, even Moſes ſignified at the Buſh, when he ſays, The Lord, the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob.

38. Whereas he is not the God of the Dead, but of the Living; ſince they all live by him.

39. To which ſome of the Scribes made reply, Maſter, thou haſt ſaid well.

40. And they no more dared to aſk him any Thing.

41. Now he ſaid to them; How do People ſay, Chriſt is the Son of David?

42. When David himſelf ſays in the Book of Pſalms; The Lord ſaid to my Lord, Sit at my right Hand,

43. Until I make thy Enemies thy Footſtool.

44. David therefore calls him Lord, how then is he his Son?

45. Beſides while all the People were hearing, he ſaid to his Diſciples;

46. Take heed of the Scribes that like to walk in Robes, and love Salutations in the Markets, and likewiſe the firſt Seats in the Synagogues, with the firſt Places at Suppers;

47. Who devour Widows Houſes, and pray long in Pretence: theſe will receive more abundant Judgment.

CHAP. XXI.

LOOKING up likewiſe, he ſaw the Rich putting their Gifts into the Treaſury.

2. And he alſo ſaw ſome poor Widow put in there two Mites.

3. Whereupon he ſaid; Truly I tell you, that this poor Widow put in more than they all.

4. For theſe all put out of their Abundance into the Gifts of God; whereas ſhe out of her Want put in all the Livelihood which ſhe had.

5. Afterwards ſome ſpeaking about the Temple, that it was adorned with good Stones and Preſents, he ſaid,

6. As to theſe which you behold, the Days are coming wherein there will not be left one Stone upon another, that will not be demoliſhed.

Ver. 22. Annexed to the foregoing Ver. Mark xii. 14. ſo the 43 in Mat. xxii. 44. Mark xii. 36.

Ver. 34. anſwer] not in 3 or 4 Tranſ. and a Copy, and ſo Mills ſays is Mark's; though he had ſo much aſſerted, that Luke follows Mark.

Ver. 37. he ſays] viz. God, Mat. xxii. 31, 32. Mark xii. 26. Exod. iii. 6.

Ver. 38. ſince] Doddr. argues for this to be rendered therefore or ſo that, in a contrary Senſe, becauſe what it introduces is plainly the main Propoſition to be proved, and not an Argument for what immediately went before. Whereas it was the Reſurrection, or living after Death, that was to be proved, and this from God's ſaying, I am the God of Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob; whence Chriſt ſhews that they were then living, that being ſpoken long after they died, and conſequently that there muſt be ſuch living, as God was the God of the Living, or thoſe who were exiſtent, not of the Dead that had no Being; and becauſe they muſt all live by him who was their God, therefore it was demonſtrably certain that God gave Mankind an immortal living State, and ſo this was a divine Truth.

Ver. 2. there] Mills more modeſtly than ſometimes, It ſeems inſerted from the Margin, Pr. 420. I would ſay as modeſtly, It ſeems never to have been there, and the Fewneſs of thoſe that want it will juſtify me.

Ver. 4. Gifts] as in Ver. 1.

7. And

7. And they aſked him as follows, Maſter, when therefore will theſe Things be? And what the Sign when they are hereafter to be?

8. At this he ſaid; Beware that you may not be ſeduced: for many will come in my Name, ſaying, I am Chriſt; and the Time draws near, therefore do not go after them.

9. Beſides when you hear of Wars, and Tumults, be not terrified: for theſe Things muſt firſt come to paſs, but the End not preſently.

10. Then ſaid he to them: One Nation will riſe up againſt another, and one Kingdom againſt another.

11. There will even be great Earthquakes throughout the Places, with Famines and Peſtilences; as alſo frightful Things, and great Signs will be from Heaven.

12. Yet before all theſe, they will lay their Hands on you, and perſecute you, delivering up to the Synagogues and Priſons, when you will be brought before Kings and Governors for my Name's ſake.

13. However it will come on to you for Evidence.

14. Place therefore in your Hearts, that you ſhould not ſtudy before to make defence.

15. For I will give you Mouth and Wiſdom, which all who oppoſe you ſhall not be able to ſpeak againſt, nor reſiſt.

16. And you will alſo be delivered up by Parents, Brothers, Relations and Friends, and ſome of you will they cauſe to be put to death.

17. Nay you will be hated by all for my Name.

18. Nevertheleſs there ſhall not a Hair of your Head at all periſh.

19. In your Patience poſſeſs your Souls.

20. And when you ſee Jeruſalem compaſſed about by Armies, then know that the Deſolation of it draws near.

21. Then let thoſe in Judea flee to the Mountains, and thoſe within it go forth, and them in the Countries not enter into it:

22. Becauſe theſe are the Days of Vengeance, for all Things which are written to be fulfilled.

23. Wo alſo will be to them who are with Child, and to ſuch as give ſuck in thoſe Days: for there will be great Neceſſity on the Earth, and Wrath among this People.

24. So that they will fall by the Edge of the Sword, and be taken captive into all Nations; even Jeruſalem will be trod down by the Nations, till their Times are fulfilled.

25. And there will be Signs in the Sun, Moon and Stars; as alſo on the Earth Diſtreſs of the Nations in Perplexity, the Sea and Waves making a noiſe;

26. Men being diſheartened for Fear, and Expectation of the Things coming upon the World: for the Powers of the Heavens will be ſhaken.

27 And then will they ſee the Man come in a Cloud, with Power and much Glory.

28. But when theſe Things begin to come to paſs, ſtand upright, and lift up your Heads; becauſe your Redemption draws near.

29. He further ſpoke a Similitude to them; Behold the Fig-tree and all the Trees,

30. When they now ſhoot out, you upon ſeeing it, do of your ſelves know that Summer is now near:

31. So alſo when you ſee theſe Things come to paſs, know that the Kingdom of God is near.

32. I ſay to you certainly, that this Generation will by no means paſs away, until all the Things are done.

33. Heaven and Earth will paſs away, but my Words will not at all.

34. And take heed to your ſelves, leſt at any time your Hearts ſhould be weighed down with Surfeiting, Drunkenneſs, and the Cares

Ver. 8. and the Time draws near] by Weſt. They are the Words of the Seducers. If it be aſked What Time? ſince it does not at all appear by their Words here recited; he tells us, When I will deliver you from all your Enemies. But is Imagination thus to ſupplant the Holy Scripture, where the Time is manifeſt of many coming as ſaid here?

Ver. 9. for] A Verſion or two has not this Particle, whereupon Mills concludes it brought hither, without the Gueſs of whence or by whom, Prol. 421. but repeated N. 426. as of other Evangeliſts; and in the former Place with Fathers or Verſions, in the latter without Fathers or Copies, how ingenious is he to multiply the pretended Faults in our Bible!

Ver. 17. This, if not the next Ver. too, ſhould have been annexed to that before, according to Matt. x. 22. Mark xiii. 13.

Ver. 19. poſſeſs] Some you will poſſeſs, which Mills argues hard for, Prol. 677. but ours has the moſt Uſe as well as Authority: that is not all, it being in the 1 Aoriſt inſtead of the preſ. Tenſe, and the middle Voice inſtead of the com. Form, in the imp. Mood, as the Lexicon of Schrevelius has it under κτήσαιτο, with ſome Difficulty both as to the Word and Senſe, no Wonder that a Letter was altered to make it the plain fut. of the indic. Mood; whereas if it had been changed from the fut. it would ſcarce have been other than into the clear preſ. Tenſe of the imperative. Whitby has Something of this miſquoted in Mat. Exam. L. ii. 2.

Ver. 24. their Times are fulfilled] In Beza's Cambridge Copy they are fulfilled, without the other, which Mills ſays ſome, who would have the Expreſſion clearer, added in the Marg. and he thought from Eph. i. 10. but Whitby exclaims againſt him for it.

Ib. are fulfilled] which may be hereafter, and for which read Whitby.

Ver. 25. Sea and Waves] Not only this, but all in this and the 2 next Verſes, both Ham. and Whit. apply to the Deſtruction of the Jews by the Romans.

Ver. 32. all the Things] Wall having an Hypotheſis to ſupport as at Mat. xxiv. 29, 30. ſays, it is in many MSS. all theſe things, which ſeems here, adds he, to be the right Reading, Crit Not. though thoſe MSS. are but three, with two Verſions, as may be ſeen by Mills; and this Work I have ſeveral times caught him at.

of this Life, and that Day come upon you of a ſudden.

35. For as a Snare will it come on all thoſe who dwell on the Surface of the whole Earth.

36. Watch therefore, making ſupplication at all Times, that you may be counted worthy to eſcape all theſe Things which are about to be, and to ſtand before the Man.

37. By Day too he was teaching in the Temple, and at Night going out, lodged on the Mount called that of Olives.

38. Moreover all the People came to him at Morning in the Temple, to hear him.

CHAP. XXII.

NOW the Feaſt of unleavened Bread drew near, which is called the Paſſover.

2. And the chief Prieſts and Scribes ſought how they might put him to death; for they were afraid of the People.

3. Satan alſo entered into Judas ſurnamed Iſcariot, who was one of the Number of the twelve.

4. And he going away, talked with the chief Prieſts and Captains, how he might deliver him up to them.

5. Glad of that, they agreed to give him Money.

6. Thus he engaged, and ſought an Opportunity to deliver him up to them when without the Company.

7. Moreover the Day of unlcávened Bread came, on which the Paſſover muſt be ſlain.

8. So he ſent Peter and John, ſaying, Go on, and get ready the Paſſover for us, that we may eat.

9. And they aſked him, Where wouldeſt thou have us get ready?

10. To whom he replied; Behold when you are entered into the City, a Man will meet you carrying a Pitcher of Water; him follow into the Houſe where he goes in.

11. And tell the Houſholder of the Houſe, Maſter ſays to thee, Where is a Room, whereat I may eat the Paſſover along with my Diſciples?

12. Upon this the ſame will ſhew you a great Chamber furniſhed: there get ready.

13. Whereupon they went away, and found according as he ſpoke to them; ſo they got the Paſſover ready.

14. Afterwards when the Hour was, he ſate down, and the twelve Apoſtles with him.

15. And he ſaid to them; I have earneſtly deſired to eat this Paſſover with you, before I ſuffer.

16. For I tell you, that I will no more at all eat of it, until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God.

17. And he received the Cup, giving thanks, and ſaid; Take this, and divide to your ſelves.

18. For I tell you, that I will not at all drink any of the Product of the Vine, until the Kingdom of God comes.

19. Taking Bread likewiſe, he gave thanks, and broke; then gave to them, ſaying, This is my Body, given for you; do this in Remembrance of me:

20. In like Manner alſo the Cup after Supper, ſaying, This Cup is the new Covenant by my Blood, ſhed for you.

21. Nevertheleſs lo the Hand of him that will deliver me up, is with me on the Table.

22. And indeed the Man is going according to what is determined; yet wo will be to that Man by whom he is delivered up.

23. At this they began to query with themſelves, which therefore it might be of them that would do this.

24. Nay there was alſo a Contention among them, which of them was thought to be the greateſt.

25. But he ſaid to them: The Kings of the Gentiles rule them, and they who have the authority over them are called Benefactors.

26. Yet you ſhall not be ſo; but let the greateſt among you become as the young, and he who is chief as he that waits on.

27. For which is greateſt, he who ſits down, or he that waits on? Is not he who ſits down? But I am in the midſt of you as he that waits on.

28. But you are thoſe who have continued with me in my Trials.

29. And I appoint for you a Kingdom, as my Father has for me;

30. That you may eat and drink on my Table in my Kingdom, and ſit upon Thrones judging the twelve Tribes of Iſrael.

31. The Lord further ſaid to Simon; Simon, behold Satan has coveted you, to ſift as Wheat.

32. But I have prayed for thee, that thy Faith may not fail; and when thou art converted, eſtabliſh thy Brethren.

33. At which he anſwered him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, even to Priſon and to Death.

Ver. 6. to them] Two Copies and as many Tranſ. being without this, we are not therefore to conclude with Mills it is from Mat. Prol. 421.

Ib. without] as alſo in Ver. 35. being not reſident elſewhere.

Ver. 17. this] Mills affirms is the Scribes, not our Evangeliſt's, being omitted by the Vulgate only.

Ver. 24. thought to be] omitted by Weſley.

Ver. 32. converted] Weſley, returned.

34. How-

34. However he replied, I ſay to thee, Peter, the Cock will not at all crow to Day, before thou wilt thrice deny that thou knoweſt me.

35. Beſides he ſaid to them, When I ſent you without a Purſe, Bag and Shoes, did you want any Thing? And they ſaid, Nothing.

36. Therefore added he to them; But now he who has a Purſe, let him take it, in like Manner alſo a Bag; nay he who has not a Sword, let him ſell his Garment, and buy.

37. For I tell you, that this which is written muſt yet be accompliſhed in me, And he was reckoned with the Unrighteous: for even the Things concerning me have an End.

38. And they ſaid, Lord, behold here two Swords; to whom he replied, It is ſufficient.

39. Next going out, he went, according to Cuſtom, to the Mount of Olives; and his Diſciples alſo followed him.

40. At length being in the Place, he ſaid to them, Pray, not to enter into Trial.

41. And when he was got away from them about a Stone's Throw, he kneeled down, and prayed,

42. Saying, Father, if thou wouldeſt take away this Cup from me; nevertheleſs not my Will, but thine be done.

43. In the mean while there appeared to him an Angel from Heaven, ſtrengthening him.

44. And he being in an Agony prayed more earneſtly; inſomuch that his Sweat was as it were Clots of Blood falling down to the Ground.

45. Afterwards when he was riſen from Prayer, he came to his Diſciples, and found them ſleeping for Grief.

46. And he ſaid to them, Why are you aſleep? Riſe and pray, that you may not enter into Trial.

47. Now while he was ſpeaking, lo a Company, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to Jeſus to kiſs him.

48. With that Jeſus ſaid to him, Judas, doſt thou deliver up the Man with a Kiſs?

49. So thoſe about him ſeeing what would be, ſaid to him, Lord, ſhall we ſtrike with the Sword?

50. And one of them in particular ſtruck a Servant of the high Prieſt, and took off his Ear.

51. But Jeſus made anſwer, Do you let it be thus far; and touching his Ear, he healed him.

52. Jeſus alſo ſaid to the chief Prieſts Captains of the Temple, and the Elders, who were come to him; Did you come out as againſt a Robber, with Swords and Sticks;

53. I being daily with you in the Temple, you did not ſtretch Hands at me; but this is your Hour, and the Power of Darkneſs.

54. And taking him, they had on, and brought him to the Houſe of the high Prieſt. Peter notwithſtanding followed far diſtant.

55. And when they had kindled a Fire within the Hall, and were ſate down together, Peter ſate down among them.

56. But ſome young Woman ſeeing him ſit at the Fire, looked ſtedfaſtly on him, and ſaid, He alſo was with him.

57. Whereas he denied him as follows, Woman, I do not know him.

58. And a little after another ſeeing him, ſaid, Thou alſo art one of them. But Peter ſaid, Man, I am not.

59. And at the diſtance of about one Hour, ſome other affirmed thus, Of a truth he alſo was with him: for even he is a Galilean.

60. Peter notwithſtanding ſaid, Man, I am ignorant of that which thou ſayeſt. And immediately while he was ſpeaking, the Cock crowed.

61. Upon this the Lord turning, looked on Peter; and he called to mind the Expreſſion of the Lord, how he ſaid to him, Before the Cock has crowed, thou wilt thrice deny me.

62. And going out abroad, Peter wept bitterly.

63. The Men further who thronged Jeſus, did mock him, beating.

Ver. 34. not at all crow] by the double Negative in Gr. and concerning this look at John xiii. 38.

Ver. 36. let him ſell—and buy] Forty Copies in Kuſter's Edit. of Mills have ſhall ſell—and buy, which Grotius ſuppoſes made by ſome, who were offended at the Novelty of a Command they did not underſtand; yet that I ſee but little in, tho' Whitby commends it; and it might be rather to accord better, as imagined, with Mat. xxvi. 52. Now for the Meaning of it, tho' an imperative Word, it may have a permiſſive Senſe, or let ſignify may; yet as Chriſt forbade the Sword in Mat. a more juſtifiable Interpretation may be, that this Sword to be bought was a ſpiritual or myſtick one. The Paſſage indeed denotes they would meet with Perils, as the great Commentators expound it, but that was the Cauſe or Motive, not the Signification of the Expreſſion.

Ver. 42. wouldeſt take away] or art willing to put away, the latter being infinitive, not imperative, excepting in 9 or 10 Copies, I ſuppoſe from Mark xiv. 36. and rejected by the Criticks; this being as in Chap. xix. 42. Mark viii. 12. Whitby has the Text let this Cup paſs, one of his many hundred Blunders.

Ver. 51. Do you let it be thus far] Permit this Injury, or Aſſault, offered by one of my Apoſtles, which I will preſently repair, Whitby in Annot. though otherwiſe in Paraph.

Ver. 61. to him] Like this in Ver. 17. by Mills.

Ver. 63. thronged] as in Ch. viii. 45. Acts xviii. 5.

64. As alſo covered him over, and ſtruck him on the Face, then aſked him as follows, Propheſy, who it is ſmote thee.

65. Nay many other Things blaſpheming they ſpoke againſt him.

66. When it was Day too the Elders of the People, along with the chief Prieſts and Scribes, were gathered together, and carried him up into their Council,

67. Saying, What art thou the Chriſt? Tell us. And he ſaid to them; If I ſhould tell you, ye would not at all believe.

68. And if I alſo ſhould aſk, you would not at all anſwer me, or let go.

69. Hereafter the Man will be ſitting at the right Hand of the Power of God.

70. Upon which they all ſaid, Art thou then the Son of God? To whom he replied, You ſay it, I am.

71. Now ſaid they, What Need have we of Witneſs further? For we our ſelves have heard from his own Mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND the whole Multitude of them roſe up, and carried him to Pilate.

2. When they began thus to accuſe him, We found this Perſon perverting the Nation, and forbidding to give Tax to Ceſar, declaring that he himſelf is Chriſt a King.

3. At this Pilate aſked him as follows, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he made anſwer to him, Thou ſayeſt it.

4. And Pilate ſaid to the chief Prieſts and the Multitude, I find no Crime in this Man.

5. But they were forcible, ſaying, He ſtirs up the People, teaching throughout all Judea, having begun from Galilee hitherto.

6. Now Pilate hearing of Galilee, aſked whether the Man was a Galilean.

7. And upon knowing that he was of Herod's Juriſdiction, he ſent him back to Herod, who was himſelf at Jeruſalem at that Time.

8. Whereby Herod ſeeing Jeſus, was very glad: for he wanted to ſee him a great while, becauſe he had heard many Things concerning him; and he hoped to ſee ſome Miracle done by him.

9. So he enquired of him in many Matters; whereas he anſwered him Nothing.

10. Moreover the chief Prieſts and Scribes ſtood, eagerly accuſing him.

11. Nay Herod with his Warriors deſpiſing him, and mocking, when he had cloathed him with gay Apparel, he ſent him again to Pilate.

12. Thus both Pilate and Herod became Friends on that Day with one another: for they were before in Enmity to each other.

13. And Pilate calling together the chief Prieſts, the Rulers and People,

14. Said to them; Ye have brought this Man to me, as one who turns away the People; whom behold I having examined before you, have found no Crime in, of the Things that ye make accuſation againſt him.

15. Nor yet Herod: for I ſent you back to him, and lo Nothing deſerving Death is proved on him.

16. Therefore I will chaſtiſe him, and releaſe.

17. Now he had a Neceſſity to releaſe one to them at the Feaſt.

18. Upon which all the Multitude cried out as follows, Take him away, and releaſe to us Barabbas;

19. Who was, for ſome Mutiny made in the City, and Murder, caſt into Priſon.

20. Pilate therefore ſpoke to them again, being willing to releaſe Jeſus.

21. Nevertheleſs they bawled out thus, Crucify, crucify him.

22. Whereas he replied to them the third time, What Evil forſooth has he done? I have found no Crime for Death in him; therefore I will chaſtiſe him, and releaſe.

23. Yet they lay on with loud Voices, requeſting he might be crucified; and the Voices of them and the chief Prieſts prevailed:

24. Inſomuch that Pilate gave ſentence their Requeſt ſhould be done.

25. Thus he releaſed to them, him that for Mutiny and Murder was caſt into Priſon, whom they requeſted; but he delivered up Jeſus to their Will.

26. Further as they had him away, they took hold of Simon a certain Cyrenean coming from the Country, and put the Croſs on him, to carry after Jeſus.

27. Beſides a great Multitude of People, and Women, followed him; who alſo lamented, and mourned for him.

28. But Jeſus turning to them, ſaid; Daughters of Jeruſalem, do not cry for me, nevertheleſs cry both for your ſelves, and your Children:

29. Becauſe lo the Days are coming, in which People will ſay, The Barren are bleſſed, with the Wombs that have not brought forth, and the Breaſts that have not given ſuck.

30. Then will they begin to ſay to the Mountains, Fall on us; and to the Hills, Cover us.

31. Since if they do theſe Things in green Wood, what will be done in dry?

32. And two other Malefactors were alſo brought with him to be put to death.

33. At length when they were come away to the Place called the Scull one, there they crucified him, and the Malefactors, one indeed at the right Hand, with the other at the left.

34. Jeſus notwithſtanding ſaid, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Next they divided his Garments, and caſt Lots.

35. Nay the People ſtood looking, and the Rulers alſo with them ſneered, ſaying, He ſaved others; let him ſave himſelf, if he is Chriſt the choſen one of God.

36. And the Soldiers likewiſe mocked him, and coming near, brought him Vinegar;

37. As alſo ſaid, If thou art the King of the Jews, ſave thy ſelf.

38. And there was a Superſcription too written over him, in Letters of Greek, Latin and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39. And one of the Malefactors who were hanged, blaſphemed him, ſaying, If thou art Chriſt, ſave thy ſelf and us.

40. But the other anſwering, rebuked him as follows; Doſt not thou fear God, ſince thou art in the ſame Condemnation?

41. And we indeed juſtly: for we receive Things worthy of what we have committed; whereas he has done Nothing amiſs.

42. Moreover he ſaid to Jeſus, Remember me, Lord, when thou comeſt into thy Kingdom.

43. To whom Jeſus declared; I tell thee certainly, To Day thou wilt be with me in Paradiſe.

44. Now it was about the ſixth Hour, and there was Darkneſs in the whole Country till the ninth.

45. And not only the Sun was darkened, but the Veil of the Temple was divided in the middle.

46. At laſt Jeſus cried out with a loud Voice, and ſaid, Father, I will commit my Spirit into thy Hands; and having ſaid thus, he expired.

47. So that the Centurion ſeeing what was done, glorified God, ſaying, Really this was a righteous Man.

48. And all the Multitude who were come together to that Sight, when they ſaw the Things which were done, beat their Breaſts, and returned.

49. There ſtood too all his Acquaintance far diſtant, and the Women who followed him together from Galilee, ſeeing theſe Things.

50. Moreover behold a Man named Joſeph, being a Counſellor, a good and righteous Man,

51. (Who did not agree to their Counſel and Deed) from Arimathea a City of the Jews, who alſo even himſelf looked for the Kingdom of God;

Ver. 31. green Wood] repreſenting the Jews, as dry the Gentiles; and neither ſuitably nor properly a tree, for which the Gr. too has another Word. But being tranſlated tree, it is interpreted to mean Jeſus himſelf, and then the dry the Jews; the latter of which does not ſeem ſo well denoted by a Tree, nor the former by Wood: as alſo in better repreſents among, than to; as if he had ſaid, If theſe Things are done to me among the Jews, what will be done to them among the Gentiles? The Reader that has the Shepherd of St. Hermas, may find a very particular Account of this Kind, in the 8th Similitude of the 3d Book.

Ver. 33. the Scull one] for which our Tranſlators have ſtrangely put the Lat. Name Calvary here, and here only. It is a ſmall Hill upon the greater Mount of Moriah, Maundr. Journ.

Ver. 42. into] Wall turns it in, and Whitby accordingly expounds it to be the Judge of all Men; but by our Saviour's Anſwer, it appears he did not take it ſo, and ἐν with a Verb of Motion eſpecially may mean into.

Ver. 43. Mills telling of ſome from Origen who ſuſpected this Verſe, tho' all the Copies and Verſions have it, throws in an Objection, For how could it be ſaid he was three Days and three Nights in the Heart of the Earth, who as ſoon as he departed out of this Life, was to be in Paradiſe? As if Jeſus had not both a Soul and a Body. As for Hammond, he ſlips over it, and Whitby handles it gently, to avoid the Dilemma doubtleſs of ſhewing, that with me is either conſiſtent, or inconſiſtent with the Article of Chriſt's Deſcent into Hell, one being impoſſible, and the other unſafe. But the latter after meeting with the Company of Bp. Pearſon, Barrow, &c. ſpeaks out plainer in an Appendix to Acts ii. 27. and among the reſt ſays, 'The Scripture doth aſſure us, that the Soul of the Holy Jeſus, being ſeparated from his Body, went to Paradiſe, Luke xxiii. 43.'

Ver. 44. Country] Being ſo Mat. xxvii. 45. Mark xv. 33.

Ver. 46. I will commit] in the fut. Tenſe, as alſo the Sept. have it, Pſa. xxxi. 5. which therefore even Mills, that great Criminator of the received Reading, looks upon as Luke's own; the preſ. Tenſe being a various Reading of ſome, but in a different Manner.

Ib. and having ſaid thus, he expired] Mills had a Suſpicion theſe Words were ſupplied; which however we may not, ſince only three Copies are without them.

52. He came to Pilate, and aſked for the Body of Jeſus.

53. Which taking down, he wrapt it up in fine Linen; and laid it in a Sepulchre cut in Stone, where there had not been any one yet put.

54. The Day alſo was the Preparation, and the Sabbath approached.

55. And the Women likewiſe, who were come with him from Galilee, following after, beheld the Grave, and how his Body was laid.

56. Who returning, got ready Spices and Ointments; but reſted indeed the Sabbath, according to the Commandment.

CHAP. XXIV.

AFTERWARDS on the firſt Day after the Sabbath, when Day began to break, they came to the Sepulchre, carrying the Spices which they had got ready; and there were ſome with them.

2. And they found the Stone rolled away from the Grave.

3. With that they went in, but did not find the Body of the Lord Jeſus.

4. And while they doubted concerning this, behold two Men ſtood by them in glittering Apparel.

5. Who upon their being afraid, and bending their Faces to the Ground, ſaid to them; Why do ye ſeek the Living with the Dead?

6. He is not here, but is riſen up: remember how he ſpoke to you, while he was in Galilee,

7. Saying, The Man muſt be delivered up into the Power of ſinful Men, as alſo be crucified, and the third Day ariſe.

8. At which they remembred his Words.

9. And returning from the Grave, told all theſe Things to the eleven and to all the reſt.

10. Now Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the Mother of James, and the reſt with them, were they who ſpoke theſe Things to the Apoſtles.

11. But their Words ſeemed before them as a Trifle, ſo that they did not believe them.

12. Peter alſo roſe, and ran to the Grave; and ſtooping down, beheld the Linen Cloaths lying alone: upon which he went away, wondering to himſelf at what was done.

13. And behold two of them were going on the ſame Day, to a Village ſixty Furlongs diſtant from Jeruſalem, by Name Emmaus.

14. When they talked to one another about all thoſe Things which were come to paſs.

15. So while they were talking, and diſputing, Jeſus himſelf drew near, and went with them.

16. But their Eyes were held not to know him.

17. And he ſaid to them, What Words are theſe which you confer with one to another as you walk, and are ſorrowful?

18. Upon this one named Cleopas made anſwer to him, Art thou only a Stranger in Jeruſalem, and haſt not known the Things that have been done in it in theſe Days?

19. Whereas he aſked them, What Things? And they replied to him: Thoſe concerning Jeſus the Nazorite, who was a Man that was a Prophet, powerful in Work and Word, before God and all the People;

20. Eſpecially how the chief Prieſts and our Rulers, delivered him up to the Judgment of Death, and have crucified him.

21. On the contrary we hoped, that it was he would redeem Iſrael; but indeed with all theſe Things, this preſent makes the third Day ſince theſe Things were done.

22. Nay and ſome Women of us made us amazed, who were in the Morning at the Grave;

23. And when they found not his Body, came reporting, they had ſeen a Viſion of Angels, who ſaid he was alive.

24. Some of thoſe alſo with us went away to the Grave, and found even ſo as the Women declared; but did not ſee him.

25. At this he ſaid to them; O unwiſe

Ver. 1. and there were ſome with them] Firſt in his Various Readings Mills ſignifies theſe Words might creep in from Ver. 10. then he ſays it is a Commentary, Prol. 421. and afterwards that it ſeems they crept in from Mark xv. 41. Prol. 736. becauſe lacking in a few Books.

Ver. 12. Peter alſo] not Then, as Hammond ſhews on John xx. n. a. and Whitby n. b. this being before as at John xx. 3. Luke diſplacing ſeveral Matters.

Ib. alone] Doddr. ſays it ſhould be rendered only, but this John xx. 7. contradicts.

Ver. 18. Cleopas] It may be wondered that Beza, &c. while ſhewing this was not Luke himſelf, &c. did not obſerve it was the Uncle of Jeſus, John xix. 25. as Hegeſippus who lived in the 2d Century is quoted relating in Euſebius, Eccleſ. Hiſt. B. 3. Ch. 11. by being the Brother of Joſeph, and according to Whitby on John xix. 25. the ſame with Alphæus, or rather as at John xix. 25.

Ib. Art thou only a Stranger] Weſley, Doſt thou alone even ſojourn. Why he alone? And of what Uſe is adding even, except to be unintelligible?

Ver. 25. at believing] For our preſ. Reading is, as if it was fooliſh and ſtupid to believe.

ones, and ſlow of Heart at believing in all that the Prophets have ſpoken!

26. Was it not expedient for Chriſt to ſuffer theſe Things, and enter into his Glory?

27. And beginning from Moſes, and from all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the Things concerning himſelf.

28. In the mean while they came near to the Village whither they were going, when he pretended he would go further.

29. And they conſtrained him, ſaying, Remain with us, ſince it is towards Evening, and the Day declines; ſo he went in to remain with them.

30. With whom while he ſate down, he took Bread, and bleſſed, which breaking, he gave to them.

31. Then their Eyes were opened, and they knew him; whereupon he diſappeared from them.

32. And they ſaid one to another, Was not our Heart burning in us, as he ſpoke to us in the Way, and as he opened to us the Scriptures?

33. Riſing too the ſame Hour, they returned to Jeruſalem, where they found the eleven and thoſe with them got together,

34. Who ſaid, The Lord is really riſen up, and has appeared to Simon.

35. They likewiſe declared the Things that were in the Way, and how he was known by them in breaking Bread.

36. And as they ſpoke theſe Things, Jeſus himſelf ſtood in the midſt of them, and ſays to them, Peace be to you.

37. But they being terrified and afraid, thought they had ſeen a Spirit.

38. Hereupon he ſaid to them; Why are you troubled? And wherefore do Reaſonings come up in your Hearts?

39. See my Hands and my Feet, that it is I my ſelf: feel me, and ſee; ſince a Spirit has not Fleſh and Bones, as you behold I have.

40. And ſaying this, he ſhewed them his Hands and Feet.

41. Beſides while they did not believe for Joy, and wondered, he ſaid to them, Have you any Meat here?

42. So they gave to him Part of a boiled Fiſh, and ſome of a Honey-comb.

43. Which he took, and did eat before them.

44. As alſo ſaid to them, Theſe are the Words which I ſpoke to you, while I was with you, that all the Things written in the Law of Moſes, the Prophets and Pſalms, concerning me, muſt be fulfilled.

45. Then he opened their Mind, to underſtand the Scriptures.

46. He ſaid further to them; So it is written, and ſo it was expedient for Chriſt to ſuffer, and riſe from the Dead the third Day;

47. And for Repentance, and Forgiveneſs of Sins, to be preached in his Name in all Nations, beginning from Jeruſalem.

48. Moreover you are Witneſſes of theſe Things.

49. And behold I will ſend the Promiſe of my Father upon you; but ſtay you in the City of Jeruſalem, until you are cloathed with Power from on high.

50. Laſtly he took them out abroad as far as Bethany; then holding up his Hands, he bleſſed them.

Ver. 28. pretended he would go further] And Weſt. ſays, He would have done it, had they not preſſed Him to ſtay. How does he know that, when it may rather appear he intended to diſcover himſelf? Elſe why did he come to them?

Ver. 34. Who ſaid] not the two Diſciples, which the Gr. will not bear.

Ib. to Simon] as it ſeems a little before this, 1 Cor. xv. 5. which the Diſciples were talking of when the other two came.

Ver. 35. by] Our Tranſlators commonly uſe to with known, which is better than of.

Ver. 38. wherefore] by Mills as the three Ch. xxii. 70.

Ver. 39. See] as further in this Ver. not the Adverb Behold, as it may be taken for in the com. Verſion.

Ver. 43. Wall ſays, Vulg. and many Greec MSS. add at the End, and gave them the reſt; whereas beſides three more Verſions, thoſe MSS. are but three at moſt, and they vary, being alſo rejected by Mills, and ſuppoſed made from Acts x. 41.

Ver. 46. and ſo it was expedient] wanting in a very few, and in the preſent Books, ſays Mills, included in Crotchets, and he adds, taken from Ver. 26. but the following Verb being infinitive ſhews otherwiſe, it not cohering well with written, nor is ſuch put to it in the parallel Expreſſion John xx. 31.

Ver. 47. beginning] Inſtead of it beginning, the Vulg. and three or four have they (viz. the Preachers, as appears by being gen. and abl. abſolute) beginning, which both Eraſmus and Mills reckoned genuine; and the latter repreſents the ſing. as being wrong, becauſe thoſe Things (he ſhould have ſaid this to ſpeak properly) cannot be referred to Chriſt. No certainly, who pretended that? but it may to the Preaching.

Ver. 49. of Jeruſalem] Becauſe not in the Vulg. and Copt. Verſions, with the Cambr. and one other Copy, Mills caſts it off, Prol. 424. but why then not behold in the ſame Verſe, which is abſent ſo, and further in the Syr. Perſ. and Arab. Verſions?

Ib. cloathed] As the Original ſignifies, and not endued or qualified, or otherwiſe having a dowry, Gen. xxx. 20. which are other Things, and not the Meaning of this Gr. Word, though endu be a Part of it, which it ſeems led our Tranſlators into the Miſtake; ſee the like Judg. xiii. 19. and elſewhere.

51. And

51. And while he was bleſſing them, he became diſtant from them, and was carried up into Heaven.

52. Upon which they worſhipped him, and returned to Jeruſalem with great Joy.

53. And were always in the Temple, praiſing and bleſſing God: ſo let it be.

Ver. 52. worſhipped him, and] Only one Copy, and that an unaccountable one too, lacking this, yet Mills relates ſome Reader brought it from Mat. xxviii. 17. hither into the Marg. from whence at length it paſſed into the middle of the Page. What might the Scripture be reduced to at this Rate! I ſuppoſe more Words might be taken out of the Books of the New Teſt. (beſides Additions and Alterations, which latter are far more numerous) than there are Verſes.

NOTES upon the BOOK of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

THE Word was in the Beginning, and it was with God, nay the Word was God,

2. He himſelf was with God in the Beginning.

3. All Things were made by him, and without him there was not one Thing made which was made.

4. In him there was Life, and that was the Light of Men.

5. And the Light ſhined in Darkneſs, but the Darkneſs did not perceive it.

6. There was a Man ſent from God, whoſe Name was John.

7. He himſelf came for a Witneſs, that he might teſtify concerning the Light, for all to believe by it.

8. He was not that Light, but was to teſtify concerning the Light;

9. Which was the true Light, that enlightens every Perſon who comes into the World.

10. He was in the World, and it was made by him; yet that did not know him.

11. He came to his own, and they did not receive him.

12. But to them whoever received him, he gave Authority to become the Children of God, to thoſe that believed in his Name:

13. Who were born, not of Blood, nor of the Will of the Fleſh, nor of the Will of Man, but of God.

14. And the Word became Fleſh, and dwelt among us (ſo that we ſaw his Glory, the Glory as of the only begotten one of the Father) full of Grace and Truth.

15. John teſtified concerning him, and cried out, as follows; This was he of whom I ſpoke, One who comes after me is before me, becauſe he was prior to me.

16. And of his Fulneſs we have all received, even Grace for Grace.

17. Since the Law was given by Moſes, Grace and Truth was by Jeſus Chriſt.

18. None has ever ſeen God; that only begotten Son, who is in the Boſom of the Father, has declared him.

Tit. John] This Book compoſed the laſt of all thoſe of the New Teſtament, is according to the Eccleſiaſtical Writers placed An. Dom. 97, in the Year after John's Revelation, and in that before his Death. About the Year 99 or 100, as it is computed, theſe four Hiſtories of our Saviour were put together in one Book; when there was no Apoſtle, nor probably any immediate Diſciple of Jeſus, left to relate more concerning him; ſoon after the Acts of the Apoſtles, and by the Year 110 Paul's Epiſtles, beſides that to the Hebrews, and the firſt of Peter and John, with the reſt afterwards, but not done by any General Council; conſult Mills, Proleg.

Ver. 3. not one Thing made] Some make the Period here, two Writers at the following in him, Mills, Prol. 796. two more omitting that was made; but as Mills defends none of them, Whitby improperly anſwers him with a Pother about it, making it ſeem more uncertain than it is, Exam. Lib. 2. C. 1. S. 1.

Ver. 4. Life] that Life eternal which he revealed to the World, 1 John v. 11. Ch. xiv. 6. Whitby.

Ver. 5. perceive] As Beza expounds his comprehenderunt; whence our comprehended, which is more obſcure, and uſed for contained, Rom. xiii. 9. Iſa. xl. 12. that cannot be the Meaning here.

Ver. 7. it] the Light, of which he is ſpeaking; and according to Acts iii. 16. Phil. i. 29. Gal. v. 22. Heb. xii. 2. and were all to believe by or through John? Weſt. thro' it.

Ver. 9. enlightens every Perſon] What he enlightens every Man (or every Man is ſo enlightened) with, muſt be the Light of Men, and what that is we are told Ver. 4. But Gill in his voluminous Expoſition, on the Books of the N. Teſt. in 3 Vols. fol. writes, the ſenſe is, either that every man that is enlightened in a ſpiritual manner, is enlightened by him—or the meaning is, that he is that light which lighteth all ſorts of men; which is true in a ſpiritual ſenſe. Both Ways you ſee it is ſpiritual; yet he concludes, it is beſt to underſtand theſe words (what otherwiſe than the Senſe or Meaning of them is?) of the light of nature, and reaſon, which—is no other than the light of a natural conſcience. However this Light we hear is true, whatever he may call it. And certainly the Words intimate more than the mere Property of Mankind. Beſides this Author does not ſeem to have underſtood his own Expreſſions: did he mean by the light of—that it is nature, reaſon, and a natural conſcience? I ſhould think, not ſo abſurdly. Or did he mean Something beſides that enlightens theſe? If ſo, it may, or indeed muſt be ſpiritual ſtill. Nay it is the Life of Chriſt as he is God, Ver. 1, 3. 4. which ſurely is Somewhat elſe than human Reaſon or Nature; as likewiſe Whitby pleads, and ſays, Chriſt muſt be ſaid to be the Light of Men, by giving them the Knowledge of eternal Life, and of the way that leadeth to it, Annot. who alſo on Heb. x. 5. cites from Vejikra Rab. Sect. 31. אתה נואר כל באו עולם Thou art he who enlightens every Man that comes into the World.

Ver. 14. dwelt] Weſt. tabernacled.

Ver. 16. And] Mills finding ὅτι inſtead of καὶ with half a dozen in all, MSS. Verſions and Writers, lays hold of that for the right, which would denote a Reaſon as becauſe, or for want of making Proof of ſuch, he ſays certainly or that is to ſay. Weak Work!

Ib. Grace for Grace] a greater Meaſure of it, for a leſs which they or Mankind had before, according to Ch. x. 10. and this does no Violence to the Words, like other Attempts at Interpretation.

19. And this was the Teſtimony of John, when the Jews ſent Prieſts and Levites out of Jeruſalem, for them to aſk him, Who art thou?

20. Whereupon he confeſſed, and did not deny, even confeſſed, I am not Chriſt.

21. And they aſked him, What then? Art thou Elias? To which he ſays, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he anſwered, No.

22. Therefore they enquired of him, Who art thou? that we may give an Anſwer to them that ſent us: what doſt ſpeak concerning thy ſelf?

23. He replied: I am the Voice of one crying out in the Wilderneſs, Let the Way for the Lord be ſtraight; as the Prophet Eſaias ſaid.

24. Moreover thoſe who were ſent were ſome of the Phariſees.

25. Next they aſked him in this manner, Why then doſt thou baptize, if thou art not Chriſt, nor Elias, nor the Prophet?

26. John made anſwer to them; I baptize with Water; but there ſtands one amongſt you, whom ye do not know.

27. It is he that comes after me, who is before me; the Latchet of whoſe Shoe I am not worthy that I ſhould undo.

28. Theſe Things were done at Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29. The next Day John beholds Jeſus coming to him, and ſays; Lo the Lamb of God, that takes away the Sin of the World.

30. This is he concerning whom I ſaid, There comes a Man after me, who is before me, becauſe he was prior to me.

31. And I did not know him; but for this reaſon that he ſhould be made manifeſt to Iſrael, I came baptizing with Water.

32. Beſides John teſtified thus; I beheld the Spirit come down as a Dove out of Heaven, and it remained on him.

33. And I did not know him; but the ſame that ſent me to baptize with Water, ſaid to me, He, on whom thou ſhalt ſee the Spirit come down, and remain on him, it is that baptizes with the Holy Spirit.

34. So I ſaw, and teſtified that this was the Son of God.

35. The next Day again John was ſtanding, and two of his Diſciples;

36. When he looked at Jeſus walking, and ſays, Lo the Lamb of God.

37. And the two Diſciples heard him ſpeak, whereupon they followed Jeſus.

38. Who turning, when he ſaw them follow him, aſks them, What do ye ſeek? And they ſaid to him, Rabbi (which is to ſay being interpreted Maſter) where doſt thou remain?

39. He replies to them, Come, and ſee; they came, and ſaw where it was, and remained with him that Day; it being about the tenth Hour.

40. One of the two that heard it from John, and followed him, was Andrew, the Brother of Simon Peter.

41. He firſt finds out his Brother Simon, and ſays to him, We have found the Meſſias; which is being interpreted Chriſt.

42. Nay he brought him to Jeſus; who looking on him, ſaid, Thou art Simon the Son of Jonas, thou ſhalt be called Cephas; which is being interpreted a Rock.

43. The next Day Jeſus was minded to go out into Galilee; when he finds Philip, and ſays to him, Follow me.

44. Now Philip was from Bethſaida, out of the City of Andrew and Peter.

45. Philip finds out Nathanael, and ſays to him, We have found him of whom Moſes in the Law, as alſo the Prophets wrote, Jeſus the Son of Joſeph, from Nazareth.

46. To whom Nathanael ſaid, Can there be any good Thing from Nazareth? Philip replies to him, Come, and ſee.

47. When Jeſus ſaw Nathanael coming to him, he ſays of him, Lo an Iſraelite truly, in whom there is not Deceit.

48. Nathanael aſks him, Whence doſt thou know me? Jeſus made anſwer to him, Before Philip called thee, when thou waſt under the Fig-tree, I ſaw thee.

49. Nathanael returns him anſwer, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the King of Iſrael!

50. Jeſus made reply to him; Becauſe I ſaid to thee, I ſaw thee underneath the Fig-tree, doſt thou believe? Thou ſhalt ſee greater Things than theſe.

Ver. 21. the Prophet] as in Ch. vii. 40. by whom according to Mat. xvi. 14. might be meant Jeremias.

Ver. 27. who is before me] Five, of all Sorts, not having this, Mills ſuppoſes it taken from Ver. 15, or 30. Prol. 909. whereas Whitby thinks it confirmed by the ſame; in which Reſpect Reaſoning may vibrate, but the Weight of Books will ponderate.

Ver. 28. Bethabara] Many have Bethany, as being more known, but wrong, Ch. xi. 18.

Ver. 29. next Day] Theſe days were perhaps a Year or more after the baptiſm and temptation, Wall.

Ver. 38. This is made two Verſes in the Gr.

Ver. 42. Cephas] Syr. from the Chald. כיפא or Cepha.

Ib. a Rock] by Weſley, Peter; with this Note, Cephas meaning the ſame in Syriac, which Peter does in Greek, namely, a Rock. But if Peter is Greek, ſurely this Author's Tranſlation is not; and if Peter means a Rock, is it not in Engliſh it means ſo?

51. I ſay

51. I ſay to thee very certainly, added he to him, Henceforth you ſhall ſee Heaven opened, and the Angels of God go up and come down on the Man.

CHAP. II.

AND the third Day there was a Marriage at Cana of Galilee, and the Mother of Jeſus was there.

2. Beſides both Jeſus was invited, and his Diſciples to the Marriage.

3. At length there being a want of Wine, the Mother of Jeſus ſays to him, They have no Wine.

4. Jeſus anſwers her, What haſt thou to do with me, Woman? My Hour is not yet come.

5. His Mother ſays to the Waiters, Do whatever he bids you.

6. Now ſix Water-pots of Stone being there, put according to the Cleanſing of the Jews, which held two or three Firkins apiece;

7. Jeſus ſays to them, Fill the Water-pots with Water: ſo they filled them quite up.

8. Next he orders them, Draw now, and carry to the Maſter of the Feaſt; which they did.

9. And when that Maſter had taſted the Water become Wine (and did not know whence it was, though the Waiters who drawed the Water knew) he calls the Bridegroom,

10. And ſays to him, Every Man firſt puts good Wine, and when People have drunk plentifully, then ſmaller; thou haſt kept the good Wine till now.

11. This Beginning of Miracles Jeſus did at Cana of Galilee, and made his Glory manifeſt; ſo that his diſciples believed on him.

12. After this he went down to Capernaum, with his Mother, Brethren and Diſciples; but did not remain there many Days.

13. The Paſſover of the Jews alſo was near, and Jeſus went up to Jeruſalem.

14. And he found in the Temple them who ſold Oxen, Sheep and Doves, and thoſe that changed Coin ſitting.

15. Upon which he made a Scourge of Cords, and put them all out of the Temple, with the Sheep and Oxen; as likewiſe poured out the Coin of the Money-changers, and overturned the Tables.

16. Moreover he ſaid to them that ſold Doves, Take away theſe things hence; do not make my Father's Houſe a Houſe of Merchandice.

17. And his Diſciples remembred that it was written, The Zeal of thy Houſe has eat me up.

18. Therefore the Jews made anſwer to him, What Sign ſheweſt thou to us, ſince thou doeſt theſe Things?

19. To whom Jeſus made reply, Demoliſh this Temple, and in three Days I will raiſe it up.

20. The Jews therefore ſaid, Forty ſix Years this Temple has been building, and wilt thou raiſe it up in three Days?

Ver. 51. very certainly] Whether it has been remarked, or not, that the other three Writers of the Hiſtory of our Saviour never begin his Sayings with a double amen, as this is in Greek; and John, where he has it, which is no leſs than 25 times, always ſo: I am however ready to conclude, that it would be loſt Labour to ſearch the numerous Volumes of Commentators for a rational, if any Enodation of it; which it requires the more for being in the ſame Paſſages, as Ch. xiii. 21. with Mat. xxvi. 21. Mark xiv. 18. and Ch. xiii. 38. with Mat. xxvi. 34. Mark xiv. 30. It is therefore to be conſidered that Jeſus did not ſpeak it in Gr. the Language they wrote it in, but Syriack, that of the Country, and in a Dialect not diſtinctly known now with Certainty. The Word or Words then which he uſed being a ſtrong Affirmation, our ſacred Biographers interpreted by amen from the Heb. either ſingle or repeated. Chriſt's Word as likely as any might be the Noun אֲמָן or אֲמֵן with בְּ prefixed, ſignifying properly for certain; but that Noun, thus differently ſpelled, might be rather plural, as it is alſo uſed, which would ſo enhance the Force of it, as aptly to ſuit the Expoſition I have given. I remember in tranſlating ſeveral ſuch Heb. Plurals, I have been put to the Stand whether to do it with very, &c. or without. The Reader may excuſe with me the Printer from getting Syr. Types, and accept of the Chaldee; from which the others were made ſo different, tho' the Language was as one.

Ib. Henceforth] from Mat. xxvi. 64. according to Mills; whereas the Sayings are neither the ſame, nor on the ſame Occaſion.

Ib. the Angels] Ham. ſeems beſt to refer this to Acts i. 9, 10. and Whitby overlooking it, not near ſo well to Chriſt's Miracles, which he alſo condemns himſelf by ſaying, They who refer it to Chriſt's Paſſion and Reſurrection, muſt ſhew how the Angels then aſcended and deſcended on Chriſt in the Sight of the Apoſtles.

Ver. 3. there being a want of Wine] the Gr. Genitive abſolute, not ſaying the Diſciples wanted it: Weſley, Wine falling ſhort.

Ver. 13. Paſſover] The firſt in the Time of Chriſt's Miniſtry, of his Age the 34th Year began, Wall.

Ver. 15. Cords] I know not why ſmall, when the ſame too is rendered ropes, Acts xxvii. 32. but Weſley has this Ruſhes.

Ib. put them all out] at another Time of his being at Jeruſalem, before that in Mat. xxi. Mark xi. Luke 19.

Ver. 16. them] One Copy, and the Paraphraſe of Nonnus in Verſe, having it ſing. Mills eſteemed that genuine, Prol. 911.

Ver. 17. has eat—up] Abundance of Copies have is eat up, which Mills counts genuine, becauſe Nobody, he ſays, would ever have framed ſuch a Reading, Prol. 1231. as indeed it is a ſtrange one with me, but ſeems too ſtrange to be authentick, however it was ſo followed; and in the Verſ. of the Sept. Pſa. lxix. 9. is the ſame as ours.

Ver. 20. has been building] as it ſtill continued; for which look into the Chronology at the End of Dan. and Wall's Crit. Note.

21. Whereas he ſpoke concerning the Temple of his Body.

22. Therefore when he was riſen up from the Dead, his Diſciples remembred that he had ſpoken this to them; ſo they believed the Scripture, and the Word which Jeſus ſaid.

23. Now as he was in Jeruſalem at the Paſſover on the Feaſt, many believed on his Name, at ſeeing his Miracles which he did.

24. Yet Jeſus did not truſt himſelf to them; becauſe he knew all,

25. And ſince he had no Need that any ſhould teſtify concerning Man: for he knew what was in Man.

CHAP. III.

THERE being alſo a Man of the Phariſees, whoſe Name was Nicodemus, a Ruler of the Jews;

2. He came to Jeſus by Night, and ſaid to him, Rabbi, we are ſenſible that thou art a Teacher come from God: for none can do theſe Miracles which thou doeſt, except God is with him.

3. Jeſus made anſwer to him; I tell thee very certainly, Except any one is born from above, he cannot ſee the Kingdom of God.

4. Nicodemus replies to him, How can a Man be born when he is old? Can he enter the ſecond time into his Mother's Womb, and be born?

5. Jeſus anſwered: I tell thee very certainly; Except any one is born of Water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.

6. What is born of the Fleſh, is Fleſh; and what is born of the Spirit, is Spirit.

7. Do not wonder that I ſaid to thee, You muſt be born from above.

8. The Spirit breathes where it will, and thou heareſt the Voice of it, but doſt not know whence it comes, and whither it goes: ſo is it with every one who is born of the Spirit.

9. Nicodemus made anſwer to him, How can theſe Things be?

10. Jeſus made reply to him: Art thou a Teacher of Iſrael, and doſt not know theſe Things?

11. I tell thee very certainly, that we ſpeak what we know, and teſtify what we have ſeen; yet ye do not receive our Teſtimony.

12. If I have told you earthly Things, and ye do not believe; how will ye believe, if I ſhould tell you heavenly Things?

13. And none has gone up into Heaven, excepting he that came down out of it, the Man who was in Heaven.

14. As Moſes too put up the Serpent in the Wilderneſs, ſo muſt the Man be put up;

15. That every one who believes in him may not periſh, but have everlaſting Life.

16. For God thus loved the World, ſo that he gave his only begotten Son, that every one who believes in him may not periſh, but have everlaſting Life.

17. For God did not ſend his Son into the World, that he might condemn the World, but that it might be ſaved by him.

18. He who believes in him, is not condemned; but he that does not believe, is condemned already, becauſe he did not believe in the Name of the only begotten Son of God.

19. Now this is the Condemnation, that Light is come into the World, and Men loved Darkneſs rather than Light: for their Works were wicked.

22. After theſe Things came Jeſus, and his Diſciples into the Country of Judea; where he abode with them, and baptized.

23. And John alſo was baptizing at Enon near Salim, becauſe much Water was there; ſo People came, and were baptized.

24. For John was not yet caſt into Priſon.

25. There was therefore a Queſtion from the diſciples of John with the Jews, about Cleanſing.

26. Whereupon they came to John, and ſaid to him, Rabbi, he who was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou didſt teſtify, behold does baptize, and all come to him.

27. John made anſwer: A Man can receive Nothing, except it be given him from Heaven.

36. He that believes in the Son, has everlaſting Life; and he that is diſobedient to the Son, will not ſee Life, but the Wrath of God remains on him.

CHAP. IV.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew, that the Phariſees had heard, that Jeſus made and baptized more Diſciples than John;

2. (However indeed Jeſus himſelf did not baptize, but his Diſciples)

3. He left Judea, and went away again into Galilee.

4. And he muſt go through Samaria.

5. Therefore he comes to a City of Samaria called Sichar, nigh a Field which Jacob gave to his Son Joſeph.

6. And Jacob's Well was there; Jeſus therefore being fatigued by the Journey, ſate down accordingly on the Well: it being about the ſixth Hour.

7. A Woman of Samaria coming to draw Water, Jeſus ſays to her, Give me ſome to drink.

8. For his Diſciples were gone away into the City, that they might buy Food.

9. The Woman of Samaria therefore ſays to him, How doſt thou who art a Jew aſk of me to drink, that am a Woman of Samaria? For the Jews do not deal with the Samaritans.

10. Jeſus made anſwer to her, If thou hadſt known the Gift of God, and who it is that ſays to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldeſt have aſked of him, and he would have given thee living Water.

11. The Woman ſays to him; Maſter, thou haſt Nothing to draw with, and the Well is deep; whence therefore haſt thou living Water?

12. Art thou greater than our Father Jacob, who drank of it himſelf, his Children and Cattle?

13. Jeſus made anſwer to her; Every one that drinks of this Water, will be thirſty again:

15. The Woman requeſts of him, Maſter, give me this Water; that I may not be thirſty, nor come hither to draw.

16. Jeſus ſays to her, Go, call thy Huſband, and come hither.

17. The Woman made reply, I have no Huſband. Jeſus tells her; Thou haſt ſaid well, I have no Huſband.

18. For thou haſt had five Huſbands; and he whom thou haſt now is not thy Huſband: this thou ſaideſt truly.

19. The Woman rejoins to him; Maſter, I ſee that thou art a Prophet.

20. Our Fathers worſhipped on this Mountain; and you ſay that in Jeruſalem is the Place where one muſt worſhip.

21. To her Jeſus ſays; Woman, believe me, that the Hour is coming, when neither on this Mountain, nor in Jeruſalem, you will worſhip the Father.

22. You know not what you worſhip, we know what we worſhip; becauſe Salvation is of the Jews.

23. But the Hour is coming, and is now, when the true Worſhippers ſhall worſhip the Father with the Spirit and the Truth: for the Father alſo ſeeks ſuch to worſhip him.

24. God is a Spirit; and thoſe who worſhip him, muſt worſhip him with the Spirit and the Truth.

25. The Woman ſays to him, I know that the Meſſias is coming, who is called Chriſt; when he is come, he will tell us all Things.

26. Jeſus declares to her, I am he, who ſpeak to thee.

27. And upon this his Diſciples came, and wondered that he talked with the Woman; nevertheleſs none ſaid, What doſt thou ſeek? or, Why talkeſt thou with her?

28. The Woman therefore left her Water-pot, and went into the City, and ſays to the Men,

29. Come, ſee a Man who told me all Things whatever I did; is not this Chriſt?

30. Therefore they went out of the City, and came to him.

31. Now in the mean while his Diſciples thus intreated him, Rabbi, do eat.

32. But he ſaid to them, I have Meat to eat which ye do not know of.

33. His Diſciples therefore ſaid one to another, Has any one brought for him to eat?

34. Jeſus replies to them; My Meat is, that I may do the Will of him who ſent me, and finiſh his Work.

35. Do not ye ſay, that there are yet four Months, and then Harveſt comes? Behold I tell you, Look up, and ſee that the Grounds are white already towards Harveſt.

36. And he who reaps, does receive Wages, and gather together Fruit for everlaſting Life; that both he who ſows, and he who reaps, may rejoice together.

37. For in this the Saying is true, that there is one who ſows, and another who reaps.

38. I have ſent you to reap what you did not labour in: others laboured, and you are entered into their Labour.

39. And many of the Samaritans of that City believed in him, for the Saying of the Woman, who teſtified, He told me all Things whatever I did.

40. When the Samaritans therefore were come to him, they intreated him to remain with them; and he remained there two Days.

41. Whereby many more believed for his own Saying.

42. So that they ſaid to the Woman, We believe no more for thy ſpeaking; ſince we have heard our ſelves, and know that this is truly Chriſt, the Saviour of the World.

43. But after two Days Jeſus came out thence, and went away into Part of Galilee.

44. For he himſelf teſtified, that a Prophet has not Honour in his own Country.

Much leſs is there Occaſion for Alting's Contrivance in his Works, Vol. 5. that For ſhould be Although, which Therefore too at the Beginning of the next Verſe overthrows.

Ver. 44. own Country] ſpoken it ſeems in Reference to Nazareth, Luke iv. 16, 24. ſo that though he went into Galilee, where Nazareth was, Mat. ii. 22, 23. he would not go thither.

45. There-

45. Therefore when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having ſeen all the Things which he did in Jeruſalem at the Feaſt: for they alſo came to the Feaſt.

46. Jeſus therefore came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made Water Wine; and there was ſome Nobleman, whoſe Son was ſick at Capernaum.

47. He hearing that Jeſus was come out of Judea into Galilee, came away to him, and intreated him, that he would go down, and heal his Son: for he was about to die.

48. Therefore Jeſus ſaid to him, Except you ſee Signs and Wonders, you will not at all believe.

49. The Nobleman ſays to him, Lord, come down, before my Boy dies.

50. Jeſus replies to him, Go; thy Son will live. So the Man believed the Saying which Jeſus ſpoke to him, and went.

51. Whereupon as he was now going down, his Servants met him, and declared thus, Thy Boy will live.

52. He therefore aſked of them the Hour in which he got to be better; and they ſaid to him, Yeſterday at the ſeventh Hour the Fever left him.

53. The Father therefore knew that it was in the ſame Hour, in which Jeſus ſaid to him, Thy Son will live; ſo that he himſelf believed, and his whole Houſhold.

54. This again was the ſecond Miracle Jeſus did, after he came out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

AFTER theſe Things there was a Feaſt of the Jews, and Jeſus went up to Jeruſalem.

2. And there is in Jeruſalem at the Sheep-gate a Pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, that has five Porches.

3. In theſe lay a great Multitude of ailing Perſons, blind, lame, withered, waiting for the moving of the Water.

4. For an Angel came down into the Pool according to the Time, and diſturbed the Water; he therefore who firſt went in after the diſturbing of it, became well, whenſoever he had been ſeized with a Diſtemper.

5. Now ſome Man was there, who had been in an Ailment thirty eight Years.

6. Jeſus ſeeing him lie, as he knew that it had been now a great while, ſays to him, Wilt thou become well?

7. He who was ailing anſwered him, Lord, I have no Man, that when the Water is diſturbed, may put me into the Pool; but while I am coming, another goes down before me.

8. Jeſus ſays to him, Ariſe, take up thy Bed, and go.

9. And preſently the Man became well, ſo that he took up his Bed, and went; and the Sabbath was on that Day.

10. Therefore the Jews ſaid to him who was cured, This is the Sabbath; it is not lawful for thee to take up the Bed.

11. He anſwered them; The ſame who made me well, ſaid to me, Take up thy Bed, and go.

12. They therefore aſked him; What Man is it who ſpoke theſe Words to thee?

13. Whereas he that was healed did not know who it was: for Jeſus was withdrawn, while a Company was in the Place.

14. After theſe Things Jeſus finds him in the Temple, and ſaid to him, Lo thou art become well; ſin no more, that Something worſe may not come to thee.

15. The Man went away, and told the Jews, that it was Jeſus who had made him well.

16. And for this reaſon the Jews perſecuted Jeſus, and endeavoured to kill him, becauſe he had done theſe Things on the Sabbath.

Ver. 2. there is] For the Pool might remain, tho' Jeruſalem was deſtroyed, John writing this Book after that; or by this Time the City might be conſiderably reſtored.

Ib. whenſoever] how long ſoever he had been ill; the Original having ποτε when, and Ver. 6. alſo favouring it; it is tranſlated too by Time in another Manner, with little Senſe.

Ver. 9. And preſently the Man became well] Mills counted all this taken from Ver. 4. and there ſpurious, Prol. 1422. tho' lacking only in two Copies.

Ver. 16. and endeavoured to kill him] Some have not, nor Mills ſuppoſes ſhould; but the more Ver. 18. ſeems directly to require it, by referring to it, and Grotius is ſufficient otherwiſe in Oppoſition to him.

17. But Jeſus anſwered them, My Father works hitherto, and I work.

18. For this reaſon therefore the Jews endeavoured the more to kill him, becauſe he not only diſannulled the Sabbath, but alſo ſaid God was his Father, making himſelf equal to God.

19. Therefore Jeſus made anſwer to them: I ſay to you very certainly; The Son cannot do any Thing of himſelf, excepting what he ſees the Father do: for what Things ſoever he does, theſe alſo the Son does in like Manner.

20. For the Father loves the Son, and ſhews him all Things which himſelf does; nay he will ſhew him greater Things than theſe, that you may wonder.

21. For according as the Father raiſes up the Dead, and makes alive; ſo the Son alſo makes alive them that he will.

22. For the Father does not judge any, but has given all Judgment to the Son;

23. That all might honour the Son, as they do the Father. He that honours not the Son, does not honour the Father who ſent him.

24. I tell you very certainly, that he who hears my Word, and believes in him who ſent me, has everlaſting Life; and does not come into Judgment, but is departed out of Death into Life.

25. I ſay to you very certainly, that the Hour is coming, and now is, when the Dead will hear the Voice of the Son of God; and thoſe who hear, will live.

26. For according as the Father has Life in himſelf, ſo has he given to the Son to have Life in himſelf;

27. Nay has given him Authority even to execute Judgment, becauſe he is the Man.

28. Do not wonder at this: ſince the Hour is coming, in which all who are in the Graves will hear his Voice;

29. And thoſe who do good Things will come out to the Reſurrection of Life, but they that commit bad ones to the Reſurrection of Damnation.

30. I cannot do any Thing of my ſelf: as I hear, I judge, and my Judgment is righteous; becauſe I ſeek not my own Will, but the Will of the Father who ſent me.

31. If I only teſtify concerning my ſelf, my Teſtimony is not a true one.

32. There is another who teſtifies concerning me, and I know that the Teſtimony which he teſtifies concerning me is true.

33. You ſent to John, and he teſtified to the Truth.

34. However I do not receive Teſtimony from Man; but ſay theſe Things, that you may be ſaved.

35. He was a burning and ſhining Lamp; and you were willing for a little while to be joyful in his Light.

36. Yet I have greater Teſtimony than John's: for the Works which the Father has given me, that I might finiſh them, theſe Works which I do, teſtify concerning me, that the Father ſent me.

37. The Father alſo who ſent me, has himſelf teſtified concerning me. You have neither ever heard his Voice, nor ſeen his Appearance.

38. Moreover you have not his Word remaining in you; becauſe the ſame whom he has ſent, him you do not believe.

39. You ſearch the Scriptures, becauſe you think to find everlaſting Life in them; and thoſe are they that teſtify concerning me.

40. Nevertheleſs you will not come to me, that you may have Life.

41. I do not receive Glory from Men.

42. But I know that you have not the Love of God in your ſelves.

43. I am come in the Name of my Father, and you do not receive me: if another ſhould come in his own Name, you would receive him.

44. How can you believe, who receive Glory one from another, and do not ſeek the Glory which is from God alone?

45. Do not think that I will accuſe you to the Father; it is Moſes who accuſes you, in whom you hope.

46. For if you had believed Moſes, you would have believed me: for he wrote concerning me.

47. But if you do not believe his Writings, how ſhould you believe my Sayings?

CHAP. VI.

AFTER theſe Things Jeſus went away beyond the Sea of Galilee, that of Tiberias.

2. And a great Company followed him, becauſe they ſaw his Miracles which he did on thoſe who were ailing.

3. So Jeſus went up on a Mountain, and ſate there with his Diſciples.

4. Moreover the Paſſover, a Feaſt of the Jews, was near.

5. Jeſus therefore looked up, and ſeeing a great Company come to him, ſays to Philip, Whence ſhall we buy Bread, that theſe may eat?

6. (But he ſaid this to try him; for he himſelf knew what he was about to do)

7. Philip anſwered him, Two hundred Penny-worth of Bread is not ſufficient for them, that each of them may take ſome Little.

8. One of his Diſciples, Andrew the Brother of Simon Peter, ſays to him,

9. There is a Boy here who has five Barley-loaves, and two little Fiſhes; but what are theſe for ſo many?

10. However Jeſus ſaid, Make the Perſons ſit down; and there was much Graſs in the Place: the Men accordingly ſate down, in Number about five thouſand.

11. When Jeſus took the Loaves, and giving thanks, gave to the Diſciples, and they to thoſe who were ſate down; and in like Manner of the little Fiſhes, as much as they would have.

12. And when they were filled, he ſays to his Diſciples, Gather together the Fragments which are over and above, that there may not any Thing be loſt.

13. Therefore they gathered together, and filled twelve Baſkets with the Fragments of the five Barley-loaves, which were over and above to them that eat.

14. The Men therefore ſeeing the Miracle which Jeſus did, ſaid, This is truly the Prophet who was to come into the World.

15. Jeſus therefore knowing that they were about to come, and take him by force, that they might make him King, departed again to a Mountain himſelf alone.

16. And when it was Evening, his Diſciples went down to the Sea.

17. Where they got aboard a Ship, and were going beyond the Sea to Capernaum; and it was now dark; beſides Jeſus was not come to them.

18. And the Sea roſe up, by a great Wind blowing.

19. Therefore having driven on about twenty five or thirty Furlongs, they ſee Jeſus walking on the Sea, and being near the Ship; at which they were afraid.

20. But he ſays to them, It is I, do not fear:

21. They were deſirous therefore to receive him into the Ship; and this it ſelf was preſently at the Land to which they were going.

22. The next Day the Company who ſtood on the farther Side of the Sea, ſeeing that no other Boat was there, but that one into which his Diſciples were gone, and that Jeſus was not entered with his Diſciples into the Boat, but they went away alone;

23. But yet other Boats came from Tiberias, near the Place where they had eat Bread, the Lord having given thanks:

24. When the Company therefore ſaw that Jeſus was not there, nor his Diſciples; they alſo went into a Ship, and came to Capernaum, ſeeking for Jeſus.

25. And finding him beyond the Sea, they ſaid to him, Rabbi, when didſt thou come hither?

26. Jeſus made anſwer to them; I tell you very certainly, You ſeek for me, not becauſe you ſaw the Miracles, but becauſe you did eat of the Loaves, and were filled.

27. Do not work for the Meat that periſhes, but for the Meat that remains to everlaſting Life, which the Man will give you: for God the Father has ſealed him.

28. They therefore ſaid to him, What ſhall we do, that we may work the Work of God?

29. Jeſus made reply to them, This is the Work of God, that you ſhould believe in him whom he has ſent.

Ver. 11. to the Diſciples, and they] Some have not, making as appears an Abridgment; yet it has been thought to be added in, but ſee Whit. Exam.

Ver. 14. Jeſus] not in one Copy and Verſion, ſo adjudged to the Lecturers by Mills, Pr. 434.

Ib. truly] put in from Ch. vii. 40. ſays Mills, Pr. 1280. only as being out of one ſtrange Copy; which is not mentioned in Whitby's Exam. as if none of the MSS. had it.

Ver. 23. the Lord having given thanks] crept, ſays Mills, from the Margin, where it had been put by a Reader from Ver. 11. Pr. 1280. and this but becauſe he found the Lat. of the Copy at Ver. 14. and the Armen. Verſ. without it. As he is ſo much for crept, he might better have put it to have crept all the Way, and to have done that at once; than firſt to be put into the Marg. and then to creep thence. But how does Whitby anſwer him in his Examen? That theſe Words are wanting in Chryſoſt. and the Syr. when the Syr. has them, as Mills ſays, and I have ſeen my ſelf, with Jeſus inſtead of the Lord; and he does not tell where in Chryſoſt.

Ver. 27. work] as in the next Ver.

Ib. Meat that periſhes] that which is gained by the ſuperficial Service of Religion.

30. Therefore they ſaid to him; What Miracle doeſt thou, that we may ſee, and believe thee? What doſt thou work?

31. Our Forefathers did eat Manna in the Wilderneſs, as it is written, He gave them Bread to eat from Heaven.

32. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them; I tell you very certainly, Moſes did not give you the Bread from Heaven; but my Father gives you the true Bread from Heaven.

33. For the Bread of God is that which comes down from Heaven, and gives Life to the World.

34. They therefore ſaid to him, Lord, always give us this Bread.

35. Upon which Jeſus replied to them: I am the Bread of Life; he that comes to me ſhall not be hungry at all, and he who believes in me ſhall never be thirſty at all.

36. But I have ſaid to you, that you have even ſeen me, and do not believe.

37. All whom the Father gives me ſhall come to me, and him that comes to me I will not at all caſt forth abroad:

38. Becauſe I am come down from Heaven, not that I ſhould do my own Will, but the Will of him who ſent me.

39. And this is the Will of the Father who ſent me, that all whom he has given me I ſhould loſe none of it, but raiſe it up at the laſt Day.

40. This is likewiſe the Will of him who ſent me, that every one who ſees the Son, and believes in him, ſhall have everlaſting Life; and I will raiſe him up at the laſt Day.

41. The Jews therefore murmured at him, becauſe he ſaid, I am the Bread that came down from Heaven.

42. And they ſaid, Is not this Jeſus the Son of Joſeph, whoſe Father and Mother we know? How then does he ſay, I am come down from Heaven?

43. Therefore Jeſus made anſwer to them: Do not murmur with one another.

44. None can come to me, except the Father who ſent me draws him; and I will raiſe him up at the laſt Day.

45. It is written in the Prophets, And they ſhall be all taught by God: every one therefore who has heard from the Father, and learned, ſhall come to me.

46. Not that any has ſeen the Father, excepting he who is from God; this has ſeen the Father.

47. I ſay to you very certainly; He who believes in me has everlaſting Life.

48. I am the Bread of Life.

49. Your Forefathers did eat Manna in the Wilderneſs, yet are dead.

50. This is the Bread which comes down from Heaven, that any one may eat of it, and not die.

51. I am the living Bread, which came down from Heaven: if any one eats of this Bread, he will live for ever; and the Bread too that I will give, is my Fleſh, which I will give for the Life of the World.

52. The Jews therefore contended one with another, ſaying, How can he give us the Fleſh to eat?

53. Therefore Jeſus ſaid to them: I tell you very certainly; Except you eat the Fleſh of the Man, and drink his Blood, you have not Life in your ſelves.

54. He that eats my Fleſh, and drinks my Blood, has everlaſting Life; and I will raiſe him up at the laſt Day.

55. For my Fleſh truly is Meat, and my Blood truly is Drink.

56. He that eats my Fleſh, and drinks my Blood, remains in me, and I in him.

57. As the Living Father has ſent me, and I live by the Father; even the ſame who eats me, ſhall alſo live by me,

Ver. 30. Miracle doeſt] as the ſame Words are Ch. vii. 31. &c. and the Meaning of the Verb eſpecially is.

Ver. 33. that which] As the Gr. ſignifies either this or he who, and ſince thoſe to whom it was ſpoken took it as here by Ver. 34. becauſe it was not unfolded to them otherwiſe till by that in Ver. 35. therefore this rendering ſeems moſt ſuitable.

Ver. 39. the Father] crept from elſewhere, writes Mills, after Labour loſt we may ſuppoſe in finding the Place. Two Copies, &c. are without it.

Ver. 45. all taught by God] The plain and obvious Senſe being by God himſelf, what then, may we ſuppoſe Hammond thinking his Paraphraſe and Annotations were good for? according to what he ſays in New Light, Sect. 1, 2, 3, 7. whereas the Primitive Chriſtians, tho' it is allowed they were ſo taught, were preached and written to by the Apoſtles, &c. And by what Logick does one Means of Inſtruction exclude all others? We may be taught ſome Things immediately, others mediately, or the ſame both Ways, for greater Confirmation. While Peter was preaching, the Holy Spirit fell upon all that heard him, Acts x. 44. therefore not inconſiſtent. Nay how does our great Man help himſelf, by aſcribing this being taught to the Grace of God, which he ſays is the entire importance of this place? Is not that by God in the moſt immediate Manner?

Ver. 51. which I will give] Theſe Words might be omitted, if is my Fleſh were put laſt; and hence, as it appears, ſome pedantick Scribe left them out, they being not with a few, and Mills condemns them for ſpurious, Pr. 429, 641. Nevertheleſs there is a conſiderable Advantage of Strength (I might ſay of Beauty too) in the Text as it ſtands, by having two Aſſertions inſtead of one, beſides ſavouring of this Apoſtle's Style.

Ver. 55. truly] Several have true both times, but Mills does not join with it.

Ver. 56. Mills reckons there was this at the End, that was genuine, as the Father in me, and I in the Father. I ſay to you very certainly, If you ſhall not receive the Body of the Son of Man as the Bread of Life [and drink his Blood] you have not Life in you. [But he that ſhall eat his Fleſh,

58. This

58. This that is the Bread which came down from Heaven; not as your Forefathers did eat Manna, yet are dead: he that eats this Bread will live for ever.

59. Theſe Things he ſaid in the Synagogue, while he taught at Capernaum.

60. When many of his Diſciples therefore heard, they ſaid, This is a hard Matter, who can hear it?

61. Now Jeſus knowing in himſelf that his Diſciples murmured about it, ſaid to them; Does this offend you?

62. How if therefore you ſhould ſee the Man go up where he was before?

63. It is the Spirit that makes alive, the Fleſh does not profit any Thing: of the Words which I ſpeak to you, it is the Spirit, and it is the Life.

64. But there are ſome of you that do not believe. For Jeſus knew from the Beginning who they were that did not believe, and who it was that would deliver him up.

65. He further added, For this reaſon I ſaid to you, that none can come to me, except it is given to him from my Father.

66. Thenceforth many of his Diſciples went away back, and walked no more with him.

67. Jeſus therefore ſaid to the twelve, Are you alſo minded to go?

68. Therefore Simon Peter anſwered him; Lord, to whom ſhould we go away? Thou haſt the Words of everlaſting Life.

69. And we believe and know, that thou art Chriſt the Son of the Living God.

70. Jeſus replied to them, Have not I choſen you twelve, and one of you is a Devil?

71. Which he ſpoke of Judas Iſcariot the Son of Simon: for he would deliver him up, who was one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

AND Jeſus after theſe Things walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, becauſe the Jews endeavoured to kill him.

2. Moreover the Jews Feaſt of Tabernacles was near.

3. His Brethren therefore ſaid to him; Depart hence, and go into Judea; that thy Diſciples may alſo ſee thy Works which thou doeſt.

4. For none does any Thing in Secret, when he himſelf ſeeks to be in Publick: if thou doeſt theſe Things, make thy ſelf manifeſt to the World.

5. For his Brethren did not believe in him.

6. Jeſus therefore ſays to them; My Time is not yet come; whereas yours is always ready.

7. The World cannot hate you; but me it hates, becauſe I teſtify concerning it, that its Deeds are wicked.

8. Get you up to this Feaſt: I go not up to it yet, becauſe my Time is not yet fulfilled.

9. So having ſaid theſe Things to them, he remained in Galilee.

10. However when his Brethren were gone up, then he alſo went up to the Feaſt, not openly, but as it were in Secret.

11. Therefore the Jews ſought for him at the Feaſt, and ſaid, Where is he?

12. And there was much Murmuring about him among the Multitude: ſome indeed ſaid, He is good; whereas others ſaid, No, but he ſeduces the Company.

13. Nevertheleſs none ſpoke in Publick concerning him, through Fear of the Jews.

and drink his Blood, has everlaſting Life remaining in himſelf.] Two Gr. Copies having that out of the Crotchets, and Victorinus the African in the 4th Century ſome of it, and that within. He ſhews how it might be omitted, by ending with in him as this Verſe; which is not very improbable, but I think it would ſcarce be eſtabliſhed ſo, and both thoſe Gr. Copies I find are looſe and ſtraggling from the preſent. Whitby alſo remarks againſt it, that Chriſt does not uſe the Word Body throughout the Chapter, &c. Exam. Lib. 2. Cap. 2.

Ver. 64. did not believe] One Copy, and two or three Writers, being without this not, Mills thought it inſerted from the foregoing, Pr. 920. So he that expunged it might think, and from thence take Occaſion to do it.

Ver 69. Living] To the Uſe of which Epithet Life before conduces, and thus need not be doubted is genuine; notwithſtanding a few are without it, and Mill ſays it is added from Mat. when that in Ch. xvi. 16. is another Matter.

Ver. 70. Jeſus] is wanting in not a few Copies, which the laborious Mills enumerates.

Ver. 1. would] By Mills the genuine Reading was, had not (viz. Power) to walk, as likewiſe other Criticks fancied before, though there is no Copy nor Verſion ſo; but two or three Writers put it that Way, and Auguſt. valebat inſtead of volebat in the Vulg. which might be the Manner it was introduced.

Ver. 4. in Publick] The Gr. parreſia being taken in the Senſe of the Jewiſh פַּרְהֶסְיָא

Ver. 8. not—yet] This being but one Word in Gr. and Lat. a few have for it not, and ſuch a Reading there muſt be in the Time of Porphyry, becauſe he cavilled at it; yet the Opinion of Grotius, Mills, and Wall is inconcluſive, that not was genuine: for that Heathen might meet with a various and wrong Reading, which perhaps was made to ſhun the Repetition of the Word as in ours, ſince yet might be thought ſufficiently denoted by the laſt; ſee too Whit. Annot. and Exam.

Ver. 12. indeed] being not for:

14. Now

14. Now at length it being the middle of the Feaſt, Jeſus went up to the Temple, and taught.

15. Whereupon the Jews wondered, ſaying, How does he know the Scriptures, when he has not learned?

16. Jeſus made anſwer to them; My Doctrine is not my own, but his who ſent me.

17. If any one likes to do his Will, he ſhall know concerning the Doctrine, whether it is from God, or I ſpeak of my ſelf.

18. He that ſpeaks of himſelf, ſeeks his own Glory; but the ſame that ſeeks his Glory who ſent him, is true, and there is not Unrighteouſneſs in him.

19. Did not Moſes give you the Law, and none of you performs it? Why do you ſeek to kill me?

20. The Company made anſwer, Thou haſt the Devil, who ſeeks to kill thee.

21. Jeſus made reply to them; I have done one Work, and you all wonder.

22. For this reaſon Moſes gave you Circumciſion (not that it is from Moſes, but from the Fathers) and on the Sabbath you circumciſe a Male.

23. If a Male on the Sabbath receive Circumciſion, that the Law of Moſes may not be diſannulled; are you enraged at me, becauſe I have made a Perſon all over well on the Sabbath?

24. Do not judge according to the Sight, but judge righteous Judgment.

25. Some therefore of thoſe of Jeruſalem ſaid; Is not this he whom they ſeek to kill?

26. Whereas lo he ſpeaks in Publick, and they ſay Nothing to him; have the Rulers known of a truth at any time, that this truly is Chriſt?

27. Yet we know whence this is; but when Chriſt comes, none knows whence he is.

28. Therefore Jeſus cried out in the Temple, teaching, and ſaying; You both know me, and know whence I am; yet I am not come of my ſelf, but he that ſent me is true, whom you know not.

29. I notwithſtanding know him; becauſe I am from him, and he has ſent me.

30. They ſought therefore to apprehend him; however none put Hand on him, becauſe his Hour was not yet come.

31. Nay many of the Company believed in him, and ſaid, When Chriſt comes, will he do more Miracles than theſe which this has done?

32. The Phariſees heard of the Company murmuring theſe Things concerning him; whereupon they, and the chief Prieſts, ſent Officers to apprehend him.

33. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them; Yet a little while I am with you, then I go to him who ſent me.

34. You will ſeek me, and not find; and where I am, you cannot come.

35. Therefore the Jews ſaid to themſelves; Whither is he about to go, that we may not find him? Is he about to go to the diſperſed ones of the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?

36. What Saying is this which he ſaid, You will ſeek me, and not find; and where I am, you cannot come?

37. On the laſt Day too, the great one of the Feaſt, Jeſus ſtood, and cried out as follows; If any one is thirſty, let him come to me, and drink.

38. He that believes in me, as the Scripture ſaid, Rivers of living Water will flow out of his Inſide.

39. (But this he ſaid concerning the Spirit, which they ſhould receive who believed in him: for there was not the Holy Spirit yet, becauſe Jeſus was not yet glorified).

40. Many of the Company therefore hear-

But ſince διὰ τοῦτο for this reaſon does not uſe to be put at the End of a Sentence, Ch. xii. 27. Mat. vi. 25. & xii. 31. Col. i. 9. and as it is proper here at the Beginning thus, As Moſes gave you the Law, Ver. 19. for this reaſon he did Circumciſion; we may fairly refuſe the other, as a Witticiſm.

Ver. 22. For this reaſon] Becauſe the People did not keep the Law of the Sabbath, Ver. 19. which was prior to Circumciſion, the latter might be given in Compliance to their breaking the Sabbath, according to that in Mat. xv. 5. Mark x. 5. ing the Words, ſaid, This truly is the Prophet.

41. Others ſaid, This is Chriſt. But others again; Will Chriſt forſooth come out of Galilee?

42. Did not the Scripture ſay, that Chriſt comes out of David's Offspring, and from Bethlehem the Town where David was?

43. There became therefore a Diviſion in the Company by reaſon of him.

44. And ſome of them would have apprehended him, but none put Hands on him.

45. So the Officers came to the chief Prieſts and Phariſees; who ſaid to them, For what reaſon did not you bring him?

46. The Officers anſwered, Never did a Man ſpeak ſo as this Man.

47. The Phariſees therefore replied to them; Are you alſo ſeduced?

48. Have any of the Rulers believed in him, or of the Phariſees?

49. But this Company, who are ignorant of the Law, are curſed.

50. Nicodemus ſays to them, he who came to Jeſus by Night, being one of them,

51. Does our Law judge a Man, except it has firſt heard from him, and knows what he does?

52. They made anſwer to him, Art thou alſo from Galilee? Find, and ſee, that no Prophet riſes up from Galilee.

53. Thus each went to his Houſe.

CHAP. VIII.

BESIDES Jeſus went to the Mount of Olives.

2. And when it was Break of Day he came into the Temple, and all the People came to him; at which he ſate down, and taught them.

3. The Scribes and Phariſees alſo brought to him a Woman taken in Adultery; and ſetting her in the midſt,

4. They ſay to him; Maſter, this Woman was taken in the Crime it ſelf of committing Adultery.

5. Now in the Law Moſes commanded us, that ſuch a one ſhould be ſtoned; what doſt thou therefore ſay?

6. Whereas they ſaid this, by trying him, that they might have Something to accuſe him; but Jeſus ſtooped down, and wrote with his Finger on the Ground.

7. However as they continued aſking him, he ſtood upright, and ſaid to them, Let him of you that is without Sin firſt throw a Stone at her.

8. And again he ſtooped down, and wrote on the Ground.

9. This they hearing, and checked by Conſcience, went out one by one, proceeding firſt from the eldeſt to the laſt; ſo that Jeſus was left alone, and the Woman ſtanding in the middle Place.

10. At length Jeſus ſtood upright, and when he ſaw Nobody beſides the Woman, he ſaid to her, Woman, where are thoſe Accuſers of thine? Has none condemned thee?

11. And ſhe ſaid, None, Lord. Upon which Jeſus replied to her, Neither do I condemn thee; go, and ſin no more.

12. Jeſus therefore ſpoke again to them as follows, I am the Light of the World: he that follows me, ſhall not at all walk in Darkneſs, but have the Light of Life.

13. Therefore the Phariſees ſaid to him, Thou teſtifieſt concerning thy ſelf; thy Teſtimony is not a true one.

14. Jeſus made anſwer to them; Though I do teſtify concerning my ſelf, my Teſtimony is a true one; ſince I know whence I came, and whither I am going: but you know neither whence I come, or whether I am going.

Ver. 45. and Phariſees] One Verſ. one Author, neither of them much noted, being without this, though no Copy, Mills puts it as taken from Ver. 47. for Who, he aſks, would leave out ſuch notable Words? How notable? Phariſees might be omitted, as being mentioned twice in Ver. 32. as well as at Ver. 47. or theſe Words, and the like in other Places, might be miſs'd, by the Writer taking off his Eye at and, then putting it on at the next and for it.

Ver. 47. Are you alſo ſeduced] On this and the two following Verſes Whitby has a Sermon (with his Annotations) cloſely againſt the Papiſts, ſhewing that they plead in like Manner, and that it may be applied to others.

Ver. 49. Company] Weſt. populace.

Ver. 52. ſee] Two or three Copies add the Scriptures; a Gloſs, ſays Weſten's Note, from the Margin.

Ver. 1. Beſides] John is much for leaving out Conjunctions; which Tranſlators ſhould rather ſupply, than omit his. The Omiſſion of this Piece of Hiſtory to Ver. 12. in ſome Copies, may be accounted for two Ways: 1. Becauſe it was in that called The Goſpel according to the Hebrews; which on the contrary is an Evidence for it, and ſurely was not all falſe, but at worſt only reckoned erroneous in ſome Things, as here that the Woman was accuſed of many Crimes, which yet has been thought to be ſaid there of the Woman of Samaria, it being alſo a Writing more ancient than either of our four Evangelical Hiſtories. 2. That it was left out through Conceit of an ill Uſe being made of it; ſee Mills's and Whitby's Vindications of it.

Ver. 2. Break of Day] according to the Etymology of the Gr. Word.

Ver. 6. Ground] A few Copies add diſſembling, which our Tranſlators turn as though he heard them not.

Ver. 9. ſtanding] or being, in another Reading.

Ver. 14. but you know neither &c.] This to the End of the Verſe, Mills ſays, is wanting in many Copies, not naming one, quite out of his Manner.

15. You judge according to the Fleſh, I do not judge any one.

16. And yet if I judge, my Judgment is true; becauſe I am not alone, but as well as I there is the Father who ſent me.

17. Nay it is written alſo in your Law, that the Teſtimony of two Men is a true one.

18. I am one that teſtifies concerning my ſelf, however the Father who ſent me teſtifies concerning me.

19. They therefore ſaid to him, Where is thy Father? Jeſus anſwered, You neither know me, nor my Father: if you knew me, you would alſo have known my Father.

20. Theſe Things ſpoke Jeſus in the Treaſury, when he taught in the Temple; and none apprehended him, becauſe his Hour was not yet come.

21. Therefore Jeſus ſaid again to them, I am going, and though you may ſeek me, yet will die in your Sins; then whither I am going, you cannot come.

22. The Jews therefore ſaid; Will he kill himſelf, becauſe he ſays, Whither I am going, you cannot come.

23. And he anſwered them; You are from below, I am from above: you are of this World, I am not of this World.

24. I therefore ſaid to you, that you will die in your Sins: for if you do not believe that I am ſo, you will die in your Sins.

25. Therefore they aſked him, Who art thou? And Jeſus replied to them; Even he whom I told you at the Beginning.

26. I have many Things concerning you to ſay, and judge; but he who ſent me is true, and thoſe Things which I have heard from him I ſpeak in the World.

27. They did not know that he ſpoke to them of the Father.

28. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them; When you have lifted up the Man, then will you know that I am ſo, and that I do Nothing of my ſelf; but as my Father has taught me, I ſpeak theſe Things.

29. And he who ſent me is with me: the Father has not left me alone, ſince I always do the Things that pleaſe him.

30. He ſpeaking theſe Things, many believed in him.

31. Therefore Jeſus ſaid to the Jews who did; If you remain in my Word, you truly are my Diſciples.

32. Moreover you will know the Truth, and that will make you free.

33. They anſwered him; We are the Offspring of Abraham, and have never been in Servitude to any; how doſt thou ſay, You will become free?

34. Jeſus anſwered them; I ſay to you very certainly, that every one who does Sin, is a Servant of Sin.

35. Now a Servant does not remain in the Houſe for ever, the Son remains for ever.

36. If therefore the Son ſhall make you free, you will really be free.

37. I know that you are the Offspring of Abraham; but you ſeek to kill me, becauſe my Word does not come into you.

38. I ſpeak what I have ſeen with my Father; and you therefore do what you have ſeen with yours.

39. They made anſwer to him, Abraham is our Father. Jeſus replies to them; If you were Abraham's Children, you would indeed do the Deeds of Abraham.

40. But now you ſeek to kill me, a Man who has ſpoken the Truth to you, which I heard from God: this Abraham did not do.

41. You do the Deeds of your Father. Therefore they ſaid to him, We are not born of Whoredom: we have one Father, namely God.

42. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them: If God were your Father, you would love me: for I came forth, and am come, from God; nor indeed did I come of my ſelf, but he ſent me.

43. For what reaſon do ye not know my Speaking? Becauſe you cannot hear my Word.

44. You are from your Father the Devil, and the Deſires of your Father you like to do. He was a Murderer from the Beginning, and did not ſtand in the Truth, becauſe the Truth is not in him; when he ſpeaks a Lye, he ſpeaks of his own; becauſe he is a Liar, and the Father of it.

Ver. 20. Jeſus] No leſs than ſeven of the old Tranſlations, though not the Latin, are cited by Mills as without it; yet it ſeems but in their abridging Way, becauſe the ſame is both before and after, ſo near as the adjoining Verſe; in which Caſe it is not credible to be put in here afterwards, as Mills infers, Prol. 429.

Ver. 24. I am ſo] as in the Ver. before. Which Weſt. has only I AM, as if this was that at Exod. iii. 14. and by his Note; for which it is improper or imperfect, and at Ch. xiii. 19. he has I am he, as in the com. Tranſ. both with believe.

Ver. 29. the Father] Notwithſtanding Mills ſays this is a Scribe's, not the Evangeliſt's, Prol. 430. the Prop of Omiſſion by a few is too weak for its Support.

Ver. 30. Things] as in Ver. 28, &c.

Ver. 34. of Sin] becauſe not in one of the worſt Copies, Mills thought added, Prol. 1280.

Ver. 38. therefore] becauſe they oppoſed Chriſt, and this the Gr. has.

Ver. 39. indeed] ἄν in Gr. the eſtabliſhed Reading, tho' Mills objects to it, Pr. 677. but it might be miſs'd at the End of this Verſe (or in ſome old Copy, of the Line, as the Periods were written) after epoieite, being not at the End of the foregoing Ver. after poieite.

Ver. 43. hear] cannot bear to hear.

45. And

45. And becauſe I tell the Truth, you do not believe me.

46. Which of you convinces me of Sin? And if I tell the Truth, for what reaſon do ye not believe me?

47. He that is from God, hears God's Sayings: for this reaſon ye do not hear, becauſe ye are not from God.

48. Therefore the Jews made anſwer to him, Do not we ſay well, that thou art a Samaritan, and haſt a Devil?

49. Jeſus anſwered; I have not a Devil; but I honour my Father, and you diſhonour me.

50. Nay I do not ſeek my own Glory: there is one who ſeeks, and judges.

51. I ſay to you very certainly, If any one obſerves my Word, he will not at all ſee Death for ever.

52. The Jews therefore replied to him; Now we know that thou haſt a Devil: Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, yet thou ſayeſt, If any one obſerves my Word, he will not at all taſte Death for ever.

53. Art thou greater than our Father Abraham, who is dead? And the Prophets are dead: whom doſt thou make thy ſelf?

54. Jeſus anſwered; If I glorify my ſelf, my Glory is Nothing: it is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you ſay that he is your God.

55. Nevertheleſs you have not known him, but I know him: and if I ſay that I do not know him, I ſhould be a Liar like you; whereas I know him, and obſerve his Word.

56. Your Father Abraham was joyful that he ſhould ſee my Day; which he ſaw, and rejoiced.

57. Therefore the Jews ſaid to him, Thou art not yet fifty Years old, and haſt thou beheld Abraham?

58. Jeſus ſaid to them; I tell you very certainly, Before Abraham was I am.

59. They therefore took up Stones, that they might throw at him; but Jeſus hid, and went out of the Temple, going through the midſt of them, and paſſed away ſo.

CHAP. IX.

MOREOVER paſſing away, he ſaw a Man blind from the Birth.

2. And his Diſciples aſked him as follows, Rabbi, who ſinned, he or his Parents, that he was born blind?

3. Jeſus anſwered; Neither did he ſin, nor his Parents; but it was that the Works of God might be made manifeſt in him.

4. I muſt work the Works of him who ſent me, while it is Day: the Night comes, when none can work.

5. As long as I am in the World, I am the Light of the World.

6. Having ſaid theſe Things, he ſpit on the Ground, and made Clay of the Spittle, and anointed with the Clay upon the Eyes of the blind Man;

Ver. 52. for ever] Mills believed crept in, tho' it is only out of one wretched Copy, and one obſcure Author.

Ver. 53. our Father] crept from the foregoing, ſays Mills, Pr. 1280. utterly improbable, ſince it is not in the Verſe before, and back as far as Ver. 39. it is not as here by Appoſition; and where is it elſe, as he has foregoing plural? When the Reader knows it is wanting but in a ſingle Copy, and that the worſt of all, he may think I have ſaid too much, and on the other hand be aſtoniſhed at a Man of ſuch Knowledge and Capacity as Mills.

Ib. And the Prophets are dead] This being not in three or four Copies, may be expected according to others before in this Chap. to be repudiated by Mills, as it is Pr. 1476. yet he does not hold with Numbers of Various Readings ſupported with greater Authority.

Ver. 57. fifty] A Writer or two, and a Copy have forty, which Mills leans to; but Jeſus from the Gravity of his Aſpect: 36, could ſcarce be known by his Looks not to be 40; Chryſoſtome alſo, whom Mills quotes for it, mentioning him to be near 40 Years old, tho' he himſelf, to uphold his Argument, puts it at 32.

Ver. 59. going through the midſt of them, and paſſed away ſo] Eraſmus, Grotius, Beza, Mills ſuppoſe this all added, the former Part from Luke iv. 30. the latter moſtly from the Beginning of the next Chap. tho' Mills could muſter up no more than two or three MSS. without it; but being not in the vulg. Lat. had ſo great a Sway, that it was not put in ſome early printed Editions, nor as Ward ſays in our Eng. of 1561, 1562, 1577, 1579, Pref. to Errata of Prot. Bib. However MSS. have the Right to decide it.

Ver. 1. paſſing away] Though Guyſe owns that this being the ſame Word as before carries the Face of a Connection, yet he argues that this was about three Months after the other, Ch. viii. 59. by Ch. vii. 2. & x. 22. whereas I refer the latter Text to that after it, and not this with the following to be then, allowing alſo Time for the Courſe of Excommunication, Jeſus meeting with him that had been blind afterwards, &c.

Ver. 2. ſinned, he] They taking Puniſhment for the certain Effect of Sin, according to that at Luke xiii. 2, 4. and being miſtaken in one Thing, might in another; tho' their Query does not imply, that they thought he ſinned, only that they propoſed it according to different Notions that were received; one of which was the Tranſmigration of Souls, or their Paſſage from one Body to another, according to their Demerits, which by Wiſd. of Sol. viii. 20. the Jews ſeem tinged with. Among other Non-expounders of this Expreſſion, what could induce ſuch a learned Author and great Critick as Wall, to give us this, and no more, as the Expoſition of it, in Crit. Not. Whoſe ſin has been the cauſe that this man was born blind, his own ſin, or the ſin of his parents? Did he think we ſhould not underſtand that manifeſt Meaning by the Text? And that the other would be underſtood by it, which muſt be very difficult to common Readers, without Help? ſee the like in the Aſſembly's Annot. on the next Verſe.

7. As alſo ſaid to him, Go, waſh in the Pool of Siloam (which being interpreted is Sent) he went away therefore, and waſhed, and came ſeeing.

8. Therefore the Neighbours, and they who had ſeen before that he was blind, ſaid, Is not this he that ſate, and begged?

9. Others ſaid, This is he; but others, He is like him: however he ſaid, It is I.

10. They therefore enquired of him, How were the Eyes opened for thee?

11. He made anſwer; A Man called Jeſus made Clay, and anointed my Eyes, and ſaid to me, Go to the Pool of Siloam, and waſh; ſo when I went away, and waſhed, I had ſight.

12. Therefore they ſaid to him, Where is he? Says he, I know not.

13. They bring him to the Phariſees who once was blind.

14. Now it was the Sabbath when Jeſus made the Clay, and opened his Eyes.

15. The Phariſees therefore aſked him alſo again, how he had ſight. To whom he ſaid, He put Clay upon my Eyes, and I waſhed, and do ſee.

16. Therefore ſome of the Phariſees ſaid, This Man is not from God, becauſe he does not keep the Sabbath. Others ſaid, How can a Man who is a Sinner do ſuch Miracles? Thus there was a Diviſion among them.

17. They ſay to the blind Man again, What doſt thou ſay concerning him, that he has opened thy Eyes? But he ſaid, He is a Prophet.

18. The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he was blind, and had ſight; until they called the Parents of him who had ſight,

19. And aſked them as follows, Is this your Son, of whom you ſay that he was born blind? How then does he now ſee?

20. His Parents made anſwer to them; We know that this is our Son, and that he was born blind.

21. But how he now ſees we know not, or who opened his Eyes we do not know: he is of Age, aſk him; he will ſpeak concerning himſelf.

22. Theſe Things ſaid his Parents, becauſe they feared the Jews: for the Jews had already agreed, that if any one did confeſs him to be Chriſt, he ſhould not belong to the Synagogue.

23. For this reaſon his Parents ſaid, He is of Age, aſk him.

24. Therefore they called the Man who was blind the ſecond time, and ſaid to him, Aſcribe Glory to God; we know that this Man is a Sinner.

25. He therefore made anſwer, Whether he is a Sinner I know not; one Thing I know, that having been blind, I now ſee.

26. Whereupon they ſaid to him again, What did he do to thee? How opened he thy Eyes?

27. He anſwered, I have told you already, and you did not hearken; why would you hear again? Would you alſo become his Diſciples?

28. They therefore railed at him, and ſaid; Thou art a Diſciple of him, but we are Diſciples of Moſes.

29. We know that God ſpoke to Moſes; but we know not whence this Man is.

30. The Man made reply to them; In this indeed there is a wonderful Thing, that you know not whence he is, when he has opened my Eyes.

31. Since we know that God hears not Sinners; but if any one be a Worſhipper of God, and does his Will, him he hears.

32. Since the World has been it has not been heard, that any Man opened the Eyes of one born blind.

33. If he was not from God, he could not do any Thing.

34. They made anſwer to him, Thou waſt wholly born in Sins, and doſt thou teach us? So they put him out.

35. Jeſus heard that they put him out, and finding him, he ſaid to him, Doſt thou believe in the Son of God?

Ver. 8. blind] by ſome a Beggar, becauſe, as it ſeems, he is mentioned to be ſuch in the following Words, and not as Mills frigidly imagines, that blind crept from Ver. 13.

Ver. 17. that] properly as in the next Ver. and not for ſeeing that, with which Guyſe puzzles himſelf and his Readers.

Ib. But] left out of the com. Eng. and therefore Ver. 18. wrong tranſlated But, on which the Senſe of the Diſcourſe hinges thus: the Gr. Particle juſt before for that, like the Syriack which was ſpoken, ſignifying alſo becauſe, and the Man taking it ſo, anſwered accordingly, not miſtruſting that they doubted the Truth of it; and ſo ſince he did not affirm what they aſked him, but ſaid, He is a Prophet, they therefore did not believe this Miracle was wrought. How well does all this conſiſt together, and I hope now clearly appear!

Ver. 18. therefore] So the Gr. is, and ſo the Connection bears well.

Ver. 26. again] not with a few; but to be inſerted from the next Ver. as Mills ſpeaks, Pro. 430. appears altogether improbable.

Ver. 30. whence he is] viz. from God, according to what follows.

Ver. 31. him he hears] ſeem added, ſays Mills, to ſupply the Defect of the Sentence, Pro. 1422. but if he was candid, how little muſt he have conſidered the Style of this Apoſtle? with which this ſo much ſuits, that one might be almoſt ſure it is his own; and why ſhould I ſay almoſt, when only one Copy and one Writer omit it, and the Reaſon plain too, becauſe it is a little redundant?

36. He

36. He made anſwer, Who is it, Lord, that I may believe in him?

37. At which Jeſus ſaid to him, Thou haſt both ſeen him, and it is he that talks with thee.

38. Upon this he ſaid, I believe, Lord; and worſhipped him.

39. Beſides Jeſus ſaid, For Judgment am I come into this World; that thoſe who ſee not may ſee, and thoſe who ſee may become blind.

40. And ſome of the Phariſees being with him heard theſe Things, and ſaid to him, Are we alſo blind?

41. Jeſus anſwered them: If you were blind, you would not have Sin; but now you ſay, We ſee; therefore your Sin remains.

CHAP. X.

I SAY to you very certainly; That Perſon who does not enter at the Gate into the Sheep-fold, but climbs up elſewhere, is a Thief and a Robber.

2. Whereas he who enters at the Gate, is the Shepherd of the Sheep.

3. To him the Porter opens, and the Sheep hear his Voice; he alſo calls his own Sheep by Name, and brings them out.

4. And when he puts forth his own Sheep, he goes before them; moreover the Sheep follow him, becauſe they know his Voice.

5. Nay they will not follow another at all, but run away from him; becauſe they know not the Voice of others.

6. This Proverb Jeſus ſaid to them; yet they did not know what Things thoſe were which he ſpoke to them.

7. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them again: I tell you very certainly, that I am the Gate of the Sheep.

8. All that ever came before me, are Thieves and Robbers; but the Sheep did not hear them.

9. I am the Gate: at me if any one comes in, he ſhall be ſaved; nay ſhall come in, and go out, and find Paſture.

10. The Thief does not come, except that he may ſteal, kill, and deſtroy: I am come that they may have Life, and have it more abundantly.

11. I am the good Shepherd: it is he yields up his Life for the Sheep.

12. But he that is a hired one, and not the Shepherd, whoſe own the Sheep are not, ſees the Wolf coming, and leaves the Sheep, and flees; ſo that the Wolf catches them, and diſperſes the Sheep.

13. Thus the hired one flees, becauſe he is hired, and has no Care about the Sheep.

14. I am the good Shepherd, and know mine, and am known by mine.

15. As the Father knows me, I alſo know the Father, and yield up my Life for the Sheep.

16. And other Sheep I have that are not of this Fold, and thoſe I muſt bring, and they ſhall hear what I ſay; ſo there ſhall be one Sheep-fold, one Shepherd.

17. For this reaſon my Father loves me, becauſe I yield up my Life, that I may receive it again.

18. None takes it from me, but I yield it up of my ſelf: I have Authority to yield it up, and have Authority to receive it again. The Commandment for this have I received from my Father.

19. There was a Diviſion therefore again among the Jews, by theſe Words.

20. And many of them ſaid, He has a Devil, and is mad; why do ye hear him?

21. Others ſaid, Theſe are not the Words of one in whom the Devil is; can a Devil open the Eyes of the Blind?

22. Now there was the Feaſt of Dedication at Jeruſalem, when it was Winter.

23. And Jeſus walked in the Temple, in Solomon's Porch.

24. The Jews therefore compaſſed him about, and ſaid to him, How long doſt thou hold our Mind in doubt? If thou art Chriſt, tell us freely.

Ver. 1. climbs]

So clomb this firſt grand Thief into God's Fould:
So ſince into his Church lewd Hirelings climbe,
Par. Loſt, B. 4.

Ver. 6. Proverb] the indiſputable Meaning of the Word, which is the ſame that is ſo rendered Ch. xvi. 25, 29. 2 Pet. ii. 22. and may more immediately be referred to the foregoing Verſe.

Ver. 8. before me] not in many Copies, yet ſeems to be genuine, and omitted leſt it ſhould be miſunderſtood of Moſes and the true Prophets; though the Meaning is of coming as the Shepherd, Gate or Meſſias, which Jeſus did. What Need had Guyſe to tell us it was not the holy Prophets and John the Baptiſt?

Ver. 11. yields up] far the more general Reading of the ſame Verb as in Ver. 15, 17, 18.

Ver. 14. am known by mine] Some have mine know me, which Mills ſo much prefers, that he ſays ours was made afterwards, Prol. 430. for which however he gives no Reaſon, as indeed the mere Authority of a few againſt many would be a poor Reaſon, and a worſe Expreſſion againſt a better ſtill poorer: for our Saviour continuing to ſpeak of himſelf, as we read it, is evidently more pertinent and ſtrong than the other, which checks and flattens this noble Diſcourſe.

Ver. 21. can a Devil] A ſingle MS. only having ἔχων added, to make it can he that has a Devil, Beza ſays he very much approves of it; but what will the Writings of the New Teſtament come to at that Rate?

Ver. 22. Dedication] as in 1 Mac. iv. 59. 2 Mac. x. 5, 8.

Ib. when] and being leſs proper, as that Feaſt was always in the Winter; but John might mention it for the Illiterate among the Gentiles.

25. Jeſus anſwered them: I have told you, and ye did not believe: thoſe Works which I do in the Name of my Father, teſtify concerning me.

26. But ye do not believe: for ye are not any of my Sheep, as I told you.

27. My Sheep hear my Voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

28. So I give them everlaſting Life, and they ſhall not at all periſh for ever, nor ſhall any one pull them out of my Hand.

29. My Father who gave to me, is greater than all; and none can pull out of my Father's Hand.

30. I and the Father are one.

31. Therefore the Jews again carried Stones, that they might ſtone him.

32. Jeſus anſwered them, Many good Works have I ſhewn you from my Father; for which of thoſe Works do ye ſtone me?

33. The Jews made him anſwer, We do not ſtone thee about a good Work, but about Blaſphemy, and becauſe thou that art a Man, makeſt thy ſelf God.

34. Jeſus replied to them: Is it not written in your Law; I ſaid, You are gods?

35. If he called thoſe gods, to whom the Word of God was, and the Scripture cannot be diſannulled;

36. Do ye tell him whom the Father has ſanctified, and ſent into the World, Thou blaſphemeſt; becauſe I ſaid, I am the Son of God?

37. If I do not the Works of my Father, believe me not.

38. But if I do, though you believe me not, believe the Works; that you may know, and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39. They therefore ſought again to apprehend him, but he got away from their Hand.

40. When he went away again beyond Jordan, into the Place where John was firſt baptizing; and he remained there.

41. Whereupon many came to him, and ſaid, John indeed did no Miracle, but all Things whatever John ſpoke concerning him were true.

42. So that many believed in him there.

CHAP. XI.

NOW there was a certain Man ſick, one Lazarus of Bethany, the Town of Mary and her Siſter Martha.

2. (And it was the Mary who anointed the Lord with Ointment, and wiped his Feet with her Hair, whoſe Brother Lazarus was ſick)

3. Therefore the Siſters ſent Word to him, Lord, behold he whom thou loveſt is ſick.

4. Which Jeſus hearing, ſaid, This Sickneſs is not to Death, but for the Glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it.

5. Moreover Jeſus loved Martha, and her Siſter, as well as Lazarus.

6. When he heard therefore that the other was ſick, then indeed he remained at the Place in which he was two Days.

7. Next he after that ſays to the Diſciples, Let us go along into Judea again.

8. The Diſciples ſay to him, Rabbi, the Jews now have attempted to ſtone thee, and doſt thou again go thither?

9. Jeſus anſwered; Are there not twelve Hours to a Day? If any one walks in the Day, he does not ſtumble, becauſe he ſees the Light of this World.

10. Whereas if any one walks in the Night, he ſtumbles, becauſe there is not Light in it.

11. Theſe Things he ſaid; and after that he ſays to them, Our Friend Lazarus is aſleep, but I am going that I may awake him.

12. Therefore his Diſciples ſaid, Lord, if he is aſleep, he will be well.

13. But Jeſus ſpoke concerning his Death; whereas they thought that he diſcourſed about being in a Sleep.

14. Then Jeſus therefore ſaid to them publickly, Lazarus is dead.

15. And I am glad by reaſon of you (in or-

Ver. 26. for] not ſo ſtrictly dependent on the other as becauſe; however their being not his Sheep was becauſe they did not believe before according to Ver. 25.

Ver. 38. know, and believe] as Iſa. xliii. 10. ſo 1 Sam. xxv. 17. Jer. ii. 19. for know being firſt in Place may not in Time, but it may be underſtood know as well as believe.

Ib. and believe] By Mills's Account this was not at firſt in the Text, though wanting in but one ſtrange Copy, and in no Tranſ. then he reckons that know, the ſame Gr. Verb as the foregoing in another Termination, was put in the Marg. as more ſuitable, which at length crept into the Body of the Book after that, as it is in another Copy; and afterwards was changed, to take away the Tautology, into this, which crept from the laſt believe, Prol. 434, 753. Let us try whether there may not be as much Probability another Way: ſuppoſe it at firſt in the Text, where it agrees well with the other believe, and is ſixty-fold more confirmed by MSS. and Verſions; but Somebody might think it improper after know, and ſo alter it into another know, as ſome other Perſon did into perceive, which two Verſions have.

Ver. 3. the Siſters] Some Copies have his; but our Tranſlators might rather follow Beza, as he the Vulgate, contrary to his own Copy, by Overſight; ſince the Geneva Verſ. has it Ital.

Ver. 9. The Geneviſts have here this valuable Note, 'He that walketh in his vocation, and hath the light of 'God for his guide, needeth to feare no dangers.

der for you to believe) that I was not there; but let us go along to him.

16. Therefore ſaid Thomas, who is called Didymus, to his Fellow-diſciples, Let us alſo go along, that we may die with him.

17. Jeſus therefore came, and found he had been four Days already in the Grave.

18. (Now Bethany was near Jeruſalem, about fifteen Furlongs off)

19. And many of the Jews were come about Martha and Mary, that they might comfort them concerning their Brother.

20. Martha therefore when ſhe heard that Jeſus was coming, met him; but Mary ſate in the Houſe.

21. Therefore Martha ſaid to Jeſus; Lord, if thou hadſt been here, my Brother would not have been dead.

22. But yet now I know that whatever thou ſhalt aſk God for, God will give thee.

23. Jeſus ſays to her, Thy Brother will ariſe.

24. Martha ſays to him, I know that he will ariſe in the Reſurrection on the laſt Day.

25. Jeſus replied to her; I am the Reſurrection, and Life: he that believes in me will be alive, though he is dead.

26. And every one who is alive, and believes in me will not die at all for ever; doſt thou believe this?

27. She ſays to him, Yes, Lord: I believe that thou art Chriſt the Son of God, who ſhould come into the World.

28. And having ſaid theſe Things, ſhe went away, and called her Siſter Mary privately, ſaying, The Maſter is come, and calls for thee.

29. When ſhe heard, ſhe roſe up quickly, and came to him.

30. However Jeſus was not yet come into the Town, but was in the Place where Martha met him.

31. The Jews therefore who were with her in the Houſe, and were comforting her, when they ſaw that Mary aroſe quickly, and went out, followed her, ſaying, She is going to the Grave, that ſhe may weep there.

32. Therefore when Mary was come where Jeſus was, and ſaw him, ſhe fell at his Feet, ſaying to him, Lord, if thou hadſt been here, my Brother would not have died.

33. When Jeſus therefore ſaw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her; he was grieved in Spirit, and affected with Trouble.

34. At length he aſked, Where have you laid him? They ſay to him, Lord, come, and ſee.

35. Jeſus ſhed tears.

36. Therefore the Jews ſaid, Lo how he loved him!

37. And ſome of them ſaid, Could not he who opened the Eyes of one blind, have cauſed that he alſo ſhould not have died?

38. Jeſus therefore again being grieved in himſelf, comes to the Grave; now it was a Cave, and a Stone lay upon it.

39. Says Jeſus, Take up the Stone. Martha, the Siſter of him who was dead, repreſents to him, Lord, he has a ſcent already, for it is four Days.

40. Jeſus anſwers her, Did not I tell thee, that if thou wouldeſt believe, thou ſhouldeſt ſee the Glory of God?

41. Therefore they took up the Stone where the Dead was laid; at which Jeſus looked up above, and ſaid; Father, I give thee thanks, that thou haſt hearkened to me.

42. Yet I knew that thou always hearkeneſt to me; but by reaſon of the Company ſtanding about I ſpoke, in order for them to believe that thou haſt ſent me.

43. And having ſaid theſe Things, he cried out aloud, Lazarus, come forth.

44. Whereupon he who was dead came out, bound Feet and Hands with the Grave-cloaths, and his Face was bound about with a Napkin. Jeſus ſays to them, Let him looſe, and give him liberty to go.

45. Many of the Jews therefore who came to Mary, and had ſeen the Things which Jeſus did, believed in him.

46. Some of them notwithſtanding went away to the Phariſees, and told them what Things Jeſus had done.

47. Therefore the chief Prieſts and Phariſees gathered together the Council, and ſaid; What do we? ſince this Man does many Miracles.

48. If we let him alone thus, all will believe in him; nay the Romans will come, and take away both our Place and Nation.

49. Beſides Caiaphas a certain one of them, being high Prieſt that Year, ſaid to them; You know not any Thing,

50. Nor conſider, that it is profitable to us, that one Man ſhould die for the People, and not the whole Nation periſh.

51. Nevertheleſs he did not ſay this of himſelf, but being high Prieſt that Year, he propheſied that Jeſus ſhould die for the Nation;

Ver. 16. die] according to Ver. 8.

Ver. 19. about] The Gr. having both to and about, the former may be included in come, as the ſame of the Heb. אל is omitted before under, after, between, &c.; ſee Noldius, Heb. Particles.

52. And not for the Nation only, but that he would alſo gather together into one, the Children of God who were diſperſed.

53. From that Day therefore they conſulted together, that they might put him to death.

54. Therefore Jeſus no more walked publickly among the Jews, but went away thence into a Country near the Wilderneſs, to a City called Ephraim; and there he abode with his Diſciples.

55. The Paſſover of the Jews too was near; and many went up to Jeruſalem from the Country before the Paſſover, that they might purify themſelves.

56. They therefore ſought for Jeſus, and talked with one another ſtanding in the Temple, What do ye think, that he will not come at all to the Feaſt?

57. Now both the chief Prieſts and Phariſees had given Commandment, that if any one knew where he was, he ſhould declare it, that they might apprehend him.

CHAP. XII.

JESUS therefore ſix Days before the Paſſover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was that died, whom he raiſed up from the Dead.

2. Therefore they made a Supper for him there, and Martha ſerved; but Lazarus was one of thoſe who ſate down with him.

3. So Mary taking a Pound of Ointment, of exceeding precious liquid Spikenard, anointed the Feet of Jeſus, and wiped his Feet with her Hair; inſomuch that the Houſe was filled with the Savour of the Ointment.

4. Says one of his Diſciples therefore, Judas Iſcariot Simon's Son, who would deliver him up,

5. For what reaſon was not that Ointment ſold for three hundred Pence, and this given to the Poor?

6. Whereas he ſaid this, not becauſe he cared for the Poor, but becauſe he was a Thief, and had the Purſe, and carried what was put in.

7. Jeſus therefore ſaid; Let her alone; ſhe has kept this for the Day of my Burial.

8. Since the Poor ye have always with you, but have not me always.

9. A great Company therefore of the Jews knew that he was there; and came not for the ſake of Jeſus only, but that they might alſo ſee Lazarus, whom he had raiſed up from the Dead.

10. But the chief Prieſts conſulted, that they might likewiſe put Lazarus to death;

11. Becauſe many of the Jews went by reaſon of him, and believed in Jeſus.

12. On the next Day a great Company who were come to the Feaſt, hearing that Jeſus was coming to Jeruſalem,

13. Took Branches of Palm-trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, Pray ſave, the King of Iſrael who comes in the Name of the Lord is bleſſed.

14. Moreover Jeſus finding a young Aſs, ſate upon it, as it is written,

15. Do not fear, O Daughter of Zion: behold thy King comes, ſitting upon the Colt of an Aſs.

16. However his Diſciples knew not theſe Things at firſt; but when Jeſus was glorified, then they remembred that theſe Things were written of him, and that they did theſe Things to him.

17. Therefore the Company teſtified for him, which was with him when he called Lazarus out of the Grave, and raiſed him up from the Dead.

18. For this reaſon alſo the Company met him, becauſe they heard that he had done this Miracle.

19. The Pharisees therefore said one to another, Do you see that we profit not any Thing? Lo the World is gone away after him.

20. And there were some Grecians of those who came up, that they might worship at the Feast;

21. These came therefore to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and thus intreated him, Lord, we would see Jesus.

22. Philip comes, and tells Andrew; and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23. Upon which Jesus made answer to them: The Hour is come for the Man to be glorified.

24. I say to you very certainly; Except a Grain of Wheat falls into the Ground, and dies, only that remains; but if it dies, it bears much Fruit.

25. He that loves his Life, will lose it; and he who slights his Life in this World, will keep it to everlasting Life.

26. If any one would wait on me, let him follow me; so where I am, there also will my Servant be: and if any one waits on me, the Father will honour him.

27. My Soul is now troubled, and what shall I say? O Father, save me from this Hour; but for the foregoing I am come to it.

28. O Father, glorify thy Name. Therefore a Voice came from Heaven, I have both glorified, and will glorify again.

29. The Company therefore that stood by, and heard, said it was Thunder: others said, An Angel spoke to him.

30. Jesus made answer; This Voice was not for my sake, but for yours.

31. Now is the Judgment of this World, now will the Prince of this World be cast out abroad.

32. And when I am lifted up from the Earth, I will draw all to my self.

33. (But this he spoke, signifying by what Death he should die)

34. The Company answered him; We have heard out of the Law, that Christ remains for ever; how then dost thou say, The Man must be lifted up? Who is this Man?

35. Therefore Jesus said to them; The Light is with you yet a little Time: walk while you have the Light, that Darkness may not seize you; and he who walks in Darkness, does not know whither he goes.

36. While you have the Light, believe in the Light, that you may be the Sons of it. These Things Jesus spoke, and when he went away, hid from them.

37. Nevertheless though he had done so many Miracles before them, they did not believe in him;

38. So that the Saying of the Prophet Esaias was fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who has believed our Report? And to whom has the Arm of the Lord been revealed?

39. For this reason they could not believe, because said Esaias again,

40. He has let their Eyes be blinded, and their Heart be hardened; lest they should see with the Eyes, understand with the Heart, and when they are converted, I might heal them.

41. These Things Esaias said, when he saw his Glory; and spoke concerning him.

42. Yet indeed many even of the Rulers believed in him; but did not confess, lest they should not belong to the Synagogue.

43. For they loved the Glory of Men, rather than the Glory of God.

44. Jesus further cried out in this manner: He that believes in me, does not properly in me, but in him who sent me.

45. Besides he that sees me, sees him who sent me.

46. I am come a Light into the World, that every one who believes in me may not remain in Darkness.

CHAP XIII.

AT length before the Feaſt of the Paſſover, Jeſus knowing that his Hour was come, for him to depart out of this World to the Father; as he had loved his own who were in the World, he loved them till the End.

2. And when Supper was done (the Devil having now put into the Heart of Judas Iſcariot the Son of Simon, that he ſhould deliver him up)

3. Jeſus knowing that the Father had given him all Things into Hand, and that he came out from God, and was going to God;

4. He riſes up from Supper, and puts away the Garments; then taking a Towel, girded himſelf.

5. Afterwards he puts Water into a Baſon, and began to waſh the Feet of the Diſciples, and to wipe with the Towel that he was girded with.

6. So he comes to Simon Peter, who ſays to him, Lord, doſt thou waſh my Feet?

7. Jeſus made anſwer to him, What I do, thou doſt not know now, but thou wilt know when theſe Things are paſt.

8. Peter ſays to him, Thou ſhalt never waſh my Feet at all. Jeſus anſwered him, If I do not waſh thee, thou haſt no Part with me.

9. Simon Peter replies to him, Lord, not my Feet only, but alſo the Hands and Head.

10. Jeſus rejoins to him, He that is waſhed has no more Need than to waſh the Feet, but is wholly clean; and you are clean, but not all.

11. For he knew who would deliver him up; for this reaſon he ſaid, You are not all clean.

12. When he had therefore waſhed their Feet, and taken his Garments, being ſate down, he ſaid to them: Do ye know what I have done to you?

13. You call me Maſter and Lord; and you ſay well, for I am.

14. If I therefore the Lord and Maſter have waſhed your Feet, you alſo ought to waſh the Feet one of another.

15. For I have given you an Example, that ye ſhould alſo do as I have done to you.

16. I ſay to you very certainly, A Servant is not greater than his Maſter, nor an Apoſtle greater than he who ſent him.

17. If you know theſe Things, you are bleſſed if you do them.

18. I ſpeak not concerning you all, I know whom I have choſen; but it is that the Scripture may be fulfilled, He that eats Bread with me, has lifted his Heel againſt me.

19. I tell you even now before it comes to paſs, that when it does, you may believe that it is I.

20. I ſay to you very certainly, He that receives whomſoever I ſend, receives me; and he that receives me, does him who ſent me.

21. Jeſus having ſaid theſe Things, was troubled in Spirit, and teſtified in this manner, I tell you very certainly, that one of you will deliver me up.

22. Therefore the Diſciples looked one at another, doubting about whom he ſpoke.

23. Now there was leaning on the Boſom of Jeſus one of his Diſciples, whom he loved.

24. Simon Peter therefore nodded to him, to aſk who it would be about whom he ſpoke.

25. So he lying down upon the Breaſt of Jeſus, ſays to him, Lord, who is it?

26. Jeſus anſwered, It is he to whom, having dipt, I ſhall give a Bit; and dipping in a Bit, he gave it to Judas Iſcariot the Son of Simon.

27. And after the Bit then Satan entered into him; Jeſus therefore ſays to him, What thou doeſt, do quickly.

28. But none who ſate down knew why he ſpoke this to him.

29. For ſome thought, ſince Judas had the Purſe, that Jeſus ſaid to him, Buy what Things we have Need of againſt the Feaſt; or that he ſhould give Something to the Poor.

30. Therefore he having the Bit, preſently went out; and it was Night when he thus went.

31. Jeſus ſays; Now is the Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32. If God be ſo, he will alſo glorify him in himſelf, and will glorify him preſently.

33. Little Children, I am with you yet a little while: ye will ſeek me, and as I ſaid to the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; ſo now I ſay to you.

34. I give you a new Commandment, that ye ſhould love one another; as I have loved you, that ye ſhould alſo love one another.

35. By this will all know that you are my Diſciples, if you have Love one to another.

36. Simon Peter ſays to him, Lord, whither doſt thou go? Jeſus anſwered him, Whither I go, thou canſt not follow me now, but wilt hereafter.

37. Peter replies to him, Lord, for what reaſon cannot I follow thee at preſent? I will lay down my Life for thee.

38. Jeſus anſwered him; Wilt thou lay down thy Life for me? I ſay to thee very certainly, The Cock will not at all crow, until thou haſt thrice denied me.

CHAP. XIV.

LET not your Heart be troubled: believe in God, as alſo in me believe.

2. In my Father's Houſe there are many Habitations, and if not, I would have told you: I go before to prepare a Place for you.

3. And if I go, and prepare for you a Place, I will come again, and receive you to my ſelf; that where I am, you may alſo be.

4. Moreover whither I go you know, and know the Way.

5. Thomas ſays to him, Lord, we know not whither thou goeſt, and how can we know the Way?

6. Jeſus replies to him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: none comes to the Father but by me.

7. If you had known me, you would alſo have known my Father; and henceforth you know him, as well as have ſeen him.

8. Says Philip to him, Lord, ſhew us the Father, and it is ſufficient for us.

9. Jeſus ſays to him: Am I ſuch a long Time with you, and haſt not thou known me, Philip? He who has ſeen me, has ſeen the Father; and how doſt thou ſay, Shew us the Father?

10. Doſt not thou believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The Words which I ſpeak to you, I ſpeak not from my ſelf; but the Father himſelf who remains in me does the Works.

11. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me; but if not, believe me by reaſon of the Works themſelves.

12. I ſay to you very certainly, He that believes in me, the Works which I do, he ſhall alſo do, nay ſhall do greater than theſe; becauſe I go to my Father.

13. And whatever you ſhall requeſt in my Name, this will I do; that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14. If you ſhall requeſt any Thing in my Name, I will do it.

Ver. 1. believe in God] believe being the ſame both times, and ſo Guyſe judged they ſhould be rendered alike. Beza alſo mentions for both to be imperative Nonnus and Theophylact, as likewiſe Doddr. has it; and how much does the preceding leading Verb, which is thus, conduce to it! Not that alone, but the Senſe likewiſe, as to continue and renew their Belief in God the Father and Chriſt, might be of great Help for them not to be troubled. And why ſhould Chriſt preferably to the other tell them only they believed in God, when they did alſo in him? Beſides the Gr. Pronoun you being not to this believe, any more than to the next, may of it ſelf ſhew this to be imperative like that.

Ib. as alſo in me believe] Whitby having aſſerted in his Preface to the Galatians, that in all the Scriptures of the New Teſtament there is not to be found one Exhortation to any Chriſtian to believe in Chriſt; which he affirms further in an Advertiſement, is as certain and demonſtrable as any Propoſition in Euclid, becauſe a Chriſtian is one that does or muſt believe in Chriſt; and therefore cites the Synopſis (Poole's I ſuppoſe) that it may be rendered in the Ind. Mood, and you believe in me: which is eaſy to know without the Synopſis, if the Context would allow of it; but the Imperative before too ſtrongly requires this to be ſo, for any to deny it, that by believing in Chriſt they might not be troubled. 18. I will not leave you fatherleſs, I will come to you.

19. In a little while the World ſees me no more, but you ſee me: becauſe I live, you alſo will.

20. At that Time you will know, that I am in the Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21. He who has my Commandments, and keeps them, that is he who loves me; now he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, as alſo make my ſelf manifeſt to him.

22. Judas, not Iſcariot, ſays to him, Lord, how is it that thou art about to make thy ſelf manifeſt to us, and not to the World?

23. Jeſus made anſwer to him: If any one loves me, he will keep my Word; ſo my Father will love him, nay we will come to him, and make a Habitation with him.

24. He that does not love me, keeps not my Words; and the Word which you hear is not mine, but the Father's who ſent me.

25. Theſe Things have I ſpoken to you, while I remain with you.

26. But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will ſend in my Name, will himſelf teach you all Things, and bring all to your remembrance, which I have ſaid to you.

27. I leave Peace to you, give you my Peace; not as the World gives, do I give you: let not your Heart be troubled, nor be afraid.

28. You have heard that I ſaid to you, I go away, and come to you: if you loved me, you would have been glad that I ſaid, I go to the Father; becauſe my Father is greater than I.

29. Beſides I have now told you before it comes to paſs; that when it does, you may believe.

30. I ſhall not ſpeak many Things further with you: for the Prince of this World is coming, though he has not any Thing in me.

31. But it is in order for the World to know, that I love the Father; and as he has commanded me, ſo I do. Riſe up, let us go along hence.

3. You are already clean by the Word which I have ſpoken to you.

4. Remain in me, and let me in you. As a Branch cannot bear Fruit of it ſelf, except it remains in the Vine, ſo neither you, except you remain in me.

5. I am the Vine, you the Branches: he that remains in me, and I in him, bears much Fruit; ſince without me you cannot do any Thing.

6. Except any one remains in me, he is caſt out abroad as a Branch, even a withered one; ſo that People gather them together, and caſt into the Fire, and they are burned.

7. If you remain in me, and my Sayings remain in you, ye may requeſt whatſoever ye will, and it ſhall be done for you.

8. In this my Father is glorified, that you bear much Fruit; ſo ſhall you become Diſciples to me.

9. As the Father has loved me, I have alſo loved you: remain in my Love.

Commandments of my Father, and remain in his Love.

11. Theſe Things have I ſpoken to you, that my Joy might remain in you, and yours might be fulfilled.

12. This is my Commandment, that ye ſhould love one another, as I have loved you.

13. Greater Love than this none has, that any one ſhould lay down his Life for his Friend.

14. Ye are my Friends, if ye do whatever I command you.

15. I no more call you Servants, ſince a Servant knows not what his Maſter does; but I call you Friends, ſince all Things which I have heard from my Father have I made known to you.

16. Ye did not chooſe me, but I choſe you, and appointed you, that ye might go, and bear Fruit, and your Fruit might remain; that whatſoever ye ſhall requeſt the Father in my Name, he may give it you.

17. Theſe Things I command you, that ye love one another.

18. If the World hates you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19. If ye were of the World, that would love its own; whereas ſince ye are not of the World, but I have choſen you out of it, for this reaſon the World hates you.

20. Remember the Words which I ſaid to you, a Servant is not greater than his Maſter. If they have perſecuted me, they will alſo perſecute you: if they have kept my Words, they will alſo keep yours.

21. But all theſe Things will they do to you by reaſon of my Name, ſince they know not him who ſent me.

22. If I had not come, and ſpoken to them, they would not have had Sin; but now they have no Excuſe for their Sin.

23. He that hates me, hates alſo my Father.

24. If I had not done Works among them which no other did, they would not have had Sin; but now they have both ſeen, and hated even me and my Father.

25. But it is that the Saying might be fulfilled, which is written in their Law, that they hated me undeſervedly.

26. However when the Comforter is come; whom I will ſend to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth who comes out from him, he will teſtify concerning me.

27. And you alſo will teſtify, becauſe you have been with me from the Beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

THESE Things have I ſpoken to you; that ye might not be offended.

2. They will make you not belong to the Synagogue; nay the Time is coming, that any one who kills you, will think he brings Service to God.

3. And theſe Things will they do to you, becauſe they have not known the Father, nor me.

4. But theſe Things have I ſpoken to you, that when the Time comes, ye may remember of them that I told you; however I did not tell you theſe Things at the Beginning, becauſe I was with you.

5. Whereas now I go to him who ſent me; and none of you aſks me, Whither doſt thou go?

6. Nevertheleſs becauſe I have ſpoken theſe Things to you, Grief has filled your Heart.

7. Yet I tell you the Truth, it is profitable for you that I ſhould go away: for if I do not, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I go, I will ſend him to you.

8. And when he comes, he will convince the World concerning Sin, concerning Righteouſneſs, and alſo Judgment:

Ib. might remain] Inſtead of the Gr. μείνῃ five Copies have ᾖ may be, and ſo many Verſions have it rendered thus. That Mills eſteemed the genuine Reading, as Theophylact has μένῃ· for he imagined this latter came from μέν indeed being added, tho' there is no Inſtance of that, as there is of our μείνῃ. What Spectres can a Mind, turned to ſtrong and ſtrange Ideas of them, raiſe? And beſides the Want of μέν ſince ᾖ breaks off the Chain of his Reaſoning, for Lack of that Link; ᾖ is the preſ. Tenſe, not the firſt Aoriſt like πληρωθῇ might be fulfilled, as μείνῃ is, and as ſeems requiſite. Whitby's telling us it ſignifies Nothing which we read, is telling us Nothing but what we know without, as it is alſo like yielding up the Point.

Ver. 20. his] here as well as at Chap. xiii. 16. So both the Gr. and the former Eng. have, but the early Editions of the laſt Tranſ. have [the,] and the preſent are divided.

Ver. 21. all] This Mills would have to be crept in, five having it not; Pr. 1476. ſo John, he ſays, ſimply without all, Ch. xvi. 3. but what ſo likely as that being the Occaſion of leaving it out here?

Ib. by reaſon of my Name] viz. becauſe of their being Chriſtians; but for the ſake denotes Regard, being uſed in a good or reſpectful Senſe.

Ver. 22. they would not have had Sin] Beza, they would not have ceaſed to ſay that they were religious, and quite Strangers to Sin. But to me, ſays Caſtal. in Defenſ. p. 186. it ſeems to be far otherwiſe; If I had not come, they would not have rejected me, and ſo not ſinned in that Reſpect. Whereas I think both had need be taken into the Meaning: the former as the next Words here, and the laſt in Ch. ix. 39. intimate; and the latter apparently from Ver. 24.

Ver. 2. nay] Whitby ſays ἀλλὰ here ſignifies yea; but that in the modern Engliſh is nay.

Ver. 8. convince] So the Word properly ſignifies, Doddr.

9. Concerning Sin indeed, becauſe they do not believe in me;

10. Concerning Righteouſneſs, becauſe I go to my Father, and you ſee me no more;

11. And concerning Judgment, becauſe the Prince of this World is judged.

12. I have yet many Things to ſpeak to you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13. However when the Spirit of Truth himſelf comes, he will guide you into all Truth: for he will not ſpeak of himſelf, but whatever he ſhall hear will ſpeak, and he will tell you Things that are to come.

14. He will glorify me; becauſe he will receive of mine, and tell you.

15. All Things whatever the Father has are mine: for this reaſon I ſaid, that he will receive of mine, and tell you.

16. In a little while you will not ſee me, and again in a little while you will behold me, becauſe I go to my Father.

17. Some of his Diſciples therefore ſaid one to another; What is this that he ſays to us, In a little while you will not ſee me, and again in a little while you will behold me; and, Becauſe I go to the Father?

18. Therefore they ſaid, What is this that he ſays, the little while? We know not what he ſays.

19. Jeſus therefore knew that they were minded to aſk him, ſo he ſaid to them: Are you ſeeking one with another concerning this, becauſe I ſaid, In a little while you will not ſee me, and again in a little while you will behold me?

20. I ſay to you very certainly, that ye will weep, and mourn, but the World will rejoice; and ye will grieve, yet your Grief will become Joy.

21. A Woman when ſhe is in labour, has Grief, becauſe her Hour is come; but when ſhe has brought forth the Child, ſhe remembers the Affliction no more, for Joy that a Man is born into the World.

22. So ye alſo indeed have now Grief; but I will ſee you again, and your Heart ſhall rejoice, and your Joy none takes away from you.

23. Nay at that Time ye ſhall not aſk me any Thing: for I tell you very certainly, that whatſoever ye ſhall requeſt of the Father in my Name, he will give you.

24. Hitherto ye have not requeſted any Thing in my Name: do ye requeſt, and receive, that your Joy may be full.

25. Theſe Things have I ſpoken to you in Proverbs; but the Time is coming when I ſhall ſpeak to you no more in Proverbs, but ſhall tell you freely concerning the Father.

26. At that Time ye ſhall requeſt in my Name; and I do not ſay to you, that I will aſk of the Father for you.

27. For the Father himſelf loves you; becauſe ye have loved me, and believed that I came out from God.

28. I came out from the Father, and am come into the World; again I leave the World, and go to the Father.

29. His Diſciples ſaid to him; Lo now thou ſpeakeſt freely, and ſpeakeſt no Proverb.

30. Now we know that thou knoweſt all Things, and haſt no Need that any one ſhould aſk thee: by this we believe that thou cameſt out from God.

31. Jeſus anſwered them; Do ye now believe?

32. Behold the Time is coming, nay is already come, that you will be diſperſed each to his own, and leave me alone; yet I am not alone, becauſe the Father is with me.

33. Theſe Things have I ſpoken to you, that in me you might have Peace: in the World you will have Affliction; but take courage, I having overcome the World.

Ver. 23. at that Time] when that Spirit ſhall come, Ham. ſo in Ver. 26. he ſays it belongs not peculiarly to that Time between his Reſurrection and Aſcenſion; for which ſee alſo Guyſe more particularly in his Practical Expoſition of the four Evangeliſts.

Ib. requeſt] There is, writes Wall, in the Engliſh a great Amphibology in the Word aſk, uſed in two differen Senſes, for which the Greec has two different Words; one to aſk a Queſtion, the other to requeſt a Beneſit.

Ver. 24. in my Name] That I ſuppoſe is the Reaſon, ſays Wall, that the Lord's Prayer had no Mention of his Name; but now he bids them aſk all Things in his Name.

Ver. 25. The former but here a few leave out, and Mills ſays it has been inſerted by reaſon of Connection, Pr. 434. Why not more likely left out by reaſon of the other but?

Ver. 26. aſk of] being the firſt of thoſe Words in Ver. 23. and having this double Meaning.

CHAP. XVII.

THESE Things Jeſus ſpoke, and looked up to Heaven, and ſaid: Father, the Time is come; glorify thy Son, that he may alſo glorify thee:

2. According as thou haſt given him Authority over all Fleſh, that he may give everlaſting Life to all whom thou haſt given to him.

3. And this is everlaſting Life, for them to know thee the only true God, and Jeſus Chriſt whom thou haſt ſent.

4. I have glorified thee upon the Earth; have finiſhed the Work which thou gaveſt me to do.

5. So now do thou glorify me, Father, with thy ſelf, in the Glory which I had with thee before the World was.

6. I have made thy Name manifeſt to the Men whom thou gaveſt me out of the World: they were thine, and thou gaveſt them to me, and they have kept thy Word.

7. They have now known, that all Things whatever thou haſt given me, are from thee:

8. Becauſe I have given them the Words which thou gaveſt me; which they have received, and known truly that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didſt ſend me.

9. I intreat for them: I do not intreat for the World, but for them whom thou haſt given me, becauſe they are thine.

10. Moreover all my Things are thine, and thy Things mine, and I am glorified in them.

11. And now I am no more in the World, but theſe are, and I come to thee. Keep thoſe, Holy Father, in thy Name whom thou haſt given me; that they may be one, according as we are.

12. When I was with them in the World, I kept them in thy Name: thoſe whom thou gaveſt me I have preſerved, and none of them is loſt, excepting the Son of Deſtruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13. But now I come to thee, and theſe Things I ſpeak in the World, that they may have my Joy fulfilled in themſelves.

14. I have given to them thy Word, and the World has hated them, becauſe they are not of the World, according as I am not.

15. I do not intreat that thou wouldeſt take them out of the World, but that thou wouldeſt keep them from Wickedneſs.

16. They are not of the World, according as I am not.

17. Sanctify them in thy Truth, thy Word being the Truth.

18. According as thou haſt ſent me into the World, I have alſo ſent them thither.

19. And for them I ſanctify my ſelf, that they likewiſe may be ſanctified in the Truth.

20. However I do not intreat for theſe only, but for them alſo who ſhall believe in me by their Word:

21. That they may all be one; according as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they likewiſe may be one in us; in order for the World to believe that thou haſt ſent me.

22. And I have given them the Glory which thou gaveſt me; that they may be one, as we are one:

23. I in them, and thou in me; that they may be made perfect in one, and in order for the World to know that thou ſenteſt me, and didſt love them, as thou didſt me.

24. Father, I am willing that thoſe alſo whom thou haſt given to me, ſhould be with me where I am; that they may ſee my Glory which thou gaveſt me, becauſe thou didſt love me before the founding of the World.

25. Righteous Father, though the World has not known thee, yet I have, and theſe have known that thou haſt ſent me:

26. To whom I have made known thy

CHAP. XVIII.

JESUS having ſaid theſe Things, went out with his Diſciples beyond the Brook Kedron, where there was a Garden, into which he entered, and his Diſciples.

2. Now Judas too that delivered him up knew the Place; becauſe Jeſus often gathered together there with his Diſciples.

3. Judas therefore having received a Regiment, and from the chief Prieſts and Phariſees Officers, comes thither with Lanterns, Lamps and Arms.

4. Therefore Jeſus knowing all Things which would come upon him, went out, and ſaid to them, Whom do ye ſeek after?

5. They anſwered him, Jeſus the Nazorite. Jeſus ſays to them, It is I. And Judas alſo that delivered him up ſtood with them.

6. When he therefore ſaid to them, It is I; they went away backward, and fell on the Ground.

7. He therefore again aſked them, Whom do ye ſeek after? And they ſaid, Jeſus the Nazorite.

8. Jeſus anſwered, I have told you, that it is I; if therefore ye ſeek after me, let theſe go:

9. That the Word might be fulfilled which he ſaid, I have not loſt any of them whom thou gaveſt me.

10. Therefore Simon Peter having a Sword, drew it, and ſmote a Servant of the high Prieſt, and cut off his right Ear; and the Servant's Name was Malchus.

11. Jeſus therefore ſaid to Peter, Put thy Sword into the Sheath; ſhall I not at all drink that Cup which my Father has given me?

12. So the Regiment, the Colonel, and Officers of the Jews took Jeſus, and bound him.

13. Next they brought him away to Annas firſt: for he was the Father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was the high Prieſt for that Year.

14. And it was Caiaphas who adviſed the Jews, that it would be profitable, that one Man ſhould periſh for the People.

15. There followed Jeſus notwithſtanding Simon Peter, and another Diſciple; which Diſciple was known by the high Prieſt, and went in with Jeſus into the high Prieſt's Hall.

16. But Peter ſtood at the Door without; therefore the other Diſciple went out, who was known by the high Prieſt, and ſpoke to the Porter, and brought in Peter.

17. The young Woman that was Porter therefore ſays to Peter, Art not thou alſo one of this Man's Diſciples? He ſays, I am not.

18. The Servants and Officers alſo ſtood by, making a Coal-fire, becauſe it was cold, and warmed themſelves; ſo Peter was ſtanding with them, and warming himſelf.

19. The high Prieſt therefore aſked Jeſus, both concerning his Diſciples and Doctrine.

20. Jeſus anſwered him; I have ſpoken publickly to the World: I always taught in the Synagogue and the Temple, whither the Jews always come together, and have ſpoken Nothing in Secret.

21. Why doſt thou aſk me? Aſk the Hearers, what I have ſpoken to them; lo they know the Things which I ſaid.

22. But upon his ſaying theſe Things, one of the Officers who ſtood by gave Jeſus a Stroke, ſaying, Doſt thou anſwer the high Prieſt thus?

23. Jeſus replied to him, If I have ſpoken ill, teſtify concerning the Ill; but if well, why doſt thou beat me?

24. Annas having ſent him bound to Caiaphas the high Prieſt.

25. Now Simon Peter was ſtanding, and warming himſelf; therefore they ſaid to him, Art not thou alſo one of his Diſciples? He denied by ſaying, I am not.

26. Says one of the high Prieſt's Servants, that was a Kinſman of him whoſe Ear Peter cut off, Did not I ſee thee in the Garden with him?

27. Therefore Peter denied again; and preſently the Cock crowed.

28. They therefore carried Jeſus from Caiaphas into the Judgment-hall, as it was Morning; however they themſelves did not enter in thither, that they might not be defiled, but that they might eat the Paſſover.

29. Pilate therefore went out to them, and ſaid, What Accuſation do ye bring againſt this Man?

30. They made anſwer to him, If he was not a Criminal, we ſhould not have delivered him up to thee.

31. Therefore Pilate replied to them, Do ye take him, and judge him according to your Law. The Jews therefore ſaid to him, It is not lawful for us to put any one to death:

32. That the Word of Jeſus might be fulfilled, which he ſaid, ſignifying by what Kind of Death he ſhould die.

33. Pilate therefore entered into the Judgment-hall again, and called Jeſus, and ſaid to him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34. Jeſus anſwered him, Doſt thou ſpeak this of thy ſelf, or did others tell thee concerning me?

35. Pilate replied, Am I a Jew? Thy Nation and the chief Prieſts delivered thee up to me; what haſt thou done?

36. My Kingdom, anſwered Jeſus, is not of this World: if it was of that, my Attendants would ſtrive, that I might not be delivered up to the Jews; but now my Kingdom is not from hence.

37. Therefore Pilate aſked him, Art not thou then a King? Jeſus anſwered, Thou ſayeſt it, I am a King. I was born for this, and for this came into the World, that I might teſtify to the Truth: every one who is of the Truth hears my Voice.

38. Says Pilate to him, What is Truth? And having ſpoken this, he went out again to the Jews, and declares to them; I find no Crime in him.

39. But there is a Cuſtom to you, that I ſhould releaſe one at the Paſſover; are ye willing therefore I ſhould releaſe to you the King of the Jews?

40. They therefore all cried out again thus, Not him, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a Robber.

CHAP. XIX.

THEN Pilate therefore took, and ſcourged Jeſus.

2. As alſo the Soldiers plaiting a Crown of Briers, put it on his Head, and cloathed him with a purple Garment;

3. Moreover they ſaid, Hail, King of the Jews; and gave him Strokes.

4. Therefore Pilate went forth again, and ſays to them, Lo I bring him out to you, in order for you to know that I find no Crime in him.

5. Jeſus therefore came forth, wearing the thorny Crown, and the purple Garment; upon which he ſays to them, Behold the Man.

6. So when the chief Prieſts and Officers ſaw him, they cried out thus, Crucify, crucify. Pilate ſays to them, Do ye take, and crucify him: for I find not a Crime in him.

7. The Jews anſwered him, We have a Law, and according to our Law he ought to die, becauſe he made himſelf the Son of God.

8. When Pilate therefore heard this Saying, he was more afraid.

9. Whereupon he entered into the Judgment-hall again, and ſays to Jeſus, Whence art thou? But Jeſus gave him no Anſwer.

10. Therefore Pilate ſays to him, Doſt not thou ſpeak to me? Knoweſt not thou that I have both Power to crucify thee, and Power to releaſe thee?

11. Jeſus anſwered, Thou wouldeſt have no Power againſt me, if it was not given thee from above: for this reaſon he that delivered me up to thee has the greater Sin.

12. Thenceforth Pilate endeavoured to releaſe him; but the Jews cried out as follows, If thou releaſeſt him, thou art not Ceſar's Friend: every one who makes himſelf a King, contradicts Ceſar.

Ver. 8. more afraid] leſt he ſhould be the Son of God, as he might think in the heathen Notion.

Ver. 9. Whence art thou] to know if he came from Heaven.

Ver. 11. the greater Sin] How? Becauſe if Pilate had only earthly Power, he could not have put Jeſus to death, Mat. xxvi. 53, 54. beſides his Innocency would have preſerved him; and ſo the Sin of delivering him up would have been leſs.

13. Pilate therefore hearing this Saying, brought Jeſus out, and ſate down on the Judgment-ſeat, in a Place called the Pavement, but in Hebrew Gabbatha.

14. Now it was the Preparation of the Paſſover, and about the ſixth Hour; and he ſays to the Jews, Behold your King.

15. But they cried out, Take away, take away, crucify him. Pilate ſays to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief Prieſts anſwered, We have no King but Ceſar.

16. Then he delivered him up therefore to them, that he might be crucified. Thus they took, and brought away Jeſus.

17. And he bearing his Croſs, went out to a Place called the Scull one, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha.

18. Where they crucified him, and two others with him, at each Side, and Jeſus in the Middle.

19. And Pilate too wrote a Title, and put on the Croſs; which was written, JESUS THE NAZORITE THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20. This Title therefore many of the Jews read, becauſe the Place where Jeſus was crucified was near the City; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, Latin.

21. Therefore the chief Prieſts of the Jews ſaid to Pilate; Do not write, The King of the Jews, but that he ſaid, I am the King of the Jews.

22. Pilate anſwered, What I have written, I have written.

23. The Soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jeſus, took his Garments (and made four Parts, to each Soldier a Part) with the Coat; now the Coat was without Seam, woven from above all through.

24. They therefore ſaid one to another, Let us not part it, but make lots concerning it, whoſe it ſhall be; that the Scripture might be fulfilled which ſays, They divided my Garments to themſelves, and caſt Lots for my Cloaths: therefore indeed the Soldiers did theſe Things.

25. There ſtood alſo by the Croſs of Jeſus, his Mother, and his Mother's Siſter Mary the Wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26. Therefore Jeſus ſeeing the Mother, and the Diſciple whom he loved ſtanding by, ſays to his Mother, Woman, behold thy Son.

27. Afterwards he ſays to the Diſciple, Behold thy Mother. So from that Hour the Diſciple took her to thoſe of his own.

28. After this Jeſus knowing that all Things were now accompliſhed, that the Scripture might be compleat, ſays, I am thirſty.

29. A Veſſel therefore was ſet full of Vinegar; whereupon they filled a Sponge with it, which putting upon Hyſſop, they conveyed to his Mouth.

30. When Jeſus therefore had received the Vinegar, he ſaid, It is accompliſhed; next bowing the Head, he delivered up the Spirit.

31. Therefore the Jews, that the Bodies might not remain upon the Croſs on the Sabbath, ſince it was the Preparation (for that Sabbath was a great Day) intreated Pilate that their Legs might be broke, and they taken away.

32. The Soldiers therefore indeed came, and broke the Legs of the firſt, and of the other who was crucified with him.

33. But coming to Jeſus, when they ſaw that he was dead already, they did not break his Legs.

34. Yet one of the Soldiers with a Spear pierced his Side, and preſently there came out Blood and Water.

35. And he who ſaw has teſtified, and his Teſtimony is true; nay he knows that he ſpeaks true Things, to the end that you may believe.

36. For theſe Things were done, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, There ſhall not a Bone of him be broke.

37. And again another Scripture ſays, They ſhall look on him whom they have pierced.

38. Now after theſe Things Joſeph one from Arimathea (who was a Diſciple of Jeſus, but concealed for Fear of the Jews) intreated Pilate that he might take away the Body of Jeſus; and Pilate permitted him: he therefore came, and took it away.

39. Nay Nicodemus alſo came (who firſt came to Jeſus by Night) bringing a Mixture of Myrrh and Aloes, about a hundred Pounds.

40. Therefore they took the Body of Jeſus, and tied it up in linen Cloaths, with the Spices, as the Manner of the Jews is to bury.

41. Beſides there was in the Place, where he was crucified, a Garden; and in that a new Grave, into which was not any one yet put.

42. There they therefore laid Jeſus, by reaſon of the Jews Preparation, becauſe the Grave was near.

CHAP. XX.

AFTERWARDS on the firſt Day after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene comes in the Morning, while it was dark, to the Grave, and ſees the Stone taken away from it.

2. Therefore ſhe runs, and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other Diſciple whom Jeſus loved, and ſays to them, They have taken away the Lord from the Grave, and we know not where they have put him.

3. Peter therefore went out, and the other Diſciple, and they came to the Grave.

4. However though they ran both together, the other Diſciple quickly ran before Peter, and came firſt to the Grave.

5. Who ſtooping down, beheld the linen Cloaths lying; nevertheleſs he did not go in.

6. Simon Peter therefore that followed him comes, and entered into the Grave, and ſaw the linen Cloaths lying;

7. As alſo the Napkin that was upon his Head, not lying with the linen Cloaths, but wrapt up in another Place apart.

8. Then went in therefore the other Diſciple alſo, who came firſt to the Grave; and he ſaw, and believed.

9. For they did not yet know the Scripture, that he muſt riſe from the Dead.

10. Therefore the Diſciples went away to thoſe who belonged to them.

11. But Mary ſtood at the Grave weeping without; as ſhe wept therefore, ſhe ſtooped down.

12. With that ſhe ſees two Angels in White ſitting, one at the Head, and one at the Feet, where the Body of Jeſus had lain.

13. And they aſk her, Woman, why doſt thou weep? She ſays to them, Becauſe they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have put him.

14. Moreover having ſaid thus, ſhe turned about backward, and ſees Jeſus ſtanding; and did not know that it was he.

15. Jeſus aſks her, Woman, why doſt thou weep? Whom doſt ſeek for? She, thinking that he was the Gardener, ſays to him, Maſter, if thou haſt carried him away, tell me where thou haſt put him, and I will take him.

16. Jeſus ſays to her, Mary. She turning about, ſays to him, Rabbouni, which is to ſay Maſter.

17. Replies Jeſus to her; Meddle not with me: for I do not yet go up to my Father; but go thou to my Brethren, and tell them, I am going to my Father and yours, with my God and yours.

18. Mary Magdalene comes, and declares to the Diſciples, that ſhe had ſeen the Lord, and he told her theſe Things.

19. When it was therefore the Evening of that Day, on the firſt after the Sabbath; the Doors being ſhut, where the Diſciples were aſſembled together for Fear of the Jews, Jeſus came, and ſtood in the midſt, and ſays to them, Peace be to you.

20. And having pronounced this, he ſhewed them his Hands and Side. Therefore the Diſciples rejoiced at ſeeing the Lord.

21. Jeſus therefore ſaid to them again, Peace be to you: as the Father ſent me, I alſo ſend you.

22. This having likewiſe expreſſed, he breathed on, and ſays to them; Receive the Holy Spirit.

23. The Sins of whomſoever you forgive, they are forgiven to them; of whomſoever you hold faſt, thoſe are held faſt.

24, But Thomas one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jeſus came.

25. Therefore the other Diſciples told him, We have ſeen the Lord. But he ſaid to them, Except I ſhould behold in his Hands the Mark of the Nails, nay ſhould put my Finger on the Mark of them, as alſo put my Hand on his Side, I would not at all believe.

26. So eight Days after his Diſciples were again within, and Thomas with them; when Jeſus comes, the Doors being ſhut, and ſtood in the midſt, and ſaid, Peace be to you.

27. Afterwards he ſays to Thomas, Put forth thy Finger hither, and behold my Hands; as likewiſe reach out thy Hand, and put on my Side: thus be not unbelieving, but believing.

28. At this Thomas made anſwer to him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29. Jeſus replies to him, Becauſe thou haſt ſeen me, Thomas, thou haſt believed: they are bleſſed who have not beheld, and yet have believed.

30. Many other Miracles therefore indeed Jeſus alſo did before his Diſciples, which are not written in this Book.

31. But theſe are written, that you may believe that Jeſus is Chriſt the Son of God; and that believing, you may have Life in his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

AFTER theſe Things Jeſus made himſelf manifeſt again to the Diſciples, at the Sea of Tiberias; which he did thus.

2. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, as alſo Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, and the Sons of Zebedee, with two others of his Diſciples.

3. Simon Peter tells them, I am going a fiſhing; they ſay to him, We are alſo coming with thee: they went out, and got into a Ship preſently, and in that Night caught Nothing.

4. But when it was now Morning Jeſus ſtood on the Shoar; nevertheleſs the Diſciples did not know that it was he.

5. Jeſus therefore ſays to them, Children, have you any Meat? They anſwered him, No.

6. Upon which he replied to them, Caſt the Net on the right Part of the Ship, and you will find. They therefore caſt, and were no longer able to draw it for the Multitude of the Fiſhes.

7. Therefore that Diſciple whom Jeſus loved ſays to Peter, It is the Lord. Simon Peter therefore hearing that it was the Lord, girded on a Coat (for he was naked) and threw himſelf into the Sea.

8. And the other Diſciples came in a little Ship (for they were not far from Land, but about two hundred Cubits off) haling the Net of Fiſhes.

9. When they therefore arrived at Land, they ſaw a Coal-fire laid, with little Fiſh laid upon it, and Bread.

10. Jeſus ſays to them, Bring ſome of the little Fiſhes which you have now caught.

Ver. 19. it was] belonging to Evening, not to firſt.

Ib. his] belonging to Hands as well as Side.
Ver. 23. hold faſt] which is not only the ſtricteſt Signification of the Gr. Word, but the moſt proper of about 60 to the Latin of it tenco, in Ainſworth's Dictionary.
Ver. 25. the Mark] τύπον being Mark, and τόπον Place, ſome Books have the latter.
Ib. put on] both times alike, and not thruſt into; put on being to feel, and εἰς ſignifying on Ch. viii. 6. Luke xx. 25.
Ver. 29. Thomas] left out of many Copies, yet I don't find Mills adopt the Omiſſion.
Ver. 1. The Suppoſition of Grotius, that this Chapter was ſupplied by the Church of Epheſus, where John wrote the Book, is ſufficiently anſwered by Mills in Prol. N°. 249. Edit. Kuſt. However becauſe of the two laſt Verſes of the foregoing Chapter it may be allowed as a Poſtſcript by John.
Ver. 3. preſently] Mills exhibits as explanatory, Prol. 432. but I having already anſwered him in ſo many Things, wherein is ſo much Agreement, enough may be found there for this and divers others.
Ver. 9. laid] This firſt was left out both of the Geneva and Biſhops Bibles, and what made our latter Tranſlators turn it ſo widely as there, which the Gr. keimenen does not mean in the leaſt, concerns me to mention no further.
Ib. little Fiſh] as the Gr. Word ſignifies, and is accordingly tranſlated Ch. vi. 9.
Ver. 10. little Fiſhes] a few among the reſt, that might ſoon be dreſſed for Dinner.

11. Simon Peter went up, and drew the Net to Land, full of great Fiſh a hundred fifty three; yet there being ſo many, the Net was not torn.

12. Jeſus ſays to them, Come, dine. However none of the Diſciples durſt enquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13. So Jeſus comes, and takes the Bread, and gives to them, with the little Fiſh in like Manner.

14. This third time now Jeſus was made manifeſt to his Diſciples, when he had been raiſed up from the Dead.

15. When they had therefore dined, Jeſus aſks Simon Peter, Simon of Jonas, doſt thou love me more than theſe do? He ſays to him, Yes, Lord, thou knoweſt that I love thee affectionately. He replies to him, Feed my Lambs.

16. He aſks him again the ſecond time, Simon of Jonas, doſt thou love me? He ſays to him, Yes, Lord, thou knoweſt that I love thee affectionately. He replies to him, Keep my Sheep.

17. He aſks him the third time, Simon of Jonas, doſt thou love me affectionately? Peter was grieved that he aſked him this Queſtion thrice; whereupon he ſaid to him, Lord, thou knoweſt all Things, thou art ſenſible that I love thee affectionately. Jeſus replies to him; Feed my Sheep.

18. I tell thee very certainly, When thou waſt young, thou didſt gird thy ſelf, and walk whither thou wouldeſt; but when thou art old, thou wilt ſtretch forth thy Hands, and another will gird, and carry thee whither thou wouldeſt not.

19. Now this he ſaid, ſignifying by what Death he ſhould glorify God. And having ſpoken this, he ſays to him, Follow me.

20. At which Peter turning about, ſees the Diſciple whom Jeſus loved following; who alſo lay down upon his Breaſt at Supper, and aſked, Lord, who is it that will deliver thee up?

21. Peter upon ſeeing him, enquires of Jeſus, Lord, and what of him?

22. Jeſus ſays to him, If I would have him remain till I come, what is it to thee? Do thou follow me.

23. This Saying therefore went out to the Brethren, that this Diſciple ſhould not die; whereas Jeſus did not ſay to him, that he ſhould not die; but, If I would have him remain till I come, what is it to thee?

24. This is the Diſciple who teſtifies concerning theſe Things, and wrote them; and we know that his Teſtimony is true.

25. And there are alſo many other Things all which Jeſus did, which if they ſhould be writ particularly, I think the World it ſelf would not receive the Books that would be written: ſo let it be.

Ver. 12. of the Diſciples] Mills without any Authority conjectures this has been put in, with ſumme probabile eſt, it is very likely.

Ver. 15. do] for otherwiſe might be underſtood, more than thou doſt theſe. Whitby indeed interprets theſe to be the Nets and Fiſher-boats; which makes the Compariſon much lower and wider, than if it was ſpoken of Peter's loving the other Diſciples, nay ſo wide one may think as not to admit of a Queſtion. But he ſays, Peter could not anſwer to this Queſtion (as I underſtand it) unleſs he knew their Hearts; yet he might and does anſwer to it, though he could not anſwer it, and accordingly does not the latter; which however he might think, as what was intended by the aſking, ſince he muſt ſpeak that which he thought in any Reſpect.

Ib. love—affectionately] denoting more ardent loving than the other Gr. Word.

Ver. 16. Keep] not the ſame Gr. Word as in the Verſe before and after.

Ver. 17. art ſenſible] as we ſay, and the original Verb properly ſignifies; ſee Leigh's Crit. Sacr.

Ver. 22. remain till I come] And as John lived to be very old, it is to be ſuppoſed he did, viz. when the Temple was deſtroyed, and the Moſaical Diſpenſation actually as before virtually aboliſhed, according to that on Mat. xvi. 28. and Jeſus might ſpeak in this Manner to leave it doubtful, and prevent ſome ill Conſequence or other of making it certain.

Ver. 25. other] It is manifeſt that John's Intent was to relate things omitted by the reſt, he therefore concludes thus very aptly.

Ib. receive] as rendered Mat. xix. 11, 12. Mark ii. 2. 2 Cor. vii. 2. contain is hyperbolical, and more ſo with could; ſee Whit. Annot.

NOTES upon the ACTS of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

THE firſt Book indeed I made concerning all Things, Theophilus, which Jeſus began both to do and teach;

2. Till the Day that he was taken up, having given command by the Holy Spirit, to the Apoſtles whom he had choſen.

3. To whom alſo he ſhewed himſelf alive after he had ſuffered, by many certain Signs, being ſeen by them for forty Days, and ſpeaking the Things concerning the Kingdom of God.

4. And being aſſembled with them, he told them not to depart from Jeruſalem, but to wait for the Father's Promiſe, which you have heard from me:

5. For John indeed baptized with Water, but you ſhall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many Days after this.

6. When they were therefore indeed come together, they aſked him as follows, Lord, wilt thou reſtore the Kingdom to Iſrael at this Time?

7. And he ſaid to them; It is not for you to know the Times or Opportunities, which the Father has put into his own Power.

8. But you ſhall receive Ability from the Holy Spirit that ſhall come upon you, and ſhall be Witneſſes for me, in Jeruſalem, and all Judea, with Samaria, nay to the End of the Earth.

9. Having ſaid theſe Things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a Cloud received him away from their Sight.

10. And as they were looking ſtedfaſtly towards Heaven, while he went, behold there ſtood by them two Men in white Apparel;

11. Who alſo ſaid, Men of Galilee, why do ye ſtand looking towards Heaven? The ſame Jeſus that is taken up from you into Heaven, will come in the ſame Manner ye ſaw him go thither.

12. Then they returned to Jeruſalem, from the Mount called Olivet; which is near Jeruſalem, being thence the Journey of a Sabbath.

13. And when they were come in, they went up into a Chamber, where there remained Peter, and James, and John, and

14. Theſe all continued unanimouſly in Prayer and Supplication, with the Women, and Mary the Mother of Jeſus, and with his Brothers.

15. And in thoſe Days Peter ſtanding up in the midſt of the Diſciples (the Aſſembly by Name in the ſame Place being about a hundred and twenty) ſaid:

16. Men, Brethren, it is expedient this Scripture ſhould be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit ſpoke before by the Mouth of David concerning Judas, who was the Guide to them that took Jeſus.

17. For he was numbered with us, and obtained a Lot of this Miniſtry.

18. He therefore indeed procured a Field with the Reward of Unrighteouſneſs; and falling down headlong, burſt in the middle, and all his Bowels were ſhed out.

19. And it was known to all who dwelt at Jeruſalem; foraſmuch as that Field is called in their own Language Akeldama, that is The Field of Blood.

20. For it is written in the Book of Pſalms, Let his Habitation be deſolate, and none dwell in it, and let another take his Office of Overſeer.

21. It is expedient therefore one of thoſe Men who came together with us, all the Time that the Lord Jeſus went in and out among us,

22. Beginning from the Baptiſm of John, to the Day that he was taken up from us, ſhould be a Witneſs of his Reſurrection with us.

23. So they put up two, Joſeph called Barſabas, who was ſurnamed Juſtus, and Matthias.

24. And praying, ſaid; Thou Lord, who knoweſt the Hearts of all, ſhew which of theſe two thou haſt choſen,

25. To receive a Lot of this Miniſtry and Apoſtleſhip, from which Judas tranſgreſſed, that he might go to his own Place.

26. And they gave their Lots, when the Lot falling for Matthias, he was numbered along with the eleven Apoſtles.

3. Then there appeared to them Tongues ſeparated as it were of Fire, and it ſate upon each one of them.

4. And they were all full of the Holy Spirit, beginning to ſpeak in other Tongues, as the Spirit gave them to utter forth.

5. Now there were Jews dwelt in Jeruſalem, who were religious Men, from every Nation under Heaven.

6. And as there was this Report, a Multitude came together, and were confounded, becauſe each one heard them ſpeak in his own Language.

7. So they were all amazed, and wondered, ſaying one to another; Behold are not all theſe who ſpeak Galileans?

8. How then do we each hear them in our own Language, among which we were born?

21. And every one who calls on the Name of the Lord ſhall be ſaved.

22. Men of Iſrael, hear theſe Words: Jeſus the Nazorite, a Man ſhewn to be from God to you, by the powerful Things, with the Wonders and Signs, which God did through him amongſt you, as ye your ſelves alſo know;

23. Him, being given forth by the determined Counſel, and the Foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by unrighteous Hands crucifying, did kill:

24. Whom God has raiſed up, having undone the Pangs of Death; becauſe it was impoſſible he ſhould be held by it.

25. For David ſays of him; I have foreſeen the Lord before me continually; becauſe he is at my right Hand, that I may not be moved.

26. For this reaſon my Heart has been glad, and my Tongue rejoiced; and moreover my Fleſh ſhall dwell in Hope.

27. Becauſe thou wilt not leave my Perſon in the Grave; nor let thy Holy One ſee Corruption.

28. Thou haſt made known to me the Ways of Life; wilt make me full of Joy with thy Preſence.

29. Men, Brethren, let me ſay to you boldly

Ver. 11. Cretians] as Tit. i. 12.

Ver. 14. Jews] It is not of Judea.

Ver. 17. laſt Days] Hammond, under a great Concern leſt his Paraphraſe and Annotations ſhould be wholly impertinent and vain, if it ſhould be believed that the Scripture is to be interpreted by the Spirit of God (the extraordinary Help of which he allows to the Primitive Chriſtians, and does not ſuppoſe it inconſiſtent with other Means then) falls firſt to expounding this noble Paſſage into a different Senſe, viz. that theſe laſt days were not ours, but the Time immediately preceding the Deſtruction of the Jewiſh City and Temple, Poſtſc. concerning New Light. But the Jews were not all Fleſh, nor all Sorts of Mankind; and his Arguments for its being that Time, don't thereby prove it was not future alſo; and other Places clearly ſhew the Continuance of the Spirit of God with his Church and Servants, as John xiv. 16, 17. Mat. xxviii. 20. However our great Author was ſo intent upon his Hypotheſis, that he does not only apply Ver. 20. to that Time, but even 1 Theſ. v. 2. 2 Theſ. i. 7, 8, 9. 2 Pet. iii. 10, 12. Rev. i. 7. though it was paſt when the laſt was written, and it may be doubted on this very Account.

Ver. 20. illuſtrious] So Eraſmus, Montan. Beza, the New Verſioniſt, and Weſley tranſlate; nor does it ſignify notable.

Ver. 22. ſhewn to be from God to you] aptly literal in the proper Meanings of the Words, with to be (as often in the Scripture) included or underſtood; nor do I find that the Verb ſignifies approved, but properly ſhewn, according as it is tranſlated 2 Theſ. ii. 4. ſo Eraſmus renders exhibitum, Caſt. repræſentatum, and Weſl. pointed out.

Ib. powerful Things] rendered in the ſing. power, Ch. i. 8. & iii. 12. & iv. 7, 33, &c.

Ver. 24. having undone] or when he had undone; being prior to raiſing up, whether the Pangs ſignify thoſe before he was dead, or the longing Deſire of his Soul to return, and comfort his Diſciples, &c. and both may be comprehended.

Ib. Death] the Vulg. and a few Hell, which Mills counted genuine; but as he attempts at no Reaſon for it, we may leave it to the Authority of Copies, of which he has but two, and thoſe both very ordinary or corrupt ones.

Ver. 27. Perſon] Doddr. ſays 'ψυχη can hardly be 'thought to ſignify a dead Body.' But why not? when נפש which it is correſpondent to does, as Buxt. expounds, and ſhews from Hag. ii. 13. Lev. xix. 28. & xxi. 1. Num. v. 2. & ix. 6.

Ib. Grave] as this Gr. Word is rendered 1 Cor. xv. 55. ſee Pſa. xvi. 10. from whence it is quoted, and Beza's Annot. here, with Whitby's. Weſley has it in the Text Hades, which he expounds The inviſible World; but beſides this being an arbitrary or forced Interpretation, how well does his Soul not being left there, agree with its returning thither again in forty Days, and being inviſible even while here?

concerning the Patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his Sepulchre is among us even to this Day.

30. Therefore being a Prophet, and knowing that God had ſworn to him with an Oath, that he would according to the Fleſh raiſe up Chriſt from the Fruit of his Body, to ſit upon his Throne;

31. By ſeeing beforehand, he ſpoke concerning the Reſurrection of Chriſt, that his Perſon was not to be left in the Grave, nor his Fleſh to ſee Corruption.

32. This Jeſus has God raiſed up; of which we all are Witneſſes.

33. As he was therefore exalted by the right Hand of God, and received the Promiſe of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he has poured out this which you now behold and hear.

34. For David did not aſcend into Heaven; but he ſays; The Lord ſaid to my Lord, Sit at my right Hand,

35. Till I make thy Enemies thy Footſtool.

36. Let all the Family of Iſrael therefore certainly know, that God has made this very Jeſus, whom you crucified, both the Lord and Chriſt.

37. At hearing this, they were pricked to the Heart; ſo that they ſaid to Peter, and the reſt of the Apoſtles, What ſhall we do, Men, Brethren?

38. Whereupon Peter ſaid to them; Repent, and be baptized each of you in the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, for the Forgiveneſs of Sins; and ye will receive the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

39. For the Promiſe is to you, and your Children, nay to all that are far off, whomſoever the Lord our God ſhall call hither.

40. And with many other Words did he teſtify, and exhort, ſaying, Be ſaved from this froward Generation.

41. They therefore indeed received his Word gladly, and were baptized; ſo about three thouſand Perſons were added that Day.

42. Who continued in the Doctrine of the Apoſtles, and in Fellowſhip, as alſo in breaking of Bread, and Prayers.

43. There was Fear too on every Perſon, many Wonders and Miracles being done by the Apoſtles.

44. Now all that believed were in the ſame Place, and had all Things common.

45. For they ſold their Poſſeſſions and Goods, and parted them to all, according as any one had Need.

46. They alſo daily continuing unanimouſly at the Temple, did break Bread from Houſe to Houſe, and receive the Food in Joy, and Simplicity of Heart;

47. Praiſing God, and having Favour with all the People. And the Lord added daily thoſe that would be ſaved to the Church.

CHAP. III.

AT the ſame Time alſo Peter and John went up to the Temple, at the Hour of Prayer, which was the ninth.

3. Who when he ſaw Peter and John about to go in thither, begged Alms.

4. And Peter looking ſtedfaſtly at him, with John, ſaid, Look at us.

5. So he gave heed to them, waiting to receive Something from them.

6. But Peter ſaid, I have no Silver and Gold: yet this that I have got I give thee; by the Name of Jeſus the Nazorite riſe up, and walk.

7. Then he took hold of him by the right Hand, and raiſed him up; when immediately his Feet and Ancle-bones became firm.

8. So that he leaped up, as alſo ſtood, and walked; nay went in with them to the Temple, walking, leaping, and praiſing God.

9. And when all the People ſaw him walking, and praiſing God;

10. They knew that he was the ſame, who ſate at the beautiful Gate of the Temple for Alms; upon which they were full of Aſtoniſhment and Amazement, at what was come to paſs on him.

11. For the lame Man who was healed, holding Peter and John; all the People ran together to them, at the Porch called Solomon's, being much aſtoniſhed.

12. Which Peter ſeeing, he anſwered the People: Men of Iſrael, why do ye wonder at this? Or why look you ſtedfaſtly at us, as if by our own Power or Piety, we had made him walk?

13. The God of Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob, the God of our Fathers, has glorified his Son Jeſus; whom you delivered up, and denied him in the Preſence of Pilate, when the ſame had decreed he ſhould be let go.

14. Whereas you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and aſked for a Murderer to be given you.

15. But you killed the Prince of Life, whom God has raiſed up; of which we are Witneſſes.

16. And in the Faith of his Name, this Man whom you ſee and know, his Name has made firm; even the Faith which is by himſelf, has given him this Soundneſs before you all.

17. And now, Brethren, I know that you did it through Ignorance, as alſo your Rulers.

18. However the Things which God foretold by the Mouth of all his Prophets, that Chriſt ſhould ſuffer, he has ſo fulfilled.

19. Repent therefore, and be converted, for your Sins to be blotted out; as the Times of Refreſhment ſhall come from the Preſence of the Lord,

20. And he ſhall ſend Jeſus Chriſt, preached to you before.

21. Whom it is expedient indeed Heaven ſhould receive, till the Times of the Reſtitution of all Things, which God has ſpoken of by the Mouth of all his holy Prophets ſince the World has been.

22. For Moſes indeed ſaid to the Fathers; The Lord your God will raiſe you up a Prophet, from your Brethren, like me; to him you ſhall hearken, according to all Things whatever he ſhall ſpeak to you.

23. Nay every Perſon who will not hearken to that Prophet, ſhall be deſtroyed from the People.

24. And all the Prophets too from Samuel forward, whoever ſpoke of, foretold likewiſe theſe Days.

25. You are the Children of the Prophets, and of the Covenant which God made with our Fathers, ſaying to Abraham, And through thy Offspring ſhall all the Families of the Earth be bleſſed.

26. God having raiſed up his Son Jeſus to you firſt, ſent him to bleſs you, in turning away each from your Iniquities.

Ver. 8. to the Temple] into which the common People did not enter, but into the Courts.

Ver. 11. For] as the foregoing ſhews.

Ver. 12. Piety] Two or three have it Authority, or Power by another Word, which Mills would have be firſt a Marginal Expoſition of the foregoing, and ſo would thruſt this out; when ἐξουσία, Authority might be rather a Corruption of our ἐυσεβεία, as Power and Authority couple well together, but rendered by the Vulgate, poteſtate, power, ſince he had the former Word virtute, Ability.

Ver. 13. denied] Weſt. renounced.

Ver. 21. ſince the World has been] Mills ſays is of Luke Ch. i. 70. but its being differently poſited in the Greek is ſufficient to take off that.

Ver. 22. For—to the Fathers] This, which ſtands together in the Gr. Mills ſuppoſed was brought hither from Ver. 25. though only the Vulg. and one Copy are without it all, but the Syr. wants the latter, Pr. 1348. What Anſwer can ſuch want, or deſerve?

Ver. 24. the Prophets] imagined not to be in the Vulg. formerly, and ſo rejected by Mills; what Surmiſe is this!

Ver. 26. Jeſus] not with ſeveral, but we are not therefore to conclude with Mills factitious, or borrowed from Ver. 13. Prol. 438. How often he would expunge this dear and precious Word [Jeſus,] which the inſpired Writers were ſo pleaſed to uſe!

Ib. in turning away] Doddridge tranſlates, every one of you turning from; which is beſide the Gr. and what Need is there for any ſuch Shift, ſince it is not ſaid he did ſo, but God ſent him to do it? Which ſome refuſed to have done, and of you is not in the Greek.

CHAP. IV.

BUT as they were ſpeaking to the People, the Prieſts, the Captain of the Temple, and the Sadducees came upon them;

2. Being concerned for their teaching the People, and declaring in Jeſus the Reſurrection of the Dead.

3. So they laid Hands on them, and put them into Cuſtody till the next Day: for it was now Evening.

4. Nevertheleſs many of thoſe who heard the Word believed, the Number of which Men was become about five thouſand.

5. And on the next Day gathered together their Rulers, Elders and Scribes, to Jeruſalem;

6. With Annas the high Prieſt, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and whoever were of the Kindred of the high Prieſt.

7. When ſetting them in the midſt, they aſked, By what Power, or by what Name, have you done this?

8. Then Peter being full of the Holy Spirit, ſaid to them: Rulers of the People, and Elders of Iſrael,

9. If we are examined to Day about the Benefit to the infirm Man, by what he is made well;

10. Let it be known to you all, and to all the People of Iſrael, that by the Name of Jeſus Chriſt the Nazorite, whom you crucified, whom God has raiſed up from the Dead, by this he ſtands here before you ſound.

11. This is the Stone rejected by you Builders, that is become the Head of the Corner.

12. And there is not Salvation in any other: for no other Name under Heaven is given among Men, by which we muſt be ſaved.

13. Now upon ſeeing the Boldneſs of Peter and John, and perceiving that they were unlearned and unſkilful Men, thoſe wondered, and knew that they had been with Jeſus.

14. When they beheld the Man likewiſe who was cured ſtanding with them, they had Nothing to ſay againſt it.

15. However they commanded them to go out of the Council, and talked one to another as follows;

16. What ſhall we do to theſe Men? For that indeed a known Miracle has been done by them, is manifeſt to all who dwell at Jeruſalem, which we cannot deny.

17. But that it may ſpread no more among the People, let us threaten them ſharply, that they ſhould not henceforth ſpeak to any Man in this Name.

18. Accordingly they called them, and ordered them not to ſpeak nor teach at all, in the Name of Jeſus.

19. But Peter and John made anſwer to them; Judge you, whether it is righteous before God, to hearken to you rather than to God.

20. For we cannot but ſpeak, what Things we have ſeen and heard.

21. At laſt when they had added Threatenings, they let them go, not at all finding how they might puniſh them, by reaſon of the People; becauſe theſe all glorified God for what was done.

22. For the Man was above forty Years old, on whom this Miracle of Healing was done.

23. Thus being let go, they went to their own Company, and told whatever the chief Prieſts and Elders had ſaid to them.

24. And thoſe hearing, raiſed up the Voice unanimouſly to God, and ſaid: Lord, thou art God that madeſt Heaven and Earth, with the Sea, and all Things which are in them.

25. Who by the Mouth of thy Servant David didſt ſay; Why did the Gentiles make a noiſe, and the People ſtudy vain Things?

26. The Kings of the Earth ſtood up, and the Princes were gathered together in the ſame Place, againſt the Lord and his Chriſt.

27. For truly there were gathered together at thy Holy Son Jeſus, whom thou didſt

Ver. 13. unlearned and unſkilful] Weſt. illiterate and uneducated.

Ver. 27. truly] Next follows with ſeveral, in this City; but rejected by Mills, Pr. 894. as well as by Grabe and Whit. yet Wall in his Critical Notes ſince ſays, So all ancient MSS. and ſo all the ancient Chriſtians; when there are but 14 or 15 MSS. out of near fifty that have it, and by Mills ſeven of thoſe Writers.

29. So now, O Lord, look on their Threatenings; and grant to thy Servants that they may ſpeak thy Word with all Boldneſs,

30. By ſtretching forth thy Hand for Healing; and that Miracles and Wonders may be done, through the Name of thy Holy Son Jeſus.

31. And no ſooner had they prayed, but the Place in which they were gathered together was ſhaken; nay they were all full of the Holy Spirit, and ſpoke the Word of God with Boldneſs.

32. The Multitude alſo of thoſe who believed, were of one Heart and Soul; nor did one ſay that any of the Things he had were his own, but all Things were common to them.

33. With great Power too did the Apoſtles render Witneſs of the Reſurrection of the Lord Jeſus; and there was great Grace on them all.

34. Neither was there any among them that wanted: for whoever were Poſſeſſors of Lands or Houſes, ſelling, brought the Prices of the Things ſold,

35. And put at the Feet of the Apoſtles; then there was diſtributed to each according as any one had Need.

36. Thus Joſes, ſurnamed Barnabas by the Apoſtles (which is, being interpreted, the Son of Comfort) a Levite, by Race from Cyprus,

37. Selling the Field he had, brought the Money, and put at the Apoſtles Feet.

CHAP. V.

BUT a certain Man named Ananias, with his Wife Sapphira, ſold a Poſſeſſion;

2. And took away ſome of the Price, his Wife alſo knowing it, ſo brought a certain Part, and put at the Apoſtles Feet.

3. But Peter ſaid; Ananias, why has Satan filled thy Heart to belye thy ſelf to the Holy Spirit, and to take away ſome of the Price of the Land?

4. While it remained, did not it remain thine; and being ſold, was in thy Power? Why didſt thou propoſe this Matter in thy Heart? Thou haſt not lyed to Men, but to God.

5. And when Ananias heard theſe Words, he fell down, and expired; ſo that there was great Fear on all who heard theſe Things.

6. The young Men alſo aroſe, and wound him up, ſo carrying out, buried him.

7. Moreover it was about the Space of three Hours, when his Wife, not knowing what was done, went in.

8. Upon this Peter demanded of her, Tell me whether you ſold the Land for ſo much? Who ſaid, Yes, for ſo much.

9. Then replied Peter to her, Why did you agree to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold the Feet of thoſe who buried thy Huſband at the Door, and ſhall carry thee out.

10. With that ſhe fell down immediately at his Feet, and expired; whom when the young Men went in, they found dead, and carrying out, buried by her Huſband.

11. So there was great Fear on the whole Church, and on all who heard theſe Things.

the People; and they were all unanimouſly in Solomon's Porch.

13. But none dared to join with thoſe of the reſt; whereas the People magnified theſe.

14. And Believers were added more to the Lord, Multitudes both of Men and Women:

15. Inſomuch that they carried out the Sick into the Streets, and laid on Beds and Couches, that even the Shadow of Peter when he came by might overſhadow ſome of them.

16. And there came together alſo a Multitude to Jeruſalem belonging to the Cities round about, that carried the Sick, with ſuch as were troubled by unclean Spirits; who were all cured.

17. Whereupon the high Prieſt roſe up, as likewiſe all that were with him, being the Sect of the Sadducees, and were ſo full of Envy,

19. But the Angel of the Lord opened the Doors of the Priſon by Night, and brought them out, as alſo ſaid,

20. Go, and ſtand nay ſpeak at the Temple to the People, all the Words of this Life.

21. Which they hearing, went at Break of Day into the Temple, and taught: whereas the high Prieſt coming, and thoſe that were with him, they called together the Council, and all the Senate of the Iſraelites, then ſent to the Jail to have them brought.

22. But when the Officers came, they did not find them in the Priſon; whereupon they returned, and told as follows,

23. We found the Jail indeed ſhut in all Security, and the Keepers ſtanding without before the Doors; yet when we opened it, we found Nobody within.

24. Now as the high Prieſt, the Captain of the Temple, and the chief Prieſts heard theſe Words, they doubted concerning them, what this would come to.

25. In the mean time one came, and told them thus, Behold the Men whom you put into Priſon are ſtanding in the Temple, and teaching the People.

26. The Captain then went with the Officers, and brought them without Violence: for they were afraid of the People, leſt they ſhould be ſtoned.

27. And having brought, they ſet them in the Council, when the high Prieſt aſked them as follows,

28. Did not we ſtrictly order you not to teach in this Name? Whereas behold you have filled Jeruſalem with your Doctrine, and would bring the Blood of this Man upon us.

29. To which Peter, with the Apoſtles, made anſwer; It is fit to obey God rather than Men.

30. The God of our Fathers raiſed up Jeſus, whom you ſlew, hanging on a Tree.

31. Him has God exalted by his right Hand, for a Prince and Saviour, to give Repentance to Iſrael, and Forgiveneſs of Sins.

32. And we are his Witneſſes of theſe Things, and the Holy Spirit alſo, that God has given to ſuch as obey him.

33. Which they hearing, were ſo cut, that they conſulted to kill them.

34. But there ſtood up in the Council a certain Phariſee named Gamaliel, a Teacher of the Law, reputable with all the People, and when he had commanded the Apoſtles to be put forth a little while,

35. He ſaid to them: Men of Iſrael, take heed to your ſelves what ye are about to do concerning theſe Men.

36. For before this Time Theudas roſe up, telling that himſelf was Somebody, to whom a Number of Men, about four hundred adhered; who was killed, and all whoever conſented to him were diſſolved, and came to nought.

37. After him roſe up Judas of Galilee, in the Time of Enrolling, and took away many People after him; and he periſhed, as likewiſe all whoever conſented to him were diſperſed.

38. And now I ſay to you; Refrain from theſe Men, and let them alone: for if this Counſel or Work is of Men, it will be deſtroyed;

Ver. 15. into the Streets] Mills ſays is of ſome Annotator, not of the Evangeliſt; tho' only lacking in the Ethiop. Tranſ. and ſome having into differently.

Ver. 17. Sadducees] Wall has here a pious and profitable Note, that the ruling Men being theſe, who did not believe a future Life, brought Wickedneſs to ſuch a Height as Joſephus deſcribes it to be, before the Deſtruction of the Jews; whom he matches with the Deiſts, &c.

Ver. 34. Apoſtles] The Vulg. and two or three Codes having for it Men, Mills counted that genuine, and ſays ours is an Interpretation; but it is not Gamaliel ſpeaks here, as Ver. 35.

Ver. 36. Theudas] Joſephus tells of ſuch a Theudas, as alſo Judas, but of Theudas being not only after the other, but after Gamaliel ſaid this; which is accounted for, either by this being ſome Theudas before that in Joſephus, or by that Writer's miſtaking the Time, he being an incorrect Hiſtorian, but both Ham. and Whit. are for the former; I may add, that the latter Theudas, ſuppoſing there were two, might be nicknamed ſo from the other, which I think is likelier than to be his Son, thus he mentioned here might be the real one.

Ib. conſented] the Verb that is rendered agreed, Ver. 40. in the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 37. many] left out of the Vulg. and one Copy, and if we will grant Mills his Expoſition, that by People here was meant the Jews, he will faſten the Conſequence upon us, that this Word was not at firſt in the Text; but ſince we need not allow the former, neither the latter. He adds, It ſeems wholly drawn hither from Ch. xix. 26. Prol. 438. notwithſtanding the Subſtantive is there another Word Company, and the Matter quite different.

Ver. 38. deſtroyed] the ſame Verb as in the next Verſe, and Ch. vi. 14.

39. But if it is of God, you may not deſtroy it: leſt at any time you ſhould be found Fighters againſt God.

40. So they conſented to him; and calling thither the Apoſtles, beat them, and ordered they ſhould not ſpeak in the Name of Jeſus, then let them go.

41. They therefore indeed went rejoicing from the Preſence of the Council, that they were counted worthy to be diſgraced for his Name.

42. And every Day at the Temple, as alſo from Houſe to Houſe, they did not ceaſe to teach and preach Jeſus Chriſt.

CHAP. VI.

AND in that Time, when the Diſciples were multiplied, there was a Murmuring of the Helleniſts at the Hebrews, becauſe their Widows were ſlighted in the daily Miniſtring.

2. Upon which the Twelve called the Multitude of the Diſciples thither, and ſaid; It is not pleaſing that we ſhould leave the Word of God, to miniſter to Tables.

3. Therefore, Brethren, look out ſeven Men among you well teſtified of, full of the Holy Spirit and Wiſdom, whom we may appoint over this Buſineſs.

4. But we will continue in Prayer, and the Miniſtry of the Word.

5. And the Speech was pleaſing before all the Multitude: accordingly they choſe Stephen, a Man full of Faith and the Holy Spirit, with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus a Proſelyte of Antioch.

6. Whom they ſet before the Apoſtles, and theſe prayed, and put Hands on them.

7. The Word of God too increaſed, and the Number of the Diſciples was multiplied exceedingly at Jeruſalem, nay a great Company of the Prieſts was obedient to the Faith.

8. Beſides Stephen being full of Faith and Power, did great Wonders and Miracles among the People.

9. Nevertheleſs there roſe up ſome of the Synagogue called that of the Libertines, Cyrenians and Alexandrians, with thoſe of Cilicia and Aſia, diſputing with Stephen.

10. Whereas they were not able to reſiſt the Wiſdom, and the Spirit with which he ſpoke.

11. They then got Men privily who ſaid, We heard him ſpeak blaſphemous Words, in relation to Moſes and God.

12. Thus they ſtirred up the People, Elders and Scribes, and coming thither, caught him, and brought into the Council.

13. Moreover ſet up falſe Witneſſes who ſaid; This Man does not ceaſe ſpeaking blaſphemous Words, againſt this holy Place and the Law.

14. For we heard him ſay, that this Jeſus the Nazorite would deſtroy this Place, and change the Ceremonies which Moſes delivered to us.

15. Now all who ſate in the Council looking ſtedfaſtly at him, ſaw his Face as if it was that of an Angel.

CHAP. VII.

HOWEVER the high Prieſt aſked, Are theſe Things indeed ſo?

2. Whereupon he ſaid: Men, Brethren and Fathers, hear; the God of Glory appeared to our Forefather Abraham being in Meſopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran.

3. And ſaid to him, Go out of thy Country, and from thy Kindred, and come to the Country which I will ſhew thee.

They are counted to be Jews diſperſed in other or rather the Grecian Countries; which however Beza denies, to whom I incline, and ſuppoſe them to be Grecians that were converted to the Jews; Grecians are properly the People of Grecia or Greece, as Joel iii. 6. rather than Greeks, however theſe are too indiſtinct.

Ver. 2. Diſciples] unto them is neither in the com. Gr. nor Tranſlations.

Ver. 7. of the Prieſts] This ſeemed ſo incredible to Beza, that he ſuſpected the Word, and quotes the Arabick as leaving it out, which he thought was the genuine Scripture; ſince it is ſcarce probable (theſe are his Words tranſlated) that even ſome of the Prieſts, and they not a few, ſhould embrace the Doctrine of Salvation: but Mills accounts for it, by the Levites and other inferior Miniſters of the Temple being comprehended; tho' he found the Syriack and one MS. has of the Jews, another and two Editions, of the Saints; which however are to be looked upon as Shifts to avoid the other, and poor ones too.

Ver. 8. Faith] Several have it Grace, which Mills tells us is entirely right, and that ours crept from Ver. 5. but Whitby ſays the Words there confirm ours to him, yet I rather ſuppoſe Somebody put Grace, that like Power theſe might vary from thoſe in Ver. 5. and be no Tautology.

4. Then going out of the Country of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Charran; and from thence, after his Father died, God brought him away into this Country wherein you now dwell.

5. Yet he gave him no Inheritance in it, nor the Step of a Foot; but promiſed to give it to him for a Poſſeſſion, and to his Poſterity after him, when he had no Child.

6. God notwithſtanding ſpoke thus, that his Poſterity ſhould be Sojourners in a foreign Country, and thoſe of it would make them Servants, and treat ill four hundred Years.

7. But I will judge the Nation that they ſhall ſerve, ſaid God, and after theſe Things they ſhall come out, and worſhip me in this Place.

8. He gave him too the Covenant of Circumciſion, and ſo he begot Iſaac, and circumciſed him the eighth Day; as Iſaac did Jacob, and Jacob the twelve Patriarchs.

9. And the Patriarchs being envious, ſold Joſeph into Egypt; but God was with him:

10. Whom he delivered from all his Afflictions, as alſo gave him Favour and Wiſdom before Pharaoh King of Egypt; ſo that he made him the chief over Egypt, and his whole Houſe.

11. Now there came a Famine over the whole Country of Egypt and Canaan, with great Affliction, inſomuch that our Forefathers did not find Food.

12. But Jacob hearing there was Corn in Egypt, ſent forth our Forefathers firſt.

13. And at the ſecond time Joſeph was known by his Brothers, and Joſeph's Kindred were made manifeſt to Pharaoh.

14. Next Joſeph ſent for his Father Jacob, with all his Kindred, ſeventy five Perſons.

15. Accordingly Jacob went down into Egypt, where he himſelf died, and our Forefathers.

16. And theſe were carried over to Sychem, and they were put into a Sepulchre, he into that which Abraham bought for a Price of Silver, theſe into that which was from the Sons of Emmor of Sychem.

17. But when the Time of the Promiſe drew near, which God had ſworn to Abraham, the People increaſed, and multiplied in Egypt;

18. Till there roſe up another King, who had not known Joſeph.

19. He dealt craftily with our Kindred, and treated our Forefathers ill; to make their Infants be caſt out, that they might not be kept alive.

20. In which Time Moſes was born, and was divinely beautiful; who was nouriſhed in his Father's Houſe three Months.

22. Beſides Moſes was learned in all the Wiſdom of the Egyptians, and was powerful in Words and Works.

23. But when he was fully arrived at the Age of forty Years, it came into his Heart to viſit his Brethren the Iſraelites.

24. And ſeeing a certain one injured, he defended him, and executed Vengeance for him who was oppreſſed, ſmiting the Egyptian.

25. For he ſuppoſed his Brethren would underſtand, that God would give them Deliverance by his Hand; but they did not underſtand.

26. The next Day alſo he appeared to ſome as they were contending, and would have compelled them to Peace, ſaying, Men, you are Brethren; why do ye injury one to another?

27. Whereas he that did injury to the Neighbour thruſt him away, ſaying; Who made thee a Prince and a Judge over us?

28. Wouldeſt thou kill me, as thou didſt the Egyptian yeſterday?

29. At which Expreſſion Moſes fled, and was a Sojourner in the Country of Madian, where he begot two Sons.

30. And when the forty Years were compleated, there appeared to him in the Wilderneſs of Mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a Flame of Fire at a Buſh.

31. Which Moſes ſeeing, wondered at the Sight; and as he went near to obſerve, there was the Voice of the Lord to him,

32. I am the God of thy Forefathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob: upon this Moſes trembled, and did not dare to take notice.

36. He brought them out, doing Wonders and Miracles in the Country of Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the Wilderneſs, forty Years.

37. This is the Moſes that ſaid to the Iſraelites, The Lord your God will raiſe you up a Prophet, from your Brethren, like me; to him do ye hearken.

38. This is he that was in the Church in the Wilderneſs, with the Angel who ſpoke to him on Mount Sina, and with our Forefathers; he that received the living Oracles to give us.

39. To whom our Forefathers would not be obedient, but thruſt him away, and turned back in their Hearts to Egypt;

40. Saying to Aaron, Make us gods that may go before us; for as to this Moſes, who brought us out of the Country of Egypt, we know not what is become of him.

41. And they made a Calf at that Time, as alſo offered Sacrifice to the Idol, and rejoiced in the Works of their own Hands.

42. Upon which God turned back, and delivered them up to worſhip the Army of Heaven, as it is written in the Book of the Prophets; Did you bring ſlain Beaſts and Sacrifices to me, forty Years in the Wilderneſs, O Family of Iſrael?

43. But you took up the Tabernacle of Moloch, with Remphan the Star of your god, Figures which you made to worſhip them: ſo I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44. The Tabernacle of Teſtimony was among our Forefathers in the Wilderneſs, as he had ordered, ſpeaking to Moſes to make it according to the Figure that he had ſeen.

45. Which alſo our Forefathers received, and brought with Jeſus into the Poſſeſſion of the Gentiles, whom God drove out from the Preſence of our Forefathers, till the Time of David.

50. Has not my Hand made all theſe?

51. O Stiff-necked ones, and of uncircumciſed Heart and Ears, you always reſiſt the Holy Spirit; even you like your Forefathers.

52. Which of the Prophets did not your Forefathers perſecute? Nay they killed thoſe who foretold concerning the Coming of the Righteous One, of whom now you have been the Betrayers and Murderers:

53. You that received the Law at the Appointments of Angels, yet have not kept it.

54. And upon hearing theſe Things, they were cut to their Hearts, and gnaſhed the Teeth at him.

55. But he being full of the Holy Spirit, looked ſtedfaſtly to Heaven, and ſaw the Glory of God, with Jeſus ſtanding at God's right Hand.

CHAP. VIII.

AND Saul was conſenting to his Death: there was likewiſe at that Time a great Perſecution againſt the Church at Jeruſalem; and they were all diſperſed throughout the Countries of Judea and Samaria, beſides the Apoſtles.

2. Moreover the religious Men carried away Stephen, and made great Lamentation over him.

3. And Saul laid waſte the Church, as he went in from Houſe to Houſe, and haling Men and Women, committed them to Priſon.

4. They therefore indeed that were diſperſed, went about preaching the Word.

5. So Philip going down to the City of Samaria, preached Chriſt to them.

6. And a Multitude gave heed unanimouſly to the Things that were ſpoken by Philip, through hearing them, and beholding the Miracles which he did.

7. For out of many who had unclean Spirits they came, crying out aloud; as likewiſe many that had the Palſy, and who were lame, were cured:

8. Inſomuch that there was great Joy in that City.

9. But there was a certain Man named Simon, who had been before uſing Magick in the City, and amazed the Nation of Samaria, telling that himſelf was ſome great one.

10. To whom they all gave heed from the leaſt to the greateſt, ſaying, He is the great Power of God.

11. And they gave heed to him, becauſe he had a great while made them amazed with Magick.

12. But when they believed Philip, as he preached the Things concerning the Kingdom of God, and the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, they were baptized both Men and Women.

13. Nay Simon himſelf alſo believed, and was baptized, continuing with Philip; and when he ſaw the powerful Things and Miracles that were done, he was amazed.

14. And the Apoſtles who were at Jeruſalem, hearing that Samaria had received the Word of God, ſent to them Peter and John.

15. Who went down, and prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit.

16. For he was yet fallen upon none of them, they being only baptized in the Name of the Lord Jeſus.

17. Then theſe put Hands upon them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18. And when Simon perceived that the Holy Spirit was given by putting on of the Apoſtles Hands, he offered them Money;

19. Saying, Give me alſo this Power, that on whomſoever I put Hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.

20. But Peter ſaid to him; Let thy Silver be for Deſtruction with thee, becauſe thou haſt ſuppoſed that the Gift of God might be procured by Money.

21. Thou haſt neither Part nor Lot in this Matter, for thy Heart is not right before God.

22. Therefore repent of this Wickedneſs of thine, and pray to God, if indeed the Thought of thy Heart will be forgiven thee.

23. For I ſee thou art in the Gall of Bitterneſs, and Bond of Unrighteouſneſs.

24. To which Simon made anſwer, Pray you to the Lord for me, that none of the Things which you ſpeak may come upon me.

25. They therefore indeed having teſtified, and ſpoken the Word of the Lord, returned to Jeruſalem, preaching to many Villages of the Samaritans.

26. And an Angel of the Lord ſpoke thus to Philip, Riſe up, and go towards the South, to the Way going down from Jeruſalem to Gaza, which is Wilderneſs.

27. So he roſe up, and went; and behold an Ethiopian Man, a powerful Eunuch of Candace Queen of the Ethiopians, that was over all her Treaſure, who had come to worſhip at Jeruſalem;

28. Was returning, and ſitting in his Chariot, and read in the Prophet Eſaias.

29. And the Spirit ſaid to Philip, Go near, and join with this Chariot.

30. Accordingly Philip ran thither, and when he heard him reading in the Prophet Eſaias, he ſaid, Doſt thou know what thou readeſt?

Nobody guides me? So he beſought Philip, that he would come up to ſit with him.

32. Now the Paſſage of Scripture which he read was this; Like a Sheep was he brought to the Slaughter, and was dumb like a Lamb before him who ſhears it; ſo he did not open his Mouth.

33. His Judgment was taken away in his Humiliation; but who can tell his Generation, though his Life is taken from the Earth?

34. And the Eunuch made anſwer to Philip, I pray thee, of whom does the Prophet ſpeak this? of himſelf, or of ſome other?

35. Upon which Philip opened his Mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jeſus to him.

36. At length as they went on the Way, they came to ſome Water; and the Eunuch ſaid, Here is Water, what hinders me from being baptized?

37. If thou believeſt from the whole Heart, ſaid Philip, thou mayeſt. And he made anſwer, I believe that Jeſus Chriſt is the Son of God.

38. Whereupon he commanded the Chariot to ſtand ſtill; then both Philip and the Eunuch went down each into the Water, and he baptized him.

39. But when they were come up out of the Water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, ſo that the Eunuch ſaw him no more; for he went his Way rejoicing.

40. However Philip was found at Azotus; and going through, he preached at all the Cities, till he came to Ceſarea.

CHAP. IX.

AND Saul yet breathing out Threatenings and Slaughter at the Diſciples of the Lord, went to the high Prieſt;

2. Of whom he requeſted Letters for Damaſcus to the Synagogues, that if he found any who were of this Way, whether Men or Women, he might bring them bound to Jeruſalem.

3. And as he was going, when he came near Damaſcus, there ſuddenly ſhone about him a Light from Heaven.

4. Whereupon he fell on the Earth, and heard a Voice ſay to him, Saul, Saul, why doſt thou perſecute me?

5. And he aſked, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord ſaid, I am Jeſus, whom thou perſecuteſt; it is hard for thee to kick at the Stings.

6. Then he trembled, and aſtoniſhed as he was, ſaid, Lord, what wilt thou have me do? And the Lord ſaid to him, Ariſe, and go into the City, and it ſhall be told thee what thou ſhouldeſt do.

7. The Men alſo that travelled with him ſtood ſpeechleſs, hearing indeed a Voice, but ſeeing Nobody.

8. So Saul roſe up from the Ground, and when his Eyes were opened, he ſaw no Perſon; and him leading by the Hand, they brought to Damaſcus.

9. Thus was he three Days without ſeeing, and did neither eat nor drink.

10. Now there was a certain Diſciple at Damaſcus named Ananias, to whom the Lord ſaid in a Viſion, Ananias; who ſaid, Here am I, Lord.

11. And the Lord to him; Ariſe, go into the Street called Straight, and ſeek at the Houſe of Judas for one named Saul of Tarſus: for behold he is praying;

12. And has ſeen in a Viſion a Man named Ananias, coming in, and putting the Hand on him, that he might have ſight.

13. To which Ananias anſwered, Lord, I have heard from many concerning this Man, how many Evils he has done to thy Saints at Jeruſalem.

14. Here too he has Power from the chief Prieſts, to bind all who call on thy Name.

15. But the Lord ſaid to him; Go, becauſe he is a choſen Veſſel to me, to bear my Name before the Gentiles and Kings, as well as the Iſraelites.

17. Accordingly Ananias went, and entered into the Houſe, as alſo put Hands on him, and ſaid, Brother Saul, the Lord has ſent me, Jeſus who appeared to thee in the Way wherein thou cameſt, that thou mayeſt have ſight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

18. Upon which there preſently fell from his Eyes as it were Scales, and he had ſight immediately; ſo roſe up, and was baptized.

19. And when he had received Food, he was ſtrengthened. Afterwards Saul was with the Diſciples at Damaſcus ſome Days.

20. He then preſently preached Chriſt in the Synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21. So that all who heard were amazed, and ſaid, Is not this he that deſtroyed ſuch as called on this Name at Jeruſalem, and came hither for the ſame, that he might bring them bound to the chief Prieſts?

22. And Saul became more ſtrong, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damaſcus, proving that this is Chriſt.

23. But when many Days were compleated, the Jews conſulted together to kill him.

24. Whereas their laying in wait was not unknown to Saul; and they watched the Gates Day and Night, that they might kill him.

25. Whom the Diſciples took at Night, and let down by the Wall in a Baſket.

26. At length Saul came to Jeruſalem, and tried to join with the Diſciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a Diſciple.

27. However Barnabas taking hold of him, introduced him to the Apoſtles, and told them how he had ſeen the Lord in the Way, and that the ſame had ſpoken to him, and alſo how he had declared boldly at Damaſcus in the Name of Jeſus.

28. Hereupon he was with them, going in and out at Jeruſalem.

29. Nay he both declared boldly in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, and diſputed againſt the Helleniſts; but they attempted to kill him.

30. This when the Brethren knew, they had him away to Ceſarea, and ſent him forth to Tarſus.

31. The Churches therefore indeed, throughout all Judea, Galilee and Samaria, had Peace, and were built up; nay going on in the Fear of the Lord, and Comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.

32. And Peter going through them all, went down likewiſe to the Saints that dwelt at Lydda.

36. At Joppa too there was a certain Diſciple named Tabitha, which being interpreted is called Roe; ſhe was full of good Works and Alms, which ſhe did.

37. And at that Time being ſick, ſhe died; whom they waſhed, and put in a Chamber.

38. Now as Lydda was near Joppa, the Diſciples heard that Peter was in that Place, ſo they ſent two Men to him, beſeeching he would not delay to come over to them.

39. And Peter riſing up, went with them; whom when he was come, they brought into the Chamber: and all the Widows ſtood by him weeping, and ſhewing the Coats and Garments, how many Roe made when ſhe was with them.

40. But Peter putting them all forth, kneeled down, and prayed; then turned to the Body, and ſaid, Tabitha, ariſe: whereupon ſhe opened her Eyes, and ſeeing Peter, ſate up.

41. And he gave her the Hand, and raiſed

43. He afterwards remained many Days at Joppa, with one Simon a Tanner.

CHAP. X.

AND there was a certain Man at Ceſarea named Cornelius, a Centurion of the Regiment called the Italian;

2. Who was pious, and feared God with all his Family, as alſo beſtowed many Alms on the People, and prayed to God always.

3. He ſaw in a Viſion manifeſtly, about the ninth Hour of the Day, an Angel of God come in to him, and ſay to him, Cornelius.

4. On whom he looked ſtedfaſtly, and being frightened, ſaid, What is it, Lord? Who anſwered him; Thy Prayers and Alms are come up into Remembrance before God.

5. So now ſend Men to Joppa, and ſend for Simon, who is ſurnamed Peter.

6. He lodges with one Simon a Tanner, whoſe Houſe is by the Sea, he will tell thee what thou ſhouldeſt do.

7. Accordingly when the Angel who ſpoke to Cornelius was gone, he called two of his Servants, and a pious Soldier of thoſe that continued with him,

8. And after he had declared all to them, he ſent them to Joppa.

9. Now the next Day as they took the journey, and came near the City, Peter went up on the Houſe-top to pray, about the ſixth Hour.

10. And he was very hungry, ſo that he would have eat; but while they prepared, a Trance fell upon him.

11. When he ſaw Heaven opened, and a Veſſel coming down to him, like a great Sheet tied at the four Ends, and let down to the Earth;

12. In which were all Manner of four-footed Creatures of the Earth, wild Beaſts, creeping Things, and Fowls of the Air.

13. And there was a Voice to him, Riſe up, Peter, ſlay, and eat.

14. But Peter ſaid, By no means, Lord; ſince I have never eat any Thing common or unclean:

15. However the Voice was to him again the ſecond time, What God has cleanſed, do not thou reckon common.

16. This too was done thrice, and the Veſſel taken up again into Heaven.

17. And as Peter doubted in himſelf what the Viſion which he had ſeen was, behold the Men ſent from Cornelius, having made enquiry for Simon's Houſe, were come to the Gate.

18. Who calling, aſked if Simon ſurnamed Peter lodged there.

19. While Peter was thinking about the Viſion, the Spirit ſaid to him; Behold three Men ſeek for thee.

20. So riſe up, and go down, as alſo go with them, being in no doubt, becauſe I have ſent them.

21. Peter then went down to the Men ſent to him from Cornelius, and ſaid, Behold I am he whom you ſeek after; what is the Cauſe for which you are come hither?

22. And they anſwered, Cornelius the Centurion, a Man righteous, and fearing God, as likewiſe well teſtified of by the whole Nation of the Jews, has been divinely admoniſhed by a holy Angel, to ſend for thee to his Houſe, and to hear Words from thee.

23. He therefore called them in and lodged; ſo the next Day Peter went away with them, and ſome Brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24. The next Day alſo they got into Ceſarea; whom Cornelius was expecting, and had called together his Relations, and intimate Friends.

25. And as Peter was going in, Cornelius met him, and falling down at his Feet, reverenced.

But as there is Ceſarea inſtead of Cornelius, Ch, xi. 11. and not to him in Ver. 17. I muſt diſſent, as I expect moſt Readers will with me, this being alſo likely to be left out becauſe of that in Ver. 17.

Ver. 22. by the] the Gr. Particle being the ſame here as before a holy.

26. But

26. But Peter raiſed him up, ſaying, Ariſe; I my ſelf too am a Man.

27. Thus when he had talked with him, he went in, and found many come together.

28. To whom he ſaid; You know how it is unlawful for a Man that is a Jew, to join with, or go to one of another Nation; but God has ſhewn me, that I ſhould call no Man common or unclean.

29. Therefore without contradicting I came, on being ſent for: I aſk then for what Intent you have ſent for me?

30. And Cornelius anſwered: Four Days ago I was faſting till this Hour, and at the ninth Hour was praying in my Houſe, when behold there ſtood a Man before me in bright Apparel:

31. Who ſaid; Cornelius, thy Prayer is hearkened to, and thy Alms are remembred before God.

32. Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, that is ſurnamed Peter: he lodges in the Houſe of Simon the Tanner, by the Sea, who will come, and ſpeak to thee.

33. At the ſame Time therefore I ſent to thee, and thou haſt done well in coming: now therefore we are all come hither before God, to hear all Things given in command to thee by God.

34. Then Peter opened the Mouth, and ſaid: Truly I perceive that God is not a Reſpecter of Perſons.

35. But in every Nation he who fears him, and works Righteouſneſs, is accepted by him.

36. The Word which he ſent to the Iſraelites, preaching Peace by Jeſus Chriſt, who is Lord of all,

37. You know; the Matter done through all Judea, begun from Galilee, after the Baptiſm that John preached:

38. How God anointed Jeſus of Nazareth, with the Holy Spirit and Power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were overpowered by the Devil; becauſe God was with him.

39. And we are Witneſſes of all that he did, both in the Country of the Jews, and in Jeruſalem; whom they killed, hanging on a Tree.

40. Him God raiſed up the third Day, and cauſed him to be made manifeſt;

41. Not to all the People, but to Witneſſes appointed before by God, to us who did eat and drink with him, after he roſe up from the Dead.

42. When he ordered us to preach to the People, and to teſtify, that it is he who was determined by God, for the Judge of the Living and Dead.

43. For relating to him all the Prophets teſtify, that all who believe on him, will receive Forgiveneſs of Sins through his Name.

44. While Peter was ſpeaking theſe Words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all that heard the Word.

45. And the Believers who were of the Circumciſion, as many as came with Peter, were amazed, that the Gift of the Holy Spirit was alſo ſhed out on the Gentiles.

46. For they heard them ſpeak in Languages, and magnify God. Then Peter on this occaſion ſaid,

47. Can any forbid Water, that theſe ſhould not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

48. So he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord. Then they intreated him to ſtay ſome Days.

CHAP. XI.

NOW the Apoſtles and Brethren who were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had alſo received the Word of God.

2. And when Peter was come up to Jeruſalem, they who were of the Circumciſion debated with him,

3. Saying, Thou haſt gone in to Men that are uncircumciſed, and eat with them.

4. But Peter begun, and expounded it to them ſucceſſively on as follows:

5. I was at the City of Joppa praying; and ſaw a Viſion in a Trance, ſome Veſſel coming down, like a great Sheet let down by the four Ends from Heaven; and it came quite to me.

6. On which looking ſtedfaſtly, I obſerved, and ſaw four-footed Creatures of the Earth, wild Beaſts, creeping Things, and Fowls of the Air.

Ver. 28. join with] Our Tranſlators having it imperfect without with, ſome of the Printers put it in; the latter correcting the former in ſeveral Places.

Ver. 32. who will come, and ſpeak to thee] is all ſuppoſed by Mills to come from Ver. 22. being not in three Copies and as many Verſions; whereas the Expreſſion there is quite different.

7. And I heard a Voice ſay to me, Riſe up, Peter, ſlay, and eat.

8. But I ſaid, By no means, Lord; ſince any Thing common or unclean has never entered into my Mouth.

9. Whereas the Voice anſwered me the ſecond time from Heaven, What God has cleanſed, do not thou reckon common.

10. This too was done thrice, and all were pulled up again into Heaven.

11. And behold at the ſame Time three Men were come to the Houſe in which I was, who were ſent from Ceſarea to me.

12. When the Spirit ſaid I ſhould go with them, and be in no doubt. So there accompanied me alſo theſe ſix Brethren, and we entered into the Man's Houſe.

13. Then he told us how he had ſeen an Angel in his Houſe, who ſtood, and ſaid to him; ſend Men to Joppa, and ſend for Simon ſurnamed Peter:

14. Who will ſpeak Matters to thee, by which thou ſhalt be ſaved, and all thy Family.

15. And when I began to ſpeak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, the ſame as upon us at the Beginning.

16. Whereupon I remembred the Saying of the Lord, how he declared, John indeed baptized with Water, but you ſhall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.

17. If therefore God gave them the like Gift as to us, that believed on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who was I to be able to hinder God?

18. And upon hearing theſe Things, they were ſilent, and glorified God, ſaying, Then to the Gentiles alſo God has given Repentance for Life.

19. Thoſe moreover indeed that were diſperſed by the Trouble made concerning Stephen, went about to Phenice, Cyprus and Antioch; yet declared the Word to Nobody, excepting the Jews only.

20. However ſome of them were Men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who went into Antioch, and ſpoke to the Helleniſts, preaching the Lord Jeſus.

21. The Hand of the Lord alſo was with them; ſo that a great Number believed, and were converted to the Lord.

22. And when Word was heard in the Ears of the Church at Jeruſalem concerning theſe Things, they ſent forth Barnabas to go to Antioch.

23. Who came, and rejoiced at ſeeing the Grace of God; and exhorted them all to abide firm to the Lord with Purpoſe of Heart:

24. Since he was a good Man, and full of the Holy Spirit and Faith; ſo that a great Company was added to the Lord.

25. Afterwards Barnabas went away to Tarſus, to look for Saul.

26. And having found him, he brought him to Antioch: when they aſſembled together a whole Year among the Church, and taught a great Company; and the Diſciples were firſt named Chriſtians at Antioch.

27. At this Time likewiſe there went down Prophets from Jeruſalem to Antioch.

28. One of whom named Agabus roſe up, and ſignified by the Spirit, there would be after that a great Famine in the whole World; which alſo came to paſs under Claudius Ceſar.

29. So the Diſciples, according as any one was able, determined each of them to ſend, for the Service of the Brethren who dwelt in Judea.

30. Which accordingly they did, ſending to the Elders by the Hand of Barnabas and Saul.

MOREOVER at that Time King Herod laid on Hands, to treat ill ſome of the Church.

2. Nay he killed James, the Brother of John, with a Sword.

3. And ſeeing that it was pleaſing to the Jews, he proceeded alſo to take Peter; then being the Days of unleavened Bread.

4. Whom he likewiſe apprehended, and put into Priſon, nay delivered to four Parcels of Soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him forth to the People after the Paſſover.

One MS. having Grecians is of very ſmall Weight againſt it, and the few Verſions led by the Vulg. which Mills produces are of none at all, ſince they have the preſent Word rendered ſo elſewhere.

5. Peter therefore indeed was kept in Priſon; but there was earneſt Prayer made by the Church, to God for him.

6. And when Herod was about to bring him out, that Night Peter was ſleeping between two Soldiers, bound with two Chains; and the Keepers before the Door kept the Priſon.

7. Then behold an Angel of the Lord came there, and a Light ſhone in the Room; he alſo ſmote Peter on the Side, and raiſed him up, ſaying, Ariſe quickly; upon which his Chains fell from the Hands.

8. And the Angel ſaid to him, Gird thy ſelf, and tie on thy Sandals; and he did ſo: next he ſaid to him, Put on thy Garment, and follow me.

9. Accordingly he went out, and followed him, yet did not know that it was true which was done by the Angel; but thought he beheld a Viſion.

10. So going through the firſt and ſecond Priſon, they came to the iron Gate that brings into the City, which opened to them of it ſelf; and going out, they went along one Street, when preſently the Angel departed from him.

11. At length Peter came to himſelf, and ſaid, Now I know truly that the Lord has ſent forth his Angel, and delivered me from the Hand of Herod, and all the Expectation of the Jewiſh People.

12. This being ſenſible of, he came to the Houſe of Mary, the Mother of John ſurnamed Mark, where many were got together, and praying.

13. And Peter knocking at the Door of the Gate, a young Woman went near to liſten, named Rhoda.

14. Who knew Peter's Voice, and did not open the Gate for Joy; but ran in, and told that Peter ſtood before the Gate.

15. Whereas they ſaid to her, Thou art mad; but ſhe affirmed it was ſo; then ſaid they, It is his Angel.

16. In the mean time Peter remained knocking; and when they opened, they ſaw him, and were amazed.

17. But he beckoning to them with the Hand to hold their peace, told them how the Lord had brought him out of the Priſon, and ſaid, Declare theſe Things to James and the Brethren; then going out, he went to another Place.

18. Thus when it was Day, there was not a little Buſtle among the Soldiers, about what was become of Peter.

19. And as Herod ſought for him, without finding, upon examining the Keepers, he commanded they ſhould be taken away; afterwards he went down from Judea to Ceſarea, and abode there.

20. Herod alſo was exaſperated at the Tyrians and Sidonians; but they came thither to him unanimouſly, and perſuading Blaſtus the King's Chamberlain, they deſired Peace, becauſe their Country was nouriſhed by that of the King.

21. And on an appointed Day, Herod cloathed with royal Apparel, and ſitting on the Judgment-ſeat, made an Oration to them.

22. Upon which the People bawled out, The Voice of God, and not of Man.

23. And immediately the Angel of the Lord ſmote him, becauſe he did not give Glory to God; ſo that being eat by Worms, he expired.

24. But the Word of God increaſed and multiplied.

2. And they miniſtring to the Lord, and faſting, the Holy Spirit ſaid, Separate now for me Barnabas and Saul, to the Work that I have called them to.

3. Then after they had faſted, prayed, and put Hands on them, they let them go.

4. They therefore indeed being ſent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and from thence ſailed away to Cyprus.

5. And when they were at Salamis, they declared the Word of God in the Synagogues of the Jews; and they alſo had John for an Attendant.

6. Thus as they went through the Iſle to Paphos, they found a certain Magician, a falſe Prophet, that was a Jew, whoſe Name was Barjeſus.

7. Who was with the Deputy Sergius Paul, an underſtanding Man: the latter calling thither Barnabas and Saul, deſired to hear the Word of God.

8. But Elymas the Magician (for ſo his Name is interpreted) withſtood them, endeavouring to pervert the Deputy from the Faith.

9. Upon this Saul, who is alſo Paul, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked ſtedfaſtly at him,

10. And ſaid; O thou full of all Deceit and all Miſchief, Son of the Devil, Enemy of all Righteouſneſs, wilt thou not ceaſe perverting the right Ways of the Lord?

11. So now behold the Hand of the Lord is upon thee, inſomuch that thou ſhalt be blind, not beholding the Sun for a Time: when immediately there fell on him a Miſt and Darkneſs, and he going about, ſought for ſome who would lead him by the hand.

12. Then the Deputy ſeeing what was done, believed, and was ſurprized at the Doctrine of the Lord.

13. Afterwards thoſe about Paul went off from Paphos, and came to Perga of Pamphylia; but John departed from them, and returned to Jeruſalem.

14. Next they went along from Perga, and came to Antioch of Piſidia; where they entered into the Synagogue on the Sabbath-day, and ſate down.

15. And after the Reading of the Law and Prophets, the Rulers of the Synagogue ſent Word to them, Men, Brethren, if there is the Word of Exhortation in you to the People, ſpeak.

16. Whereupon Paul roſe up, and beckoning with the Hand, ſaid: Men of Iſrael, and you that fear God, hear.

17. The God of this People Iſrael choſe our Forefathers, and exalted the People at the Sojourning in the Country of Egypt, bringing them out of it by a high Arm.

18. About the Time of forty Years alſo, he bore their Manners in the Wilderneſs.

19. And when he had overthrown ſeven Nations in the Country of Chanaan, he gave their Country to them by lot.

20. As likewiſe after theſe Things, he gave Judges as it were four hundred and fifty Years, till Samuel the Prophet.

21. And afterwards they aſked a King, and God gave them Saul the Son of Cis, a Man of the Tribe of Benjamin forty Years.

22. When he removed him, and raiſed up to them David for a King, for whom alſo teſtifying, he ſaid, I have found David of Jeſſe, a Man according to my Mind, who will do all my Will.

23. From whoſe Offspring God, according to the Promiſe, has raiſed up to Iſrael the Saviour Jeſus.

Ver. 4. went down] as this Verb ſignifies, and is tranſlated, Ch. viii. 5. & xii. 19. & xviii. 22. and came down, Ch. ix. 32. & xv. 1. & xxi. 10.

Ver. 6. the Iſle] Some have whole to it.

Ver. 7. Deputy] of the country is added by the Tranſlators.

Ver. 18. About] grafted in, ſays Mills, becauſe not quite all have it.

Ib. bore their Manners] By the Change of π into φ in ἐτροποφόρησεν, a Copy or two, with three Verſions, have nouriſhed, however Mills pleads hard for it to be right; for Anſwer to which, as it may not merit much, I ſend the Reader to Whitby's Exam. Lib. 2. 2. and Annot. where this is diſcuſſed ſomething largely.

Ver. 19. gave—by lot] Gr. cateclerodoteſen, for which a conſiderable Number of Copies have catecleronomeſen, made—inherit; and this latter Mills prefers, as being uſed by the LXX in Deut. i. 38. but that might make the Alteration, much likelier than the contrary.

Ver. 20. as it were] See the Chronology at the End of 1 Kings. By Weſt. he divided their land—about 450 years, by ſad Alteration of the Original, and alſo Impropriety.

Ver. 21. forty] There is Nothing for by the ſpace of in the Gr.

Ver. 23. raiſed up] Several have it brought, and Mills ſays ours crept from the foregoing Ver. but might not it as well be altered for Variety, or rather becauſe it was thought Jeſus was brought down, more properly than raiſed up? Yet of the latter ſee, as in Whit. Exam. Ch. ii. 30. & iii. 26. Luke i. 69. Jer. xxiii. 5. & xxx. 9. I may add Ver. 33. and as many MSS. have Salvation for the Saviour Jeſus, that Mills ſpeaks againſt; which might help to produce the other, if not wholly do it.

24. John having preached, before the Appearance of his Coming, the Baptiſm of Repentance to all the People of Iſrael.

25. And as John fulfilled the Courſe, he ſaid, Whom do you imagine me to be? I am not he; but behold he comes after me, the Shoes of whoſe Feet I am not worthy to undo.

26. Men, Brethren, Sons of the Race of Abraham, and thoſe among you who fear God, to you is the Word of this Salvation ſent.

27. For they that dwell at Jeruſalem, and their Rulers, being ignorant of him, and the Voices of the Prophets read on every Sabbath, by condemning him, have fulfilled theſe.

28. Nay though they found no Cauſe of Death, they deſired Pilate that he might be killed.

29. And when they had accompliſhed all Things that were written of him, they took down from the Tree, and put him into a Grave.

30. Nevertheleſs God raiſed him up from the Dead.

31. Who appeared for many Days, to ſuch as went up with him from Galilee to Jeruſalem; that are his Witneſſes to the People.

32. And we preach to you, that the Promiſe made to the Forefathers,

33. God has fulfilled to us their Children, by raiſing up Jeſus; as it is alſo written in the ſecond Pſalm, Thou art my Son, to Day have I begotten thee.

34. And that he raiſed him up from the Dead, for him no more afterwards to return to Corruption, he ſaid thus, I will give you the ſure holy Things of David.

35. Therefore he alſo ſays in another Place, Thou wilt not let thy Holy One ſee Corruption.

36. For David indeed, when he had miniſtred to his own Generation by the Counſel of God, went to ſleep, and was put to his Fathers, ſo ſaw Corruption.

37. Whereas he whom God raiſed up did not ſee Corruption.

38. Be it therefore known to you, Men, Brethren, that Forgiveneſs of Sins through him is declared to you.

39. And from all Things that you could not be juſtified by the Law of Moſes, every one who believes is juſtified by him.

40. Look therefore, leſt there ſhould come upon you what is ſpoken in the Prophets,

41. Behold, O Deſpiſers, and be aſtoniſhed, and vaniſh away: for I perform a Work in your Days, that you will not at all believe, though any one ſhould tell you.

42. Now though the Jews departed out of the Synagogue, the Gentiles beſought thoſe Words might be ſpoken to them on the next Sabbath.

43. And after the Aſſembly was diſſolved, many of the Jews and religious Proſelytes, followed Paul and Barnabas; who ſpeaking to them, perſuaded them to remain in the Grace of God.

44. On the Sabbath alſo that was coming almoſt all the City gathered together to hear the Word of God.

45. But when the Jews ſaw the Multitudes, they were full of Envy, and ſpoke againſt the Things ſaid by Paul, contradicting and blaſpheming.

46. Upon which Paul and Barnabas ſpeaking boldly, ſaid; It was neceſſary that the Word of God ſhould be ſpoken firſt to you; but ſince you put it away, and do not judge your ſelves worthy of everlaſting Life, behold we turn to the Gentiles.

47. For ſo the Lord has commanded us, I have put thee for the Light of the Gentiles, that thou mighteſt be for Salvation to the End of the Earth.

48. Which the Gentiles hearing, rejoiced, and extolled the Word of the Lord; and whoever were appointed for everlaſting Life believed.

49. Moreover the Word of the Lord was carried about through the whole Country.

50. However the Jews ſet on the religious and honourable Women, with the principal Men of the City, and ſtirred up ſuch a Perſecution againſt Paul and Barnabas, that they expelled them from their Borders.

Ver. 33. the ſecond] Mills would have the genuine Reading be the firſt, as with a few, ſuppoſing thoſe two Pſalms to be joined in one; to which the Anſwer of Whitby may be more than ſufficient.

Ver. 41. will] So rendered Hab. i. 5. whence it is taken; and Wall on it ſays, Our Tranſlators were ſtrangely attached to their term ſhall, which does utterly marr the ſenſe.

Ver. 42. next Sabbath] Weſt. Sabbath between.

Ver. 44. coming] next Ch. xx. 15. & xxi. 26. is a different Word, tho' nearly alike in Letters.

Ver. 45. contradicting and] ſeveral leave out, but I don't find Mills or any other juſtifying it.

Ver. 47. End] ſing. in Gr. as in Iſa. xlix. 6.

Ver. 48. the Word of the Lord] Inſtead of this Mills imagines it was only God, Prol. 1252. for which there is but the weak Authority of the Syr. and Eth. Tranſlations, but five Copies have God in the Place of the Lord, yet that Mills does not ſuppoſe to be right.

Ib. appointed] as fit Perſons, or fitted. So this Gr. Word is rendered Ch. xxii. 10. & xxviii. 23. Mat. xxviii. 16. and compounded with a Prepoſition, Ch. xvii. 26. Whitby, diſpoſed, Wall, fit to receive, Ham. fitly diſpoſed and qualified for, with a long Note.

51. But theſe ſhook off the Duſt of their Feet at them, and came to Iconium.

52. Beſides the Diſciples were full of Joy, and the Holy Spirit.

CHAP. XIV.

AND at Iconium in like Manner they went into the Synagogue of the Jews, and ſo ſpoke, that a great Multitude both of the Jews and Grecians believed.

2. Yet the unbelieving Jews ſtirred up, and made the Minds of the Gentiles ill againſt the Brethren.

3. A great while therefore indeed they abode, ſpeaking boldly in the Lord, who teſtified for the Word of his Grace, and granted Miracles and Wonders to be done by their Hands.

4. Thus the Multitude of the City was divided; ſome indeed being with the Jews, and ſome with the Apoſtles.

5. And when there was an Aſſault both of the Gentiles and Jews, with their Rulers, to abuſe and ſtone them;

6. They knowing it, fled to the Cities of Lycaonia, Lyſtra and Derbe, and the Region round about:

7. And they were there preaching.

8. Now a certain Man ſate at Lyſtra, that was impotent in the Feet, being lame from his Mother's Womb, who had never walked.

9. He heard Paul ſpeaking; who looking ſtedfaſtly on him, and ſeeing that he had Faith to be healed,

10. Said aloud, Stand up ſtraight on thy Feet; whereupon he leaped, and walked.

11. Then the Multitude ſeeing what Paul had done, raiſed up their Voice, and ſaid in the Lycaonian Language, Gods who are like Men are come down to us.

12. So indeed they called Barnabas Jupiter; and Paul Mercury, ſince he was the chief in Speech.

13. Beſides the Prieſt of Jupiter who was before their City, brought Oxen and Garlands to the Gate, and would have ſacrificed with the Multitude.

14. Which when the Apoſtles, Barnabas and Paul heard, they tore their Cloaths aſunder, and ruſhed into the Company, crying out,

15. And ſaying; Men, why do ye theſe Things? When we are Perſons affected like you, and preach that ye may be turned from theſe Vanities to the Living God, who made Heaven, Earth, the Sea, and all Things that are in them.

16. Who in Ages paſt let all the Gentiles go in their own Ways.

17. Although he did not leave himſelf without Witneſs, as he did good, giving us Rain from Heaven, and fruitful Seaſons, ſo filled our Hearts both with Food and Joy.

18. And on ſaying theſe Things, they ſcarce made the Multitude reſt, not to ſacrifice to them.

19. But there came Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who when they had perſuaded the Multitude, ſtoned Paul, and haled him without the City, ſuppoſing he was dead.

20. Nevertheleſs while the Diſciples compaſſed him about, he roſe up, and went into the City; the next Day alſo he went away with Barnabas to Derbe.

21. To which City they preached, and having taught many, returned to Lyſtra, Iconium and Antioch;

22. Confirming the Souls of the Diſciples, exhorting to continue in the Faith, and that through many Afflictions we muſt enter into the Kingdom of God.

23. Having choſen them Elders alſo throughout the Church, and prayed with Faſting, they committed them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24. Next they went through Piſidia, and came to Pamphylia;

25. Moreover declaring the Word at Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26. And from thence they ſailed away to Antioch, whence they had been delivered to the Grace of God, for the Work which they fulfilled.

27. When they were thus come, and had gathered together the Church, they rehearſed whatever God had done with them, and that he had opened a Door of Faith to the Gentiles.

28. And they abode there not a little while with the Diſciples.

Ver. 1. in like Manner] Gr. according to that, viz. in Ch. xiii. 14. and together, as Beza ſays, is wrong, as both is added in tranſlating: accordingly he has rendered it itidem.

Ver. 7. This Ver. as I underſtand, is ſo ſhort, becauſe when Rob. Stephens the famous Printer firſt made the Gr. into Verſes, printed 1551, there was added to ours in a former Edition, and the whole Multitude were moved at the Doctrine; ſo Paul and Barnabas abode at Lyſtra; but only a Gr. MS. or two are found to have it.

Ver. 10. ſtand] Several Copies prefix, I ſay to thee in the Name of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, a few varying a little.

Ver. 14. Which] for this the Gr. has οἵτινες, as alſo at Ch. xv. 31.

Ver. 15. Men] as the Word ſignifies, and is rendered often beſides in this Book; not ſignifying Sirs.

Ib. that ye] The Pronoun by the Caſe, belonging to the following, and not the preceding Verb; ſee Beza's Annot.

Ver. 19. came Jews] thither is added by the Tranſlators, and certain is but in ſome Copies not reckoned the moſt authentick.

Ver. 23. choſen] thus rendered 2 Cor. viii. 19. where this Word is only beſides.

Ib. Elders] Weſt. preſbyters.

CHAP. XV.

IN the mean time ſome came down from Judea, and taught the Brethren, If you are not circumciſed according to the Ceremony of Moſes, you cannot be ſaved.

2. Not a little Diſſenſion and Diſputing being therefore made, by Paul and Barnabas, againſt theſe; the Brethren appointed Paul and Barnabas, with ſome others of them, to go up to the Apoſtles and Elders at Jeruſalem, about this Queſtion.

3. Therefore they indeed being conducted by the Church, went through Phenice and Samaria, telling the Converſion of the Gentiles; and cauſed great Joy to all the Brethren.

4. Coming then to Jeruſalem, they were received by the Church, including the Apoſtles, and Elders; when they rehearſed whatever God had done with them.

5. But there roſe up ſome of the Sect of the Phariſees who believed, ſaying that it was needful to circumciſe them, and to order they ſhould keep the Law of Moſes.

6. So the Apoſtles and Elders gathered together, to ſee about this Matter.

7. At length when there had been much Diſputing, Peter roſe up, and ſaid to them: Men, Brethren, you know that a long while ago God choſe, that among us the Gentiles ſhould hear the Word of the Goſpel by my Mouth, and believe.

8. And God who knows the Hearts teſtified for them, by giving them the Holy Spirit, according as alſo to us.

9. Nay he made no Difference between us and them, as he cleanſed their Hearts by Faith.

10. Now therefore why do ye tempt God, by putting a Yoke upon the Neck of the Diſciples, which neither our Fathers nor we were able to bear.

11. But we believe we ſhall be ſaved by the Grace of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, in the ſame Manner as alſo they will.

12. Next all the Multitude held their peace, and heard Barnabas and Paul declare, whatever Miracles and Wonders, God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13. And after they had held their peace, James made anſwer: Men, Brethren, hear me.

14. Simeon has declared how God firſt viſited, to take from the Gentiles a People for his Name.

15. And to this agree the Words of the Prophets, as it is written;

16. After theſe Things I will return, and build again the Tabernacle of David which is fallen down; will build again its Breaches, and raiſe it up:

17. That the Remainder of Men may ſeek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by my Name, ſays the Lord, the Doer of all theſe Things.

18. Known by God are all his Works ſince the World has been.

19. Therefore I judge they ſhould not be diſturbed, who from the Gentiles are turned to God;

20. But that they ſhould be written to, for them to refrain from the Pollutions of Idols, Whoredom, Things ſtrangled and Blood.

21. For Moſes from ancient Ages has had ſuch as preach him throughout the City, being read in the Synagogues on every Sabbath.

22. Then it ſeemed well to the Apoſtles and Elders, with the whole Church, to ſend choſen Men of themſelves, Judas ſurnamed Barſabas and Silas, chief Men among the Brethren, to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas;

Ver. 1. taught] Ignatius writing to the Church of Philadelphia has, If any one ſhall expound Judaiſm to you, do not hearken to him.

Ver. 2. and Diſputing] a Verſ. and a Copy miſs, divers leſſen the Noun in the Original, as it were to Queſtioning; Mills gets rid of it by means of the former, as if drawn from Ver. 7. Prol. 441. one of his Particularities, thrown out for the Credulous to ſtumble at.

Ver. 8. for them] How proper and neceſſary ſoever, a ſingle Copy being without it, Mills cenſures it away from Luke to a Scribe, Pro. 441.

Ver. 10. bear] This Word here Cruden, in his Concordance, ſays ſignifies To perform or fully obſerve; which is not applicable to Yoke.

Ver. 11. they will] that it may not be miſtaken for they believe, the Danger being leſs of referring they to Fathers, which Whitby ſo guards againſt.

Ver. 16. After &c.] Doddr. ſays, 'Theſe Words are 'quoted from Amos ix. 11. 12. according to the Reading 'of the Seventy (but very wrong as to this Verſe) who 'might probably follow a correcter Copy of the Hebrew 'than the preſent.' O fy upon it!

Ver. 17. may] for might is inconſiſtent with the Senſe; ſee Am. ix. 12.

Ver. 20. A few add at End, and whatſoever they would not have be to themſelves, not to do to others; ſee the Geneva Marg. ſo Ver. 29.

Ib. Things ſtrangled] This ſome of the ancient Writers, only one Copy, and no Tranſ. omit, however Mills ſtrives hard to exclude it. I ſuppoſe it to be the Apoſtle's and Council's own: but Blood ſignified the eating it in Animals ſtrangled, &c. not bled to death; and leſt Blood ſhould be miſtaken for Murder, as it was, becauſe it was otherwiſe a Sort of Repetition (but indeed a fuller Prohibition) to Things ſtrangled, Whit. Exam. too may be ſeen.

Ver. 21. from] not of, as if it was only then, and inconſiſtent with hath.

Ib. throughout the City] Here is not every as in Ver. 36.

Ver. 22. it ſeemed well] the ſame Verb as in Ver. 25, 28.

23. Writing

23. Writing by their Hands theſe Things: The Apoſtles, Elders and Brethren, ſalute the Brethren who are of the Gentiles at Antioch, Syria and Cilicia.

24. Whereas we have heard, that ſome who went out from us have troubled you with Words, and ſubverted your Souls, ſaying you ſhould be circumciſed, and keep the Law; whom we did not command:

25. It ſeemed well to us, being together unanimouſly, to ſend choſen Men to you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul;

26. Perſons who have delivered up their Lives, for the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

27. We have therefore ſent Judas and Silas, who will tell theſe Things by Word.

28. For it ſeemed well to the Holy Spirit and us, to put on you no more Burden than theſe neceſſary Things;

29. To refrain from Things offered to Idols, Blood, Things ſtrangled and Whoredom: from which preſerving your ſelves, you will do well. Farewel.

30. They therefore indeed being ſent away, came to Antioch; and when they had gathered together the Multitude, gave the Epiſtle.

31. Which theſe read, and rejoiced for the Comfort.

32. Moreover Judas and Silas, as they were alſo Prophets themſelves, exhorted the Brethren by many Words, and confirmed.

53. After they had done thus a while, they were ſent away with Peace, from the Brethren to the Apoſtles.

34. Nevertheleſs it ſeemed well to Silas to ſtay there.

35. Paul likewiſe and Barnabas abode at Antioch, teaching and preaching, with many others beſides, the Word of the Lord.

36. However ſome Days after Paul ſaid to Barnabas, Let us return now to look how our Brethren do, throughout every City in which we have declared the Word of the Lord.

37. Whereupon Barnabas conſulted to take with them John called Mark.

38. But Paul did not count him worthy to be taken with them, who went away from them at Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the Work.

39. There was therefore ſuch Provocation made, that they departed aſunder one from another; and Barnabas taking Mark, ſailed away to Cyprus.

40. Paul alſo choſe Silas, and went away, being delivered to the Grace of God by the Brethren.

41. Afterwards he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

THEN he came to Derbe and Lyſtra, where behold was a certain Diſciple named Timothy, the Son of ſome Jewiſh Woman that was a Believer, but the Father a Grecian.

2. Who was well teſtified of by the Brethren, at Lyſtra and Iconium.

3. Him Paul would have go out with himſelf, ſo took, and circumciſed him, by reaſon of the Jews who were in thoſe Places: for they all knew that his Father was a Grecian.

4. And as they paſſed through the Cities, they delivered to them the Orders, decreed by the Apoſtles and Elders at Jeruſalem, to keep.

5. The Churches were therefore indeed confirmed in the Faith, and were more in Number daily.

6. Now going through Phrygia, and the Country of Galatia, they were forbid by the Holy Spirit to ſpeak the Word in Aſia.

7. When they came againſt Myſia, they tried to go to Bithynia; but the Spirit would not let them.

Ver. 23. and Brethren] Mills with a ſeeming Concern, leſt theſe Brethren ſhould be other beſides the Apoſtles and Elders (as they apparently were, unleſs the whole Church was Apoſtles and Elders, Ver. 22.) would expunge the [and,] as being not with the Vulg. and a few, probably for the ſame Reaſon. Our great Man in his Wiſdom pleads (which I muſt allow him a larger Share of than many Authors) that only the Apoſtles and Elders came together, Ver. 6. but I don't find the [ſoli, only] there, nor can I eaſily think they were all the Multitude, Ver. 12. or thoſe alone who made the much Diſputing, Ver. 7. which ſeems raiſed by them of the Phariſees, Ver. 5.

Ver. 29. Whoredom] Seven Copies and the Eth. Verſ. add, and whatever you would not have done to your ſelves, not to do to others (in one of the Copies to another) which Hammond animadverts on as if it might be genuine, but Mills ſays miſerably break off the Series of the Oration, and were drawn from Ver. 20. where 5 Copies have the like, and Mills ſhews were foiſted in to join together the Gentile and Jewiſh Chriſtians.

Ver. 33. done] as the Greek is.

Ib. the Apoſtles] Some have thoſe that ſent them, which Wall, though not Mills, inſinuates to be right; which need not much concern us, ſince he is extravagant in that Affair.

Ver. 34. This Verſe ſome Copies omit; I ſuppoſe it being juſt a Line, that was miſſed by Somebody, then for others to follow in an Error is not unuſual.

Ver. 37. to take] Mark being his Nephew, Col. iv. 10.

Ver. 3. have go] For the Gr. Verb does not ſignify to have, but to be willing, or would have.

Ver. 7. againſt] So the Gr. Prep. properly ſignifies, and is concurrent with by, Ver. 8. which to is not.

Ib. the Spirit] Some add of Jeſus, Part with the Article, Part without, which Mills counts genuine, but gives a ſtrange Reaſon for leaving it out as ſuch, viz. becauſe it ſounded too hard. Whitby indeed remarks that the Spirit of Jeſus never goes by it ſelf, but concludes thence that Jeſus here may be diſcerned at firſt Sight to be an Addition, and ſuſpects that it came from the Controverſy that aroſe about the Holy Ghoſt proceeding from the Son.

8. So

8. So they paſſed by Myſia, and went down to Troas.

9. And a Viſion appeared to Paul by Night: there was a certain Man of Macedonia ſtood beſeeching him in this manner, Come over to Macedonia, and help us.

10. And when he had ſeen the Viſion, we preſently ſought to go to Macedonia, having proof that the Lord called us thither to preach to them.

11. Therefore going off from Troas, we ſailed directly to Samothrace, and the next Day to Neapolis;

12. As alſo from thence to Philippi, which is the principal City of Part of Macedonia, a Colony; and we were in that City abiding ſome Days.

13. And on the Sabbath-day we went out of the City by the River, where Prayer uſed to be; and when we had ſate down, we ſpoke to the Women who were come together.

14. Which a certain Woman heard, named Lydia, a Seller of Purple of the City of Thyatira, that worſhipped God; whoſe Heart the Lord opened, to give heed to the Things ſpoken by Paul.

15. And when ſhe was baptized, with her Houſhold, ſhe beſought as follows, If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my Houſe, and remain; thus ſhe conſtrained us.

16. As we were going to Prayer, a certain young Woman that had a Spirit of Divination met us; who by foretelling Things, yielded much Gain to her Maſters.

17. She followed after Paul and us, and thus cried out, Theſe Men are Servants of the Higheſt God, who declare to us the Way of Salvation.

18. And this ſhe did for many Days; ſo that Paul being concerned, turned about, and ſaid to the Spirit, I order thee in the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, to come out of her; which he did the ſame Hour.

19. Thus her Maſters ſeeing that the Hope of their Gain was gone, they took hold of Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the Market-place to the Rulers.

20. Next they brought them to the Magiſtrates, and ſaid; Theſe Men, who are Jews, exceedingly trouble our City;

21. And declare Ceremonies, which it is not lawful for us to receive, nor to do, being Romans.

22. Whereupon the Company roſe up together againſt them, and the Magiſtrates tearing off their Cloaths, commanded they ſhould be whipt.

23. So they laid many Stripes on them, and caſt them into Priſon, ordering the Jailor to keep them ſafely.

24. Who as he received ſuch an Ordre caſt them into the inner Priſon, and made their Feet faſt in the Stocks.

25. But about Midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and ſung praiſe to God; ſo that the Priſoners heard them.

26. When ſuddenly there was a great Earthquake, inſomuch that the Foundations of the Jail were ſhaken; nay all the Doors were immediately opened, and the Bonds of all let looſe.

27. Upon this the Jailor being awakened, and ſeeing the Doors of the Priſon open, drew the Sword, and was about to kill himſelf, as he ſuppoſed that the Priſoners were fled out.

28. But Paul called aloud, ſaying, Do no Harm to thy ſelf; for we are all here.

29. He then aſking for a Light, ruſhed in, and trembling as he was, fell down to Paul and Silas;

30. And when he had brought them out, he ſaid, Sirs, what muſt I do that I may be ſaved?

31. To which they anſwered, Believe on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt; ſo thou ſhalt be ſaved, and thy Houſhold.

32. Moreover they ſpoke to him the Word of the Lord, and to all in his Houſe.

33. And he took them the ſame Hour of the Night, and waſhed over the Stripes; then was he baptized, and all his immediately.

Ver. 16. of Divination] A few having the Gr. Word otherwiſe, Mills takes occaſion to find fault with the common, as if it was an Alteration for the ſake of being grammatical; and yet is not ſo, Pr. 678. but if not ſo, this deſtroys the Suppoſition of the former, and alſo implies that the other Reading is not grammatical; and as to the common itſelf, if Divination is not liked for it, it may however ſignify of a Diviner, and ſo be proper.

Ib. by foretelling Things] Weſt. by propheſying.

34. Bringing them alſo into his Houſe, he laid on the Table for them; and was joyful with all the Houſhold, believing in God.

35. Beſides when it was Day the Magiſtrates ſent the Serjeants to ſay, Let thoſe Men go.

36. And the Jailor told theſe Words to Paul, The Magiſtrates have ſent that you ſhould be let go; now therefore depart, and go in Peace.

37. But Paul ſaid to them, They beat us publickly uncondemned, though we were Roman Men, and caſt us into Priſon; and now would they privately put us forth? No indeed; but let them come themſelves, and fetch us out.

38. And the Serjeants rehearſed theſe Words to the Magiſtrates, who hearing that they were Romans, were afraid.

39. So they came, and beſought them; and bringing them out, intreated they would go out of the City.

40. Thus they came out of the Priſon, and went into Lydia's; and ſeeing the Brethren, they comforted them, and went away.

CHAP. XVII.

AFTERWARDS travelling through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Theſſalonica, where there was a Synagogue of the Jews.

2. And Paul according to the Cuſtom went in to them, and on three Sabbaths diſcourſed with them from the Scriptures;

3. Opening and alleging, that it was needful for Chriſt to ſuffer, and riſe up from the Dead, ſo that this, whom I declare to you, is Chriſt Jeſus.

4. Upon which ſome of them were perſuaded, and aſſociated with Paul and Silas, as likewiſe of the religious Grecians a great Multitude, nay of the principal Women not a few.

5. Yet the unbelieving Jews being envious, took ſome wicked Men of the baſe ones, and when they had got a Company, made a tumult in the City; and coming to Jaſon's Houſe, ſought to bring them to the People.

6. But as they did not find them, they haled Jaſon, and ſome Brethren to the Governors of the City, crying out; Theſe that make diſturbance in the World, are alſo come hither:

7. Whom Jaſon has received in; and theſe all do contrary to the Orders of Ceſar, ſaying that there is another King, who is Jeſus.

8. Thus they troubled the Company, and the Governors of the City who heard theſe Things.

9. However taking what was ſufficient from Jaſon and the reſt, they let them go.

10. Whereupon the Brethren preſently ſent forth Paul, and Silas, by Night to Berea; who when they came, went into the Synagogue of the Jews.

11. And theſe were more noble than they at Theſſalonica, being ſuch as received the Word with all Readineſs of Mind, and examined the Scriptures daily, whether theſe Things were ſo.

12. Many of them therefore indeed believed, as alſo of honourable Grecian Women, and Men not a few.

13. But when the Jews from Theſſalonica knew that the Word of God was likewiſe declared by Paul at Berea, they came thither too, ſtirring up the Multitude.

14. And then the Brethren preſently ſent forth Paul, to go as it were to the Sea; but both Silas and Timothy abode there.

15. Now thoſe who conducted Paul, brought him to Athens; and having received a Command for Silas and Timothy, that theſe ſhould come to him as ſoon as poſſible, they departed.

16. And while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his Spirit was provoked in him, upon ſeeing the City was addicted to Idols.

17. Therefore indeed he diſcourſed in the Synagogue, with the Jews and thoſe that were religious, as likewiſe in the Market-place on every Day to ſuch as met him.

18. Upon which ſome of the Epicurean and Stoick Philoſophers talked to him, and ſome ſaid, What will this Babbler prate? And certain, He ſeems to be a Declarer of ſtrange Demons; becauſe he preached to them Jeſus and the Reſurrection.

19. So they took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, ſaying; May we know what is this new Doctrine ſpoken by thee?

20. For thou bringeſt ſome ſtrange Things to our Hearing: we would therefore know what theſe may be.

21. Since all the Athenians, and Strangers who were Lodgers, ſpent the Time in Nothing elſe, but to tell and hear ſome new Thing.

22. Then Paul ſtanding in the middle of the Areopagus, ſaid: Men of Athens, I ſee you are too ſuperſtitious in all Things.

23. For as I went along, and conſidered your Things that are worſhipped, I found an Altar upon which there was written, To the unknown God. Him therefore whom you unknowingly worſhip, I declare to you.

24. God who made the World, and all Things in it, he being Lord of Heaven and Earth, does not dwell in Temples made with Hands.

25. Nor is he ſerved by the Hands of Men, as being in want of any Thing; ſince he gives to all Life, Breath, and all Things.

26. And has made every Nation of Men of the ſame Blood, to dwell on all the Surface of the Earth, determining the Times appointed before, and the Bounds of their Dwelling.

27. For them to ſeek the Lord, if indeed they may feel him, and find; although he is not far from each one of us.

28. For in him we live, move and are; as ſome of the Poets alſo with you have ſaid, For we are alſo his Offſpring.

29. Being therefore the Offſpring of God, we ought not to ſuppoſe that the Deity is like Gold, Silver or Stone, carved by the Art and Thought of Man.

30. The Times indeed therefore of Ignorance God having looked over, now orders all Men every where to repent.

31. Becauſe he has appointed a Day on which he will hereafter judge the World in Righteouſneſs, by the Man whom he has determined; having yielded Belief to all, in raiſing him up from the Dead.

32. But when they heard of the Reſurrection of the Dead, ſome indeed ſcoffed, and ſome ſaid, We will hear thee again concerning this.

33. And ſo Paul went away from amongſt them.

34. Notwithſtanding certain Men joined with him, and believed; among whom alſo was Dionyſius the Areopagite, as likewiſe a Woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

NOW after theſe Things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.

Ib. To the unknown God] For the Heathen Teſtimonies of which read Hammond.

Ver. 27. Here the Gen. Tranſlators, as primitive Proteſtants, adnote, Men grope in darkneſſe, till Chriſt the true light ſhine in their hearts.

Ib. the Lord] According to Mills it ſhould be the Deity, or God, from various Writers and Books; but as he could not tell which, let us keep what we have, being much more confirmed. He brings for Proof Luke's having it ſo Ver. 29. by which one might think he was for the former, but the latter is far better ſupported, which ſuſpended his Choice. While I do not much doubt but θεῖον, the Deity or Godhead was fetched from thence, and then altered into θεὸν, God.

4. Then

4. Then he diſcourſed in the Synagogue on every Sabbath, and perſuaded the Jews and Grecians.

5. And when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was preſſed in Spirit, and teſtified to the Jews that Jeſus was the Chriſt.

6. But as they oppoſed and blaſphemed, he ſhook his Cloaths, and ſaid to them, Your Blood will be upon your own Head; I am clean: henceforth I will go to the Gentiles.

7. So he departed thence, and went into the Houſe of one named Juſtus, that worſhipped God, whoſe Houſe was bordering on the Synagogue.

8. And Criſpus a Ruler of the Synagogue believed on the Lord, with his whole Houſhold; nay many of the Corinthians when they heard, believed, and were baptized.

9. Moreover the Lord ſaid by a Viſion in the Night to Paul; Do not fear, but ſpeak, and be not ſilent.

10. Becauſe I am with thee, and none ſhall put upon thee to hurt thee; becauſe I have many People in the City.

11. Whereupon he ſtaid a Year and ſix Months, teaching the Word of God among them.

12. However when Gallio was Proconſul of Achaia, the Jews ſtood up unanimouſly againſt Paul, and brought him to the Judgment-ſeat, 13, Saying, He perſuades Men to worſhip God contrary to the Law.

14. And as Paul was about to open the Mouth, Gallio ſaid to the Jews; If it were then indeed any Injury, or wicked Miſchief, O Jews, I ſhould according to Reaſon bear with you.

15. But if it be a Queſtion about a Word, and Names, and the Law according to you; ſee your ſelves: for I will be no Judge of theſe Things.

16. Then he drove them away from the Judgment-ſeat.

17. Beſides all the Grecians took hold of Soſthenes a Ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the Judgment-ſeat: and Gallio cared for none of theſe Things.

18. Afterwards Paul abode yet many Days, and when he had taken leave of the Brethren, ſailed away to Syria, and with him Priſcilla and Aquila; he having clipt his Head at Cenchrea: for he had a Vow.

19. And he came to Epheſus, but left them there; and going himſelf into the Synagogue, diſcourſed with the Jews.

Ver. 8. a Ruler of the Synagogue] there being more than one, Ver. 17. Ch. xiii. 15. Mark v. 22. and there is no more chief here and in Ver. 17. than in other Places, nor could Criſpus and Soſthenes be both the chief.

Ver. 9. in the Night] A Verſ. and a Copy only being without this, Mills ſays it ſeems added by ſome Librarian from the Margin, Prol. 1253. But why ſhould this ſeem to be, rather than all others having it rightly?

Ver. 10. I am with thee, and] Though none is without this but the Eth. Tranſ. Mills ſays he ſuſpects it, for, Who, adds he, would blot out ſuch? But I ſay, Who might not miſs it?

Ver. 17. the Grecians] both Grotius and Mills reckon for an Addition, being not in 2 or 3 Copies. and 2 Verſions; the latter alſo argues that they were Jews who beat Soſthenes, as 1 Copy has it, yet rejects each as a marginal Gloſs. Notwithſtanding all this, ours may ſtand in its own ſufficient Strength; nay Soſthenes being a chief Man of the Jews, the Grecians were manifeſtly they who beat him, as likewiſe Ham. and Whit. ſhew.

Ib. cared for none of theſe Things] did not concern himſelf to hinder them, or puniſh them for ſeizing, beating him, &c.

Ib. I muſt by all means keep the Feaſt that is coming at Jeruſalem] As 5 or 6 Exemplars and 3 Verſions are deſtitute of all this, our Mills does not ſtick to affirm it is from elſewhere; but from whence he is at a Loſs, nay for even ſo much as the Occaſion given to add it, which latter only he ſuppoſes was by either Ch. xx. 16. or xix. 21. and juſt after by 1 Cor. xvi. 8. How incredible! Beſides if the following δὲ but is in thoſe Books, which Mills does not mention to be out, by his Note or Prol. 1202. that will quite defeat his Attempt againſt the foregoing.

try of Galatia and Phrygia, confirming all the Diſciples.

24. And a certain Man named Apollos, by Race from Alexandria, an eloquent Man, came to Epheſus, who was powerful in the Scriptures.

25. He was inſtructed in the Way of the Lord, and being fervent in the Spirit, ſpoke and taught diligently the Things of the Lord, though he knew only the Baptiſm of John.

26. Nay he began to ſpeak boldly in the Synagogue; whom Aquila and Priſcilla hearing, took him, and expounded to him the Way of God more thoroughly.

27. And when he would go to Achaia, the Brethren wrote, exhorting the Diſciples to receive him; who came, and did much aſſiſt thoſe that believed through Grace.

28. For he carneſtly confuted the Jews in Publick, ſhewing by the Scriptures that Jeſus was the Chriſt.

CHAP XIX.

AND while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul going through the upper Parts, came to Epheſus; and as he found ſome Diſciples,

2. He enquired of them, Have you received the Holy Spirit ſince you believed? To whom they ſaid, No, nor have we heard whether there is a Holy Spirit.

3. Upon this he aſked them, In what then were you baptized? And they anſwered, In John's Baptiſm.

4. To which Paul replied; John indeed baptized with the Baptiſm of Repentance, ſaying to the People, that they ſhould believe on him who was coming after him, that is on Chriſt Jeſus.

5. Which when theſe heard, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jeſus.

6. And Paul putting Hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, ſo that they ſpoke in Languages, and propheſied.

7. And all the Men were about twelve.

8. He further went into the Synagogue, and ſpoke boldly for three Months, diſcourſing and perſuading the Things concerning the Kingdom of God.

9. But when ſome were hardened, and did not believe, ſpeaking ill of the Way before the Multitude; he departed from them, and ſeparated the Diſciples, diſcourſing daily in the School of one Tyrannus.

10. And this was done for two Years, ſo that all who dwelt in Aſia heard the Word of the Lord Jeſus, both Jews and Grecians.

11. Moreover God did extraordinary powerful Things, by the Hands of Paul:

12. Inſomuch that even Handkerchiefs or Aprons, were brought from his Body to thoſe who were ſick; upon which the Diſeaſes were ſent away from them, and the evil Spirits went out of them.

13. Then ſome of the Jews that went about for Conjurers, attempted to name the Name of the Lord Jeſus for them who had evil Spirits, ſaying, We conjure you by Jeſus whom Paul preaches.

14. And there were ſome Sons of Sceva a Jew, that belonged to the high Prieſt, being ſeven, who did this.

15. But the evil Spirit made anſwer, Jeſus I know, and Paul I am acquainted with; but who are you?

16. Beſides the Man in whom the evil Spirit was, leaped on them, and having dominion over them, was ſo ſtrong againſt them, that they fled out of that Houſe, naked and wounded.

17. And this was made known to all, both Jews and Grecians, who dwelt at Epheſus; whereupon Fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jeſus was magnified.

18. Nay many of them that believed came, and confeſſed, rehearſing their Deeds.

19. Many alſo of thoſe who practiſed Things too curious, brought the Books together, and burnt before them all; and when they computed the Prices of them,

21. As ſoon as theſe Things were compleated, Paul propoſed in the Spirit, when he had gone through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jeruſalem, ſaying, After I have been there, I muſt alſo ſee Rome.

22. And ſending into Macedonia two of them who miniſtred to him, Timothy and Eraſtus, he waited a while in Aſia.

23. At which Time there was made not a little Buſtle concerning this Way.

24. For one named Demetrius, a Silverſmith who made ſilver Shrines for Diana, yielded not a little Gain to the Tradeſmen.

25. Whom he got together, with thoſe who were at ſuch Work, and ſaid; Men, you know that from this Workmanſhip we have the Wealth.

26. You ſee too, and hear, that not only at Epheſus, but in almoſt all Aſia, this Paul by perſuading, has turned away a great Company, ſaying that they are not gods which are made by Hands.

27. Thus it is not only dangerous to us, that this Buſineſs will come to Nought; but alſo that the Temple of the great goddeſs Diana will be of no Account, and her Magnificence be hereafter overthrown, whom all Aſia and the World worſhips.

28. Which hearing, they alſo became full of Wrath, and cried out as follows, Great is Diana of the Epheſians.

29. Whereupon the whole City was filled with Confuſion; and unanimouſly ran with violence into the Theatre, catching Gaius and Ariſtarchus, Macedonians, Paul's Fellow-Travellers.

30. And when Paul would have gone in to the People, the Diſciples did not permit him.

31. Nay even ſome of the chief of Aſia, who were his Friends, ſent to him, and beſought that he would not commit himſelf to the Theatre.

32. Divers therefore indeed cried divers Things: for the Aſſembly was in confuſion, and many did not know for what Cauſe they were come together.

33. They then brought Alexander out of the Company, the Jews putting him forward; ſo he beckoned with the Hand, and would have made a defence to the People.

34. But they knowing that he was a Jew, there was the ſame Voice uttered by them all, who cried out for about two Hours, Great is Diana of the Epheſians.

35. At laſt the Recorder reſtrained the Company, and ſaid: Men of Epheſus, what Perſon indeed is there who does not know, the City of the Epheſians to be the Temple-keeper of the great goddeſs Diana, and of what fell from Jupiter?

36. Therefore theſe Things being not to be contradicted, it is needful you ſhould be reſtrained, and do Nothing raſhly.

37. For you have brought theſe Men, who are neither ſacrilegious, nor blaſpheme your goddeſs.

38. If therefore indeed Demetrius, and the Tradeſmen that are with him, have a Matter againſt any one, Court-days are kept, and there are Deputies, let them plead againſt one another.

39. Whereas if you ſeek for any Thing concerning other Matters, it may be explained in a lawful Aſſembly.

40. And indeed we are in danger to be accuſed, for the Mutiny to Day; there being no Cauſe whereby we can render the Reaſon of this Mob.

41. And having ſaid theſe Things, he ſent away the Aſſembly.

5. Theſe went before, and remained for us at Troas.

6. And we ſailing away from Philippi after the Days of unleavened Bread, came to them at Troas in five Days, where we abode ſeven Days.

7. When on the firſt after the Sabbath, as the Diſciples were gathered together to break Bread, Paul diſcourſed to them, being about to depart the next Day, and continued the Speech till Midnight.

8. And there were many Lamps in the Chamber, where they were gathered together.

9. Now a certain young Man, named Eutychus, who ſate in a Window, being ſunk into a deep Sleep, while Paul diſcourſed longer, he ſinking with Sleep, fell down from the third Story, and was taken up dead.

10. Upon this Paul went down, and fell on him, then embracing, ſaid, Make no diſturbance; for his Life is in him.

11. Next he went up, and when he had broke Bread, and eat, as alſo talked much till Break of Day, thus he went away.

12. And they brought the Lad alive, ſo that they were moderately comforted.

13. We then going before to the Ship, went away to Aſſos, as we were about to take in Paul from thence: for ſo it was ordered, he being about to go on Foot.

14. Accordingly when he met with us at Aſſos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15. And from thence we ſailed away, and the next Day came over againſt Chios, on another we arrived at Samos, and ſtaid in Trogyllium, then on the Morrow came to Miletus.

16. For Paul had determined to ſail by Epheſus, that he might not ſpend Time in Aſia: for he made haſte, to be if he could at Jeruſalem the fiftieth Day.

17. So he ſent from Miletus to Epheſus, and called for the Elders of the Church.

18. And when they were come to him, he ſaid to them: You know from the firſt Day that I entered into Aſia, how I have been with you at all Times;

19. Serving the Lord with all Humility of Mind, and with many Tears and Trials which befel me, by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20. How I keep back Nothing that was profitable, which I did not rehearſe to you, and teach you publickly, even from Houſe to Houſe;

21. Teſtifying both to the Jews and Grecians, Repentance to God, and Faith to our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

22. And now behold I am going bound by the Spirit to Jeruſalem, not knowing what Things will meet with me in that Place;

23. Beſides that the Holy Spirit teſtifies from City to City, ſaying that Bonds and Afflictions remain for me.

24. But I make Account of Nothing, nor have my Life valuable to my ſelf; as it is to finiſh my Courſe with Joy, and the Miniſtry which I have received from the Lord Jeſus, by teſtifying the Goſpel of God's Grace.

25. And now behold I perceive, that all you among whom I have gone preaching the Kingdom of God, will ſee my Face no more.

Ver. 4. quite to Aſia] two MSS. and three Tranſ. want, ſo one of Mills's Marginal Scholiums, for who would omit ſuch notable Words? he ſays. Anſw. Ver. 24. Ignatius remarkably bold to this Effect, in his Epiſtle to the Romans writes; when he was in his Journey to their City, to ſuffer Death by wild Beaſts, and his Reſolution about to be put to ſo terrible a Trial before them, Let Fire, and the Croſs, as alſo Companies of wild Beaſts, Quarterings, Pullings aſunder (ſo I tranſlate from the Gr.) Scatterings of Bones, Tearing of Limbs, Grindings of the whole Body, bad Torments of the Devil come upon me; only that I may obtain Jeſus Chriſt.

Ib. I make Account of Nothing] cloſely literal.

Ib. with Joy] Mills firſt believed this was tranſcribed, then affirmed it to be a Gloſs, from Heb. xiii. 17. there being five or ſix MSS. four Verſions, and three Authors without it; but it might almoſt raiſe Indignation to ſee the bleſſed Scripture treated thus, ſince this is with quite another Matter in Heb. and ſo altogether unlikely to be taken thence.

Ver. 25. perceive] which the Gr. Verb ſignifying as well as know, muſt I think be more eligible; ſince it appears that Paul did return into thoſe Parts afterwards, by 1 Tim. i. 3. 2 Tim. iv. and as the Chronologers ſhew, particularly Wall here.

26. Therefore I teſtify to you this Day, that I am clean from the Blood of all.

27. For I have not drawn back, from rehearſing to you all the Counſel of God.

28. Take heed then to your ſelves, and to all the Flock, among whom the Holy Spirit has put you Overſeers, to feed the Church of God, which he has obtained by his own Blood.

29. For I know this, that after my Departure, grievous Wolves will come in to you, and not ſpare the Flock.

30. Nay from your ſelves will Men riſe up, and ſpeak perverſe Things, to get away Diſciples after them.

31. Therefore watch, remembring that three Years, Night and Day, I did not ceaſe admoniſhing each one with Tears.

32. And now I commit you, Brethren, to God, and to the Word of his Grace, that can build up, and give you an Inheritance among all thoſe who are ſanctified.

33. Either Silver, Gold, or Cloaths, have I coveted of none.

34. On the contrary you your ſelves know, that theſe Hands miniſtred to my Wants, and to them who were with me.

35. I ſhewed you all Things, that ſo labouring you ſhould help the Weak, and remember the Words of the Lord Jeſus, ſince he ſaid, It is more bleſſed to give than to receive.

36. And having ſaid theſe Things, he bended down his Knees, and prayed with all of them.

37. There was likewiſe much Weeping of them all; nay they fell upon Paul's Neck, and kiſſed him;

38. Sorrowing moſt for the Words which he had ſaid, that they would ſee his Face no more: ſo they conducted him into the Ship.

CHAP. XXI.

AS ſoon as to go off, we were got away from them, we ſailed directly on, and came to Coos, as alſo the Day following to Rhodes, and from thence to Patara.

2. Where we found a Ship paſſing over to Phenice, and going aboard, we went off.

3. At length we perceived Cyprus, which leaving on the left, we ſailed to Syria, and were carried away to Tyre: for there the Ship was to unload the Cargo.

4. And finding Diſciples, we ſtaid there ſeven Days; who ſpoke to Paul by the Spirit, not to go up to Jeruſalem.

5. Now when we had accompliſhed the Days, we departed, and went on, they all conducting us, with the Women and Children, to the Outſide of the City; then we bended down the Knees on the Shoar, and prayed.

6. In the next place ſaluting one another, we went aboard into the Ship; and they returned to their own Places.

7. Afterwards we finiſhed the Voyage from Tyre, and came to Ptolemais; and ſaluting the Brethren, remained with them one Day.

8. And the next Day we who went out belonging to Paul, came to Ceſarea, and going into the Houſe of Philip the Evangeliſt, that was one of the ſeven, we remained with him.

9. And he had four Daughters, that were Virgins, who propheſied.

10. We alſo ſtaying many Days, a certain Prophet, named Agabus, came down from Judea.

11. Who when he came to us, took Paul's Girdle, then binding his own Hands and Feet, ſaid; Thus ſays the Holy Spirit, So will the Jews at Jeruſalem bind the Man to whom this Girdle belongs, and deliver into the Hands of the Gentiles.

12. As ſoon as we heard theſe Things, both we and they that were in the Place, beſought him not to go up to Jeruſalem.

13. Nevertheleſs Paul anſwered, What do ye, weeping, and breaking my Heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but alſo to die at Jeruſalem, for the Name of the Lord Jeſus.

14. So when he would not be perſuaded, we were ſilent, ſaying, The Will of the Lord be done.

15. And after theſe Days, taking up the Baggage, we went up to Jeruſalem.

16. And ſome of the Diſciples too from Ceſarea went along with us, bringing us to one Mnaſon of Cyprus, an ancient Diſciple, with whom we ſhould lodge.

17. We being come at length to Jeruſalem, the Brethren received us gladly.

18. Moreover the next Day Paul went in with us to James, and all the Elders were preſent.

19. When he ſaluted them, and declared what Things God had done among the Gentiles by his Miniſtry, each one particularly.

20. Which having heard, they glorified the Lord, and ſaid to him: Thou ſeeſt, Brother, how many ten thouſand Jews there are who believe, and they are all zealous in the Law.

21. And they are informed of thee, that thou teacheſt all the Jews who are with the Gentiles to fall away from Moſes, ſaying they ſhould not circumciſe the Children, nor walk in the Ceremonies.

22. What then is to be? The Multitude muſt by all means come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23. Do therefore this that we ſay to thee: there are with us four Men who have a Vow upon themſelves;

24. Take theſe, and be purified with them, and be at expence on them; that they may ſhave the Head, and all may know, that what they have been informed of thee is Nothing, but thou thy ſelf alſo goeſt on keeping the Law.

25. And concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written, judging they ſhould obſerve no ſuch Thing, except to keep themſelves not only from Things offered to Idols, but Blood, Things ſtrangled and Whoredom.

26. Then Paul took the Men, was purified with them the next Day, and went to the Temple; declaring the Days of Purification were fulfilled, till an Offering ſhould be offered for each one of them.

27. But when the ſeven Days were ready to be finiſhed, the Jews from Aſia perceiving him at the Temple, ſtirred up all the Company, and laid Hands on him;

28. Crying out, Men of Iſrael, help: this is the Perſon, who every where teaches all, againſt the People, the Law, and this Place; nay further he has even brought Grecians into the Temple, and polluted this holy Place.

29. For they had before been ſeeing Trophimus the Epheſian in the City with him, whom they ſuppoſed Paul had brought into the Temple.

30. Whereupon the whole City was moved, and the People were running together; who took hold of Paul, and dragged him without the Temple, and preſently the Gates were ſhut.

31. But as they were ſeeking to kill him, there went up News to the Colonel of the Regiment, that all Jeruſalem was in confuſion.

32. Who at the ſame Time taking Soldiers and Centurions, ran upon them; and when they ſaw the Colonel and Soldiers, they left off beating Paul.

33. And the Colonel coming near, took hold of him, and commanded he ſhould be bound with two Chains; as alſo enquired who he was, and what he had done.

34. Upon which divers cried out divers Things in the Company; ſo that being not able to know the Certainty for the Tumult, he commanded him to be taken into Garriſon.

38. Art not thou the Egyptian, who before now didſt make diſturbance, and take out into the Wilderneſs four thouſand Men that were Murderers?

39. But Paul ſaid, I am indeed a Man who am a Jew of Tarſus in Cilicia, a Citizen not of an obſcure City; ſo I pray thee, permit me to ſpeak to the People.

40. And when he permitted him, Paul ſtood on the Stairs, and beckoned with the Hand to the People; whereupon much Stillneſs being made, he ſpoke to them in the Hebrew Language as follows:

CHAP. XXII.

MEN, Brethren and Fathers, hear my Defence now to you.

2. And upon hearing that he ſpoke to them in the Hebrew Language, they yielded the more ſilence; then he ſaid:

3. I am indeed a Man who am a Jew, born at Tarſus in Cilicia, but bred up in this City at the Feet of Gamaliel, learned thoroughly according to the Law of the Fathers, being zealous for God, as you all are to Day.

4. Who perſecuted this Way to Death, binding, and committing to Priſons, both Men and Women;

5. As the high Prieſt will teſtify for me, and all the Elders, from whom alſo I received Letters to the Brethren, and went for Damaſcus, to bring likewiſe them that were there bound to Jeruſalem, that they might be puniſhed.

6. While I was going, and being come near Damaſcus about Noon, there ſuddenly ſhone out of Heaven a great Light round about me.

7. Then I fell to the Ground, and heard a Voice ſay to me, Saul, Saul, why doſt thou perſecute me?

8. And I anſwered, Who art thou, Lord? Then he ſaid to me, I am Jeſus the Nazorite, whom thou perſecuteſt.

9. They alſo that were with me ſaw indeed the Light, and were frightened, but did not hear the Voice of him who ſpoke to me.

10. Upon this I ſaid, What ſhall I do, Lord? When the Lord ſaid to me, Ariſe, and go to Damaſcus, and there it ſhall be told thee concerning all Things which are appointed for thee to do.

11. And when I could not ſee for the Glory of that Light, being led with the Hand by thoſe who were with me, I came to Damaſcus.

12. Now Ananias, a certain Man pious according to the Law, well teſtified by all the Jews that were Inhabitants,

13. Came to me, and as he ſtood by, ſaid to me, Brother Saul, have ſight; upon which I had the ſight of him that Hour.

14. And he ſaid; The God of our Fathers made choice of thee, to know his Will, to ſee the Righteous One, and hear the Voice from his Mouth.

16. And now why doſt thou delay? Riſe up, and be baptized, and waſh away thy Sins, calling on the Name of the Lord.

17. At length I returned to Jeruſalem, and as I prayed at the Temple, I was in a Trance;

18. And ſaw him ſaying to me, Make haſte, and go quickly out of Jeruſalem; becauſe they will not receive thy Teſtimony concerning me.

20. Nay when the Blood of Stephen thy Martyr was ſhed, I my ſelf alſo was one that ſtood by, and conſented to his Death, as alſo kept the Cloaths of thoſe who killed him.

21. But he replied to me, Go; ſince I will ſend thee forth far off to the Gentiles.

22. And they heard him as far as theſe Words, then raiſed up their Voice, ſaying, Take away ſuch a one from the Earth; for it is not fit he ſhould live.

23. So upon their crying out, and throwing off the Cloaths, as alſo caſting Duſt into the Air;

24. The Colonel commanded him to be brought into the Garriſon, ſaying he ſhould be examined by Whipping, that he might know for what Cauſe they exclaimed ſo at him.

25. However as they were tying him hard with Thongs, Paul ſaid to the Centurion that ſtood there, Is it lawful for you to whip a Man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26. Which the Centurion hearing, he went near, and told the Colonel as follows, See what thou art about to do; for this Man is a Roman.

27. The Colonel then came near, and aſked him, Tell me whether thou art a Roman? And he ſaid, Yes.

28. Whereupon the Colonel anſwered, I procured this being a Citizen with a great Sum; but, ſaid Paul, I was ſo born.

29. Preſently therefore thoſe who were about to examine him departed from him; and the Colonel too was afraid, on knowing that he was a Roman, and that he had been binding him.

30. And the next Day being willing to know the Certainty why he was accuſed by the Jews, he let him looſe from the Bonds, and commanded the chief Prieſts with all their Council to come; he alſo took Paul thither, and ſet him among them.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Paul looking ſtedfaſtly on the Council, ſaid, Men, Brethren, I have behaved my ſelf to God with all good Conſcience to this Day.

2. Upon which the high Prieſt Ananias bade them that ſtood by him, to ſtrike him on the Mouth.

3. Then Paul ſaid to him, God will hereafter ſtrike thee, thou whited Wall: for doſt thou ſit judging me according to the Law, and by tranſgreſſing it, commandeſt me to be ſtriken?

4. And they who ſtood by ſaid, Doſt thou rail at God's high Prieſt?

5. To which Paul anſwered, I did not know, Brethren, that he was the high Prieſt; for it is written, Thou ſhalt not ſpeak ill of a Ruler of thy People.

6. But Paul knowing that there was one Part of Sadducees, and another of Phariſees, he cried out in the Council, Men, Brethren, I am a Phariſee, the Son of a Phariſee; concerning the Hope and Reſurrection of the Dead am I judged.

7. And when he had expreſſed this, there was a Diſſenſion made between the Phariſees and Sadducees, ſo that the Multitude was divided.

8. For the Sadducees indeed ſay there is no Reſurrection, nor yet Angel, or Spirit; whereas the Phariſees confeſs both.

9. Thus there was a great Cry made, and the Scribes of the Part of the Phariſees roſe up, and conteſted thus, We find Nothing ill in this Man; but if a Spirit or an Angel has ſpoken to him, let us not fight againſt God.

10. Now much Diſſenſion being made, as the Colonel feared leſt Paul ſhould be torn aſunder by them, he commanded the Soldiers to go down, and take him away from among them by force, and bring him into the Garriſon.

11. And

11. And the next Night the Lord ſtood by him, and ſaid, Take courage, Paul: for as thou haſt teſtified concerning me at Jeruſalem, ſo muſt thou alſo do at Rome.

12. However when it was Day, ſome of the Jews raiſed a Mob, and binding themſelves by curſing, affirmed they would neither eat nor drink, till they had killed Paul.

13. And there were more than forty that made this Conſpiracy.

14. Who went to the chief Prieſts and Elders, and ſaid; We have bound our ſelves with a Curſe, to taſte Nothing till we have killed Paul.

15. Now therefore do ye, with the Council, inform the Colonel, that he ſhould bring him away to you to Morrow, as if ye would know Things more thoroughly concerning him; and we before he comes near, are ready to kill him.

16. But as the Son of Paul's Siſter heard of the lying in wait, he came, and entering into the Garriſon, told Paul.

17. And Paul called thither one of the Centurions, and ſaid, Introduce this young Man to the Colonel; for he has Something to tell him.

18. Therefore indeed he taking him, brought to the Colonel, and ſaid, Paul the Priſoner called me thither, and intreated to bring this young Man to thee, who has Something to ſpeak to thee.

19. So the Colonel took hold of him by the Hand, and going aſide privately, aſked, What is it thou haſt to tell me?

20. And he ſaid; The Jews have agreed to intreat thee, that thou wouldeſt bring Paul away to Morrow into the Council, as if they would aſk Something more thoroughly concerning him.

21. Do not thou therefore believe them: for there lie in wait for him more than forty Men of them, who have bound themſelves by curſing, neither to eat nor drink, till they have put him to death; and now they are ready, looking for a Promiſe from thee.

22. Therefore the Colonel indeed ſent away the young Man, ordering him, Speak to Nobody, that thou haſt informed me of theſe Things.

23. Next he called two certain Centurions, and ſaid; Get ready two hundred Soldiers, that they may go to Ceſarea, with ſeventy Horſemen, and two hundred Spearmen, at the third Hour of the Night.

24. And provide Beaſts, that they may ſet Paul on, and carry him ſafely to Felix the Governor.

25. He moreover wrote a Letter that contained according to this Copy:

26. Claudius Lyſias ſalutes the very powerful Governor Felix.

27. This Man, being taken by the Jews, and about to be killed by them, I came upon with the Troops, and delivered him, having learned that he was a Roman.

28. And as I was willing to know the Cauſe for which they accuſed him, I brought him away into their Council.

29. Whom I found accuſed concerning Queſtions of their Law; but having no Crime that deſerved Death, or Bonds.

30. It being alſo related to me, that there would be lying in wait for the Man by the Jews, I have ſent at the ſame Time to thee, ordering the Accuſers likewiſe to tell thee what there was againſt him. Farewel.

31. The Soldiers therefore indeed, according as it was ordered them, took Paul, and brought him by Night to Antipatris

32. And the next Day letting the Horſemen go with him, they returned to the Garriſon:

33. The other came to Ceſarea, and when they had delivered the Letter to the Governor, preſented Paul alſo to him.

34. And after the Governor had read that, he aſked of what Province he was, and haveing enquired that he was from Cilicia;

35. I will hear thee fully, ſaid he, when thy Accuſers alſo come. So he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Judgment-hall.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXIV.

ACCORDINGLY five Days after the high Prieſt Ananias, with the Elders went down, and Tertullus a certain Orator, who informed the Governor againſt Paul.

2. And he being called, Tertullus began thus to accuſe: The many Things of Peace obtained by thee, and the good Deeds done for this Nation by thy Providing,

3. Both wholly and every where we receive, very powerful Felix, with all Thankfulneſs.

4. But that I may not hinder thee any longer, I beſeech thee to hear us briefly in thy Gentleneſs.

5. For we found this Man peſtilent, and ſtirring Diſſenſion among all the Jews throughout the World, as alſo a Ring-leader of the Sect of the Nazorites.

6. Who further tried to profane the Temple, whom then we took hold of, and would have judged according to our Law.

7. But Lyſias the Colonel came, and took him away out of our Hands with much Violence;

8. Commanding his Accuſers to come to thee, by examining of whom thou thy ſelf mayeſt know concerning all theſe Things, of which we accuſe him.

9. And the Jews alſo agreed, declaring theſe Things were ſo.

10. Then Paul anſwered, as the Governor nodded to him to ſpeak: Knowing thou haſt been a Judge to this Nation for many Years, I defend what is relating to my ſelf with Chearfulneſs.

11. Thou mayeſt know, that there are not more than twelve Days, ſince I went up to worſhip at Jeruſalem.

12. And they neither found me at the Temple diſcourſing with any one, or making the Company be in a Croud, either in the Synagogues, or throughout the City.

13. Nor can they ſtand by the Things they now accuſe me about.

14. However this I confeſs to thee, that according to the Way which they call Hereſy, ſo I worſhip the God of the Fathers, believing all Things written in the Law and the Prophets;

15. And have Hope in God, that which they themſelves alſo look for, that there will be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Righteous and Unrighteous.

16. Nay in this I exerciſe my ſelf, to have a Conſcience inoffenſive to God and Men always.

17. And in many Years I came to beſtow Alms on my Nation, and Offerings.

18. In which ſome Jews from Aſia found me purified at the Temple, not with a Company, nor with Tumult.

19. Who ſhould have come hither to thee, and accuſed, if they had any Thing againſt me.

20. Or let theſe themſelves ſpeak, if they found any Injury in me, while I ſtood in the Council;

21. Or about this one Expreſſion with which I cried out as I ſtood among them, Concerning the Reſurrection of the Dead am I judged to Day by you.

22. So when Felix heard theſe Things, he deferred them, knowing more fully the Matters concerning the Way, and ſaid, When Lyſias the Colonel comes down, I ſhall throughly know the Things with you.

23. And he ordered a Centurion to keep Paul, and to let him be looſe, as alſo to hinder none that belonged to him, from miniſtering or coming to him.

24. Moreover ſome Days after Felix came with his Wife Druſilla who was a Jeweſs, and ſent for Paul, ſo heard him concerning the Faith in Chriſt.

Ver. 2. Providing] Providence being applied to God.

Very 15. of the Dead] is inſerted, writes Mills, for Clearneſs, 3 Copies and the Vulg. being without it; did he think then the Reſurrection would have been miſtaken for of the Living? It was left out doubtleſs as thought ſufficiently included in Reſurrection.

Ver. 16. always] Mills gives a ſtrange wild Relation of this in Prol. 1106. only however as vehemently ſuſpected by himſelf, that the Word was firſt written in the Marg. to illuſtrate I exerciſe, that it might anſwer to Ch. xxvi. 7. and then crept hither into an unfit Place; which would be creeping indeed; and if this is not exerciſing Imagination inſtead of Judgment, what is? He found it wanting in two or three Copies, Kuſter in one more; of how little Weight that?

Ver. 18. ſome Jews from Aſia] was written to the Margin, Mills ſays, by Somebody from Ch. xxi. 26, 27. at length crept into the Text. The Reader may want to know what Foundation there is for it, wherein he may be ſurprizingly diſappointed, this being only abſent in one Edition, no MS. Verſion, &c. which might be owing to Overſight; and it may be doubted whether Mills did not put it in the Text in the worſt Manner, to favour his Criticiſm; but that turns more againſt it, ſince it is incredible to be added thus, And ſome Jews from Aſia who ſhould have come &c. which is imperfect.

Ver. 21. Or] the ſame as the foregoing Verſe begins with; and it may ſeem that theſe Accuſers of Paul, being the chief of the Jews, Ver. 1. as the Phariſees were, did not diſlike this Saying of his, Chap. xxiii. 6, 9. Wall complains the Vulg. firſt made it except.

Ver. 22. knowing] or having known (being a Participle pret. act.) by what Paul ſaid, &c. but Weſley, with a very unwarrantable and pernicious Liberty, has removed ſaying to before this, with Addition and other Alteration thus, After I have been informed. But it was eaſy to take it from Doddridge, like a deal more.

25. And he diſcourſing about Righteouſneſs, Temperance, and the Judgment that would be, Felix was afraid, and anſwered, Have it ſo now, and go; when I get Time, I will call for thee.

26. And withal he hoped, that there would be Money given to him by Paul, that he might let him looſe; therefore alſo he ſent for him the oftener, and talked to him.

27. But when two Years were compleated, Felix received a Succeſſor, Porcius Feſtus; and as Felix was willing to do the Jews a Favour, he left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

FESTUS therefore entered the Province, and three Days after went up to Jeruſalem from Ceſarea.

2. When the high Prieſt, and the principal of the Jews informed him againſt Paul, and beſought him,

3. Deſiring Favour againſt him, that he would ſend for him to Jeruſalem; while they made an Ambuſcade to kill him by the Way.

4. So Feſtus indeed anſwered, that Paul ſhould be kept at Ceſarea, and that he himſelf was about to go quickly.

5. Therefore who among you can, ſaid he, let them go down together, and if there is any Thing amiſs in this Man, accuſe him.

6. Accordingly when he had abode among them more than ten Days, he went down to Ceſarea, and the next Day ſitting in the Judgment-ſeat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7. Who being come, the Jews that came down from Jeruſalem ſtood round about, and brought many and heavy Charges againſt Paul, which they could not prove,

8. But he made defence, Neither towards the Law of the Jews, nor towards the Temple, nor towards Ceſar have I done any Thing amiſs.

9. Nevertheleſs Feſtus being minded to do a Favour to the Jews, made anſwer to Paul, Art thou willing to go up to Jeruſalem, and there be judged concerning theſe Things with me?

10. To which Paul ſaid, I am ſtanding at the Judgment-ſeat of Ceſar, where I ſhould be judged: I have done no injury to the Jews, as thou alſo very well knoweſt.

11. For if indeed I had done injury, and committed any Thing deſerving Death, I would not refuſe to die; but if there is none of theſe Things of which they accuſe me, Nobody may deliver me to them: I appeal to Ceſar.

12. Then Feſtus talked with the Council, and anſwered, Haſt thou appealed to Ceſar? To him thou ſhalt go.

13. And ſome Days being paſſed over, King Agrippa and Bernice came to Ceſarea, to ſalute Feſtus.

14. And when they had abode there many Days, Feſtus communicated the Things about Paul to the King as follow: There is a certain Man left bound by Felix;

15. Concerning whom, when I was at Jeruſalem, the chief Prieſts and Elders of the Jews informed me, deſiring Judgment againſt him.

16. Whom I anſwered, It is not the Manner of the Romans, to deliver any Man to Deſtruction, before he that is accuſed has the Accuſers in Preſence, and gets Room for Defence concerning the Crime.

17. Therefore when they were come together here, I made no Delay, but the Day following ſate in the Judgment-ſeat, and commanded the Man to be brought.

18. About whom the Accuſers ſtood up, and brought no Crime of what Things I imagined.

19. But had ſome Queſtions concerning their own Superſtition againſt him, and concerning one Jeſus that is dead, whom Paul declared to be alive.

20. And as I doubted about this Queſtion, I aſked whether he would go to Jeruſalem, and there be judged concerning theſe Things?

21. Whereupon Paul appealed that he might be kept to the Knowledge of Auguſtus; ſo I commanded him to be kept, till I ſhould ſend him to Ceſar.

22. And Agrippa ſaid to Feſtus, I would alſo hear the Perſon my ſelf. Then to Morrow, replied he, thou ſhalt hear him.

23. The next Day therefore Agrippa and Bernice coming with much Show, when he was entered into the Place of hearing, with the Colonels too, and Men that were eminent of the City, Feſtus commanded, and Paul was brought.

Ver. 25. Have it ſo now] according to the Greek.

Ver. 27. two Years] of Paul's Impriſonment.

Ver. 6. more than ten] Weſt. not more than eight or ten, which ſome Copies have; others eight only inſtead of ten, whence Somebody perhaps put both in, and the Gr. Particle ſignifying than, does alſo or; further not might be added, as ſeeming to make better Senſe.

Ver. 16. to Deſtruction] It is certain, ſays Mills, this was inſerted for Interpretation from Ver. 11. whereas it is not there, and might be omitted becauſe of that, neither are thoſe here without it many. Yet Weſley has left it out.

Ver. 17. brought] the very ſame as in Ver. 6.

Ver. 19. Superſtition] Weſt. religious worſhip.

24. And

24. And Feſtus ſaid; King Agrippa, and all Men who are come hither with us, you ſee him concerning whom all the Multitude of the Jews have interceeded with me, both at Jeruſalem and here, crying out he ought not to live any longer.

25. Whereas when I perceived he had committed Nothing that deſerved Death, and he himſelf alſo appealed to Auguſtus, I determined to ſend him.

26. Concerning whom I have not any Thing of Certainty to write to my Lord: therefore have I brought him out to you, and eſpecially to thee, King Agrippa, that Examination being made, I might have Something to write.

27. For the ſending a Priſoner ſeems unreaſonable to me, and not to ſignify the Charges againſt him.

CHAP. XXVI.

UPON this Agrippa ſaid to Paul, Thou art permitted to ſpeak for thy ſelf. Then Paul made defence, ſtretching forth the Hand:

2. Concerning all Things for which I am accuſed by the Jews, King Agrippa, I eſteem my ſelf happy, that I am about to make defence to thee to Day;

3. Eſpecially as thou art expert, in all the Ceremonies and Queſtions with the Jews: therefore I pray thee to hear me patiently.

4. All the Jews therefore indeed know my Living from my Youth, which was from the Beginning among my Nation at Jeruſalem:

5. They knowing heretofore, if they would teſtify, that according to the exacteſt Sect of our Religion, I lived a Phariſee.

6. And now I ſtand judged for the Hope of the Promiſe, made by God to our Fathers:

7. To which our twelve Tribes, earneſtly worſhipping Day and Night, hope to come; concerning which Hope, King Agrippa, I am accuſed by the Jews.

8. Why ſhould it be judged incredible with you, that God ſhould raiſe up the Dead?

9. I therefore indeed thought to my ſelf, it was fit to do many Things contrary to the Name of Jeſus the Nazorite.

10. Which I alſo did at Jeruſalem: and many of the Saints I ſhut up in Priſon, receiving Power from the chief Prieſts; and when they were put to death, I gave a Vote.

11. Nay I puniſhed them often throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled to blaſpheme; I was even ſo exceeding mad at them, that I perſecuted them alſo to ſtrange Cities.

12. In which however going to Damaſcus, with Power and Commiſſion from the chief Prieſts;

13. At the middle of the Day I ſaw in the Way, O King, a Light from Heaven, above the Brightneſs of the Sun, ſhining about me, and thoſe who went with me.

14. Upon which we all fell down to the Earth, and I heard a Voice ſpeak to me, and ſay in the Hebrew Language, Saul, Saul, why doſt thou perſecute me? It is hard for thee to kick at the Stings.

15. And I aſked, Who art thou, Lord? And he ſaid, I am Jeſus whom thou perſecuteſt.

16. But ariſe, and ſtand on thy Feet: for I have appeared to thee for this, to make choice of thee for a Miniſter and Witneſs, both of the Things which thou haſt ſeen, and of thoſe for which I will appear to thee:

17. As alſo deliver thee from the People, and the Gentiles, to whom I now ſend thee;

18. To open their Eyes, and to turn them from Darkneſs to Light, and the Power of Satan to God; that they may receive Forgiveneſs of Sins, and a Lot among thoſe who are ſanctified by Faith in me.

19. Thereupon, King Agrippa, I was not diſobedient to the heavenly Viſion.

20. But told firſt to thoſe at Damaſcus, as likewiſe at Jeruſalem, and in all the Country of Judea, nay to the Gentiles, that they ſhould repent, and return to God, doing Works worthy of Repentance.

21. For theſe Cauſes the Jews took me at the Temple, and tried to ſlay me.

22. Therefore as I obtained Aſſiſtance from God, I have ſtood to this Day, teſtifying both to little and great, and ſaid Nothing beſides what Things, the Prophets alſo and Moſes ſpoke of, which would be;

23. That Chriſt would ſuffer, that he would riſe the firſt from the Dead, that he might declare the Light to the People, and the Gentiles.

24. While he was making defence thus, Feſtus ſaid aloud, Thou art mad, Paul, much Learning turns thee to be ſo.

Ver. 24. and here] being not in the vulg. Lat. Mills was fondly of Opinion it crept hither from Ver. 17. Pro. 445. but what for? Nay and is not there, and he has alſo omitted both before it here.

Ver. 25. Auguſtus] Weſt. the Emperor, in a licentious Way of tranſlating the Scripture.

Ver. 26. my] This Mills mentions but eight to have; and was much more likely added to make the Term fuller, than omitted.

Ver. 3. Eſpecially as thou art expert] I know being in few Copies, and there with different Gr. Words. Weſt. has this, art accurately acquainted; but it ſeems from Doddr. and accurately taken wrong from his Paraphraſe.

Ver. 7. earneſtly] is Commentary, not Text, affirms Mills; if he had meant only in the Vulg. and Ethiop. it would be granted, but alas he ſtruck at the Original.

25. To which he replied; I am not mad, very powerful Feſtus; but utter forth Words of Truth and Sobriety.

26. For the King knows about theſe Things, to whom then I ſpeak out boldly; for I am perſuaded that none of theſe Things are concealed from him, ſince this was not acted in a Corner.

27. Believeſt thou the Prophets, King Agrippa? I know that thou doſt.

28. Then Agrippa acknowledged to Paul, Thou perſuadeſt me a little to be a Chriſtian.

29. And Paul anſwered, I pray to God, that both a little and much, not only thou, but likewiſe all who hear me to Day, may be ſuch as even I am, beſides in theſe Bonds.

30. When he had ſaid thus, the King roſe up, as alſo the Governor, and Berenice, and thoſe that ſate with him.

31. And going aſide, they ſpoke one to another as follows, This Man does Nothing that deſerves Death or Bonds.

32. Moreover Agrippa ſaid to Feſtus, This Man might have been let looſe, if he had not appealed to Ceſar.

CHAP. XXVII.

AND when it was determined that we ſhould ſail away to Italy, they delivered both Paul and ſome other Priſoners, to a Centurion named Julius of the Regiment of Auguſtus.

2. So we went aboard a Ship of Adramyttium, as we were going to ſail by the Places of Aſia, and went off; there being with us Ariſtarchus a Macedonian of Theſſalonica.

3. And in another Day we were carried away to Sidon; where Julius uſed Paul ſo kindly, that he permitted he ſhould go to the Friends, to obtain ſome Care.

4. From whence we went off, and ſailed under Cyprus, by reaſon the Winds were contrary.

5. Next ſailing through the Sea by Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came down to Myra of Lycia.

6. Where the Centurion found a Ship of Alexandria ſailing to Italy, and put us into it.

7. Now as we ſailed ſlowly for many Days, and were ſcarce come by Cnidus, the Wind not letting us, we ſailed under Crete by Salmone.

8. Which ſcarce paſſing by, we came to a certain Place called The fair Harbours, near which was the City of Laſea.

9. Thus much Time was paſſed over, and as Sailing was now dangerous, by reaſon that the Faſt was now paſt, Paul admoniſhed,

10. Saying to them, Men, I ſee that the Voyage is about to be with Damage and much Loſs, not only of the Loading and Ship, but alſo of our Lives.

11. However the Centurion believed the Maſter and Owner of the Ship, rather than the Things ſaid by Paul.

12. And the Harbour being unfit to winter at, moſt gave Counſel to go away from thence, if they could any how come to Phenice to winter, a Harbour of Crete, that looks againſt the ſouth-weſt and north-weſt Wind.

13. In the mean time as the ſouth Wind blew gently, thinking they ſhould hold their Purpoſe, they put off, and paſſed nigh by Crete.

14. But not a great while after there blowed againſt it a tempeſtuous Wind, called Euroclydon.

15. Whereby the Ship was caught, and ſince ſhe could not bear up to the Wind, we gave her up, and were carried away.

16. In the next place we ran under a certain little Iſland called Clauda, and were ſcarce able to get the Boat.

17. This having taken up, they uſed Helps, undergirding the Ship; and being afraid leſt they ſhould fall into the Quickſand, they let down the Sail, and were ſo carried away.

18. As we were exceedingly toſſed too with the Tempeſt, the Day following they cauſed the Things to be caſt out.

Ver. 1. we] two or three he, enow to biaſs Mills to it; and that we was inſerted from Ch. xxi. 1. is not worth mentioning, but to expoſe it.

Ver. 16. get] Weſt. get maſters of.

Ver. 18. cauſed the Things to be caſt out] Gr. made or cauſed a caſting out, with Nothing of ſhip, and not as in Ver. 38.

19. Nay

19. Nay the third Day we threw out the Tackling of the Ship with our own Hands.

20. And ſince neither Sun nor Stars appeared for many Days, as likewiſe not a ſmall Tempeſt lay upon us, all Hope further that we ſhould be ſaved was taken away.

21. There having alſo been much Faſting, Paul then ſtood up in the midſt of them, and ſaid; You ſhould indeed, O Men, have been obedient to me, not to go off from Crete, and procure this Damage and Loſs.

22. And now I admoniſh you to be chearful; for there will be no caſting away of your Life, but of the Ship.

23. For there ſtood by me this Night an Angel of God, whoſe I am, and whom I worſhip,

24. And ſaid, Do not fear, Paul, thou muſt ſtand before Ceſar; and behold God has given thee all that ſail with thee.

25. Therefore be chearful, Men; for I believe God, that it will be in the ſame Manner as it was ſpoken to me.

26. Nevertheleſs we muſt fall on a certain Iſland.

27. And when the fourteenth Night was come, while we were carried about in the Adriatick about Midnight, the Sailors imagined that they were brought nigh ſome Country.

28. Whereupon they ſounded, and found twenty Fathoms; then being at a little Diſtance, they ſounded again, and found fifteen Fathoms.

29. And being afraid leſt they ſhould any how fall on rough Places, they caſt four Anchors out of the Stern, and prayed it might be Day.

30. At length the Sailors endeavoured to flee out of the Ship, and when they let down the Boat into the Sea, on Pretence as if they were about to put Anchors out of the Forecaſtle;

31. Paul ſaid to the Centurion and Soldiers, If theſe do not remain in the Ship, you cannot be ſaved.

32. Then the Sailors cut off the Ropes of the Boat, and let it fall.

33. And while it was about to be Day, Paul beſought them all to receive Food as follows; Since to Day you have waited the fourteenth Day, as alſo keep on faſting, having taken Nothing;

34. Therefore I beſeech you to take ſome Food; ſince this is for your Health: for from the Head of none of you will there fall a Hair.

35. Now having ſaid thus, he took Bread, and gave thanks to God before them all; then he broke, and began to eat.

36. Upon this they all became chearful, and took ſome Food themſelves.

37. And we all in the Ship, were two hundred ſeventy ſix Perſons.

38. Thus being ſatisfied with Food, they lightened the Ship, caſting out the Corn into the Sea.

39. But when it was Day, they did not know the Country; however they obſerved a certain Creek that had a Shoar, into which they conſulted, if they could, to drive the Ship.

40. So they took away the Anchors, and let them be in the Sea, letting looſe withal the Rudder-bands; and when they had hoiſed up the Main-ſail to the Wind, they held on for the Shoar.

41. However they fell into a Place of a double Sea, and ſtruck the Ship; ſo that indeed the Forepart remained immoveable, but the Stern was made looſe by the Violence of the Waves.

42. And the Counſel of the Soldiers was, that they ſhould kill the Priſoners; leſt any one ſhould ſwim out, and run away.

43. But as the Centurion was willing to keep Paul ſafe, he hindered their Will, and commanded that thoſe who could ſwim ſhould throw themſelves in firſt, to get off to Land;

44. As likewiſe the reſt, ſome indeed on Boards, and ſome on certain Things from the Ship: and ſo it came to paſs that they all got ſafe to Land.

Ver. 21. procure] rather than to gain Loſs.

Ver. 26. fall] thus the Word not only ſignifies, but is rendered Ver. 29, 32.

Ver. 28. ſounded again, and] is repeated, Mills ſays, from the former Part of the Ver. though the Omiſſion of it as being there is tenfold more likely, and thoſe that have it againſt the others in a larger Proportion; yet how will ſome of the Learned impoſe on their own and others Judgment, to make themſelves extraordinary! And what a Flouriſh is this of Mills, Cant. 2. (that is one Copy) beſides the Vulg. and Syr. (2 Tranſlations) want it!

Ver. 29. out of the Stern] Which is done in Danger, and ſuch a one is called the Sheet-anchor; otherwiſe the Anchor is caſt out at the Head.

Ver. 33. as alſo keep on faſting] ſo that there is no Neceſſity for that to be the fourteenth Day of their faſting; and ſee the Note on Pope's Homer to Odyſſey B. 12.

Ver. 40. took away] ſo rendered Ver. 20. 2 Cor. iii. 16. Heb. x. 11. in which other Places this Verb is only found. And what ſhould they take up the Anchors then for? Doddr. has weighed the Anchors, very unfit for the Sea Term weighed Anchor.

Ib. let] thus tranſlated Ver. 32. and ſignifying; not committed.

Ib. them] which is better included or underſtood, than themſelves, or the Ship as ſome would; and thus Caſtal. tranſlates.

Ver. 43. The ſea or rather into the ſea is added beſides the Original in the com. Tranſ.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND being got ſafe, they then knew that the Iſland was called Melita.

2. Where the Barbarians ſhewed us extraordinary Benevolence: for they kindled up a Fire, and received us all; by reaſon both of the Rain that came, and the Cold.

3. Now Paul made up a Bundle of Sticks, which when he put upon the Fire, a Viper came out of the Heat, and ſtruck him on the Hand.

4. And as the Barbarians ſaw the venomous Creature hang on his Hand, they ſaid one to another, Doubtleſs this Man is a Murderer, whom notwithſtanding he is got ſafe from the Sea, Judgment will not let live.

5. He therefore indeed ſhook off the venomous Creature into the Fire, and ſuffered no Harm.

6. However they waited for him to be about to ſwell, or fall down dead ſuddenly; but when they had waited a great while, and ſaw Nothing amiſs come to him, they were altered, and ſaid he was a god.

7. About that Place alſo were Lands that belonged to the principal Man of the Iſland, named Publius, who received us, and lodged courteouſly three Days.

8. And the Father of Publius lay oppreſſed with a Fever, and a Bloody-flux; to whom Paul went in, and having prayed, put Hands on him, and healed him.

9. When this therefore was done, the reſt too that had Diſeaſes in the Iſland came thither, and were cured.

10. Who likewiſe honoured us with many Honours, and beſtowed on us at going away Things for Uſe.

11. And after three Months we went away in a Ship of Alexandria, that wintered in the Iſland, which had the Sign of Caſtor and Pollux.

12. Thus we were carried away to Syracuſe, and ſtaid three Days.

13. From whence going about, we came to Rhegium; and after one Day as the ſouth Wind came on, we went the ſecond to Puteoli:

14. Where we found Brethren, and were intreated to ſtay with them ſeven Days; and ſo we went to Rome.

15. As the Brethren alſo had heard the Things concerning us, they came out from thence to meet us, as far as Appii-forum and the three Taverns; whom Paul ſeeing, gave thanks to God, and took Courage.

16. And when we were come to Rome, the Centurion delivered the Priſoners to the Commander of the Soldiers; but Paul was permitted to remain by himſelf, with a Soldier that kept him.

17. So after three Days Paul called together the principal Jews that there were: and they being come together, he ſaid to them; Men, Brethren, though I have done Nothing contrary to the People, or the Ceremonies of the Fathers, I was delivered a Priſoner from Jeruſalem into the Cuſtody of the Romans.

18. Who when they examined me, would have let me go, by reaſon there was no Cauſe of Death in me.

19. Which the Jews ſpeaking againſt, I was compelled to appeal to Ceſar; not as if I had any Thing to accuſe my Nation of.

20. For this Cauſe therefore I have called for you, to ſee, and ſpeak to; ſince for the ſake of the Hope of Iſrael I am tied about with this Chain.

21. And they anſwered him; We neither received Letters concerning thee from Judea, nor did any one of the Brethren who came, tell or ſpeak any Thing ill about thee.

22. But we count it worthy to hear from thee what thou thinkeſt; for it is known indeed to us, that this Sect is every where ſpoken againſt.

23. Whereupon they appointed him a Day, and there came many to him at the Lodging; to whom he expounded, teſtifying the Kingdom of God, and perſuading them in the Things concerning Jeſus, both from the Law of Moſes and the Prophets, from the Morning to the Evening.

24. And ſome indeed were perſuaded of the Things that were ſaid, but ſome did not believe.

25. Being thus in Diſagreement one to an-

Ver. 2. extraordinary] the Gr. being as in Ch. xix. 11. without the Meaning of little.

Ver. 5. therefore] as the Gr. is, in relation to the 3d Verſe.

Ver. 8. flux] In the former Editions of our preſ. Tranſ. flixe or flix, but altered by the Printers.

Ver. 9. cured] So the Gr. Verb is different from that in the foregoing Ver.

Ver. 14. went to Rome] as to Puteoli, Ver. 13.

Ver. 15. concerning us] the Vulg. and two other Verſions omit, if condemned then by Mills for an Addition of ſome Scholiaſt, we need not wonder.

Ver. 16. The Centurion delivered the Priſoners to the Commander of the Army] Not only Zegerus rejects theſe Words as ſpurious, but Mills ſays they are of ſome Scholiaſt, who was minded to make this Hiſtory larger; but how ridiculous is ſuch a pretended Attempt for this ſmall Addition! And we may be eaſy about it, while but 6 or 7 of all Sorts are found that want it, nay they ſhould alſo be without [but], which follows to join the reſt together.

other, they departed, when Paul ſaid one Expreſſion: Well did the Holy Spirit ſpeak by the Prophet Eſaias to our Forefathers, as follows;

26. Go to this People, and ſay, You ſhall hear ſtill, though you will not at all underſtand, and behold ſtill, though you will not at all know.

27. For the Heart of this People is become fat, they hear heavily with the Ears, and wink their Eyes; leſt they ſhould at any time ſee with the Eyes, hear with the Ears, underſtand with the Heart, and when they are converted, I might heal them.

28. Be it therefore known to you, that the Salvation of God is ſent to the Gentiles, and they will hearken.

29. So when he had ſaid thus, the Jews went away, and had much Diſputing among themſelves.

30. And Paul remained two whole Years in his own rented Place, and received all who came in to him;

31. Preaching the Kingdom of God, and teaching the Things concerning the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, with all Boldneſs, and was not hindered.

Ver. 29. Mills writes that this Ver. was to him more than ſuſpected, as ſuch and ſuch are without it; but there is no Proof of more than 3 or 4 Copies and 2 Verſions, a ſmall Argument for ſlicing away the Scripture at that Rate.

Ver. 30. Place] which is ſometimes contained in the Adjectives of the Original, as here; and appears to be a Room, not Houſe, Ver. 16.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to the ROMANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL a Servant of Jeſus Chriſt, called to be an Apoſtle, ſeparated to the Goſpel of God;

2. Which he promiſed before by his Prophets in the holy Scriptures,

3. Concerning his Son, that was from the Poſterity of David according to the Fleſh;

4. Demonſtrated to be the Son of God in Power, according to the Spirit of Holineſs, by the Reſurrection from the Dead, namely Jeſus Chriſt our Lord:

5. By whom we have received Grace and Apoſtleſhip, for Obedience to the Faith among all Nations, for his Name;

6. Among whom you alſo are the called ones of Jeſus Chriſt:

7. To all that are at Rome the Beloved of God, called to be Saints. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

8. Firſt indeed I give thanks to my God by Jeſus Chriſt for you all, that your Faith is declared in the whole World.

9. For God is my Witneſs, whom I worſhip with my Spirit in the Goſpel of his Son, how I leave not off making mention of you;

10. Always in my Prayers intreating, if I might any how now at length have a proſperous Way in the Will of God, that I may come to you.

11. For I long to ſee you, that I may impart to you ſome ſpiritual Gift, for you to be eſtabliſhed;

12. And this is, to be comforted together among you, by your Faith and mine among one another.

13. Nor would I have you ignorant, Brethren, that I often before propoſed to come to you (but have been hindered hitherto) that I might have ſome Fruit alſo among you, as well as among the reſt of the Gentiles.

14. Both to the Grecians and Barbarians, both to the Wiſe and Unwiſe, am I a Debtor.

15. So with what there is in me, I am ready to preach alſo to you at Rome.

16. For I am not aſhamed of the Goſpel of Chriſt; ſince it is the Power of God for Salvation to every one who believes, both to the Jew firſt, and then to the Grecian.

17. For the divine Righteouſneſs is revealed in it from Faith to Faith; as it is written, But the Righteous ſhall live by Faith;

18. And the Wrath of God is revealed from Heaven, upon all Impiety and Unrighteouſneſs of Men, who hold the Truth in Unrighteouſneſs.

19. Becauſe what is known of God, is manifeſt in them; for God has made manifeſt to them.

20. For the inviſible Things of him, from the Creation of the World, being underſtood

Ver. 3. was] or had being.

Ver. 4. Jeſus Chriſt our Lord] which ſtands here in the Gr. ſee the like Ver. 20.

Ver. 9. leave not off] Weſt. inceſſantly.

Ver. 10. Always] belonging to intreating, and not uſeleſsly with the other Adverb to make mention; which Mills defends well.

Ver. 13. before propoſed] thus the Gr.

Ver. 14. Whitby relates that our Tranſlators begin this Verſe with For; but the latter Tranſlations are without it, howſoever it ſlipt into Tyndal's.

Ver. 16. of Chriſt] If many were without this, which there are not, and more Criticks for it than one or two, I ſhould ſcruple to join them with Mills, Prol. 679. the Reading is ſo abrupt without it, and it ſeems ſo much required, being alſo in Ch. xv. 19, 29. as here Ver. 5. and but five or ſix Copies, &c. without it.

Ib. firſt] caſt out by Mills, on very little Evidence, Pr. 450.

Ver. 17. divine Righteouſneſs] as communicated to Man, different from the Wrath, Ver. 18. and this Ch. iii. 5.

Ib. from Faith to Faith] from one Degree or Part of it to another, as of Strength, Pſa. lxxxiv. 7. and Glory, 2 Cor. iii. 18. and particularly from the Faith of the Law to that of the Goſpel, agreeable to the following Quotation that belongs to both; beſides moſt or however ſome of thoſe, to whom Paul here writes at Rome, might have been Jews; be that as it will, we find him frequently ſpeaking of the Law in his Epiſtles to the Gentile Places. But Whitby diſlikes from, and would have it by in this Senſe, The Righteouſneſs of God, which is by Faith, is revealed in the Goſpel to beget Faith in Men; whereas Faith being after revealed, ſhews with its Prepoſitions the Manner of that, and there cannot without Violence be made which is by Faith, nor much better to beget Faith of to Faith, it may be added alſo that Faith produces Righteouſneſs, rather than that Faith. Yet Wall is ſo offended at our Expreſſion, which he ſays is hard to be explained, or pleaſed with by Faith, that he imagines to Faith was added, tho' there is no Copy without it.

by the Things that are made, are clearly ſeen, namely both his eternal Power and Godhead; for them to be without excuſe.

21. Becauſe though they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, or give thanks; but became vain in their Reaſonings, and their ſilly Heart was darkened.

22. Notwithſtanding they declared that they were wiſe, they became fooliſh;

23. And changed the Glory of the Incorruptible God, into an Image in the Likeneſs of corruptible Man, Fowls, four-footed Creatures, and creeping Things.

24. Therefore God alſo delivered them up, in the Luſts of their Hearts, to Uncleanneſs, to diſhonour their Bodies among themſelves.

25. Who changed the Truth of God into Falſehood, and worſhiped and ſerved the Creature, above the Creator who is bleſſed for ever: ſo let it be.

26. By reaſon of this God delivered them up to vile Affections: for even their Females changed the natural Uſe, into that beſide Nature.

27. In like Manner alſo the Males left the natural Uſe of the Female, and burned in their Leachery to one another, Males with Males acting what is unſeemly, and receiving in themſelves the Recompence of their Error that was fit.

28. Thus as they did not try to have God in Knowledge; God delivered them up to a reprobated Mind, to do Things not fit:

29. Being filled with all Injuſtice, Whoredom, Spite, Covetouſneſs, Miſchief; full of Envy, Murder, Contention, Deceit, Depravity; Whiſperers,

30. Diſparagers, Haters of God, Doers of Damage, proud, Braggers, Inventers of evil Things, diſobedient to Parents,

31. Silly, Breakers of Agreement, without natural Affection, irreconcileable, unmerciful:

32. Who though they knew the Juſtice of God, that thoſe who commit ſuch Things are deſerving of Death, not only do the ſame, but alſo conſent to thoſe that commit them.

CHAP. II.

THEREFORE thou art without excuſe, O every judging Man: for in what thou judgeſt another, thou condemneſt thy ſelf; ſince thou who judgeſt, doſt commit the ſame Things.

2. And we know that the Judgment of God is according to Truth, on thoſe who commit ſuch Things.

3. Doſt thou then think this, O Man, that judgeſt thoſe who commit ſuch Things, and doeſt the ſame, that thou ſhalt eſcape the Judgment of God?

4. Or doſt thou deſpiſe the Riches of his Kindneſs, Bearing and Forbearance; and art ignorant that the kind Uſage of God is bringing thee to Repentance?

5. Thus according to thy Hardneſs and impenitent Heart, thou treaſureſt up for thy ſelf Wrath againſt the Day of Wrath, and of the Revelation of the righteous Judgment of God.

Ver. 21. Reaſonings] So Beza tranſlates it ratiocinationibus, and even our late Tranſlator, a ſuppoſed Deiſt or Freethinker, reaſoning; and Leigh in Critica Sacra ſays, it ſignifieth more than thoughts, even reaſonings, diſputations, diſcourſes, done with weighing and poyſing things; from the ſame Theme alſo, the Art of Reaſoning or Logick, is called the Dialectick Art; nay in the com. Tranſ. this Word is rendered diſputations, Ch. xiv. 1. diſputings, Phil. ii. 14. and reaſoning, Luke ix. 46. as its Verb is to reaſon, Mat. xvi. 7, 8. & xxi. 25. Mark ii. 6. & Ver. 8. twice, & viii. 16, 17. Luke v. 21, 22. & xx. 14.

Ver. 23. creeping Things] Weſt. reptiles.

Ver. 28. try] properly; not like, as if from δοκέω, inſtead of δοκιμάζω.

Ver. 29. Spite] Being here a particular Vice, as Leigh ſays in Crit. Sac. and ſeems moſt aptly expreſs'd by this in Engliſh.

Ib. Miſchief] according to Leigh; who beſides remarks, that maliciouſneſs is comprized under envy next following.

Ver. 31. irreconcileable] Mills tries to prove the vulg. Lat. had not this, and thence concludes the Gr. had not.

Ver. 32. that thoſe] Some of the old Writers have it, with the vulg. Lat. which Mills through his Partiality to that contends to be the right Reading, did not underſtand that they——then after, and not only doing the ſame, but alſo conſenting to thoſe who commit them, however with Variation. The greateſt Pretence of Authority there is for it (ſince as to the Matter it is weaker than the received Reading) is from the 1ſt Epiſt. of Clement to the Corinthians, who Mills ſuppoſes ſaw the very Copy Paul ſent, as he wrote himſelf about ten Years after. Very well! but does Clement quote or mention it? Neither. Does he write the ſame as to the reſt of the Words? No, only Something like it, viz. caſting from our ſelves (for of them he ſpeaks, not of others) all Injuſtice, Iniquity, Covetouſneſs, Contentions, Depravity, and alſo Deceits, Whiſperings, and alſo Diſparagings, Hatred of God, Pride, and alſo Bragging, Vain-glory, and alſo Ambition (not the ſame as here in Rom.) For they committing theſe Things are hateful to God; and not only they committing the ſame, but they alſo conſenting to them (I render ſtrictly from the Original) in which is Nothing at all that conduces to this other Reading but δὲ and, and that the Connection of his Words required, ſo ſurely he might add it (ſuppoſing he made this Paſſage from Paul's) as well as he did greater Words not requiſite; and ſee Whitb. Exam.

Ver. 1. every] Mills thought was of ſome Expoſitor, not the Apoſtle's, tho' only wanting in the Syr. Prol. 1253. if there, ſince according to Whitby this is put to Excuſe, but in the Tranſ. of Trem. which I think Mills uſed is Son of Man, that is Son of for every one paraphraſtically.

Ver. 5. of the righteous Judgment] Many have and immediately before this, which is no Wonder then Mills ſhould hold for, but his Expoſition of it as ſo is rather abſurd than inſipid, Pr. 800. How eaſily might the and be repeated by Miſtake, the Writer having the firſt in his Mind!

6. Who will render to each according to his Works:

7. To them indeed everlaſting Life, who with Patience in good Works, ſeek for Glory, Honour and Incorruption;

8. But to thoſe Indignation and Wrath, that quarrel, and indeed diſobey the Truth, but obey Unrighteouſneſs:

9. Affliction and Diſtreſs, on every Soul of Man that does Evil, both to the Jew firſt, and then to the Grecian.

10. But Glory, Honour and Peace, to every one that works Good, both to the Jew firſt, and then to the Grecian.

11. For there is not Reſpect of Perſons with God.

12. For whoever have ſinned without the Law, will alſo periſh without it; and whoever have ſinned in the Law, will be judged by it

13. (Since the Hearers of the Law are not juſt with God, but the Doers of the Law will be juſtified.

14. For when the Gentiles, that have not the Law, do the Things of it by Nature, theſe not having the Law, are a Law to themſelves:

15. Who ſhew the Work of the Law written in their Hearts, their Conſcience teſtifying together, and the Thoughts accuſing, or elſe defending, between one another)

16. On the Day when God will judge the Secrets of Men, according to my Goſpel, by Jeſus Chriſt.

17. Lo thou art called a Jew, and reſteſt in the Law, and boaſteſt of God,

18. As alſo knoweſt his Will, and likeſt the Things that excel, being inſtructed out of the Law;

19. Nay art confident that thou thy ſelf art a Guide of the Blind, a Light of thoſe who are in Darkneſs,

20. An Inſtructer of the Fooliſh, a Teacher of little Children, who haſt the Form of Knowledge and Truth in the Law:

21. Doſt thou therefore that teacheſt another, not teach thy ſelf? Doſt thou ſteal, that preacheſt none ſhould ſteal?

22. Doſt thou that ſayeſt none ſhould commit Adultery, commit it? Doſt thou that abhorreſt Idols, commit Sacrilege?

23. Doſt thou who boaſteſt of the Law, by Tranſgreſſion of the Law diſhonour God?

24. For the Name of God through you, is blaſphemed among the Gentiles; as it is written.

25. Though Circumciſion indeed profits, if thou performeſt the Law; yet if thou art a Tranſgreſſor of the Law, thy Circumciſion is made Uncircumciſion.

26. If therefore one of Uncircumiſion keep the righteous Things of the Law, will not his Uncircumciſion be counted for Circumciſion?

27. And one of Uncircumciſion by Nature, that fulfils the Law, judge thee, who through the Letter and Circumciſion art a Tranſgreſſor of the Law?

28. For it is not a Jew in Appearance, nor Circumciſion in Appearance in the Fleſh;

Ver. 9, 10. Greeian] as Ch. i. 16. and different from that in Ver. 14, 24.

Ver. 12. without it] viz. that of Moſes; for without law indefinitely it could not be, Ch. iv. 15. & v. 13. as likewiſe the 14 and 15 Ver. here following ſhew.

Ver. 15. Parallel to which the great Philoſopher Seneca, Every Man has a Judge and Witneſs within himſelf, of all the Good and Ill that he does; which inſpires us with great Thoughts, and adminiſters to us wholeſome Counſels, Tranſ. by L'Eſtrange, p. 138.

Ver. 15. Conſcience] Of which Bp. Taylor in his Holy Living and Dying, 12th Edit. 1680. p. 25. God is eſpecially preſent in the Conſciences of all Perſons, Good and Bad, by way of Teſtimony and Judgment: that is, he is there a Remembrancer to call our Actions to mind, a Witneſs to bring them to Judgment, and a Judge to acquit or to condemn; as likewiſe Young's Night-Thoughts, Night 9.

Who Conſcience ſent, her Sentence will ſupport,
And God above aſſert that God in Man.

Ib. between one another] as the Gr. ſtands and ſignifies.

Ver. 17. Lo] Several have Now if, by the Gr. ei de for ide, which however Mills allows is wrong, Pr. 549, 642.

Ib. thou art] The Vulg. having, if thou art called a Jew, &c. Wall ſays that is the true Reading by the old MSS. and Authors, Crit. Not. p. 227. tho' they are only ſome Copies which Mills tells us from Theodoret read it interrogatively, and that Theod. diſapproved of.

Ver. 20. Law:] This being joined to the next, both by therefore, and the Senſe, with no greater a Partition.

Ver. 21. teach thy ſelf] Take the following from Pierce Plowman's Viſion, Step. 13.

Dowel quod this doctoure, is do as clarkes teach and dobet is he that teacheth, and traueleth to teach other
And, dobett doth himſelfe ſo, as he ſaith and preacheth.

Ib. ſteal] So Diogenes upon ſeeing the ſacred Remembrancers, as the Eng. Tranſlator of Laertius calls them, lead along a Man that had ſtolen a ſacrificing Bowl, ſaid, Do not the greater Thieves lead along the leſſer?

Ib. preacheſt] Weſt. proclaimeſt.

Ver. 25. performeſt] ſo the Gr. Word ſtrictly, which is not the ſame as in the next Verſe.

Ver. 26. one of] For whoſe elſe does his mean that follows?

Ver. 27. And] with no not in the Original here, but from the foregoing.

Ver. 28. it is not a Jew &c.] viz. that fulfils the Law, Ver. 27. The Reader may obſerve how much better theſe two Verſes are when rendered literally as here, than with the Tranſlators Additions; and he is not a Jew is not only falſe in it ſelf, but to what follows, &c.

Ib. nor Circumciſion] Wither in Song 48. ingeniouſly,

For he that either is baptiz'd,
Or circumciz'd in fleſh alone,
Is but as an uncircumciz'd,
Or as an unbaptized one.

29. But a Jew in Secret, and Circumciſion of the Heart, in the Spirit, not the Letter; whoſe Praiſe is not from Men, but from God.

CHAP. III.

WHAT is there over and above then to the Jew, or what the Profit of Circumciſion?

2. Much in every Manner, though chiefly indeed that they were intruſted with the Oracles of God.

3. For what if ſome did not believe? Will their Unbelief make the divine Faith void?

4. Far be it; but let God be true, and every Man falſe, as it is written, By which thou art righteous in thy Words, and overcomeſt in thy judging.

5. Yet if our Unrighteouſneſs commend the Righteouſneſs of God, what ſhall we ſay? Is God unrighteous who executes Wrath? I ſpeak according to Man.

6. Far be it; for then how will God judge the World?

7. For if the Truth of God has abounded in my Falſehood to his Glory, why am I yet alſo judged as a Sinner?

8. And may we not (as we are evil ſpoken of, and as ſome ſay we ſpeak) do Evil, that Good may come? Whoſe Condemnation is juſt.

9. What then? Have we the Preeminence? Not at all: for we have before convicted both Jews and Grecians, to be all under Sin.

10. As it is written: There is none righteous, not even one.

11. There is none who underſtands, is none who ſeeks God.

12. They are all turned aſide, are become uſeleſs together, there is none that does Good, there is not ſo much as one.

13. Their Throat is an open Grave, they have been deceitful with their Tongues, the Venom of Aſps is under their Lips.

14. Whoſe Mouth is full of Curſing and Bitterneſs.

15. Their Feet are ſwift for them to ſhed Blood.

16. Bruiſing and Wretchedneſs are in their Ways.

17. And the Way of Peace they have not known.

18. There is no Fear of God before their Eyes.

19. Now we know that what Things ſoever the Law ſays, it ſpeaks to thoſe in the Law; to the end that every Mouth may be ſtopped, and all the World may be under Judgment to God.

20. Therefore by the Works of the Law will not any Fleſh be juſtified before him: for through the Law is the Knowledge of Sin.

21. But now without the Law the Righteouſneſs of God is made manifeſt, which is teſtified both by the Law and the Prophets;

22. Even the Righteouſneſs of God by the Faith of Jeſus Chriſt, for all and on all who believe: ſince there is no Difference.

23. For all have ſinned, and are ſhort of the Glory of God;

24. Being juſtified for nothing by his Grace, through Redemption in Chriſt Jeſus:

25. Whom God before propoſed to be an Atonement, through Faith in his Blood, to ſhew his Righteouſneſs for the Pardon of Sins that are paſt;

Ver. 3. divine] as Chap. i. 17.

Ver. 4. By which] by their not believing, according as in Pſa. li. 4. from whence this is quoted; and the Signification of the Greek Word is given in the Lexicons, quomodo, that is how, in what manner or by which: this too is according to what follows, that Man's ſinning juſtifies and commends God's judging. Thus Men do not ſin, to the end or intent that God in condemning them ſhould judge juſtly.

Ib. overcomeſt] which Meaning, according to my Countryman Fuller, the LXX Interpreters, whom Paul follows, took from the Syriack, inſtead of the Heb. Miſ. Sacr. L. 1. 7.

Ib. thy judging] actively, as Beza tranſlates, and ſhews it ſhould be, as in Pſa. li.

Ver. 5. unrighteous] for puniſhing what becomes an Occaſion of his Praiſe.

Ver. 7. For] The Objection being continued in this and the next Verſe, from the 5th.

Ver. 8. may we not] Ham. and Wall would have it ſhould we not over ſtrongly, for not rather—Let us in the com. Tranſ. being unwarrantable, as well as very obſcure and incoherent; for why ſhould this be rather ſaid, than that in the foregoing Verſe?

Ib. Whoſe] theirs who do Evil, that Good may come; ſo this is an Anſwer, as there ought to be, to the preceding Objection: but the Author of the New Verſion renders it to belong to ſome, and others ſo interpret it.

Ver. 9. Not] not in this Reſpect, though in others, Ver. 1, 2.

Ib. before] Mills excludes by no great Authority.

Ver. 13. Their] On to the 19th Verſe is according to the Addition in the Gr. Septuag. Tranſ. after Pſa. xiv. 3. but not in Pſa. liii. which Addition might be made moſtly from Pſa. v. 9. & cxl. 3. & x. 7. Prov. i. 16. (or Iſa. lix. 7.) Pſa. xxxvi. 1. ſee Jerome and Amama on Pſa. xiv.

Ver. 15. for them] ſee Prov. i. 16.

Ver. 19. under Judgment to God] ſo the Gr. ſtrictly.

Ver. 21. teſtified] Weſt. atteſted.

Ver. 23. Glory of God] Happineſs by him, as Chap. v. 2.

Ver. 24. for nothing] according as rendered 2 Theſ. iii. 8. freely being equivocal.

Ib. Chriſt Jeſus] ſo the Gr. ſtands.

Ver. 25. before propoſed] the ſame as in Chap. i. 13.

26. In the Forbearance of God, to ſhew his Righteouſneſs at the preſent Time; that he might be juſt, and the Juſtifier of him who is of the Faith in Jeſus.

27. Where then is Boaſting? It is ſhut out. By what Law? Of Works? No; but by the Law of Faith.

28. We count therefore that a Perſon is juſtified by Faith, without the Works of the Law.

29. Is God he of the Jews only? And not alſo he of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles alſo.

30. Foraſmuch as it is one God, who will juſtify the circumciſed by Faith, and the uncircumciſed through Faith.

31. Do we then make the Law void through Faith? Far be it; on the contrary we make the Law ſtand.

CHAP. IV.

WHAT ſhall we ſay then, that our Father Abraham has obtained according to the Fleſh?

2. For if Abraham was juſtified by Works, he has what he may boaſt of; yet not to God.

3. For what ſays the Scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for Righteouſneſs.

4. Now to him that works, the Reward is not reckoned according to Grace, but according to Debt.

5. Whereas to him that does not work, but believes in him who juſtifies the Impious, his Faith is reckoned for Righteouſneſs.

6. According as David alſo ſpeaks of the Bleſſedneſs of the Man, to whom God reckons Righteouſneſs without Works;

7. They are bleſſed whoſe Iniquities are forgiven, and whoſe Sins are covered.

8. The Man is bleſſed to whom the Lord will not reckon Sin.

9. Is this Bleſſedneſs then on the Circumciſion, or alſo on the Uncircumciſion? For we ſay that Faith was reckoned to Abraham for Righteouſneſs.

10. How then was it reckoned? When he was in Circumciſion, or in Uncircumciſion? Not in the former, but in the latter.

11. And he received the Sign of Circumciſion, a Seal of the Righteouſneſs of the Faith in Uncircumciſion; for him to be the Father of all that believe through Uncircumciſion, for Righteouſneſs alſo to be reckoned to them;

12. And the Father of Circumciſion to thoſe who are not of the Circumciſion only, but alſo go on in the Steps of our Father Abraham's Faith in the Uncircumciſion.

13. For the Promiſe was not by the Law, to Abraham or his Offspring, that he ſhould be the Heir of the World, but by the Righteouſneſs of Faith.

14. Nay if the Heirs ſhould be of the Law, Faith would be in vain, and the Promiſe made void.

15. Becauſe the Law works Wrath: ſince where there is no Law, neither is there Tranſgreſſion.

16. Therefore this was of Faith, that it might be according to Grace; for the Promiſe to be firm to all the Offspring, not to thoſe of the Law only, but alſo to thoſe of the Faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us all,

17. (As it is written, Becauſe I have made thee the Father of many Nations) before God whom he believed, who makes the Dead alive, and calls Things that are not as if they were:

18. Who againſt Hope believed in Hope, that he might be the Father of many Nations; according to what is ſaid, So ſhall thy Offspring be.

19. And as he was not weak in Faith, he did not mind his own Body now become dead, being about a hundred Years old, and the Deadneſs of Sara's Womb.

Ver. 26. In the Forbearance of God] This, by Mills, only two Copies join to the foregoing.

Ib. of him who is of the Faith in Jeſus] Mills in Prol. 644. ſtretches the Critick's Authority ſo far, as to caſt out diſtant Words here by that alone, leaving this only to be by Faith, and his Account of it is too romantick to be tranſcribed.

Ver. 1. What] belonging to ſay, as in Ch. vi. 1. not obtained, for which a Comma is neceſſary before that, to make a Separation.

Ib. obtained] or acquired, or got, according as Commentators explain it.

Ib. has obtained according to the Fleſh] So the Words ſtand in the Original, and Wall ſays much more agreeably to the Scope of the Apoſtle here.

Ver. 5. the Impious] thoſe that were Ungodly, Eſſay for a New Tranſ. Chap. 10. p. 151, 152.

Ver. 14. and] ſlipt out of the Vulg. and now Mills would keep it out, Prol. 451.

Ver. 16. this] to wit Abraham's Heirſhip, Ver. 13. which therefore was &c. and the Original has τὸ τοῦτο this.

Ver. 17. Becauſe] Gr. ὅτι, as in Gen. xvii. 5. from whence this is cited.

Ib. before] that is to ſay from the preceding Ver. this was of Faith before God; after the Manner of Paul's writing in long Periods, and bringing in ſeveral Things between thoſe that belong to one another, eſpecially in this Epiſtle.

Ver. 19. did not mind] Mills writes that the genuine Reading is without not, for which he has one Copy, with a Verſion or two, and pleads Gen. xvii. 17. Pr. 933, 934. on the contrary that more likely gave Occaſion to the omitting not, while the Verb was miſtaken.

Ib. mind] The Verb coming from a Noun that ſignifies the Mind, and it appears he did barely conſider both theſe Things, but not regard them. Wall calls it a plain Inſtance of mind or weigh.

20. Nor

20. Nor was he in doubt at the Promiſe of God by Unbelief, but was ſtrong in Faith, giving Glory to God;

21. And aſſured that what he promiſed, he was able alſo to do.

22. Therefore alſo it was reckoned to him for Righteouſneſs.

23. Now it was not written for him only, that it was reckoned to him;

24. But likewiſe for us, to whom it will be reckoned, that believe on him who raiſed up Jeſus our Lord from the Dead;

25. Who was delivered up for our Offences, and raiſed up for our Juſtification.

CHAP. V.

BEING juſtified therefore by Faith, we have Peace with God, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

2. Through whom alſo we have Admittance by Faith, to this Grace in which we ſtand, and triumph in the Hope of the Glory of God.

3. Not only thus, but we triumph too in Afflictions; as we know that Affliction works Patience,

4. And Patience Experience, and Experience Hope:

5. And Hope makes not aſhamed; ſince the Love of God is ſhed forth in our Hearts, by the Holy Spirit given to us.

6. For when we were yet weak, Chriſt at the Time died for the Impious.

7. Though ſcarce any one would die for a mere honeſt Man, although perhaps Somebody would dare to die for a good one.

8. Whereas God ſo commends his Love to us, that when we were yet Sinners, Chriſt died for us.

9. Much more therefore as we are now juſtified by his Blood, we ſhall be ſaved from Wrath through him.

10. For if while we were Enemies, we were reconciled to God through the Death of his Son; much more when we are reconciled, ſhall we be ſaved by his Life.

11. Not only thus, but we alſo glory in God, through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, through whom we have received Reconciliation.

12. By this as Sin came into the World by one Man, and Death by Sin; ſo Death alſo has come on to all Men, for which all have ſinned.

13. For till the Law Sin was in the World; but Sin is not imputed, when there is no Law.

14. Nevertheleſs Death reigned from Adam to Moſes, even over thoſe that did not ſin in the Likeneſs of Adam's Tranſgreſſion; who is the Figure of him that was to be.

15. Yet the Offence is not the very ſame as the free Gift: for if by the Offence of one, many have died; much more has the Grace of God, and the Gift by Grace of one Man Jeſus Chriſt, abounded to many.

16. The Gift likewiſe is not as through one that ſinned: for the Judgment indeed was from one, to Condemnation; but the free

Ver. 20. by Unbelief] On the mere Faith of the Ethiopick Tranſ. Mills ſays this crept hither from the Marg. Prol. 1214. and his doubtful Reaſon that he propoſes, is either Way too light to be weighed.

Ver. 21. aſſured] as Leigh ſhews in Crit. Sac. and being in the com. Tranſ. ſpoils the Conſtruction.

Ver. 22. alſo] expelled by Mills as a Stranger, becauſe it had ſtepped forth with Somebody, Prol. 451.

Ver. 1. we have] With ſeveral it is let us have, by the Gr. long inſtead of the ſhort o; but being unſuitable to the Context both before and after, I don't find the Criticks accepting it, though in the vulg. Lat. and the Lapſe might be eaſy, by copying to the Sound.

Ver. 2. by Faith] is Comment, Mills ſays with weak Proof.

Ver. 5. makes not aſhamed] Weſt. ſhameth us not; and having [us] undiſtinguiſhed, as ſuch with him often, as though they were from the Original.

Ib. given to us] not allowed by Mills, from the Verdict only of two Copies generally alike; then 'tis taken perhaps from 1 John iii. 24. Prol. 451. but I am not diſpoſed to grant him ſo much as the perhaps, it is ſo utterly improbable. Who, ſays he, in writing it would omit ſuch notable Words? Would our Apoſtle then? But why ſo notable; given is in a manner included in ſhed forth, and to us in our, for which Reaſon they might be left out.

Ver. 6. weak] for which, and againſt our com. Tranſ. ſee what Gell ſays, Eſſay for Amendm. of Eng. Tranſ. p. 37, 38.

Ver. 7. Though] So Noldius in Concord. Heb. Part. gives to γὰρ the Meaning of quamvis, and particularly in this Verſe, as there is the like to כִּי Heb. with what the foregoing here requires.

Ib. honeſt Man] who wrongs or hurts Nobody; and righteous is here improper.

Ib. although] the ſame as before with καὶ added.

Ver. 11. glory] the ſame Word with that in Ver. 3.

Ib. Reconciliation] from the Verb in the foregoing Verſe; and atonement for us to receive improper, which God receives, according to Doddr.

Ver. 12. ſo Death] Wall writes on Ver. 15. The Apoſtle ſeems to me in all this Argument to ſpeak of temporal Death, not eternal, as the Conſequence of Adam's Sin to us; for which ſee alſo Whitby there more explicitly, and Hammond.

Ib. ſo—alſo] and ſo being improper.

Ib. Death] The latter Mills weakly rejects, ſcarce worth mentioning.

Ib. for which] as turned Phil. iii. 12. and their own Sin bringing Death, as well as Adam's, Ver. 14. Gen. vi. 5, 7, 13. & xix. 13. or in which i. e. Death, according to Ver. 21. the latter Word being the Gr. Relative or ſubjunctive Article.

Ver. 13. Sin is not imputed] as it might not then, in the Omiſſion of thoſe Things which the Law of Moſes added to Revelation and Morality, concerning Offerings, &c.

Ver. 14. in the Likeneſs of] viz. againſt poſitive outward Command, as Adam and thoſe under the Moſaical Law did.

Gift is from many Offences, to Juſtification:

17. For if by one Man's Offence Death reigned through one; much more will they, who receive Abundance of Grace, and of the Gift of Righteouſneſs, reign in Life through one Jeſus Chriſt.

18. Therefore indeed as through the Offence of one, there was for all Men to Condemnation; ſo alſo through the Righteouſneſs of one, there was for all Men to Juſtification of Life.

19. For as through the Diſobedience of one Man many were made Sinners; ſo through the Obedience of one will many be made righteous.

20. And the Law entered in, that Offence might increaſe; but where Sin increaſed, Grace abounded more:

21. That as Sin reigned in Death; ſo alſo Grace might reign through Righteouſneſs to everlaſting Life, by Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

WHAT ſhall we ſay then? Shall we remain in Sin, that Grace may increaſe?

2. Far be it; how ſhall we who are dead to Sin, yet live in it?

3. Are you ignorant, that whoever of us have been baptized into Chriſt Jeſus, have been baptized into his Death?

4. We are therefore buried with him by Baptiſm into Death; that as Chriſt was raiſed up from the Dead by the Glory of the Father, ſo we alſo may walk in Newneſs of Life.

5. For if we have been planted with him in the Likeneſs of his Death, we ſhall alſo be on the contrary of the Reſurrection:

6. As we know this, that our old Perſon is crucified with him, that the Body of Sin might be aboliſhed, for us henceforth not to ſerve Sin.

7. For he who is dead is made free from Sin.

8. And if we are dead with Chriſt, we believe that we ſhall alſo be alive with him:

9. Since we know that as Chriſt is raiſed up from the Dead, he dies no more, Death no more has dominion over him.

10. For as to what he died, it was to Sin once; but as to what he lives, it is to God.

11. So alſo do ye reckon your ſelves to be dead indeed to Sin, but alive to God in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

12. Let not Sin therefore reign in your mortal Body, to obey it in the Deſires of it.

13. Nor yield your Members for Inſtruments of Unrighteouſneſs to Sin; but preſent your ſelves to God as thoſe who are alive from the Dead, and your Members for Inſtruments of Righteouſneſs to God.

14. For Sin will not have dominion over you: ſince you are not under the Law, but under Grace.

15. What then? Shall we ſin, becauſe we are not under the Law, but under Grace? Far be it.

16. Do not you know, that to whom you yield your ſelves Servants in Obedience, you are Servants to him whom you obey, whether of Sin to Death, or of Obedience to Righteouſneſs?

Ver. 17. the Gift of] Three or four of the old Writers have miſſed this, who have often quoted careleſsly or by Memory; and Mills lays it on the Original, as not there at firſt.

Ver. 19. were made Sinners] This Hammond expounds by were ſubjected to Death, and Whitby made ſubject to Death, the latter undertaking to ſhew the Inconſiſtency of any other Senſe, with the Text, with Scripture, and with Reaſon, on which he argues ſtrenuouſly, and ſomething largely, in his Annot. notwithſtanding the 9th Article of Religion aſſerts, Original Sin is the Fault and Corruption of the Nature of every Man, and in every Perſon born into this World it deſerveth God's Wrath and Damnation.

Ib. made] Weſt. conſtituted.

Ver. 3. Chriſt Jeſus] ſo it ſtands in the Gr. and thus alſo in Ver. 11, & 23.

Ver. 4. by the Glory of the Father] miſſed by ſome of the Primitive Authors, but therefore to conclude with Mills it is a Comment, Pr. 451. may be reckoned raſh indeed; and if ſuch, it would likely have been without the Glory of.

Ver. 9. Since we know—as Chriſt is] Becauſe the Greek abounds in Participles, not only ſingle, but two, three, and even four together, different from the Genius of ours and other Languages, it is neceſſary to change them often into Conjunctions, which is our principal Manner of connecting the Parts of Sentences. Our Tranſlators being overpowered by them in the Hiſtorical Books, commuted them pretty ſufficiently, ſo far as rightly; but in the Epiſtles, where they are fewer, this appears much neglected, to the Diſadvantage of their Verſion.

Ver. 10. to Sin] Mills ſuſpected did creep from Ver. 2. only becauſe not in the Eth. Verſ. Shocking! and when ſo requiſite here. Since this is to, not for Sin, as 1 Cor. xv. 3. or differently in Gr. 1 Pet. iii. 18. I ſuppoſe it may mean to Sin in the World, which offended and grieved Chriſt.

Ver. 11. in] Calvin in his Commentary here ſays, 'I 'had rather keep the Words of Paul [in Chriſt Jeſus] for 'ſo the Grafting is better expreſſed, which makes us one 'with Chriſt.'

Ver. 12. in the Deſires of it] becauſe not with a few, Mills denounces it to be Commentary, not Text; but who would have reſtricted the general obey, excepting the Divine Penman himſelf?

Ver. 13. preſent] not the ſame Verb as before.

Ver. 16. to Death] thruſt out by Mills, on very ſlight Authority, Prol. 448.

17. But Thanks be to God, that notwithſtanding you are the Servants of Sin, you have been obedient from the Heart, to the Pattern of Doctrine which you have been committed to.

18. And when you were made free from Sin, you became Servants of Righteouſneſs.

19. I ſpeak as a Man, by reaſon of the Weakneſs of your Fleſh: for as you have preſented your Members Servants to Uncleanneſs and Iniquity, for Iniquity; ſo now preſent your Members Servants to Righteouſneſs, for Holineſs.

20. For when you were the Servants of Sin, you were free from Righteouſneſs.

21. What Fruit therefore had you then in the Things, of which you are now aſhamed? For the End of thoſe is Death.

22. Whereas now being made free from Sin, and become Servants to God, you have your Fruit to Holineſs, and the End everlaſting Life.

23. For the Wages of Sin is Death; but the Gift of God everlaſting Life, in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

ARE you ignorant, Brethren (for I ſpeak to them who know the Law) that the Law has dominion over a Man for as long Time as he lives?

2. For a Wife who is ſubject to a Man, is bound by the Law to him while he lives; but if the Man is dead, ſhe is made void from the Law in reſpect of him.

3. Therefore indeed if while the Man lives, ſhe becomes another Man's, ſhe is named an Adultereſs; but if her Man is dead, ſhe is made free from the Law, that ſhe may not be an Adultereſs, when ſhe does become another Man's.

4. So that, my Brethren, you alſo are made dead to the Law, by the Body of Chriſt; for you to be another's, who is raiſed up from the Dead, that we may bear fruit to God.

5. For when we were in the Fleſh, the Affections of Sins by the Law did work in our Members, to bear fruit to Death.

6. Whereas now we are made void from the Law, nay are dead in what we were held; ſo that we ſhould ſerve in Newneſs of Spirit, and not the Oldneſs of the Letter.

7. What ſhall we ſay then? The Law is Sin? far be it: on the contrary I did not know Sin, excepting by the Law; for I ſhould not even have known Coveting, except the Law had ſaid, Thou ſhalt not covet.

8. But Sin took occaſion by the Commandment, and wrought in me all Coveting; for without the Law Sin was dead.

9. And I was alive without the Law once; but when the Commandment came, Sin revived, and I died.

10. Thus the Commandment for Life, that was found to me for Death.

11. For Sin took Occaſion by the Com-

Ver. 17. that notwithſtanding] eſt abſurdiſſimum, ſays the judicious Caſtalio; agi Deo gratias de ſervituto peccati: it is very ridiculous to thank God for the Service of Sin, by putting the Thankfulneſs as for two Things, Defenſio ſuarum Tranſlationum, p. 18.

Ib. Pattern] as rendered Tit. ii. 7. Heb. viii. 5.

Ib. you have been committed] ſo the Gr. agreeable to Acts xx. 32. the Biſhops Tranſ. has yee were brought, Eraſmus, Beza and others as here; Weſley into which ye have been delivered. Gell ſays, It was a foul Overſight of the Tranſlators to render theſe Words, as in our preſ. Bib. Eſſay, p. 435 but it was much more likely as deſigned, if not from Regard to ſome Belief of their own, yet at leaſt for Want of a proper Expreſſion according to the Original.

Ver. 23. in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord] Although none but the Eth. Tranſ. is without this, yet Mills ſays (amazing to tell!) it ſeems to be ſome old Annotator's, Pr. 1215.

Ver. 1. he lives] Doddr. renders and pleads for it liveth, ſuppoſing the Law is repreſented as the firſt Huſband, Ver. 2, 3. which I take to be the Body of Chriſt that died, Ver. 4. and that raiſed up the ſecond Huſband, Ib. ſo Law repreſents Law, and ſee Beza.

Ver. 2. Even ſo (as in this Ver.) are oure conſcyences bound, ſays W. Tyndal in his large Prologe to this Epiſt. and in daunger to the lawe (by which he ſeems to mean outward Religion) under olde Adam the fleſh; as long as he lyueth in us.

Ib. from the Law in reſpect of him] Though Mills found no MS. Copy without any of this, he mentions the Law of as wanting in ſome from Curcellæus, and him or the Man in many from Grotius; but the firſt of thoſe Collectors of Various Readings names no particular Copy, and is doubtful beſides, as ſhewn in Wetſten's Proleg. 9, 52, 53. ſo that his Canon 13 reckons his Copies (not found elſewhere) but for one; and that Grotius did not examine any MS. Mills may be found giving his Opinion, or ſhewing, in different Places.

Ver. 4. to be another's] in the new ſpiritual Life, after being dead to the Law, according to Ver. 1, 6. & Gal. ii. 19. Wall ſays St. Paul means, The Law is become dead to you, which he apparently ſeems to have taken from Ham. and ſtamp'd, as other Things, with his Mark of Poſitiveneſs; but what is more injurious than ſuperficial Criticiſm, attended with Confidence?

Ver. 5. the Affections of Sins] Weſt. ſinful Paſſions.

Ver. 6. nay are dead] ἀποθανόντες plur. the Copies univerſally prefer, ſays Mills; for which ſee alſo Whit. Annot. but ſome printed Editions have ἀποθανόντος that being dead; as in the com. Tranſ.

Ib. Newneſs] not new Spirit more agreeable as Doddr. ſays, when the Holy Spirit.

Ver. 7. Coveting] This being a Noun of the Verb after, and ſhould ſurely agree.

Ver. 9. without the Law] From this Wall pleads it was not Paul himſelf, but that he here takes on him, to the End of the Chapter, the Perſon of a Man under the Law, and not yet influenced by the Spirit of Chriſt; ſo Ham. on Ver. 7. and Whitby on Ver. 25. very circumſtantially.

Ib. Commandment] When Chriſt's Spirit came, and expounded the Commandment to my Heart, Caryl on Job, Introd.

mandment,

mandment, and deceived me, and by that killed me.

12. So that the Law indeed is holy, as likewiſe the Commandment holy, juſt and good.

13. Was the Good then made Death to me? far be it; but Sin was that it might appear to be Sin, by working Death to me through the Good, that Sin through the Commandment might be made exceeding ſinful.

14. For we know that the Law is ſpiritual; but I am carnal, ſold under Sin.

15. For what I work, I acknowledge not: ſince what I would, that I perform not; but what I hate, that I do.

16. And if what I would not, that I do; I conſent to the Law, that it is good.

17. So now I work it no more, but it is Sin that dwells in me.

18. For I am ſenſible, that no Good dwells in me, that is in my Fleſh; ſince though to be willing is preſent with me, yet I find not how to work the Good.

19. For what Good I would, I do not; but what Evil I would not, that I perform.

20. And if what I would not, that I do; I work it no more, but it is Sin that dwells in me.

21. I therefore find a Law, that when I would do Good, Evil is preſent with me.

22. For I delight in the Law of God, according to the inward Perſon.

23. But I behold another Law in my Members, which makes war againſt the Law of my Mind, and takes me captive in the Law of Sin, that is in my Members.

24. A wretched Man I! Who ſhall deliver me from the Body of this Death?

25. I give thanks to God by Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Therefore indeed I my ſelf with the Mind ſerve the Law of God, but with the Fleſh the Law of Sin.

CHAP. VIII.

THERE is now therefore no Condemnation to thoſe that are in Chriſt Jeſus, who do not walk according to the Fleſh, but according to the Spirit.

2. For the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, has made me free from the Law of Sin and Death.

3. For it being impoſſible of the Law, in that it was weak through the Fleſh; God ſent his own Son in the Likeneſs of ſinful Fleſh, and for Sin, ſo condemned Sin in the Fleſh:

4. That the Righteouſneſs of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the Fleſh, but according to the Spirit.

5. For they that are according to the Fleſh, mind the Things of the Fleſh; and thoſe who are according to the Spirit, the Things of the Spirit:

6. For the fleſhly Mind is Death; and the ſpiritual Mind Life and Peace:

7. Becauſe the fleſhly Mind is Enmity to God; for it is not ſubject to the Law of God, ſince it cannot.

8. Thus they that are in the Fleſh cannot pleaſe God.

9. However you are not in the Fleſh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwell in you: whereas if any one has not the Spirit of Chriſt, he is not his.

10. Now if Chriſt be in you, the Body indeed is dead by reaſon of Sin, but the Spirit is Life by reaſon of Righteouſneſs.

11. Nay if the Spirit of him who raiſed up Jeſus from the Dead, dwell in you; he who raiſed up Chriſt from the Dead, will alſo make your mortal Bodies alive, by his Spirit that dwells in you.

Ver. 13. but Sin was] The com. Eng. Tranſ. is imperfect, by wrong Pointing and otherwiſe; Sin belonging to the foregoing Verb, as in Ver. 17.

Ib. that Sin &c.] that there might be a Sinner exceedingly, or Sin by the Commandment, in the ancient Ital. Verſ. as Mills ſays from Auguſtine, Pr. 549. only by the Miſtake of ἡ for ἁ and the Pointing.

Ver. 15. work] Here are three different Verbs.

Ver. 19. To this belongs the Comment of Jerome on Dan. ix. 5. Peccata populi, quia unus e populo eſt, enumerat ex perſona ſua, quod et Apoſtolum in epiſtola ad Romanos feciſſe legimus: he reckons up the Sins of the People from his own Perſon, as being one of them, which we read the Apoſtle has alſo done in Rom. vii.

Ver. 25. I give thanks to God] Mills finding three Copies with But Thanks to God, and hearing of one or two more quoted ſo, only without But, fixed on the latter for the genuine Reading; but the Vulg. and others have The Grace of God, tranſlating the Word for Thanks differently. Whereas the Number of Copies, Nothing forbidding, is our Security; yet ſee Whitby's Exam.

Ver. 1. who do not walk &c.] This to the End of the Verſe being omitted by a few, Mills ſays crept from Ver. 4. Raſh, and inconcluſive!

Ver. 3. it being] what ſpoiling the Senſe.

Ib. for Sin] where the Want of a Comma in the vulg. Tranſ. alters the Meaning, or makes none.

Ver. 6. For] to be referred to Ver. 4. as Ver. 3. is.

Ver. 8, 9. 'Cal fleſhe whatſoeuer (as longe as we are 'without the ſpirite of god) we thinke or ſpeke of god, 'of fayth of good worckes and of ſpiritual matters. 'Call fleſh alſo all worckes which are done without 'grace and without the working of the ſpiryte, how-'ſoeuer good holy and ſpirituall they ſeme to be,' Wm. Tyndal's Prologue to the Romaynes; where the next Paragraph is very remarkable, in Compariſon between the fleſhly and ſpiritual State, but what every one cannot hear, and as it ſtrikes particularly againſt the Papiſts, has the leſs Need to be recited.

Ver. 9. the Spirit of Chriſt] dwelling in him, Whitby's Paraph. and as is manifeſt from that before.

Ver. 11. by] This is a Various Reading with Mills, the Textual being becauſe of, for which ſee his Note and Prol. 642. yet on duly weighing them ours may ſubſide, eſpecially with the Teſtimonies of Orthodoxus and Beza.

12. Therefore indeed, Brethren, we are not Debtors to the Fleſh, to live according to it.

13. For if you live according to the Fleſh, you will die; and if by the Spirit you put to death the Deeds of the Body, you ſhall live.

14. Since thoſe are the Sons of God, whoever are led by his Spirit.

15. For you have not received the Spirit of Servitude again, to be in Fear; but have received the Spirit of Adoption, by which we cry, Abba, Father.

16. The Spirit it ſelf teſtifies with our Spirit, that we are the Children of God.

17. And if Children, then Heirs, thoſe certainly of God, and Heirs with Chriſt; if indeed we ſuffer together, that we may alſo be glorified together.

18. For I reckon, that the Sufferings of the preſent Time, are not worthy of the Glory that will be revealed to us.

19. Since the earneſt Expectation of the Creation, waits for the Revelation of the Sons of God.

20. Becauſe the Creation has been ſubject to Vanity, not willingly, but by reaſon of him who made it ſubject in Hope.

21. For the Creation it ſelf will alſo be ſet free from the Servitude of Corruption, into the glorious Freedom of the Children of God.

22. Foraſmuch as we know, that all the Creation both groans, and are in labour together, till now.

23. Not only ſo, but alſo our ſelves who have the Firſt-fruit of the Spirit, even we our ſelves groan in our ſelves, waiting for the Adoption, the Redemption of our Body.

24. For we are ſaved by Hope; but Hope that is beheld, is not Hope: ſince what any one beholds, why does he alſo hope for?

25. But if we hope for what we do not behold, we wait for it with Patience.

26. And in like Manner alſo the Spirit aſſiſts with our Weakneſſes: for we know not what we ſhould pray as we ought; but the Spirit it ſelf makes interceſſion for us, with our unſpeakable Groanings.

27. And he who ſearches the Hearts, knows what is the Mind of the Spirit; ſince he interceeds for the Saints agreeable to God.

28. We further know that all Things work together for Good, to thoſe who love God, to ſuch as are the called ones according to the Purpoſe.

29. Since whom he foreknew, he did alſo appoint before to be faſhioned to the Similitude of his Son, for him to be the Firſt-born among many Brethren.

30. Moreover whom he appointed before, theſe he did alſo call; and whom he called, theſe he did alſo juſtify; and whom he juſtified, theſe did he alſo glorify.

31. What ſhall we ſay then to theſe Things? If God is for us, who againſt us?

32. He indeed that did not ſpare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all; how ſhall he not likewiſe with him give us all Things?

33. Who ſhall make accuſation againſt the choſen ones of God? He juſtifies;

34. Who condemns? Chriſt has died, nay more is alſo raiſed up, who is alſo at the right Hand of God, who moreover interceeds for us.

35. Who ſhall ſeparate us from the Love of Chriſt? Affliction, or Diſtreſs, or Perſecution, or Famine, or Nakedneſs, or Danger, or the Sword?

36. As it is written, For thy ſake we are put to Death all the Day, are reckoned as Sheep for Slaughter.

37. On the contrary we more than overcome in all theſe Things, by him who loves us.

Ver. 13. Here Calvin himſelf in his Commentary, Eng. Edit. ſays, By this they are notably refuted, who brag of Juſtification by Faith without the Spirit of Chriſt.

Ver. 19. Creation] as Ver. 22. which alſo ſhews it is general.

Ver. 20. in Hope] being or while but in Hope perhaps: for our great Commentators, Hammond, Whitby, Wall, taking him who made ſubject not to be God, as truly it ſeems unlikely, ſince it is to Vanity, which appears to be evil; do, according to ſome printed Copies, ſuppoſe the Point of Partition ſhould be juſt before this, and all that from Sons of God hither as in a Parentheſis, this beginning the next thus, In Hope that the Creation &c. and indeed the Gr. Particle ſignifies that, as well as ſince or becauſe, nor are our Verſes, as being modern, of any Validity to hinder it. Yet looking on it as a Subterfuge to ſhun applying the foregoing to God, I think this may do it better, and not be againſt all the pointed MSS. all Verſions, &c. like that, beſides the Uncouthneſs of the Greek ſo; tho' I might have advanced my Tranſ. againſt the com. on thoſe Men's Authority and Arguments.

Ver. 26. Calvin again, We are blind in praying unto God. If any Man except, that there is a Rule preſcribed unto us in the Word of God; I anſwer, Our Affections nevertheleſs abide oppreſſed with Darkneſs, until the Spirit direct them by his Light. No Man of himſelf can conceive holy and godly Prayers. The Manner of praying well muſt needs be taught of the Spirit.

Ib. with our] as here before, and Ver. 23.

Ib. unſpeakable] but might be uttered.

Ver. 28. according to the Purpoſe] of God to call to his Service ſuch as follow, Ver. 29, 30.

Ver. 29. appoint before] according to his Foreknowledge, 1 Pet. i. 2.

Ver. 31. Where the great John Calvin once more, A godly Mind ought to ſtand upon the inward Teſtimony of the Spirit, and not depend upon external Things.

Ver. 37. overcome in] As Ignatius in his Letter to Polycarp (both Saint John's Diſciples) It is the Part of a brave Combatant, to be wounded, and yet overcome, Wake's Tranſ. but where to is wanting before overcome, elſe properly it is paſſive.

Ib. by him who loves us] becauſe of him who loved us, Vulg. three Copies, and ſome Authors; for which Mills pleads, eſpecially as being in the former. But his juſtifying it by our Love to Chriſt, is making it wrong, as that is beſide the Scope of the Matter, Ver. 39. and Beza on 35.

38. For I am perſuaded, that neither Death, nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, nor Powers, nor preſent Things, nor future ones,

39. Nor Height, nor Depth, nor any other Creature, can ſeparate us from the Love of God, in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

I SPEAK the Truth in Chriſt, I do not lye, my Conſcience teſtifying with me in the Holy Spirit;

2. That I have great Grief, and my Heart continual Sorrow:

3. For I could pray that I might be curſed from Chriſt, for my Brethren, my Relations according to the Fleſh;

4. Who are Iſraelites, whoſe are the Adoption, Glory, Covenants, giving of the Law, Service and Promiſes;

5. Whoſe are the Fathers, and from whom Chriſt was according to the Fleſh; who is over all, God bleſſed for ever: ſo let it be.

6. But ſuch a Thing cannot be, that the Word of God ſhould fail; for theſe are not all Iſrael, who are of Iſrael:

7. Nor that Abraham's Offspring are all Children; but of Iſaac it ſhall be called thy Offspring.

8. That is, the Children of the Fleſh, theſe are not the Children of God; but the Children of the Promiſe are reckoned for the Offspring.

9. For this is the Word of Promiſe, According to this Time I will come, ſo that Sara ſhall have a Son.

10. Not only ſo, but alſo Rebecca having Conception from one, our Father Iſaac;

11. For when the Children were not yet born, nor had done any Good or Evil, that the Purpoſe of God might remain according to Choice, not from Works, but from him who called;

12. It was ſaid to her, The elder will ſerve the younger:

13. As it is written, I loved Jacob, but I hated Eſau.

14. What ſhall we ſay then? Is there Unrighteouſneſs with God? Far be it.

15. For he ſays to Moſes, I will have mercy upon whom I will have mercy, as likewiſe have compaſſion upon whom I will have compaſſion.

16. Therefore indeed it is not of him that would, nor of him that runs; but of God who ſhews mercy.

17. For the Scripture ſays to Pharaoh, For this it ſelf I have ſtirred thee up, that I might ſhew my Power in thee, and that my Name might be declared in all the Earth.

18. Therefore indeed upon whom he will, he has mercy; and whom he will, he hardens.

19. Thou mayeſt therefore ſay to me, Why does he yet find fault? For who reſiſts his Will?

20. Nay indeed, O Man, who art thou that anſwereſt againſt God? Shall the Thing framed ſay to the Framer, Why doſt thou make me ſo?

21. Has not the Potter Power over the Clay, to make from the ſame Lump, one Veſſel indeed for creditable, and another for vile Uſe?

22. And if God was willing to ſhew Wrath, and make known his Power; he might in much Forbearance, bear with the Veſſels of Wrath become fit for Deſtruction:

23. And that he might make known the Riches of his Glory on the Veſſels of Mercy, which he prepared before for Glory;

24. Even us whom he has called, not only of the Jews, but alſo of the Gentiles.

25. As he ſays too in Oſee, I will call a People not mine my People, and her beloved that was not beloved:

26. And in the Place where it has been ſaid to them, You are not my People; there

Ver. 38. Powers] being the middle Word of five plural, and the confirmed Reading by Manuſcripts; ſo that it is ſtrange to find both Mills and Kuſter in Pref. doubting whether it ſhould not be Power, under the trifling Pretence that ι might be written for ι.

Ver. 39. any] Says Mills, this is not Paul's, Pr. 453. for you muſt know the Vulg. Lat. and two Exemplars, which may ſeem both made from that, have it not.

Ver. 5. God] Mills, according to his great Abilities, makes very undoubted Proof, againſt Eraſmus and Grotius, that this Word here is genuine; yet add Whit. in Annot.

Ver. 6. ſhould fail] Weſt. had fallen to the ground.

Ver. 10. Conception from one] The Vulg. and a few have, from one Copulation or Conception; but it does not appear to be ſo in any Gr. Copy, Veleſius ſometimes only making Gr. conformable to the Lat. and if it does ſeem to make the Argument more like the foregoing, concerning Iſaac and Iſhmael, as Wall pleads, that may make it more ſuſpicious; and I don't think it likely the aboveſaid, as being more modern, was altered to ours, which with the following makes a hardiſh Appoſition, tho' not infrequent in Scripture.

Ver. 11. the Children] which notes the Jews and Gentiles, ſays Ham. in Paraph. and Whitby, It is evident the Apoſtle ſpeaks not here of Jacob and Eſau perſonally, but nationally, Annot.

Ver. 16. runs] alluding perhaps to a Race, elſe runs on.

Ver. 17. ſtirred] ſee on Exod. ix. 16.

Ver. 18. whom he will] Weſt. whom he willeth both times.

Ib. he will] Two Copies (only) are without the latter, whereupon Mills ſays he can ſcarce think but that the Apoſtle's was, Pr. 1433. but theirs is much likelier an Abridgment.

Ib. hardens] or lets be hardened, as in Exod. vii. 3, &c. according to the Proteſtant Manner of interpreting Scripture by it ſelf. Otherwiſe, and if this be underſtood of particular Perſons; as thoſe whom God has mercy upon are conſequently Sinners, ſo they that in Juſtice he hardens, are to be ſuppoſed worſe Sinners; but the Apoſtle's Argument ex abundanti leads us to take it, as written of the Gentiles and Jews, particularly ſee Chap. xi. 25.

ſhall they be called the Sons of the Living God.

27. Nay Eſaias cries concerning Iſrael; If the Number of the Iſraelites is as the Sand of the Sea, it is the reſt will be ſaved.

28. For he will finiſh the Matter, and cut ſhort in Righteouſneſs; ſince a Matter cut ſhort will the Lord make in the Country.

29. And as Eſaias ſaid before, Unleſs the Lord of Armies had left us Offspring, we ſhould have been as Sodoma, and ſhould have been like Gomorra.

30. What ſhall we ſay then? That the Gentiles who did not purſue Righteouſneſs, have obtained it, even the Righteouſneſs which is by Faith;

31. But Iſrael that purſued the Law of Righteouſneſs, has not come to it.

32. For what reaſon? Becauſe it was not by Faith, but as it were by the Works of the Law; for they ſtumbled at the Stone of Stumbling.

33. As it is written, Behold I lay in Sion a tripping Stone, and a ſtumbling Rock; and every one who believes on him ſhall not be aſhamed.

CHAP. X.

BRETHREN, the good Will indeed of my Heart, and Supplication to God in behalf of Iſrael is, for their Salvation.

2. For I teſtify to them, that they have a Zeal of God, but not according to Knowledge.

3. Since they being ignorant of God's Righteouſneſs, and ſeeking to ſet up their own Righteouſneſs, are not ſubject to that of God.

4. Becauſe Chriſt is the End of the Law for Righteouſneſs, to every one who believes.

5. For Moſes writes down the Righteouſneſs which is of the Law, that the Man who does theſe Things ſhall live by them.

6. Whereas the Righteouſneſs which is of Faith ſpeaks thus; Thou ſhalt not ſay in thy Heart, Who ſhall go up into Heaven? that is to bring down Chriſt;

7. Or, Who ſhall go down into the Deep? that is to bring back Chriſt from the Dead:

8. But what does it ſpeak? The Word is near thee, in thy Mouth and Heart; that is the Word of Faith which we preach;

9. That if thou ſhalt confeſs the Lord Jeſus with thy Mouth, and ſhalt believe with thy Heart that God has raiſed him up from the Dead, thou wilt be ſaved.

10. For by the Heart there is believing to Righteouſneſs, and by the Mouth is confeſſing to Salvation.

11. Since the Scripture ſays, Every one who believes on him ſhall not be aſhamed.

12. Becauſe there is no Difference too of Jew and Grecian; ſince the ſame Lord of all is rich towards all who call upon him.

13. For every one that ſhall call on the Name of the Lord will be ſaved.

14. How therefore ſhall they call upon him in whom they have not believed? And how ſhall they believe whom they have not heard of? And how ſhall they hear without a Preacher?

15. And how ſhall they preach if they are not ſent? As it is written, How beautiful will be the Feet of them who preach Peace, who preach good Things!

16. But all have not obeyed the Goſpel; for Eſaias ſays, Lord, who has believed our Report?

17. Therefore Faith is from Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of God.

Ver. 28. will finiſh] Gr. is finiſhing, with is underſtood, which Grotius not conſidering, I ſuppoſe, made the Miſtake mentioned in the next Note.

Ib. in Righteouſneſs; ſince a Matter cut ſhort] All this Grotius, with Ham. Mills and Wall approving, would caſt out of the genuine Reading, being not in three MSS. and ſo many Verſ. as taken from the Sept. at Iſa. x. 22, 23. from whom Paul quoting is likely to uſe their Words; and that for and ſince or becauſe ſtanding as here are abſurd, which Grot. and Ham. pretend, I don't ſee, but rather that the other is ſo, when the above is left out; which I could ſcarce tranſlate better than, For finiſhing the Matter, and cutting ſhort, the Lord will do it in the Country: then the Query will ariſe do what? or to what does do refer that is before? ſince not to finiſhing or cutting ſhort, becauſe they are in the nom. Caſe, and Participles to Lord.

Ib. in the Country] as in Iſa. x. 23. from whence it is quoted.

Ver. 29. Armies] ſabaoth, which unlearned People miſtake for ſabbath, is the Gr. Word of the Sept. whom Paul followed, in Iſa. i. 9. for the Heb. zevaoth; not only ſo, but the Meaning of it might be well known then to Gr. Readers, beyond what it is to Eng. ones; and the early Edit. of 1613 in 4to. having ſabboth both here and James v. 4. may raiſe a Doubt concerning our laſt Tranſlators themſelves.

Ver. 32. of the Law] This a few Copies leave out, and even the Vulg. Lat.

Ver. 1. Iſrael] by ſome Copies them.

Ver. 2. their own] without Righteouſneſs here by ſome, which Mills doubted of; when no Doubt might be made, but that it was occaſioned by the Mention of the Word in this Ver. beſide, and not being of Neceſſity in the preſent Station; otherwiſe than by the Uſe of putting the Subſtantive to this Adjective in Gr. which they nor he ſeemingly did not enough conſider.

Ver. 5. the Righteouſneſs which is of the Law] Mills ſays Somebody inſerted that it might anſwer to what is in the next Verſe, only becauſe the Eth. Verſ. has it not.

Ib. theſe Things—them] Mills affirms both theſe are of Gal. iii. 12. Pr. 1248. the firſt an Addition, and the latter for it, as ſome have; but might be owing moſtly to the Authority of the Vulg. ſee likewiſe Whit. Exam.

Ver. 17. Therefore] as if the laſt Verſe was added like as in a Parentheſis.

18. But I ſay, Have they not heard? Nay indeed the Sound of thoſe is gone forth into all the Earth, and their Words into the Ends of the World.

19. But I ſay, Has not Iſrael known? Firſt Moſes ſays, I will make you jealous with thoſe who are not a People, will provoke you by a ſilly Nation.

20. Nay Eſaias is ſo bold as to ſay; I am found of thoſe that did not ſeek me, am made manifeſt to them who did not aſk for me.

21. Whereas he ſays to Iſrael, I have ſpread forth my Hands all the Day, to a diſobedient and contradicting People.

CHAP. XI.

I SAY then, Has God caſt away his People? Far be it; for I am alſo an Iſraelite, from Abraham's Offspring, of the Tribe of Benjamin.

2. God has not caſt away his People whom he knew before. Do not ye know what the Scripture ſays of Elias? How he interceeds with God againſt Iſrael as follows,

3. Lord, they have ſlain thy Prophets, and thrown down thy Altars; and I being left alone, they ſeek my Life:

4. But what ſays the divine Anſwer to him? I have left to my ſelf ſeven thouſand Men, who have not bowed the Knee to Baal.

5. So then alſo at the preſent Time, there is a Reſidue according to the Choice of Grace.

6. And if by Grace, no more from Works; for then Grace would no more be Grace: but if from Works, it is Grace no more; for then Work no more is Work.

7. What then? Though Iſrael has not obtained this which it ſeeks for, the Choice obtained, and the reſt were hardened.

8. As it is written, God has given them the Spirit of ſound Sleep, Eyes not to ſee, and Ears not to hear, to this Day.

9. David likewiſe ſays; Let their Table become a Snare, a Gin, an Offence, and a Recompence to them.

10. Let their Eyes be darkened not to ſee, and bend down their Back continually.

11. I ſay then, Have they ſtumbled, that they may fall? Far be it: but by their Offence there is Salvation to the Gentiles, to make them jealous.

12. Now if their Offence be the Riches of the World, and their Defect the Riches of the Gentiles; how much more their Fulneſs?

13. For I ſpeak to you Gentiles; in how much indeed I am the Apoſtle of the Gentiles, I glorify my Miniſtry:

14. If I may any how make thoſe of my Fleſh jealous, and ſave ſome of them.

15. For if the caſting of them away be the Reconciliation of the World; what will the Reception be, but Life from the Dead?

16. Thus if the Firſt-fruit is holy, the Lump alſo: and if the Root be holy, alſo the Branches.

17. If ſome of the Branches too have been broken off, and thou being a wild Olive-tree, haſt been grafted in among them, and made Partaker of the Root and Fatneſs of the Olive-tree;

18. Do not boaſt againſt the Branches: nay if thou ſhouldeſt, thou doſt not bear the Root, but the Root thee.

19. Thou mayeſt ſay then, The Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20. Well! they were broken off by Unbelief, and thou ſtandeſt by Faith; be not high-minded, but fear.

21. For if God did not ſpare the Branches according to Nature, neither would he any how ſpare thee.

22. See then the Kindneſs and Sharpneſs of God: on them indeed who fell Sharpneſs; but on thee Kindneſs, if thou remaineſt in the Kindneſs; elſe thou too wilt be cut off.

23. Nay they alſo, if they do not remain in Unbelief, will be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24. For if thou waſt cut off from the wild Olive-tree according to Nature, and grafted into the good Olive-tree beſide Nature; how much more may theſe, which are according to Nature, be grafted into their own Olive-tree?

25. For I would not have you ignorant, Brethren, of this Myſtery (leſt you ſhould think

Ver. 6. but if from Works &c.] to the End of the Verſe is not in 5 or 6 Copies, 2 or 3 Verſions, and a few old Authors, nay counted ſpurious by Eraſmus, Grotius, Mills, &c. yet methinks there is more Credit due to many than few of equal Evidence at leaſt, and I ſuſpect the Vulg. was one that influenced the others too much; there is alſo perhaps more Reaſon to be given, and conſequently more Probability, for the Omiſſion than the Addition, the former might be becauſe the Senſe of theſe Words is included in the foregoing, and becauſe they are a Digreſſion from the Point purſued; but to be added merely for Antitheſis ſeems little, and too little to prevail with ſo many; Whitby's Examen and Annot. may alſo be ſeen.

Ver. 8. God has given them] who had firſt hardened their Hearts againſt God, according to Ham. but Whitby explains given by permitted to.

your ſelves wiſe) that there is Hardneſs in Part to Iſrael, till the Fulneſs of the Gentiles ſhall come in.

26. And ſo all Iſrael will be ſaved: as it is written; The Redeemer ſhall come out of Sion, and turn away Impiety from Jacob.

27. And this ſhall be the Covenant with them from me, when I put away their Sins.

28. According to the Goſpel indeed, they are Enemies by reaſon of you; but according to the Choice, Beloved by reaſon of the Fathers.

29. For the Gifts and Calling of God will not be repented of.

30. For as once alſo you diſobeyed God, yet now you have obtained mercy by their Diſobedience:

31. So alſo theſe now have diſobeyed, that by your Mercy they too may obtain mercy.

32. For God has ſhut up all into Diſobedience, that he may have mercy upon all.

33. Oh the Depth of the Riches, both of the Wiſdom and Knowledge of God! How unſearchable are his Judgments, and inſcrutable his Ways!

34. For who has known the Mind of the Lord? Or who has been his Counſellor?

35. Or who gave to him before, that he may recompenſe him?

36. Since from him, and by him, and for him all Things are. To him be Glory for ever: ſo let it be.

CHAP. XII.

I BESEECH you then, Brethren, by the Mercies of God, to preſent your Bodies a Sacrifice, living, holy, well-pleaſing to God, being your reaſonable Service.

2. And be not faſhioned to this World; but be transformed by the Renewing of your Mind, for you to experience what is the Will of God, good, and well-pleaſing, and perfect.

3. For I ſay, by the Grace given me, to every one who is among you, not to think above what he ſhould; but to think ſoberly, as God has diſtributed to each a Meaſure of Faith.

4. For according as in one Body we have many Members, and all the Members have not the ſame Work:

5. So we being many are one Body in Chriſt, and each one Members of one another.

6. Thus as we have Gifts, different according to the Grace given us; whether Prophecy, let it be according to the Proportion of Faith;

7. Or Miniſtry, let it be in miniſtring: or to be a Teacher, in teaching;

8. Or an Exhorter, in Exhortation; he who diſtributes, let it be in Simplicity; who rules, in taking care; who ſhews mercy, in Chearfulneſs.

9. Let Love be unfeigned: abhor what is evil, join to what is good.

10. With brotherly Friendſhip be friendly affectionated one to another, preferring one another with Honour;

11. Not ſlothful in taking care, fervent in the Spirit, ſerving the Lord;

12. Rejoicing in Hope, enduring in Affliction, continuing in Prayer;

Ver. 26. will] ſhould or might, Vulg. &c. by the Change of a Letter, which bids pretty fair to be right, as Mills would have it, Pro. 449. if not over curious, as I gueſs it is: for though it may be the right Meaning, it may not be the right Word, the Weight of Copies overballancing it, and will may bear ſuch a Senſe conditionally; but I rather think it a Prophecy, according to that quoted from Iſa. lix. 20. that Iſrael in general would embrace the Goſpel; and Whitby in an Appendix to this Chap. againſt the different Opinions of Lightfoot and Hammond, argues largely, and as it may ſeem clearly, for the future Converſion of the Jews.

Ver. 29. not be repented of] The vulg. Lat. without Repentance, writes Beza, obſcura et periculoſa quoque interpretatione, is darkly and alſo dangerouſly tranſlated.

Ib. Diſobedience] from the foregoing Verb, and thus rendered Eph. ii. 2. & v. 6. Col. iii. 6. being different from that in Ver. 20, 23.

Ver. 32. ſhut up all] Wall finds fault that the Eng. add [them] in a wrong Senſe, as if it were meant peculiarly of the Jews; but Paul, ſays he, means both Jews and Gentiles, as likewiſe others expound it. As for the Verb, the Latin of it being concludo, which ſignifies to ſhut up, and accordingly rendered in the old Lat. the Popiſh Tranſlators of Rhemes turned it into Eng. concluded, and our laſt followed them; but if they loſt the determinate Meaning in Imitation, no Wonder that the Commentators not finding it, ſlip over the Word: did they mean ſhut up or included, as they ſhould mean, but which concluded does not mean? Or determined, as concluded indeed ſignifies, but would want here to be added to make up the Senſe? Or did they mean any Thing elſe that makes no Senſe? Or meant they Nothing at all, only anglicized the Lat. Word?

Ib. all—all] maſc. or Men after the com. Gr. but according to ſome neut. or Things, as at John xii. 32.

Ver. 3. given me] I think added, ſays Mills, from 1 Cor. iii. 10. Pr. 1215. when it is quite another Matter there, and this abſent only in the Eth. Tranſ.

Ver. 8. Or] not in the Vulg. and two or three Codes, ſo condemned by Mills, Pr. 453. though more likely ſhould be there, beſides the Weight of Books for it.

13. Imparting to the Needs of the Saints, purſuing Hoſpitality.

14. Bleſs them that perſecute you: bleſs, and not curſe.

15. Rejoice with thoſe who rejoice, and weep with ſuch as weep.

16. Be of the ſame mind one to another: mind not high Things, but be brought off along with lowly ones: do not think your ſelves wiſe;

17. Rendering to none Evil for Evil, providing good Things before all Men:

18. If poſſible, what you can, be at peace with all Men.

19. Not revenging your ſelves, Beloved; but give Place to Wrath: for it is written, To me belongs Vengeance, I will recompenſe, ſays the Lord.

20. Therefore if thy Enemy be hungry, feed him; if he be thirſty, give him drink: for by doing this, thou wilt heap Coals of Fire on his Head.

21. Be not overcome of Evil; but overcome Evil by Good.

CHAP. XIII.

LET every Perſon be ſubject to the ſuperior Powers: for there is no Power but by God; and the Powers that are, be appointed by him.

2. So that he who oppoſes the Power, reſiſts the Appointment of God; and they that reſiſt, will receive Condemnation to themſelves.

3. For Rulers are not the Fear of good Works, but of evil; wilt thou not then fear the Power? Do Good, and thou wilt have Praiſe from the ſame;

4. For ſuch a one is the Miniſter of God to thee for Good: but if thou doeſt Evil, fear; for he bears not the Sword in vain, ſince he is the Miniſter of God, the Revenger for Wrath to him who commits Evil.

5. Therefore it is neceſſary to be ſubject, not only by reaſon of Wrath, but alſo becauſe of Conſcience.

6. For by reaſon of this alſo pay Taxes; for they are the Miniſters of God, continuing for this very Thing.

7. Render therefore to all the Dues, Tax to whom there is Tax, Cuſtom to whom Cuſtom, Fear to whom Fear, Honour to whom Honour.

8. Owe Nothing to any, except it be to love one another: ſince he that loves another has fulfilled the Law.

9. For this, Thou ſhalt not commit Adultery, thou ſhalt not murder, thou ſhalt not ſteal, thou ſhalt not give Evidence falſely, thou ſhalt not covet, and if there be any other Commandment, it is collected together in this very Saying, Thou ſhalt love thy Neighbour as thy ſelf.

10. Love works no Ill to a Neighbour; therefore Love is the fulfilling of the Law:

11. And this, knowing the Seaſon, that already it is the Time for us to awake from Sleep; for now our Salvation is nearer than when we firſt believed.

12. The Night is gone on, and the Day

as he did this, to the preſ. vulg. Lat.. Next Mills relating that our κυρίῳ was written by Contraction κῳ, but never the other καιρῷ, thence it might be that κῳ being likewiſe the firſt and laſt Letters of Time in Gr. was taken for it, and on Suppoſition that the Apoſtle would not mention ſuch a common well known Thing as ſerving the Lord, neither of which can be ſaid on the contrary. Thirdly, the great Superiority of Manuſcripts, Verſions, and Primitive Writers for Lord, is viſible in Mills's own Account. Fourthly, ſerving the Time is ſo odd an Expreſſion, that though ſome good Senſe may be put upon it, will ſcarce admit of any, unleſs the Words are receded from, by making ſerving and Time to mean Something elſe. Fifthly, the Gr. Word for Time might probably be firſt tranſcribed from the other by Overſight, and then on Suppoſition that Nobody would do that deſignedly, might be followed by ſome; ſee alſo Whitby, Lib. ii. Cap. 1. Sect. 1.

Ver. 13. Needs] With two or three Copies and ſome of the ancient Authors it is Remembrances or Memories, which Mills would have to be the Original Writing, becauſe ſomewhat obſcure (but ſuppoſed to mean the Needs of the abſent Saints) and ſo made plainer by Somebody afterwards, He brings Clement for it, with far leſs Countenance, than for that in Ch. 1. ult. And Whitby ſays, Nobody favours that Reading beſides the Latin Fathers of the fourth and fifth Age, after the Manner and Cuſtom prevailed of celebrating the Memories of the Martyrs, and frequenting their Sepulchres by a corrupt Superſtition, Examen, Lib. ii. Cap. 1. Sect. 1

Ib. purſuing] ſo the Gr. Word ſignifies, or perſecuting as in the next Verſe.

Ver. 19. give] rather is unaccountably added in the laſt com. Tranſ.

Ver. 20. Coals] See Prov. xxv. 22. and Beza here.

Ver. 1. the Powers that are] they that are, without Powers, by ſome, which Mills ſays crept from the former Part of the Verſe, Pr. 1287. to whom Whiby's Anſwer may be ſufficient; but Wall's Aſſertion is a Monſter of the Kind, that this Word Powers is not in any old Copy; when no more than four or five Gr. Copies of all Sorts are without it: the ſame he ſays at Ch. xiv. 6. where it is the ſame.

Ver. 9. thou ſhalt not give Evidence falſely] crept ſays Mills from Mat. xix. 8. as not indeed with ſeveral; but where the Members thus begin with the Repetition of not, one might be miſſed in tranſcribing, and it may be ſafeſt to keep to the many more that have this.

Ver. 10. Wither well in Hymne 83.

Love is that bleſſed Cymment, Lord
Which muſt us re-unite;
In bitter ſpeeches, fire, and ſword,
It never took delight:
The Weapons thoſe of Malice are,
And they themſelves beguile,
Who dreame that ſuch ordained were
Thy Church to reconcile.

Ver. 11. firſt believed] or began to believe, as began to reign often in the Hiſtory of the Kings by one Heb. Word.

draws near: let us therefore put off the Works of Darkneſs, and put on the Armour of Light.

13. As in the Day let us walk comely; not in Revelling and Drunkenneſs, not in Leachery and Wantonneſs, not in Contention and Jealouſy.

14. But put you on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and make no Providing for the Fleſh in Luſts.

CHAP. XIV.

RECEIVE one weak in the Faith, not in Debates of Reaſonings.

2. One indeed believes he may eat all Things, but another being weak eats Herbs.

3. Let him who eats, not deſpiſe him that does not eat; and let him that does not eat, not judge him who eats: for God has received him.

4. Who art thou that judgeſt another's Servant? To his own Maſter he ſtands, or falls: and he will be made to ſtand; for God is able to make him ſtand.

5. One indeed judges one Day is above another; and one judges every Day is alike: let each be aſſured in his own Mind.

6. He who minds a Day, minds for the Lord; and he that does not mind a Day, does not mind for the Lord: he who eats, eats for the Lord, ſince he gives thanks to God; and he that does not eat, does not eat for the Lord, and give thanks to God.

7. For none of us lives for himſelf, and none dies for himſelf.

8. Since if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for him: therefore both if we live, and if we die, we are the Lord's.

9. Becauſe for this Chriſt as well died, as roſe up, and revived; that he might have dominion both over the Dead and Living.

10. Why then doſt thou judge thy Brother? Or why doſt thou even deſpiſe thy Brother? For we ſhall all ſtand before the Judgment-ſeat of Chriſt.

11. For it is written, By my living, ſays the Lord, to me every Knee ſhall bow, and every Tongue confeſs to God.

12. Therefore indeed each of us ſhall give Account for himſelf to God.

13. Let us not henceforth therefore judge one another; but judge this rather, not to put a Stumbling to a Brother, or an Offence.

14. I know, and am perſuaded by the Lord Jeſus, that Nothing is polluted by reaſon of it ſelf; unleſs to him that reckons any Thing polluted, to whom it is ſo.

15. Now if thy Brother is grieved becauſe of the Meat, thou no more walkeſt according to Love: do not deſtroy him with thy Meat, for whom Chriſt died.

16. Let not your Good therefore be ſpoken evil of.

17. For the Kingdom of God is not Meat and Drink, but Righteouſneſs, Peace and Joy, in the Holy Spirit.

18. For he who ſerves Chriſt in theſe Things, is well-pleaſing to God, and approved with Men.

19. Therefore indeed let us purſue the Things of Peace, and thoſe of Edification one to another.

Ver. 13. Leachery] So the Gr. Word ſeems to mean, as elſewhere a Bed and Conception, and as Whitby quotes it from the great Lexicographers Phavorinus and Heſychius, the Luſt of Women; but chambering is a ſtrange made Word.

Ver. 1. in Debates] in ſeeming more ſuitable both to the Senſe and Gr. than to; nor is there any thing of doubtful, ſays Wall.

Ver. 3. received him] either the former or latter.

Ver. 6. and he that does not mind a Day, does not mind for the Lord] all wanting in ſome, which is not to be wondered at, conſidering the ſame is affirmatively juſt before; but it may be wondered that ſeveral Criticks ſhould think it added in, which ſeems ſo improbable after the foregoing.

Ib. for the Lord] each of them doing what he does religiouſly.

Ib. give] belonging to does not before: very obſcure, if contrary, in the com. Eng.

Ver. 9. as roſe up, and revived] Mills inſtead of this would have the genuine Reading be as lived, Pr. 763. a few (though only one Copy) being without the firſt Conjunction and Verb, and many having the latter ſo; but it ſeems abridged in Conformity to the reſt of the Context, this being unaccountable to be added and altered out of that Conformity. The Notion of Eſtius that roſe up was written in the Marg. to explain revived, and then inſerted in a wrong Place, n. before inſtead of after it, might be a Fancy to pleaſe himſelf; and the Vulg. with one or two more leaving out and revived, might be another Attempt at the Conformity before-mentioned.

Ver. 10. then] and not but, makes a ſuitable Connexion.

Ib. deſpiſe] as Ver. 3.

Ver. 16. your] with a few our, which Mills votes for to be authentick, though he acknowledges it alſo leſs ſuitable.

Ver. 17. but Righteouſneſs, Peace and Joy, in the Holy Spirit] How expreſſive and emphatical! What need, what can, there be better and more? Conſidering too that Kingdom it ſelf includes Sovereignty, Power, and Honour, as of God does (to make it true Happineſs) Divine. Thus Young now in Cent. not fab. Let. 4. The firſt Moment we take God for our Protector, and his precious Promiſes for our chief Portion; our Superiors even Kings, ſhrink to Men, and Crowns imperial loſe their Luſtre. Little Things are little, and leave our Hearts at reſt.

Ib. in] or through, as Pſa. v. 11.

20. Deſtroy

20. Deſtroy not the Work of God for the ſake of Meat. All Things indeed are clean; but it is evil to the Perſon who eats by Offenſiveneſs.

21. It is good not to eat Fleſh, nor drink Wine, nor that in which thy Brother ſtumbles, or is offended, or weak.

22. Haſt thou Faith? Have it according to thy ſelf before God: he is bleſſed who does not judge himſelf in what he likes.

23. Whereas he that doubts is condemned, if he eat, becauſe not of Faith; ſince every Thing which is not of Faith is Sin.

CHAP. XV.

WE then who are ſtrong, ought to bear the Infirmities of the weak, and not to pleaſe our ſelves.

2. For each of us ſhould pleaſe a Neighbour, for Good to Edification.

3. For even Chriſt did not pleaſe himſelf; but, as it is written, The Reproaches of thoſe who reproach thee have fallen upon me.

4. For whatever Things were written before, were done for our Teaching; that through the Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures, we might have Hope.

5. And the God of Patience and Comfort, cauſe you to be of the ſame Mind one to another, according to Chriſt Jeſus;

6. That you may unanimouſly with one Mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

7. Therefore receive one another, as Chriſt alſo has received us, to the Glory of God.

8. I further ſay, that Jeſus Chriſt was the Miniſter of the Circumciſion, for the Truth of God, to confirm the Promiſes to the Fathers;

9. Moreover that the Gentiles might glorify God for Mercy, as it is written, For this reaſon will I confeſs thee among the Gentiles, and ſing melodiouſly to thy Name.

10. And again he ſays, Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his People.

11. Again likewiſe, Praiſe the Lord, all you Gentiles, and give him thanks, all People.

12. Nay again Eſaias ſays, There will be a Root of Jeſſe, and one who will ſtand up to rule over the Gentiles, in him the Gentiles will hope.

13. Now the God of Hope fill you, with all Joy and Peace in believing; for you to abound in Hope, by the Power of the Holy Spirit.

14. And I my ſelf alſo am perſuaded concerning you, my Brethren, that ye your ſelves too are full of Goodneſs, filled with all Knowledge, able alſo to admoniſh one another.

15. But I have written to you the more boldly, Brethren, in Part, as reminding you, by reaſon of the Grace given me from God;

16. For me to be the Miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt to the Gentiles, exerciſing the Goſpel of God; that the Offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, being ſanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17. I have therefore to boaſt in Chriſt Jeſus, of Things belonging to God.

18. For I will not dare to ſpeak Aught of what Things Chriſt has not wrought through me, for the Obedience of the Gentiles, in Word and Work;

Ver. 20. Deſtroy] The com. Eng. ſounds like Indicative to meat, and I have known it taken ſo.

Ver. 21. or is offended, or weak] One MS. three oriental Verſions, &c. are without both theſe, and Mills declares altogether rightly, and afterwards tells us (which who then can ſcruple?) that Somebody noted in the Marg. ſtumbles to be the ſame as is offended or weak, and ſome Scribe thinking that was Part of the Text, tranſmitted it into the Body of the Epiſtle, Pr. 1204. but which of the two, or himſelf, uſed the moſt Judgment, would ſtill remain a Doubt. Oh that ever wiſe Men ſhould ſo ſacrifice Senſe to the Idol Imagination!

Ver. ult. In divers Exemplars are found next to this, the three laſt Verſes of the Epiſtle.

Ver. 4. written before] Mills ſays Somebody changed the ſimple written into this, Pr. 1287. although there is not one Copy that has it ſo, but two or three Verſions and a few Writers, as may be expected when that is in the vulg. Lat.

Ver. 6. unanimouſly] which is likewiſe one Word in the Gr.

Ib. the God and Father] as in Eph. i. 3. the Gr. Article for the being at God, not at Father; for which ſee alſo Eph. i. 17.

Ver. 9. among the Gentiles] O Lord, is added in 11 or 12 Copies, 3 Tranſlations, &c. as Mills ſays from Pſa. xviii. 49.

Ver. 12. again] ſeemed to Mills inſerted from thoſe above, Pr. 1215. yet only the Verſ. Eth. is without it, the Tranſlator perhaps leaving it out, becauſe Eſaias did not ſay any of that quoted before; whereas this belongs to the Matter, not the Perſon.

Ver. 13. in believing] Mills feared was a Comment, Pr. 1288. while he found but two Copies (Kuſter one more ſince) no Verſion, nor Author leaving it out. Among ſo many Omiſſions that are made, why might not this be one?

Ver. 14. your ſelves too) Theſe, ſays Mills, are of ſome Explainer, Pr. 450. What did he explain? Did any Body not underſtand the Meaning of you? If it be retorted, What did Paul then put it for? The Anſwer is as ready, To make it fuller, and more nervous; which a Commentator would ſcarce have added to the Text for.

Ib. alſo] wanting in three Books of the four that the foregoing was, and ſo has ſhared the like Fate from Mills, Ib.

Ver. 17. Chriſt Jeſus] ſo the Gr. Order is, which in K. James's Tranſ. ſeems to haye been altered by Careleſſneſs.

19. By the Power of Miracles and Wonders, in the Power of the Spirit of God: ſo that from Jeruſalem, and round about to Illyricum, I have fulfilled the Goſpel of Chriſt.

20. Nay I endeavoured to preach ſo, where Chriſt was not named, that I might not build on another's Foundation;

21. But as it is written, Thoſe to whom it has not been told concerning him ſhall ſee, and they that have not heard ſhall underſtand.

22. Therefore alſo I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23. But now as I have Place no longer in theſe Regions, and have a Longing to come to you;

24. When I go into Spain, I will come to you: for going along I hope to ſee you, and be conducted thither by you, if I have firſt my fill of you in Part.

25. However now I am going to Jeruſalem, to miniſter to the Saints.

26. For thoſe of Macedonia and Achaia have thought well, to make ſome Contribution for the Poor of the Saints at Jeruſalem.

27. They have thought well indeed, and are their Debtors: for if the Gentiles have partaken of their ſpiritual Things, they ought alſo to miniſter to them in carnal Things.

28. When I have therefore accompliſhed this, and ſealed this Fruit to them, I ſhall come by you into Spain.

29. And I know that when I come to you, I ſhall come in the Fulneſs of the Bleſſing of Chriſt's Goſpel.

30. So I beſeech you, Brethren, by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and by the Love of the Spirit, to ſtrive with me, in Prayers for me to God;

31. That I may be delivered from the Unbelievers in Judea, and that my miniſtering for Jeruſalem may be acceptable to the Saints;

32. That I may come to you in Joy by the Will of God, and may be at reſt with you.

33. Now the God of Peace be with you all: ſo let it be.

CHAP. XVI.

AND I commend to you Phebe our Siſter, who is a Miniſter of the Church at Cenchrea;

2. That you would receive her in the Lord, as is worthy of Saints, and ſtand by her in whatever Matter ſhe has need of you: for ſhe has alſo been an Entertainer of many, and of me my ſelf.

3. Salute Priſcilla and Aquila, my Fellow-workers in Chriſt Jeſus:

4. Who for my Life laid down their own Necks; to whom not I only give thanks, but likewiſe all the Churches of the Gentiles:

5. As alſo the Church at their Houſe. Salute Epenetus my Beloved, who is the Firſt-fruit of Achaia to Chriſt.

6. Salute Mary, that laboured much for us.

7. Salute Andronicus and Junia, my Relations and Fellow-priſoners; who are noted among the Apoſtles, that alſo were in Chriſt before me.

8. Salute Amplias, my Beloved in the Lord.

9. Salute Urbane our Fellow-worker in Chriſt, and Stachys my Beloved.

10. Salute Apelles approved in Chriſt. Salute thoſe of Ariſtobulus.

11. Salute Herodion my Kinſman. Salute thoſe of Narciſſus, that are in the Lord.

12. Salute Tryphena and Tryphoſa, that labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Perſis, who has laboured much in the Lord.

Ver. 19. of God] Although this is abſent but in one Copy, beſide ſome that have Holy for it, yet Mills counts that one only right, Pr. 453.

Ver. 20. endeavoured to preach] Vulg. preached, by Omiſſion, as Mills confeſſes, Pr. 549.

Ver. 24. I will come to you: for] ſome leave out, I ſuppoſe becauſe Paul was prevented in his Intention, yet he came to them in another Manner.

Ver. 27. They have thought well indeed] which being a Repetition, is omitted in two or three Copies, yet Mills ſuſpected it made from the foregoing Ver. in Pr. 1288. but his Argument, that it was done, becauſe otherwiſe it would not be clearly underſtood who were the Debtors, the Inhabitants of Macedonia and Achaia, or the Saints of Jeruſalem, does not appear to have any Foundation; ſince that might be eaſily known, though on the contrary theſe Words rather obſcure it, by coming between the Saints and theſe.

Ib. indeed] when For would be thus repeated, which to avoid, our Tranſlators left it out.

Ib. have partaken] Weſt. have partook ungrammatical: ſo having been wrote, on 1 Cor. xvi. 21. and have drank.

Ver. 29. —'s Goſpel] omitted by ſome, and wildly imagined by Mills to be taken from Ver. 19.

Ver. 30. the Love of the Spirit] by which I underſtand his Love to us, not only as the moſt excellent Senſe, but moſt ſuitable to Jeſus Chriſt before.

Ver. 1. a Miniſter] ſo rendered firſt by Tyndal, and afterwards by the Biſhops under Q. Elizabeth in their Bible, nay in ſeveral other Places of the preſ. Tranſ. as likewiſe by Eraſm. and Bez. miniſtra, and Caſt. miniſtram, Calv. faithful miniſter.

Ver. 3. Fellow] as Ver. 7. nay the ſame whole Gr. Word is rendered in the com. Tranſ. work-fellow, Ver. 21. and the like elſewhere.

Ver. 5. Achaia] Some have Aſia, which as well as Wall, even Whitby is for, and Mills is poſitive this came from 1 Cor. xvi. 15. but on the other hand Achaia being there, ſeems far more likely the Occaſion of altering it here to Aſia, as being ſpoken of different Perſons; and can it be imagined any would alter Aſia here, to be the ſame as there? Yet Paul might write this of the firſt Perſon, that of the firſt Family in Achaia, which I think may be quite ſatisfactory.

Ver. 6. us] The Vulg. and ſeveral have you, yet Mills pleads for ours to be right, Pr. 1064. and look Whit. Exam.

Ver. 7. Relations] Junia being a Woman.

13. Salute Rufus choſen in the Lord, with his Mother and mine.

14. Salute Aſyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the Brethren with them.

15. Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his Siſter, as alſo Olympas, and all the Saints with them.

16. Salute one another with a holy Kiſs. The Churches of Chriſt ſalute you.

17. And I beſeech you, Brethren, watch them that make Diſſenſions and Offences, contrary to the Doctrine which you have been taught, and turn aſide from them.

18. For ſuch do not ſerve our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, but their own Bellies; and by kind Speech, and ſpeaking well of them, deceive the Hearts of the Harmleſs.

19. For your Obedience is come to all; I therefore rejoice for you: yet I would have you indeed be wiſe in Good, but innocent in Evil.

20. And the God of Peace will bruiſe Satan under your Feet quickly. The Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you: ſo let it be.

21. Timothy my Fellow-worker, with Lucius, Jaſon, and Soſipater, my Relations, ſalute you.

22. I Tertius, who write the Epiſtle, ſalute you in the Lord.

23. Gaius the Landlord of me, and of the whole Church, ſalutes you. Eraſtus the Steward of the City ſalutes you, and Quartus a Brother.

24. The Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all: ſo let it be.

25. Now to him who is able to eſtabliſh you; according to my Goſpel, and the Preaching of Jeſus Chriſt; ſuitable to the Revelation of the Myſtery kept ſilent in ancient Times;

26. But now made manifeſt, and by the Scriptures of the Prophets, according to the Command of the Everlaſting God, made known to all the Gentiles, for Obedience of the Faith;

27. To the only Wiſe God be Glory, by Jeſus Chriſt, for ever: ſo let it be.

It was written to the Romans from Corinth, ſent by Phebe, a Miniſter of the Church at Cenchrea.

Ver. 13. mine] for the Care ſhe has taken of me, Wall's Crit.

Ver. 14. Hermas] There is a Treatiſe of ſome Length as his, called The Shepherd of St. Hermas, which ſee in Eng. with Wake's Genuine Epiſtles. It is reckoned to be written eleven Years after this to the Romans.

Ver. 16. The Churches] to which ſome have all, and Mills counted rightly. This is a little unuſual, ſince the various Readings generally leſſen ours. There might be ſome Motive for leaving out, and I confeſs I don't ſee much for putting in all, unleſs it was done from the preceding Verſe, which might be the Caſe.

Ver. 18. ſpeaking well of] ſo it rightly ſignifies, and not fair ſpeeches. Four or five Copies being without this with and, Mills raiſes a Scruple of its being put in the Marg. for the Interpretation of kind Speech, and then taken into the Text with and added; but if ſo, muſt be wilfully done.

Ib. Harmleſs] as in Heb. vii. 26. not ſimple.

Ver. 19. innocent] the Gr. Word is uſed beſides, Mat. x. 16. Phil. ii. 15. where, as well as by its Etymology, it does not appear to mean ſimple.

Ver. 25. Theſe three laſt Verſes have been ſuppoſed to be joined to the End of Chap. xiv. with which Paul firſt ended, then added the reſt as a Poſtſcript, and that Somebody afterwards removed this Concluſion hither; becauſe ſeveral Manuſcripts and ancient Commentaries have them there. For Marcion (called) the Heretick's rejecting theſe two Chapters is not to be regarded, ſince it is not likely either that the Apoſtle ſhould omit the Salutations, or any other add ſo many.

Ib. ancient Times] ſee of it on 2 Tim. i. 9.

Sub. It was written] which the Gr. is, as to the Philippians and Titus. Theſe Subſcriptions are not only without Authority, but as will appear ſometimes without Truth; being made by one Euthalius a Deacon, A. D. 458, Mills Prol. p. 90.

Ib. Corinth] ſituate at the Entrance into the South of Greece, from the North, from whence it appears written by Ch. xvi. 23. with 1 Cor. i. 14. & 2 Tim. iv. 20. and the Date of the Epiſtle is to be referred to the three Months mentioned in Acts xx. 3. An. Dom. 58, next after the Epiſtles to the Corinthians, but placed firſt in Order, as being larger; compare 1 Cor. xvi. 1, 3, 4. with Ch. xv. 25, 26. of this Epiſt.

NOTES upon the First Epistle of PAUL to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, called to be an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the Will of God, and Sosthenes a Brother;

2. To the Church of God that is at Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be Saints, with all who in every Place call on the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both theirs and ours.

3. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4. I give thanks to my God always for you, for the Grace of God given you in Christ Jesus;

5. That in every Thing you are enriched in him, in all Speech and all Knowledge:

6. As the Testimony of Christ was confirmed in you.

7. So that you are not behind in any Gift, waiting for the Revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8. Who will also confirm you blameless till the End, at the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9. God is faithful, by whom you were called into the Communion of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10. And I beseech you, Brethren, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you would all speak the same, so that there may not be Divisions among you, but you may be compleated both in the same Mind and Opinion.

11. For it has been declared to me concerning you, my Brethren, by those of Chloe, that there are Contentions among you.

12. So this I mention, that each of you says, I indeed am Paul's, and I Apollos's, and I Cephas's, and I Christ's.

13. Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the Name of Paul?

14. I give thanks to God, that I baptized none of you, excepting Crispus and Gaius:

15. Lest any one should say, that I baptized in my own Name.

16. And I also baptized the Family of Stephanas; I know not further, whether I baptized any other.

17. For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach; not with Wisdom of Speech, lest the Cross of Christ should be made void.

18. For the Speech of the Cross is to them indeed that perish, Foolishness; but to us who are saved, it is the Power of God.

19. For it is written, I will make the Wisdom of the wise Men perish, and abolish the Understanding of the learned ones.

20. Where is the wise Man? Where the Scribe? Where the Disputer of this Age? Has not God made the Wisdom of this World foolish?

21. For as in the Wisdom of God, the World by Wisdom did not know God; he was pleased by the Foolishness of Preaching to save those who believe.

22. Since even the Jews ask for a Sign, and the Grecians seek Wisdom.

Tit. Corinthians] These two Epistles, written about five Years after those to the Thessalonians, claim the Priority in Time of all the other Books; Mills, as likewise Pearson, states them A. D. 57, and this a little before the Passover, by Ch. xvi. 8. & v. 7, 8.

Ver. 1. called] Merely for not being in three Copies, and the Lat. of two of them, Mills fancied this was inserted from the Beginning of Rom. Pr. 1288. but then would not it likewise have been added to 2 Cor. &c?

Ver. 2. theirs and ours] viz. their and our Lord Jesus Christ, as Whitby says from the Ancient Interpreters.

Ver. 4. in Christ Jesus] so the Gr.

Ver. 7. Revelation] not coming.

Ver. 8. blameless till] This Adjective belonging to the former Part of the Verse.

Ver. 10. Brethren] Only because two of the Primitive Writers omitted this Word in Quotation, Mills peremptorily pronounces it is not Paul's, Prol. 630. which is slenderer than his common slender Pretences against our received Reading, and when he had a little before mentioned another of those Writers quoting too negligently, by Memory, in short, or to the Sense, Pr. 616. Instances of which also see in Whitby's Examen, Cap. 1.

Ver. 12. Paul's, &c.] as in the com. Transf. Chap. iii. ult.

Ver. 18. Speech] the same as in the foregoing Verse, and Chap. ii. 1.

Ib. indeed] Mills cites four Translations and two Authors, for this Particle not being in the Original, and thence concludes it should not be there, being thrust in, Pr. 454, What a parallel Proof he might have had in our com. Eng. &c. that it is not in the Orig. now!

Ib. us] them by omitting the Pronoun in a few, whose Part our great Critick above takes, Ib.

Ver. 20. Age] different from the following.

Ver. 21. as] which does not signify after that as I find in Scripture. Gen. seeing, vulg. Lat. &c. quia, because.

23. Whereas

23. Whereas we preach Chriſt crucified; to the Jews indeed Offence, and to the Grecians Fooliſhneſs;

24. But to thoſe who are called, both Jews and Grecians, Chriſt the Power of God, and the Wiſdom of God,

25. Becauſe what is fooliſh of God is wiſer than Men, and what is weak of God is ſtronger than Men.

26. For you behold your Calling, Brethren, that there are not many wiſe according to the Fleſh, not many powerful, not many noble.

27. But God has choſen the fooliſh Things of the World, that he might confound the wiſe; as he has the weak Things of it, that he might confound the ſtrong ones;

28. Nay the baſe Things of the World, and contemptible has God choſen, and Things which are not, that he might make void the Things which are:

29. To the end that no Fleſh may boaſt before him.

30. But you are of him in Chriſt Jeſus; who is made to us Wiſdom by God, with Righteouſneſs, Sanctification and Redemption:

31. That, as it is written, Let him who boaſts do it in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

AND when I came to you, Brethren, I did not come according to the Eminence of Speech or Wiſdom, declaring to you the Teſtimony of God.

2. For I did not determine to know any Thing among you, excepting Jeſus Chriſt, and him crucified.

3. Moreover I was with you in Weakneſs, Fear, and much Trembling.

4. My Speech alſo and Preaching, was not in enticing Words of human Wiſdom; but in the Demonſtration of the Spirit, and of Power:

5. That your Faith might not be in the Wiſdom of Men, but in the Power of God.

6. However we ſpeak Wiſdom among the Perfect; yet not the Wiſdom of this World, nor of the Rulers of it, who become void.

7. But we ſpeak the Wiſdom of God in a Myſtery, the hidden, which God fore-appointed before the Ages, for our Glory:

8. Which none of the Rulers of this World knew; for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory.

9. But as it is written, The Eye has not ſeen, nor the Ear heard, nor has it come up in the Heart of Man, what Things God has prepared for thoſe who love him.

10. Nevertheleſs God has revealed by his Spirit: for the Spirit ſearches all Things, even the deep Things of God.

11. For what of Men knows the Things of Man, excepting the Spirit of Man in him? So alſo none knows the Things of God, excepting the Spirit of God.

12. And we have not received the Spirit of the World, but the Spirit from God; that we might know the Things given us by God.

13. Which Things alſo we ſpeak, not in the Words taught of human Wiſdom, but in thoſe taught of the Holy Spirit, comparing ſpiritual Things with ſpiritual.

14. Whereas a natural Man does not receive the Things of the Spirit of God: for they are Fooliſhneſs to him; and he cannot know, ſince they are ſpiritually judged of.

15. But a ſpiritual one indeed judges of all Things; yet he himſelf is judged of by Nobody.

Ver. 28. and Things] This and Mills would turn off, not found in four Copies, &c. Pr. 1491. though ſo needful.

Ver. 4. and of Power] None but the Eth. Tranſ. being without this, Mills ſays it is credible that it was added by Occaſion of in the Power of God in the next Ver. Pr. 1215. What Imagination is here!

Ver. 7. the Ages] being plural in the Gr. and the Lat. ſecula, as all render it, the ſame; ſo likewiſe the late Eng. Tranſ.

Ver. 9. what Things] not the things themſelves entered, the Verb before being ſingular.

Ver. 11. what] The Gr. has not man here, nor in the latter Part of the Verſe, which is making the Spirit in both Places a Man. Μερὶς or δύναμις may be underſtood, to be what Part or Faculty.

Ver. 13. Holy] though omitted by ſome, and thence only ſeemed to Mills an Addition, may not to others with me.

Ver. 14. of God] Some Primitive Writers leave out, for Diſpatch of Quotation probably, and as the Spirit may be underſtood without, as alſo one Copy and Verſ. whence Mills denies it to be the Apoſtle's own, Pr. 455, 737.

Ib. ſpiritually judged of] How oppoſite to that of Hammond in New Light, Sect. 26. bound up with his Annotations, 'The underſtanding the Word of God contained 'in the Scripture, muſt be attained by the ſame means, 'or the like, by which other writings of men are ex-'pounded, and no otherwiſe?'

Ib. judged of] the ſame as in the next Verſe.

Ver. 15. indeed] as that in Ch. i. 18.

Ib. judged of] viz. rightly, as judges before. Hammond to ſhun the Force of this Text, which ſtood in his Way as at Acts ii. 17 ſays in Poſtſ. of New Light, Sect. 12. He that is ſpiritual is ſuch an one, as is ſaid to have received the Spirit which is of God, Ver. 12. Certainly. And, adds he, Such were the Apoſtles and others of that time. Very true again; but is there any neceſſary Conſequence from thence, that none in after Ages would or could be ſpiritual? God forbid! and rational inference which he names Sect. 1. does not require it, but the contrary, ſince without the Spirit of God the Things of God cannot be known, Ver. xi. 12. and a ſpiritual here is oppoſed to a natural Man in the foregoing Verſe, which Diſtinction ſurely ſtill continues; and I hope ſome love God now, Ver. 9.

16. For

16. For who has known the Mind of the Lord, that may inſtruct him? However we have the Mind of Chriſt.

CHAP. III.

AND I, Brethren, could not ſpeak to you as ſpiritual, but as carnal, as Babes in Chriſt.

2. I have fed you with Milk, and not Meat: for hitherto you could not bear it, nay neither yet can you now.

3. For you are yet carnal: for where there is among you Jealouſy, Contending and Diſſenſions, are not you carnal, and walk according to Man?

4. For when Somebody ſays, I indeed am Paul's, and another, I Apollos's, are not you carnal?

5. Who then is Paul, and who Apollos, but Miniſters by whom you have believed, even as the Lord gave to each?

6. I planted, Apollos watered; but God cauſed to grow.

7. So that neither he that plants is any Thing, nor he that waters, but God who cauſes to grow.

8. Nay he that plants, and he that waters, are one, and each will receive his own Reward according to his own Labour.

9. For we are Workers together of God: you are God's Huſbandry, God's Building.

10. According to the Grace of God given me, as a wiſe Maſter-builder I have put the Foundation, and another builds up; but let each look how he builds up.

11. For none can put another Foundation, beſide what is laid, which is Jeſus Chriſt.

12. Now if any one build up on this Foundation, Gold, Silver, precious Stones, Wood, Hay, Stubble;

13. The Work of each will be made manifeſt: for the Day will declare, ſince it will be revealed by Fire, which will prove of what Kind the Work of each is.

14. If any one's Work ſhall remain which he builds up, he will receive a Reward.

15. If any one's Work ſhall be burnt up, he will ſuffer loſs; yet he himſelf may be ſaved, but ſo as by Fire.

16. Do not ye know that ye are the Temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwells in you?

17. If any one ſpoils the Temple of God, him will God ſpoil: for God's Temple is holy, which you are.

18. Let none deceive himſelf; if any one ſeems to be wiſe among you in this Age, let him become fooliſh, that he may become wiſe.

19. For the Wiſdom of this World is Fooliſhneſs with God: for it is written, He takes the Wiſe in their Craftineſs;

20. And again, The Lord knows the Imaginations of the Wiſe, that they are Vanity.

21. So that none ſhould boaſt in Men: for all Things are yours,

22. Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the World, or Life, or Death, or preſent Things, or future Things, all are yours.

23. And you are Chriſt's, and Chriſt is God's.

CHAP. IV.

LET a Man ſo count us, as Miniſters of Chriſt, and Stewards of the Myſteries of God.

2. But further, there is ſought for in Stewards, that any one ſhould be found faithful.

3. Yet to me it is for a very ſmall Thing, that I ſhould be judged of by you, or by Man's Day: whereas neither do I judge of my ſelf.

Ver. 2. Milk——Meat] Our two great (Proteſtant) Tranſlators, viz. Caſtalio and Beza, fall out concerning theſe being the ſame or not; which ſee together in the Defence of the former, p. 133, &c.

Ib. and] ſeveral want, whom Mills ſeems to hold with, Pr. 631.

Ver. 3. and Diſſenſions] not in three or four Copies, three Verſions, &c. ſo thought by Mills to be brought from Gal. v. 20. but in Prol. 986 or 987. he ſays it crept from the Marg. as if it were, according to what he writes in other Places, a Scholium or Expoſition; ſo that the Inconſiſtency may ſtrengthen, more than the whole ſtagger us; neither are theſe three Nouns any how in this Order in Gal. v.

Ver. 5. to each] ſo the Gr. only and in Ver. 8. the new Verſ. has to each of them.

Ver. 6. I planted, Apollos watered] according to the Narration in Acts xviii. 1, 11, 18, 24, 27. & xix. 1.

Ib. Apollos] Former Editions of our laſt Tranſ. have it Apollo, ſo that Wall wondered what the Tranſlator of this Epiſtle ailed, that he muſt call him ſo, and not Apollos, as in Acts, and as the Gr. Name is.

Ver. 9. of God] as God's after, not with; which Doddr. calls an improper Rendering on every Account, and againſt which ſee alſo Beza.

Ver. 10. and] Two Copies are without, I ſuppoſe becauſe δὲ is repeated; the Reader may find it more unaccountable, that Mills ſhould think the Original at firſt without ſo neceſſary a Connection, and on ſo ſmall Authority, Pr. 455.

Ib. builds up] rendered only build in the com. Tranſ. Ver. 12. which has alſo here a Pronoun there— for its Object twice, that is not in the Gr. thereon and thereupon may alſo ſeem different.

Ver. 11. put] not the ſame Verb as the following.

Ver. 13. by Fire] which the Marg. of the Gen. Tranſ. has, By the triall of Gods Spirit,

Ver. 3. judged of] The Gr. Verb anacrino ſignifying properly judge of, as crino Ver. 5. does judge. But the common of is old for by.

Ib. Man's Day] viz. for ſuch judging, but by God's; the Original Word not ſignifying judgment.

4. For I am conſcious of Nothing to my ſelf; yet am not I juſtified in this, but it is the Lord judges of me.

5. So that judge you not any Thing before the Time, till the Lord comes, who will both make light the hidden Things of Darkneſs, and make manifeſt the Counſels of the Hearts; and then there will be Praiſe to each from God.

9. Now theſe Things, Brethren, I have transformed to my ſelf and Apollos by reaſon of you; that you may learn in us, not to mind above what is written, that none may be puffed up for one againſt another.

7. For who diſtinguiſhes thee? And what haſt thou which thou didſt not receive? And now if thou didſt receive, why doſt thou boaſt, as if thou hadſt not?

8. You are ſatisfied already, are rich already, have reigned without us; and I wiſh indeed you did reign, that we alſo might reign with you.

9. For I think, that God has ſhewn us Apoſtles the laſt, as appointed to Death; ſince we are made a Show to the World, Angels and Men.

10. We are Fools for Chriſt, but you are wiſe in Chriſt; we are weak, but you are ſtrong; you are glorious, but we diſhonourable.

11. Till the preſent Hour we are both hungry and thirſty, as alſo naked and beat, and do wander about;

12. Moreover we labour, working with our own Hands: being railed at, we ſpeak well to; being perſecuted, we bear;

13. Being ſpoken ill of, we intreat: we are made as the Scum of the World, the Filth of all Things till now.

14. I do not write theſe Things to ſhame you, but as my beloved Children I warn.

15. For though you ſhould have ten thouſand Schoolmaſters in Chriſt, yet not many Fathers: for I begot you in Chriſt Jeſus by the Goſpel.

16. I therefore beſeech you, be Imitators of me.

17. For this I have ſent to you Timothy, who is my beloved Child, and faithful in the Lord; who will put you in remembrance of my Ways in Chriſt, as I teach every where in every Church.

18. Now ſome are puffed up, as if I would not come to you;

19. Whereas I will come quickly to you, if the Lord is willing; and will know, not the Speech of thoſe that are puffed up, but the Power.

20. For the Kingdom of God is not in Speech, but in Power.

21. What would you? I ſhould come to you with a Rod, or in Love, and the Spirit of Meekneſs?

CHAP. V.

IT is wholly heard there is Whoredom among you, and ſuch Whoredom which is not mentioned among the Gentiles, that any one ſhould have a Father's Wife.

2. And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this Deed might be put out from amongſt you.

3. For I indeed, as abſent in Body, but preſent in Spirit, have already judged, as if preſent, him that has ſo acted this;

4. In the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, when you are aſſembled together, and my Spirit, with the Power of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt,

5. That ſuch a one ſhould be delivered to Satan, for the Deſtruction of the Fleſh, that the Spirit may be ſaved in the Day of the Lord Jeſus.

6. Your Boaſting is not good: do not you know, that a little Leaven leavens the whole Lump?

Ver. 4. am conſcious of Nothing to my ſelf] very apt to the Gr. and not labouring with Obſcurity, like the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 6. to mind] The Vulg. and four or five Copies have not this, which Mills does not attempt however to vindicate, Pr. 454.

Ib. is written] I incline to think, with Beza, in the Scripture.

Ver. 7. diſtinguiſhes] the beſt Engliſh Word I believe to anſwer to the Gr. here.

Ver. 8. reigned] Our Tranſlators needed not to have added as kings; ſince reigned implies that and more.

Ver. 11. wander about] a Verb only.

Ver. 14. I warn] By five Copies to warn, and Grotius ſays rightly, that it may agree with the as; but either of them will agree with that, and not indeed as Whitby aſſerts, to warn is ill if we are to believe St. Hilary, with all the Gr. Scholiums and Verſions, Exam. Lib. ii. C. 3. ſince they have Nothing of its Diſagreement.

Ver. 20. Power] Of the Holy Ghoſt, Gen. Note.

Ver. 1. is—mentioned] ſix or ſeven Copies, the Vulg. &c. are without, ſo ſaid by Mills to be added to compleat the Sentence. Now what Anſwer does a ſimple Aſſertion demand? And what ſuch as the Aſſertor could not know to be true? But eſpecially that which has more Evidence againſt it, than for it? How frequently theſe are applicable to what Mills poſitively aſſerts againſt our Reading, and almoſt always the two latter, the Reader may obſerve.

Ver. 2. put] as Ver. 13.

Ver. 3. judged, as if preſent, him] judged him as a Judge preſent there, the Sentence following.

Ver. 4. Chriſt] The laſt is affirmed by Mills to be added, Pr. 730. as not in two or three Codes, &c. no great Wonder that the Vulg. ſhould be ſo accompanied.

Ver. 6. is not good] One Gr. Copy, and Auguſtine ſays ſome Lat. ones, being without not, Mills does not doubt but the Apoſtle's own alſo: for, ſays he, it is an ironical Reproach; which the Expreſſion ſeems too poſitive, and ſimple for: he adds, like Mark vii. 9. Rom. xi. 20. Jam. ii. 19.

7. Purge out therefore the old Leaven, that you may be a new Lump, as you are unleavened: for even Chriſt our Paſſover has been ſacrificed for us.

8. So then let us keep the Feaſt, not with old Leaven, nor with the Leaven of Wickedneſs and Iniquity, but with the unleavened Cakes of Sincerity and Truth.

9. I wrote to you in the Epiſtle, not to keep company with Whoremongers.

10. Yet not altogether with the Whoremongers of this World, or the Covetous, Extortioners or Idolaters; for then indeed you ſhould go out of the World,

11. So now I have written to you, not to keep company with any one named a Brother, if a Whoremonger, Covetous, Idolater, Railer, Drunkard or Extortioner, nor to eat with ſuch a one.

12. For what have I to do alſo to judge thoſe without. Do not you judge thoſe within?

13. Whereas God judges thoſe without. So put out the wicked Man from your ſelves.

CHAP. VI.

DOES any one of you who has a Matter againſt another, dare to be judged before the Unrighteous, and not before the Saints?

2. Do not you know, that the Saints will judge the World? And if the World ſhall be judged by you, are ye unworthy of judging very ſmall Things?

3. Do not you know, that we ſhall judge Angels? How much more Things of this Life?

4. Therefore indeed if you have the judging the Things of this Life, place them for it that are contemptible in the Church.

5. I ſpeak to your Shame. Is not there thus a wiſe Man among you, not even one, who can decide amongſt his Brethren?

6. On the contrary one Brother is judged with another, and this before the Unbelievers.

7. There is now therefore indeed wholly a Defect in you, that ye have Trials at Law with your ſelves: for what reaſon do ye not rather ſuffer injury? For what reaſon do ye not rather be deprived?

8. On the contrary ye do injury, and deprive, and that the Brethren.

9. What do not you know, that the Unrighteous ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God? Do not miſtake; neither Whoremongers, Idolaters, Adulterers, Effeminate, Buggerers,

10. Thieves, Covetous, Drunkards, Railers nor Extortioners, ſhall inherit the Kingdom of God.

11. And thus ſome of you were; but you are waſhed, but you are ſanctified, but you are juſtified, in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12. All Things are lawful for me, but not all Things profitable: all Things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the Power of any.

13. Meats are for the Belly, and the Belly for Meats; but God will make both this and theſe voïd. And the Body is not for Whore-

ii. 19. neither of which appear to me ſuch, one would think it would not be pretended of the two latter, and the Shew of it in the firſt lies in taking the Senſe of the Word there too ſtrictly, as in the Eng. The leaving out not might be owing to Overſight, or the Repetition of it.

Ib. leavens] Hereby diſplaying how the Evil he complained of would ſpread and operate, not that Leaven is injurious to Dough (quite contrary) but the Compariſon is uſed as the Similitude of the unjuſt Steward, Luke xvi. Not aware of this, and to make it more explicit, Marcion the ancient Heretick, as it appears, altered it to another Word, that may be beſt rendered perhaps ſpoils, but chiefly ſignifies deceives. Yet Mills argues for that to be the genuine Word, both here and Gal. v. 9. as if our Apoſtle knew no better what Leaven does to the Dough; ſee alſo Whit. Exam. Lib. ii. 3. I am apt to think it was changed firſt in Gal. and then here to accord with that.

Ver. 7. therefore] not in ſeveral MSS. and other Writings, though it has eſcaped the Cenſure of Mills, &c. but Whitby relates was omitted becauſe not in the Office of St. Paſchal.

Ib. for us] according to Mills is an Explanation, Pr. 759. he finding five Exemplars, the Vulg. and ſeveral more without it; but how light are all theſe to weigh againſt ours that have it? It being read, Beza ſays, in the Gr. with a very great Agreement, and, as he ſubjoins, is not inſignificant or uſeleſs.

Ver. 8. but with the unleavened Cakes of Sincerity and Truth] Mills thought was all added, that there might be what would anſwer to the latter Part of the foregoing Verſe, merely as being not in the Ethiop. Verſ. O fy! And may there always be ſome ready to defend the Sacred Writings againſt ſuch crude Poſitions! Had Something been ſo added, doubtleſs the Word [new] would have been in it; and the Eth. Tranſlator might only miſs a Line; ſee too Whit. Annot..

Ib. unleavened Cakes] being plural, like the Heb. Exod. xii. 8. Joſh. v. 11. and in one Word, where neither bread nor cakes is Italick in our com. Verſ.

Ver. 9. the Epiſtle] this ſame, at the firſt Inditing of it, according to the Commentators; there being no Account of any Epiſtle of his to them before.

Ver. 11. keep company with] Thus the Expreſſion is proper, which is ſo defective in the com. Tranſ. though be is there added.

Ver. 12. So put out] Weſt. And ye will take away.

Ver. 1. to be judged] Weſt.

Ver. 2. very ſmall Things] according as rendered Chap. iv. 3.

Ver. 4. place them] viz. as I underſtand it, you may do ſo, rather than want Perſons for it.

Ver. 5. not even one] joined to the foregoing; and three or four are without it, (not only the Ethiop. as Whitby ſays) with Mills's Approbation, Pr. 457.

Ver. 7. therefore] the Vulg. and one Copy omit, enow for Mills's inſertum eſt, it is put in, Pr. eod.

Ver. 8. that] Clemens of Alexandria alone having not this Particle, Mills could not think (without allowing ſcarcely) that it was genuine, Pr. 631. which exceeds what was mentioned at Ch. i. 10.

Ver. 9. What] as it is Ver. 16, 19.

dom,

dom, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the Body.

14. Moreover God has both raiſed up the Lord, and will raiſe up us by his Power.

15. Do not you know, that your Bodies are the Members of Chriſt? Shall I then take the Members of Chriſt, and make the Members of a Harlot? Far be it.

16. What do not you know, that he who is joined to a Harlot is one Body? For, ſays he, the two ſhall be one Fleſh.

17. And he who is joined to the Lord, is one Spirit.

18. Flee Whoredom: every other Sin whatever a Man does, is without the Body; but he that commits Whoredom, ſins againſt his own Body.

19. What do not you know, that your Body is the Temple of the Holy Spirit in you, which you have from God, and are not your own?

20. For you are bought with a Price: then glorify God both in your Body and Spirit, which are God's.

CHAP. VII.

NOW concerning what Things you wrote to me: it is well for a Man not to meddle with a Woman.

2. Yet by reaſon of Whoredoms, let each Man have a Wife to himſelf, and each Woman have her own Huſband.

3. Let the Huſband render to the Wife the good Will that is due, in like Manner the Wife alſo to the Huſband.

4. The Wife has not power of her own Body, but the Huſband; and in like manner the Huſband alſo has not power of his own Body, but the Wife.

5. Do not deprive one another, excepting what may be by Agreement for a Time, that you may be at leiſure for Faſting and Prayer; and you ſhould come together again in the ſame Place, that Satan may not tempt you for your Exceſs.

6. However I ſay this according to Permiſſion, not according to Command.

7. For I would have all Men be even as my ſelf; but each has his own Gift from God, one indeed in this Manner, and another in that.

8. So I ſay to the Unmarried and the Widows, it is well for them if they remain even as I.

9. Neverthleſs if they have not Continence, let them marry: for it is betterto marry, than to be inflamed.

10. And the Married I order, not my ſelf, but the Lord, that the Wife ſhould not depart from the Huſband.

11. But yet if ſhe does depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to the Huſband; and let not the Huſband put away the Wife.

12. Moreover to the reſt I ſay, not the Lord; If any Brother has an unbelieving Wife, and ſhe conſent to dwell with him, let him not put her away:

13. The Wife likewiſe who has an unbelieving Huſband, and he conſents to dwell with her, let her not put him away.

Ver. 19. Body] Nine Copies and ſome Writers have Bodies, perhaps to ſuit better, as might be thought, with you and your, or to conform a little to the Vulg. that has Members, though moſt likely from Ver. 15. yet Mills ſuppoſes it was ſo at firſt.

Ver. 20. glorify] Some add and carry, which may be ſeen in Mills's Notes. So Ignatius, that great primitive Father and Martyr, the immediate Diſciple of the Apoſtle John, glorified before the Emperor Trajan of the Name Theophorus, one carrying God.

Ver. 20. both—and Spirit, which are God's] Mills counts added at the Side, from whence it crept into the Text, ſome being without it; but ſee Whit. Ex.

Ver. 3. the good Will that is due] Some Copies, &c. have inſtead of this the Debt, which the Criticks imagine is right, and that it was altered to be modeſter; but why not as well to be plainer, when it could be made ſo by ſhortening opheilomen to opheilen? And why ſhould not Paul write as modeſt as a Tranſcriber, or the old Lat. Tranſlator! Hammond ſays ſome Gr. Copies read due Honour or Worſhip, which perhaps, adds he, is the Ground of the Uſe of the Word [worſhip] retained by our Church in the Form of Marriage; but this will prove a very ſlight Ground of it, as it may be queſtioned whether any Gr. Copy has that, ſince only Curcellæus mentions ſuch a Reading, whoſe Collection is very uncertain, as may be ſeen in Wetſten's Edit. beſides which only Chryſoſtome has it by Mills's Account.

Ib. good Will] as tranſlated Eph. vi. 7. where it is only beſides. The Gen. Note ſays, it conteineth all duties perteining to marriage; Ham. all acts of conjugall love.

Ver. 5. Faſting and] A pretty many are found without theſe Words, which then no Wonder Mills is for; but a great many may have a better Claim, as a Majority in Voting paſſes, and eſpecially as the Vulg. Lat. ſeems to have had Influence over thoſe. Nor is it to be thought the Married were to do thus for Prayer only, a frequent or daily Duty, which Conſideration may quite determine the Matter.

Ib. come together] Inſtead of this ſome have be, moſtly of thoſe who omitted the other before, and Mills favours theſe alſo, Pr. 680. but that is not to be granted to a Part, which was not to the Whole.

Ib. in the ſame Place] namely the ſame Bed, according to Bez. rendered in unum by Eraſ. but concerning the Gr. which is paſſed over in the com. Tranſ. ſee on Acts i. 15.

Ib. Exceſs] as rendered Mat. xxiii. 25. being only in theſe two Places.

Ver. 7. be even as my ſelf] in reſpect to Chaſtity, not a ſingle Life.

Ver. 9. Continence] which Grew in his Coſmology, or Account of the World, thus defines, Content without lawful Venery, is Continence; without unlawful, Chaſtity. If contain, ſhould be contain themſelves, as the Gr. alſo ſignifies.

Ver. 12. unbelieving] as Ver. 14. and one Gr. Word.

Ver. 13. and he conſents] if is not in the Gr. and beſides ſpoils the Eng.

14. For

14. For the unbelieving Huſband is ſanctified in the Wife, and the unbelieving Wife ſanctified in the Huſband: otherwiſe indeed your Children would be unclean, but now are holy.

15. Yet if the Unbelieving will depart, let him: a Brother or Siſter is not a Servant in ſuch Things, but God has called us in Peace.

16. For how doſt thou know, O Wife, whether thou ſhalt ſave the Huſband? Or how doſt thou know, O Huſband, whether thou ſhalt ſave the Wife?

17. Elſe as God has diſtributed to each, as the Lord has called each, ſo let him walk; and thus I order in all the Churches.

18. Is any one called being circumciſed? let him not become otherwiſe: is any one called in Uncircumciſion? let him not be circumciſed.

19. Circumciſion is Nothing, and Uncircumciſion is Nothing; but the keeping the Commandments of God.

20. Let each remain in the Calling wherein he was called.

21. Waſt thou called being a Servant? do not thou care; but yet if thou canſt be made free, uſe it rather.

22. For a Servant called in the Lord, is the Lord's freed Man; in like Manner alſo a free Man called, is a Servant of Chriſt.

23. You being bought with a Price, do not become the Servants of Men.

24. Let each in what he was called, Brethren, remain in the ſame with God.

25. But concerning Virgins I have no Command of the Lord; yet I give my Opinion, as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful:

26. I therefore ſuppoſe this to be well, by reaſon of the preſent Neceſſity, namely well for a Perſon to be ſo.

27. Art thou tied to a Wife? do not ſeek to be let looſe: art thou let looſe from a Wife? do not ſeek a Wife.

28. But yet if thou marrieſt, thou haſt not ſinned; and if a Virgin marry, ſhe has not ſinned: however ſuch will have Affliction in the Fleſh; but I ſpare you.

29. Yet this I ſay, Brethren, the Time is ſhort: there is further, that even thoſe who have Wives, are as not having;

30. And they that weep, as not weeping; and they that rejoice, as not rejoicing; and they that buy, as not poſſeſſing;

31. And they that uſe this World, as no miſuſing: for the Faſhion of this Worl paſſes away.

32. And I would have you be withou Carefulneſs: the Unmarried is careful for the Lord's Things, how he may pleaſe the Lord:

33. Whereas the Married is careful for the Things of the World, how he may pleaſe the Wife.

34. A Wife alſo and a Virgin are different: the Unmarried is careful for the Things of the Lord, that ſhe may be holy both in Body and Spirit; whereas the Married is careful for the Things of the World, how ſhe may pleaſe the Huſband.

35. And this I ſay for your own profiting; not that I may caſt a Snare on you, but for what is comely, and attending well on the Lord without Interruption.

36. If any one however ſuppoſes he acts unſeemly to his Virgin, if ſhe is paſt the Flower of Age, and it ſhould ſo be done; let him do what he will, he does not ſin, let them marry.

37. But he who ſtands ſettled in Heart, having no Neceſſity, and has Power concerning his own Will, as alſo has determined this in his Heart, that he will keep his Virgin, does well.

38. So then he who gives in Marriage, does well; but he who gives not in Marriage, does better.

Ver. 14. is ſanctified] ſo as to continue married together.

Ib. unclean] in reſpect to the Parents, as if born out of Wedlock.

Ver. 16. O Huſband] this being the ſame Gr. Noun as juſt before, as the Particles for how are likewiſe the ſame.

Ver. 17. Elſe] as the Gr. ſeems to ſignify, and can ſcarce be tranſlated nearer in Senſe; nor is but, ſays Wall, any rendring of εἰ μή.

Ver. 19. but the keeping the Commandments of God] Is all, Nary ſupplies, Ham. and Whit. is all in all.

Ver. 21. thou care] not care for it.

Ver. 26. Neceſſity] as the ſame is rendered Ver. 37.

Ver. 34. are different] Being only a Verb; and that ſingular in Gr. as alſo beginning the Verſe, is by ſome joined with [and] before it to the End of the laſt Ver. which Hammond pleads for, but Mills is for ours. The others alſo join Unmarried with Wife or Woman; ſee againſt that Reading Whitby's Annot.

Ver. 35. attending well] not a Verb, and with ἐν—for well. Several have another Word for it by the Change of ϛος into αϱ nearly of the ſame Import, or ſomething fuller for induſtrious, and was therefore I judge an Attempt at Improvement, tho' Mills thinks it genuine, Pr. 632, 1040. The Vulg. has it, what may give ability of obſerving the Lord, ſo wildly that Mills will not allow it ſavours of the (fancied) Accuracy of the ancient Interpreter, but was thruſt in afterwards, Pr. 555. which might indeed be, if this latter Part of the Verſe was left out of the Lat. Copies for the Difficulty of tranſlating, as he ſhews from Jerome.

Ver. 36. his Virgin] a Daughter; for I find it has erroneouſly been taken to be a Man's own Virginity, even by Whitby.

Ver. 37. ſettled in Heart] without his, as after.

39. The Wife is tied by the Law, for as long Time as her Huſband lives; but if her Huſband is deceaſed, ſhe is free to marry whom ſhe will, only in the Lord.

40. She nevertheleſs is happier, if ſhe remain ſo, according to my Opinion; and I alſo think I have the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

NEXT concerning Things offered to Idols, we are ſenſible that we all have Knowledge: which puffs up, but Love edifies.

2. And if any one think he knows any Thing, he knows Nothing yet as he ought to do.

3. But if any one loves God, the ſame is known by him.

4. Concerning eating therefore of Things offered to Idols, we know, that an Idol is Nothing in the World, and that there is no other God but one.

5. For though indeed there are thoſe called gods, whether in Heaven, or on Earth; according as there are many gods, and many lords:

6. Yet to us there is but one God the Father, from whom are all Things, and we in him; and one Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom are all Things, and we by him.

7. But there is not the Knowledge in all: ſince ſome with Conſcience of an Idol till now, eat a Thing as offered to an Idol; and their Conſcience being weak, is defiled.

8. Whereas Meat does not make us ſtand before God: for neither do we abound, if we eat; nor are deficient, if we eat not.

9. But look, leſt any how this Power of yours ſhould become a Stumbling to the Weak.

10. For if any one ſees thee, who haſt Knowledge, leaning down in an Idol-temple; will not the Conſcience of him that is weak, be encouraged to eat Things offered to Idols?

11. So through thy Knowledge will the weak Brother periſh, for whom Chriſt died.

12. But when you ſin thus againſt the Brethren, and ſmite their weak Conſcience, you ſin againſt Chriſt.

13. Therefore if Meat make my Brother offend, I will eat no Fleſh for ever, that I may not do that.

CHAP. IX.

AM not I an Apoſtle? Am not I free? Have I not ſeen Jeſus Chriſt our Lord? Are not you my Work in the Lord?

2. If I am not an Apoſtle to others, yet certainly I am to you: for you are the Seal of my Apoſtleſhip in the Lord.

3. My Defence to them that examine me, is this;

4. Have we not Power to eat, and drink?

5. Have we not Power to take about a Siſter who is a Wife, as well as the reſt of the Apoſtles, with the Brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

6. Or I only and Barnabas; have we not Power not to work?

Ver. 39. by the Law] Mills did not doubt but was transferred from Rom. vii. 2. ſome not having it; nevertheleſs Omiſſions being ſo common with the Scribes and Authors, we may well think otherwiſe.

Ver. 2. Nothing] ſimply not by Omiſſion of a Gr. Word with ſome, which Mills thought added for Emphaſis, Pr. 633. but I think likelier ſubſtracted as abounding.

Ver. 4. other] crept from the Marg. ſays Mills; it ſeems he could not find from whence it came thither, ſo might more likely never be there, eſpecially if we may credit many rather than ſome.

Ver. 5. there are many] to the Heathens, Whitby's Paraphraſe.

Ver. 6. Chriſt] Becauſe Mills did not find this Word in the Lat. only of ſome Copy, and in Ambroſe, he ſays it is an Addition, Pr. 457. Tremble, good Reader, at the Conſequence of ſuch Things! or rather believe not the Premiſes.

Ver. 7. now] How ſtrangely rendered this hour! ſo while the world ſtandeth, Ver. ult.

Ver. 8. does] will future in ſome Copies and Authors, which Mills takes to, Pr. 627, 633. but in my View looks like mending the Apoſtle's, for why ſhould it be altered the other Way?

Ib. abound—deficient] according to the Gr. and quite different from thoſe in Ch. viii. 17.

Ver. 10. thee] the Vulg. and two or three Writers, leave, therefore Mills; but if we ſhould part with Bits of the Scripture thus, we may expect a Demand upon the Remainder in Pieces. His ſaying however it crept from through thy Knowledge in the next Verſe, and that Ambr. and Pelag. do not own it, Pr. 457. Whitby miſtook for their not owning that, and aſſerts againſt him they did, Exam. Lib. 2. 3.

Ib. encouraged] Gr. built up.

Ver. 13. my] The former has ſuffered a little Omiſſion, whereupon Mills will grant it no Exiſtence but from the latter, Pr. 457.

Ver. 2. in the Lord] crept from the former Ver. Mills ſays; but as we have already abundantly ſeen, there is no great Streſs to be laid on his Word in theſe Caſes; and it might be rather left out not to have ſuch a Repetition, and becauſe Apoſtleſhip would do without it. Weſley omits it, tho' that is weakly ſupported.

Ver. 5. a Siſter] being a Believer or Chriſtian.

Ver. 6. not to work] The Vulg. Lat. on the contrary has to work this; but Mills ſuppoſes had not at firſt, a rare Way of juſtifying that Tranſ. ſo at Ch. xiii. 5. & xv. 51. ſee his Pr. 552, 553, 554.

7. Who goes to war any when at his own Charges? Who plants a Vineyard, and does not eat of its Fruit? Or who feeds a Flock, and does not eat ſome of the Milk of the Flock?

8. Do I ſay thus according to Man? Or does not the Law alſo ſay thus?

9. For in the Law of Moſes is written, Thou ſhalt not muzzle the Ox that treads out the Corn. Does God care merely for Oxen?

10. Or does he ſay it wholly by reaſon of us? By reaſon of us indeed it is written; ſince he who ploughs ſhould plough in Hope, and he who treads out in Hope partake of his Hope.

11. If we have ſown to you ſpiritual Things, is it a great Matter if we reap your carnal Things?

12. If others partake of the Power over you, do not we rather? Yet we have not uſed this Power, but bear all Things, that we may not give any Hindrance to the Goſpel of Chriſt.

13. Do not you know, that they who work in ſacred Things, eat of the ſacred Thing? they who attend at the Altar, are Partakers with the Altar?

14. So alſo the Lord has ordered, that thoſe who preach the Goſpel, ſhould live upon the Goſpel.

15. However I have uſed none of theſe Things; nor have I written them, that it might be done ſo to me: for it would be better for me to die, than that any one ſhould make my Boaſting void.

16. Though if I do preach, there is no Boaſting for me: for Neceſſity is laid on me, and wo is to me, if I preach not.

17. For if I do this willingly, I have a Reward; but if unwillingly, I am intruſted with a Stewardſhip.

18. What then is the Reward to me? That while I preach, I may make the Goſpel of Chriſt without Coſt, for me not to miſuſe my Power in the Goſpel.

19. For when I was free from all, I made my ſelf a Servant to all, that I might gain the more.

20. Thus to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to thoſe under the Law as under the Law, that I might gain thoſe under the Law;

21. To thoſe without the Law as without the Law (while I was not without the Law to God, but under the Law to Chriſt) that I might gain thoſe without the Law;

22. To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: to all I am become all Things, that I may wholly ſave ſome.

Ver. 7. of the Flock] Tho' this is left out only in the Dialogue againſt the Marcionites, Mills writes it was added from the foregoing Things, and a few having of it, he thereby takes occaſion to blend them together in the Rejection of both; notwithſtanding the Relative muſt be much more a Sign (which he applies contrarily) of the Noun, than of its Abſence, or of Nothing.

Ver. 9. merely] I ſuppoſe it will ſcarce be pretended but that this is the Senſe; elſe read Mat. x. 29. Job xxxviii. ult. Pſa. cxlvii. 9.

Ver. 10. ſince] that ſpoiling the Senſe.

Ib. treads out] as in the Verſe before.

Ib. in Hope partake of his Hope] Some by Omiſſion and Tranſpoſition in the Gr. have it in Hope of partaking, which Mills tacitly favours, Pr. 681. and therefore Silence may anſwer.

Ver. 13. eat] not live.

Ib. ſacred Thing] The Gr. is either this or Temple; and is thus rendered by Beza and Caſtal. by Eraſm. Sacrifice: it ſeems likelieſt to be the ſame Word uſed before, in the Manner that Altar is, and which wants Nothing to make up the Senſe; and ſo it is ranked in Symſon's Lexicon and Concordance, printed 1658, that very valuable Treaſure for my Countrymen, though they have ſuffered it to be out of Print.

Ver. 15. might] ſhould being here improper.

Ver. 16. Though if] thus it agrees with the foregoing.

Ver. 18. of Chriſt] came from an Interpretation, Pr. 987. Did Mills ſuppoſe then there was Danger apprehended, of its being taken for the Goſpel of Antichriſt? Since of God, or even my, would not make it any other Goſpel. And why ſuch poor Pretence for about half a dozen Codes and the Vulg. Lat?

Ver. 20. as under the Law] to which is added not being my ſelf under the Law, in nine or ten Copies, the Vulg. &c. but Mills ſays Nothing for it; yet on the other hand what Whitby ſpeaks againſt it may be more for it, that Paul would not write ſo, becauſe it would have filled the Mouth of the believing Jews with Complaints againſt him: for might not the following Words as without the Law have cauſed that as well? And wherein do they come ſhort of theſe? Nay to be without the Law is more than not to be under it. And why ſhould the Apoſtle be ſo cautious of that, in writing to the Gentiles? However perhaps this not being my ſelf under the Law was made from the other as without the Law, to be like the following being not &c.

Ver. 21. not without the Law to God; but under the Law to Chriſt] Theſe Expreſſions may ſignify much the ſame, viz. in reſpect to the Law as moral and ſpiritual, tho' not as Jewiſh and temporary.

Ib. without the Law] This being the ſame Law as that to which our Tranſlators have not put the Article, tho' they thereby imply it to be otherwiſe.

Ver. 22. may] A moderate Grammarian may eaſily ſee, that might in the following Verſe ſhould be may; as it ſhould alſo here, not only by its Gr. Verb being future, but as it comes after an Eng. preſent Tenſe, either paſſ. or neut. with that.

Ib. wholly ſave ſome] gain all with a few, but differently Mills owns, though he has not put it in the Various Readings. He pretends the Impoſſibility of Paul's gaining all was the Occaſion of altering it to the preſ. but is it not far likelier, that the Apoſtle would not write ſuch an Impoſſibility; and that it was altered into gain, to double this Verb as the other become, and into all that it might be as weak was? For the Pretence of impoſſible beſides does not affect or account for changing gain to ſave, and having been alike to be made unlike is not likely.

23. And

23. And this I do for the Goſpel, that I may become Partaker of it.

24. Do not you know, that they who run in a Race, run indeed all, but one receives the Prize? Run thus, that you may obtain.

25. And every one who ſtrives is temperate in all Things; they indeed therefore that they may receive a corruptible Crown, but we an incorruptible.

26. I therefore run thus, not as uncertainly; fight thus, not as beating the Air.

27. But I ſubdue my Body, and bring it into Servitude; leſt any how though I preach to others, I my ſelf ſhould become a Reprobate.

CHAP. X.

AND I would not have you be ignorant, Brethren, that all our Forefathers were under the Cloud, and did all go through the Sea;

2. As likewiſe were all baptized to Moſes, both in the Cloud and Sea;

3. Nay did all eat the ſame ſpiritual Meat;

4. And all drink the ſame ſpiritual Drink: for they drank of the ſpiritual Rock that followed them, which Rock was Chriſt.

5. Yet God was not pleaſed with many of them: for they were overthrown in the Wilderneſs.

6. Now theſe Things were Figures to us, for us not to be deſiring evil Things, even as they deſired.

7. Neither be you Idolaters, like ſome of them; according as it is written, The People ſate down to eat and drink, and roſe up to play.

8. Nor let us commit Whoredom, as ſome of them did, and fell twenty three thouſand in one Day.

9. Nor yet tempt Chriſt, as ſome of them alſo did, and were deſtroyed by Serpents.

10. Neither do ye murmur, as ſome of them too did, and were deſtroyed by the Deſtroyer.

11. Now all theſe Things came to paſs to them for Figures; and were written for our Admonition, to whom the Ends of the World are come.

12. So that let him who thinks he ſtands, look that he may not fall.

13. No Trial but what belongs to Man has taken you; and God is faithful, who will not let you be tried above what you can bear, but will with the Trial alſo make an Eſcaping, that you may be able to endure.

14. Therefore, my Beloved, flee from Idolatry.

15. As to the Wiſe I ſpeak; judge you what I ſay.

16. The Cup of Bleſſing which we bleſs, is it not the Communion of the Blood of Chriſt? The Bread which we break, is it not the Communion of the Body of Chriſt?

17. Since there is one Bread, we being many are one Body; for we all partake of one Bread.

18. Look at Iſrael according to the Fleſh; are not thoſe who eat the Sacrifices, Partakers of the Altar?

19. What then do I ſay? that an Idol is any Thing? or that what is offered to an Idol is any Thing?

20. But that what Things the Gentiles ſacrifice, it is to Devils, and not to God; and I would not have you be Partakers with Devils.

Ver. 23. this] But five or ſix Copies, the Vulg. &c. have all Things, which Mills paſſes his Verdict upon to be the true Reading, and to be changed becauſe the Apoſtle could not do all Things, Pr. 816. Yet why ſhould it be done for that, when Paul had juſt ſaid I am become all Things? which might adminiſter occaſion to introducing the like here, with 2 Cor. xii. 19. 2 Tim. ii. 10. and the Scribes might rather be fond of enhancing Matters; ſo that Mills's aſſerting, there was no Cauſe for changing this into all Things, proves overhaſty; tho' Whitby turns it off with a Retort, of his not rendering a Reaſon for every Thing.

Ver. 27. Reprobate] according as rendered in the com. Tranſ. Rom. i. 28. 2 Cor. xiii. 5, 6, 7. 2 Tim. iii. 8. Tit. i. 16. that is in all other Places where it is uſed of Perſons.

Ver. 1. And] In ſome Copies For, which Mills ſuppoſes the right.

Ver. 3, 4. the ſame—the ſame] wanting in one Copy and one Verſ. ſays Mills, which is all he ſays of it; yet Whitby, not denying that, ſets himſelf to prove it from others, in Anſwer to him, and among the Various Readings of greater Moment, Exam. Lib. 2. Cap. 1. S. 1.

Ver. 4. followed] Like what there is Iſa. xxx. 21.

Ver. 5. God] Mills reckons added, but by little Authority, Pr. 295, 466.

Ver. 6. Figures] examples unfit.

Ver. 8. three] See the Scholium on Num. xxv. 9.

Ver. 9. Chriſt] in the room of this a few have the Lord, fewer God, yet Grotius is for the latter to be right, but Mills ſtands firmly for our Reading.

Ver. 11. World] Weſt. ages.

Ver. 13. that you may be able] Mills would have it to be able, counting you added, Pr. 681. with a ſmall Number of Votes.

Ver. 17. there is one Bread] What Senſe can fairly be made, agreeable to the Context, of we are one Bread? And for it our Eng. Tranſlators it appears have from the Beginning put [and] wrong, which the Original is without; ſee alſo Beza, Annot.

Ver. 19. that an Idol is any Thing? or] This being not in a ſingle Copy, Mills at firſt put it down as omitted by the Careleſſneſs of the Tranſcriber; but afterwards minded to magnify his Work, as it may be doubted or believed, by a great Number of Amendments to the com. Reading, he took in this for one, tho' he had only Epiphanius beſides to uphold it, Pr. 1333.

Ib. what] which being improper.

Ver. 20. the Gentiles] is a Scholium, ſays Mills, taken from Pſa. xcvi. 5. Monſtrous! How diſſimilar are theſe Paſſages! Nothing of ſacrificing there, and this Word in another Caſe.

21. You

21. You cannot drink of the Lord's Cup and that of Devils: you cannot partake of the Lord's Table and that of Devils.

22. Do we make the Lord jealous? Are we ſtronger than he?

23. All Things are lawful for me, but not all Things profitable: all Things are lawful for me, but all Things do not edify.

24. Let none ſeek his own, but each another's.

25. Whatever is ſold in the Shambles, eat; and examine Nothing, by reaſon of Conſcience.

26. For the Earth is the Lord's, and what it is full of.

27. And if any one of the Unbelievers invite you, and ye are willing to go; whatever is put before you eat; and examine Nothing, by reaſon of Conſcience.

28. But if any one ſhall ſay to you, This is offered to an Idol; do not eat, by reaſon of the Relater and Conſcience: for the Earth is the Lord's, and what it is full of.

29. Yet Conſcience I ſay not thy own, but the other's: for why ſhould my Freedom be judged by another's Conſcience?

30. And if I partake by Grace, why am I ſpoken ill of, for what I give thanks?

31. Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or do any Thing, do all to the Glory of God.

32. Be inoffenſive as well to Jews and Gentiles, as to the Church of God:

33. Even as I pleaſe all in all Things, and ſeek not my own Profit, but that of many, that they may be ſaved.

CHAP. XI.

1. BE you Imitators of me, even as I of Chriſt.

2. And I praiſe you, Brethren, for that you remember me in all Things, and hold the Things delivered, as I delivered them to you.

3. So I would have you know, that Chriſt is the Head of every Man, and the Man the Head of the Woman, and God the Head of Chriſt.

4. Every Man who prays or propheſies, having Something upon the Head, ſhames his Head.

5. But every Woman who prays or propheſies, with the Head uncovered, ſhames her Head: for it is the very ſame as to be ſhaved.

6. For if the Woman be not covered, then let her be clipped; but if it is a Shame for the Woman to be clipped or ſhaved, let her be covered.

7. For the Man indeed ought not to cover the Head, as he is the Similitude and Glory of God; whereas the Woman is the Glory of the Man.

8. Since the Man is not from the Woman, but the Woman from the Man.

9. For neither was the Man created for the ſake of the Woman, but the Woman for the Man's ſake.

10. For this reaſon the Woman ought to have his Authority over her Head, becauſe of the Angels.

11. Nevertheleſs the Man is neither without the Woman, nor the Woman without the Man, in the Lord.

12. For according as the Woman is from the Man, ſo is the Man alſo by the Woman; but all Things are from God.

13. Judge in your ſelves; is it becoming for the Woman to pray to God uncovered?

14. Does not Nature it ſelf teach you, that if the Man has long Hair, it is a Diſhonour to him?

Ver. 24. each] omitted by a few in the curtailing Way, though Mills denies it to be the Text of the Apoſtle, Pr. 633.

Ver. 28. to you] is a Scribe's, not Paul's, ſays Mills, Prol. 459. for the important Reaſon (to him) that it is not in the Vulg. and he adds Ambroſe.

Ib. for the Earth is the Lord's, and what it is full of] Several omit all this, which Grotius, Ham. and Mills ſtagger at, but Whitby pleads to be retained. Wall ſays it is not in almoſt any Greec Copy, but that which Beza and Eng. tranſlated; when it is not found wanting in a dozen of all Sorts.

Ver. 29. the other's] for of the others is not proper Language.

Ver. 31. all] omitted by no Tranſlator nor Author, but in 2 Copies, Mills in Pr. 1453. ſurmiſes came from Col. iii. 17. tho' the Saying is ſo different there.

Ver. 3. Chriſt is the Head of every Man] which is the plain and proper Way of Expreſſion in our Language; and that in the com. Tranſ. muſt be taken otherwiſe, or will be very ill.

Ver. 5. propheſies] Doddr. ſays, he cannot think the Apoſtle would debate and adjuſt the Circumſtances of doing an unlawful Action, and what Locke in his Paraphraſe ſays of it ſeems pretty well known; yet the former intimates with Whitby, that propheſying ſignified ſinging Pſalms. The Proof of which, when that is publiſhed, muſt needs be a great Rarity! As it will ſhew that Women propheſy now, which is above teaching, Ch. xii. 28. and what is very extraordinary, propheſy by a Form of Words and a Tune.

Ver. 10. his Authority] by a Covering the Sign of it. Thus is this at laſt become intelligible in a Tranſ.

Ib. the Angels] at the Place and Time of Divine Worſhip, as Eccleſ. v. 6.

Ver. 14. Nature teach] as Edwards largely illuſtrates in his Enquiry into four Remarkable Texts, of which this is the 2d; but need not have been done here, as he pretends, for the Difficulty, ſince he allows of the ſeveral Interpretations how it is, and joins them together.

15. Whereas if the Woman has long Hair, it is a Glory to her; ſince the Hair is given her for Cloathing.

16. However if any one ſeems to be contentious, we have not ſuch a Cuſtom, nor the Churches of God.

17. Moreover in this I am declaring, I do not praiſe, that you come not together for the better, but for the worſe.

18. For firſt indeed when you come together in the Church, I hear that there are Diviſions among you, and I believe ſome Part.

19. For there muſt alſo be Hereſies among you, that the approved ones may be made manifeſt among you.

20. When you come together therefore into the ſame Place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

21. For in eating each takes his own Supper before; and one indeed is hungry, and another drunk.

22. Though have ye not Houſes for eating and drinking? Or do ye deſpiſe the Church of God, and make them aſhamed who have not? What ſhall I ſay to you? Shall I praiſe you in this? I do not.

23. For I received from the Lord, what I alſo delivered to you; that the Lord Jeſus in the Night that he was delivered up, took Bread;

24. And giving thanks, broke, and ſaid, Take, eat; this is my Body, broken for you; do this in Remembrance of me:

25. In like Manner alſo the Cup, after he had ſupped, ſaying, This Cup is the new Teſtament by my Blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in Remembrance of me.

26. For as often as you eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, you declare the Death of the Lord till he comes.

27. So that he who eats this Bread, or drinks the Cup of the Lord unworthily, will be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord.

28. But let a Man prove himſelf, and ſo eat of the Bread, and drink of the Cup.

29. For he who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks Judgment to himſelf, not judging of the Lord's Body.

30. For this reaſon many are weak and ſick among you, nay many aſleep.

31. For if we would judge of our ſelves, we ſhould not be judged.

32. Yet when we are judged, we are chaſtened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the World.

33. So that, my Brethren, when you come together to eat, wait one for another.

34. And if any one is hungry, let him eat at home, that you may not come together for Judgment. And the reſt I will order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

CONCERNING ſpiritual Things alſo, Brethren, I would not have you be ignorant.

2. You know that you were Gentiles, taken away to dumb Idols, as you were led.

3. Therefore I let you know, that none who ſpeaks by the Spirit of God, ſays Jeſus is curſed; and that none can ſay Jeſus is the Lord, except by the Holy Spirit.

Ver. 15. given her] Several are without her, ſo Mills aſſerts it is added to make the Sentence compleat, Pr. 930. What can be ſaid to one who is determined to write at this Rate? Or what need be ſaid, but that ſeveral more have it than thoſe which have it not? And that being eaſily underſtood, I commonly omit; tho' Whitby keeps on repeating it, when Something elſe might be ſaid more peculiar. I may add for this and other omitted Words, that the Body of Copies generally have the Expreſſions fulleſt, and ſo Omiſſions are more to be ſuſpected than Additions.

Ver. 18. For] added, according to Mills, for Connection, Pr. 459. but how much better, and more probable, was his Opinion before, that the few omitted it, becauſe repeated at the Beginning of the next Verſe! But he was now ſet upon advancing the Vulg.

Ib. Church] or Congregation, as Tyndal renders it; ſee Chap. xvi. 19.

Ver. 19. among you] The firſt Mills would have taken from the latter, Pr. 459. though leſs likely, than to be left out becauſe of that; ſee alſo Whitby's Anſwer.

Ver. 23. delivered up] the ſame Verb as before in this Verſe; and the Gr. Verb does not ſignify to diſcover, as betray does.

Ver. 24. Take, eat] Some have not this, and Mills ſays it came from the Goſpels; to which Whitby anſwers, that it was taken thence by the Apoſtle, but therein he overſhoots the Matter, ſince they were not yet written. Yet to Mills's Saying there could be no Cauſe of taking away theſe Words, I reply (which Whitby ſhould have done) it might be becauſe there is not Take, drink, in the next Verſe.

Ver. 27. or] So the Gr. is beſides 2 Copies, &c. inſomuch that our Tranſlators have ſcarce acted uprightly here in reſpect to the Romaniſts, who raiſe an Argument for their Belief from hence; which to enervate, Whitby pleads for [and,] though that being with ſo few, it tends to overthrow his own principal and general Argument againſt Mills, for preferring ſuch a ſmall Number; but leſt that ſhould not be ſufficient, he has exerciſed his Induſtry to ſhew that the Gr. Particle is alſo put for [and,] which is like getting the Victory at any Rate. Rather allow them [or] as their Right, and let them prove from thence that whole Chriſt is contained in either Species, if they can.

Ver. 29. Judgment] viz. temporal, as Ver. xxx. 32. Doddr. thought it the moſt unhappy Miſtake in all our Verſion, that it is rendered Damnation.

Ib. judging of] the ſame Word as in Ver. 31.

Ver. 31. judge of] not the ſimple Verb that follows, but a Compound of it.

Ver. 3. Jeſus is the Lord] or Jeſus to be the Lord, after the received Reading of Accuſative in Gr. where εἶναι to be is underſtood; as with the Nom. which ſome here have the Words, ἐστὶν is muſt be underſtood.

4. Now

4. Now there are Diverſities of Gifts, but the ſame Spirit.

5. And there are Diverſities of Miniſtry, but the ſame Lord.

6. And there are Diverſities of Workings, but it is the ſame God who works them all in all Perſons.

7. And the Manifeſtation of the Spirit is given to each for his Profit.

8. For to one indeed is given by the Spirit, the Word of Wiſdom; and to another the Word of Knowledge, according to the ſame Spirit;

9. And to another Faith, through the ſame Spirit; and to another Gifts of Healing, through the ſame Spirit;

10. And to another Working of powerful Things; and to another Prophely; and to another Judgings of Spirits; and to another other Kinds of Languages, and to another Interpretation of Languages.

11. But one and the ſame Spirit works all theſe, dividing to each particular Perſon as he will.

12. For according as the Body is one, and has many Members, and all the Members of the one Body, being many, are one Body; ſo alſo is Chriſt.

13. For even in one Spirit are we all baptized into one Body, whether Jews or Grecians, whether bound or free; and have all been made to drink into one Spirit.

14. For even the Body is not one Member, but many.

15. If the Foot ſhould ſay, Since I am not the Hand, I am not of the Body; is it by this not of the Body?

16. And if the Ear ſhould ſay, Since I am not the Eye, I am not of the Body; is that hereby not of the Body?

17. If the whole Body was an Eye, where would be the Hearing? If the whole Hearing, where the Smelling?

18. But now God has put the Members each one of them in the Body, as he would.

19. And if they were all one Member, where would be the Body?

20. Whereas now there are indeed many Members, but one Body.

21. And the Eye cannot ſay to the Hand, I have no Need of thee; or again the Head to the Feet, I have no Need of you.

22. But much more, the Members of the Body that are thought to be weaker are neceſſary.

23. And on thoſe of the Body, that we think to be more diſhonourable, we put more abundant Honour, and our unſeemly ones have more abundant Comelineſs.

24. Our comely ones alſo have no Need: but God has mixed the Body together, giving more abundant Honour to what is deficient;

25. That there might not be Diviſion in the Body, but the Members might have the ſame Care one for another.

26. Thus whether one Member ſuffers, all the others ſuffer with it; or one Member be honoured, all the others rejoice with it.

27. Now you are the Body of Chriſt, and Members in particular.

28. And God indeed has put ſome in the Church, firſt Apoſtles, ſecondly Prophets, thirdly Teachers, next powerful Things, afterwards Gifts of Healing, Aſſiſtances, Governments, other Kinds of Languages,

29. Are all Apoſtles? Are all Prophets? Are all Teachers? Are all for powerful Things?

30. Have all the Gifts of Healing? Do all ſpeak in Languages? Do all interpret?

31. However be zealous for the better Gifts: and I yet ſhew you a more excellent Way.

Ver. 7. And] not But after but.

Ib. to each] This 2d Text which Ham. was concerned to deal with as at Acts ii. 17. pinched him cloſer than that; and finding no other Way to get clear of it, he interprets every one or each to be only ſuch that are thus endow'd with extraordinary gifts of tongues, &c. hiding what he would avoid, and that which would not receive extraordinary under &c. namely Wiſdom, Knowledge and Faith, I might add Prophecy and Diſcerning of Spirits, for which the Manifeſtation of the Spirit is given, as well as for the reſt, and this is again confirmed by Ver. 11.

Ver. 8. For] an Injection with Mills, Pr. 459. and ſo and which follows, though the Vulg. has that, and yet not the ſeveral alike that come after.

Ib. according to] neither the ſame as before nor after.

Ver. 10. Judgings] plur. but a few have it ſing. from the Vulg. Lat. perhaps, as others might from our Eng. Yet Mills puts that for the right, and though it is not to be believed it was altered from ſing. to plur.

Ver. 15. ſhould] not ſhall, ſince the Foot cannot ſay it.

Ver. 16. And] The Scribes prefix'd it, Mills ſays, to join this Verſe with the foregoing, Pr. 460. To let alone there being no Verſes when this Variation aroſe, why did not they do the ſame then in the next, where is the like Repetition? On the contrary they evidently left out and, to make the Reading like that and the preceding.

Ver. 20. indeed] as Ch. i. 18. but abſent only in two Copies, Mills Pr. 466.

Ver. 23. put] Weſt. ſurround with.

Ver. 27. in particular] Some of one another, which the Apoſtle, quoth Mills, ſays elſewhere; and therefore thoſe might here, whereby what he ſpeaks for, is againſt this Variation: after having drawn his weak Plea to a very unuſual Length, he concludes, But of this enough and too much, the laſt of which is right.

Ver. 28. afterwards] Mills ſuppoſes it put in by reaſon of the foregoing next, Pr. 466. when twice as many have the ſame here.

Ib. Kinds] the ſame as in Ver. 10.

Ver. 29. powerful Things] the very ſame with that in the Verſe before.

Ver. 31. yet] an Adverb, not Conjunction as by its Poſition in the com. Eng.

CHAP.

CHAP. XIII.

IF I ſpeak in the Languages of Men and Angels, and have not Love, I am as ſounding Braſs, or a tinkling Cymbal.

2. Moreover if I have Prophecy, as likewiſe know all Myſteries and all Knowledge, and if I have all Faith, ſo that I can remove Mountains, and have not Love, I am Nothing.

3. Further if I feed with all which is mine, nay if I deliver up my Body that it may be burned, and have not Love, I am profited Nothing.

4. Love forbears, is kind; Love is not envious; Love is not raſh, is not puffed up,

5. Does not act unſeemly, ſeeks not its own, is not provoked, thinks no Harm,

6. Rejoices not in Unrighteouſneſs, but rejoices with the Truth;

7. Bears all Things, believes all, hopes for all, endures all.

8. Love never fails: but whether there are Prophecies, they will be aboliſhed; or Languages, they will ceaſe; or Knowledge, it will be aboliſhed.

9. For we know in Part, and propheſy in Part.

10. But when that which is perfect ſhall come, then what is in Part will be aboliſhed.

11. When I was a Child, I ſpoke as a Child, minded as a Child, thought as a Child; but when I became a Man, I aboliſhed the Things of a Child.

12. For we now look through a Glaſs obſcurely, but then Face to Face: now I know in Part, but then ſhall know, even as I am known.

13. And now remain Faith, Hope, Love, theſe three; but the greateſt of theſe is Love.

CHAP. XIV.

PURSUE after Love, and be zealous for ſpiritual Things, yet more that you may propheſy.

2. For he that ſpeaks in a ſtrange Language, does not ſpeak to Men, but to God; ſince none underſtands, though in the Spirit he ſpeaks Myſteries.

3. Whereas he who propheſies, ſpeaks to Men with Edification, Exhortation and Comfort.

4. He that ſpeaks in a ſtrange Language, edifies himſelf; but he who propheſies, edifies the Church.

5. I would have you all ſpeak in Languages, yet more that you might propheſy: for he who propheſies is greater than he that ſpeaks in Languages, unleſs he interprets, that the Church may receive Edification.

6. And now, Brethren, if I come to you ſpeaking in Languages, what ſhall I profit you, if I do not ſpeak to you either with Revelation, Knowledge, Prophecy or Doctrine?

7. Notwithſtanding lifeleſs Things give Sound, whether Pipe or Harp, if they do not give a Difference of Sounds, how will it be known what is piped or harped?

8. For even if the Trumpet give an uncertain Sound, who will be prepared for the Battle?

9. So you alſo, if you do not give by the Tongue Speech well ſignified, how will it be known what is ſpoken? For you will ſpeak into the Air.

10. Though there are ſo many Kinds of

Ver. 1. If] Though being improper.

Ib. Languages] Beſides Tongues to ſpeak with being improperly aſcribed to Angels, Paul did, and others do, ſpeak with the Tongue of Man; and in is here as Ch. xiv. 2, 4, 14.

Ib. Love] for what we underſtand by charity is expreſſed in the 13th Ver. Leigh in Crit. Sac. ſays, It ſignifieth a vehement affection and ardent love; nay is tranſlated love in this Epiſt. of the com. Verſion, Ch. iv. 21. & xvi. 24. and by Tyndal and Weſley here; which Doddridge likewiſe in his fine Family Expoſitor prefers; charity alſo ſignifying love formerly, as by Wither ſince on Cant. iii. 10.

And all the pavement (thoroughout)
For you with charitie is wrought:

the late anonymous Tranſlator turns it ſocial affection.

Ver. 2. all] to Faith Mills would exclude; but is not it as neceſſary as to Knowledge? Nor is any Copy, and only a ſingle Verſ. produced without it.

Ver. 3. feed] the poor is added in tranſlating.

Ver. 4. is not raſh] ſo the Gr. ſeems to ſignify beſt; ſee Scap. Lex. &c.

Ib. &c. Prior finely,

Charity, decent, modeſt, eaſy, kind,
Softens the high, and rears the abject Mind;
Knows with juſt Reins, and gentle Hand to guide,
Betwixt vile Shame, and arbitrary Pride.
Not ſoon provok'd, She eaſily forgives;
And much She ſuffers, as She much believes.
Soft Peace She brings where-ever She arrives;
She builds our Quiet, as She forms our Lives;
Lays the rough Paths of peeviſh Nature ev'n;
And opens in each Heart a little Heav'n.

Ver. 6. with] thus the Gr.

Ver. 8. Wither, Song 78.

For when our Knowledge Folly turnes,
When Showes no Show retaine,
And Zeale it ſelfe to nothing burnes,
Then Love ſhall ſtill remaine.

Ib. they will be aboliſhed] the ſame Verb, and paſſive, that is after in this Verſe, and not before, and the ſame as in Ver. 10, 11.

Ver. 12. For] refuſed by Mills, Pr. 463. as uſual.

Ver. 1. and] not with four or five, might be becauſe another δὲ for yet follows: Mills reckons it added for Connection, Pr. 463. but ſeems too neceſſary without.

Ver. 9. For] was put in by ſome Reader, Mills ſays, only for being not in a Couple of Tranſlations, Pr. 1254.

Ver. 10. there are] The Gr. has not may be, or another Verb beſide; but a Conjunction for Though.

Voices in the World, yet none of them dumb.

11. If I therefore know not the Meaning of the Voice, I ſhall be a Barbarian to him who ſpeaks, and he who ſpeaks a Barbarian with me.

12. So alſo you, ſince you are zealous for ſpiritual Things, ſeek that you may abound to the Edification of the Church.

13. Therefore let him who ſpeaks in a ſtrange Language, pray that he may interpret.

14. For if I pray in a ſtrange Language, my Spirit prays, but my Senſe is unfruitful.

15. What then is to be? I will pray with the Spirit, and alſo pray with Senſe; will ſing with the Spirit, and alſo ſing with Senſe.

16. Elſe if thou ſhalt bleſs with the Spirit, how ſhall he that ſupplies the Place of the Ignorant ſay, So let it be, at thy giving thanks? Since he knows not what thou ſayeſt.

17. For thou indeed mayeſt give thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18. I give thanks to my God, I ſpeak in Languages more than all of you.

19. But in the Church I would rather ſpeak five Words by my Senſe, that I might alſo inform others, than ten thouſand Words in a ſtrange Language.

20. Brethren, be not Children in Underſtanding; yet in Wickedneſs be Babes, but in Underſtanding be perfect.

21. In the Law it is written, With other Tongues, and with other Lips will I ſpeak to this People; yet ſo will they not hearken to me, ſays the Lord.

22. So that Languages are for a Sign, not to the Believers, but to the Unbelievers; whereas Prophecy is not for the Unbelievers, but for the Believers.

23. If therefore the whole Church comes together into the ſame Place, and all ſpeak in Languages, and there come in the Ignorant or Unbelievers, will they not ſay that you are mad?

24. But if all propheſy, and there comes in any Unbeliever or ignorant one, he is convinced by all, judged of by all.

25. And thus the hidden Things of his Heart are made manifeſt; and thus he will fall down on the Face, and worſhip God, telling that God truly is in you.

26. What then is there, Brethren? When you come together, each one of you has a Pſalm, has a Doctrine, has a Language, has a Revelation, has an Interpretation: let all Things be done to Edification.

27. Or if any one ſpeaks in a ſtrange Language, let it be by two, or at moſt three, and that by turn, and let one interpret.

28. But if there be no Interpreter, let him keep ſilence in the Church, ſpeaking to himſelf, and to God.

29. Let two or three Prophets ſpeak, and the others judge.

30. Yet if Something be revealed to another that is ſitting, let the firſt be ſilent,

31. For you may all propheſy one by one, that all may learn, and all be comforted.

Ver. 13. that] Whitby ſtrives hard to bring in a ſtrange Senſe, which he gives in theſe Words, Let him pray ſo as that he may interpret; but ſeek in the Verſe before, as parallel to this, and ſpeaks here, both denote otherwiſe, and Ver. 5, 27.

Ver. 14. my Senſe is unfruitful] to the Congregation, Ver. 19.

Ver. 15. is to be] by Weſt. is my duty; but ſee Ver. 26.

Ib. with Senſe] to the Hearers, but underſtanding reads as if it belonged to the Speaker, and has been taken ſo, though not allowed by the Commentators.

Ver. 16. with the Spirit] wanting but in one MS. Copy that Mills found (though Eraſmus mentions more, and left it out of his firſt Edit.) yet he thought it not expreſſed by the Apoſtle, Pr. 1486.

Ib. thanks?] where the Original and Tranſlations (not ours) have the interrogatory Note.

Ver. 20. perfect] as the Gr. Word ſignifies, and is rendered Ch. ii. 6. & xiii. 10.

Ver. 21. other] Weſt. foreign.

Ver. 23. therefore] as being neceſſary, we may ſuppoſe genuine, notwithſtanding Mills writes to the contrary, Pr. 463.

Ver. 25. And thus] Theſe at the Beginning of the Ver. are not in ſome Copies, nor with the Vulg. though the latter is not mentioned by Mills, neither does it appear by his Note which and thus it is; and Whitby in Exam. L. ii. 3. quotes him ſaying, Every one ſees it is taken from the latter Part of the Verſe, not telling where he ſays it; but every one may not ſee with his Eyes. However Weſt. has left them out.

Ver. 26. What &c.] juſt as in Ver. 15. but by Weſt. here, What a thing is it that, putting out then, and putting in that.

Ver. 29. two or three] that is, ſays Hammond in his Annotation, ſo many in a Meeting, ſtrange to hear from him.

Ver. 30. be ſilent] as in Ver. 28. But Doddr. expounding this by immediately, ſays it would introduce a Confuſion; therefore he tranſlates, let the firſt have done ſpeaking. Which is beſide the Original, from whence he was lured by Reaſoning, inſtead of being ſtaid by Truth and Judgment, too often: for here the Command is to the firſt Perſon as mentioned, not to the ſecond; the Text has alſo no immediately to make a Confuſion; 3d, he joins the immediately to another's intimating he had a Revelation which was human, inſtead of the Revelation it ſelf that was divine; 4th, the firſt muſt have done ſpeaking, if he held his peace; 5th, the Revelation of the Holy Spirit was ſo to give Way to the Speech of Man; 6th, according to this a divine Revelation was not to be obeyed as to the delivering it in its own Time, nay it may ſeem, if ſuch Tranſlation be allowed, as if it might be wrong in that Reſpect. Whereas I underſtand it thus, according to the Meaning of the Gr. Word, and our com. Eng. that of two ſo preaching, as they did in the Primitive Church, by Inſpiration, when a Revelation was divinely and gradually opened to one who was ſilent, it would be withdrawing from him that was ſpeaking; of which he might be ſenſible, as well as the other who was to ſpeak after him, and therefore ſhould be regardful that he might not exceed his Part, and hinder another.

32. And the Spirits of the Prophets are ſubject to the Prophets.

33. For God is not one of Tumult, but of Peace, as in all the Churches of the Saints.

34. Let your Wives keep ſilence in the Churches: for it is not permitted to them to ſpeak, but to be ſubject, as the Law alſo ſays.

35. And if they would learn any Thing, let them aſk their own Huſbands at home: for it is a Shame for the Wives to ſpeak in the Church.

36. Did the Word of God come out from you? Or came it to you alone?

37. If any one think he is a Prophet, or ſpiritual; let him acknowledge that the Things I write to you, are the Commandments of the Lord.

38. But if any one is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39. So then, Brethren, be zealous to propheſy, and forbid not to ſpeak in Languages.

40. Let all Things be done in a comely Manner, and according to Order.

CHAP. XV.

AND I make known to you, Brethren, the Goſpel which I preached to you, which you alſo received, and wherein you ſtand;

2. By which too ye are ſaved, if you retain what Matter I preached to you, unleſs you have believed in vain.

3. For I delivered to you firſt, even what I received; that Chriſt died for our Sins, according to the Scriptures;

4. As alſo that he was buried, and that he roſe up the third Day, according to the Scriptures.

5. And that he was ſeen by Cephas, afterwards by the twelve.

6. Next he was ſeen by above five hundred Brethren at once; moſt of whom remain till now, but ſome too are aſleep.

7. In the next place he was ſeen by James, after that by all the Apoſtles.

8. And laſt of all he was ſeen by me, as being born untimely.

9. For I am the leaſt of the Apoſtles, who am not ſufficient to be called an Apoſtle, becauſe I perſecuted the Church of God.

10. However by the Grace of God I am what I am; and his Grace which I have had has not been in vain, but I have laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the Grace of God which has been with me.

11. Whether therefore it was I, or they; ſo we preach, and ſo you believed.

12. Now if Chriſt be preached, that he roſe up from the Dead; how do ſome among you ſay, that there is no Reſurrection of the Dead?

13. Whereas if there is no Reſurrection of the Dead, neither is Chriſt riſen up.

14. And if Chriſt be not riſen up, our Preaching indeed is in vain, and your Faith too in vain:

15. Nay we are alſo found falſe Witneſſes of God, ſince we teſtified concerning him, that he raiſed up Chriſt; whom he did not, if certainly the Dead do not riſe up.

16. For if the Dead do not riſe up, neither is Chriſt riſen up.

17. And if Chriſt be not riſen up, your Faith is in vain, you are yet in your Sins;

18. They alſo indeed who ſleep in Chriſt are periſhed.

19. If for this Life only we hope in Chriſt, we are the moſt miſerable of all Men.

20. But now Chriſt is riſen up from the Dead, is become the Firſt-fruit of thoſe who have been aſleep.

Ver. 32. Spirits] Some have Spirit, which Mills judges ſpurious.

Ver. 33. God is] As Mills would it is, only Ambroſe and Tertullian omitting it.

Ib. Tumult] thus tranſlated in the 2 Epiſt. vi. 5. & xii. 20. and a proper Oppoſite to Peace.

Ver. 34. Wives] as your annexed, and their Huſbands in the next Ver. ſhew; ſo Tyndal tranſlated it, and Dr. Barnes in that Tract of his Works for all to read Holy Scrip. gives it; ſee further on 1 Tim. ii. 11..

Ver. 35. their own] ſo the Gr.

Ver. 37. the Commandments] a Scholium with Mills, he does not tell us what for, as Explanation, Connection, &c. beſides a very few not having it.

Ver. 38. let him be ignorant] not pretend to be otherwiſe.

Ver. 3. even what I received] a few of the Primitive Writers only omitting, Mills ſtrikes off for a Comment, Pr. 464.

Ver. 5. the twelve] viz. all or the Apoſtles in general, and Mills ſays they were ſtrictly but ten, Thomas being abſent, ſo that the eleven of the Vulg. &c. is factitious.

Ver. 10. what I am] ſeemed to ſome Reader neceſſary to be added, ſays Mills, to make up the Sentence, Pr. 1215. only becauſe not in the Eth. Verſion; when the leaving it out might be but an Overſight of the Tranſlator.

Ib. has not been &c.] Wall.

Ver. 11. therefore] The vulg. Lat. only having for, Mills puts that as authentick, Pr. 467. though he produces three that have but, and Kuſter one more.

Ver. 14. in vain] ſo Ver. 10, 58.

Ver. 15. alſo] Mills ſays from the laſt Ver. Pr. 465. how much rather dropt by a few, as overcharged!

Ib. if certainly the Dead do not riſe up] Mills with Zegerus ſay came in for the ſake of Explanation, becauſe not with a few; but why ſhould the Apoſtle write ſo imperfectly? Might it not likelier be omitted by reaſon of the like which follows, or by miſſing a Line?

Ver. 20. become] ſome omit, and why? The Reaſon may be thought apparent, becauſe, as Mills quotes Zeger ſaying, it is redundant; yet he himſelf aſſerts it was added by Somebody to make the Sentence compleat, Pr. 681. but for that [and] was wanted with it.

21. For ſince by Man was Death, by Man alſo the Reſurrection of the Dead.

22. For as in Adam all die, even ſo in Chriſt will all be made alive.

23. But each in his own Order; Chriſt the Firſt-fruit, next they that are Chriſt's, at his Coming.

24. Afterwards will be the End, when he has delivered up the Kingdom to God, even the Father, when he has aboliſhed all Principality, with all Authority and Power.

25. For he muſt reign until he has put all Enemies under his Feet.

26. Death will be the laſt Enemy aboliſhed.

27. For he has made all Things ſubject under his Feet; but when he ſays that all Things are made ſubject, it is evident that he who made all ſubject to him is excepted.

28. And when all Things ſhall be ſubject to him, then will the Son himſelf alſo be ſubject to him who makes all Things be ſo; that God may be all in all Perſons.

29. Elſe what ſhall they do who are baptized for the Dead, if the Dead riſe not up entirely? Why then are they baptized for the Dead?

30. And why are we in danger every Hour?

31. That I die daily, I proteſt by the Boaſting which I have of you in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

32. If according to Man I fought with Beaſts at Epheſus, what Advantage will it be to me, if the Dead riſe not up? Let us eat, and drink; for to Morrow we ſhall die.

33. Do not miſtake; evil Diſcourſes ſpoil good Manners.

34. Awake to Righteouſneſs, and do not ſin; for ſome have not the Knowledge of God: I ſpeak to your Shame.

35. But Somebody may ſay, How do the Dead riſe up? And with what Body do they come?

36. O fooliſh one, what thou ſoweſt is not made alive, except it die.

Ver. 28. the Son] not found in ſome Authors, ſo ſentenced to the Marg. by Mills; but they might ſlip it over becauſe there is αὐτὸς, himſelf.

Ver. 29. baptized for the Dead] Of the Meaning of this, Wall ſays, there have been many Gueſſes, but thoſe given by any one have hardly ever ſeemed probable to any but himſelf, in his extravagant Way of Expreſſion; and this being one of the four Texts Edwards has made a Book on, theſe two Writers give a pretty many Meanings, Edwards alſo diſproving them, beſides his own, which is baptized with Water, becauſe of or for the ſake of the dead Martyrs. But this too labours with Difficulties: for if the Gr. Prepoſition here means for the ſake of, it would be much more ſignificant in Whitby's Interpretation, for the ſake of Jeſus dead, and for the others ſakes is ſcarce conſiſtent with Proteſtancy, much leſs for that to be chiefly the Cauſe as p. 204. Edwards alſo inſiſting on keeping to the proper Meaning in baptized, preſently runs off from it in the next Word; as likewiſe in the firſt of the Sentence, which he would not have to be Elſe, but Moreover; yet he boaſts that in his Expoſition, the genuine and proper Signification of the Words is upheld, that all is free and unconſtrained, p. 260. But he ſeems to have taken it from the Aſſembly's Annotations, with the Alteration of baptized with Water inſtead of Blood. As for Whitby's applying it to Jeſus, taken as may ſeem from Alex. More's Notes on Select Places, it may be ſufficient to ſay that the Dead here is plural thrice, nay Chriſt diſtinct from others, Ver. 13, 15, 16. and his ſhifting from it is mere Sophiſm, foraſmuch as the Dead in Acts xvii. 31. & Rom. i. 4. certainly was not Jeſus, but thoſe whom he roſe from, as here Ver. 12. 20. in Acts xxiii. 6. & xxiv. 21. it is the Matter that is ſpoken of as Ch. xvii. 32. viz. the Reſurrection, which will be of more than Jeſus, nay was then, Mat. xxvii. 52, 53. and Luke vii. 22. it is plural like the reſt, though it might refer there to more Dead than one raiſed. Wall ſays the moſt obvious and general Meaning is, that St. Paul ſpeaks of ſome Hereticks, who baptized ſome living Man in the ſtead of one that had died unbaptized; which Whitby refutes in Dodwell, held alſo by Eraſmus and Grotius, and might be further refuted, ſince the Apoſtle would not refer to ſuch as doing right and well, what he manifeſtly does; ſee alſo Edw. Enq. p. 165, 166, 167. The other Interpretation beſides his own, which Whitby ſays the Words are only capable of, is baptized in the Expectation, Hope, or Belief of the Reſurrection of the Dead, for which Hammond alſo holds, not as Wall ſays of him for as if they were dead, though others do; both which Edwards runs down, eſpecially the firſt as taking Dead for the Reſurrection of the Dead, and wider ſtill for the Confeſſion, Faith, or Hope of that, p. 147, 148, 149, 150.

What then muſt we do with it? Better Nothing, than that which is erroneous or amiſs; and I may help a Paſſenger by telling him which Roads or Paths are wrong, if I cannot tell him which is the right. However a good ſpiritual Signification may be, baptized in Suffering or Sorrow for thoſe that are ſpiritually dead, if we read may not riſe up; nor will this be ſo metaphorical as ſome may think, ſince baptized is but a Gr. Word uſed in Engliſh, and ſignifying plunged, may be into that as well as into Water, Mark x. 38. 39. ſo preaching to ſuch Dead ſee in 1 Pet. iv. 6. with ſuch Dead Eph. ii. 1, 5. John xi. 25. 2 Cor. v. 14. 1 Tim. v. 6. Rev. iii. 1. It will moreover hold thus in the natural Senſe, and agree well with Paul's Argument, i. e. plunged in Suffering or Sorrow for Friends or Relations dead, though I know of none that have ſo expounded it, nor had I read that Part of Edwards's Enquiry from p. 187. to 193. when I wrote it.

Ib. entirely] or wholly, as the Gr. is, and not at all is made by two Gr. Negatives. Beſides how could the Apoſtle make a Suppoſition of the Dead not riſing at all, when ſeveral had riſen? This alſo overturns the Syſtem of Edwards, who ſuppoſes theſe Dead to be only ſome good Perſons, and his Syſtem may be allowed more plauſible than others.

Ib. the Dead] at the End ſeveral Books have them inſtead of, plainly enough to ſhun the Repetition; nevertheleſs Mills affirms, what a ſmall Conſideration diſallows, that this for the Dead came from that before.

Ver. 31. Jeſus our Lord] Two Copies only being without theſe Words, Mills ranks that among the ſound Readings, Pr. 454, 467. but the Lat. of them both have the Lord.

Ver. 32. fought] Annotators are divided as to whether this was real or comparative; Whitby &c. being for the former, but I think moſt, with whom I join my ſelf, for the latter: for had Paul actually fought with Beaſts, why does he ſay according to Man, that Manner of fighting being then well known? And why alſo does he put If to it? Nor is it credible that he would have fought with them. Neither does it appear to have been by Acts xix. 29, 30, 31. whither this is either Way to be referred.

37. And

37. And as for what thou ſoweſt, thou doſt not ſow the Body it will be, but naked Grain, it may be of Wheat or ſome of the reſt.

38. But God gives it a Body as he will, and to each Seed its own Body.

39. All Fleſh is not the ſame Fleſh; but one indeed the Fleſh of Men, and another the Fleſh of Beaſts, and another of Fiſh, and another of Fowls.

40. And there are heavenly Bodies, as well as earthly Bodies; butthe Glory indeed of the heavenly is one, and of the earthly another.

41. There is one Glory of the Sun, and other Glory of the Moon, and other Glory of the Stars; for Star differs from Star in Glory.

42. So alſo is the Reſurrection of the Dead: it is ſown in Corruption, it is raiſed up in Incorruption;

43. It is ſown in Diſhonour, it is raiſed up in Glory; it is ſown in Weakneſs, it is raiſed up in Power;

44. It is ſown a natural Body, is raiſed up a ſpiritual Body: there is both a natural Body, and a ſpiritual one.

45. So alſo it is written, The firſt Man Adam became a living Soul; the laſt Adam a Spirit making alive,

46. Yet the ſpiritual was not firſt, but the natural; in the next place the ſpiritual.

47. The firſt Man was from the Earth earthy, the ſecond Man the Lord from Heaven.

48. What the earthy one was, ſuch alſo are the earthy ones: and what the heavenly one, ſuch alſo the heavenly ones.

49. And as we have born the Image of the earthy, we ſhall alſo that of the heavenly.

50. Now this I ſay, Brethren, that Fleſh and Blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, nor does Corruption inherit Incorruption.

51. Behold I tell you a Myſtery: we ſhall not all indeed ſleep, but ſhall all be changed,

52. In a Moment, in the Twinkling of an Eye, when the laſt Trumpet is; for it will ſound, and the Dead will be raiſed up incorruptible, and we ſhall be changed.

53. For this corruptible muſt put on Incorruption, and this mortal put on Immortality.

54. And when this corruptible has put on Incorruption, and this mortal put on Immortality; then will come to paſs the Saying written, Death will be devoured in Victory.

55. Where is thy Sting, O Death? Where is thy Victory, O Grave?

56. The Sting of Death is Sin, and the Power of Sin by the Law.

57. But Thanks be to God, who gives us the Victory by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

58. So that, my beloved Brethren, be ſettled, unmoveable, abounding in the Work of the Lord always; as you know that your Labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Ver. 39. and] which the Gr. has before each another; though the firſt are omitted, and the laſt put Ital. in the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 41. and] the firſt being not in the Vulg. only, Mills ſuppoſes was not Paul's; but who would have added it in before the other?

Ib. for] which Doddr. turns into [and] ſaying, elſe we muſt ſuppoſe the Apoſtle to aſſert, that the Sun and Moon were Stars. But may it not be ſaid, There muſt be a different Splendor of the Sun and Moon, which are ſo much unlike each other: for even the Stars differ in Brightneſs, that appear ſo nearly alike; without aſſerting the two former are Stars?

Ver. 44. there is both a natural Body, and a ſpiritual one] according to Mills was noted in the Marg. and thence brought into the Text, as by Eraſmus the like, though abſent but in three Copies and two Authors; but though eight or ten Copies, a Verſion, &c. have, if there is a natural Body, there is alſo a ſpiritual Body, yet they do not eſpouſe that.

Ver. 45. Adam] the latter omitted in the Ethiop. and Iren. which Mills from ſo ſlender Authority would exclude; yet relates that Marcion, or ſome Reader, put Lord to explain it, as the Marcionites did in its room.

Ver. 47. the Lord] Divers leave this out, eſpecially of the Primitive Writers, and Mills judges it a Comment, Pr. 325, 465, 1319. which I would not diſpute againſt too many, yet rather think Lord as at Ver. 45. was taken hence, and ſo this to be genuine.

Ver. 49. we ſhall] with many let us, by the Change of o into ω (a ſhort o inſtead of a long one) as Mills ſhews through mere Careleſſneſs; ſee Prol. 373. beſides that noticed by Kuſter.

Ver. 51. we ſhall not &c.] Some have, we ſhall therefore all indeed ſleep, but ſhall not all be changed, therefore being made by the Change of ὃ into ὃν: others, and among them the Vulg. or perhaps they from that, we ſhall all (Mills omits indeed, though the Vulg. has quidem) riſe up, but ſhall not all be changed; but as Mills, who is ſo captious at our preſ. Reading. eſpecially in behalf of the Vulg. allows it to be genuine, we may reſt the better ſatisfied. By we ſhall all be changed I underſtand all the reſt that do not ſleep or die, and the taking all too ſtrictly I ſuppoſe occaſioned thoſe Alterations. What Mills ſays to ſave the Credit of the Lat. Tranſlator, is too remarkable to be omitted, viz. that the foregoing certainly could not be his, foraſmuch as he followed the Truth of the Gr. Copy, but was of ſome Reader, Pr. 544. but at other Times he himſelf puts a worſe Conſequence to ſuch an unwarrantable Poſition or Suppoſition, namely tells us our Gr. is of ſome Reader.

Ver. 52. it will] here being no Noun.

Ver. 54. this corruptible has put on Incorruption, and] Abſent from the old Latin, and one or two Writers and Tranſlations under its Influence; and Mills being another of thoſe, would juſtify the Omiſſion by the ſlender Suppoſal that this was made from the foregoing Verſe. But how much of the Scripture might we reject at that Rate?

Ib. Victory] A Copy and three Authors have it Contention; Beza naming two, ſays many others, who were deceived by a Tranſcriber that had written νεῖκος for νῖκος, yet the Rhemiſts in their Pref. charge him thus, He thinketh the Apoſtle ſaid not νῖκος, victorie, as it is in al Greeke copies, but νεῖκος, contention.

Ver. 55. The Gen. Verſ. has this tranſpoſed for a various Reading, O death, where is thy Victory, &c. but I ſee no ſuch by Mills.

Ib. Grave] Weſt. Hades.

AND concerning the Collection for the Saints, according as I ordered the Churches of Galatia, ſo alſo do ye.

2. At the firſt Day after the Sabbath, let each one of you lay treaſured up by him of what he is proſpered with; that when I come, there may not be Collections then.

3. And when I am preſent, whomſoever you approve of by Letters, thoſe will I ſend to carry your Bounty to Jeruſalem.

4. Or if it is worthy of my going alſo, they ſhall go with me.

5. However I will come to you, when I go through Macedonia; as this is what I ſhall do.

6. And perhaps I ſhall remain, or even winter with you; that you may conduct me whitherſoever I go.

7. For I would not ſee you now in the Way, but hope to remain ſome Time with you, if the Lord permits.

8. But I ſhall remain at Epheſus till the fiftieth Day.

9. For there is a Door opened to me, great and effectual; and many oppoſe.

10. And if Timothy comes, look that he may be with you void of Fear: for he works the Work of the Lord, even like my ſelf.

11. Let not any one therefore deſpiſe him; but conduct him in Peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the Brethren.

12. And concerning the Brother Apollos, I beſought him much to come to you with the Brethren: but his Will was not at all to come now; however he will come when he has Time.

13. Watch, ſtand faſt in the Faith, behave manfully, be ſtrong.

14. Let all your Matters be done in Love.

15. Nay I beſeech you, Brethren, who know the Family of Stephanus, that it is the Firſt-fruit of Achaia, and that they have appointed themſelves to miniſter to the Saints;

16. That you would alſo be ſubject to ſuch, and to every one who works together and labours.

17. Moreover I rejoice at the Coming of Stephanus, Fortunatus and Achaicus; ſince they have ſupplied your Defect.

18. For they have refreſhed my Spirit and yours; therefore acknowledge ſuch.

19. The Churches of Aſia ſalute you. Aquila and Priſcilla ſalute you much in the Lord, with the Church at their Houſe.

20. All the Brethren ſalute you. Salute one another with a holy Kiſs.

21. The Salutation of Paul with my own Hand.

22. If any one does not love the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, let him be curſed at the Coming of the Lord.

23. The Grace of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you.

24. My Love be with you all in Chriſt Jeſus: ſo let it be.

The firſt to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, ſent by Stephanus, Fortunatus, Achaicus and Timothy.

Ver. 2. by him] Though Doddr. finds fault of lay by him in ſtore, and leaves out him, the latter is in the Original.

Ib. of what he is proſpered with] The Vulgate's what ſhall pleaſe him well Mills reckons corrupt, Pr. 554.

Ver. 3. by Letters] of Commendation to carry with them, Acts xviii. 27. 2 Cor. iii. 1. which Whitby, &c. not thinking of, turn it them will I ſend with my Letters, diſtorting διὰ into with.

Ver. 7. would] or am willing, being a Verb in Gr.

Ver. 11. therefore] As neceſſary a Connection as this is, Mills condemns it for an Inſertion, by the Verdict of two Copies and one Author, Pr. 466.

Ver. 15. Nay] Mills finding three without this, turns it off, Pr. 467. he might have made four with our preſ. Eng. but is not it therefore in the Gr. now?

Ver. 18. ſuch] Of what Uſe is ye them that are, for which the Gr. has no Word but the redundant Article? With a Deal of the like, which this may ſerve for an Inſtance of.

Ver. 22. at the Coming of the Lord] according to the Meaning of the Syriack Words maran atha, of which ſee Buxt. Chald. Lex. under מר and as Man could not know who did not love Chriſt, it was fit for ſuch a one to be curſed then.

Ver. 23. the Lord] our being but in a few Greek Copies; ſee beſides Mills's, the Amſterdam Edition with various Readings, 1711, and there eſpecially Canon 35.

Sub. Philippi] But as appears by Ver. 8, & 19. comp. with Acts xviii. 24, 26. was Epheſus, when Paul was there the ſecond time, Acts xviii. 1. by Ver. 12. here; and not Philippi, Ver. 5. from whence he wrote the 2d Epiſtle, and it appears was there but a little while, Acts xx. 3, 6. beſides Mills collects that Titus, 2 Cor. viii. 16, 17. & xii. 18. & ii. 12. however not Timothy, Acts xix. 22. Ch. xvi. 10. was one of thoſe ſent with it, but put here by Miſtake of Ch. iv. 17.

NOTES upon the Second Epiſtle of PAUL to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the Will of God, and Timothy a Brother; to the Church of God which is at Corinth, with all the Saints who are in all Achaia.

2. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3. Bleſſed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Father of Mercies, and the God of all Comfort;

4. Who comforts us in all our Affliction, that we may be able to comfort thoſe in all Affliction, by the Comfort with which we our ſelves are comforted from God.

5. Since as the Sufferings of Chriſt abound in us, ſo by Chriſt our Comfort alſo abounds.

6. Thus whether we are afflicted, it is for your Comfort and Salvation, that is effectual in enduring the ſame Sufferings which we alſo ſuffer; or are comforted, it is for your Comfort and Salvation.

7. And our Hope is firm concerning you; knowing that as you are Partakers of the Sufferings, ſo alſo of the Comfort.

8. For we would not have you be ignorant, Brethren, concerning the Affliction which came upon us in Aſia, that we were exceedingly burdened above Strength, ſo that we deſpaired even of living.

9. But we had the Sentence of Death in our ſelves, that we might not be confident in our ſelves, but in God who raiſes up the Dead.

10. Who has delivered us from ſo great Death, and does deliver; in whom we hope that he will too yet deliver:

11. You alſo aiding together with Supplication for us, that for the Gift to us by means of many Perſons, thanks may be given by many for us.

12. For our Glorying is this, the Teſtimony of our Conſcience, that in godly Simplicity and Sincerity, not in carnal Wiſdom, but in the Grace of God, we have been converſant in the World, and more abundantly to you.

13. For we write no other Things to you, than thoſe which you read, or even acknowledge; and I hope that you will alſo acknowledge to the End.

14. As you have likewiſe acknowledged us partly, that we are your Glorying, according as you are ours alſo in the Day of the Lord Jeſus.

15. And in this Confidence I was willing to come to you before, that you might have a ſecond Favour;

16. Even to go by you into Macedonia, and come to you again from Macedonia, as alſo be conducted by you into Judea.

Ver. 2. our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt] Ambroſe, and as it ſeems Pelagius, ſays Mills, omit all this; what then? It crept from other Epiſtles. This is ſhocking! What becauſe they ſhortened a Quotation, muſt we doubt, nay decry, the univerſal Conſent of Copies and Tranſlations? His frequent Query, Who would blot out ſuch notable Words? is unapplicable here: for though the Words are ſuch in an eminent Manner, yet not even neceſſary with reſpect to the Matter, ſince God alone might be ſufficient.

Ver. 4. by the Comfort] The Vulg. though having comforts and Comfort before, has now Exhortation and exhorted, another Meaning of the ſame Gr. Words; but abſurdly, as Mills owns, yet aſcribes it to the Librarians, to ſave his eſteemed Interpreter, Pr. 556.

Ver. 5. Sufferings of Chriſt] by Ham. Suffering for Chriſt; but the ſimple Meaning thoſe like Chriſt's Sufferings may be more literal.

Ver. 6. Comfort] both times Exhortation, as alſo exhorted in the Vulg. like that in Ver. 4. though Comfort both in Ver. 5, and 7.

Ver. 7. And our Hope is firm concerning you] This Clauſe with divers ſtands before or are comforted, which ſeems to make that Part too long; and ours ſeems beſt, tho' Mills wrangles at it. With others or are comforted, it is for your Comfort (moſtly without and Salvation) comes before that is effectual &c.

Ver. 10. and does deliver] firſt put for Explanation (but what Explanation is this?) in the Marg. ſays Mills, and a Scribe thinking it Part of the Text, brought it in, Pr. 1248. How fanciful this! Wanting in 2 Copies &c.

Ver. 11. by means of many Perſons] viz. through their Supplication. In the Vulg. Lat. from the Perſons of many Faces, than which Nothing is more abſurd, ſays Mills, but he takes care to attribute it to a Scribe, Pr. 556. However that Tranſ. is ſo now, and as being ſo, is dubbed the Authentick Scripture.

Ib. by many for us] Inſtead of us ſeveral have you, which Whitby, though not Mills, ſtaggers at; but this many being the ſame as the other, and that as you, forbids it.

Ver. 16. into Judea] as before into Macedonia.

17. When

17. When I was therefore willing of this, did I uſe Lightneſs? Or what Things I would have be, was it according to the Fleſh, that there might be with me Yes, Yes, and No, No?

18. Whereas God is faithful, ſince our Speech to you was not Yes, and No.

19. For the Son of God, Jeſus Chriſt, preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus and Timothy, was not Yes and No, but was Yes in himſelf.

20. For all the Promiſes whatever of God are in him Yes, and in him So let it be, to the Glory of God by us.

21. Moreover he that has confirmed us with you to Chriſt, and anointed us, is God:

22. Who has alſo ſealed us, and given the Earneſt of the Spirit in our Hearts.

23. And I call God for a Witneſs to my Soul, that by ſparing you, I did not yet come to Corinth.

24. Not that we have dominion over your Faith, but are Workers together for your Joy: for by Faith you ſtand.

CHAP. II.

BUT I determined this with my ſelf, not to come again to you in Grief.

2. For if I make you ſorry, who is there then to make you glad, excepting one that is made ſorry by me?

3. And I have written this to you, that when I come, I may not have Grief from them for whom I ſhould rejoice, having confidence in you all, that my Joy is all yours.

4. For from much Affliction and Diſtreſs of Heart, I wrote to you, with many Tears; not that you might be made ſorry, but that you might know the Love which I have for you the more abundantly.

5. If any one then has made ſorry, he has not made me ſorry, but partly; that I may not burden you all.

6. Sufficient for ſuch a one is this Rebuke from many.

7. So that on the contrary you are rather to forgive, and comfort; leſt ſuch a one ſhould any how be ſwallowed up by too abundant Grief.

8. Therefore I beſeech you, to eſtabliſh Love towards him.

9. Since for this alſo I have written, that I might know the Proof of you, whether you would be obedient in all Things.

10. And whom you forgive any Thing, I alſo: for if I too forgave any Thing, I forgave the Perſon for you, in the Preſence of Chriſt;

11. That no Gain might be got of us by Satan: for we are not unacquainted with his Devices.

12. Beſides on coming to Troas for the Goſpel of Chriſt, as a Door was opened to me by the Lord;

13. I had no Eaſe in my Spirit, for my not finding Titus my Brother; but I took leave of them, and came away into Macedonia.

14. Now Thanks be to God, who always cauſes us to triumph in Chriſt, and makes manifeſt the Savour of his Knowledge by us in every Place.

15. Becauſe we are a ſweet Smell of Chriſt to God, both in them who are ſaved, and that periſh;

16. To theſe indeed the Savour of Death to Death, and to thoſe the Savour of Life to Life: and who is ſufficient for theſe Things?

17. For we are not as many that ſell out the Word of God; but as from Sincerity, but as from God, before him, we ſpeak in Chriſt.

Ver. 17. Lightneſs] Weſt. levity, in his Manner of changing plain Words into hard, yet Writing, as he ſays in Pref. chiefly for plain, unlettered Men.

CHAP III.

DO we begin again to commend our ſelves? On the contrary have we need, as ſome, of Epiſtles of Commendation to you, or of Commendation from you?

2. You are our Epiſtle written in our Hearts, known and read by all Men.

3. Since you are made manifeſt to be the Epiſtle of Chriſt, miniſtred by us, written not with Ink, but with the Spirit of the Living God; not in Tables of Stone, but in fleſhly Tables of the Heart.

4. And ſuch Confidence have we by Chriſt towards God.

5. Not that we are ſufficient of our ſelves, to think any Thing as from our ſelves; but our Sufficiency is from God.

6. Who alſo has made us ſufficient for Miniſters of the new Teſtament, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit: for the Letter kills, whereas the Spirit makes alive.

7. And if the Miniſtry of Death, in Letters engraved on Stones, was done in ſuch Glory, that the Iſraelites could not look ſtedfaſtly at the Face of Moſes, for the Glory of his Face, which is aboliſhed;

8. How will not the Miniſtry of the Spirit be more in Glory?

9. For if the Miniſtry of Condemnation was Glory, much more will the Miniſtry of Righteouſneſs abound in Glory.

10. For even what was made glorious was not ſo in this Reſpect, becauſe of the Glory that excels.

11. For if that was by Glory which is aboliſhed, much more what remains is in Glory.

12. Having therefore ſuch Hope, we uſe much Boldneſs.

13. And not as Moſes who put a Veil upon his Face, for the Iſraelites not to look ſtedfaſtly to the End of what is aboliſhed.

14. But their Minds were hardened: for till this Day the ſame Veil, at the Reading of the Old Teſtament, remains not unveiled; which is aboliſhed in Chriſt.

15. But until this Day, when Moſes is read, the Veil is laid upon their Heart.

16. However when it ſhall be turned to the Lord, the Veil will be taken away.

17. And the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, Freedom is there.

18. And we all with unveiled Face, ſeeing as in a Glaſs the Glory of the Lord, are transformed into the ſame Image, from Glory to Glory, as it were by the ſpiritual Lord.

CHAP. IV.

BY reaſon of that in having this Miniſtry, as we have obtained mercy, we do not faint.

2. But have refuſed the hidden Things of Shame, and not walked in Craftineſs, nor dealt deceitfully with the Word of God; but by Manifeſtation of the Truth, have recommended our ſelves to every Man's Conſcience before God.

3. Whereas if our Goſpel be covered, it is among them that are loſt;

4. In whom the god of this World has blinded the Minds of them being Unbelievers, for the Enlightening of the glorious Goſpel of Chriſt, who is the Similitude of God, not to ſhine to them.

5. For we do not preach our ſelves, but Chriſt Jeſus the Lord; yet our ſelves your Servants for the ſake of Jeſus.

Know-

Knowledge of God's Glory, in the Appearance of Jeſus Chriſt.

7. But we have this Treaſure in earthen Veſſels, that the Excellency of the Power may be of God, and not from us:

8. Who are afflicted in every Thing, but not diſtreſſed; doubting, but not deſpairing;

9. Perſecuted, but not forſaken; caſt down, but not deſtroyed;

10. Always carrying about in the Body the Dying of the Lord Jeſus, that the Life of Jeſus alſo may be made manifeſt in our Body.

11. For we who live are always delivered to Death for the ſake of Jeſus, that his Life alſo may be made manifeſt in our mortal Fleſh.

12. So that Death indeed works in us, but Life in you.

13. And as we have the ſame Spirit of Faith, according to what is written, I believed, therefore ſpoke; we likewiſe believe, therefore do alſo ſpeak:

14. Knowing that he who raiſed up the Lord Jeſus, will alſo raiſe us up by Jeſus, and cauſe to ſtand with you.

15. Since all the Things are for your ſakes, that Grace, by the Thankſgiving of many, may the more abound to the Glory of God.

16. Therefore we do not faint, but though our outward Perſon periſh, yet the inward is renewed Day by Day.

17. For our momentary light Affliction, works for us an everlaſting Weight of Glory exceeding excellent.

18. As we look not at Things that are ſeen, but at thoſe not ſeen: for Things ſeen are for a Time, whereas thoſe not ſeen are for ever.

CHAP. V.

FOR we know, that if our earthly Houſe of the Tabernacle ſhould be diſſolved, we have a Building from God, a Houſe not made with Hands, everlaſting in the Heavens.

2. Nay we alſo groan in this Reſpect, longing to be cloathed with our Habitation from Heaven.

3. And if then we are cloathed, we ſhall not be found naked.

4. For even we who are in the Tabernacle groan, being burdened; for which we would not be uncloathed, but cloathed, that Mortality may be ſwallowed up by Life.

5. Now he who works on us for this very Thing is God, who alſo gives us the Earneſt of the Spirit.

6. We are confident therefore always, yet know that being preſent in the Body, we are abſent from the Lord.

7. For we walk by Faith, not by Appearance.

8. Thus we are confident, and are pleaſed more to be abſent from the Body, and to be preſent with the Lord.

9. Therefore we alſo endeavour, whether preſent or abſent, to be well-pleaſing to him.

10. For we muſt all be made manifeſt before the Judgment-ſeat of Chriſt, that each may receive according to the Things which he has done by the Body, whether good or bad.

11. Knowing therefore the Fear of the Lord, we perſuade Men; nay we are made manifeſt to God, and I hope have been alſo manifeſted in your Conſciences.

Ver. 6. God's] for which a few of little Note having his, Mills in Prol. N. 296. raſhly pronounces ours a marginal Explanation of that; but ſuch his, with God ſo before, certainly could not need: I therefore conclude that God being repeated, was altered by Somebody to his; as far more likely.

Ver. 14. the Lord] one Copy, one Tranſ. one Author leave out, therefore Mills ſays is a Scribe's, Prol. 473. for it being neither with Jeſus after, nor could be either for Explanation or Connection, he let it reſt on ſuch Authority, as he was determined not to loſe the Occaſion of a new Reading.

Ver. 18. look] Weſt. aim.

Ver. 3. And if] the Senſe of which compare with the com. Tranſ.

Ib. cloathed] A few have uncloathed, which Mills is much for; ſee his Note, and Prol. 473. Nevertheleſs his Argument turning on their Deſire to be cloathed with the heavenly Body, without the Feeling of Death, appears too extravagant; and nearly of kin to Caſtellio's being taken away alive at the Judgment, which to Beza ſeemed to want no Refutation; and ſee the Exam. of Whitby.

Ib. ſhall not be found naked] though ſtript of this Body.

Ver. 4. for which] the being burdened: that is do not merely deſire Death to be freed from Suffering. This being according to the Gr. and not for that, becauſe.

Ver. 5. alſo] as lacking in ſome, Mills repreſents it thruſt in, Pr. 473. improbably enough.

Ver. 6. are confident] Weſt. behave undauntedly.

Ib. preſent] as in Ver. 8, 9.

Ver. 7. Appearance] as rendered 1 Theſ. v. 22. and Sight may ſignify ſeeing, which is not the Meaning of the Gr. Word.

Ver. 9. endeavour] Weſt. are ambitious, on which he thus comments, The only Ambition which has place in a Chriſtian; but this Gr. Verb being alſo in Rom. xv. 20. 1 Theſ. iv. 11. is there applied to other Particulars, and in the latter would be improper to be ambitious, nor are either of them ſo rendered by him: for the Signification of Words is by Uſe, not Etymology.

Ver. 10. the Things—by the Body] his own Things — of the Body is a various Reading with ſome, as imagined it ſeems to be ſo more effectually his, and ſo more rewardable; which the vulg. Lat. having, the Proteſtants kept, as being farther from the Doctrine of Merit by bodily Performances: thus at leaſt I conceive the Caſe might be in our Tranſ. tho' Mills ſticks cloſe to the Vulg. and ſeems to argue abſurdly, that by the Body is doing more by the Mind than the other, Pr. 473. and ſee p. 465. with Whit. Examen.

12. For we do not commend our ſelves again to you, but are giving you Occaſion of Glorying concerning us, that you may have this for them who glory in Appearance, and not in Heart.

13. Since whether we are crazy, it is to God; or are ſober, it is to you.

14. For the Love of Chriſt preſſes us; we judging thus, that if one died for all, then all were dead;

15. And that he died for all, in order that thoſe who live ſhould no longer live to themſelves, but to him who died and was raiſed up for them.

16. So that we are to be acquainted with none henceforth according to the Fleſh; nay even though we knew Chriſt ſo, yet now we do no more.

17. So that if any one be in Chriſt, he is a new Creature: old Things are paſt, behold all are become new.

18. And all Things are from God, who has reconciled us to himſelf by Jeſus Chriſt, and given us the Miniſtry of Reconciliation;

19. As that God was in Chriſt, reconciling the World to himſelf, not reckoning their Offences to them, and has committed to us the Word of Reconciliation.

20. We are therefore Ambaſſadors for Chriſt, as if God were beſeeching by us; we intreat you for Chriſt, be reconciled to God.

21. For he has made him be Sin for us, who did not know Sin, that we might become the Righteouſneſs of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

AND we who work with him alſo beſeech, that you will not receive the Grace of God in vain:

2. (For he ſays, I have heard thee in the accepted Time, and helped thee in the Day of Salvation: behold now is the acceptable Time, behold now the Day of Salvation)

3. As we give Nothing to ſtumble at in any Thing, that the Miniſtry may not be blamed;

4. But in all Things recommend our ſelves as the Miniſters of God, in much Patience, in Afflictions, in Neceſſities, in Diſtreſſes,

5. In Stripes, in Impriſonments, in Tumults, in Labours, in Watchings, in Faſtings,

6. In Purity, in Knowledge, in Forbearance, in Kindneſs, in the Holy Spirit, in Love unfeigned,

7. In the Word of Truth, in the Power of God, by the Armour of Righteouſneſs on the right and left Hand,

8. By Glory and Diſhonour, by ill Report and good Report: as Seducers, and true;

9. As unknown, and known; as dying, and behold we live; as chaſtened, and not killed;

10. As being ſorry, yet always rejoicing; as being poor, yet enriching many; as having Nothing, and poſſeſſing all Things.

11. Our Mouth is opened to you, O Corinthians, our Heart is enlarged.

12. You are not ſtreightened in us, but are ſtreightened in your own Bowels.

13. Now for the Recompence of that, I ſpeak as to Children, be you alſo enlarged.

14. Be not yoked along with Unbelievers: for what Participation is there of Righteouſneſs and Iniquity? And what Communion has Light with Darkneſs?

15. And what Concord has Chriſt with Ungodlineſs? Or what Part has a Believer with an Unbeliever?

16. And what Agreement has the Temple of God with Idols? For you are the Temple of the Living God, as God ſays, I will dwell in them, and go about among them, and be their God, as they ſhall a People to me.

17. Therefore come out from among thoſe, and be ſeparate, ſays the Lord, and do not

CHAP. VII.

AS we have therefore theſe Promiſes, Beloved, let us cleanſe our ſelves from all Defilement of Fleſh and Spirit, and accompliſh Holineſs in the Fear of God.

2. Receive us: we have done injury to none, corrupted none, got gain of none.

3. I do not ſpeak for Condemnation; ſince I ſaid before, that you are in our Hearts, to die and live with.

4. There is much Boldneſs with me to you, much Glorying with me for you: I am filled with Comfort, I abound the more with Joy in all our Affliction.

5. For we alſo being come into Macedonia, our Fleſh had no Eaſe, but we were afflicted in every Thing; without were Contentions, within Fears.

6. But God who comforts the lowly, comforted us by the Coming of Titus;

7. And not by his Coming only, but alſo by the Comfort that he was comforted with in you, rehearſing to us your Longing, your Mourning, your Zeal for me; ſo that I rejoiced more.

8. Since if I even made you ſorry by an Epiſtle, I do not repent, if I might even repent: for I perceive that the ſame Epiſtle made you ſorry, though but for a little while.

9. I now rejoice, not that you were made ſorry, but that you were made ſorry to Repentance: for you were made ſorry agreeable to God, that you might ſuffer loſs from us in Nothing.

10. For Sorrow agreeable to God, works Repentance to Salvation, not to be repented of; whereas the Sorrow of the World works Death.

11. For behold in this very Thing that you were ſorry agreeable to God, how much Carefulneſs it wrought in you, nay Apology, nay Indignation, nay Fear, nay Longing, nay Zeal, nay Vengeance! In every Thing you have recommended your ſelves to be clear in the Matter.

12. Then though indeed I wrote to you, it was not for the ſake of him who did the injury, nor for his ſake who received the injury, but for the ſake of making manifeſt to you before God, our Carefulneſs for you.

13. By reaſon of this we were comforted in your Comfort; and we rejoiced the more abundantly in the Joy of Titus, that his Spirit was refreſhed by you all.

14. Since though I boaſted Something to him concerning you, I am not aſhamed; but as we ſpoke all Things to you truly, even ſo our Boaſting which was to Titus is become true.

15. And his Affections are more abundant to you, when he calls to remembrance the Obedience of you all, how with Fear and Trembling you received him.

16. I rejoice therefore, that in every Thing I am confident in you.

Ver. 18. Nay I will] This being quoted from Jer. xxxi. 1. and that in the Verſe before from Iſa. lii. 11. and both ſeparately with ſays the Lord, ſhould not be joined together as in the com. Tranſ.

Ib. our Carefulneſs for you] Mills has put in the Text your Carefulneſs for us, after the Edition of Caryophylus, yet reckons ours to be right, Pr. 1316. as alſo to you ſhews, but that a very few have not.

CHAP. VIII.

AND we let you know, Brethren, of the Grace of God given in the Churches of Macedonia;

2. That in much Experience of Affliction, the Abundance of their Joy, and their Poverty after a deep Manner, has abounded to the Riches of their Liberality.

3. Since according to Power (I teſtify) and above Power, they did of their own Accord:

4. Nay beſought us with much Intreaty, that we would receive the Favour, and the Communion of the Miniſtry to the Saints.

5. And not as we hoped, but gave themſelves firſt to the Lord, and then to us by the Will of God.

6. So that we beſought Titus, that as he had begun before, ſo he would alſo accompliſh in you this Grace likewiſe:

7. Thus as you abound in every Thing, Faith, Speech, Knowledge, all Carefulneſs, and Love from you to us; that you may abound alſo in this Grace.

8. I do not ſpeak according to Command, but through the Carefulneſs of others, and to prove the Reality of your Love.

9. For you know the Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that for you he became poor, rich as he was; that you might become rich by his Poverty.

10. And I give my Opinion in this; ſince this is profitable to you, who began already laſt Year, not only to do, but alſo to be willing.

11. And now then accompliſh the doing; that according as there was a Readineſs to be willing, ſo there may alſo to accompliſh of what you have.

12. For if there be a Readineſs beforehand, it is acceptable according as any one has, not as he has not.

13. For it is not that there ſhould be Eaſe to others, and Affliction to you.

14. But by Equality at the preſent Time, for your Abundance to be for their Want; that their Abundance alſo may be for your Want, to the end that there may be an Equality.

15. As it is written, He who got much had none over, and he that got little had none wanting.

16. But Thanks be to God, who put the ſame Carefulneſs for you into the Heart of Titus.

17. Since indeed he received the Intreaty; but being more careful, he was coming to you of his own Accord.

18. However we have ſent along with him a Brother, whoſe Praiſe is in the Goſpel through all the Churches;

19. Not only ſo, but was alſo choſen by the Churches our Fellow-traveller with this Grace, that is miniſtred by us to the Glory of the ſame God, and your Readineſs:

20. We avoiding this, that none ſhould blame us in this Plenty which is miniſtred by us;

21. As we provide good Things, not only before the Lord, but alſo before Men.

22. And we have ſent our Brother with them, whom we have often proved to be careful in many Things, and now much more careful, by the great Confidence which there is towards you:

Ver. 4. Favour] the ſame as rendered Grace in the next Verſe, not ſignifying gift.

Ver. 5. not as we hoped] they hoping not to have that Work put upon them, as appears by their being much beſought to it, Ver. 4. the Reaſon of which may be ſeen by Acts vi. 2, 3, 4. ſo that we need not fly with Whitby, to expected or conjectured inſtead of hoped; nor leave it as unexplicable with Hammond, &c.

Ver. 8. Reality] The ingenium bonum, good Diſpoſition of the Vulg. Mills, careful for the Credit of his favourite Interpreter, ſuppoſes was ingenuum, and that bonum was added to help out the other, Pr. 557.

Ver. 10. Opinion] This is the ſame Word, and with the ſame Verb, as in 1 Cor. vii. 25.

Ver. 12. any one has] Some he or it has, leaving out a Gr. Word: for the Vulg. tranſlating the Will inſtead of a Readineſs, made the latter ſuitable, which might affect thoſe Copies and Writers; tho' Mills was for Somebody's ſupplying it, Pr. 633.

Ver. 17. Intreaty] as Ver. 6. ſhews, and the ſame Word in Ver. 4.

Ib. was coming] apparently the Meaning; which Wall ſaw, but being at a loſs to expreſs, expounds it, Has undertaken to come, and comes with this to you.

Ver. 18. along] or together, here being μετὰ, which there is not Ver. 22.

Ib. a Brother] moſtly thought to be Luke, for which ſee Whit. Annot. and Wall on Acts xx. 4. or Crit. Not. p. 253, 254.

Ver. 19. your Readineſs] Many for your have our, but I don't find the Criticks defending it, tho' it is in the vulg. Lat. excepting Wall, a raſh one, who thinks it makes a plainer and more agreeable Senſe; what adminiſtred by us to our ready Mind? Does not that make little or no Senſe? And does not your accord with that in Ver. 11?

Ver. 20. We] for Clearneſs; this belonging to we have ſent, Ver. 18. as Beza ſhews.

Ver. 22. with them] with whom? with Titus and the Brother, Ver. 16, 18? as it ſeems our Tranſlators underſtood it, by putting this before our brother, and adding in for after Providing, Ver. 21. No, ſince not only by the Subſcription there were no more than thoſe two Perſons ſent, but Brother here appears to be the ſame as he in Ver. 18. I therefore by this them underſtand the good Things in the preceding Verſe, which might be Preſents to their Friends, as may be ſignified by the Plenty miniſtred, Ver. 20. and ſuitable to before Men, Ver. 21.

Ib. there is] in us, as he before ſaid we.

23. Whether it be for Titus, my Partner, and Fellow-worker towards you; or our Brethren, the Apoſtles of the Churches, the Glory of Chriſt.

24. Therefore ſhew to them, in the Preſence of the Churches, the Manifeſtation of your Love, and of our Boaſting about you.

CHAP. IX.

FOR indeed concerning the miniſtring to the Saints, it is ſuperfluous for me to write to you.

2. Since I know your Readineſs, which I boaſt of about you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was prepared laſt Year; and the Zeal from you has provoked many.

3. However I have ſent the Brethren, that our Boaſting about you might not be void in this Reſpect; that, as I ſaid, you may be prepared:

4. Leſt any how if the Macedonians ſhould come with me, and find you unprepared; we, that we may not ſay you, ſhould be aſhamed in this Confidence of Boaſting.

5. I therefore eſteemed it neceſſary to exhort the Brethren, that they would go before to you, and fit up beforehand your Bleſſing told before, that it might be ready, the ſame as a Bleſſing, and not as in Covetouſneſs.

6. There is this too; He that ſows ſparingly, will alſo reap ſo; and he who ſows in Bleſſings, will likewiſe reap in the ſame.

7. Let it be as each chooſes before with the Heart, not of Grief, or of Neceſſity: for God loves a chearful Giver.

8. And God is able to make all Grace abound in you; that having always all Sufficiency in all Things, you may abound in every good Work.

9. As it is written, He that diſperſes, gives to the Needy, his Righteouſneſs remains for evermore.

10. And let him who furniſhes the Sower with Seed, ſupply Bread alſo for Food, and multiply your Seed ſown, and increaſe the Fruits of your Righteouſneſs:

11. You being enriched in every Thing to all Liberality, which works by us Thankſgiving to God.

12. Since the Miniſtry of this Service, is not only a Supply to the Wants of the Saints, but alſo abounds by many Thankſgivings to God:

13. (They glorifying God, by the Experience of this Miniſtry, in your confeſſed Subjection to the Goſpel of Chriſt, and the Liberality of imparting to them, and to all)

14. And with their Supplication for you, who long after you by reaſon of the excellent Grace of God in you.

15. Now Thanks be to God for his unſpeakable Gift.

CHAP. X.

AND I Paul my ſelf beſeech you, by the Meekneſs and Gentleneſs of Chriſt, who according to Appearance was indeed lowly among you, but as I am abſent am confident towards you;

2. I even intreat, that when preſent I may not be confident, with the Confidence which I think to be bold with to ſome, who think of us, as if we walk according to the Fleſh.

3. For though we walk in the Fleſh, we do not make war according to the Fleſh.

4. Since the Weapons of our War are not carnal, but powerful by God, to the Overthrowing of Fortifications:

5. As they overthrow Thoughts, with every high Thing that is raiſed up againſt the

Ver. 4. of Boaſting] Mills twice ſays, this is added from Ch. xi. 17. being omitted by ſome: of which we may ſuſpend the Belief.

Ver. 5. your] is ſome Reader's, not Paul's, if we will believe Mills in his Proleg. 475. but then it muſt be on ſmall Authority.

Ib. told before] Ver. 2. Doddr. a few have promiſed before, which Wall ſays make the better Senſe; but that I do not ſee.

Ver. 6. alſo] the latter not with a few, and Mills ſays crept from the former, Ib. I ſhould think the Apoſtle would rather put it here than there, as being more elegant.

Ver. 10. let him &c.] Some have he who furniſhes—will ſupply &c. as Mills ſays rightly, and to the Scope of the Apoſtle; but Whitby ſhews from Oecumenius otherwiſe.

Ver. 12. to God] Ambroſe only having it in God, Mills graſps that as a Prize, Pr. 476. We may take it for that Playing with the Scripture, which thoſe called the Fathers, as well as the Cabbaliſt Jews, too much uſed: for with all the fine Shew, what proper Idea can we have of Miniſtry or Adminiſtration in God? On the contrary this Service is manifeſtly the Liberality mentioned in the Verſes before and after, and the Miniſtry of it the imparting, Ver. 13.

Ver. 14. their Supplication] that of the Saints mentioned in Ver. 12.

Ver. 15. Now] Mills would caſt out with his little Number, Pr. 476.

Ver. 5. As they overthrow] not we, as by the 3d Verſe in a Parentheſis the Senſe would be, which agrees far leſs to this and what follows: ad ὅπλα referatur, ſays Beza, it may be referred to the Weapons; Overthrowing and overthrow, from the ſame Verb in Gr. ſhewing alſo that theſe belong to one another. The Biſhop's Tranſ. has Wherewith we overthrow; and Caſt. Quibus armis, with which Weapons.

Knowledge of God, and take every Device captive to the Obedience of Chriſt;

6. And are got in readineſs to revenge every Diſobedience, when your Obedience ſhall be fulfilled.

7. Do ye look according to Appearance? If any one is confident in himſelf of being Chriſt's, let him think this again of himſelf, that as he is Chriſt's, ſo we alſo are Chriſt's.

8. For though alſo I ſhould even boaſt ſomething more abundantly concerning our Power, which the Lord has given us for building up, and not for your Overthrow, I ſhould not be aſhamed:

9. That I may not ſeem, as if I would terrify you by Epiſtles.

10. Since indeed one ſays the Epiſtles are weighty and ſtrong, but the bodily Preſence is weak, and the Speech contemptible.

11. Let ſuch a one think, that what we are abſent in Word by Epiſtles, ſuch alſo preſent in Work.

12. For we dare not reckon or compare our ſelves, with ſome who commend themſelves; but as thoſe meaſure themſelves in themſelves, and compare themſelves with themſelves, they do not underſtand.

13. Whereas we will not boaſt in Things out of Meaſure, but according to the Meaſure of the Rule, which God has diſtributed to us, a Meaſure to reach even to you.

14. For we do not overſtretch our ſelves, ſo as not to reach to you: for we have already come even to you in the Goſpel of Chriſt.

15. And boaſt not in Things out of meaſure, in the Labours of others; but have Hope, as your Faith increaſes, to become great among you abundantly according to our Rule;

16. To preach in the Places beyond you, not to boaſt in another's Rule of Things that are ready.

17. But let him who boaſts, do it in the Lord.

18. For not he that commends himſelf is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

CHAP. XI.

I WISH you would bear with me a little in Folly; but however do bear with me.

2. Since I am jealous of you with a godly Jealouſy: for I have fitted you for one Huſband, a chaſte Virgin to preſent to Chriſt.

3. But I fear leſt any how, as the Serpent deceived Eve in his Craftineſs, ſo your Minds ſhould be ſpoiled from Simplicity in Chriſt.

4. For indeed if one ſhould come, and preach another Jeſus whom we have not preached, or you ſhould receive another Spirit that you have not received, or another Goſpel which you have not got, you would bear it well.

5. For I count I was nothing deficient of the very chief Apoſtles;

6. And though even unſkilful in Speech, yet not in Knowledge: but we have been throughly made manifeſt to you in all Things.

7. Have I committed a Fault in making my ſelf low, that you might be high, ſince I preached the Goſpel of God to you for nothing?

Ver. 5. and] the laſt Mills, following two or three, without any Gr. Copy, debaſes to be a Scribe's, Pr. 476.

Ver. 6. are got] having what? in the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 7. Chriſt's] the laſt ſome have not, and how apparently becauſe the Sentence will do without it! yet Eraſmus thought it added for Explanation, which would not have been wanting without it, and Paul might uſe it only for a more agreeable full Expreſſion.

Ver. 8. alſo—even] The Gr. having four Conjunctions together.

Ver. 12. do not underſtand] Theſe Words Mills is for throwing out, after a few Books, and reading before them thus, which the ſame Gr. admits of with the Addition of [are,] but we our ſelves are meaſuring our ſelves in our ſelves, and comparing our ſelves with our ſelves; whereas it is not to be thought Paul would have left out are, if that had been his Meaning, beſides the Frigidneſs of it; ſo it may be referred to that at the ſame Ver. of the laſt Chap. and likewiſe ſee Whitby's Exam.

Ver. 13. boaſt in Things] Weſt. boaſtingly extend ourſelves; but the Gr. has no extend ourſelves, that I ſee: the Verb ſignifies ſimply to boaſt, and the Particle for Things is of the Neut. Gender, ſo not Perſonal, with a Prepoſition for in before it.

Ib. Rule] Weſt. Province, though the Original is Canon, whence ours; which if it is province in Eng. may alſo in Gr. where it has no different Signification. The Rule might be of divine Direction, as follows, and as in Phil. iii. 16. Gal. vi. 16. where is the ſame Word.

Ver. 14. overſtretch our ſelves] travel too wide elſewhere.

Ib. ſo as not to reach] Putting though to as, ſeems not only to ſpoil the Senſe, but any Senſe.

Ib. have] the Auxiliary that this very Word is rendered with Phil. iii. 16. and as the clear Senſe requires; not are come, as if Paul was then at Corinth.

But that Reaſon might be as prevalent with Paul himſelf; and that it was ſo obſerve, and almoſt continually obſerve againſt thoſe Expurgations of our great Critick, that we have about fifty or ſeventy ancient Manuſcript Copies and Verſions for what he objects to.

Ver. 4. would] for is not might oppoſite to common Senſe, and in particular to Gal. i. 8.? ſee accordingly Ver. 20. with Eſſay for a new Tranſ. Ch. x. and Wall's Crit. Not.

Ver. 6. unſkilful] as I ſee with Doddr. ſince.

8. I have taken the Spoil of other Churches, receiving Wages for the Miniſtry to you.

9. Nay when I was preſent with you, and wanted, I was not burdenſome to any; for my Want the Brethren who came from Macedonia ſupplied: and in every Thing I have kept my ſelf not to be chargeable to you, and will keep.

10. The Truth of Chriſt is in me, that this Boaſting ſhall not be ſtopped to me in the Regions of Achaia.

11. For what Reaſon? Becauſe I do not love you? God knows.

12. But what I do, I will alſo do, that I may cut off the Occaſion of ſuch as would have Occaſion; that they may be found in what they boaſt even as we are.

13. For ſuch are falſe Apoſtles, deceitful Workers, transformed into the Apoſtles of Chriſt.

14. And no Wonder; for Satan himſelf is transformed into an Angel of Light.

15. It is therefore no great Thing, if his Miniſters alſo are transformed as the Miniſters of Righteouſneſs; whoſe End will be according to their Works.

16. I ſay again, Let none think me to be fooliſh; yet if otherwiſe receive me even as fooliſh, that I too may boaſt a little.

17. What I ſpeak, I do not ſpeak according to the Lord, but as in Fooliſhneſs, in this Confidence of Boaſting.

18. Since many boaſt according to the Fleſh, I will boaſt too.

19. For as you are wiſe, you bear with the fooliſh gladly.

20. For you bear, if any one brings you into ſervitude, if any one devours, if any one takes, if any one is lifted up, if any one ſtrikes you on the Face.

21. I ſpeak concerning Diſhonour, as becauſe we were weak: but in whatever any one is bold (I ſpeak in Fooliſhneſs) I am bold too.

22. Are they Hebrews? I am too; are they Iſraelites? I am too; are they the Offſpring of Abraham? I am too;

23. Are they Miniſters of Chriſt? (I ſpeak madly) I am above; in Labours more abundantly, in Stripes exceedingly above, in Priſons more abundantly, in Deaths often.

24. From the Jews five times I received forty Stripes wanting one.

25. Thrice was I whipt, once ſtoned, thrice ſhipwrecked, a Night and Day I laboured in the Deep;

26. With Journeys often, with Dangers of Rivers, with Dangers of Robbers, with Dangers from my Countrymen, with Dangers from the Gentiles, with Dangers in the City, with Dangers in the Wilderneſs, with Dangers on the Sea, with Dangers among falſe Brethren;

27. In Labour and Fatigue, in Watchings often, in Hunger and Thirſt, in Faſtings often, in Cold and Nakedneſs:

28. Beſide the Croud of Things I have abroad daily, the Care of all the Churches.

29. Who is weak, and I am not? Who is offended, and I not on fire?

30. If I muſt boaſt, I will boaſt of the Things of my Weakneſs.

31. God and the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who is bleſſed for ever, knows that I do not lye.

32. At Damaſcus the Lieutenant of King Aretas, willing to apprehend me, kept the City of the Damaſcanes.

33. And through a Window in a Baſket was I let down by the Wall, and eſcaped his Hands.

CHAP. XII.

IT is not expedient now for me to boaſt; though I will come to Viſions and Revelations of the Lord.

2. I knew a Man in Chriſt fourteen Years ago (but neither know whether in the Body;

Ver. 9. and wanted] the Syr. Tranſ. only without, yet Mills would have it made by Occaſion of my Want; but how much likelier omitted for that!

Ib. and will keep] Mills ſuppoſes might come in from Occaſion of the like will do, Ver. 12. and that on no other Foundation but the Want of it in the Ethiop. Verſ. ſufficiently whimſical! for what better can it be?

Ver. 10. ſtopped] Some have broke, for which Mills pleads, and indeed in ſuch a Manner as not eaſily to be refuted, unleſs one had the MS. Copies of 700 Years old, where if the Word begins with σ ours is confirmed.

Ver. 15. therefore] Mills ſays inſerted for Connection; Pr. 477. but that alſo would make, whereby the half dozen mentioned might omit it, or as following one another, which is ſtill to be minded.

Ver. 21. becauſe we were weak] from whence their Diſhonour. And as though is like the vulg. Lat. quaſi, of which Beza finds fault, that ὅτι (which ſignifies becauſe) is miſſed.

Ver. 23. Priſons] Clement in his Epiſtle to the Corinthians, than which Nothing out of the Canon of Scripture is reckoned more authentick in the firſt Age of Chriſtianity, being alſo computed to be written 22 or 23 Years before either of John's Epiſtles, viz. A. C. 69. mentions Paul's having born Bonds ſeven times.

Ver. 25. laboured] not have been, Gr.

Ver. 26. with] which I diſtinguiſh from in according to the Greek.

Ver. 28. Croud of Things] a Noun. Weſt: that which riſeth upon.

Ver. 1. though] a neceſſary Connection, yet omitted in the com. Eng.

Ver. 2. a Man] viz. himſelf.

or out of it; God knows) ſuch a one as was caught up to the third Heaven.

3. And I knew that ſuch a Man (whether in the Body, or out of it I know not; God knows)

4. Was caught up into Paradiſe, and heard unutterable Words, which it is not lawful for a Man to ſpeak.

5. Of ſuch a one I will boaſt, but of my ſelf will not, excepting in my Weakneſſes.

6. For though I was minded to boaſt, I ſhould not be fooliſh, becauſe I ſhould ſay the Truth: but I forbear, leſt any one ſhould think of me above what he ſees in me, or hears Something of me.

7. And that I might not be exalted on high by the Excellency of the Revelations, there was given to me a Goad in the Fleſh, an Angel of Satan that he might beat me, that I might not be exalted on high

8. Upon this I thrice beſought the Lord, that it might go away from me.

9. And he ſaid to me, My Grace is ſufficient for thee; for my Power is accompliſhed in Weakneſs. I will therefore moſt gladly rather boaſt in my Weakneſſes, that the Power of Chriſt may have a tabernacle in me.

10. Therefore I am pleaſed in Weakneſſes, in Damages, in Neceſſities, in Perſecutions, in Diſtreſſes for Chriſt: for when I am weak, then am I ſtrong.

11. I am become fooliſh in boaſting, you have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended by you, ſince I was Nothing deficient of the very chief Apoſtles, if I even am Nothing.

12. The Signs certainly of an Apoſtle were wrought among you, in all Patience, in Signs, and Wonders, and powerful Things.

13. For what is it wherein you were inferior to the reſt of the Churches, except that I my ſelf was not burdenſome to you? Forgive me this Fault.

14. Behold the third time I am ready to come to you, and will not be burdenſome to you: for I do not ſeek yours, but you; for Children ſhould not treaſure up for Parents, but Parents for Children.

15. Nay I will moſt gladly ſpend, and be ſpent for your Souls; if even the more abundantly I love you, the leſs I am loved.

16. Let it be that I did not burden you; yet being crafty, I took you with Deceit.

17. Did I get gain of you, by any one of thoſe whom I ſent to you?

18. I beſought Titus, and ſent a Brother together; did Titus at all get any gain of you? Did we not walk in the ſame Spirit? not in the ſame Steps?

19. Again do ye think that we are making excuſe to you? Before God, we ſpeak in Chriſt; but all Things, Beloved, for your Edification.

20. For I fear, leſt when I come, I ſhould any how find you not what I would, and ſhould be found by you what you would not; leſt any how there ſhould be Contentions, Jealouſies, Wraths, Quarrels, Diſparagings, Whiſperings, Puffings up, Tumults;

21. Leſt my God ſhould make me low towards you, when I come again, and I ſhould bewail many who ſinned before, and have not repented for the Uncleanneſs, Whoredom, and Wantonneſs which they committed.

Ib. fourteen Years] Nothing for above, ſays Wall; and he refers that Time to Acts xiii. 2.

Ver. 4. caught] Whitby ſhews this was another Rapture, Ver. 1, 7.

Ver. 5. Of ſuch a one] of being ſuch a one.

Ver. 7. that I might not be exalted on high] the laſt Zegerus ſuppoſes crept in from a marginal Note, no Wonder ſince the Vulg. is without it, as alſo five or ſix Copies, &c. but Mills roundly affirms it has been repeated (viz. taken) from the upper Part of the Verſe; when its being left out becauſe it is there, may be ten or twenty-fold more likely, if the Compariſon could be ſtated.

Ib. Excellency] for two were not abundance; and it is the ſame Word that is ſo tranſlated Ch. iv. 7. as likewiſe excellentia here by Eraſm. and Beza, as it is præſtantiam, excellent, by Caſt.

Ib. a Goad in the Fleſh] Whitby and Wall count it ſome bodily Infirmity, the ſame as at Gal. iv. 13, 14. which made him deſpicable.

Ver. 9. my Power] my is not in ſome, with the Favour of Mills, Prol. 477. though ſo needful, that it is Violence to think the Apoſtle did not put it.

Ib. rather] abſconded from a few, and ſent by Mills to the Marg. Pr. 477. but how can it be imagined this would have been added?

Ib. my Weakneſſes] How fond was Mills of a new Reading, Pr. 371. to think from Irenæus only, that this [my] crept in from Ver. 5. why not much rather left out by Irenæus, than added into all Copies and Tranſlations?

Ib. have a tabernacle] or tabernacle, if that would be allowed for an Eng. Verb; not reſt as in the vulg. Tranſ.

Ver. 10. Damages] the ſame Word as in Acts xxvii. 10, 21. where only it occurs beſides.

Ver. 14. the third time] Having been once there, Acts xviii. and intending to come again before now, 1 Cor. xvi. 5. Ch. i. 15, 16. ſo Whitby and Wall.

Ver. 19. in Chriſt] Mills aſſerts is of another Place, namely Ch. ii. 17. Pr. 477. I preſume of this too, notwithſtanding the Lat. only of two Copies and Ambr.

Ib. all Things] not we do, but ſpeak.

Ver. 21. my] which we need not ſcruple to be the Apoſtle's, although Mills ſays Somebody put it of his own, Pr. 477. on ſuch Authority as commonly elſewhere.

Ib. ſhould] will being very unapt to leſt, as likewiſe the that which our Tranſlators have added.

CHAP.

CHAP. XIII.

THIS third time I am coming to you: in the Mouth of two or three Witneſſes every Word will ſtand.

2. I ſaid before, and do foretel as if preſent the ſecond time, but being abſent now write to thoſe who ſinned before, and to all the reſt, that if I ſhould come again, I ſhall not ſpare.

3. Since you ſeek for a Proof of Chriſt ſpeaking in me, who to you is not weak, but powerful in you;

4. (For even though he was crucified through Weakneſs, yet he lives through the Power of God: for we alſo are weak in him, yet ſhall live with him through the Power of God towards you)

5. Try your ſelves, whether you are in the Faith; prove your ſelves: do ye not know your own ſelves, that Jeſus Chriſt is in you, unleſs that you are Reprobates.

6. But I hope that you will know, that we are not Reprobates.

7. I further pray to God you may not do any Evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do Good, though we are as Reprobates.

8. For we can do not what is againſt the Truth, but for the Truth.

9. For we rejoice, when we are weak, and you are ſtrong; and this alſo we pray for, your fitting up.

10. For this reaſon I write theſe Things as I am abſent, that when I am preſent I may not uſe you ſharply, according to the Authority which God has given me for building up, and not for overthrowing.

11. Further, Brethren, I bid you farewel, be compleated, be comforted, be of the ſame mind, be at peace; and the God of Love and Peace will be with you.

12. Salute one another with a holy Kiſs.

13. All the Saints ſalute you.

14. The Grace of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Love of God, and the Communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all: ſo let it be.

The ſecond to the Corinthians was written from Philippi of Macedonia, ſent by Titus and Luke.

Ver. 1. third] as at Chap. xii. 14.

Ver. 2. write] This, Mills, writes, has been inſerted to perfect the Sentence, Pr. 1205. a few not having it; whereas the contrary is more probable.

Ver. 3. Since] Here is to be conſidered, whether this belongs to the foregoing or following. Since the Corinthians ſought for a Proof that Chriſt ſpoke in Paul, why ſhould Paul not ſpare them? Ought they not to have ſought for ſuch a Proof of his Miniſtry, according to Ch. iv. 2. & v. 11. & vi. 4, 6. 1 Cor. xiv. 24, 25, 29. & ii. 4, 5, 13. Gal. i. 16. & ii. 8. 1 Theſ. i. 5. Mat. x. 20? Beſides how apparent is it, that his not ſparing was for their ſinning mentioned before! On the other hand does not this Word and Verſe connect well with Ver. 5. and Ver. 4. come properly between, as cohering with the latter Part of this? And are not ſuch long Periods, and Digreſſions, the very Style of our Apoſtle, eſpecially to the Corinthians and Romans? This Gr. Conjunction may alſo be ſeen thus in Ch. xi. 18. 1 Cor. xiv. 12. Heb. iv. 6. & vi. 13. and compound Acts xiii. 46. & xv. 24. 1 Cor. i. 21. & xv. 21. Luke i. 1. Now the principal Part of the Argument may be thus expreſs'd, Since you ſeem to doubt of Chriſt being ſpiritually in me, ſpeaking by me to you; try your own Experience, whether ye do not believe he has ſpoken in your Conſciences, ſo is in your ſelves, unleſs you are Reprobates; and conſequently in us, as you may be ſatisfied we are not ſuch.

Ib. who to] which Alteration of the com. Tranſ. Wall thought material enough for a Note.

Ver. 4. though] A few are without, whereupon Mills ſays it was inſerted for Coherence, Pr. 1290. but that is on the Suppoſition the Apoſtle did not put it, whereas the Coherence with the foregoing Words is too neceſſary, as well as this Reading too abundant, to be denied to him.

Ib. towards you] One Copy, and the Lat. of two more, with an Author, not having this, Mills does not ſtick to affirm it has been added from Ver. 3. Pr. 477. ſufficiently improbable!

Ver. 8. what] If it be aſked from the com. Eng. What could they do for the Truth? Would not the Anſwer there be nothing?

Ver. 11. be comforted] Mills thinking be exhorted unworthy of his dear Vulg. Interpreter, adjudges it to have crept from the Marg. Pr. 557.

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an Apoſtle, not from Men, nor by Man, but by Jeſus Chriſt, and God the Father, who raiſed him up from the Dead;

2. And all the Brethren who are with me, to the Churches of Galatia.

3. Grace be to you, and Peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt;

4. Who gave himſelf for our Sins, that he might deliver us from the preſent wicked World, according to the Will of God and our Father:

5. To whom be Glory for ever and ever: ſo let it be.

6. I wonder that you are ſo quickly carried away, from him who called you by the Grace of Chriſt, to another Goſpel.

7. Which is not another, otherwiſe than there are ſome that trouble you, and would turn aſide the Goſpel of Chriſt.

8. Whereas though even we, or an Angel from Heaven, ſhould preach to you, beſide what we have done, let him be curſed.

9. As we ſaid before, I alſo ſpeak now again, If any one ſhall preach to you, beſide what you have received, let him be curſed.

10. For do I now perſuade Men, or God? Or do I ſeek to pleaſe Men? For if I ſhould yet pleaſe Men, I ſhould not be the Servant of Chriſt.

11. But I let you know, Brethren, that the Goſpel preached by me is not according to Man.

12. For I neither received it from Man, nor was taught; but by the Revelation of Jeſus Chriſt.

13. For you have heard of my Converſation once in Judaiſm, that I exceedingly perſecuted the Church of God, and waſted it;

14. As alſo proceeded in Judaiſm above many Equals among my Race, being more abundantly zealous in the Traditions of my Fathers.

15. But when God was pleaſed, who ſeparated me from my Mother's Womb, and called by his Grace,

16. To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; preſently, having no conference with Fleſh and Blood,

17. Nor going up to Jeruſalem to thoſe who were Apoſtles before me, I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damaſcus.

18. Next I three Years after went up to Jeruſalem, to be acquainted with Peter, and remained with him fifteen Days.

19. But I ſaw no other of the Apoſtles, excepting James the Brother of the Lord.

Ver. 6. him] God, as I have taken it with Whitby, who directs to the like elſewhere, preferably to Paul himſelf, as Wall interprets it, I ſuppoſe, from Hammond; but at the ſame in Ch. v. 8. Ham. boggles with [or,] and Wall's uncommon Confidence carrying him through, weakens his Interpretation of this by making both alike, ſince it is unaccountable and ridiculous for the him there to be Paul.

Ib. by] for which conſult Doddr. and ſee the ſame Rom. v. 15. Col. iii. 16. 2 Theſ. ii. 16. 2 Tim. ii. 1. and in the com. Tranſ. 2 Cor. i. 12. ſo with the Prep. underſtood. Rom. iii. 24. & xi. 6. 1 Cor. x. 30. & xv. 10. Eph. ii. 5, 8. Tit. iii. 7. Heb. ii. 9. & xiii. 9.

Ib. of Chriſt] four or five having not, Mills holds with, Pr. 478. while others have of Jeſus Chriſt, and others of God; not all made from Nothing, I ſuppoſe. And the Syr. which he cites as without it, is turned away from Chriſt, who called you by his Grace.

Ver. 7. otherwiſe than] and not but, as it belongs to the foregoing; by which, disjoined from this, our Tranſlators ſeem to mean, there could be no other Goſpel, and yet add any other goſpel twice in the two next Verſes, even not in Italick.

Ver. 9. preach to you, beſide] things unneceſſary to be neceſſary, Whitby's Annot.

Ver. 10. perſuade] Weſt. ſatisfy; though foreign both to good Senſe, and the Original.

Ib. Or do I ſeek to pleaſe Men?] omitted in the Ethiop. being perhaps a Line miſſed, or thought redundant by the Tranſlator; but by Mills in his fond Faſhion added.

Ver. 13. exceedingly] beyond being from a wrong Copy.

Ver. 15. God] Mills fetches from his Caſtle in the Air, the Margin, becauſe a few are without it, Pr. 478. who might think to be quaint, though in plain Hiſtory, was elegant.

Ver. 16. in me] as Ch. iv. 19.

Ver. 16, 17. preſently——I went] For I did not preſently converſe with Fleſh and Blood would be abſurd, and taking preſently or immediately to belong to that be contrary to Acts ix. 19. and that he did not preſently go up to Jeruſalem Ver. 18. tells; yet Doddr. argues againſt Wells and Locke, that Paul did not go into Arabia till after he preached, and preached without conſulting any Man, contrary to the Order related in Acts ix. 19, 20. which appears to have been, as clear of ſuch Obſtructions, when Paul returned to Damaſcus, as mentioned here; and ſo that he was taught the Goſpel which he was to preach by Revelation, in his Retirement at Arabia, according to Wells, as here to Ver. 11, 12, 15, 16.

Ver. 19. Brother] As it is not to be thought the Mother of Jeſus had any other Huſband beſides Joſeph, ſee alſo on John xix. 27. and as the Father of this James was Alphæus, Mat. x. 3. Acts i. 13. he could not be the Brother of the Lord in the ſtrict Senſe; beſides they were ma-

20. Now in what Things I write to you, behold before God I do not lye.

21. I next went into the Regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22. And was unknown by Face, to the Churches of Judea that were in Chriſt:

23. They having only heard, He who perſecuted us once, now preaches the Faith which once he waſted;

24. And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

NEXT I fourteen Years after went up again to Jeruſalem with Barnabas, and took alſo Titus together.

2. Moreover I went up according to Revelation, and communicated to them the Goſpel which I preach among the Gentiles; but privately to thoſe who were in repute, leſt any how I ſhould run or ſhould have run in vain;

3. (Yet Titus who was with me, being a Grecian, was not compelled to be circumciſed)

4. And that by reaſon of falſe Brethren brought in, who entered in to ſpy our Freedom which we have in Chriſt Jeſus, that they might bring us into ſervitude.

5. To whom we did not give way by Subjection for an Hour, that the Truth of the Goſpel might continue with you.

6. Nay of thoſe who ſeemed to be ſomewhat (what they were once is no difference to me; God does not accept the Perſon of Man) though they were in repute, their diſcourſing was Nothing to me.

7. But on the contrary when they ſaw, that the Goſpel of Uncircumciſion was committed in truſt to me, as that of Circumciſion to Peter;

8. (For he who wrought in Peter for the Apoſtleſhip of Circumciſion, wrought alſo in me for the Gentiles)

9. And as they knew the Grace that was given me, James, Cephas and John, who ſeemed to be Pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right Hands of Fellowſhip, that we might be for the Gentiles, and they for the Circumciſion;

10. Only would have us remember the Poor, the very ſame which I was alſo careful to do.

11. But when Peter was come to Antioch, I reſiſted him to the Face, becauſe he was to be condemned.

12. For before ſome came from James, he eat along with the Gentiles; but when they were come, he withdrew, and ſeparated himſelf, fearing thoſe of the Circumciſion.

13. And the reſt of the Jews alſo diſſembled with him, ſo that Barnabas too was taken away by their Diſſembling.

14. Nevertheleſs when I ſaw that they did not walk rightly to the Truth of the Goſpel, I ſaid to Peter before them all, If thou who art a Jew, liveſt in the Gentile Manner, and not in the Manner of the Jews, why doſt thou compel the Gentiles to do in the Jewiſh Manner?

Ver. 23. He] The Greeks introducing both oblique and direct Sentences with ὅτι, we only the former with that, muſt begin here without it, or be abſurd; for that is inconſiſtent with us and preacheth.

Ib. which once he waſted] The Ethiop. Tranſlator, as if he was deſignedly brief, leaves out this; yet imagined by Mills, on that Authority alone, to be brought hither from Ver. 13. Pr. 1216.

Ib. waſted] as Ver. 13. nor did Paul deſtroy the Faith.

Ver. 1. fourteen Years after] after his Converſion, Ch. i. 16. according to Hammond, Pearſon, &c. which is thought righter than Uſher's after the three Years Ch. i. 18.

Ib. again] not in the Lat. of one Copy, nor quoted by two Writers; what a Matter there is! yet enough with Mills to diſallow it.

Ver. 2. ſhould have] For is either leſt I had, or ſhould had proper?

Ver. 3. not] neither being improper.

Ver. 4. And that] which muſt belong to the End of the 2d Ver. as Ham. expounds; and not to the laſt, as pointed in our Bible, and paraphraſed by Whitby.

Ib. entered] as Rom. v. 20. the two only Places of this Verb.

Ver. 5. not] This has been left out, and as ſo contended for, even by Mills; but the Original Copies almoſt (or it ſeems without almoſt) all have it, and with the ſame concur the four following Verſes, and eſpecially Ver. 14. ſee alſo Wetſtein's Note, and Beza of it, with Whitby's Examen.

Ver. 6. once] or ſometime, as the Gr. Word, which there is for this in particular, ſignifies; and Paul might mean ſome falſe Brethren, Ver. 4.

Ib. though] for being improper, which Ham. would throw on Paul, when the Gr. Word alſo means this.

Ib. they were in repute] left out of the Syr. and one ſuppoſed Copy, yet ſaid by Mills to have crept from Ver. 2. Pr. 1254.

Ver. 7. committed in truſt] not merely committed, for that the Gr. does not ſignify.

Ver. 9. And as they knew] Thus it ſtands in the Original; ſo that this was not only James, Cephas and John, but the others alſo who knew this, as well as ſaw that in Ver. 7.

Ver. 10. the Poor] of the Circumciſion or Jews, conſonant to Rom. xv. 26. and with which this is eaſily to be accounted for.

Ver. 11. Peter] Some have it Cephas, as alſo at Ver. 14. but fewer there, which Mills holds for, eſpecially as ſupported by Pearſon, becauſe there was anciently a Controverſy whether this was an Apoſtle; but that might ariſe from the Vulg. which has Cephas, and might be put here, as it is Ver. 9. to ſcreen Peter, and, as Whitby ſays, obviate the Blaſphemies of Porphyry.

Ver. 14. Peter] with Weſt. Cephas, as a few Copies have.

Ib. do in the Jewiſh manner] Weſt. judaïze.

15. As

15. As we Jews by Nature, and not Sinners of the Gentiles,

16. Knew that a Man is not juſtified by the Works of the Law, except through the Faith of Jeſus Chriſt; even we believed in Chriſt Jeſus, that we might be juſtified by the Faith of Chriſt, and not by the Works of the Law; becauſe no Fleſh will be juſtified by thoſe Works.

17. But if when we ſeek to be juſtified in Chriſt, we our ſelves however are found Sinners, is Chriſt therefore the Miniſter of Sin? Far be it.

18. For if I build again thoſe Things which I deſtroyed, I make my ſelf a Tranſgreſſor.

19. For I through the Law became dead to the Law, that I might live to God.

20. I am crucified with Chriſt, yet live; though no more I, but Chriſt lives in me: and what I now live in the Fleſh, I live in the Faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and delivered up himſelf for me.

21. I do not aboliſh the Grace of God: for if Righteouſneſs is by the Law, then Chriſt died for nothing.

CHAP. III.

O UNWISE Galatians, who has bewitched you not to believe the Truth, before whoſe Eyes Jeſus Chriſt was written of before, who has been crucified in you?

2. This only I would learn of you, Did you receive the Spirit by the Works of the Law, or by the Hearing of the Faith?

3. Are you ſo unwiſe? When you began with the Spirit, are you now accompliſhed with the Fleſh?

4. Have you ſuffered ſo many Things in vain? if yet too in vain.

5. He therefore who furniſhes you with the Spirit, and works powerful Things among you, is it through the Works of the Law, or through Hearing in Faith?

6. As Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for Righteouſneſs.

7. Know then, that thoſe who are of Faith, are the Sons of Abraham.

8. And the Scripture foreſeeing that God would juſtify the Gentiles by Faith, preached before to Abraham, Through thee ſhall all Nations be bleſſed.

9. So that they who are of Faith, are bleſſed with faithful Abraham.

10. For whoever are of the Works of the Law are under the Curſe; ſince it is written, Every one is curſed who does not continue in all the Things written in the Book of the Law, by doing them.

11. But that Nobody is juſtified by the Law with God is evident, becauſe The Righteous ſhall live by Faith.

Ver. 16. When Whitby in his Pref. to this Epiſt. laid down as certain Articles, that the true Chriſtian Faith in Srripture, is only a cordial and firm belief that Jeſus is the Chriſt, the Lord, the true Meſſiah, &c. and that Juſtification, which is Abſolution of paſt Sins, with the neceſſary and immediate Conſequence of that, a being reconciled to God, and received into favour with him, is by St. Paul aſcribed to Faith alone, in Oppoſition to Works of Righteouſneſs, done either by the Jew or Gentile; he ſeems not to have been aware of the Conſequence, that the Chriſtian World continuing to believe ſo, would continue pardoned and being in the divine Favour, and who when dying believe ſo eſpecially; or elſe being aware of ſome wrong Conſequence, he writes differently towards the End, and concludes that the difference between Men of Judgment, as to ſaving Faith, is more in words than ſenſe: for he ſays, When Faith is hearty and conſtant, it will produce ſincere Obedience, and Holineſs will follow in the Life; and that dead Faith does not deſerve the Name of Faith: Nay in his Pref. to 1 John he makes anſwer to the Author of the Reaſonableneſs of Chriſtianity, for having aſſerted the like as himſelf had done in this Pref.

Ib. except] the proper Meaning of the Gr. which but is not; though Gell allows it, but not here, Eſſay, p. 607.

Ib. Chriſt Jeſus] here varied thus in the Gr.

Ver. 19. became dead] The 2d Aoriſt; and if the preſ. Tenſe, ſhould have may, not might, after it.

Ib. to the Law] This forſooth Wall ſuppoſes ſome officious ſcribe did for explication write in the margin, and another ſcribe put into the text, Crit. Not. though that Omiſſion in the Text is no where known, nor I need not ſay Addition in the Margin, the latter being as ſuch Criticks Fairy Ground whither Words innumerable have come, and again diſappeared, like the fabled Fairies; and what Figure would a Critick of this Kind make after Mills, who rejected many Things thus on the Authority of a ſingle Writer againſt about fifty or ſeventy, if he ſhould not exceed him?

Ver. 20. more] not yet a Conjunction as in the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 21. died] for ſurely Chriſt was not then dead.

Ver. 1. not to believe the Truth] according to Mills is from Ch. v. 7. being not with ſome; but there is this to oppoſe to it, that it is with many.

Ib. believe] which the Gr. Word ſignifies rather than obey, as Beza confeſſes; and is ſeemingly more ſuitable to the Matter, if compared with Ver. 2, 5, 6, 7, &c. Ch. ii. 17, 20. and thus Eraſ. turns it.

Ib. written before] for ſo the Original Word ſignifies, according as it is tranſlated, Rom. xv. 4. Eph. iii. 3. It may denote they were convinced by the Scripture, as in Acts xvii. 2, 3. & xviii. 28.

Ib. who has been crucified] or he crucified, or crucified in you joined to Jeſus Chriſt.

Ib. crucified] now has been crucified in you, according to Heb. vi. 6. & x. 29. Rev. xi. 8. Jam. v. 6. ſee likewiſe Gell's Eſſay, p. 687. True it is that both Ham. and Whit. ſcruple in or among you, as not in the Alex. MS. of the King's Library, to which Mills reckons three more, and four Verſions, with Grotius, for omitting it as ſuperfluous; but all may be accounted for one Way, that they did not underſtand it.

Ver. 3. unwiſe] Weſt. thoughtleſs.

Ver. 5. hearing in Faith] according to Mat. ix. 28, 29. & xiii. 58. Mark ix. 23. & x. 52. John xi. 40. Acts xiv. 9.

12. Whereas

12. Whereas the Law is not of Faith; but, The Man who does theſe Things ſhall live by them.

13. Chriſt has redeemed us from the Curſe of the Law, as he was made a Curſe for us; ſince it is written, Every one is curſed who hangs on a Tree:

14. That the Bleſſing of Abraham might be for the Gentiles in Chriſt Jeſus, that we might receive the Promiſe of the Spirit by Faith.

15. Brethren, I ſpeak according to Man; notwithſtanding a Covenant is of Man, being eſtabliſhed, Nobody aboliſhes or adds more.

16. Now to Abraham were the Promiſes ſaid to be, and to his Offspring: he does not ſay, And to Offsprings, as if for many; but as if for one, And to thy Offspring, which is Chriſt.

17. This I ſay further, The Covenant eſtabliſhed before by God in Chriſt, the Law made four hundred and thirty Years after does not repeal, to make the Promiſes void.

18. For if the Inheritance be of the Law, it is no more of Promiſe; whereas God gave it to Abraham by Promiſe.

19. What then was the Law for? It was added becauſe of Tranſgreſſion, until the Offſpring came, to which the Promiſe was made; being diſpoſed by Angels in the Hand of a Mediator.

20. And a Mediator is not of one, but God is one.

21. Is the Law then againſt the Promiſes of God? Far be it: for if there had been a Law given able to make alive, truly Righteouſneſs would have been by the Law.

22. But the Scripture has ſhut up all under Sin, that the Promiſe by the Faith of Jeſus Chriſt might be given to thoſe who believe.

23. And before Faith came, we were kept under the Law, ſhut up for the Faith to be afterwards revealed.

24. So that the Law was made our Schoolmaſter for Chriſt, that we might be juſtified by Faith.

25. But Faith being come, we are no more under a Schoolmaſter.

26. For you are all the Sons of God through Faith in Chriſt Jeſus.

27. For whoever of you have been baptized into Chriſt, have put him on.

28. There is neither Jew nor Grecian, there is neither Servant nor free Man, there is neither Male nor Female: for all of you are the ſame in Chriſt Jeſus.

29. And if Chriſt's, then are you the Offſpring of Abraham, and Heirs according to the Promiſe.

CHAP. IV.

I SAY further, as long Time as the Heir is a little Child, he is nothing different from a Servant, when he is Lord of all;

2. But is under Tutors and Stewards, till the Appointment before of the Father:

3. So alſo we when we were little Children, were in Servitude under the Elements of the World;

4. But when the Fulneſs of Time was come, God ſent forth his Son made of a Woman, made under the Law;

5. That he might redeem thoſe under the Law, that we might receive the Adoption.

6. And becauſe you are Sons, God has ſent forth the Spirit of his Son into your Hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7. So that thou art no more a Servant, but a Son; and if a Son, an Heir of God alſo through Chriſt.

8. But then indeed as you did not know God, you ſerved them that by Nature are not gods.

9. Whereas now when you have known God, and have been more known by him; how do ye return again to weak and poor Elements, which you would ſerve over again?

Ver. 12. The Man] ſome not having, Mills believed was put in from the Verſ. of the Sept. Lev. xviii. 5. but why not by Paul himſelf. as well as at Rom. x. 5?

Ver. 14. in Chriſt Jeſus] omitted by Chryſoſtome in his Commentary, from whence Mills takes occaſion to ſay, that indeed, if the Copies did not forbid, he ſhould think it put in from Ver. 16. though not there. A Proof of his Prejudice againſt the com. Reading, it being on ſuch ſlight Grounds; if not rather of his Vanity, to make his Various Readings more important.

Ver. 16. ſaid] which, and not made, the Gr. Verb ſignifies.

Ver. 17. in Chriſt] This alſo Mills refuſes to the primary Text, though but three Copies &c. are without it, and though ſo neceſſary. If there was no Cauſe for omitting it, as he ſays, it might be done by Overſight; yet the Occaſion might be, its not being in Geneſis, and for the Mention of Chriſt juſt before.

Ver 19. added] with ſome put, by cutting off a Piece of the Gr. Word, at which Mills takes occaſion to ſuppoſe it was joined on.

Ib. diſpoſed] What ordained by angels? Surely not.

Ver. 21. of God] which came in the Place of a Comment Mills reports, Pr. 479. but is it poſſible for any Perſon to think this wanted a Comment without it, and being along with Ver. 18? much leſs for the whole Church. Nor does he produce one Gr. Copy without it, yet one with of Chriſt.

Ver. 22. ſhut up] of which Verb theſe Words in Ver. 23. are a Participle.

Ver. 8. by Nature] as being Metal, Stone, &c. which one would think the great Annotators might have eaſily explained, and Wall better than by in reality.

Ver. 9. again to weak] to ſuch Elements in Judaiſm. as were in Gentiliſm, not to the as if the ſame.

10. You obſerve Days, Months, Times and Years.

11. I am afraid of you, leſt any how I ſhould have laboured towards you in vain.

12. Be as I am, I intreat you, ſince I am as you were, Brethren: you have done me no injury.

13. Nay you know that through Weakneſs of the Fleſh I preached to you before.

14. And my Temptation in my Fleſh you did not deſpiſe, nor were diſguſted at; but received me as an Angel of God, as Chriſt Jeſus.

15. What then was your Bleſſedneſs? For I teſtify to you, that if poſſible, you would have pulled out your Eyes, and have given them to me.

16. So that am I become your Enemy, by ſpeaking truly to you?

17. They are zealous for you not well; but they would ſhut you out, that you may be zealous for them.

18. It is well however to be zealous in Good, and not only at my being preſent with you.

19. My little Children, whom I am bringing forth again, until Chriſt is formed in you;

20. And would be preſent with you now, and change my Voice, becauſe I doubt of you;

21. Tell me, you that would be under the Law, do not you hear the Law?

22. For it is written, that Abraham had two Sons, one of a Servant-maid, and one of a free Woman.

23. But he indeed of the Servant-maid was born according to the Fleſh, whereas he of the free Woman by Promiſe.

24. Which very Things are figurative: for theſe are the two Covenants, one indeed from the Mountain of Sina, that begets into Servitude, which is Agar.

25. For Agar being Sina a Mountain in Arabia, anſwers to Jeruſalem now, and is in Servitude with her Children.

26. Whereas Jeruſalem above is free, which is the Mother of us all.

27. For it is written, Rejoice, O barren who doſt not bear; break out and ſhout, thou that doſt not bring forth: becauſe the Children of the deſolate ſhall be many more than of her who has a Huſband.

28. Now we, Brethren, after the Manner of Iſaac, are the Children of Promiſe.

29. But even as he then that was born according to the Fleſh, perſecuted him who was according to the Spirit, ſo alſo now.

30. Yet what ſays the Scripture? Drive out the Maid-ſervant and her Son: for the Maid's Son ſhall not inherit with the Son of the free Woman.

31. Then, Brethren, we are not Children of the Servant-maid, but of the free Woman.

CHAP. V.

IN the Freedom therefore with which Chriſt has made us free ſtand faſt, and be not held again in the Yoke of Servitude.

2. Lo I Paul tell you, that if you are circumciſed, Chriſt will profit you Nothing.

3. For I teſtify again to every Man who is circumciſed, that he is a Debtor to perform the whole Law.

4. You are aboliſhed from belonging to Chriſt, who are juſtified by the Law; you are fallen from Grace.

5. For we by the Spirit through Faith, wait for the Hope of Righteouſneſs.

Ver. 24. very] τινά.

Ver. 1. In the Freedom &c.] Mills ſuppoſed this ſhould be joined to the foregoing, and the Period be here at free, with therefore removed to after ſtand faſt, according to five or ſix Copies, the Vulg. Eſtius, &c. but read Grot. and Whit.

See the like Anſwer by Whitby, as I have ſince this was written.

Ver. 4. aboliſhed from Chriſt] as it is in the literal Lat. and the Eng. Gen. Verſ. but as this is not quite proper Expreſſion, neither conveys a clear Idea; belonging to, which the Gr. may ſignify, well ſupplies it. Next to this

6. For

6. For in Chriſt Jeſus neither Circumciſion is of any Force, nor Uncircumciſion; but Faith that works by Love.

7. You did run well; who hindered you not to be perſuaded of the Truth?

8. The Perſuaſion is not from him who called you.

9. A little Leaven leavens the whole Lump.

10. I am perſuaded of you in the Lord, that you will be of no other Mind; and he who troubles you ſhall bear Judgment, whoſoever he is.

11. And if I, Brethren, yet preach Circumciſion, why am I yet perſecuted? Then the Offence of the Croſs is aboliſhed.

12. I even wiſh they were cut off who diſturb you.

13. For you have been called to Freedom, Brethren; only let not the Freedom be for an Occaſion to the Fleſh, but by Love ſerve one another.

14. For all the Law is fulfilled in one Saying, in Thou ſhalt love thy Neighbour as thy ſelf.

15. Whereas if you bite and devour one another, ſee that you be not conſumed one by another.

16. But I ſay, Walk in the Spirit, and you will not accompliſh the Deſires of the Fleſh.

17. For the Fleſh does deſire againſt the Spirit, and the Spirit againſt the Fleſh; theſe oppoſing one another, that you may not do thoſe Things which you would.

18. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.

19. Now the Works of the Fleſh are manifeſt, which are Adultery, Whoredom, Uncleanneſs, Wantonneſs,

20. Idolatry, Witchcraft, Enmities, Contentions, Jealouſies, Wraths, Quarrels, Diſſenſions, Hereſies,

21. Envyings, Murders, Drunkenneſs, Revelling, and the like to theſe; of which I foretel you, as I have alſo ſaid before, that they who do ſuch Things will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

22. But the Fruit of the Spirit is, Love, Joy, Peace, Forbearance, Kindneſs, Goodneſs, Faith,

23. Meekneſs, Temperance: againſt ſuch the Law is not.

24. And thoſe who are Chriſt's, have crucified the Fleſh, with the Affections and Luſts.

25. If we live in the Spirit, let us alſo go on in the Spirit.

26. Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one the other, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

BRETHREN, if a Man alſo has been taken before in ſome Offence, you ſpiritual ones reform ſuch a Perſon in the Spirit of Meekneſs, conſidering thy ſelf, leſt thou too ſhouldeſt be tried.

2. Bear the Burdens one of another, and ſo fulfil the Law of Chriſt.

3. For if any one thinks he is Something, when he is Nothing, he cheats himſelf.

4. But let each prove his own Work, and he will then have Glorying in himſelf alone, and not in another.

5. For each will bear his own Load.

6. However let him that is inſtructed in the Word, impart to him who inſtructs of all good Things.

may be that of dear Wm. Tyndal, ye are gone quyte from Chriſt. But the Paraphraſe of ſeveral others is ſcarce to be called Tranſlation, eſpecially as not ariſing from the Original Words.

Ver. 14. in one Saying] Two or three Copies have in you before it, the Heretick Marcion had only that; from whence ſo great a Critick (and one might think a great Judge) of the various Readings as Mills infers, that in you was the true Reading of the Apoſtle, and this added from Rom. xiii. 9. Prolog. N. 296. ad Lect. Var. Well might Whitby, though ſeventy Years old, not forbear to cry out againſt ſome Things in that Performance! How much more probable is it, that Paul wrote like himſelf in Rom. and here, and that one Saying was altered to you by Marcion, as ſuitable to the Context both before and after, then in one Saying reſtored afterwards to his Copy from the true Original.

Ver. 19, 21. Adultery—Murders] Several Copies are without theſe two, as if they were ſo bad that there was no Need of naming them, and as being ſo expreſsly forbid in the Commandments; yet I think the Apoſtle himſelf put them, if only for this Reaſon, that Murders does not ſtand with thoſe more akin to it in the 20th Ver. as I fancy an Interpolater would have placed it.

Ver. 2. fulfil] This Verb in the Gr. being imperative in the 1ſt Aoriſt, and not as the foregoing in the preſent Tenſe, by the Difference only of a Vowel, Mills aſſerts that other Reading of a few is genuine, Pr. 645. but what Senſe is there in his bringing Tranſlations for it, whoſe Language has no Aoriſt? And as it is unlikely to be altered from the preſ. Tenſe, and prevail (while the contrary is very likely) the com. Reading may ſeem to be Paul's.

7. Do

7. Do not miſtake; God is not to be mocked: for what a Man ſows, that he will alſo reap.

8. Since he that ſows to his Fleſh, will of the Fleſh reap Corruption; and he that ſows to the Spirit, will of the Spirit reap everlaſting Life.

9. And in doing well let us not be ſlothful: for if we are not faint, we ſhall reap in the Seaſon for it.

10. Therefore indeed as we have Time, let us do good to all, but eſpecially to thoſe of the Family of Faith.

11. You ſee how large a Letter I have written to you with my own Hand.

12. Whoever would appear well in the Fleſh, theſe compel you to be circumciſed, only that they may not be perſecuted for the Croſs of Chriſt.

13. For thoſe circumciſed do not keep the Law themſelves; but would have you circumciſed, that they may boaſt in your Fleſh.

14. But far be it from me to boaſt, excepting in the Croſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom the World is crucified to me, and I to the World.

15. For in Chriſt Jeſus neither Circumciſion is of any Force, nor Uncircumciſion; but a new Creature.

16. And whoever go on by this Rule, Peace be on them, with Mercy, and on the Iſrael of God.

17. Henceforth let none give me Trouble; for I bear in my Body the Marks of the Lord Jeſus.

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to the EPHESIANS

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the Will of God, to the Saints who are at Epheſus, and to the Faithful in Chriſt Jeſus.

2. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3. Bleſſed be the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who has bleſſed us with every ſpiritual Bleſſing, in heavenly Places in Chriſt.

4. As he choſe us in him before the founding of the World, for us to be holy and without blemiſh, before him in Love:

5. And appointed us before to Adoption, by Jeſus Chriſt to himſelf, according to the good Pleaſure of his Will;

6. To the Praiſe of the Glory of his Grace, wherein he favoured us in the Beloved One.

7. In whom we have Redemption, by his Blood, the Forgiveneſs of Sins, according to the Riches of his Grace;

8. With which he has abounded towards us, in all Wiſdom and Prudence:

9. Making known to us the Myſtery of his Will, according to his good Pleaſure, which he before propoſed in him;

10. In the Stewardſhip of the Fulneſs of the Times, to collect together all Things in Chriſt, both thoſe in Heaven, and thoſe on the Earth in him;

11. In whom alſo we have obtained Inheritance, being appointed before according to the Purpoſe of him who works all Things after the Counſel of his Will;

12. For us to be to the Praiſe of his Glory, that before had hope in Chriſt:

13. In whom you alſo had, upon hearing the Word of Truth, the Goſpel of your Salvation; in whom too believing, you were ſealed with the Holy Spirit of Promiſe;

14. Which is the Earneſt of our Inheritance, till the Redemption to what will be obtained, to the Praiſe of his Glory.

15. For this reaſon as I alſo have heard of the Faith in the Lord Jeſus that is with you, and the Love to all the Saints;

16. Do not ceaſe giving thanks for you, whom I make mention of in my Prayers;

17. That the God of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Father of Glory, would give you the Spirit of Wiſdom and Revelation, in the Knowledge of him;

18. The Eyes of your Underſtanding being enlightened, for you to know what is the Hope of his Calling, what the Riches of the Glory of his Inheritance in the Saints,

19. And what the excellent Greatneſs of his Power towards us who believe, according to the Working of his mighty Strength;

20. Which he did work in Chriſt, at raiſing him from the Dead, and made him ſit at his right Hand in heavenly Places,

---

Tit. to the Epheſians] Mills labours to prove this Epiſtle was not written to the Epheſians, but to the Laodiceans, being that mentioned Col. iv. 16. His principal Argument is, that Paul had not been with the People he here wrote to, from Ch. i. 15. & iii. 2, 4. yet the mutual hearing might be of what was ſince he was there, and particularly of new Converts; as for at Epheſus not being in the ancient Copies, Ver. 1. it is too weakly ſupported; and ſee a fuller Anſwer by Whitby, Pref. and Exam. The Time of this ſee at Philippians.

Ver. 9. The latter his three or four omit, and Mills thereupon denies to be Paul's, Prol. 482.

Ib. him] viz. Chriſt, according to Ver. 4, 6. nay alſo the two that follow this, and belong to it.

Ver. 12. before had hope] ſo the Original undeniably; and ſeems to mean the Believers hoping in Chriſt, before his outward Coming.

Ver. 13. too] Mills diſowns on the Teſtimony of a few, and deems it crept from (though it might be likelier omitted for) the preceding alſo, Pr. 482.

Ver. 14. to what] I ſuppoſe it will be pretty difficult, to give a rational ſatisfactory Meaning to this according to [of,] to which the Gr. genitive Caſe is not to be confined: ſo Rom. xv. 8.

Ver. 18. Underſtanding] Heart in a great Number of MS Copies, Verſions, &c. Mills reckons ours an Interpretation, which I confeſs it ſeems changed to, becauſe Eyes of the Heart might ſeem ſtrange.

Ib. being enlightened] An Atticiſm in Gr. of the Accuſ. Caſe inſtead of the Genitive abſolute.

Ver. 19. us] a few having you, Mills ſays agreeably to the foregoing, Pr. 567. It may be ſo, and for that Reaſon be altered; but is not us as agreeable at leaſt, and of more Authority?

Ib. Working] Weſt. energy.

Ver. 20. did work] a kindred Verb to the Noun before. Weſt. exerted.

21. Up above all Principality, Authority, Power, Dominion, and every Name that is named, not only in this World, but alſo in that hereafter.

22. Nay he has made all Things ſubject under his Feet, and put him the Head over all Things to the Church;

23. Which is his Body, the Fulneſs of him who fills all in them all.

CHAP. II.

AND you, when you were dead in Offences and Sins;

2. In which once you walked, according to the Age of this World, according to the Prince of the Power of the Air, the Spirit that now works in the Sons of Diſobedience;

3. Among whom likewiſe we all were once converſant, in the Deſires of our Fleſh, doing the Will of the Fleſh and the Senſes, and were by Nature the Children of Wrath, according as the reſt;

4. Even God who is rich in Mercy, by reaſon of his great Love with which he loved us,

5. Did make with us, when we were dead in Offences, alive with Chriſt (by Grace you are ſaved)

6. And did raiſe up together, and cauſe to ſit together in heavenly Places, in Chriſt Jeſus:

7. That he might ſhew in Ages coming on the excellent Riches of his Grace, in the Kindneſs to us in Chriſt Jeſus:

8. For by Grace you are ſaved, through Faith; and this is not of your ſelves, it is the Gift of God:

9. It is not of Works, that Nobody may boaſt.

10. For we are of his Making, created in Chriſt Jeſus to good Works, which God before prepared that we ſhould go therein.

11. Therefore remember, that you being once Gentiles in the Fleſh, called the Uncircumciſion from that called the Circumciſion in the Fleſh made by Hands,

12. Were at that Time without Chriſt, alienated from the Common-wealth of Iſrael, and Strangers to the Covenants of Promiſe, who had no Hope, and were without God in the World.

13. But now in Chriſt Jeſus, you who were once far off, are become near by the Blood of Chriſt.

14. For he is our Peace; who made both one, and looſened the middle Wall of Fence:

15. Who aboliſhed in his Fleſh the Enmity, the Law of Commandments which is in Ordinances, that he might create two into one new Man in himſelf, making Peace;

16. And might reconcile both to God in one Body by the Croſs, when he had killed the Enmity with it.

17. He alſo came, and preached Peace to you far off, and to thoſe near.

18. For through him we both have Approach, by one Spirit, to the Father.

19. You are indeed then no more Strangers and Sojourners, but Citizens with the Saints, and the Family of God;

20. Built on the Foundation of the Apoſtles and Prophets, Jeſus Chriſt himſelf being the chief Corner:

21. In whom all the Building fitly framed together, increaſes into a holy Temple in the Lord;

22. In whom alſo you are built together, into a Habitation of God in the Spirit.

Ver. 13. all in them all] all the Faculties in all Perſons who receive him, Ch. iii. 19. John i. 12.

Ver. 2. the Power of the Air] the evil Spirits there, but not as having Power over the Air, Jer. xiv. 22.

Ib. the Spirit that now works in the Sons of Diſobedience] On this Whitby writes in an Appendix to the 6th Chap. of 2 Cor. 'which Words ſeem plainly to import 'ſome inward Energy of Satan, to excite them to this Diſ'obedience to the Will of God: Since then ſtronger is he 'that is in us, than he that is in the World, 1 John iv. 4. 'we muſt allow the good Spirit to work in the Children 'of Obedience;' for which ſee alſo Phil. ii. 12, 13. Heb. xiii. 21.

Ver. 3. doing the Will] not fulfilling the deſires.

Ib. reſt;] the next being continued from the 1ſt Ver. as in Hammond's Paraphraſe here, and Annot. on Gal. ii. 6.

Ver. 5. Did make] viz. you in Ver. 1. which you that here follows both agrees with, and corroborates.

Ib. Offences] Sins being a wrong Reading.

Ver. 7, 10. Jeſus] Mills tells us is added, Prol. 482. it being abſent from the former Ver. in two or three Copies and one Tranſ. but from the latter only in two Authors.

Ver. 10. before prepared] according as the very ſame Word is tranſlated Rom. ix. 23.

Ver. 15. create two into one new Man] So the Original is.

Ver. 17. preached] by the Spirit, Ver. 18. and as 1 Pet. iii. 19.

CHAP. III.

BECAUSE of this I Paul am a Priſoner of Chriſt Jeſus, for you Gentiles:

2. If you have heard too about the Stewardſhip of the Grace of God, given me towards you;

3. That by Revelation he made known to me the Myſtery (as I wrote before in a little;

4. At reading of which you may underſtand my Knowledge in the Myſtery of Chriſt)

5. Which in other Generations was not known to the Sons of Men, as it is now revealed to his holy Apoſtles and Prophets, by the Spirit;

6. For the Gentiles to be Heirs together, and with the Body, and Partakers of his Promiſe in Chriſt, through the Goſpel:

7. Of which I am become a Miniſter, according to the Gift of the Grace of God, given me according to the Working of his Power.

8. To me, the very leaſt of all the Saints, is this Grace given, to preach among the Gentiles the unſearchable Riches of Chriſt;

9. And to make it clear to all, what is the Communion of the Myſtery, hid from Ages in God, who created a Things by Jeſus Chriſt:

10. That there might now be made known to the Principalities, and Authorities in heavenly Places, by the Church, the manifold Wiſdom of God;

11. According to the Purpoſe of Ages, which he made in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord:

12. In whom we have Boldneſs, and Acceſs in Confidence, by the Faith of him.

13. Therefore I deſire you would not faint at my Affliction for you, which is your Glory.

14. Becauſe of this I bow my Knees to the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt,

15. From whom all the Family in Heaven and on Earth is named;

16. That he may grant you, according to the Riches of his Glory, to be ſtrong with Power by his Spirit in the inward Perſon:

17. For Chriſt to dwell in your Hearts by Faith, you being rooted and founded in Love;

18. That you may be able to perceive, with all the Saints, what is the Breadth, Length, Depth and Height;

19. And to know the Love of Chriſt which exceeds Knowledge, that you may be filled in all the Fulneſs of God.

20. Now to him who can do very far above all that we aſk for, or imagine, according to the Power which works in us,

---

Ver. 1. am] thus tranſlated by Eraſm. Bez. and the Biſhops, as alſo in the Tigur. Verſ. with Whitby's and Doddridge's Paraph. and ſurely there muſt be ſome Verb to make Senſe, and this is frequently underſtood. Otherwiſe what is ſaid of I Paul? Or whither is it to be referred? To Ver. 13 or 14, or yet more probably to the 1ſt of the next Chap. as Ham. on Gal. ii. 6. comments? Which is incredible.

Ib. Chriſt Jeſus] ſo the Gr. only a few omit Jeſus, and Mills approves it, Pr. 482.

Ib. Gentiles] put down by Mills for a Gloſs from the preceding Chap. tho' he found none but the Complutenſian Edit. that has ſimply you, Pr. 1108, 1316.

Ver. 2. If you have heard] viz. any of the Gentiles, that being the laſt Word before; which may obviate the Objection that this was not written to the Epheſians with whom Paul had been, better than either of the Things Whitby defends it with.

Ver. 3. he made known] Though no ſmall Number have it paſſively there was made known, and among them the Vulg. yet Mills does not admit it; which may be an Inſtance of the Sincerity of that indefatigable Man, and how impartial he would have been, had not he been drawn into too great a Veneration for Antiquity.

Ib. as I wrote before] Ch. i. 9, 10, 11, 12. ii. 19. Whl. by.

Ver. 5. in] is not expreſs'd, but only underſtood in divers Copies, &c.

Ver. 8. the very leaſt] one Word only in Gr. and leſs than the leaſt he could not be, being one of the Saints himſelf.

Ib. the Saints] when wanting but with the Heretick Marcion, that Mangler of the Scripture, and in Complut. Mills aſcribes it to the Gloſſaries, Pr. 1108, 1317. added, as he fancies, to ſoften and make [all] more agreeable to Truth; though it does not, whatever might be ſaid of the Copy which has Apoſtles joined to Saints or holy.

Ver. 9. it] or this.

Ib. Communion] So many have Stewardſhip, that not only Mills, but even Whitby counts it genuine; yet I am of a different Mind, not only as ſuppoſing no leſs may have Communion or Fellowſhip, and that the Vulg. might be prevalent for the other, but alſo as thinking ours more conſentaneous to the Matter treated of, the Myſtery being the Bleſſings of the Goſpel imparted to the Gentiles, whereby there was a Coalition of them with the Jews, Ver. 4, 6. according to which it is fitly here called the Communion of the Myſtery, as of the Goſpel, Phil. i. 5. whereas Paul's great Buſineſs was not to make clear to all his own Stewardſhip of it, or in other Words to preach himſelf, contrary to 2 Cor. iv. 5. but I ſuppoſe Stewardſhip or Diſpenſation might be ſubſtituted, not in a clear Diſcerning, from Ver. 2. together with Ch. i. 9, 10. and of all the MSS. of Stephens reckoned for it, I find but few had this Book, or are of Validity.

Ib. by Jeſus Chriſt] a few have not, and Mills reckons it a Comment taken from Col. i. 16. or elſewhere; too unlikely!

Ver. 10. now] enow leave out to have Mills's Approbation, Pr. 482, 568. but his ſaying it is tacked on for Explanation is not to be preſently granted, till it is ſhewn to be more likely for another to reſtrict the Expreſſion than the Apoſtle himſelf, which to me is very unlikely.

Ver. 14. of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt] ſome have omitted, as it appears, that the following might not belong to him; ſee Mills's Note.

Ver. 19. in] for with is peculiar to Chriſt, Col. i. 19. & ii. 9. nor does the Gr. Particle here ſignify ſo.

Ver. 20. which works in us] to which the Gen. Note is, In that we feele Chriſt in us.

21. Be

21. Be Glory in the Church, by Chriſt Jeſus, to all Generations, for ever and ever: ſo let it be.

CHAP. IV.

I THEREFORE a Priſoner in the Lord beſeech you, to walk worthy of the Calling with which you are called;

2. With all Humility and Meekneſs, with Forbearance bearing one with another in Love;

3. Being careful to keep the Unity of the Spirit, in the Bond of Peace.

4. There is one Body, an one Spirit, as you are alſo called in one Hope of your Calling.

5. One Lord, one Faith, one Baptiſm;

6. One God and Father of all, who is over all, and by all, and in you all.

7. Nay to each of us there is given Grace, according to the Meaſure of the Gift of Chriſt.

8. Therefore one ſays, He went up on high, and took the Priſoners captive, and gave Gifts to Men.

9. Now that he went up, what is it, except that he alſo went down firſt into the lower Parts of the Earth?

10. He who went down is the ſame alſo who went up above all the Heavens, that he might fill all.

11. And he gave indeed ſome Apoſtles, and ſome Prophets, and ſome Preachers, with ſome Paſtors and Teachers;

12. To the fitting up of the Saints, for the Work of the Miniſtry, for the building up of the Body of Chriſt:

13. Till we all come into the Unity of the Faith, and of the Knowledge of the Son of God, into a perfect Man, into the Meaſure of the Stature of the Fulneſs of Chriſt.

14. That we may not henceforth be little Children, fluctuating and being carried about by every Wind of Teaching, in the Artifice of Men, in Craftineſs according to the Contrivance of Error;

15. But ſpeaking truly in Love, may grow up into him in all Things, who is the Head, Chriſt:

16. From whom all the Body fitly framed together and joined together, by every Joint that is furniſhed, according to the Working in Meaſure of each ſingle Part, makes the Growth of the Body, to the building up of it ſelf in Love.

17. This therefore I ſay, and teſtify in the Lord, that you will not henceforth walk, even as the reſt of the Gentiles do, in the Vanity of their Mind;

18. Being darkened in Senſe, alienated from the Life of God, by the Ignorance which is in them, through the Hardneſs of their Heart:

19. Who being inſenſible, have delivered themſelves up to Wantonneſs, for the working of all Uncleanneſs greedily.

20. But you have not ſo learned Chriſt;

21. If indeed you have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the Truth is in Jeſus;

22. That you ſhould put off according to the former Converſation the old Perſon, which is corrupt according to the deceitful Luſts;

23. That you ſhould alſo be renewed in the Spirit of your Mind,

24. And ſhould put on the new Perſon, which according to God is created in Righteouſneſs and true Holineſs.

25. Therefore put away Lying, and ſpeak

Ver. 21. by Chriſt Jeſus] with a few and in or by Chriſt Jeſus.

Ib. ever] How world without end in the com. Bib. conſiſts with unto the end of the world, Mat. xxviii. 20. I leave to thoſe that can ſhew; but Something alſo ſeems wanting before world.

Ver. 5. one Baptiſm] Whether 'there can be no 'Room to oppoſe Water-Baptiſm to the Baptiſm of the 'Spirit,' as Doddr. confidently aſſerts in a Note here, may be ſeen by Mat. iii. 11. Acts i. 5. & xi. 16.

Ver. 6. you] In ſome Exemplars us, through the Negligence or Miſtake of ſome Tranſcriber writing ημιν for υμιν (as the Gr. Accents and Aſpirations might not be then uſed) much likelier than the raſh Judgment of Mills, that they were both added after, Pr. 299, 565. For the Pronoun not only makes the Expreſſion more elegant, nay more weighty and ſtrong, which I ſhould rather aſcribe to our wiſe and learned Apoſtle, not to ſay the Spirit of God, than to any Tranſcriber; but may alſo ſeem requiſite, to accord with your in Ver. 4.

Ver. 8. one] the Pſalmiſt in Pſa. lxviii. 18.

Ver. 9. Parts] ſupplied, in the Opinion of Mills, for which I ſee not ſufficient Proof.

Ver. 10. fill all] rather Places as Chap. i. 20. than Things, and eſpecially Mankind, Chap. iii. 19. thus rendered alſo Ch. i. ult.

Ver. 13. into] the ſame all three times, and ſo ſignifying.

Ver. 14. fluctuating] as it were on the Waves by the Wind, according to the Original.

Ver. 16. that is furniſhed] Gr. of the furniſhing.

Ver. 17. the reſt of] ſome have not, and Mills repeatedly tells of its being from Ch. ii. 3. too incredible for me when it is not there.

Ver. 18. the Life of God] as in John i. 4. 2 Cor. iv. 10, 11. and Beza expounds it vitam illam qua Deus vivit in ſuis, that Life by which God lives in his.

Ib. Hardneſs] thus the ſame is tranſlated Mark iii. 5.

Ver. 19. —ly] for in Gr. A few have and, with whom are the Cler. and Ger. Copies, both Gr. and Lat. Yet Mills gives them up; look at Ch. iii. 3. & Phil. iii. 12.

Ver. 22. according to the former] This is the ſame as the next according to; nor is concerning either the Meaning of the Gr. Word, or proper Senſe.

Ver. 23. That you ſhould be renewed] Be you renewed imperat. and ſo put on, Ver. 24. by ſeveral, and Mills at laſt repreſents ours made afterwards by reaſon of That you ſhould put off, Pr. 884. but might not the Sentence be thought to end with the 22d Ver. and theſe Verbs as well be made imperative, conformable to the following ſpeak, be angry, &c?

Truth each to his Neighbour; ſince we are Members one of another.

26. Be angry, but do not ſin; let not the Sun ſet in your Anger.

27. Neither give Place to the Devil.

28. Let the Thief ſteal no more; but rather labour, working what is good with the Hands, that he may have to impart to him who has Need.

29. Let not any corrupt Speech go out of your Mouth; but ſome if it may be good for the Uſe of Edification, that it may give Grace to the Hearers.

30. And do not grieve the very Holy Spirit of God, by which you are ſealed till the Day of Redemption.

31. Let all Bitterneſs, Indignation, Wrath, Clamor, and Evil-ſpeaking be put away from you, with all Wickedneſs.

32. And be kind one to another, compaſſionate, forgiving each other, even as God in Chriſt has forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

BE therefore Imitators of God, as beloved Children.

2. And walk in Love, even as Chriſt loved us, and delivered up himſelf for us, an Offering and Sacrifice to God, for a Savour of ſweet Smell.

3. But let not Whoredom, nor any Uncleanneſs, or Covetouſneſs be named among you, as is becoming Saints;

4. As alſo Filthineſs, and fooliſh Talking, or Scurrility, Things not convenient; but rather Thankſgiving.

5. For this you know, that any Whoremonger, or unclean, or covetous one, which laſt is an Idolater, has not Inheritance in the Kingdom of Chriſt and God.

6. Let none deceive you with vain Words; for by reaſon of theſe Things the Wrath of God comes on the Sons of Diſobedience.

7. Do not therefore become Partakers with them.

8. For you were once Darkneſs, but now Light in the Lord: walk as Children of Light;

9. (For the Fruit of the Spirit is in all Goodneſs, Righteouſneſs and Faith)

10. Proving what is well-pleaſing to the Lord.

11. And do not you partake of the unfruitful Works of Darkneſs, but rather even reprove.

12. For it is a Shame even to ſpeak of the Things done by them ſecretly.

13. Now all Things that are reproved, are made manifeſt by the Light; for all that makes manifeſt is Light.

14. Therefore he ſays, Awake, O Sleeper, riſe up from the Dead; and Chriſt will enlighten thee.

15. Look then how you may walk diligently, not as unwiſe, but as wiſe Men;

Ver. 32. in Chriſt] No more than one Copy and two Authors having the Text without this, Mills thought it not genuine, Note and Pr. 931. to which what need be ſaid?

Ver. 5. know] Gr. are knowing, as uſed in that Language; but ſome by the Variation only of ἐστε into ἴστε, have another Word for you know inſtead of you are, which Mills reckoned genuine, and altered for the Tautology; though perhaps a Slip of the Pen the other Way, if not rather put ſo by Somebody, to denote their knowing it throughly or well.

17. For this reaſon be not fooliſh, but have underſtanding what the Will of the Lord is.

18. And be not drunk with Wine, in which is Luxury; but be full of the Spirit:

19. Speaking to your ſelves with Pſalms, Hymns and ſpiritual Poems, ſinging, and that melodiouſly, in your Heart to the Lord;

20. Giving thanks always for all Things, in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, to God and the Father;

21. Being ſubject one to another in the Fear of God.

22. Wives, be ſubject to your own Huſbands, as to the Lord:

23. Since the Huſband is the Head of the Wife, even as Chriſt the Head of the Church; and he is the Saviour of the Body.

24. Nay according as the Church is ſubject to Chriſt, even ſo ſhould Wives be to their own Huſbands, in every Thing.

25. Huſbands, love your Wives, even as Chriſt loved the Church, and delivered up himſelf for it;

26. That he might make it holy, cleanſing by the Bath of Water in the Word;

27. That he might preſent it glorious to himſelf, a Church not having Stain, or Wrinkle, or any ſuch Thing, but that it might be holy, and without Blemiſh.

28. Huſbands ought to love their Wives as their own Bodies: he who loves his Wife, loves himſelf.

29. For none ever hated his own Body; but nouriſhes and cheriſhes it, even as the Lord the Church.

30. Since we are Members of this Body, thoſe both of his Fleſh and his Bones.

31. For this let a Man forſake his Father and Mother, that he may cleave to his Wife ſince the two ſhall be one Fleſh.

32. This is a great Myſtery; but I ſpeak of Chriſt and the Church.

33. Nevertheleſs let each of you alſo in particular ſo love his Wife as himſelf, and the Wife take care that ſhe reverence the Huſband.

CHAP. VI.

CHILDREN, obey your Parents in the Lord; for this is righteous.

2. Honour thy Father and Mother (which is the firſt Commandment with a Promiſe)

3. That it may be well to thee, and thou mayeſt live long on the Earth.

4. And Fathers, do not provoke your Children; but nouriſh them in the Diſcipline and Admonition of the Lord.

5. Servants, obey the Maſters according to the Fleſh, with Fear and Trembling, in the Simplicity of your Heart, as Chriſt;

6. Not according to Eye-ſervice, as pleaſing Men, but as the Servants of Chriſt, doing the Will of God from the Mind;

7. With good Will doing Service, as to the Lord, and not to Men:

8. Since you know that whatſoever good Thing each does, the ſame will he receive from the Lord, whether bound or free.

9. And Maſters, do ſuch Things to them, being ſlack in Threatening: as you know that there is alſo a Maſter of your own in Heaven, and is not Reſpect of Perſons with him.

the 1ſt I anſwer, that are diſtinguiſhes it to be the preſent Time, which may overthrow the Notion, I ſuppoſe, too generally imbibed of it. And for the two latter this ſingle Reſponſe may ſerve, that redeem being to ranſom, they ſhould ranſom Time from the Wickedneſs it was generally employed in, to do the Will of the Lord, Ver. 17. making the Ranſom as here by being diligent in doing ſo.

Ver. 20. Father] of Chriſt, as may appear when the Words ſtand in their right Order.

Ver. 21. God] Several have Chriſt, thought by Mills the right, and altered becauſe the Fear of God frequently, of Chriſt never occurs; but ſuch as obſerve how often God, Chriſt, Jeſus and Lord, are changed one for another in the various Readings, may be of another Mind.

Ver. 22. It is remarkable that Lewis in his Hiſt. of the Eng. Tranſ. p. 227. ſays, 'The Places of Scripture at 'the End of the Matrimonial Office are according to no 'Engliſh Tranſlation of the Bible or New Teſtament that 'I have ſeen;' and gueſſes they were made from the Latin, namely thoſe uſed from the Reign of K. Edw. to 1661, when they were altered according to the preſ. Tranſ. of which Places this is the largeſt, reaching to the End of the Chap. where I may give this for an Inſtance, Ver. 26. purging it in the fountain of water.

Ib. Wives, be ſubject to your] Some give it, Let Wives be ſubject to their; nay Mills from Jerome tells us the Verb was not expreſs'd in the Gr. Pr. 564. who however might be miſtaken as likely as the many that have it.

Ver. 26. by the Bath of Water] where Weſley annotes, 'In Baptiſm, if with "the outward and viſible Sign," 'we receive the inward and ſpiritual Grace.' But Infants being not diſtinguiſhed by perſonal Election, according to his Tenets, what if can there be of their receiving the latter in Baptiſm? They do, or do not, receive it; and the Conſequences of either, eaſy to point out, will as readily follow.

Ib. in the Word] of the Goſpel.

Ver. 27. preſent it] Some have that he himſelf might preſent, but Mills ſays he holds both himſelf and it to be put in, Pr. 1067. though the latter is ſo neceſſary.

Ib. to himſelf, a Church] ſo the Gr. is pointed.

Ib. not having] on which ſee Doddridge's Note.

Ver. 31. that he may cleave to his Wife] This Mills ſlenderly would have to be an Addition, being not well-affected to the preſ. Reading.

Ver. 33. take care] ſee Gen. iii. 22.

Ver. 1. in the Lord] One would think this ſo neceſſary, that none could pretend it ſhould be abſent, yet Mills does on ſmall Authority, Pr. 483. This Term is not only frequent with our Apoſtle, and thus particularly Col. iii. 18. but with great Streſs, 1 Cor. vii. 39. ſee alſo Col. iii. 20.

Ver. 4. provoke] Our Eng. Addition to wrath is not very ſuitable to your children; for whom it would be unnatural to be provoked to ſuch Exceſs.

Ver. 9. being ſlack] not to have the Monotony of three ings.

10. Further, my Brethren, be ſtrong in the Lord, and in his mighty Power.

11. Put on the whole Armour of God, for you to be able to ſtand againſt the Contrivances of the Devil:

12. Becauſe the Wreſtling for us is not againſt Blood and Fleſh, but againſt Principalities, againſt Powers, againſt the worldly Princes of the Darkneſs of this Age, againſt ſpiritual Wickedneſs in heavenly Places.

13. For this reaſon receive the whole Armour of God, that you may be able to reſiſt in the wicked Day, and by doing all to ſtand.

14. Stand therefore, having your Loins girded with Truth, and the Breaſt-plate of Righteouſneſs put on,

15. As alſo the Feet ſhod with the Preparation of the Goſpel of Peace;

16. Above all receiving the Shield of Faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery Darts of the wicked one.

17. Moreover receive the Helmet of Salvation, and the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

18. And in all Prayer and Supplication, pray at all Times with the Spirit, and watch for this ſame, with all Conſtancy, and Supplication for all the Saints;

19. Particularly for me, that Speech may be given me, in opening my Mouth with Boldneſs, to make known the Myſtery of the Goſpel:

20. For which I am an Ambaſſador in a Chain; that I may ſpeak boldly in it, as I ought to ſpeak.

21. But that you alſo may know the Things about me, what I do, Tychicus, a beloved Brother, and faithful Miniſter in the Lord, will make them all known to you:

22. Whom I have ſent to you for this ſame Thing, that you might know the Matters concerning us, and he might comfort your Hearts.

23. Peace be to the Brethren, and Love with Faith, from God the Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

24. Grace be with all who love our Lord Jeſus Chriſt incorruptibly: ſo let it be.

It was written to the Epheſians from Rome, ſent by Tychicus.

Ver. 10. my Brethren] a few have not, others have only Brethren, Mills would exclude both, Pr. 483. but the other might be more eligible as a Medium, and the Reading of the Vulg. however I ſhould want better Confirmation for either.

Ib. mighty Power] ſo tranſlated Ch. i. 19.

Ver. 12. Princes] as Ch. ii. 2. John xii. 31. & xiv. 30. & xvi. 11. and as the Gr. ſignifies; nor may the wicked ſpirits be properly called rulers.

Ib. heavenly] by the Gr. viz. religious or eccleſiaſtical.

Ver. 13. receive] for they could not take it themſelves; and the Gr. has not unto you.

Ib. doing] as the Gr. Participle ſimply ſignifies; and how ſhould they fall, when they had withſtood all Oppoſition?

Ver. 17. receive] ſome Reader added in according to Mills, Pr. 1291. on the poor Proof of a few being without it.

Ver. 18. this] ſome miſs, as our Tranſ. does, ſo that Mills ſays it is a Reader's, not St. Paul's, Pr. 1291.

Ver. 20. in it] In what, the Myſtery, Goſpel, or Chain? It ſeems the latter, by reaſon of which the Apoſtle deſired their Prayers for him, notwithſtanding that, to be bold.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL and Timothy, Servants of Jeſus Chriſt, to all the Saints in Chriſt Jeſus who are at Philippi, with the Overſeers and Miniſters.

2. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3. I give thanks to my God on every Mention of you,

4. (Always in all Supplication of mine for you all, making Supplication with Joy)

5. On your Fellowſhip in the Goſpel, from the firſt Day till now;

6. Since I am confident of this very Thing, that he who has begun the good Work in you, will accompliſh till the Day of Jeſus Chriſt:

7. According as it is juſt for me to think this for you all, by reaſon of my having you in Heart; ſince you are, both in my Bonds, and in the Defence and Confirmation of the Goſpel, all Partakers of the Grace I have.

8. For God is my Witneſs, how I long for you all in the Bowels of Jeſus Chriſt.

9. And this I pray, that your Love may yet more and more abound, in Knowledge and all Senſe;

10. For you to like the Things that excel, that you may be ſincere and inoffenſive, till the Day of Chriſt;

11. And may be filled with the Fruits of Righteouſneſs which are by Jeſus Chriſt, to the Glory and Praiſe of God.

12. I would have you know, Brethren, that the Things about me, are come rather for the Progreſs of the Goſpel.

13. So that my Bonds in Chriſt are become manifeſt in the whole Court, and in all the reſt of the Places.

14. And many of the Brethren in the Lord, being confident by my Bonds, are more abundantly bold to ſpeak the Word without Fear.

15. Some however indeed preach Chriſt for Envy and Contention, but ſome too for good Will:

16. Thoſe indeed declare Chriſt out of Quarrelling, not purely, imagining to bring Affliction to my Bonds;

17. But theſe out of Love, knowing that I am put for the Defence of the Goſpel.

18. What then? Nevertheleſs in every Manner, whether in Pretence or in Truth, Chriſt is declared; and in this I rejoice, nay and will rejoice.

19. For I know that this will come on to me for Salvation, by your Supplication, and the Furniſhing of the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt;

20. According to my earneſt Expectation and Hope, that I ſhall be aſhamed of Nothing, but that in all Boldneſs, as always, Chriſt will now too be magnified in my Body, either by Life or by Death.

21. For to live is to me for Chriſt, and to die Gain.

22. Now to live in the Fleſh, this is the Fruit of Labour to me; and what I ſhall chooſe, I know not.

23. But am preſſed from the two; having a Deſire to be let looſe, and to be with Chriſt: for that is incomparably better.

24. Yet to remain in the Fleſh, is more neceſſary by reaſon of you.

25. And being confident of this, I know that I ſhall abide, and continue with you all, to your Progreſs and Joy in Faith:

26. That your Glorying of me may abound in Chriſt Jeſus, by my Coming again to you.

27. Only behave your ſelves worthy of the Goſpel of Chriſt; that whether I come, and

Ver. 27. worthy] the ſame Word is ſo tranſlated, and to the ſame Purpoſe, Eph. iv. 1. Col. i. 10. 2 Theſ. ii. 12.

ſee you, or be abſent, I may hear the Things concerning you, that you ſtand faſt in one Spirit, and ſtrive together with one Mind for the Faith of the Goſpel;

28. And are not terrified in any Thing by the Oppoſers; which relating to them indeed is a Shew of Deſtruction, but to you of Salvation, and that from God.

29. Since it is given to you for Chriſt, not only to believe on him, but alſo to ſuffer for him;

30. As you have the ſame Striving which you ſaw in me, and now hear is in me.

CHAP. II.

IF there is then any Comfort in Chriſt, if any Conſolation of Love, if any Communion of the Spirit, if any Bowels and Mercies;

2. Fulfil my Joy, that you ſhould be of the ſame Mind, having the ſame Love, agreeing together, ſo as to be unanimous.

3. Let Nothing be in the manner of Quarrelling, or Vain-glory; but with Humility mutually eſteem others to be above your ſelves.

4. Watch not each your own Things, but alſo each the Things of others.

5. For let this Mind be in you, which was alſo in Chriſt Jeſus:

6. Who being in the Form of God, did not eſteem it Robbery to be equal with God;

7. Yet made himſelf void, as he took the Form of a Servant, became in the Likeneſs of Men;

8. And when he was found in Faſhion as a Man, he humbled himſelf, becoming obedient even to Death, nay the Death of the Croſs.

9. Therefore God alſo has highly exalted him, and given him a Name above every Name:

10. That in the Name of Jeſus every Knee ſhould bow, of Things heavenly, earthly, and under the ground;

11. And every Tongue confeſs, that Jeſus Chriſt is Lord, to the Glory of God the Father.

12. So that, my Beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my Preſence only, but now much more in my Abſence; work your own Salvation with Fear and Trembling.

13. Since it is God works in you, both to be willing and to work, of his good Will.

14. Do all Things without Murmurings and Reaſonings:

15. That you may be faultleſs and innocent, the blameleſs Children of God, in the midſt of a froward and perverſe Generation, among whom you ſhine as Lights in the World;

16. By holding the Word of Life, for me to glory in the Day of Chriſt, that I have not run in vain, nor laboured in vain.

17. Nay if I ſhould even be offered up, in the Sacrifice and Service of your Faith, I rejoice and am joyful with you all.

18. For the ſame alſo rejoice you, and be joyful with me.

19. I further hope in the Lord Jeſus, to ſend Timothy to you quickly, that I alſo may be of good courage, when I know the Things concerning you.

20. For I have Nobody of the like Mind, who will naturally be careful of thoſe Things.

21. For all ſeek their own, not the Things of Chriſt Jeſus.

22. But you know the Proof of him, that as a Child to a Father, he ſerved with me in the Goſpel.

Ver. 28. relating to] for to only leaves it doubtful to whom it ſo appeared to be.

Ver. 4. Watch not] By ſome Not watching; and Mills ſays ours is of ſome Scholiaſt, that was more careful for the Rules of Grammar than the genuine Text of the Apoſtle; but hold a little! as neither of them is againſt the Rules of Grammar, and as there is the like to that, of an Imperative and Participle, in the two laſt Verſes; and for being genuine, ours has the far greateſt Authority, and conſequently Probability, while the Vulg. might promote the other.

Ver. 7. void] as the Greek ſignifies, viz. of the forementioned Excellencies; and upon him is added by the Tranſlators.

Ver. 11. confeſs] with ſome ſhall confeſs, upon which Mills tells us Somebody changed it as we have it by reaſon of ſhould bow, Pr. 1464. when it might likelier be changed the other Way, to make the Expreſſion ſtronger.

Ver. 12. much more in my Abſence] To this Whithy's Paraphraſe is, which God by the Workings of his Holy Spirit ſupplies, he adds to Workings in his Appendix to 2 Cor. vi. and inward Teachings, and his Annotation thus, God, in my Abſence, is more immediately preſent with you, by the inward Motions of his Holy Spirit——for what other Reaſon can be offered of thoſe Words than that which this Interpretation gives? ſo his Paraph. on the next Ver. it is God who [in my Abſence, by his inward Teachings] worketh in you, both to will and to do.

Ver. 13. Since it is God works in you] which is therefore great Encouragement for you to work by his Aſſiſtance.

Ib. of his good Will] including and not for your Merit.

Ver. 15. in the midſt] A few have midſt accuſ. without in, which Mills would have genuine and to ſtand for through the midſt, and ours to be explanatory of it. Pr. 1483.

Ver. 16. By holding] or Holding in, not Holding forth: thus Tynd. has holdinge faſte and ſo the Biſh. Tranſ. the Vulg. Lat. continentes, Eraſ. and Caſt. with the Tig. Verſ. ſuſtinentes.

Ver. 19. hope] as Ver. 23.

23. Him indeed therefore I hope to ſend, as ſoon as ever I perceive how Affairs relating to me are.

24. Yet I am confident in the Lord, that I my ſelf alſo ſhall come quickly.

25. However I eſteemed it neceſſary to ſend to you Epaphroditus, my Brother, Fellow-worker and Fellow-ſoldier, but your Apoſtle, and Miniſter to my Wants.

26. Since he was longing for you all, and grieved, becauſe you heard that he was ſick.

27. And indeed he was ſick nigh to Death; but God had mercy upon him, and not him only, but me alſo, that I might not have Grief upon Grief.

28. I have therefore ſent him the more carefully, that when you ſee him again, you may rejoice, and I may be the more without Grief.

29. Receive him therefore in the Lord with all Joy, and eſteem ſuch honourable:

30. Becauſe for the Work of Chriſt he was near to Death, diſregarding Life, that he might ſupply your Defect of Service to me.

CHAP. III.

FURTHER, my Brethren, rejoice through the Lord. To write the ſame Things to you, is not indeed tedious to me, and to you certain.

2. Beware of the Dogs, beware of evil Workers, beware of the wrong Circumciſion.

3. For we are the Circumciſion, that worſhip God with the Spirit, and glory in Chriſt Jeſus, and are not confident in the Fleſh;

4. Though I might alſo have Confidence in the Fleſh: if any other thinks he might be confident ſo, I more;

5. Being circumciſed the eighth Day, one of the Race of Iſrael, of the Tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews, according to the Law a Phariſee,

6. According to Zeal perſecuting the Church, after the Righteouſneſs in the Law being faultleſs.

7. But thoſe very Things which were Gain to me, I eſteem Loſs for Chriſt.

8. Nay but indeed I alſo eſteem all Things to be Loſs, for the Excellency of the Knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus my Lord: for whom I have ſuffered the loſs of all Things, and do eſteem them to be Dung; that I may gain Chriſt,

9. And may be found in him, not having my own Righteouſneſs of the Law, but that by the Faith of Chriſt, that of God, the Righteouſneſs through Faith:

10. To know him, and the Power of his Reſurrection, and the Fellowſhip of his Sufferings, being conformable to his Death;

11. If I may any how come to the Reſurrection of the Dead.

12. Not that I have already received, or am already perfect; but I purſue after, if I may alſo obtain that in which I am likewiſe obtained by Chriſt Jeſus.

13. Brethren, I do not count my ſelf to have obtained; however in one Thing, while I forget indeed the Things behind, and reach forth to thoſe before,

14. I purſue according to the Mark, for the Prize of the Calling above, of God in Chriſt Jeſus.

15. Let us therefore, as many as will be

Ver. 30. diſregarding] or hazarding, if we join the Criticks in ſuppoſing ε ſhould be ο, and ſo another Gr. Word not greatly different in Senſe; but the Evidence is too weak for me.

Ver. 1. certain] according as in Acts xxv. 26. & xxi. 34. & xxii. 30. Heb. vi. 19. this Gr. Word being but there and here; and this might be for Confirmation to them. The Vulg. having neceſſary, Mills ſays, Who can believe it turned ſo by the Tranſlator himſelf? Pr. 571. Why might it not, I anſwer, as well as ſafe, by ours?

Ver. 2. wrong Circumciſion] The Apoſtle alluding to Circumciſion by a Word made up for it, ſeems minded to convey this Meaning ſo, rather than write expreſsly againſt it; intimating that the Jewiſh Circumciſion was not the right one for Chriſtians, but that which follows.

Ver. 3. worſhip God with the Spirit] Divers Copies have it, worſhip the Spirit of God; which though I do not take for genuine, yet cannot think it changed, as Mills ſays, by miſtaking it for the Holy Spirit; ſince it is certainly that; this worſhipping being the ſame, what Beza remarks, with that in John iv. 23. The Difference of theſe Readings in the Gr. is but ω and ε.

Ib. with] not in as after; and ſee John iv. 23.

Ver. 5. of Hebrews] both by Father and Mother, Nary.

Ver. 8. to be] not but.

Ib. gain] as the Noun is tranſlated in the preceding Ver. and certainly better than win.

Ver. 9. Through Faith] lacking in the Syr. only, and favoured by Mills, if worth mentioning.

Ver. 11. of] by ſome from, the Vulg. encouraging, and Mills approving.

Ver. 12. received] ſo the Original.

Ib. alſo] a few leave out, and we need not wonder that Mills promotes it, Pr. 485. but he might better have objected to the following καὶ, too, which is likewiſe omitted. The that after if in our Eng. is ſimply an odd Expletive, and not the Meaning of the Gr. Particle here, as if a Tranſ. muſt number Words with the Original, inſtead of weighing Signification; but what may be expected where Puerilities are not infrequent!

Ib. Jeſus] rejected too by Mills, Pr. 485, 635. Theſe Omiſſions are much in two particular Copies of Paul's Epiſtles, found in the Convents of Clermont and St. Germains in France, that are nearly alike, if not made one from the other.

Ver. 13. not] divers having not yet, Mills counts it but an Expoſition, Pr. 646.

Ver. 14. according to] as the Gr. is.

Ib. the Mark] called The Reſurrection, Ver. 11. and unleſs being perfect, Ver. 12. Weſt. goal.

Ver. 15. Let us——mind] with a few we——mind in the indicative Mood, and that Mills falls in with, urging he cannot be called perfect, who does not mind this, Pr. 635. which Thought might rather occaſion the altering it the other Way, and the perfect who mind this, may be exhorted to continue doing it.

Ib. will be perfect] and not to contradict that in Ver. 12. As the Verb-ſubſtantive is underſtood, not expreſſed in the Original, why not to be underſtood as well in the perfect,

perfect, mind this; and if in any Thing you are of another Mind, God will reveal even that to you.

16. However as to what we are already come, we are to go on by the ſame Rule, and mind the ſame.

17. Be Imitators together of me, Brethren, and take notice of them that walk thus, according as you have us for a Pattern.

18. Since many walk, who I have told you often, and now alſo tell weeping, are Enemies to the Croſs of Chriſt:

19. Whoſe End is Deſtruction, whoſe god the Belly, and Glory is in their Shame, who mind earthly Things.

20. For our Converſation is in Heaven; from which alſo we wait for the Saviour, the Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

21. Who will transform our mean Body, to become faſhioned the ſame as his glorious Body, according to the Working whereby he is able even to make all Things ſubject to himſelf.

CHAP. IV.

SO then, my Brethren, beloved and longed for, my Joy and Crown, thus ſtand faſt in the Lord, Beloved.

2. I beſeech Euodias, and beſeech Syntiche, to be of the ſame mind in the Lord.

3. And I alſo intreat thee, real Yoke-fellow, help the Women who ſtrove with me, with Clement too, and the reſt of my Fellow-workers, whoſe Names are in the Book of Life.

4. Rejoice through the Lord always: I ſay again, Rejoice.

5. Let your Gentleneſs be known by all: the Lord is near.

6. Be careful for Nothing, but in every Thing, by Prayer and Supplication, with Thankſgiving, let your Requeſts be made known to God.

7. And the Peace of God, which is above all Underſtanding, will keep your Hearts and Minds in Chriſt Jeſus.

8. Further, Brethren, whatever Things are true, whatever venerable, whatever juſt, whatever pure, whatever lovely, whatever of good Report; if there is any Virtue, and if any Praiſe; think of theſe Things.

9. The Things which you have both learned and received, as alſo heard and ſeen in me, theſe do; ſo the God of Peace will be with you.

10. And I rejoiced through the Lord greatly, that now at length you have flouriſhed again in having regard for me; to whom alſo you had regard, but had not opportunity.

11. Not that I ſpeak as to Want; for I have learned to be contented in what I am.

12. Nay I know how to be low, as I do how to abound: in every Place, and in all Things, I am inſtructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to want.

13. I am capable of all Things by Chriſt who ſtrengthens me.

14. Nevertheleſs you have done well in partaking with my Affliction.

15. And know you alſo, Philippians, that at the Beginning of the Goſpel, when I was

Ver. 18. alſo] admitted in, ſays Mills, as commonly ſuch Kind of Particles are, for Elegance or Emphaſis, Pr. 485. but therein he may be doubly miſtaken, ſince the Power of the Omiſſion is firſt too weak, and next Paul uſed it rather for Fulneſs, or his own Style.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the Will of God, and Timothy a Brother;

2. To the Saints and faithful Brethren in Chriſt at Coloſſia. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3. We give thanks to God, even the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, always praying for you:

4. As we have heard of your Faith in Chriſt Jeſus, and Love to all the Saints;

5. For the Hope of what is laid up for you in Heaven, which you heard of before by the Word of the goſpel Truth:

6. That is come to you, according as into the whole World; and is bearing fruit, even as in you, from the Day you heard it, and truly knew the Grace of God:

7. According as you heard from Epaphras our beloved Fellow-ſervant, who is a faithful Miniſter of Chriſt for you;

8. Who alſo declared to us your Love in the Spirit.

9. For this reaſon too we, from the Day that we heard of it, do not ceaſe praying for you, and deſiring that you may be filled with the Knowledge of his Will, in all Wiſdom and ſpiritual Underſtanding:

10. For you to walk worthy of the Lord in all that is pleaſing, being fruitful in every good Work, and increaſing in the Knowledge of God;

11. Being empowered in all Power, according to his glorious Strength, for all Patience and Forbearance, with Joy;

12. Giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit for a Part of the Lot of the Saints in the Light;

13. Who has delivered us from the Power of Darkneſs, and removed into the Kingdom of his Beloved Son:

14. In whom we have Redemption by his Blood, the Forgiveneſs of Sins;

15. Who is the Similitude of the inviſible God, the Firſt-born of every Creature:

16. Since through him were created all Things in Heaven and on Earth, viſible and inviſible, whether Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Authorities: all Things were created by him, and for him.

17. And he is before all Things, and they all remain together through him.

18. He too is the Head of the Body, the Church: he who is the Beginning, the Firſt-born from the Dead; that he may be the Firſt among all Things:

19. Becauſe it ſeemed well that in him all Fulneſs ſhould dwell;

20. And by him to reconcile all Things to himſelf, making peace by the Blood of his Croſs; even by him, whether Things on Earth or in Heaven.

21. And you who were once alienated, and Enemies in Mind through wicked Works, he has now notwithſtanding reconciled,

---

Ver. 2. and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt] Eraſmus and Mills thought added, becauſe a ſmall Number have it not, while a great Number have.

Ver. 4. As] Since for After being not the Meaning, and otherwiſe doubtful.

Ib. Faith] The Geneva Note, according to the old Proteſtant Doctrine is, For without Chriſt there is no faith to be ſaved by, but only a vaine opinion.

Ver. 5. of what] ſee Rom. viii. 24.

Ver. 6. fruit] Several add and increaſing, but thought to be from Ver. 10.

Ib. even] the latter Mills excludes as not in at firſt, on the ſingle Authority of the Vulg. Lat. Pr. 487. why not the former as well on that of our Eng.

Ver. 9. praying—deſiring] Participles in the Gr.

Ver. 10. you] which being not with a few, Mills ſays is from 1 Theſ. ii. 12. Pr. 635. but then it might be expected εἰς τὸ would alſo have been brought hither, to make that you may walk, though our Tranſlators have confounded the Expreſſions into one; however it looks too flighty for them to go thither for you, which does not alter the Senſe, and is diſtinctly expreſs'd in Gr. in the preceding Verſe.

Ver. 14. by his Blood] Which ſeveral Codes are without, and Mills both in his Notes and Prolegomena takes to be from Eph. i. 7. but Whitby ſuppoſes that confirms it.

Ver. 18. of the Body] omitted but in the Ethiop. yet Mills ſays crept from elſewhere, Pr. 1216. not 332. as by Kuſter.

Ver. 20. reconcile all Things] which ſtaggered Wall, but Whitby expounds bringing Men again into Amity with Angels; ſee likewiſe Eph. i. 10.

22. In the Body of his Fleſh by Death, to preſent you holy, and without Blemiſh, and blameleſs before him;

23. If indeed you remain in the Faith, founded, and ſettled, and be not moved away from the Hope of the Goſpel which you have heard, that has been preached in every Creature under Heaven, of which I Paul am made a Miniſter.

24. I now rejoice in my Sufferings for you, and fill up what is wanting of the Afflictions of Chriſt in my Fleſh, for his Body, which is the Church;

25. Of which I am made a Miniſter, according to the Stewardſhip of God given me for you, to fulfil the Word of God;

26. The Myſtery hid from Ages and Generations, but is now made manifeſt to his Saints:

27. To whom God would make known, what are the Riches of the Glory of this Myſtery in the Gentiles; which is Chriſt in you, the Hope of Glory:

28. Whom we preach, warning every Man, and teaching every Man, in all Wiſdom; that we may preſent them all perfect in Chriſt Jeſus:

29. For which I alſo labour, ſtriving according to his Working, that works in me powerfully.

CHAP. II.

FOR I would have ye know how great Striving I have for you, and thoſe at Laodicea, and whoever have not ſeen my Face in the Fleſh;

2. That their Hearts may be comforted, they being compacted in Love, and into all the Riches of the Aſſurance of Underſtanding, into the Knowledge of the Myſtery of God, and of the Father, and of Chriſt;

3. In whom all the Treaſures of Wiſdom and Knowledge are hid.

4. And this I ſay, that Nobody may beguile you with enticing Speech.

5. For even though I am abſent in the Fleſh, yet am I with you in Spirit, rejoicing, and beholding your Order, and the Firmneſs of your Faith in Chriſt.

6. According as you have therefore received Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, walk in him;

7. Rooted and built up in him, and confirmed in the Faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with Thankſgiving.

8. See that none may be making prey of you, by Philoſophy and vain Deceit, according to the Tradition of Men, according to the Elements of the World, and not according to Chriſt:

9. Since all the Fulneſs of the Godhead dwells bodily in him.

10. And you are full in him, who is the Head of all Principality and Authority:

11. In whom alſo you are circumciſed with the Circumciſion not made with Hands, in putting off the Body of the Sins of the Fleſh, in the Circumciſion of Chriſt;

12. Being buried with him in Baptiſm, in which you are alſo raiſed up together, by the Faith of God's Working, who raiſed him up from the Dead.

13. And you, that were dead in Offences, and the Uncircumciſion of your Fleſh, he has made alive with him, and forgiven you all Offences;

14. As alſo blotted out that againſt us, the Hand-writing of Ordinances, which was contrary to us, and took it away from the midſt, nailing it to the Croſs;

15. Putting off Principalities and Authorities, he ſhewed it openly with Boldneſs, triumphing over them on it.

Ver. 23. in every] according to Ver. 27. where the Gr. Prepoſitions are the ſame.

Ver. 24. my] before Sufferings, ſome leave out, therefore Mills writes has been added, Pr. 931. which have no neceſſary Coherence.

Ib. in my Fleſh] i. e. wanting there, not of Chriſt's own Afflictions.

Ver. 2. may] not might with the preſent Tenſe.

Ib. they being compacted] as the Gender ſhews. Some have it Nom. inſtead of Gen. —ες for —ων, in the ſame Meaning, which Mills took for genuine; and I confeſs the Reaſon preponderates with me, that ours was to mend the Gr. Conſtruction, it ſeeming unaccountable to be the contrary.

Ib. and into] The and has been omitted, peradventure as not being before the next into, yet Mills puts it inſerted for Connection, Pr. 487. but then why not with the latter?

Ver. 5. the Firmneſs of your Faith in Chriſt] The Lat. of the two Copies mentioned at Phil. iii. 12. being, that which is wanting for the neceſſities of your Faith, Mills ingeniouſly conjectures that the Gr. ſtereoma was firſt corrupted to uſterema, and then chriſton made chreian; but his Confeſſion that thoſe Copies are depraved, on which he lays ſo much Streſs to alter the pref. Reading, may be put to a good Uſe.

Ver. 8. be making prey of] As I after ſee Weſt. has make a prey of: for ſpoil is likely to be taken in another Senſe.

Ib. Elements] Thus Eraſm. and Bez. with the com. Lat. and ſo Ver. 20.

Ver. 9. Fulneſs] Not by Parts, writes Jerome on it at Iſa. xi. as in the reſt of the Saints; but according to their Goſpel which the Nazarites read written in the Hebrew Tongue, All the Fountain of the Holy Spirit came down upon him.

Ver. 11. of the Sins] Mills from its Abſence with ſome would make an Intruſion, though he preſently doubts it, and others leave out Body.

Ver. 15. Putting off] as if cloathed with them, as in Ver. 11. Ch. iii. 9.

Ib. ſhewed it openly] that he did ſo, not them, much leſs as if in the Original.

Ib. with Boldneſs] omitted in the com. Verſ. the Verb ſignifying the other.

16. Let

16. Let Nobody therefore judge you in Meat, or in Drink, or in reſpect of a Feſtival, or of the New-moon, or of the Sabbath:

17. Which are a Shadow of future Things; but the Body of Chriſt.

18. Let none defraud you of the Prize, who would in Humility, and the Religion of Angels, by intruding into Things he has not ſeen, being vainly puffed up by his carnal Senſe;

19. And not holding the Head, from which all the Body, furniſhed and compacted, by Joints and Bonds, grows with the Growth of God.

20. If you are therefore dead with Chriſt, from the Elements of the World; why, as thoſe who live in the World, are you ſubject to Ordinances,

21. (Do not touch, nor taſte, nor handle;

22. Which are all to periſh in uſing) according to the Commandments and Teachings of Men?

23. Which Things indeed have the Speech of Wiſdom, in Religion to the Will, and Humility, and without ſparing the Body; being not in any Credit to the ſatisfying of the Fleſh.

CHAP. III.

IF you are therefore raiſed up with Chriſt, ſeek the Things above, where Chriſt ſits at the right Hand of God.

2. Mind the Things above, not the Things on the Earth.

3. For you are dead, and your Life is hid with Chriſt in God.

4. When Chriſt our Life ſhall be made manifeſt, then you alſo will be made manifeſt with him in Glory.

5. Put to death therefore your Members on the Earth, Whoredom, Uncleanneſs, ill Affection, evil Deſire, and Covetouſneſs, which is Idolatry;

6. For which Things the Wrath of God comes on diſobedient Perſons.

7. In which alſo you walked once, when you lived in them.

8. But now too put you away all the Things, Anger, Wrath, Miſchief, Blaſphemy, filthy Talking from your Mouth:

9. Do not lye one to another, as you have put off the old Perſon with his Deeds;

10. And have put on the new, that is renewed in Knowledge, according to the Similitude of him who created him:

11. Where there is not Grecian and Jew; Circumciſion and Uncircumciſion, Barbarian, Scythian, bound, free; but Chriſt all Things, and in all.

12. Put on therefore, as the choſen ones of God, holy and beloved, Bowels of Mercies, Kindneſs, Humility, Meekneſs, Forbearance;

13. Bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any one has a Complaint againſt any; even as Chriſt forgave you; ſo ye alſo:

14. But above all theſe Things Love, which is the Bond of Perfection.

15. And let the Peace of God rule in your Hearts, into which alſo you are called in one Body, and be thankful.

16. Let the Word of God dwell in you richly, in all Wiſdom; and do ye teach and admoniſh each other, with Pſalms, Hymns and ſpiritual Poems, by Grace ſinging in your Heart to the Lord.

17. And let all, whatever ye do, in Word or in Work, be in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18. Wives, be ſubject to your Huſbands, as is convenient in the Lord.

19. Huſbands, love the Wives, and be not bitter to them.

20. Children, obey the Parents according to all Things: for this is well-pleaſing to the Lord.

Ver. 18. who would] which is a Participle in the Gr. and muſt belong to none, cannot to Humility.

Ib. Religion] tranſlated ſo in all other Places, viz. Acts xxvi. 5. James i. 26, 27. beſides which worſhipping of angels reads as if it was to worſhip Angels.

Ib. not ſeen] The mere Obſcurity of the Place took up the Particle of Denial, Mills ſays, that being not in four or five Codes, &c. A little Matter!

Ver. 19. Bonds] Weſt. ligaments.

Ver. 20. therefore] ſeveral omit.

Ver. 23. being not in any Credit] viz. the Things, to be clear.

Ver. 5. Covetouſneſs, which is Idolatry] In the ancient Epiſtle of Polycarp (a Diſciple of the Apoſtle John) to the Philippians is, Si quis non abſtinuerit ſe ab avaritia, ab idololatria coinquinabitur (this Part being wanting in the Greek) If any one does not keep himſelf from Covetouſneſs, he will be polluted by Idolatry.

Ver. 12. Mercies] Several Mercy, changed into the plur. by Mills's Notion becauſe of that in Phil. ii. 1. Pr. 637. which is diſtinct from Bowels, and in another Caſe; nay it is eaſy to ſee the Probability of Mercies being turned ſing. to be like the following, while the contrary is utterly improbable.

Ver. 16. by Grace ſinging in your Heart] as the Words lie in the Original, and agreeable to Eph. v. 19. ſee alſo on Gal. i. 6.

Ver. 18. your] ſome want.

Ver. 20. according to all Things] according as the Lawfulneſs of them admit of it, and thus the Gr. not in all Things: for ſhould Aſa have obeyed his Mother, 1 Kings xv. 13. or Ahaziah his 2 Chr. xxii. 3. or Jonathan his Father, 1 Sam. xx. 31. or Samſon his Parents; Judges xiv. 3, 4?

Ib. to the Lord] A pretty many have in the Lord, which Mills reckons to be right, but Whithy ours better; nay in may ſeem taken from Eph. vi. 1. and might be deſigned to belong to obey, or it might come from Ver. 18. here.

21. Fathers,

21. Fathers, do not provoke your Children, that they may not be diſcouraged.

22. Servants, obey according to all Things the Maſters after the Fleſh; not in Eye-ſervice, as pleaſing Men, but in Simplicity of Heart, fearing God.

23. And all, whatſoever ye do, perform from the Mind, as to the Lord, and not to Men:

24. Becauſe you know that you will receive from the Lord the Reward of the Inheritance; ſince you ſerve the Lord Chriſt.

25. But he who does injury, will receive for what injury he has done; and there is not Reſpect of Perſons.

CHAP. IV.

MASTERS, yield what is juſt and equal to the Servants; as you know that you alſo have a Maſter in Heaven.

2. Continue in Prayer, and watch in the ſame with Thankſgiving:

3. Praying withal for us too, that God would open to us a Door of Speech, to ſpeak the Myſtery of Chriſt, for which I am bound;

4. That I may make it manifeſt, as I ought to ſpeak.

5. Walk in Wiſdom towards thoſe without, redeeming the Time.

6. Let your Speech be always in Grace, ſeaſoned as with Salt, that you may know how you ought to anſwer each one.

7. All the Things about me will Tychicus make known to you, a beloved Brother, and faithful Miniſter, and Fellow-ſervant in the Lord:

8. Whom I have ſent to you for this ſame Thing, that he might know the Things concerning you, and comfort your Hearts;

9. With Oneſimus, a faithful and beloved Brother, who is one of you. They will let you know all the Things here.

10. Ariſtarchus my Fellow-priſoner ſalutes you, and Mark the Nephew of Barnabas (concerning whom you have received Commandment; if he comes to you, receive him)

11. As alſo Jeſus called Juſtus, that are of the Circumciſion: theſe alone being my Fellow-workers for the Kingdom of God, who have been a Comfort to me.

12. Epaphras one of you, a Servant of Chriſt, ſalutes you, always ſtriving for you in Prayers, that ye may ſtand perfect and full in all the Will of God.

13. For I teſtify in his behalf, that he has much Zeal for you, and thoſe both in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

14. Luke the beloved Phyſician ſalutes you, as alſo Demas.

15. Salute the Brethren in Laodicea, with Nymphas, and the Church at his Houſe.

16. And when this Epiſtle is read with you, appoint that it ſhould be read too in the Church of the Laodiceans, and that you likewiſe ſhould read that from Laodicea.

17. Moreover ſay to Archippus, Look to the Miniſtry which thou haſt received in the Lord, that thou mayeſt fulfil it.

18. The Salutation of Paul with my own Hand. Remember my Bonds. Grace be with you: ſo let it be.

Ver. 2. with Thankſgiving] This crept according to Mills from Ch. ii. 7. or Phil. iv. 6. where is Nothing of watching.

Ver. 3. of Speech] Mills turns off on the poor Authority of two Writers, Pr. 637. as at 1 Cor. i. 10.

Ver. 5. redeeming the Time] which thoſe waſte, and ſpend amiſs.

Ver. 10. my Fellow-priſoner] wanting but in the Eth. Tranſ. yet Mills ſays it ſeems to have crept from Phil. 23, 24. Pr. 1216. Monſtrous! as may be ſeen by looking there.

Ver. 12. Epaphras one of you] So that Paul might conceal to them he was a Priſoner, that ſome might not know it, but tell it to Philemon, Ver. 23.

Ver. 13. Zeal] Vulg: Labour; which Mills exclaims againſt (tho' his favourite Clar. and Ger. Copies have it) with, What need of an Explanation of the Meaning? for Labour is no other, Pr. 576. He repreſenting the Lat. Tranſlator of this Epiſt. indolent, and more unlearned than the reſt, Pr. 573. for which I ſee Little or Nothing.

Ver. 16. that] not the epiſtle in Gr.

Ib. from Laodicea] Of the various Opinions what this was, may be read with Wake's Genuine Epiſtles, Ch. ix. and there being a very ſhort one, as of Paul to the Laodiceans (publiſhed beſides what he mentions ſingly in Eng.) he rejects it, ſaying it is made up of ſeveral Parcels of his Genuine Epiſtles, which I do not find to be ſo, having a Copy of it by me; ſee alſo at Epheſ. on the Tit.

Ver. 18. with my own] not of me; and the Expreſſion differs Nothing from that in 2 Theſ. iii. 17. where it is thus tranſlated, nor from the foregoing in 1 Cor. xvi. 21. where me is added in Ital.

NOTES upon the First Epistle of PAUL to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church of the Thessalonians, in God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2. We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our Prayers;

3. And do not leave off to remember your Work of Faith, as also Labour of Love, and Patience of Hope, in respect of our Lord Jesus Christ, before God and our Father:

4. As we know, beloved Brethren, the Choice of you from God.

5. Since our Gospel was not to you in Word only, but also in Power, nay in the Holy Spirit, and in much Assurance; as you know what we were among you, for your sake.

6. Nay you became Imitators of us, and of the Lord; receiving the Word in much Affliction, with the Joy of the Holy Spirit.

7. So that you are become Patterns to all who believe, in Macedonia and Achaia.

8. For from you is sounded out the Word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every Place your Faith towards God is come forth, so that we have no Need to speak any Thing.

9. For they tell concerning us, what Kind of coming in we had to you, and how ye turned to God from Idols, to serve the Living and True God;

10. And to wait for his Son from Heaven, whom he raised up from the Dead, Jesus who delivered us from the Wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

FOR ye your selves, Brethren, know our coming in to you, that it was not in vain.

2. But even when we had suffered before, and had been abused, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold through our God, to speak to you the Gospel of God in much Striving.

3. For our Exhortation was not from Error, nor from Uncleanness, nor in Deceit.

4. But as we were proved by God, to be intrusted with the Gospel; so we speak, not as pleasing Men, but God who proves our Hearts.

5. For neither were we any when with flattering Speech, as you know, nor with a covetous Pretence, God is Witness.

6. Nor did we seek Glory of Men, whether from you or others; when we could have been burdensome, as the Apostles of Christ.

7. But we were gentle amongst you, as a Nurse cherishes her Children:

8. So being desirous of you, we were pleased to impart to you, not only the Gospel of God, but also our own Souls, because you were dear to us.

9. For you remember, Brethren, our Labour and Fatigue: since working Night and Day, not to burden any of you, we preached to you the Gospel of God.

10. You are Witnesses, and God, how holily, righteously, and unblameably we were to you that believe:

11. According as you know, how as a Father his own Children, we exhorted each one of you, and comforted;

12. And testified that you should walk worthy of God, who called you to his own Kingdom and Glory.

13. For this Cause also we leave not off giving thanks to God, because you received the Word you heard from us for God's, and did not receive the Word for Men's; but (as it is truly) God's Word, which also works in you that believe.

14. For you became Imitators, Brethren,

Tit. First] This according to Mills (and who has examined it more throughly?) was written not only the first of all Paul's Epistles that we have, but likewise of all the Books of the New Testament, about the vulgar Year of Christ 52. Prolegom. ad Init. see more particularly at the End of it.

Ver. 1. from God &c.] to the End of the Ver. the Vulg. and a few omit, and Whitby rationally supposes because of the like before.

Ver. 3. in respect of] being the Gr. Genitive Case,

Ver. 7. are become] Wall, as I had put it before.

Ib. Patterns] with the Vulg. and some a Pattern.

Ver. 2. when] after being uncouthly redundant with before, and after that more so.

Ver. 4. proved] as after in this Ver.

Ver. 6. whether] the proper English, for which either, with or after, would have been better than neither.

Ver. 7. gentle] by the Vulg. and several little Children, or O little Children, but even Mills rejects it.

of the Churches of God, that are in Judea in Chriſt Jeſus; ſince you alſo ſuffered the ſame Things from your own Countrymen, even as they from the Jews:

15. Who killed both the Lord Jeſus, and their own Prophets, and perſecuted us; nay while they did not pleaſe God, were contrary to all Men;

16. And to fill up their Sins always, they forbade us to ſpeak to the Gentiles, that theſe might be ſaved: thus Wrath is come upon them to the End.

17. Now we, Brethren, being deprived of you for the Space of a little while, in Preſence, not in Heart, have endeavoured the more abundantly to ſee your Face with much Deſire.

18. Therefore we would have come, I Paul indeed, both once and twice, but Satan hindered us.

19. For what is our Hope, or Joy, or Crown of Glorying? Are not even you before our Lord Jeſus Chriſt in his Preſence?

20. Becauſe you are our Glory and Joy.

CHAP. III.

THerefore when we no longer bore, we thought well to be left at Athens alone;

2. And ſent Timothy our Brother, a Miniſter of God, and our Fellow-worker in the Goſpel of Chriſt, to eſtabliſh you, and comfort you concerning your Faith;

3. That Nobody might be moved in theſe Afflictions: for you your ſelves know, that we are put to this.

4. For even when we were with you, we foretold you, that we ſhould be afflicted; even as it came to paſs, and you know.

5. For this cauſe, and when I no longer bore, I ſent to know your Faith; leſt the Tempter ſhould any how have tempted you, and our Labour ſhould be in vain.

6. But now as Timothy is come to us from you, and has declared well to us of your Faith and Love, and that you have good Remembrance of us always, deſiring to ſee us, according as we alſo you;

7. For this cauſe we have been comforted Brethren, in you, in all our Affliction and Neceſſity, by your Faith:

8. Since now we live, if you ſtand faſt in the Lord.

9. For with what Thankſgiving can we recompenſe God concerning you, in all the Joy that we rejoice with for you before our God;

10. Who pray Night and Day very highly to ſee your Faces, and to fit up the Things wanting of your Faith?

11. Now God himſelf and our Father, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt direct our Way to you.

12. And the Lord make you increaſe and abound in Love one to another, and to all, according as we alſo to you;

13. To eſtabliſh your Hearts faultleſs in Holineſs, before God and our Father, in the Preſence of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt with all his Saints.

CHAP. IV.

FURTHER therefore, Brethren, we intreat you, and exhort in the Lord Jeſus, as you received from us, how you ſhould walk, and pleaſe God, that you would abound more.

2. Since you know what Orders we gave you by the Lord Jeſus.

3. For this is the Will of God, your being holy, for you to refrain from Whoredom;

4. That each of you may know how, to poſſeſs his own Veſſel in Holineſs and Honour;

5. Not in the Affection of Luſt, according as the Gentiles who know not God;

6. That none may over-reach, and ſo get gain of his Brother in a Matter: becauſe the Lord will be a Revenger for all theſe Things, as we have alſo ſaid before to you, and teſtified.

7. For God has not called us to Uncleanneſs, but into Holineſs.

8. Wherefore he that rejects, does not reject Man, but God, and him who gives us his Holy Spirit.

9. But concerning brotherly Friendſhip, ye have no Need I ſhould write to you; for ye your ſelves are taught by God to love one another.

Ver. 15. their own] Though Tertullian writes that Marcion added this, yet his own Prejudice in diſputing perhaps made him think ſo; and it may be owing to the Vulgate that a few other Copies want it, for which alſo the Prejudice of Mills might induce him to imagine it added by ſome orthodox Perſon, Pr. 324, 683.

Ver. 1, 5. bore] Beza adds, hoc deſiderium, this deſire or longing, and veſtri deſiderium, the deſire of you. Not forbear, nor could, which is particularly expreſſed in the Gr. by a Verb for that Purpoſe.

Ver. 2. and our Fellow-worker] Mills reckons came from Rom. xvi. 21. as wanting with four or five.

Ver. 4. even] the ſame in the Beginning of the Ver. as after.

Ver. 9. in] the ſame as twice in Ver. 7.

Ver. 10. Who pray] How obſcure in our Language participially?

Ver. 6. for all theſe Things] by which it is plain to be underſtood; but our laſt Tranſlators have put out Things that was before both in Tyndal's and the Gen. Bib. ſo making it obſcure whether Things or Perſons are to be underſtood.

Ver. 8. rejects] as tranſlated Mark vi. 26. & vii. 9, 30. John xii. 48. which ſeems righteſt.

10. And indeed ye do it to all the Brethren in all Macedonia: but we beſeech you, Brethren, to abound more;

11. Moreover to endeavour to be quiet, and do your own Affairs, nay to work with your own Hands, as we ordered you:

12. That you may walk comely towards thoſe without, and have Need of none.

13. And I would not have you be ignorant, Brethren, concerning thoſe who are aſleep, that you may not be ſorry, even as others who have no Hope.

14. For if we believe that Jeſus died, and roſe up; ſo alſo thoſe who are aſleep through Jeſus, God will bring with him.

15. For this we tell you by the Word of the Lord, that we who ſhall be left alive till his Coming, ſhall not be before thoſe who are aſleep:

16. Since the Lord himſelf will come down from Heaven, with Acclamation, with the Voice of the chief Angel, and with the Trumpet of God; when thoſe dead in Chriſt will riſe up firſt:

17. Next we who ſhall be left alive, ſhall be caught up along with them into the Clouds, to meet the Lord in the Air; and ſo ſhall be always with him.

18. So then comfort one another with theſe Words.

CHAP. V.

BUT concerning the Times and Seaſons, Brethren, you have no Need I ſhould write to you.

2. For ye your ſelves know throughly, that the Day of the Lord comes juſt as a Thief in the Night.

3. For when they ſhall ſay, Peace and Security, then ſudden Deſtruction will come on them, as Pangs on a Woman with Child, and they will not eſcape.

4. But you, Brethren, are not in the Darkneſs, that the Day may catch you as a Thief.

5. You are all Children of the Light, and thoſe of the Day; we are not of the Night, nor of Darkneſs.

6. Therefore indeed let us not ſleep, even as others; but let us watch, and be ſober.

7. For they that ſleep do it in the Night, and ſuch as are drunk are ſo at that Time.

8. But let us who are of the Day be ſober, putting on the Breaſt-plate of Faith and Love, and for a Helmet the Hope of Salvation:

9. Since God has not put us for Wrath, but for obtaining Salvation by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt;

10. Who died for us, that we might live together with him, whether we watch or ſleep.

11. Therefore comfort one another, and build up one the other, even as you do.

12. Moreover we intreat you, Brethren, to know thoſe who labour among you, as alſo rule over you in the Lord, and admoniſh you;

13. And to eſteem them very highly in Love, for their Work. Be at peace among your ſelves.

14. We further beſeech you, Brethren, admoniſh the Diſorderly, comfort thoſe of little Courage, ſupport the Weak, be forbearing to all.

15. See that none render Evil for Evil to any one; but always purſue after Good, both for one another, and for all.

16. Be always joyful.

17. Leave not off praying.

18. At every Thing be thankful, for this is the Will of God in Chriſt Jeſus to you.

19. Do not quench the Spirit.

20. Do not deſpiſe Prophecies.

21. Prove all Things, hold the Good.

22. Refrain from every Appearance of Wickedneſs.

23. Now the God of Peace himſelf ſanctify you wholly; and let your entire Spirit, Soul and Body, be kept unblameable in the Preſence of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

Ver. 11. own] the latter Mills ſays crept from 1 Cor. iv. 12. ſome with the Vulg. being without it, Pr. 886.

Ver. 13. I would] In a pretty many Copies, &c. is we would, what Wonder when the Epiſtle was written in the Name of two others beſides Paul, Ver. 1. and is accordingly here Ver. 10, 11, 14, 15. yet not without the ſing. intermixed Ver. 9. Ch. iii. 5. & v. 1, 27. The Pretence of Mills I confeſs is ingenious (whoſe Capacity as well as Pains I admire) for the other, that it might be altered to I would, becauſe I would not have you be ignorant was familiar to our Apoſtle; which however I find but four times, and is with we 2 Cor. i. 8.

Ver. 15. we who ſhall be left alive] Grotius ſays, Mundi totius exitium quaſi de proximo imminens opperirentur, quod et ipſorum et ſequentium Chriſtianorum ſcripta apertiſſimum faciunt: They expected the Deſtruction of the whole World as if it were near approaching; which both their own Writings and thoſe of the following Chriſtians make very plain, producing this as the principal Text for it, De Verit. Relig. Chriſ. Lib. ii. 6. The latter I ſhall not deny; nor readily own the former, ſince Paul ſpoke it he ſays by the Word of the Lord, and declares otherwiſe, 2 Epiſt. ii. 2, 3. the like I find with Whitby ſince.

Ib. be before] prevent being wrong, or very obſcure.

Ver. 6. watch, and be ſober] by Weſt. awake, and keep awake.

Ver. 13. your ſelves] according to ſome it is them, by leaving out ε, that it might be thoſe mentioned before, as is apparent enough; ſee alſo Mills Pro. 578. and Eſtius in Whit. Exam.

Ver. 15. both] a ſmall Number leave out, if worth mentioning with Whitby.

Ver. 17. Leave not off praying] or more ſtrictly to the Gr. Pray not leaving off, which is not to pray without ceaſing, and wants the forced Interpretation of being always prepared for it; but is not to deſiſt from the Practice of that Duty: ſo the ſame Word in Ch. i. 3. & ii. 13. Rom. i. 9. the reſt of the Places where it is.

Ver. 23. Spirit] By this, as diſtinct from Soul, may be underſtood the Mind, or the Diſpoſition of the Soul.

24. He

24. He is faithful that has called you, who alſo will perform that.

25. Brethren, pray for us.

26. Salute all the Brethren with a holy Kiſs.

27. I charge you by the Lord, that the Epiſtle may be read to all the holy Brethren.

28. The Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you: ſo let it be.

The firſt to the Theſſalonians was written from Athens.

Ib. in the Preſence] the ſame as in Chap. iii. 13. though rendered ſo differently by our Tranſlators; and both wrong, unleſs Chriſt was to come to thoſe Theſſalonians.

Ver. 24. perform that] namely the ſanctifying them wholly in Ver. 23. and according to Beza.

Ver. 27. holy] three or four Copies and a Verſ. are without, and Mills ſays, if it were not for the Conſent of Copies, he ſhould hold it for an Inſertion, Pr. 1395.

Subſcr. Athens] As the ὑπογραφαὶ to Paul's Epiſtles, were confeſſedly not put by himſelf, but by others afterwards; ſo Mills and Whitby ſhew this was not written from Athens, but at Corinth, as Ham. alſo ſuppoſes; being after the Return of Timothy, Ch. iii. 6. Acts xviii. 1, 5. I ſuppoſe his being ſent from Athens occaſioned the Miſtake, Ch. iii. 1, 2. and not conſulting Acts.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Second Epiſtle of PAUL to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church of the Theſſalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

2. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3. We ought to give thanks to God always for you, Brethren, as it is deſerving; ſince your Faith increaſes exceedingly, and the Love of each one of you all to one another abounds.

4. So that we our ſelves glory of you in the Churches of God, for your Patience and Faith, in all your Perſecutions and Afflictions which you bear:

5. A Manifeſtation of the righteous Judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of his Kingdom, for which alſo you ſuffer.

6. Foraſmuch as it will be righteous of God, to recompenſe Affliction to thoſe that afflict you;

7. And Eaſe with us to you who are afflicted, in the Revelation of the Lord Jeſus from Heaven, with his powerful Angels,

8. In flaming Fire, rendering Vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

9. Who will be puniſhed with the Judgment of everlaſting Deſtruction, from the Face of the Lord, and from the Glory of his Might;

10. When he ſhall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be wonderful in all who believe (ſince our Teſtimony among you was believed) at that Day.

11. For which we alſo pray always concerning you, that our God would make you worthy of the Calling, and fulfil all the good Pleaſure of the Goodneſs, and the Work of Faith in Power:

12. That the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt may be glorified in you, and you in him; according to the Grace of our God, and of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

CHAP. II.

AND we intreat you, Brethren, by the Coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and our aſſembling together in him,

2. That you would not quickly be moved from the Senſe, nor be troubled, neither by Spirit, nor by Word, nor by Letter, as of us, as that the Day of Chriſt is near at hand:

3. Let none deceive you after any Manner; ſince not unleſs there comes a falling away firſt, and the Man of Sin be revealed, the Son of Deſtruction:

Tit. Second] ſo computed too of all that our Apoſtle wrote now extant, and while he was at Corinth, Acts xviii. 11. being alſo the ſecond of the New Teſtament Writings.

Ver. 2. our] Mills fancied this crept from the foregoing Verſe on weak Grounds, Pr. 488.

Ver. 6. Foraſmuch as] Vulg. If notwithſtanding, ill and abſurdly, ſays Mills, Pr. 579. and though he adds, they mended it before the Times of Hilary the Deacon, in the 4th Century; yet it is in that Tranſ. now, even without Mention of any different Reading in the Lovain Edit.

Ver. 7. from Heaven] See at Mat. xxiv. 29, 30.

Ver. 8. Chriſt] Some omit.

Ver. 9. the Judgment of] omitted in our com. Tranſ.

Ver. 10. believe] with divers have believed.

Ib. ſince] meaning he ſaid ſo (to comfort and encourage them) ſince they were ſuch as believed.

Ver. 11. make you worthy] ſo the former Eng. Tranſlations.

Ver. 12. Chriſt] the former ſome omit.

Ver. 1. by] Ham. ſays it will be beſt rendered concerning, and then Wall inſinuates that the Original ſhould have another Word for it; but what he ſays intimates better that ours is not to be ſo rendered, and it has Authority enough to keep its Place.

Ver. 2. from the Senſe] Wall writes, Νῦς with St. Paul does frequently ſignify the Senſe or Meaning of a Thing, as 1 Cor. xiv. 15, &c. ἀπὸ τῦ νοος can never ſignify the Mind, Crit. N. Whitby paraphraſes it from the Sentence (Ham. your Opinion) and the Prep. is certainly from, not in.

Ib. Chriſt] but the Lord by ſome, the Day of the Lord being a Scripture Term, tho' Mills has put it among his right Readings, Pr. 684.

Ver. 3. a falling away] from Primitive Chriſtianity.

Ib. the Man of Sin] The Pope particularly, with whom it ſo much agrees, and muſt be or continue to be in the latter Times, Ver. 2, 8. Hammond's expounding it of Simon Magus and the Gnoſticks, ſeems little and weak, as Whitby's does of the Jews, unapplicable and wild.

Ib. Sin] by a few Iniquity.

4. Who is oppoſite, and exalted on high above all that is called God, or worſhipped; ſo that he as God, ſits in the Temple of God, ſhewing that himſelf is God.

5. Do not ye remember, that while I was with you, I told you theſe Things?

6. And now ye know what with-holds, for him to be revealed in his own Time.

7. For the Myſtery of Iniquity works already; only one now with-holds, till he is out of the Way.

8. And then will the unrighteous one be revealed, whom the Lord will conſume by the Spirit of his Mouth, and aboliſh by the Appearance of his Preſence;

9. Him whoſe Preſence is according to the Working of Satan, with all Power, Signs, and Wonders of Falſehood;

10. As likewiſe with all Deceit of Unrighteouſneſs in thoſe who periſh, becauſe they did not receive the Love of the Truth, that they might be ſaved.

11. And for this reaſon God will ſend them the Working of Error, for them to believe Falſehood;

12. That they may all be condemned who do not believe the Truth, but are pleaſed with Unrighteouſneſs.

13. But we ought to give thanks to God always for you, Brethren, beloved by the Lord; ſince God choſe you from the Beginning to Salvation, in the Sanctification of the Spirit, and Belief of the Truth:

14. To which he called you by our Goſpel, to the obtaining of the Glory of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

15. Therefore indeed, Brethren, ſtand faſt, and hold the Things delivered which you have been taught, whether by Word or our Epiſtle.

16. Now our Lord Jeſus Chriſt himſelf, and God even our Father; who has loved us, and given everlaſting Comfort, and good Hope, by Grace;

17. Comfort your Hearts, and eſtabliſh you in every good Word and Work.

CHAP. III.

FURTHER, Brethren, pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may run, and be glorified, even as with you;

2. And that we may be delivered from abſurd and wicked Men: for all have not Faith.

3. But the Lord is faithful, who will eſtabliſh you, and keep from Wickedneſs.

4. Nay we are confident in the Lord about you, that ye both do, and will do, the Things which we order you.

5. So the Lord direct your Hearts into the Love of God, and into patient Waiting for Chriſt.

6. However we order you, Brethren, in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that you ſhould be withdrawn from every Brother who walks diſorderly, and not according to that delivered, which he received from us.

7. For ye your ſelves know, how ye ſhould imitate us; ſince we were not diſorderly among you:

8. Neither did we eat Victuals with any one for nothing; but did work with Labour and Fatigue, Night and Day, not to burden any of you:

9. Not that we have no Authority; but that we may make our ſelves a Figure for you to imitate us.

10. For even when we were with you, this we ordered you, that if any one would not work, neither ſhould he eat.

11. For we hear ſome walk among you diſorderly, not working, yet being buſy.

12. Now ſuch we order, and exhort, by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that they ſhould work with Stillneſs, and eat their own Victuals.

Ver. 4. as God] omitted by ſome, and Mills thinks ſhould be, Pr. 684. his Reaſon he gives in the Note, becauſe it is not extant in ſo many ancient Copies and Writers, viz. ſix or ſeven of the former, which appear too attendant on the Vulg. and ſeven or eight of the latter, of which ſee on 1 Cor. i. 10.

Ver. 7. one now with-holds] The Heathen Roman Empire, as generally interpreted by the Primitive Writers and Proteſtants; ſee Fulke's and Whitby's Notes on Ver. 6. and Wall's Pref. to Crit. Notes, p. 43.

Ver. 8. the Lord] the Vulg. and ſome add Jeſus.

Ib. Appearance] turned every where elſe appearing by our Tranſlators, namely 1 Tim. vi. 14. 2 Tim. i. 10. & iv. 1, 8. Tit. ii. 13.

Ver. 9. of Falſehood] belonging to the Power, and Signs, as well as Wonders.

Ver. 11. And] according to Mills prefix'd by Somebody for Connection, Pr. 488. Somebody indeed! for almoſt all to follow him; and who likelier than Paul himſelf?

Ib. will ſend] ſends with a few, yet preferred for genuine by Mills, but quoted wrong, Pr. 683.

Ib. ſend] permit to be ſent, according to Whitby, &c.

Ver. 17. Comfort] Vulg. Lat. Exhort, though its Noun is there turned Comfort in the Ver. before; ſee Mil. Prol. 579. The Rhemiſts, to ſmooth it up, write, This Word of exhorting (how could exhort be otherwiſe? if that is proper) implieth in it (not out of it ſurely) comfort and conſolation (which two are of the very ſame Meaning.)

Ver. 1. Further] not Finally, either in the Meaning of the Gr. Word, or Matters of the Epiſtle.

Ver. 4. order you] Mills will have the you added to finiſh the Sentence, Pr. 488. when it is not at the End in the Gr. How came he not to ſay it crept from Ver. 6?

Ver. 6. our] is added by the Verdict of Mills, and that only becauſe the two Copies mentioned at Col. ii. 5. have it not, Pr. 488.

13. And as for you, Brethren, be not ſlothful in doing well.

14. Nay if any one does not obey our Word by the Epiſtle, note that Man, and keep not company with him, that he may be aſhamed:

15. Yet do not eſteem as an Enemy, but admoniſh him as a Brother.

16. Now the Lord of Peace himſelf give you Peace, always in every Manner. The Lord be with you all.

17. The Salutation of Paul with my own Hand, which is the Sign in every Epiſtle: ſo I write.

18. The Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all: ſo let it be.

The ſecond to the Theſſalonians was written from Athens.

Ver. 16. Manner] A few have Place, by topo for tropo, which tho' Grotius likes, yet not Mills, albeit the Vulg. has ſo.

NOTES

NOTES upon the First Epistle of PAUL to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the Command of God our Saviour, and of the Lord Jesus Christ our Hope.

2. To Timothy, a real Child in the Faith. Grace, Mercy, Peace be from God our Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord:

3. According as I besought thee to abide at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia; that thou mightest order some not to teach otherwise;

4. Nor to give heed to Fables and endless Pedigrees, which yield Questions, more than godly Management that is in Faith.

5. But the End of the Precept is Love, from a pure Heart, a good Conscience, and unfeigned Faith:

6. Which some missing of, are turned aside into vain Talk;

7. Who would be Teachers of the Law, not understanding either the Things they speak, or concerning which they affirm.

8. However we know that the Law is good, if any one uses it lawfully;

9. As he knows this, that the Law is not put for a righteous Person, but for lawless and unruly ones, for the Impious and Sinners, for the Unholy and Profane, for them who beat a Father or Mother, for Murderers,

10. For Whoremongers, Buggerers, Makers of Slaves, Liars, forsworn Persons, and any other Thing if opposite to sound Teaching;

11. According to the glorious Gospel of the Blessed God, which I am intrusted with.

12. And I am thankful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who strengthened me; since he esteemed me faithful, and put into the Ministry:

13. Whereas I was before a Blasphemer, Persecutor, and Doer of Damage; but obtained Mercy, since I acted ignorantly in Unbelief:

14. So the Grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with Faith and Love in Christ Jesus.

15. It is a faithful Saying, and worthy of all Acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the World to save Sinners; of whom I am a chief one.

16. But for this reason I obtained Mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew all Forbearance, for a Pattern to those who should afterwards believe on him to everlasting Life.

17. Now to the King of Eternity, the Incorruptible, Invisible, only Wise God, be Honour and Glory, for evermore: so let it be.

18. This Order I commit to thee, Child Timothy, according to the Prophecies which went before about thee, that thou by them mayest make a good War:

19. Since thou hast Faith, and a good Conscience; which as some have cast away, they have made shipwreck concerning Faith:

20. Of whom is Hymeneus, and Alexander; whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Tit. Epistle] In the vulg. Year of Christ 65 written, by Mills's Proleg. as also by both Usher and Pearson.

Ver. 4. Management] For edifying Mills thought is without all Faith of MS. Copies, tho' the Vulg. has it.

Ib. so do in the com. Transl. Whit. objects to, as making Timothy to be at Ephesus then, which is uncertain, Pref.

Ver. 5. But] of which see Gell's Essay, p. 682.

Ver. 6. vain Talk] so vain talkers, Tit. i. 10. nor does the Gr. denote jangling.

Ver. 10. Buggerers] so the Gen. Vers. it being but one Word in Gr.

Ver. 14. exceeding] One Copy and two Versions being without this Augment, probably by a Lapse of the Writer, or the Translators thinking of Nothing suitable for it in those Languages; yet Mills on so weak Grounds deems ours a Marginal Gloss.

Ver. 15. I am a chief one] So Hermas gives himself a very bad Character, Shepherd, B. 2. Com. 3. and two of the Sibyls speak grievously ill of themselves, B. 2, & 7 at the End.

Ver. 16. first] Mills vehemently suspected, he says, this was put in, for the Clermont Copy had it not, Pr. 490.

Ver. 17. Wise] crept, says Mills, from Rom. xvi. 27. since four Transl. and about as many Copies want it; but look in Whit. Exam.

Ver. 18. by them] is, Mills declares, of some Scholiast, not of our Apostle, Pr. 1217. when left out of none but the Eth. Transl.

CHAP.

CHAP. II.

I EXHORT therefore, that first of all there may be made Supplications, Prayers, Intercessions, Thanksgivings for all Men;

2. For Kings, and all who are in Superiority; that we may live a quiet and still Life, in all Piety and Veneration.

3. For this is well and acceptable, before God our Saviour:

4. Who is willing all Men should be saved, and come to the Knowledge of the Truth.

5. For there is one God, and one Mediator of God and Men, the Man Christ Jesus:

6. Who gave himself a Ransom for all, a Testimony in their respective Times:

7. To which I am put a Preacher, and an Apostle (I speak the Truth in Christ, do not lye) a Teacher of the Gentiles, in Faith and Truth.

8. I would therefore have Men pray in every Place, lifting up holy Hands, without Anger and Reasoning:

9. And Women in like Manner to dress themselves in a decent Habit, with Bashfulness and Sobriety; not in Curls, or Gold, or Pearls, or costly Apparel;

10. But, what is becoming Women professing Godliness, by good Works.

11. Let a Wife learn in Stillness, in all Subjection.

12. But I do not permit a Wife to teach, nor to have Authority over a Husband, but to be in Stillness.

13. For Adam was framed first, afterwards Eve.

14. And Adam was not deceived, but the Wife being deceived was in the Transgression.

15. Yet she will be saved by breeding Children, if they remain in Faith, Love and Holiness, with Sobriety.

Ver. 2. Veneration] being only besides in Ch. iii. 4. Tit. ii. 2. where it is translated gravity in the com. Bib. see likewise Gell, Es. p. 566.

Ver. 4. is willing] what the Gr. Word signifies, ill expres'd by will.

Ver. 6. a Testimony] as the Gr. is, and according to Isa. lv. 4. But what due time was the foregoing to be testified in, when the Apostle testified it now?

Ib. their respective Times] The Gr. being plural. Thus Christ not only died for all Persons, but spiritually testifies to them, at the Times of each one's Call or Visitation, what belongs to their being saved: so performing the two Parts of his Mediatorship, or Reconciliation of God and Man, according also to 1 John ii. 1, 2, 3.

Ver. 7. put] not ordained.

Ib. in Christ] lacking in thirteen MSS. with five Vers. &c. and supposed by Estius to be from Rom. ix. 1. as if the Apostle must not use the same Expression, which is so very common in Scripture.

Ver. 8. Reasoning] I find not that the Greek ever bears the Sense of Doubting, but always imports in the New Testament, either inward Reasonings, or tumultuating Thoughts, writes Whitby.

Ver. 9. On which Baxter in his Paraphrase, as if to contradict it, And for Women I forbid them not all Ornaments, especially [mind] when they come to the sacred Assemblies.

Ib. Bashfulness] Some of the common Books have shamfac'dness, though our Translators seem not to allow of Apostrophes, others shamfacedness, but the former Editions of the pres. Transl. had it shamefastnesse, how improper soever that may be.

Ib. Curls] broidered, which is now in our Books, and signifies embroidered, as figured Needle-work is termed, appears to be a Corruption of the Printers (but what is that the better to the Readers who know no other?) for the Editions of our last Transl. in 1613, 1624, and 1634 have broided, as the Geneva Vers. broyded, the Bishops Transl. braided; with Tynd. and Coverd. the like, and in the Marg. of our present is plaited, the Meaning of the other. The Gr. Word is plural, and occurs only here. So wretchlessness in the 17th Article is erroneously (as Johns. in Dict. observes) for reckleness, careless.

Ver. 11. Wife] as she is to be in all Subjection, and to have Children, Ver. 15. agreeable to the like, 1 Cor. xiv. 34, 35. excepting that this is spoken of her Behaviour in the Family: and our Translators render the same Word wife and wives three times in the next Chap. viz. Ver. 2, 11, 12. and elsewhere; since I know of no other Gr. Word for Wife used in any Book of the New Test. besides once in 1 Pet. iii. 7.

Ib. Stillness] accordingly translated quietness in the com. Bib. 2 Thes. iii. 12. and the Adjective from it peaceable in this Chap. Ver. 2. and quiet, 1 Pet. iii. 4. where it is only; as likewise its Verb is rested, Luke xxiii. 56. ceased, Acts xxi. 14. and be quiet, 1 Thes. iv. 11.

Ver. 12. Husband] as in 1 Cor. xiv. 35. and the Chap. following this; being also the only Gr. Word found in Scripture for it.

Ver. 15. by breeding Children] after Ham. by bearing the Messias, according to Whitby through the Sorrow of Child-bearing; but they refute one another's, with what might be added, besides both making [if] useless as belonging to the Children, which is sufficiently denoted in the Gr. compound Word; and who will believe Ham. that Children must have a Verb singular? Our Translators mistranslating the Prep. in needs no Remark. And how unforced is the Sense, for the Virtue of Children from a Mother's good Education, to contribute to her Salvation, and so her bearing them, of which that Education is an Effect; and that the Apostle should write thus, to promote it! On the other hand how insignificant (if not absurd) is it for they to mean she! For what Consequence is either her Salvation, or Virtue, of her Child-bearing?

CHAP. III.

FAITHFUL is the Saying, If any one longs for the Office of Overſeer, he covets a good Work.

2. An Overſeer then muſt be unblameable, the Huſband of one Wife, ſerious, ſober, decent, hoſpitable, ready to teach;

3. Not given to Wine, not a Striker, not for filthy Gain, but gentle, not quarrelſome, not covetous;

4. One who rules his own Family well, having the Children in Subjection with all Veneration;

5. (But if any one does not know how to rule his own Family, how ſhall he take care of the Church of God?)

6. Not lately converted; leſt being puffed up, he ſhould fall into the Condemnation of the Devil.

7. Nay he muſt alſo have a good Teſtimony from thoſe without; leſt he ſhould fall into Reproach, and the Snare of the Devil.

8. Miniſters in like Manner ſhould be venerable, not Double-ſpeakers, not addicted to much Wine, not for filthy Gain;

9. Such as have the Myſtery of the Faith in a pure Conſcience.

10. And let theſe too be proved firſt; afterwards let them miniſter, if they are blameleſs:

11. The Women in like Manner ſhould be venerable, not Slanderers, ſober, faithful in all Things.

12. Let the Miniſters be the Huſbands of one Wife, ruling the Children and their own Families well.

13. For thoſe who miniſter well obtain for themſelves a good Degree, and much Boldneſs in the Faith that is in Chriſt Jeſus.

14. Theſe Things I write to thee, as I hope to come to thee ſoon;

15. But I ſhould delay, that thou mayeſt know how thou ſhouldeſt be converſant in the Houſe of God, which is the Church of the Living God, the Pillar and Settlement of the Truth.

16. And confeſſedly the Myſtery of Piety is great; that God has been manifeſted in Fleſh, juſtified in Spirit, has appeared to Angels, been preached among the Gentiles, believed on in the World, received up into Glory.

CHAP. IV.

NOW the Spirit ſays expreſsly, that in the latter Times ſome will depart from the Faith, and give heed to ſeducing Spirits, and Doctrines of Devils;

2. Through the Hypocriſy of falſe Speakers, who have their own Conſcience ſeared,

3. Who bid not to marry, to refrain from Meats which God has created to be received with Thankſgiving, by thoſe who believe and know the Truth.

4. Since every Creature of God is good, and Nothing to be rejected, if it be received with Thankſgiving.

5. For it is ſanctified by the Word of God, and Interceſſion.

6. By laying down theſe Things to the Brethren, thou wilt be a good Miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt, nouriſhed up in the Words of Faith, and of good Doctrine, which thou haſt followed.

Ver. 2. one Wife] at the ſame Time; but as Polygamy was not allowed or uſed among Chriſtians, Ham. ſuppoſes it is meant of divorcing a Wife, and taking another, which Chriſt forbade, Mat. v. 32. and is corroborated by Ch. v. 9.

Ib. ſober] this Gr. being ſo tranſlated, Ver. 11. Tit. ii. 2. and is no where elſe.

Ver. 3. not for filthy Gain] not in ſeveral Copies and Verſions, and might be taken from Tit. i. 7. eſpecially as here it is ſynonimous to not covetous.

Ib. gentle] ſo rendered Tit. iii. 2. James iii. 17. 1 Pet. ii. 18.

Ib. not covetous] This is alſo the ſecond of the eleven Commandments which Zoroaſtres gave for the Prieſts in particular, Lord's Religion of the Perſees, in 4to. p. 32.

Ver. 6. Condemnation] Hence it is thought the Devil fell through Pride.

Ver. 8. Miniſters] according as tranſlated Ch. iv. 6. and its Kindred-word miniſtry, Ch. i. 12.

Ver. 11. The Women] that are Miniſters, Ver. 8. as the Context ſhews.

Ver. 15. the Pillar &c.] This Weſley, following no Copy, but following the audacious Author of the New Verſion in 1729, has removed, and joined thus to the next, The myſtery of godlineſs is the pillar and ground of the truth, and— a great Thing; for which the myſtery of godlineſs ſhould properly be at leaſt four Words back in the Original, and begin with a Conjunction, beſides the Alteration of the Points.

Ver. 16. God] For this ſome have which; but though Mills does not join with them, the Vulg. Lat. and Clermont Copy, that ſo often, even ſeparately guide his Judgment, both have it; with the Syriack and Ethiopick Verſions, as alſo Ambroſe, Hilary, and the Scholiaſt under the Name of Jerome, which four or five when not ſo conjoined he particularly follows in other Places.

Ver. 1. and] Mills would fling out, through his partial Deference to a few, Pr. 490.

Ver. 2. This Bp. Jewel illuſtrates in an Epiſt. to Q. Eliz. before his great Defence of the Apology of the Church of Eng. thus, that have given themſelves over into reprobate and wilful Minds, and have deſpiſed the Wiſdom of God within themſelves.

Ib. Through the Hypocriſy &c.] according to the Gr. Beza, Doddr. &c.

Ib. ſeared] which is burnt with a hot iron; ſo that the Addition in the com. Tranſ. is both ſuperfluous and improper, beſides unſuitable to conſcience.

Ver. 3. bid] which will connect with to refrain.

Ver. 5. the Word of God] in the Liberty of the Goſpel.

Ver. 6. laying down] as it ſignifies (but not put in remembrance) and is tranſlated in the other Place where it is, Rom. xvi. 4.

Ib. followed] as rendered Mark xvi. 17. and not elſewhere attained.

7. But

7. But profane and old Women's Fables refuſe, and exerciſe thy ſelf in Piety.

8. For bodily Exerciſe is profitable but little; whereas Piety is profitable for all Things, ſince it has the Promiſe both of the preſent Life, and of the future.

9. The Saying is faithful, and worthy of all Acceptation.

10. For we both labour and are reproached for this; becauſe we hope in the Living God, who is the Saviour of all Men, eſpecially of the Believers.

11. Theſe Things order, and teach.

12. Let none deſpiſe thy Youth; but be a Figure of the Believers, in Speech, in Converſation, in Love, in Spirit, in Faith, in Chaſtity.

13. Till I come, give heed to Reading, to Exhortation, to Doctrine.

14. Do not neglect the Gift in thee, which was given thee by Prophecy, with the putting on of the Hands of the Elders.

15. Study theſe Things, be in them; that thy Progreſs may be manifeſt among all.

16. Give heed to thy ſelf, and to the Doctrine, remain in them: for doing this, thou wilt both ſave thy ſelf, and thoſe who hear thee.

CHAP. V.

AN Elder do not rebuke, but exhort as a Father, the Younger as Brothers;

2. The elder Women as Mothers, the younger as Siſters, in all Chaſtity.

3. Reſpect Widows, who are poor ones.

4. But if any Widow has Children or Grandchildren, let them learn firſt to be pious at their own Home, and to render Requital to their Parents: for this is good and acceptable before God.

5. Now ſhe who is a poor Widow, and left alone, hopes in God, and abides in Supplications and Prayers, Night and Day.

6. Whereas ſhe that is wanton, is dead while alive.

7. And theſe Things order, that they may be unblameable.

8. But if any one does not provide for his own, and eſpecially for thoſe of the Family, he has denied the Faith, and is worſe than an Unbeliever.

9. Let a Widow be choſen in not younger than ſixty Years old, who was the Wife of one Man;

10. Teſtified of by good Works, if ſhe has nouriſhed Children, if received the Strangers, if waſhed the Saints Feet, if aſſiſted the Afflicted, if followed after every good Work.

11. But the younger Widows refuſe: for when they become wanton againſt Chriſt, they would marry;

12. Having Condemnation, becauſe they have aboliſhed the firſt Faith;

13. And withal learn to be lazy, going about to Houſes; nay not only lazy, but alſo Tattlers, and buſy, ſpeaking Things not fit.

14. I would therefore have the younger Women marry, breed Children, managed a Family, give no Occaſion to an Oppoſer to rail for nothing.

15. For ſome are already turned aſide after Satan.

16. If any believing Man or Woman has Widows, let him aſſiſt them, and not burden the Church, that it may aſſiſt ſuch as are poor Widows.

17. Let the Elders who rule well, be counted worthy of double Honour, eſpecially they that labour in the Word and Doctrine.

18. For the Scripture ſays, The Ox that treads out the Corn thou ſhalt not muzzle; and, The Workman deſerves his Reward.

Ver. 12. in Spirit] not with Some, and Mills ſays, ſtrange as it is, crept from 2 Cor. vi. 6. Prol. 637.

Ver. 14. Elders] as frequently elſewhere.

Ver. 15. be in them] directly to the Gr. and as in the next Verſe.

Ver. 16. remain in them] Mills imagines was firſt written to the Marg. and at length paſſed into the Context; why? Becauſe the Eth. Tranſ. is without it.

Ver. 2. in all Chaſtity] entirely with decent Words and Behaviour.

Ver. 4. Grandchildren] according to the Context and Gr. and particularly to Parents following.

Ib. good and] One Quarter of the Copies, by Wetſten's Note, leave this out, and we may doubt, tho' not believe (but Mills ſays ſcarce doubt) it creeped in from Ch. ii. 3.

Ver. 6. is wanton] as tranſlated in its other Place James v. 5.

Ver. 7. they] the Children and Grandchildren, Ver. 4. though Doddr. writes that ſome would refer this to the Widows, which the Gender diſallows, and he father either to the Deacons, or to Timothy's Hearers in general.

Ver. 9. of one] not divorced from one, and married to another while the former was living; ſee Ch. iii. 2.

Ver. 10. the Strangers] who came thither to preach the Goſpel.

Ver. 11. would marry] not will actually, as the fut. Tenſe: by Weſley, want to marry.

Ver. 14. for nothing] omitted in the com. Eng.

Ver. 16. Man or] A few being without this, Mills puts it down for prefixed by ſome Reader; but a few alſo leave out or Woman, having Man.

Ib. let him] or ſuch a one ſingular, and as the Concord of Grammar requires with or: ſo Num. vi. 2, 3. and elſewhere in the Law.

Ib. poor] In the Gr. Phraſe truly a Widow, as at Ver. 3, 5. and here, ſignifies clearly to me a poor Widow, as Widows were frequently poor; like other ſuch Idioms in different Languages, which will not bear to be tranſlated ſtrictly, without being abſurd or unintelligible. So we ſay, ſuch a one is a right——viz. according to the general Character of that which is mentioned.

19. Againſt

19. Againſt an Elder do not receive an Accuſation, unleſs by two or three Witneſſes.

20. Convict thoſe who ſin before all, that the reſt may be in Fear.

21. I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the choſen Angels, to obſerve theſe Things without Prejudice, and do Nothing according to Partiality.

22. Put Hands quickly on Nobody, nor partake of others Sins: keep thy ſelf chaſte.

23. Drink Water no longer, but uſe a little Wine, by reaſon of thy Stomach and thy frequent Weakneſſes.

24. The Sins of ſome Men are evident before, going before to Judgment; but of ſome too they follow after.

25. In like Manner alſo good Works are evident before; and thoſe that are otherwiſe cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

WHATEVER Servants are under the Yoke, let them eſteem their own Maſters worthy of all Honour; that the Name of God, and the Doctrine may not be ſpoken evil of.

2. And let thoſe who have believing Maſters not deſpiſe them, becauſe they are Brethren; but ſerve the rather, becauſe they are believing and beloved, who receive the Benefit: theſe Things teach, and exhort to.

3. If any one teaches otherwiſe, and does not come to ſound Words, thoſe of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the Doctrine that is according to Piety;

4. He is puffed up, and knows Nothing, but is diſtempered concerning Queſtions and Conteſts about Words; from which come Envy, Quarrelling, Reviling, wicked Imaginations,

5. Wranglings of Men of corrupt Mind, and deſtitute of the Truth, who ſuppoſe a Revenue to be Piety: depart from ſuch.

6. But Piety with Sufficiency is a great Revenue.

7. For we having brought Nothing into the World, it is evident that we cannot carry any Thing out.

8. So while we have Food and Raiment, let theſe be ſufficient for us.

9. Whereas thoſe who would be rich, fall into Temptation, and a Snare, with many fooliſh and hurtful Deſires, which ſink Men into Deſtruction and Ruin.

10. For the Love of Money is the Root of all Evils; which ſome longing for, have erred from the Faith, and pierced themſelves through with many Sorrows.

11. But thou, O Man of God, flee from theſe Things; and purſue Righteouſneſs, Piety, Faith, Love, Patience, Meekneſs.

12. Strive with the good Striving of Faith, take hold of everlaſting Life; to which alſo thou art called, and haſt made a good Profeſſion before many Witneſſes.

13. I order thee before God, who made all Things live, and Chriſt Jeſus, who teſtified a good Confeſſion to Pontius Pilate;

14. For thee to obſerve the Commandment, unſtained, unblameable, till the Appearance of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

15. Which in his own Times he will ſhew, the Bleſſed and only Powerful One, the King of thoſe that reign, and Lord of ſuch as have dominion;

16. Who only has Immortality, and dwells in inacceſſible Light, whom no Man has ſeen, nor can ſee; to whom be everlaſting Honour and Might: ſo let it be.

17. Order thoſe that are rich in the preſent World, not to be high-minded, nor to hope on uncertain Riches, but in the Living God, who affords us richly all Things for Enjoyment;

18. To act well, to be rich in good Works, to be diſtributing well, ready to impart;

Ver. 19. unleſs by two or three Witneſſes] Mills thruſts all this away, as a marginal Addition, becauſe of the Omiſſion of ſome Writers, but ſupported by the Authority of no Copy.

Ver. 21. the Lord] did creep, ſays Mills, from 2 Tim. iv. 1. foraſmuch as not found with ſome, Pr. 638. Are parallel Paſſages thus to be expounded away? What Work might be made among the numerous ones in the Books of the Old Teſt. at this Rate? However 'tis manifeſt this was not taken thence, becauſe it has there and not here the Article; and ſeveral alſo omit it there, the chief of them the ſame as here.

Ib. Partiality] Several Copies have Faction according to Mills, which he puts for genuine; but it might be only η written for ι, as Mills himſelf obſerves on Acts v. 36. is done every where.

Ver. 3. thoſe] not the words.

Ver. 4. diſtempered concerning Queſtions] by Weſt. ſick of queſtions, but that may ſignify weary of them.

Ver. 5. Wranglings] This Word is differently ſpelled in the Gr. Copies, παραand διά the former Parts of it being tranſpoſed, with the great Criticks Grotius for one, and Mills for the other.

Ib. Revenue] as the Gr. Word ſignifies properly, and not gain.

Ib. depart from ſuch] added to fill up the Senſe, according to Grotius and Mills, though deficient but in three or four Copies, and three Verſions.

Ver. 6. Sufficiency] as tranſlated 2 Cor. ix. 8. being no where elſe.

Ver. 9. fooliſh] Vulg. uſeleſs, from a various Reading by the Addition of a Letter, which even Mills diſlikes.

19. Treaſu-

19. Treaſuring up for themſelves a good Foundation for the future, that they may take hold of everlaſting Life.

20. O Timothy, keep what is depoſited, and turn from profane vain Talkings, and Oppoſitions of Science falſely named:

21. Which as ſome profeſs, they have miſſed concerning the Faith. Grace be with thee: ſo let it be.

The firſt to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chief City of Phrygia Pacatiana.

Ver. 20. what is depoſited] Some ſpell the Gr. Word ſhorter than the common, which though Mills is for, I think the Abridgment is moſt likely the Alteration, eſpecially as Curtailing is ſo much uſed in the Various Readings.

Sub. Laodicea] But according to Mills Philippi: for I may add, that Laodicea ſeems too near to Epheſus, where Timothy then was, Ch. i. 3. ſee alſo Ham. Pref.

NOTES upon the Second Epiſtle of PAUL to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, by the Will of God, according to the Promiſe of Life in Chriſt Jeſus;

2. To Timothy, a beloved Child. Grace, Mercy, Peace be from God the Father, and Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

3. I am thankful to God, whom I worſhip from my Parents with a pure Conſcience, how I have continual Remembrance concerning thee, in Supplications Night and Day;

4. And long to ſee thee, being mindful of thy Tears, that I may be filled with Joy:

5. As I recal to Mind the unfeigned Faith in thee, which dwelt firſt in thy Grandmother Lois, and thy Mother Eunica, and I am perſuaded that in thee alſo.

6. For which Cauſe I put thee in remembrance, to ſtir up the Gift of God, which is in thee by putting on of my Hands.

7. For God has not given us the Spirit of Fearfulneſs, but of Power, Love and Soberneſs.

8. Be not aſhamed therefore of the Teſtimony of our Lord, nor of me his Priſoner; but ſuffer harm with the Goſpel, according to the Power of God:

9. Who has ſaved us, and called with a holy Calling, not according to our Works, but according to his own Purpoſe and Grace, given us in Chriſt Jeſus before the ancient Times;

10. And is now made manifeſt by the Appearance of our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, who indeed aboliſhed Death, and cauſed Life and Immortality to be light, by the Goſpel:

11. To which I am put a Preacher, Apoſtle, and Teacher of the Gentiles.

12. For which Cauſe alſo I ſuffer theſe Things, yet am not aſhamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am perſuaded that he is able to keep till that Day what I have depoſited.

13. Hold the Pattern of ſound Words, which thou haſt heard from me, in the Faith and Love that is in Chriſt Jeſus.

14. The good Thing committed keep, by the holy Spirit that dwells in us.

15. Thou knoweſt this, that all who are in Aſia are turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16. The Lord grant Mercy to the Family of Oneſiphorus, becauſe he often refreſhed me, and was not aſhamed of my Chain.

17. But when he was at Rome, he ſought for me very carefully, and found.

18. The Lord grant him to find Mercy from himſelf on that Day: for in how many Things too he miniſtred at Epheſus, thou knoweſt very well.

Tit. Epiſtle] his laſt, written by him as computed An. 67. ſee Wall's Cr. Not. p. 333, 334, 335. and Mill. Prol.

Ver. 7. Soberneſs] Weſt. ſobriety; but I make this ſmall Diſtinction as in the Gr. from that in 1 Tim. ii. 9, 15.

Ver. 9. ancient] The Gr. Word being an Adjective, and ſignifying thus, like the Heb. עולם as well as everlaſting; which it cannot here, becauſe, according to Beza, Nothing can be imagined before Eternity: the Subſtantive too is Times. Croſs would have them tranſlated the Ages of Time, which began, he ſays, after the firſt Week of Time, Tagh. Art. p. 116. and Beza the like.

Ver. 11. of the Gentiles] according to Mills is of 1 Tim. ii. 7. Pr. 1354. although no more than barely two Copies are without it.

Ver. 12. what I have depoſited] The old Geneva Note may ſtill ſtand for the beſt, Which is my ſelfe: for was his Life, as Ham. expounds it, to be kept to that Day? And Whit. in his Paraph. has Soul and Life, but drops the latter in Annot. ſhewing by Quotations that the Soul is the Depoſitum of God, or depoſited by God, in Man; whereas that being juſt contrary, to help it out he ſays, which they dying, commit into the Hands of God, notwithſtanding Paul had done this already. Well conſidered, it may appear to others as to me, a ſublime Expreſſion of the Apoſtle.

Ver. 13. Pattern] as the ſame Word is tranſlated 1 Epiſt. i. 16. where it only is beſides; and as I ſince ſee Weſley tranſlates it.

Ver. 15. all] On this Ham. writes, The Doctors or Biſhops have generally rejected my Authority, &c. and in his Pref. to 2 Epiſt. of John, So of the Biſhops of Aſia we find S. Paul complain, 2 Tim. i. 15. that they had turned aſide from him.

Ver. 17. ſought for] for ſought out may paſs for found.

CHAP. II.

THOU therefore, my Child, be ſtrong by the Grace that is through Chriſt Jeſus.

2. And what Things thou haſt heard from me by many Witneſſes, theſe commit to faithful Men, who ſhall alſo be ſufficient to others.

3. Thou therefore ſuffer harm, as a good Soldier of Jeſus Chriſt.

4. Nobody who goes to war is entangled with the Affairs of Life, that he may pleaſe him who has choſen him for a Soldier.

5. And if any one alſo conteſt, he is not crowned except he contend lawfully.

6. The Huſbandman who labours ought firſt to receive ſome of the Fruits.

7. Mind what Things I ſay; for the Lord give thee Underſtanding in all Things.

8. Remember that Jeſus Chriſt, one of the Offspring of David, was raiſed up from the Dead, according to my Goſpel:

9. In which I ſuffer harm even to Bonds, as a Malefactor; but the Word of God is not bound.

10. For this reaſon I endure all Things for the choſen ones, that they alſo may obtain the Salvation which is in Chriſt Jeſus, with everlaſting Glory.

11. The Saying is faithful; For if we are dead with him, we ſhall alſo live ſo;

12. If we endure, we ſhall alſo reign with him; if we deny, he will alſo deny us;

13. If we do not believe, he remains faithful, he cannot deny himſelf.

14. Bring theſe Things to remembrance, and teſtify before the Lord, not to conteſt about Words, for no Uſe, nay to the Overthrow of the Hearers.

15. Be careful to preſent thy ſelf approved to God, a Workman not aſhamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth.

16. But profane vain Talkings avoid; for they will proceed to more Impiety.

17. And their Word will be eating as a Gangrene; of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus:

18. Who have erred concerning the Truth, ſaying that the Reſurrection is come to paſs already; and ſubvert the Faith of ſome.

19. Nevertheleſs the Foundation of God ſtands firm, and has this Seal, The Lord knows thoſe that are his; and, Let every one who names the Name of Chriſt depart from Unrighteouſneſs.

20. Now in a great Houſe, there are not only gold and ſilver Utenſils, but alſo wooden and earthen; and ſome indeed for creditable, but ſome for vile Uſe.

21. If any one therefore cleanſe himſelf from thoſe Things, he will be an Utenſil for creditable Service, ſanctified, and very uſeful to the Maſter, ready for every good Work.

22. Flee alſo from youthful Deſires; but purſue after Righteouſneſs, Faith, Love, Peace, with them who call on the Lord from a pure Heart.

23. But fooliſh and unlearned Queſtions refuſe, as thou knoweſt that they beget Contentions.

24. And a Servant of the Lord ſhould not contend; but be gentle to all, ready to teach, bearing with Ill;

25. One who in Meekneſs inſtructs thoſe that do contrary; if perhaps God will give them Repentance, to the Acknowledgment of the Truth;

26. And that they may become ſober from the Snare of the Devil, who are caught alive by him at his Will.

Ver. 1. by] according as on Gal. i. 6. by Beza rendered per, and ſo by Caſt. with an Ablative, as likewiſe in the Arab. ſee alſo on Gal. i. 6.

Ib. through] being the ſame as tranſlated by, and thus turned with Eraſm. the Syr. Arab. and Tigur. Verſ.

Ver. 3. ſuffer harm] the ſame Ver. 9.

Ver. 4. who goes to war] The Vulg. and ſome Authors add for God, or as the Rhemiſts tranſlate it being a ſouldiar to God; which ſmells ſadly of the Prieſt, and they accordingly make their Advantage of it in a Note; but ſee Mills's Note, and Pr. 669.

Ib. choſen for a Soldier] Weſt. with more Liberty enliſted.

Ver. 7. for] Gr.

Ib. give] Some have it will give.

Ver. 8. Remember that Jeſus &c.] Doddridge tranſlates, and pleads for, Remember Jeſus &c. ignorant it ſeems that to be ſo, three Gr. Words ſhould be genitive, which are accuſative.

Ver. 10. everlaſting] The Vulg. &c. heavenly, which Mills inclined at laſt to think was right.

Ver. 16. proceed] ſo tranſlated Chap. iii. 9.

Ver. 19. Chriſt] A Parcel of the MSS. &c. have the Lord; I gueſs becauſe it was thought to be quoted from ſome Book of the Old Teſt. and ſuppoſed to be ſo there; but both Mills and Whitby ſay that is genuine.

Ver. 21. thoſe Things] ſpoken of in Ver. 16, 17, 18, 19. not theſe [Veſſels] Ver. 20. as theſe alone implies.

Ver. 24. bearing with Ill] as the Gr. diſtinctly ſignifies.

Ver. 26. become ſober] or be ſober again, from the Things mentioned before, with which they were as drunk; ſo the ſimple Verb is tranſlated 1 Theſ. v. 6, 8. 1 Pet. i. 13. & iv. 7. & v. 8.

Ib. at his Will]. As well Whitby and Hammond, as Beza, refer this to God, not the Devil; whereas if that had been Paul's Meaning, to my thinking he would have joined it with become ſober; and if we render it to the Will of him, what Difference will it make?

CHAP. III.

KNOW this further, that in the laſt Days there will be miſchievous Times.

2. For Men will be Lovers of themſelves, Lovers of Money, Braggers, proud, Blaſphemers, diſobedient to Parents, unthankful, unholy,

3. Without natural Affection, irreconcileable, Slanderers, in Exceſs, ſurly, not Lovers of the good ones,

4. Betrayers, raſh, puffed up, Lovers of Pleaſure more than Lovers of God,

5. And have the Form of Piety, but deny the Power of it: turn from theſe.

6. For ſome of theſe are they that creep into Houſes, and take captive ſilly Women, with Sins heaped on, led with various Deſires,

7. Who though always learning, can never get to the Knowledge of the Truth.

8. Now as Jannes and Jambres reſiſted Moſes, ſo do theſe alſo the Truth, being Men of corrupt Mind, reprobated as to the Faith.

9. But they will proceed no farther; for their Madneſs will be evident to all, as the others alſo was.

10. Whereas thou haſt traced out my Teaching, Behaviour, Purpoſe, Faith, Forbearance, Love, Patience;

11. The Perſecutions, the Sufferings, which came upon me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lyſtra; what Perſecutions I endured: and the Lord delivered me out of them all.

12. Nay and all thoſe who would live piouſly in Chriſt Jeſus, will be perſecuted.

13. Whereas wicked Men and Impoſtors, will proceed to be worſe, that miſlead, and are miſled.

14. But do thou remain in the Things which thou haſt learned, and been perſuaded of, knowing from whom thou haſt learned;

15. And that from a Child thou haſt known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wiſe to Salvation, by Faith in Chriſt Jeſus.

16. All the Scripture being divinely inſpired, and profitable for Teaching, for Convincement, for Amendment, for Diſcipline in Righteouſneſs;

17. That a Man of God may be perfect, accompliſhed to every good Work.

CHAP. IV.

I CHARGE therefore before God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who will judge the Living and Dead, at his Appearance and Kingdom;

2. Preach the Word, come ſeaſonably, unſeaſonably, convince, rebuke, exhort, in all Forbearance and Doctrine.

3. For there will be a Time when People will not bear with ſound Teaching; but according to their own Deſires will heap up Teachers to themſelves, itching to hear;

4. And indeed will turn away from hearing the Truth, and be turned aſide to Fables.

5. But do thou watch in all Things, ſuffer harm, do the Work of a Preacher, give aſſurance of thy Miniſtry.

6. For I am now about to be offered up, and the Time of my Releaſe is near by.

7. I have ſtriven with a good Strife, have accompliſhed the Courſe, kept the Faith.

8. Further, there is laid up for me a Crown of Righteouſneſs, which the Lord the righteous Judge will render to me on that Day; and not to me only, but likewiſe to all who love his Appearance.

9. Be careful to come to me quickly.

10. For Demas has forſaken me, as he loved the preſent World, and is gone to Theſſalonica; Creſces to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

Ver. 3. irreconcileable] rendered Rom. i. 31. implacable, being no where elſe.

Ib. ſurly] or moroſe.

Ver. 8. Jannes and Jambres] Of theſe may be ſeen Ainſworth on Exod. vii. 11.

Ver. 9. no farther] Ver. 13. being of thoſe there mentioned in general.

Ver. 10. traced out] or according to others followed, as it is alſo tranſlated Mark xvi. 17. but not fully known otherwiſe than conſequentially.

Ver. 13. and Impoſtors] that is who are Impoſtors, as I underſtand it.

Ib. that miſlead] in the preſent Tenſe.

Ver. 15. from a Child thou haſt known the holy Scriptures] In Pierce Plowman's Viſion, Paſſus 12. is,

> Wel may the barne hem bleſſe, that him to boke ſet > that liueing after letture, ſaueth him both lyf and ſoule

as it ſtands in my Edition of 1561.

Ib. Faith in Chriſt Jeſus] as Diſcipline in Righteouſneſs in the next Verſe; which is making it alſo too full, ſince Faith exiſts in the Believer.

Ver. 16. the Scripture] Scripture being Writing, the Article reſtricts it to its proper Bounds.

Ib. being] and ſo connective with the foregoing, as this is comprehended in Participles.

Ib. and] ſome leave out, and Mills thought inſerted after; by which, and ſupplying is, it will have a different Turn.

Ver. 2. convince] properly, and ſo tranſlated elſewhere; whereas reprove is like rebuke.

Ver. 4. will] ſo read, ſays Wall.

Ver. 8. all who] them who by leaving out a Gr. Word, as a few do, with Mills's Liking.

Ver. 10. Creſces] Gr. only ſome Copies have Criſces: ſo Pudes, Ver. 21. Creſcens and Pudens being from the vulg. Lat. and perhaps the n ſome how there, from the Gr. η which is for e.

11. Luke only is with me. Take Mark, and bring with thee; for he is very uſeful to me in the Miniſtry.

12. And Tychicus have I ſent to Epheſus.

13. The great Coat, which I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comeſt bring, and the Books, eſpecially the Parchments.

14. Alexander the Braſier ſhewed much Harm to me; the Lord render to him according to his Works.

15. Of whom do thou alſo take heed; for he has greatly withſtood our Words.

16. At my firſt Defence Nobody was with me, but all forſook me; may it not be reckoned to them.

17. However the Lord was preſent with me, and ſtrengthened me; that by me the Preaching might be aſſured, and all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the Mouth of the Lion.

18. Nay the Lord will deliver me from every evil Work, and ſave for his heavenly Kingdom; to whom be Glory for evermore: ſo let it be.

19. Salute Priſca and Aquila, with the Family of Oneſiphorus.

20. Eraſtus remained at Corinth, but Trophimus I left at Miletum ſick.

21. Be careful to come before Winter. Eubulus ſalutes thee, with Pudes, Linus, Claudia, and all the Brethren.

22. The Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with thy Spirit. Grace be with you: ſo let it be.

The ſecond to Timothy, choſen the firſt Overſeer of the Church of the Epheſians, was written from Rome, when Paul ſtood before Nero Ceſar the ſecond time.

Ver. 14. render] by ſome will render, which Whitby ſpeaks for, and Mills againſt, contrary to their Wont: I think the latter of them takes the more probable Side (tho' the other wrote after him) not only as of more Authority, but for the Reaſon he gives of its being changed becauſe imprecatory.

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to TITUS.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, a Servant of God, and an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, according to the Faith of God's choſen ones, and the Acknowledgment of the Truth that is according to Piety;

2. In the Hope of everlaſting Life, which God who is without Falſehood promiſed before the ancient Times;

3. And made manifeſt his Word at his own Times, in the Preaching which I was intruſted with, according to the Command of God our Saviour;

4. To Titus, a real Child according to the common Faith. Grace, Mercy, Peace, be from God the Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour.

5. For this Cauſe I left thee in Crete, that thou mighteſt rectify the Things which were wanting, and appoint Elders throughout the Cities, as I ordered thee:

6. If there is any blameleſs, the Huſband of one Wife, having faithful Children, in no Accuſation of Luxury, or unruly.

7. For an Overſeer muſt be blameleſs, as a Steward of God; not pleaſing himſelf, not apt to be angry, not given to Wine, not a Striker, not for filthy Gain;

8. But hoſpitable, loving Good, ſober, juſt, holy, temperate;

9. One who cleaves to what is according to the Doctrine of the faithful Word, that he may be able, both to exhort in ſound Teaching, and to confute ſuch as ſpeak againſt it.

10. For there are many and unruly vain Talkers, and Cheats, eſpecially thoſe of the Circumciſion:

11. Whoſe Mouths ſhould be ſtopped, who ſubvert whole Families, teaching Things that they ſhould not, for the ſake of filthy Gain.

12. One of them, a Prophet of their own, ſaid, The Cretians are always Liars, evil Beaſts, lazy Greedy-bellies.

13. This Teſtimony is true: for which Cauſe reprove them ſharply, that they may be ſound in the Faith;

14. And not give heed to Jewiſh Fables, with Commandments of Men who turn from the Truth.

15. All Things indeed are clean to the Clean; whereas to the Defiled and Unbelievers Nothing is clean, but both their Mind and Conſcience is defiled.

16. They profeſs to know God, but in Works deny, being abominable, diſobedient, and to every good Work reprobate.

CHAP. II.

BUT do thou ſpeak the Things that become ſound Teaching:

2. The aged Men to be ſerious, venerable, ſober, ſound in Faith, Love, Patience;

3. The aged Women after the ſame Manner in Behaviour as becomes Holineſs, not

Tit. Epiſtle] written, as Mills gueſſes, in the 64th Year of the com. Æra.

Ver. 2. before the ancient Times] no more than which the Phraſe of it ſelf ſignifies, ſays Ham. who ſuppoſes this promiſed obſcurely to Abraham. Note and Paraph. by Wall, long ages ago; and Whitby writes, it cannot properly be rendered before the world began.

Ver. 4. Mercy, Peace] Some have and Peace, without Mercy, which Eraſmus and Mills thought added, but Whitby vindicates.

Ver. 7. pleaſing himſelf] the more primary and proper Signification of the Gr. Word than ſelf-willed, and ſuiting very well, as oppoſite, to being a Steward of God, nor ranked amiſs ſo with the foregoing in 2 Pet. ii. 10. in which Place and in this it only occurs. Beza takes in both as it were, but chiefly this, by ſibi pertinaciter placentem, abſtinately pleaſing himſelf.

Ver. 8. loving Good] being ſingular.

Ver. 9. according to the Doctrine] thus, and thus poſited is the Original.

Ver. 10. and unruly] Thus the Gr. ſtands, vain Talkers being one Word, a Noun-ſubſtantive.

Ver. 12. ſaid] Epimenides, according to Broome's Note on Pope's Odyſſey, B. 14. 411.

Ib. lazy Greedy-bellies] Weſt. lazy gluttons. The Adjective is twice in 1 Tim. v. 13.

Ver. 2. ſober] according as the com. Tranſ. Ver. 4, 6, 12. & Ch. i. 8. where temperate is quite another Gr. Word.

Ver. 3. as becomes Holineſs] This is an Adjective in Gr. to aged Women, but a few by taking away a Letter make it ſo to Behaviour, with whom Mills joins, a ready Helper of the Weak; whereas I, who chooſe in theſe Caſes to be of the ſtronger Party, when they have an equal, or as commonly a better Claim, take it to belong rather to the Perſons, than to their Appearance.

Slanderers, not ſubject to much Wine, teaching well ;

4. That they may make the young Women ſober, to be Lovers of the Huſbands, Lovers of the Children,

5. Sober, chaſte, Keepers of the Houſe, good, ſubject to their Huſbands, that the Word of God may not be ſpoken evil of.

6. Young Men in like Manner exhort to be ſober :

7. About all Things ſhewing thy ſelf a Figure of good Works, in Teaching Integrity, Veneration, Incorruptneſs,

8. Sound Speech not to be condemned ; that he who is of the contrary Party may be ſhamed, and have Nothing bad to ſay concerning you :

9. Servants to be ſubject to their Maſters, to be well-pleaſing in all Things, not contradicting,

10. To take Nothing away, but ſhew all good Faithfulneſs ; that they may adorn the Doctrine of God our Saviour in all Things.

11. For the Grace of God that brings Salvation, has appeared to all Men ;

12. And teaches us, that by denying Impiety and worldly Deſires, we ſhould live ſoberly, righteouſly and piouſly, in the preſent World ;

13. As alſo ſhould look for the bleſſed Hope, and the glorious Appearance of the great God, and our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt :

14. Who gave himſelf for us, that he might redeem us from all Iniquity, and purify for himſelf a peculiar People, zealous in good Works.

15. Theſe Things ſpeak and exhort to, moreover reprove with all Authority : let Nobody deſpiſe thee.

CHAP. III.

PUT them in remembrance to be ſubject to Principalities and Authorities, and obedient, to be ready for every good Work,

2. To ſpeak evil of none, not be quarrelſome, but gentle, and ſhew all Meekneſs to all Men.

3. For we were alſo once fooliſh, diſobedient, ſeduced, and ſerved various Deſires and Pleaſures, nay lived in Miſchief and Envy, were ſpiteful, hating one another.

4. But when the Kindneſs and Affection of God our Saviour appeared ;

5. Not by the Works in Righteouſneſs which we had done, but according to his Mercy, he ſaved us, through the Bath of being born again, and the Renewing of the Holy Spirit :

6. Which he poured out on us richly, through Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour ;

7. That being juſtified by his Grace, we might become Heirs according to the Hope of everlaſting Life.

8. The Saying is faithful, and concerning theſe Things I would have thee affirm, that thoſe who believe in God ſhould take care to excel in good Works : theſe Things are good, and profitable, to Men.

9. But fooliſh Queſtions, Pedigrees, Contentions, and Debates about the Law avoid : for they are unprofitable, and vain.

10. A Man who is a Heretick, after the firſt and ſecond Admonition, reject :

11. As thou knoweſt that ſuch a one is turned away, and ſins, being condemned in himſelf.

12. When I ſend Artemas to thee, or Tychicus, be careful to come to me at Nicopolis : for there have I determined to winter.

13. Zenas the Expounder of the Law, and Apollos conduct carefully, that Nothing may be wanting to them.

14. And let ours alſo learn to excel in good Works, for neceſſary Uſes, that they may not be unfruitful.

15. All who are with me ſalute thee. Salute them that love us in the Faith. Grace be with you all : ſo let it be.

It was written to Titus, the firſt Overſeer of the Church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

Ver. 5. Sober] the ſame Word as in Ver. 2. & Ch. i. 8. rendered in three ſuch different Meanings, ſo near together, by our Tranſlators.

Ver. 7. Incorruptneſs] Mills ſuppoſes was firſt marginal, to explain Integrity, Not. and Pr. 1208. ſome not having it.

Ver. 8. Party] from μερίδος, I ſuppoſe, underſtood.

Ver. 9. contradicting] as the Gr. ſignifies, and not anſwering again.

Ver. 5. Bath] Weſt. laver ; but the Gr. Word being only once more in Scripture, he does not render it ſo in Eph. v. 26.

Ver. 10. and ſecond] ſome have left out, which may be ſuppoſed through their Sharpneſs againſt ſuch.

Sub. Nicopolis] Not ſo, as is apparent, by [there] in Ver. 12. of this laſt Chap. but Mills ſays Coloſſea, becauſe Tychicus now with Paul, Ib. had been ſent thither, Subſcr. to Col.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to PHILEMON.

PAUL a Priſoner of Chriſt Jeſus, and Timothy a Brother; to the beloved Philemon, and our Fellow-worker,

2. As alſo to the beloved Apphia, and Archippus our Fellow-ſoldier, with the Church at thy Houſe.

3. Grace be to you, and Peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

4. I give thanks to my God, making mention of thee always in my Prayers.

5. As I hear of thy Love and Faith, which thou haſt to the Lord Jeſus, and towards all the Saints:

6. That the Fellowſhip of thy Faith may be effectual, by the Knowledge of every good Thing, which is among you towards Chriſt Jeſus.

7. For we have much Joy and Comfort in thy Love, becauſe the Bowels of the Saints have been refreſhed by thee, Brother.

8. Therefore though I have much Freedom in Chriſt, to command thee what is convenient:

9. I rather beſeech for Love, being ſuch a one as aged Paul, and now alſo a Priſoner of Jeſus Chriſt:

10. I beſeech thee for my Child, whom I have begot in my Bonds, Oneſimus;

11. Once uſeleſs to thee, but now very uſeful to thee and me:

12. Whom I have ſent back; and do thou receive him, to wit my own Bowels.

13. Whom I was willing to keep to my ſelf, that he might have miniſtred to me inſtead of thee, in the Bonds of the Goſpel.

14. However I would do Nothing without thy Opinion, that thy Good might not be as according to Neceſſity, but according to Willingneſs.

15. For perhaps for this reaſon he departed for a little while, that thou mighteſt receive him for ever;

16. No more as a Servant, but above a Servant, a beloved Brother, eſpecially to me, and how much more to thee, both in the Fleſh, and in the Lord?

17. If therefore thou haſt me for a Partner, receive him as my ſelf.

18. If he has done thee any Injury, or is in debt, reckon that to me:

19. I Paul have written with my own Hand, I will pay; not to tell thee, that thou art in debt even for thy ſelf to me.

20. Yes, Brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refreſh my Bowels in the Lord.

21. Being confident of thy Obedience, I have written to thee; as I know that thou wilt do, even above what I ſay.

22. But withal get ready a Lodging too for me; ſince I hope that by your Prayers I ſhall be given to you.

23. Thee ſalute Epaphras, my Fellow-priſoner in Chriſt Jeſus,

24. Mark, Ariſtarchus, Demas, Luke, my Fellow-workers.

25. The Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with your Spirit: ſo let it be.

It was written to Philemon from Rome, ſent by Oneſimus a Servant.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of PAUL to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

GOD having ſpoken many times and many ways of old, to the Forefathers by the Prophets;

2. In theſe laſt Days has ſpoken to us by the Son, whom he put the Heir of all Things, by whom alſo he made the Worlds.

3. Who being the Brightneſs of the Glory, the Mark of his Subſtance, and ſupporting all Things with his powerful Word; when he had made a Cleanſing of our Sins by himſelf, ſate down at the right Hand of the Majeſty on high:

4. And became ſo much better than the Angels, as he inherited a more excellent Name than they.

5. For to which of the Angels ſaid he at any Time, Thou art my Son, to Day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, as he ſhall to me a Son?

6. Nay again when he brings his Firſtborn into the World, he ſays, And let all the Angels of God worſhip him.

7. Whereas he ſays relating to the Angels, Who makes his Angels Spirits, and his Miniſters a flaming Fire.

8. But of the Son; Thy Throne, O God, is for ever and ever, the Scepter of thy Kingdom is a right one.

9. Thou haſt loved Righteouſneſs, and hated Wickedneſs: therefore God, thy God has anointed thee, with the Oil of Joy above thy Companions.

10. And, Thou at the Beginning, O Lord, didſt found the Earth, and the Heaven was the Work of thy Hands.

11. They will periſh, but thou wilt remain; and will all decay like a Garment:

12. And as Cloaths wilt thou fold them up, and they will be changed. Whereas thou art the ſame, and thy Years will not fail.

13. But to which of the Angels did he ſay at any time, Sit at my right Hand, till I make thy Enemies thy Footſtool?

14. Are not they all miniſtring Spirits, ſent to miniſter for thoſe who will be Heirs of Salvation?

CHAP. II.

FOR this Reaſon we ought the more abundantly to give heed to the Things we have heard, leſt at any time we ſhould let them flow away.

2. For if the Word ſpoken by Angels was firm, and every Tranſgreſſion and Diſobedience received a juſt Recompence;

3. How ſhall we eſcape, ſhould we neglect ſo great Salvation? Which when it had received a Beginning to be ſpoken by the Lord, was confirmed to us from the Hearers:

4. As God gave Evidence together, both with Signs and Wonders, nay with various powerful Things, and Diſtributions of the Holy Spirit, according to his Will.

5. For he has not put the World hereafter, concerning which we ſpeak, in ſubjection to Angels.

6. But one teſtifies in a certain Place as follows; What is Man, that thou ſhouldeſt remember him? Or the Son of Man, that thou ſhouldeſt viſit him?

Tit. of Paul] Though it has been doubted whether Paul was the Author of this Epiſtle, inſomuch that theſe Words were left out of the Gen. Tranſ. yet Whitby in Pref. ſhews it to be his diſtinctly, and Mills writes, Auctorem habet hæc Epiſtola, ſi qua uſquam alia, D. Paulum: This Epiſtle, if ever any, has St. Paul for its Author; and he fixes the Date of it about An. Chriſti 63, in which Pearſon places it, the Year after this Apoſtle was ſet at liberty, and after the Concluſion of the Acts of the Apoſtles, while he was yet in Italy, as at the End.

Ib. to the Hebrews] Jewiſh Chriſtians that were in Judea; ſee Whit. Pref.

Ver. 2. theſe laſt] with divers the laſt of theſe, put in a Liſt by Mills as genuine, Pr. 684. but Whitby does not doubt ours is genuine, being uſed by the 70 Interpreters.

Ver. 3. Subſtance] ſo tranſlated Ch. xi. 1. as likewiſe by Tyndal and in the Biſhops Bib. here, by Eraſm. alſo and Caſt. ſee Wall Not. and to Ch. xi. 1. Ham. and Whit have it Subſiſtence.

Ib. our] by ſome left out, but not therefore added in by the many more, as Mills raſhly pronounces, Pr. 496.

Ib. by himſelf] inſerted, ſays Mills, for the ſake of Interpretation, not all having it.

Ver. 6. Angels] The Septuag. ſo tranſlating Pſa. xcvii. 7. and after that the Vulgate, the former alſo have theſe very Words in Deut. xxxii. 43.

Ver. 12. fold up] A few have it change, as appears to be like the Heb. yet Grot. conjectures that the Sept. had it change Pſa. ciii. 26. where now they have not; from whom this is cited, which we are therefore to follow; and they might thus tranſlate to avoid a Tautology by the following changed, eſpecially as חלף is of different Signification, unleſs they could miſtake this for חבק

Ver. 3. Salvation?] Here being the Gr. Note of Interrogation.

7. Thou haſt made him but a little leſs than the Angels, crowned him with Glory and Honour, and appointed him over the Works of thy Hands,

8. Putting all in ſubjection underneath his Feet: for in putting all in ſubjection to him, he left Nothing that was not to be ſubjected; notwithſtanding we now do not yet ſee all put in ſuch ſubjection.

9. But we behold Jeſus crowned with Glory and Honour, who was made a little leſs than the Angels, for the Suffering of Death; that by the Grace of God he might taſte Death for every one.

10. For it became him, for whom are all, and by whom all Things, in bringing many Sons to Glory, to make the Prince of their Salvation perfect by Sufferings.

11. Since both the Sanctifier, and the Sanctified, are all of One: for which Cauſe he is not aſhamed to call them Brethren,

12. Saying, I will declare thy Name to my Brethren, among the Church will I ſing praiſe to thee;

13. And again, I will truſt in him; nay again, Behold I and the Children that God has given me.

14. Foraſmuch as the Children therefore were partakers of Fleſh and Blood, he himſelf alſo in like Manner partook of the ſame; that by Death he might aboliſh him who had the Power of Death, that is the Devil;

15. And might deliver thoſe who by the Fear of Death, were through all their Life obnoxious to Servitude:

16. For verily he did not take that of Angels, but did of Abraham's Offspring.

17. Whence he ought in all Things to be like the Brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high Prieſt in Things belonging to God, to make atonement for the Sins of the People.

18. For by that which he himſelf ſuffered, when he was tried, he is capable to help thoſe who are tried.

CHAP. III.

WHENCE, holy Brethren, Partakers of the heavenly Calling, conſider the Apoſtle and high Prieſt of our Profeſſion, Chriſt Jeſus;

2. Who was faithful to him that appointed him, even as Moſes was in his whole Houſe.

3. For he was counted worthy of more Glory than Moſes; as much as he has more Honour than the Houſe, who makes it ready.

4. For every Houſe is made ready by Somebody; but he who made all Things ready is God.

5. And Moſes indeed was faithful in his whole Houſe, as a Servant, for a Teſtimony of the Things to be ſpoken;

6. But Chriſt as a Son over his Houſe: whoſe Houſe we are, if we hold the Confidence, and Glorying of the Hope, firm to the End.

7. Therefore according as the Holy Spirit ſays; To Day if you will hearken to what he ſays;

8. Do not harden your Hearts, as in the Provocation, according to the Day of Temptation in the Wilderneſs:

9. When your Fathers tempted me, proved me, and ſaw my Works forty Years.

10. Therefore I was diſpleaſed with that Generation, and ſaid, They always err with the Heart, and they have not known my Ways:

11. As I ſware in my Anger, They ſhall not come into my Reſt.

12. Look, Brethren, leſt at any time there

Ver. 7. and appointed him over the Works of thy Hands] wanting in 13 Copies by Mills; and Whitby ſays, Add in Oecum. & Theophyl. but neither of theſe Criticks depoſe it.

Ver. 9. Jeſus crowned &c.] This undeniably belongs one to the other, and by putting them together, as Beza does, is ſeen clearly which for the Suffering of Death unites with; beſides as the concluding Part depends on that laſt mentioned, and not on crowned with Glory and Honour, the Tranſpoſition is of more Advantage for Perſpicuity in our Languages.

Ver. 14. were partakers] Wall.

Ver. 16. that] Fleſh and Blood together, Ver. 14.

Ver. 18. by that which] in that, as Johnſ. expounds it, meaning becauſe.

Ib. capable] rather than able; he underſtanding how to help, by his own Experience in Sufferings and Trials.

Ver. 3. makes it ready] By keeping cloſe to the Gr. thus, is ſhut out the Interpretation of thoſe who would have it order or govern; while our Tranſlators going wide one Way, they took the ſame Liberty to do ſo another. And this uſeful Hint may be applied to numerous other Inſtances.

Ver. 6. his Houſe] Being as in the Ver. before, and ſo may ſeem to be God's like that; though Beza quarrels with Caſtalio for ſo rendering it (which he would for a ſmall Matter) and would have the Word ἀυτῦ be ἀυτὸ, nay ſays amended Copies read ſo; but underſtand that he himſelf amended them, ſince neither Mills nor Kuſter found any ſuch; ſee alſo Caſtalio's Defence, p. 146. and the Tranſ. of Eraſmus.

Ib. firm to the End] Notwithſtanding all have theſe Words, beſides the Eth. Verſ. and Lucifer Calaritanus, Mills in the Fulneſs of Imagination tells us, that Somebody put them in the Marg. oppoſite to Confidence for the ſake of Explanation; which as belonging to the Text, a Scribe at length put wrong. But what could not the Exuberancy of his Conceit furniſh him with?

Ver. 9. The firſt me a few want.

ſhould

ſhould be in any of you a wicked Heart of Unbelief, in departing from the Living God.

13. But exhort each other every Day, while that to Day is ſaid; that none of you may be hardened by the Deceit of Sin.

14. For we are become Partakers of Chriſt, if we hold the Beginning of the Confidence firm till the End;

15. While it is ſaid, To Day if you will hearken to what he ſays; do not harden your Hearts, as in the Provocation.

16. For ſome when they had heard, did provoke, but not all that came out of Egypt by Moſes.

17. Now with whom was he diſpleaſed forty Years? Was it not with them that ſinned, whoſe Corpſes fell in the Wilderneſs?

18. And to whom did he ſwear they ſhould not come into his Reſt, but to them that believed not?

19. Thus we ſee that they could not enter in, by reaſon of Unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

LET us therefore fear, leſt at any time, though a Promiſe be left of entering into his Reſt, any of you ſhould be deficient.

2. For even we are thoſe who have been preached to, as well as they; but the Word heard did not profit them, ſince it was not mixed with Faith in the Hearers.

3. And we who have believed enter into Reſt, according as he ſaid, As I ſware in my Anger, that they ſhould not come into my Reſt; though the Works were done from the founding of the World.

4. For he ſpoke in a certain Place concerning the ſeventh Day thus, And God reſted on the ſeventh Day from all his Works;

5. And in this again, They ſhall not come into my Reſt.

6. Since therefore an entering into it is left for ſome, and they who were firſt preached to, did not enter in by reaſon of Unbelief;

7. He again determines a certain Day, ſaying in David, To Day after ſo long Time: according as it is ſaid, To Day if you will hearken to what he ſays, do not harden your Hearts.

8. For if Jeſus had made them reſt, he would not after theſe Things have ſpoken concerning another Day.

9. There is left therefore a keeping of Sabbath to the People of God.

10. For he that is entered into his Reſt, has himſelf alſo reſted from his Works, as God from his own.

11. Let us therefore be careful to enter into that Reſt, that none may fall by the ſame Inſtance of Unbelief.

12. For the Word of God is living and effectual, as alſo ſharper than any two-edged Sword, and not only reaches to the Dividing even of the Soul and Spirit, even of the Joints and Marrow, but is a Judger too of the Thoughts and Intents of the Heart.

13. And there is not a Creature unſeen before him; but all Things are bare, and diſcloſed to nis Eyes, with whom the Word is to us.

14. As we have therefore a great high Prieſt who is gone into Heaven, Jeſus the Son of God, let us hold faſt the Profeſſion.

15. For we have not a high Prieſt who cannot be affected with our Weakneſſes, but was tried in all Things in like Manner, being without Sin.

16. Let us therefore come with Boldneſs to the Throne of Grace, that we may receive Mercy, and find Grace for ſeaſonable Help.

Ver. 13. that to Day] in Ver. 7. with τὸ here for that, which makes the Senſe clear, that it was while they were thus divinely called to.

Ib. hardened] parallel to that of Ver. 8. in Conſequence of the foregoing.

Ver. 14. firm till the End] lacking only in the Eth. Verſ. yet declared by Mills to creep from Ver. 6. though not there at firſt, Pr. 1217.

Ver. 1. you] Doddr. has us, which he ſays ſome Copies read; that is, as I find, one or two Gr. ones, and of what Regard that? But he adds, the Authority is evidently confirmed by the Connection, and refers to Mills; whereas Mills ſays it was by reaſon of what follows, in which is us. Of what Encouragement might ſuch be when no more evident than this, to unknown Damage elſewhere!

Ver. 2. Word heard] not preached.

Ib. it was] with divers they were, but refuſed by both Mills and Whitby, as deſervedly for the Obſcurity and poor Senſe it makes.

Ver. 3. that they ſhould] It is the ſame as in Ch. iii. 11. as is the following in Ver. 5. and quoted from Pſa. xcv. 11. where our com. Tranſ. has theſe very Words.

Ib. the Works were done] viz. thoſe of entering into Reſt, as Ver. 4, 6, 9, 10. and juſt before in this Ver. &c.

Ib. from the founding of the World] as in Ver. 4. and ſo on after that. Beza writes, This Place is, perobſcurus, very obſcure. And have not he and others, who do not expound it according to the Words, left it too much ſo? While the principal Difficulties, let me call it, of literal Interpretation may thus be ſurmounted.

Ve. 5. They ſhall &c.] the ſame as in Ch. iii. 11.

Ver. 12. For the Word of God is living] There is one Scrap left like this of the Book called The Acts of Paul, written as ſuppoſed the Year after his Death, and to be near twice as big as The Acts of the Apoſtles; and this preſerved in Origen's Περὶ Ἀρχῶν B. i. Ch. 2. tranſlated into Latin by Rufinus; of which ſee more particularly in Mill's Prolegom.

Ib. reaches] not piercing.

Ver. 13. with whom the Word is to us] ſo the Gr. literally, and according as the Apoſtle John begins his Hiſtory of Chriſt, Ver. 1. the Word alſo being the ſame here as in the Ver. before.

CHAP.

CHAP. V.

FOR every high Prieſt taken from Men, is appointed for Men in Things belonging to God, that he may offer both Gifts and Sacrifices for Sins:

2. Who can in meaſure be affected with the Ignorant, and Seduced; ſince he himſelf alſo is compaſſed about with Weakneſs:

3. And for this reaſon he ought, as for the People, ſo alſo for himſelf, to offer for Sins.

4. And none takes this Honour to himſelf, but he that is called by the Lord, even as Aaron:

5. Thus alſo Chriſt did not glorify himſelf, to become a high Prieſt; but he did who ſaid to him, Thou art my Son, to Day have I begotten thee.

6. According as he ſpeaks alſo in another Place, Thou ſhalt be a Prieſt for ever after the Order of Melchiſedec.

7. Who in the Days of his Fleſh, when he offered both Supplications and Intreaties, with ſtrong Cries and Tears, to him who was able to ſave him from Death, ſo that he was hearkened to for his Reverence;

8. Yet though he was a Son, he learned Obedience by the Things which he ſuffered.

9. And as he was perfect, he became the Author of everlaſting Salvation to all that obey him;

10. Moreover was called to be a high Prieſt by God, after the Order of Melchiſedec.

11. Concerning whom we have much Diſcourſe, and difficult to ſpeak, foraſmuch as you are become ſlow of hearing.

12. For when you ought to be Teachers for the Time, you have Need to be taught again what are the firſt Rudiments of the Oracles of God; and are become thoſe who have Need of Milk, and not of ſolid Meat.

13. For every one that partakes of Milk, is unſkilful in the Word of Righteouſneſs; ſince he is a Babe.

14. Whereas ſolid Meat is for the Perfect, who by Habit have the Senſes exerciſed to the Judging both of Good and Evil.

CHAP. VI.

THEREFORE leaving the Rudiments of the Word of Chriſt, let us bring to Perfection, and not lay again the Foundation of Repentance from dead Works, and of Faith to God,

2. Of the Doctrine of Baptiſms, and of putting on of Hands, as likewiſe of the Reſurrection of the Dead, and of everlaſting Judgment.

3. And this we will do, if God permits.

4. For it is impoſſible, that thoſe once enlightened, and who taſted of the heavenly Gift, nay became Partakers of the Holy Spirit,

5. As alſo taſted the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World hereafter;

6. And then are fallen away, ſhould be renewed again to Repentance, ſince they crucify afreſh the Son of God to themſelves, and expoſe to ſhame.

7. For the Earth that drinks in the Rain which comes often upon it, and bears Herbs fit for them by whom alſo it is manured, receives Bleſſing from God.

8. Whereas that which brings out Briers

Ver. 7. for his Reverence] Caſt. pro ſua religione, for his Piety; concerning which ſee his Def. pag. 212, 213. And this not only ſeems to be that mentioned before, viz. his Praying, or reverential Worſhip of God, but for that Reaſon, if it had been otherwiſe, may appear unlikely to be expreſſed in the Original by a Word which alſo ſignifies ſo, when there are other Words for Fear, as φοβος, δεος, &c. that have not ſuch a double Meaning. Nay Beza, and others who would have it Fear, may ſeem to have thought this other was preferable with for, which Senſe is not to be denied to the Prepoſition, by their turning it in the following Manner, was heard from his Fear, meaning in being delivered from it; but how unintelligible and forced is that? Which Caſt. modeſtly and mildly refuſes to admit, unleſs ſome other ſuch Example ſhould be produced. But that is not attempted by Beza in one of the longeſt Notes which he has on all the Books of the New Teſt. fol. in Anſwer to it, and is far from convincing me it ſhould be rendered Fear, while he owns the Gr. Word ſignifies Reverence, but brings Inſtances wherein it alſo ſignifies Fear. Our Tranſlators however appear to have made in that he feared, from taking it to be from Fear; which is not defenſible, either one Way or the other: unleſs it was made from and for the former Eng. in that which he feared, which thus is worſe, and ſo the Meaning doubtful, beſides the Gr. not ſignifying in or that which. And to prove that Chriſt had Fear, which Beza labours with ſo much Tautology to do, is ſhort of the Matter, ſince he had certainly Reverence to his Father; and was not this the more worthy of Regard, as the other is human Weakneſs? The vulg. Lat. and Montan. have exactly thus, pro ſua reverentia, with the Arab. and ſo Eraſm. without ſua, his, Tynd. becauſe of his godlynes, which by the Ethiop. is righteouſneſs. It is omitted in the Syr. both that of the Pol. Bib. and Trem. though not remarked by Mills, and notwithſtanding Fulke ſays, 'The Syrian Tranſlation is from feare.'

Ver. 1. lay] The Clar. Copy, as Mills relates only in Prol. 590. has contrarily throw down, and no Wonder ſince the Gr. Word has that Meaning.

Ver. 3. will do] In ſeveral Copies ſhould have done.

Ver. 6. are fallen away] a Participle of the 2 Aor. a paſt Tenſe, rendered thus by Wall; who blames our Eng. for altering it, with and into if.

Ib. crucify &c.] as in Ch. x. 29.

Ver. 7. alſo] Is not this in the Original now, although not in our Eng. Tranſ. if ſo, why not at firſt there, tho' wanting in ſome other Verſions? And if one Gr. Copy is without it, that might be from them. Probably it ſeemed to ſome others as to our Tranſlators a little redundant, and ſo was dropped; for who would add it for Emphaſis? ſee Mills, Prol. 496.

and Brambles, is rejected, and near to Curſing; whoſe End is for Burning.

9. But we are perſuaded of better Things concerning you, Beloved, and thoſe that have Salvation, if we do even thus ſpeak.

10. For God is not unrighteous, to forget your Work, and Labour of Love, which you have ſhewn to his Name; as you have miniſtred to the Saints, and do miniſter.

11. And we deſire each of you would ſhew the ſame Carefulneſs, for the fulfilling of Hope, till the End:

12. That you would not become ſlow, but Imitators of thoſe who by Faith and Forbearance inherit the Promiſes.

13. For when God made Promiſe to Abraham, ſince he could ſwear by no greater, he ſware by himſelf as follows;

14. I will indeed throughly bleſs thee, and multiply thee abundantly.

15. Who when he had born long, thus obtained the Promiſe.

16. For Men indeed ſwear by a greater, and to them an Oath is the confirmed End of all Contradiction.

17. In which as God was willing more abundantly to ſhew, to the Heirs of the Promiſe, the Immoveableneſs of his Counſel, he interpoſed with an Oath:

18. That by two immoveable Things, wherein it was impoſſible for God to tell an Untruth, we might have ſtrong Comfort, who flee to take hold of the Hope laid before.

19. Which we have as an Anchor of the Soul, both certain and firm, and which enters into that within the Veil;

20. Whither the Forerunner for us is entered, Jeſus become a high Prieſt for ever, after the Order of Melchiſedec.

CHAP. VII.

FOR this Melchiſedec, King of Salem, Prieſt of the Supreme God, who met Abraham as he returned from the Slaughter of the Kings, and bleſſed him;

2. To whom alſo Abraham diſtributed the Tenth of all; firſt indeed by Interpretation King of Righteouſneſs, and next alſo King of Salem, which is King of Peace;

3. Without a Father, without a Mother, without Pedigree, who had neither Beginning of Days, nor End of Life; but being like the Son of God, remains a Prieſt continually.

4. Now ſee how great he was, to whom even the Patriarch Abraham gave the Tenth of the main Stores!

5. And thoſe indeed of the Sons of Levi, who receive the Prieſthood, have a Commandment to take Tithes of the People according to the Law, that is of their Brethren, though they proceed forth from Abraham himſelf.

6. But he who was not in the Pedigree from them, received Tithe of Abraham, and bleſſed him that had the Promiſes.

7. Now without all Contradiction, the inferior one is bleſſed by the better.

8. And here indeed Men who die receive the Tithe, but there he who is teſtified of that he lives.

9. And as it may be ſaid, even Levi who received the Tithe, gave Tithe by Abraham.

10. For he was yet within his Father, when Melchiſedec met him.

11. If therefore indeed Perfection was by the Levitical Prieſthood (for under it the People had the Law) what Need for another Prieſt yet to riſe up after the Order of Melchiſedec, and not ſaid to be after the Order of Aaron?

12. For as the Prieſthood is removed, there becomes of Neceſſity alſo a Removal of the Law.

13. For he of whom thoſe Things are ſpoken, was Partaker of another Tribe, from which none applied to the Altar.

14. For it is evident that our Lord aroſe out of Juda, of which Tribe Moſes ſpoke nothing about the Prieſthood.

15. And it is yet more abundantly evident, that after the Likeneſs of Melchiſedec there riſes up another Prieſt;

16. Who is not made after the Law of a carnal Commandment, but after the Power of an endleſs Life.

17. For he teſtifies, Thou ſhalt be a Prieſt for ever after the Order of Melchiſedec.

18. For there becomes indeed an Aboliſhing of the foregoing Commandment, by reaſon of its Weakneſs and Unprofitableneſs.

Ver. 10. Labour of] ſome want, ſo that Mills aſſerts it crept from 1 Theſ. i. 3. Pr. 886. as if the Apoſtle could not ſay the ſame twice, quoth Whitby.

Ver. 16. the confirmed End] Gr. the End to Confirmation, the Poſition of the Words not admitting of the common Rendition.

Ver. 11. and not ſaid to be after the Order of Aaron] Mills counts was at firſt a marginal Comment, merely becauſe not in the Eth. Tranſ.

Ver. 15. that] which the Gr. Particle may ſignify, and Whitby ſays often does; but who can prove it ever of ſo that, or even ſhew any good Senſe of it here?

Ver. 18. For] I have but little Notion of this being put in afterwards, notwithſtanding what Mills ſays in his Notes, and Pro. 496.

19. For the Law made Nothing perfect; but it was the bringing in of a better Hope, by which we draw near to God.

20. And as much as it was not without Swearing,

21. (For they indeed were made Prieſts without Swearing; but he with it, by the ſame who ſaid to him; the Lord has ſworn, and will not repent, Thou ſhalt be a Prieſt for ever after the Order of Melchiſedec)

22. So much was Jeſus made the Surety of a better Covenant.

23. And they indeed were made many Prieſts, for being hindered to remain by Death.

24. Whereas he, by his remaining for ever, has a continuing Prieſthood.

25. Whence alſo he is able to ſave to the utmoſt, thoſe who come to God by him, as he always lives to interceed for them.

26. For ſuch a high Prieſt was becoming us, holy, harmleſs, undefiled, ſeparated from Sinners, and made higher than the Heavens;

27. Who has not Neceſſity daily, as the high Prieſts, to offer up Sacrifices firſt for his own Sins, and next for the People's: for this he did once, in offering up himſelf.

28. For the Law appoints Men high Prieſts, that have Weakneſs; but the Word of Swearing, which is after the Law, the Son, who is accompliſhed for ever.

CHAP VIII.

NOW the Sum of the Things ſaid is; We have ſuch a high Prieſt, as ſate at the right Hand of the Throne of Majeſty in Heaven;

2. Being a Miniſter of the Sanctuary, and of the true Tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not Man.

3. For every high Prieſt is appointed to offer Gifts and Sacrifices: whence there is Neceſſity this ſhould alſo have Something which he may offer.

4. Nay if he were indeed on Earth, he would not elſe be a Prieſt; as they are Prieſts that offer Gifts according to the Law:

5. Who worſhip by the Pattern and Shadow of heavenly Things, as Moſes was divinely admoniſhed, when he was about to make the Tabernacle: for, See, ſays he, thou makeſt all Things according to the Figure ſhewn thee on the Mountain.

6. Whereas he has obtained a more excellent Service, as much as he is alſo the Mediator of a better Covenant, which was made the Law on better Promiſes.

7. For if the firſt had been faultleſs, there would not have been a Place ſought for the ſecond.

8. And finding fault with them, he ſays: Lo the Days are coming, ſays the Lord, when I will make a new Covenant with the Family of Iſrael and that of Judah;

9. Not according to the Covenant which I made with their Forefathers, at the Time that I took hold of their Hand to bring them out of the Country of Egypt; ſince they did not remain in my Covenant, and ſo I neglected them. ſays the Lord:

10. Becauſe this ſhall be the Covenant which I will make with the Family of Iſrael after thoſe Days, ſays the Lord; I will put my Laws into their Mind, and write them in their Hearts, and will be a God to them, as they ſhall a People to me.

11. And they ſhall not at all teach each one his Neighbour, or each his Brother, that he ſhould know the Lord: becauſe they ſhall all know me, from the leaſt to the greateſt of them.

12. Since I will be merciful to their Unrighteouſneſs, and remember their Sins and their Iniquities no more at all.

Ib. and] If five are more to be credited than above five times ſo many, we may allow Mills's Aſſertion, that this latter is of the Scribes, Pr. 496.

Ver. 4. as they are] Ham. thoſe being, which makes the Senſe plain; and ſo Wall comments, He would not be a Prieſt on Earth without Something to offer.

Ib. Prieſts] the Vulg. and three Copies are without, whereupon Mills ſays that Somebody wrote it at the Side of the Book for Explanation, from whence at length it crept into the Context, Pr. 1354.

Ver. 5. See] with which the Quotation begins,

Ver. 11. not teach] As Ham. on John vi. 45. gave away what he contended for, in this Paſſage, which is the next he animadverts upon in his Poſt. of New Light, he contends for what muſt not be given to him, viz. that theſe Words are not to be literally underſtood, but indeed belong to a matter very diſtant. They are, quoth he, a deſcription of Chriſt's eaſie and gracious yoke, Mat. xi. 30. that is to ſay, by teach is not to be underſtood teaching; whereas the Meaning extends no farther, than that there ſhould not be a Neceſſity of it.

Ver. 12. and their Iniquities] two or three Copies, and the Vulg. with two more Verſions omit; Mills ſuppoſes as at Ch. vii. 21. becauſe of the ſame Word ending this as the foregoing, for their ſtands after the Nouns in Gr. and ſo the Tranſcriber having written the firſt their, went on by miſtake from the laſt. But how careleſsly muſt the

THE firſt therefore indeed had alſo Ordinances of Service, and a worldly Sanctuary.

2. For there was a Tabernacle made ready being the firſt, wherein was the Candleſtick, Table and Preſence-bread; which is called the Sanctuary.

3. And after the ſecond Veil, the Tabernacle which is called the very holy Place;

4. That had the golden Cenſer, and the Ark of the Covenant covered over all round with Gold, at which was the golden Pot that had the Manna, and the Staff of Aaron which budded out, with the Tables of the Covenant,

5. As alſo up above that the Cherubs of Glory which overſhadow the Atonement-covering; about which Things there is not to be ſpoken now particularly.

6. And theſe Things being thus made ready, the Prieſts go indeed always into the Tabernacle, and accompliſh the Service;

7. But into the ſecond the high Prieſt alone once a Year, not without Blood, which he offers for himſelf, and the Miſtakes of the People.

8. The Holy Spirit declaring this, that the Way to the Sanctuary has not yet been made manifeſt, as the firſt Tabernacle is yet ſtanding:

9. Which was a Similitude for the Time as it was preſent, at which are offered both Gifts and Sacrifices, that are not able to make him who does the Service perfect as to the Conſcience;

10. Being only of Meat and Drink, with different Baptiſms, and carnal Ordinances, laid on till the Time of Reformation.

11. But Chriſt being come a high Prieſt of future good Things, by a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made with Hands, that is not of this Building.

12. Not by the Blood of Goats and Calves, but by his own Blood, entered once into the Sanctuary, and got everlaſting Redemption.

13. For if the Blood of Bulls and Goats, and the Aſhes of a Heifer which ſprinkles the Polluted, does ſanctify to the Purity of the Fleſh;

14. How much more will the Blood of Chriſt, who by the everlaſting Spirit offered himſelf without Blemiſh to God, purify your Conſcience from dead Works, to ſerve the Living God?

15. And for this reaſon he is the Mediator of the new Covenant, that as there was Death for the Redemption of the Tranſgreſſions in the firſt Covenant, thoſe who are called may receive the Promiſe of everlaſting Inheritance.

16. For where there is a Teſtament, it is neceſſary the Death of the Teſtator ſhould come to paſs.

Ver. 13. made old] by Weſt. antiquated, and again for old; but is that fitter for unlettered Men?

Ver. 1. firſt] Moſt Copies have Tabernacle to it; yet the Criticks do not approve of it, with whom I join, becauſe the Tabernacle was the Sanctuary, Ver. 2. and ſo it would be, The Sanctuary had a Sanctuary. Notwithſtanding which Whitby ſays, For there was a Tabernacle made ready, the firſt put it entirely out of all Doubt, that Tabernacle here is the genuine Reading; which I do not at all perceive.

Ver. 2. Sanctuary] Some have it plural by the Accent differently placed, but far leſs ſuitable.

Ver. 4. at which] For the Pot of Manna, and Aaron's Rod or Staff were not in the Ark, Exod. xvi. 34. Num. xvii. 10. 1 Kings viii. 9. and for the Meaning to be, that they were in the Tabernacle, as Ribera &c. expound, there is [and] wanting before this.

Tranſ.* Ver. 13. are purged, Ver. 22. entreth, Ver. 25. & Ch. xiii. 11.

Ver. 8. has not yet] to thoſe under the Law.

Ib. ſtanding] Weſt. ſubſiſting.

Ver. 9. as it was preſent] being in the preterperfect Gr. Tenſe, ſo not the preſent Time when the Apoſtle wrote, as by Doddr. and the Tabernacle being then not ſo properly a Similitude or Figure, when that Uſe of it was fulfilled or ended.

Ib. at which] A few by Alteration of the Gender refer it to Tabernacle, and Mills declares that to be entirely right.

Ib. as to the Conſcience] Mills would turn out on the bare Credit of the Eth. Verſ. but ſee him after expounding both theſe according to the received Reading, Pr. 1355.

Ver. 10. and carnal Ordinances] three Copies leave out [and] two of them with two or three Tranſ. have Ordinances in another Caſe, to be the Gifts and Sacrifices, and thoſe two Mills ſays are entirely right. As for his ſaying that otherwiſe laid on would be like able, agreeing in Gen. with Sacrifices; I ſay No, but it does with Ordinances.

17. Since a Teſtament is firm to the Dead; though it is not of force at any time when the Teſtator is alive.

18. Which neither was the firſt dedicated without Blood.

19. For when every Precept was ſpoken according to the Law, by Moſes to the People, he taking the Blood of Calves and Goats, with Water, ſcarlet Wool and Hyſſop, ſprinkled as well the Book, as all the People;

20. Saying, This is the Blood of the Covenant which God has commanded to you.

21. Both the Tabernacle alſo, and all the Inſtruments of the Service, he ſprinkled in like Manner with Blood.

22. Nay almoſt all Things are purified with Blood according to the Law, and there is not Forgiveneſs without ſhedding of Blood.

23. It was therefore neceſſary indeed for the Patterns of Things in the Heavens to be purified by theſe; but the heavenly Things themſelves by better Sacrifices than theſe:

24. For Chriſt is not entered into the holy Places made with hands, the Models of the true; but into Heaven it ſelf, now to appear in the Preſence of God for us;

25. And not that he ſhould offer himſelf often, as the high Prieſt enters into the holy Places yearly, with Blood of others;

26. (Since then he muſt have ſuffered often from the founding of the World) but now once in the End of Ages he has appeared, for the putting away of Sin, by the Sacrifice of himſelf.

27. And according as there is appointed for Men once to die, and after that the Judgment:

28. So Chriſt being once offered up to bear the Sins of many, will be ſeen the ſecond time without Sin to Salvation, by thoſe who wait for him.

CHAP. X.

FOR as the Law has but the Shadow of future good Things, not the Image it ſelf of the Matters, it can never make them who come to it perfect, by thoſe Sacrifices which they yearly offer continually.

2. Since would not they then have ceaſed to be offered? by reaſon the Worſhippers once cleanſed, would have had Conſciouſneſs of Sins no more.

3. Whereas in theſe there is Remembrance of Sins yearly.

4. For it is impoſſible, that the Blood of Bulls and Goats ſhould take away Sins.

5. Therefore as he ſhould come into the World, he ſays; Sacrifice and Offering thou didſt not deſire, but didſt fit up a Body for me;

Ver. 18. dedicated] Weſt. originally tranſacted.

Ver. 23. the heavenly Things] Thoſe that belonged to Heaven, or divine Matters, and the Perſons who were to go thither.

Ver. 25. And not that] connective with It was neceſſary &c. Ver. 23. and the intermediate Verſe as in a Parentheſis. But what does nor yet that accord with? The Gr. alſo not having yet.

Ver. 26. End] Weſt. at the conſummation of the ages.

Ver. 1. can] Some have it plur. of the Sacrifices, and that Whitby ſays is more likely, Exam. L. 2. 3. which may be wondered at.

Ver. 2. would not they] Doddr. ſays They would &c. is ſupported by many Copies. Whereas one, or at moſt two Copies have it one Way, two another, and two more in a third Manner; of which only one Sort can be genuine, and what is that to ballance againſt the common, when the Senſe is the ſame? I ſuppoſe our ux not being joined to the following αν in tranſcribing, and ſo making no Word, ν was after left out, and then καν being not well, κ was afterwards omitted too.

Ib. Conſciouſneſs] ſo Weſley.

Ver. 4. take away Sins] Thus Diogenes the Philoſopher ſeeing one ſprinkling himſelf with Water, as Diogenes Laertius relates, ſaid to him, Wretch, doſt not thou know, thou canſt no more free thy ſelf from the Errors of Life by Sprinkling, than from thoſe of Grammar?

Ver. 5. as he ſhould come] according as it was, and ſuitable to that in Ver. 7. whereas when he cometh is either the preſent or future Time of the Author's writing this, as it is no Part of the Quotation from Pſa. xl. 6. nor is it free from another Abſurdity, as it brings he ſaith to the ſame Time.

Ib. fit up a Body for me] from the Tranſ. of the Septuag. Pſa. xl. 6. but how they turned it ſo widely ſeemed hard to ſay, eſpecially as to Ears; ſo that I intended rather to ſay Nothing how it came to be, than with others Nothing to the Purpoſe; when at the Time of printing I found Doddr. thus expreſs his Sentiment, 'After having deliberately conſidered the various Interpretations which have been given of this Text, I find none ſo probable as that of Mr. Pierce, who ſuppoſes that the original Reading of the Hebrew which the Seventy follow, inſtead of אזנים was אז אוך; and that כרה ſometimes ſignifies to procure, as well as to dig.' And is the Expreſſion then in Pſa. to be given up as falſe and corrupt? I hope not. If ſuch an Alteration had been made, thoſe who made it muſt have underſtood Hebrew to make it right for Ears; and can any rational Perſon on mature Conſideration believe that ſuch not only miſtook two Words, but all the three Letters of the latter Word? And that the LXX did not tranſlate thoſe Words is manifeſt, ſince the firſt of them would have been τοτε then, not δε but, neither did they render the Verb procure, which in the other Senſe is rather purchaſe. It appears to me moſt likely now on Reconſideration, that becauſe digging the Ears was obſcure and doubtful to them, they changed the Expreſſion, which other Tranſlators as well as they frequently do, and as Belly and Loins are elſewhere changed into Body. So as duggeſt the Ears for me, as the Heb. Phraſe is, they might underſtand made them as they are, viz. hollow that they might hear, and that David mentioned this, as a Part for the Whole, that God fitted or framed up his Body for him, as dug is alſo uſed for the Body being made, Iſa. li. 1. and the Gr. Word which does not

6. Since thou waſt not pleaſed with Burnt-ſacrifice, and that for Sin.

7. I then ſaid, Behold I am coming (it being written of me in the Volume of the Book) to do thy Will, O God.

8. When he ſaid above, Sacrifice, Offering, Burnt-ſacrifices, and thoſe for Sin thou didſt not deſire, nor waſt pleaſed with (which are offered according to the Law;)

9. Then ſaid he, Behold I am coming to do thy Will, O God: taking away the firſt, that he may ſet up the ſecond.

10. In which Will we are ſanctified, by the Offering of the Body of Jeſus Chriſt once.

11. Now every Prieſt indeed ſtands miniſtring daily, and offering often the ſame Sacrifices, which can never take away Sins.

12. Whereas when he had offered one Sacrifice for Sins, he ſate down continually at the right Hand of God;

13. Waiting further till his Enemies are made his Footſtool.

14. For with one Offering he has made perfect continually the ſanctified ones.

15. Nay the holy Spirit teſtifies to us: for after he had ſaid before,

16. This is the Covenant which I will make with them after thoſe Days; the Lord declares, I will put my Laws in their Hearts, and write them in their Minds;

17. And will remember their Sins and Iniquities no more.

18. Now where Forgiveneſs of theſe is, there is Offering no more for Sin.

19. As we have therefore Boldneſs, Brethren, for entering the Sanctuary by the Blood of Jeſus,

20. By the freſh and living Way which he has dedicated for us through the Veil, that is his Fleſh,

21. And a great Prieſt over the Houſe of God;

22. Let us approach with a true Heart, in Aſſurance of Faith, having Minds ſprinkled from a wicked Conſcience, and the Body waſhed with clean Water.

23. Let us hold the Profeſſion of Hope without wavering (for he is faithful who promiſed)

24. And conſider one another, in order to provoke to Love and good Works:

25. As alſo not leave the aſſembling of our ſelves together, as the Cuſtom of ſome is, but exhort to it; and ſo much the more as you ſee the Day drawing near.

26. For when we ſin wilfully after receiving the Knowledge of the Truth, there is no more left a Sacrifice for the Sins;

27. But ſome fearful Expectation of Judgment, and fiery Zeal, that will conſume the Adverſaries.

28. He who rejected the Law of Moſes, died without Mercy by two or three Witneſſes;

29. Of how much worſe Puniſhment do ye think him to be counted deſerving, that trod on the Son of God, and has eſteemed the Blood of the Covenant which he was ſanctified with common, and railed at the Spirit of Grace?

30. For we know him who ſaid, To me belongs Vengeance, I will recompenſe, ſays the Lord; and again, The Lord will judge for his People.

31. It is a fearful Thing to fall into the Hands of the Living God.

32. But remember the former Days, in which when you were enlightened, you endured much Conteſt of Sufferings:

33. Partly indeed as you were made a Show of, both in Reproaches and Afflictions; and partly as you became Partakers with thoſe who were accuſtomed to be ſo.

ſigniſy prepared, is rendered perfeciſti in the Pol. Bib. from the ancient vulg. Lat. that is compleated, or compleatly made. Nay this Interpretation is ſo pertinent, eſpacially as the Apoſtle makes uſe of it directly for his Argument here, on which the Streſs of the Argument lies; and it has ſuch an Evangelical Appearance, which might poſſibly drop from thoſe ancient Interpreters like that in John xi. 49, 50, 51. from Caiaphas; that for theſe Reaſons it may have a Claim with the other Senſe which I have given to the Heb. on Pſa. in the Manner exhibited in 1 Pet. i. 10, 11, 12. which alſo appears in ſeveral Goſpel Prophecies of the Old Teſt. Books, that the Perſon inſpired underſtood his Words one Way in Relation to himſelf or others then, and the Spirit of Chriſt, by which he was inſpired, Ver. 11. intended it to be alſo further concerning Chriſt. Hence the next probable Solution of Mr. Saurin, as Doddr. ranks it, that the Seventy explained the Phraſe of boreing the Ear, by that of preparing the Body for Service, is inconcluſive or incoherent, both in the Premiſes and Inference; ſince no bearing nor preparing is expreſſed, neither did the former denote the latter.

Ver. 9. O God] which has been inſerted, ſays Mills, from Ver. 7. Pr. 1317. becauſe not with ſeven or eight.

Ver. 10. once] for all may be thought added unawares by our Predeſtinarian Tranſlators.

Ver. 11. Prieſt] by eleven high Prieſt, which Grotius ſaying is clearer, does but make it more ſuſpicious.

Ver. 23. Hope] the com. Original Reading, Faith being but in two Copies; Doddr. ſays only a ſingle one, but they are Barb. 1. and Bodl. 5. and our is added thrice in this and the preceding Ver. by the Engliſh Tranſlators.

Ver. 26. wilfully] as particularly ſhewn how in Ver. 29. and the Sins here mentioned deſcribed there. What the Scripture is given for may be read in 2 Tim. iii. 16. and is not to be miſconſtrued to make tender Minds deſpair, and to aſſiſt the Tempter in his Temptation, as he himſelf uſed it, Mat. iv. 6.

Ver. 30. ſays the Lord] Some omit; and why ſeems apparent, becauſe it might be ſpared; and therefore not likely to be from Rom. xii. 19. where it cannot, as both Mills and Whitby report.

Ver. 33. accuſtomed to be] for uſed in the com. Tranſ. may be taken for treated, which is not the Meaning.

34. For you were affected too with my Bonds, and took with Joy the Pillage of the Things you had; ſince you knew in your ſelves that you have in Heaven better Goods, and continuing.

35. Caſt not away therefore your Boldneſs, which has great Recompence.

36. For you have Need of Patience, that when you have done the Will of God, you may receive the Promiſe.

37. For in a very little while the Comer will come, and not delay.

38. But the Righteous ſhall live by Faith; and if he draws back, my Soul will not be pleaſed with him.

39. However we are not Perſons of Drawing back to Deſtruction, but of Faith to ſaving the Soul.

CHAP. XI.

NOW Faith is the Confidence of Matters to be hoped for, the Proof of thoſe not ſeen.

2. For in this the Elders were teſtified of.

3. By Faith we underſtand that the Worlds were framed by the Word of God, ſo that the Things ſeen were not made out of them which appear.

4. By Faith Abel offered to God a better Sacrifice than Cain, whereby he was teſtified of to be righteous, ſince God teſtifies of his Gifts; and thereby though he is dead, he ſtill ſpeaks.

5. By Faith Enoch was removed not to ſee Death, and was not found, becauſe God removed him: for before his Removal, he was teſtified of to have pleaſed God.

6. Whereas without Faith it is impoſſible to pleaſe him: for he who comes to God, muſt believe that he exiſts, and is a Recompenſer of thoſe who ſeek after him.

7. By Faith Noe when he was divinely admoniſhed about Things not yet ſeen, feared, and made ready an Ark for the Saving of his Family; whereby he condemned the World, and became Heir of the Righteouſneſs that is according to Faith.

8. By Faith Abraham when he was called, obeyed to go forth into a Place which he ſhould afterwards receive for an Inheritance; and went forth, without knowing whither he went.

9. By Faith he ſojourned in the Country of Promiſe as a ſtrange one, and dwelt in Tents with Iſaac and Jacob, Heirs together of the ſame Promiſe.

10. For he waited for a City which has Foundations, whoſe Artificer and Maker is God.

11. By Faith alſo Sara her ſelf received Power for Conception of Offspring, and did bear paſt the Time of Age; ſince ſhe eſteemed him faithful who promiſed.

12. Therefore even from one, and he deadiſh, there were born as the Stars of Heaven in Multitude, and numberleſs according as the Sand at the Sea-ſhoar.

Ver. 34. affected] Weſt. ſympathized with; but better with a Perſon, than with bonds.

Ib. my] Some Books are without, which though Mills, Whithy, and Wall reckon to be right, it might rather be left out to accord more with the following, for which two have their, and moſt of them Priſoners for Bonds; but the latter, notwithſtanding other Criticks approve of it, Mills counts an Expoſition from Ch. xiii. 3.

Ib. in Heaven] Mills ſuppoſed did creep in from the Marg. as the Vulg. and ſome others are without it.

Ver. 38. Righteous ſhall live by Faith] four have my with Righteous, ſix with Faith, which latter Mills reckoned right.

Ib. he draws back] the Gr. having no other Subject but the Righteous; and of this ſee Gell, Eſſay, p. 607.

Ver. 1. the Confidence of Matters to be hoped for, the Proof of thoſe not ſeen] Mills in Prol. 590. not in the Notes, nor noted by Kuſter, as at Ch. vi. 1. tells of the Clar. Copy having it, the Subſtance of thoſe that breathe, the Accuſation of Things not ſeen; taking I perceive the Latin e for i, ſpero being hope, and ſpiro breathe, of the ſame Conjug. with the other Gr. Word in an ill Senſe.

Ib. Confidence] as our great Commentators here interpret, and Tranſlators render it, Ch. iii. 14. 2 Cor. xi. 17. and the like ix. 4. by Weſt. ſubſiſtence.

Ver. 4. ſtill] for yet may be taken for a Conjunction.

Ib. ſpeaks] The far greater Part of Copies have it paſſively, is rehearſed or ſpoken of, which to me ſeems genuine, though in Deference to our Reading I retain that: for the Reaſon which Mills, or Theophylact before, brings for ours, that it agrees better with what is ſaid in Gen. iv. 13. (which ſhould be 10.) and Hebr. xii. 24. is the Reaſon that ſeems to have induced the Alteration, and what could have cauſed the contrary? Not even contracting the Word, or miſſing ſome of it in tranſcribing, which might make the other, ſince the Paſſive is a Syllable the longeſt at the End; and I may add it makes good Senſe, not unworthy of the Apoſtle's Pen: good did I ſay? Yes better, for what does Abel ſpeak here? Indeed what did he ſpeak in the other Texts? Nothing, only his Blood ſpoke for Vengeance on Cain, by the Appearance of it on the Ground; but what is ſpoken here is Abel's Commendation, therefore paſſive.

Ver. 7. became Heir of the Righteouſneſs that is according to Faith] This is right St. Paul's way of expreſſion, ſays Wall; and ſo Ch. xiii. 9. very likely to be ſaid by him.

Ver. 9. By Faith] Two Copies having And inſtead of this, Mills feared ours crept from the White of the Book, meaning the Margin, Pr. 1458.

Ver. 10. for a City] See of this alſo the Beginning of the 3d Book of Hermas.

Ver. 11. did bear] A few with the Vulg. omit, but as to Grotius's ſaying well, would it be well to omit all that the Expreſſions of Scripture will bear, and deprive it of thoſe Marks of Antiquity? Why are not the Claſſical Writings then in the ſame Manner?

13. Theſe

13. Theſe all died according to the Faith, without receiving the Promiſes, but as they ſaw them far off, believed, and ſaluted, as alſo profeſſed that they were Strangers and Foreigners on the Earth.

14. For thoſe who ſay ſuch Things, make it appear that they ſeek after a Country.

15. And indeed if they had been mindful of that from which they came forth, they might have had a Time for turning back;

16. But now they long for a better, that is a heavenly: therefore God is not aſhamed of them to be called their God; for he has prepared a City for them.

17. By Faith Abraham offered Iſaac, when he was tried: and he who had received the Promiſes, offered the only begotten one;

18. To whom it was ſaid, Of Iſaac it ſhall be called thy Offspring:

19. As he counted that God was able to raiſe up even from the Dead; whence he alſo received him in a Similitude.

20. By Faith Iſaac bleſſed Jacob and Eſau, concerning future Things.

21. By Faith Jacob when he died, bleſſed each of the Sons of Joſeph, as well as worſhipped on the Top of his Staff.

22. By Faith Joſeph at his Deceaſe, mentioned about the going forth of the Iſraelites, and gave command concerning his Bones.

23. By Faith Moſes upon being born, was hid three Months by his Parents, becauſe they ſaw the Child beautiful; ſo they were not afraid of the King's Order.

24. By Faith Moſes when become big, refuſed to be called the Son of Pharaoh's Daughter;

25. And choſe rather to be ill treated with the People of God, than to have the Enjoyment of Sin for a time;

26. Since he eſteemed the Reproach of Chriſt greater Riches than the Treaſures in Egypt: for he looked to the Recompence.

27. By Faith he left Egypt, having not been afraid of the King's Wrath: for he had Courage given, as ſeeing the Inviſible One.

28. By Faith he made the Paſſover, and the Sprinkling of the Blood; that he who deſtroyed the Firſt-born might not touch them.

29. By Faith the People paſſed through the Red Sea, as by dry Ground; of which the Egyptians receiving Trial, were ſwallowed up.

30. By Faith the Walls of Jericho fell down, when they were compaſſed for ſeven Days.

31. By Faith the Harlot Rahab did not periſh with the Unbelievers, as ſhe received the Spies peaceably.

32. And what ſhall I ſay more? For Time would fail me to tell concerning Gedeon, Barak, Sampſon, Jephthae, David alſo, and Samuel, with the Prophets:

33. Who through Faith conquered Kingdoms, wrought Righteouſneſs, obtained the Promiſes, ſtopped the Mouths of Lions,

34. Quenched the Power of Fire, eſcaped the Edge of the Sword, were ſtrong from Weakneſs, became ſtout in Battle, turned back the Camps of the Strangers.

35. Women received their Dead by Reſurrection; and ſome were tortured, not accepting Redemption, that they might obtain a better Reſurrection;

36. As alſo others received Trial of Scoffings and Whippings, nay further of Bonds and Impriſonment:

Ver. 13. believed] or and were perſwaded of them in the com. Tranſ. ſo many are without, that not only Mills but even Whitby proclaims it added.

Ib. ſaluted] the proper Meaning of the Gr. Word; beſides that embraced them afar off ſeems incongruous.

Ver. 18. To] not Of.

Ver. 19. in a Similitude] Of the Reſurrection of the Faithful, Nary; or it might be of that Reſurrection of Iſaac.

Ver. 23. beautiful] How he was proper may be miſtaken, and Johnſ. gives no other Quotation like it.

Ib. The Clermont and St. Germains Copies have next after this Verſe, By Faith Moſes becoming great, ſlew the Egyptian, conſidering the Grief of his Brethren; as for the two Copies Zegerus mentions, they might be the ſame, and it may be looked on as an Interpolation made from Exod. ii. 11, 12. and as being mentioned Acts vii. 24. tho' Mills counts it genuine; look at Col. ii. 5.

Ver. 24. become big] ſo the Gr. which I ſee no Need to exchange for come to years.

Ver. 25. than to have the Enjoyment of Sin for a time] See Young's three Letters on Pleaſure in The Centaur not Fabulous, at the End of the 2d there being nearly theſe Words; He that will not fear, ſhall feel the Wrath of Heaven. He that lives in Senſe, will die in Sorrow. He does not truly enjoy his preſent Hour, who thinks not on his laſt.

Ver. 27. having not been afraid] to do as in Exod. ii. 12. notwithſtanding Doddr. refers it to Ch. x. 28. & xi. 5. for he did not leave Egypt before he made the Paſſover as here in the next Ver. beſides his being repreſented as a ſingle Perſon.

Ib. had Courage given] paſſive, and to the Meaning of the Gr. Word.

Ver. 34. were ſtrong] Weſt. was made ſtrong, tho' both the Gr. Words are plural.

Ver. 35. by Reſurrection] with the ſame Word as after, and thus ſhewing what better there refers to, tho' ſo much miſtaken by Commentators.

Ver. 36. Whippings] In the Epiſt. of the Church of Smyrna concerning the Martyrdom of Polycarp, it is related of the Primitive Chriſtians, they were ſo flea'd with Whipping, that the frame and ſtructure of their Bodies were laid open to their very inward Veins and Arteries; nevertheleſs they endured it, without ſo much as a Sigh, or a Groan; according to Wake's Tranſ. from the Gr. (the Lat. being paraphraſtical and wide) which ſee, as the beſt Edition, publiſhed by Pearſon and Smith, at Oxf. 1709.

37. They were ſtoned, ſawed aſunder, tried, died by the Slaughter of the Sword; they went about in Sheep in Goat Skins, being in want, afflicted, ill dealt with,

38. (Of whom the World was not worthy;) and wandered in Deſarts, Mountains, Caves, and Holes of the Earth.

39. Now all theſe being teſtified of through Faith, did not receive the Promiſe:

40. While God provided Something better for us, that they might not be made perfect without us.

CHAP. XII.

WHEREFORE as we have too ſo great a Cloud of Witneſſes compaſſing us about; let us, by putting away every Weight, and the Sin that eaſily ſurrounds, run with Patience the ſtriving Race ſet before us:

2. And look to Jeſus, the Prince and Perfecter of Faith; who for the Joy ſet before him, endured the Croſs, deſpiſed the Shame, and ſate down on the right Side of the Throne of God.

3. For conſider him who endured ſuch Contradiction of Sinners to himſelf; that you may not be tired, and faint in your Minds.

4. You have not yet reſiſted to Blood, in ſtriving againſt Sin.

5. And you have forgot the Exhortation, which is expreſſed to you as Sons; My Son, do not ſlight the Diſcipline of the Lord, nor faint when thou art reproved by him.

6. For whom the Lord loves he diſciplines, and ſcourges every Son whom he receives.

7. If you endure Diſcipline, God deals with you as Sons: for what Son is there, whom the Father does not diſcipline?

8. But if you are without Diſcipline, of which all become Partakers; then are you Baſtards, and not Sons.

9. We have further indeed had Fathers of our Fleſh that diſciplined, whom we did reverence; ſhall we not much rather be ſubject to the Father of Spirits, and live?

10. For they indeed diſciplined for a few Days, according as it ſeemed well to them; but he for profiting, that we may receive his Sanctification.

11. However all Diſcipline at the preſent does not ſeem to be with Joy, but Grief; yet afterwards it yields the peaceable Fruit of Righteouſneſs to thoſe who are exerciſed by it.

12. Therefore lift up the Hands that are let down, and the ſlack Knees.

13. And make ſtraight Tracks to your Feet, that what is lame may not be turned out, but rather cured.

14. Purſue after Peace with all, and Holineſs, without which none will ſee the Lord:

15. And overlook that there may not any one be deficient from the Grace of God; that not any Root of Bitterneſs may ſpring up, and trouble, by which many may be defiled;

16. That there may be none a Whoremonger; or profane, as Eſau, who for one Meal ſold his Birth-right.

17. For you know, that afterward alſo when he would have inherited the Bleſſing, he was rejected: for he found no Place of Repentance, though he ſought after it with Tears.

18. For you are not come to the Mountain which might be touched, and that burned with Fire, as alſo to the Dimneſs, Darkneſs, Tempeſt,

19. The Trumpet's Sound, and the Voice of Words, which thoſe who heard intreated the Speech might not be proceeded in to them.

20. For they could not bear what was commanded; and if a Beaſt ſhould touch the Mountain, it was to be ſtoned, or pierced into with a Dart.

Ver. 37. ſawed aſunder] which has been thought to be the Prophet Iſaiah by King Manaſſeh.

Ib. tried] There is a deal of Cavilling at the Gr. Word, it being almoſt in Letters like the foregoing; but as Mills, who is ſo very ready to object againſt the com. Reading, pleads for this, we may reſt with it.

Ver. 1. too] Doddr. blames our Tranſlators for not taking καὶ as an Expletive; whereas Eraſm. Beza and Caſt. render it by quoque, to which likewiſe his own —ing in Being is equivalent, while he has omitted tranſlating the Gr. Pronouns for we and us.

Ver. 5. Exhortation] Vulg. Comfort, contrary to what it was in two or three Places mentioned before, and both there and here to the Senſe of the Text.

Ib. Sons] as tranſlated Ver. 7, 8, &c.

Ver. 12. lift up the Hands] rather to work or labour, than pray, as lift up belongs alſo to Knees.

Ib. the Knees] to go on or travel, according to the next Verſe.

Ver. 15. that not any Root of Bitterneſs may ſpring up, and trouble] Mills would have it, that there may not be any Root of Bitterneſs ſpringing up with Gall, from the Verſ. of the Sept. Deut. xxix. 18. with there—be underſtood, the Difference being only ἐνοχλῇ and ἐν χολῇ· but without any Copy, Tranſlation, or Quotation that has it ſo here; and why might not the Apoſtle vary a little from that, as well as he does more in leaving out may be in you, and of Bitterneſs, with and Wormwood? beſides with Gall being a Tautology to of Bitterneſs, and ſo not both there.

Ver. 17. alſo] not how in any Senſe.

Ib. Repentance] in or by his Father, according to Whitby and Wall.

Ver. 18. which might be touched] Wall ſuſpects, without any Copy or Tranſ. for it, that there ſhould be not; but ſurely it might poſſibly be touched, as it was forbid, Exod. xix. 12. but the heavenly Mountain cannot, Ver. 22. which clears up the Matter.

Ver. 20. was to] oblique Expreſſion being here more proper than direct, and ſhall requiring it was ſaid.

Ib. pierced into] A Dart being thrown, not thruſt; and through needleſs, as well as improbable.

21. Nay

21. Nay ſo fearful was the Sight, that Moſes ſaid, I am terrified, and tremble.

22. But you are come to the Mountain of Sion, and to the City of the Living God, the heavenly Jeruſalem, and to ten thouſands of Angels,

23. To the univerſal Aſſembly and Church of the Firſt-born that are enrolled in Heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the Spirits of the Righteous made perfect,

24. And to Jeſus the Mediator of the new Covenant, and to the ſprinkling Blood which ſpeaks better than Abel's.

25. See you do not refuſe him who ſpeaks: for if they did not eſcape that refuſed him who divinely admoniſhed on the Earth, much leſs we that turn away when from Heaven:

26. Whoſe Voice then ſhook the Earth; but now he has promiſed thus, Yet once I move not only the Earth, but alſo Heaven.

27. Now the yet once declares the Removal of the Things ſhaken, as having been appointed, that thoſe not ſhaken may remain.

28. Therefore as we receive an immoveable Kingdom, let us hold Grace by which we may worſhip God well-pleaſingly, with Reverence and Fear.

29. For our God is even a conſuming Fire.

CHAP. XIII.

LET brotherly Friendſhip remain.

2. Do not forget Hoſpitality: for by this ſome entertained Angels unawares.

3. Remember the Priſoners, as if impriſoned together; thoſe that are ill dealt with, as being your ſelves alſo in the Body.

4. Marriage is honourable among all, and the Bed undefiled; but God will judge Whoremongers and Adulterers.

5. Be in the Cuſtom of not loving Money, and have ſufficient in the preſent Things: for he has ſaid, I will not at all neglect thee, nor by no means forſake thee.

6. So that we may be bold to ſay, The Lord is my Helper, and I will not fear what Man can do to me.

7. Remember them that were the chief of you, who ſpoke to you the Word of God, whoſe Faith imitate, conſidering the Iſſue of the Converſation.

8. Jeſus Chriſt being the ſame yeſterday, to Day, and for ever.

9. Be not carried about by various and ſtrange Doctrines: for it is well for the Heart to be confirmed by Grace, not by Meats, which have not profited thoſe who go on in them.

10. We have an Altar, of which they have not Power to eat, that ſerve at the Tabernacle.

11. For of thoſe living Creatures, whoſe Blood is brought into the Sanctuary for Sin by the high Prieſt, the Bodies are burnt without the Camp.

12. Therefore Jeſus alſo, that he might ſanctify the People by his own Blood, ſuffered without the Gate.

13. Let us therefore go forth to him without the Camp, and carry his Reproach.

14. For we have not here a remaining City, but ſeek after a future one.

15. By him therefore let us offer up the Sacrifice of Praiſe always to God, that is the Fruit of the Lips making confeſſion to his Name.

16. But Well-doing and Fellowſhip do not forget: for with ſuch Sacrifices God is well pleaſed.

17. Obey them who are the chief of you, and be ſubject: ſince they watch for your Souls, as thoſe who will render Account; that they may do the ſame with Joy, and not be lamenting; for this would be unprofitable to you.

Ib. or pierced into with a Dart] No ſmall Number of Copies and Verſions are void of theſe Words. which makes them look as if they might be coined from Exod. xix. 13. as Whitby ſuppoſes with other Criticks.

Ib. at all] here being 2 Gr. Negatives;

Ib. by no means] and here three.

Ver. 7. the Converſation] that uſed to be between them.

Ver. 8. being] which underſtood in the Gr. as the Verb-ſubſtantive is not unuſually, makes good Senſe of this Verſe with the following. The Reader may compare it with the com. Tranſ. and ſee how the Word is wanting.

Ver. 9. carried about] by ſeveral carried away, and Mills writes ours crept in from Eph. iv. 14. though the Word is not the ſame there, nor near it in the Letters, this being a Verb, and that a Participle.

Ver. 10. Power] not in two or three Copies, and Mills ſays rightly, it being added for Explanation, Pr. 1292 of which my Reader may have heard enough by this Time.

Ver. 17. lamenting] The Gr. being a Participle.

NOTES

NOTES upon the General Epiſtle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

JAMES, a Servant of God, and of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, to the twelve Tribes that are diſperſed, Salutation.

2. Eſteem it all Joy, my Brethren, when you fall into various Temptations.

3. Knowing that the Proving of your Faith works Patience.

4. But let Patience have a perfect Work; that you may be perfect and entire, wanting in Nothing.

5. If any one of you alſo want Wiſdom, let him aſk from God, who gives to all freely, and without reproaching; and it will be given him.

6. But let him aſk in Faith, not at all doubting: for he that doubts is like a Wave of the Sea, which is driven by the Wind, and blown about.

7. For let not that Perſon imagine, that he will receive any Thing from the Lord.

8. A double-minded Man is unſtable in all his Ways.

9. Nay let a lowly Brother glory in his Highneſs;

10. And a rich one in his Lowneſs, ſince he will paſs away as the Flower of the Graſs.

11. For the Sun having riſen with Scorching, and withered the Graſs, its Flower is fallen off, and the Comelineſs of its Appearance periſhed; ſo alſo will a rich one fade away in his Ways.

12. The Man is bleſſed who endures Temptation; becauſe when he is proved, he will receive a Crown of Life, which the Lord has promiſed to thoſe that love him.

13. Let Nobody who is tempted ſay, I am tempted by God: for God cannot be tempted with evil Things, and he tempts none.

14. But each is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own Deſire, and enticed.

15. Afterwards Deſire conceiving, bears Sin; and Sin being accompliſhed, begets Death.

16. Do not miſtake, my beloved Brethren:

17. Every good Gift, and every perfect Thing beſtowed is from above, and comes down from the Father of Lights; with whom there is not Change, or turning Shadow.

18. He begat us willingly by the Word of Truth, for us to be ſome Firſt-fruit of his Creatures.

19. So then, my beloved Brethren, let every Man be quick in hearing, ſlow in ſpeaking, ſlow in Anger.

20. For the Anger of Man does not work the Righteouſneſs of God.

21. Therefore putting away all Filthineſs, and the Abundance of Wickedneſs, receive in Meekneſs the Word that ſprings up within, which is able to ſave your Souls.

22. But become Doers of the Word, and not Hearers only, beguiling your ſelves.

23. Since if any one is a Hearer of the Word, and not a Doer, he is like a Man that views his natural Face in a Glaſs.

Tit. Epiſtle] The Author ſuffering Martyrdom preſently after the Death of Feſtus, as Joſephus relates, Antiq. B. 20. Ch. 16. which Pearſon computes to be A. D. 62; Mills, to whoſe Suffrage we need not ſcruple to ſubſcribe, counts it written in the Year 60.

Ib. James] called the leſs, Mark xv. 40. ſee on Acts xii. 17. and the Title to Titus.

Ver. 3. Faith] Mills firſt ſtigmatized on the Truſt of a ſingle Copy, and that left unknown what it is, afterwards in Prol. he mentions another, and repeats that it ſeems to be from 1 Pet. i. 7. but are all parallel Expreſſions of Scripture to be thus excluded? On the contrary they ſtrengthen one another.

Ver. 11. having riſen] The Verbs being paſt Tenſes, changing from the 1ſt to the 2d Aoriſt.

Ib. Comelineſs] grace of the graſs in the com. Eng.

Ver. 15. begets] according as tranſlated Ver. 18.

Ver. 17. Every good Gift] Thoſe of Geneva comment well, notwithſtanding their rigid Tenet of Predeſtination, Seeing all good things come of God, we ought not to make him the author of evill.

Ib. Thing beſtowed] or Donation, the Word being not the ſame as the foregoing.

Ver. 19. So then—let] inſtead of which Mills puts for genuine Know—and let, Pr. 1355. but for that there is ſmall Authority, and very little for the latter.

Ver. 21. ſprings up] The primitive Verb being thus rendered in each of the three Places where it is, which are Luke viii. 6, 8. Heb. xii. 15. and not ſignifying to graft.

Ver. 23. views] Gr. conſiders, which mere beholding does not include.

24. For

24. For when he has viewed himſelf, and is gone away, he preſently forgets what Kind of one he was.

25. But he who looks into the perfect Law of Freedom, and remains therein; the very ſame being not a forgetful Hearer, but a Doer of the Work, will be bleſſed in his Deed.

26. If any one ſeems to be religious among you, that does not bridle his Tongue, but deceives his Heart, the Religion of the ſame is vain.

27. Pure and undefiled Religion, with God and the Father, is this; to viſit the Fatherleſs and Widows in their Affliction, to keep himſelf unſtained from the World.

CHAP. II.

MY Brethren, do not hold the Faith of our glorious Lord Jeſus Chriſt with Reſpect of Perſons.

2. For if there come into your Aſſembly a Man with a gold Ring, in gay Apparel, and there come in alſo a poor one in vile Apparel;

3. And you have reſpect to him that wears the gay Apparel, and ſay to him, Sit thou here well; and ſay to the poor one, Stand thou there, or ſit here under my Footſtool:

4. Are you then not partial in your ſelves, and become Judges with evil Reaſonings?

5. Hear, my beloved Brethren, has not God choſen the Poor of this World, being rich in Faith, and Heirs of the Kingdom which he has promiſed to thoſe who love him?

6. Whereas you diſgrace the Poor: do not the Rich overpower you, and themſelves drag you to be judged?

7. Do not they ſpeak ill of the good Name by which you are called?

8. However if you accompliſh the royal Law according to the Scripture, Thou ſhalt love thy Neighbour as thy ſelf, you do well.

9. But if you reſpect Perſons, you commit Sin, and are convicted by the Law as Tranſgreſſors.

10. For he that keeps the whole Law, beſides offending in one Thing, becomes guilty of all.

11. Since he who ſaid, Thou ſhalt not commit Adultery; ſaid alſo, Thou ſhalt not murder: now if thou ſhouldeſt not commit Adultery, yet ſhouldeſt murder, thou becomeſt a Tranſgreſſor of the Law.

12. So ſpeak, and ſo do, as being hereafter to be judged by the Law of Freedom.

13. For to him that does not ſhew Mercy, will be Mercy without Judgment; and Mercy glories againſt Judgment.

14. What Profit is it, my Brethren, if one ſay, he has Faith, and has not Works? Is Faith able to ſave him?

15. Suppoſe now a Brother or Siſter were naked, and were wanting daily Food;

16. And one of you ſhould ſay to them, Go away in Peace, be you warmed and filled, but ſhould not give them Things convenient for the Body; what Profit would it be?

17. Even ſo Faith, except it has Works, is dead of it ſelf.

18. But one might ſay, Thou haſt Faith, and I have Works; ſhew me thy Faith without thy Works, and I will ſhew thee my Faith by my Works.

19. As thou believeſt that there is one God, thou doeſt well; yet the Devils believe, and tremble.

20. But wilt thou know, O vain Man, that Faith without Works is dead?

21. Was not our Father Abraham juſtified by Works, when he offered up his Son Iſaac on the Altar?

22. Doſt thou perceive that Faith wrought with his Works, and by Works Faith was made perfect?

23. And the Scripture was fulfilled which ſays, Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for Righteouſneſs; and he was called the Friend of God.

24. Do you ſee therefore, that by Works a Man is juſtified, and not by Faith only?

Ver. 24. when he has viewed &c.] of the Time paſt.

Ver. 25. the ſame] Mills ſuppoſes inſerted from the latter ετω this, Pr. 1248. being not in four Exemplars and two Verſions.

Ver. 26. ſeems] according to that damnable Art of Seeming, as pious Gell ſays in Eſſay, p. 228.

Ib. among you] which entirely ſeems added, ſays Mills, as wanting in four Tranſlations and as many Copies; but what are theſe to all the reſt?

Ver. 2. vile] Weſt. dirty.

Ver. 18. without] Far the greater Number of Copies have by as in the latter Part, for which Mills ſtrenuouſly pleads, and Wall holds.

Ver. 20. vain] Weſt. empty.

Ib. Faith without Works is dead] Of which in The Viſion of Pierce Plowman, that old approved Book, Paſſ. prim.

For James the ientle, iudged in his bookes
That faith without the feate, is right nothing worth
And as deade as doze ere, but if the dedes folow

Ver. 24. Do you] It being a Queſtion, like the 22 Verſe.

Ib. therefore] the Vulg. and a few omit.

25. Nay

25. Nay in like Manner alſo was not the Harlot Rahab juſtified by Works, when ſhe received the Meſſengers, and ſent them out another Way?

26. For according as a Body without a Spirit is dead, ſo is alſo Faith without Works.

CHAP. III.

DO not become many Teachers, my Brethren, knowing that we ſhall receive greater Judgment.

2. For we all offend in many Things: if any one does not offend in Word, he is a perfect Man, and can alſo bridle the whole Body.

3. Behold we put Bridles into Horſes Mouths, for them to obey us; and we turn about their whole Body.

4. Behold alſo the Ships, though they are ſo great, and driven by hard Winds, are turned about by a very ſmall Rudder, whitherſoever the Impulſe of the Director will.

5. Even ſo the Tongue is a little Member, and brags greatly: behold how much Fuel a ſmall Fire kindles up!

6. And the Tongue is a Fire, a World of Unrighteouſneſs: ſo is the Tongue made among our Members, which ſtains the whole Body, and puts in a flame the Courſe of Nature, nay is put in a flame by Hell.

7. For all the Faculty both of Beaſts and Fowls, both of creeping Things and thoſe of the Sea, is tamed, and has been, by the Faculty of Man.

8. But the Tongue no Man can tame; as it is an unreſtrainable Evil, full of deadly Poiſon.

9. With it we bleſs God and the Father; and with it we curſe Men, made according to the Likeneſs of God.

10. Out of the ſame Mouth comes Bleſſing and Curſing: theſe Things, my Brethren, ought not ſo to be.

11. Does a Fountain from the ſame Cavity, produce what is ſweet and bitter?

12. Can a Fig-tree, my Brethren, yield Olives, or a Vine Figs? So no Fountain can yield ſalt and freſh Water.

13. Who is wiſe and knowing among you? Let him ſhew by a good Converſation, his Works in Meekneſs of Wiſdom.

14. But if you have bitter Jealouſy and Quarrelling in your Heart, do not glory, and lye againſt the Truth.

15. This Wiſdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, ſenſual, deviliſh.

16. For where Jealouſy, and Quarrelling is; there is Tumult, and every bad Matter.

17. Whereas the Wiſdom from above is indeed firſt pure, next peaceable, gentle, obliging, full of Mercy and good Fruits, impartial, and not hypocritical.

18. And the Fruit of Righteouſneſs is ſown in Peace, by thoſe who make Peace.

CHAP. IV.

WHENCE are Fightings and Contentions among you? Are they not hence, from your Pleaſures that make war in your Members?

2. You deſire, yet do not have; you kill, and are zealous, yet cannot obtain; contend, and fight, yet have not, by reaſon ye do not aſk.

3. You aſk, and receive not, becauſe you aſk amiſs, that you may ſpend in your Pleaſures.

Ver. 1. Teachers] ſo the Gr. as in many other Places.

Ib. Judgment] agreeable to Heb. xiii. 17.

Ver. 2. we] perſonating the many as in the Verſe before, and as our great Young now does in Cent. not Fab. and others.

Ib. we all offend] In the com. Tranſ. all reads like the Object, or Perſons offended.

Ib. all] left out of J. Weſley's New Teſtament, probably by Overſight.

Ver. 4. Rudder] ſo tranſlated Acts xxvii. 40. being only uſed in theſe two Places; but the Helm in the Ship, whereby the Rudder is turned, is a long Handle: Lewis therefore in his Hiſt. of Eng. Tranſlations, p. 370. charges the anonymous Tranſlator who has it helm, with miſtaking the helm for the rudder; but Ham. may be ſaid to miſtake more, having it helm or ſtern, the ſtern being the hinder Part of the Ship.

Ib. Director] Weſl. ſteerſman; but in Sea-language is called the Mate.

Ver. 5. a ſmall] But Mills judges how much is here alſo the right, which the Vulg. and three or four Codes have; though it thwarts the Apoſtle's Argument, and might be written by looking at the other, and then altering one Letter of ηλικην to ηλικον, rather than deface the Copy with ολιγον.

Ver. 6. and] the middle one Mills puts off merely for the Vulg. being without it, Pr. 498. when if half the Copies and Verſions had it not, it might be thought rather left out there, than put into the other half, ſince the leaving out has more the Claim of Elegance.

Ver. 14. Jealouſy] Weſl. zeal.

Ver. 15. ſenſual] Weſl. animal.

Ver. 16. Jealouſy] Weſl. bitter zeal, by Miſtake of bitter, as it ſeems, from Ver. 14.

Ver. 17. impartial] I know not how, ſays Wall, Marg. Eng. can make the Word ſignify without wrangling. The Gen. have without judging, and this valuable Note on it, And examining things with extreme rigour as hypocrites (according to the next) who only juſtify themſelves, and condemnè all others.

Ver. 18. by] Weſl. for.

Ver. 3. aſk amiſs] Diogenes blamed Men about their Prayers, that they aſked for Things which ſeemed good to them, and not for thoſe that were really ſo, D. Laert. in his Life.

Ib. ſpend] Weſl. expend.

4. Adulterers and Adultereſſes, do ye not know, that the Friendſhip of the World is Enmity to God? Whoever therefore would be a Friend of the World, is made an Enemy of God.

5. Do ye think that the Scripture ſays in vain, The Spirit which dwells in us longs towards Envy.

6. But he gives greater Grace: therefore it ſays, God oppoſes the proud, but gives Grace to the humble ones.

7. Be ſubject therefore to God; reſiſt the Devil, and he will flee from you.

8. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you: cleanſe the Hands, O Sinners; and purify the Hearts, you Double-minded.

9. Be ſorrowful, lament and weep; let your Laughter be turned into Lamentation, and Joy into Sadneſs.

10. Be humble before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

11. Do not ſpeak one againſt another, Brethren: he who ſpeaks againſt a Brother, and judges his Brother, ſpeaks againſt the Law, and judges that; whereas if thou judgeſt the Law, thou art not a Doer of it, but a Judge.

12. There is one Law-giver, who can ſave and deſtroy: who art thou that judgeſt another?

13. Come now you that ſay, To Day or to Morrow we will go into ſuch a City, and be employed there a Year, and merchandiſe, and gain;

14. Who know not what will be to Morrow: for what is your Life? It is even a Vapour that appears for a little while, and then vaniſhes away.

15. On the contrary you ſhould ſay, If the Lord will, and we ſhall live, and do this or that.

16. Whereas now you glory in your Bragging: all ſuch Glorying is wicked.

17. To him therefore who knows how to do well, and does not, it is Sin.

CHAP. V.

COME now, rich ones, weep and wail, for your Miſeries that are coming on.

2. Your Riches are rotten, and your Cloaths become moth-eaten;

3. Your Gold and Silver is ruſted, and their Ruſt will be for a Teſtimony to you, and eat your Fleſh as Fire: you have treaſured up for the laſt Days.

4. Behold the Wages of the Workmen, who reaped your Fields, kept back by you cries out; and the Cries of the Reapers are entered into the Ears of the Lord of Armies.

5. You have taken delight on the Earth, and been wanton; have nouriſhed your Hearts as on a Day of Slaughter.

6. You have condemned, have killed the Righteous One; who does not oppoſe you.

7. Bear long therefore, Brethren, till the Coming of the Lord: behold a Huſbandman waits for the precious Fruit of the Earth, and bears long for it, till he receives the early and late Rain.

8. Do ye alſo bear long, eſtabliſh your Hearts; ſince the Coming of the Lord draws near.

Ver. 4. and Adultereſſes] four Verſions being without this, Mills ſays, And ſo without all Doubt the Apoſtle, he following Eſtius a Popiſh Writer, and the Vulg. being one of thoſe; when Adulterers might be depoſed by the greater Authority of two very ancient noted Copies.

Ver. 5. towards] But by Weſt. againſt; which is taking great Liberty indeed, to turn both the Meaning of the Gr. Word, and the Senſe of the Paſſage, ſo contrary.

Ver. 6. it ſays] What he?

Ib. God oppoſes &c.] from the Septuagint, Pro. 3. 34. only with God inſtead of The Lord.

Ver. 11. againſt] ſo the Gr. and not evil.

Ib. judges his Brother] in what the Law allows, which makes the following clear.

Ib. his] which the Gr. has here.

Ver. 12. Lawgiver] Some increaſe it with and Judge; to ſuit perhaps with deſtroy, as they imagined the other did only with ſave.

Ver. 13. be employed] Gr. do, as in Ver. 15, 17. not continue.

Ver. 14. Who] not Whereas.

Ver. 17. how to do] perhaps came from the Margin, Mills writes, Pr. 1487. for the Abſence of it in two Copies and a Tranſ.

Ver. 4. kept back] by fraud added by the Tranſlators.

Ver. 5. taken delight] Young in The Cent. not Fab. Let. 2. writes, None can deny that the Love of Pleaſure is the Root of every Crime. Theft, Murder, Perjury, are a few of its fatal Fruits; nor the worſt. I ſuppoſe he had his Eye on Infidelity before. A few Pages after he has, Pleaſure is in ſome Sort more pernicious than direct Vice, &c.

Ib. as on a Day of Slaughter] ſeems Commentary, not Text, with Mills, only for being not in the Ethiop. which Tranſ. eſpecially may in ſome Places be reckoned an Abridgment.

Ib. Slaughter] Weſt. ſacrifice, tho' ſcarce ſignified by the Gr. Word.

Ver. 5, 6. Pleaſure and Infidelity reciprocally generate each other, Young's Centaur not Fabulous, Let. 1.

Ver. 6. Righteous One] the ſame as in Acts iii. 14.

Ib. who does not oppoſe you] but lets you go on in your own Ways, as we ſay, which removes the Difficulty that ſome have found in it.

Ver. 7. Rain] ſome Reader added, being ignorant that the former and late is ſaid of the Fruit of the Earth, writes Mills; but how feeble is the Foundation of this Criticiſm, its not being in two Verſions and a Copy or two, and the Uſe of thoſe Epithets with Fruit ſo rare!

9. Repine not one at another, Brethren leſt you ſhould be condemned: behold the Judge ſtands before the Door.

10. Take, my Brethren, for an Example of ſuffering harm, and bearing long, the Prophets, who ſpoke in the Name of the Lord.

11. Behold we count them bleſſed who endure. You have heard of the Patience of Job, and ſeen the End from the Lord, that he is very pitiful, and merciful.

12. But before all Things elſe, my Brethren, do not ſwear, neither by Heaven, nor by Earth, nor by any other Oath; but let Yes for you be Yes, and No for you be No, that you may not fall under Condemnation.

13. Does any one among you ſuffer harm? Let him pray: is any one chearful? Let him ſing praiſe.

14. Is any one ſick among you? Let him call thither the Elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, as alſo anoint him with Oil in the Name of the Lord.

15. And the Prayer of Faith will ſave him who is ill, and the Lord will raiſe him up; nay if he has committed Sins, it will be forgiven him.

16. Confeſs Offences one to another, and pray for one another, that you may be cured: the operating Supplication of a righteous Perſon is of much Force.

17. Elias was a Man affected like us, and he prayed with a Petition that it might not rain; and it did not rain on the Earth, three Years and ſix Months.

18. Then he prayed again, and the Heaven gave Rain, as alſo the Earth yielded forth its Fruit.

19. Brethren, if any one among you err from the Truth, and one convert him;

20. Let him know, that he who converts a Sinner from the Error of his Ways, will ſave a Soul from Death, and cover a Multitude of Sins.

Ver. 10. ſuffering harm and bearing long] To theſe have been added Labour and Patience, which the vulg. Lat. retains, having dropped the other and right Meaning of the Greek Words, as our Tranſ. has done with the laſt of them.

Ver. 12. before all] Why ſuch a Charge, but becauſe Swearing would be generally allowed and promoted, among the Profeſſors of Chriſtianity?

Ver. 15. it will] viz. the committing Sins, this Verb being ſingular.

Ver. 16. operating] Whitby ſays, Gr. inſpiring.

Ver. 20. a Soul] Some have his Soul.

NOTES

NOTES upon the First Epistle of PETER.

CHAP. I.

PETER, an Apostle of Jesus Christ; to the chosen Foreigners, dispersed in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

2. According to the Foreknowledge of God the Father, by Sanctification of the Spirit to Obedience, and Sprinkling of the Blood of Jesus Christ. Grace to you, and Peace be increased.

3. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ be blessed, who according to his great Mercy has begotten us again to a living Hope, through the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the Dead;

4. To an Inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and unfading, reserved in Heaven for you:

5. Who are kept in the Power of God through Faith, to the Salvation that is prepared to be revealed at the last Time.

6. At which you are joyful, though now a little while (if it is needful) grieved by various Temptations;

7. That the Proving of your Faith, which is much more precious than that of Gold, which perishes, notwithstanding it is proved by Fire, may be found to Praise, Honour and Glory, at the Revelation of Jesus Christ:

8. Whom, not beholding, you love; through whom, not now seeing, yet you believe, and are joyful with inexpressible and glorious Joy:

9. And do receive the End of your Faith, the Salvation of Souls.

10. Concerning which Salvation the Prophets sought after, and searched out, who prophesied about the Grace there would be to you:

11. And searched in relation to whom, or what Time, the Spirit of Christ declared in them, which testified before the Sufferings belonging to Christ, and the Glories after them.

12. To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us, they might minister those Things, which now have been told you, by them that preached to you, with the Holy Spirit sent from Heaven; into which Things the Angels desire to look.

13. Therefore gird up the Loins of your Mind, be sober, hope perfectly for the Grace to be brought to you, at the Revelation of Jesus Christ:

14. As obedient Children, not fashioned to the Desires before in your Ignorance.

15. But according as he who called you is holy, do ye your selves also be holy in all Conversation:

16. Because it is written, Be you holy; since I am holy.

17. And if you call on the Father, who without Respect of Persons judges according to each one's Work, be you conversant in Fear the Time of your Sojourning:

18. Since you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible Things, with Silver or Gold, from your vain Conversation, delivered by the Fathers;

19. But with the precious Blood of Christ, as a Lamb without Blemish and Stain;

20. Who was foreknown indeed before the founding of the World, but made manifest in the last Times for you:

Tit. Epistle] computed to be written in the Beginning of the Vulgar Year 61, Mills, Prol.

Ver. 1. chosen Foreigners] The Gr. Word for chosen stands as here, and not in the next Ver. which Wall complains of.

Ver. 2. by Sanctification of the Spirit] The great Principle of all true Obedience, Whitby's Annot..

Ver. 5. in the Power] agreeable to Eph. vi. 10. 1 Thes. i. 5. 1 Cor. iv. 20.

Ib. Salvation] By having a Comma here in the com. Transf. and in the Bish. Bib. before, it is they were ready to be revealed, which the Gr. Participle being plur. and fem. does not admit of.

Ib. prepared] for ready may be mistaken to mean about.

Ver. 7. Revelation] thus the Gr. and as in Ver. 13.

Ver. 8. love] with Polycarp and Irenæus believe; see the next.

Ib. through whom, not now seeing] omitted in Polycarp, Irenæus, the Syriack, all ancient; but the latter might follow them, and they quote not strictly, because differently. Yet Mills proclaims both this and the preceding to be genuine, Pr. 285, 499.

Ver. 13. perfectly] So the Eng. Marg. tells us the Gr. is.

Ver. 16. Be you] Some You shall be, as it appears from the Sept.

Ver. 18. or] not and.

Ver. 20. foreknown] for so is the Signification of the Original; and now translated every where else, see in Acts xxvi. 5. Rom. viii. 29. & xi. 2. 2 Pet. iii. 17. and its Derivative, Ch, i. 2. Acts ii. 23. and thus I see since here by Wesley.

21. That

21. That by him believe in God, who raiſed him from the Dead, and gave him Glory; ſo that your Faith and Hope ſhould be in God.

22. Since you have purified your Souls, through Obedience of the Truth by the Spirit, to unaffected brotherly Friendſhip; love one another earneſtly from a pure Heart:

23. As you are born again, not from corruptible Seed, but incorruptible, by the Word of God, that lives and remains for ever.

24. Becauſe all Fleſh is as Graſs, and all the Glory of Man as the Bloſſom of it. The Graſs withers, and the Bloſſom of it falls off;

25. But the Word of the Lord endures for ever. And this is the Word preached to you.

CHAP. II.

PUT away therefore all Miſchief, with all Deceit, Hypocriſies, Envyings, and all Diſparagings;

2. And deſire as new-born Infants, the ſincere Milk of the Word, that you may grow by it:

3. Foraſmuch as you have taſted, that the Lord is kind.

4. To whom the Living Stone, rejected indeed by Men, but choſen, precious with God, when you come;

5. Your ſelves alſo, as living Stones, are built a ſpiritual Houſe, a holy Prieſthood, to offer up ſpiritual Sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jeſus Chriſt.

6. Therefore it is alſo contained in the Scripture, Behold I lay in Sion a chief corner Stone, choſen, precious; and he who believes on him ſhall not be aſhamed.

7. To you therefore that believe it is an Honour: nay to the Diſobedient, the ſame Stone which the Builders rejected is become the Head of the Corner;

8. As likewiſe a tripping Stone, and a ſtumbling Rock; ſince thoſe that ſtumble at the Word are diſobedient, to which alſo they have been put.

9. Whereas you are a choſen Race, a royal Prieſthood, a holy Nation, a People obtained; that you may publiſh the Virtues of him, who has called you out of Darkneſs, into his wonderful Light:

10. Who once were not a People, but now the People of God: who were not had compaſſion upon, but now are.

11. Beloved, I beſeech, as Sojourners and Foreigners, refrain from fleſhly Luſts, which make war againſt the Soul:

12. And have your Converſation well among the Gentiles; that in what they ſpeak againſt you as thoſe who do Evil, they may by looking on the good Works, glorify God in the Day of Viſitation.

13. Be ſubject therefore to every human Magiſtrate, for the Lord's ſake: whether to the King, as being above;

14. Or to Governors, as ſent by him, for the Puniſhment indeed of them that do ill, and the Praiſe of thoſe who do well.

15. Since ſo is the Will of God, in doing well to ſtop the Ignorance of fooliſh Men:

16. As being free, and not having the Freedom as a Cloak of Wickedneſs, but as the Servants of God.

17. Reſpect all. Love the Brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

Ver. 21. ſo that] which the Gr. ſignifies.

Ver. 22. the Truth] In the com. Lat. Charity, veritatis ſome how ſhifting into charitatis.

Ib. unaffected] the Vulg. not having, Mills declares is Comment from Rom. xii. 9. or elſewhere; which I am ſure we are not bound to believe.

Ver. 24. Man] by ſome it, which Mills deems ours a marginal Expoſition of, although the Sept. have Man, Iſa. xl. 6. but this it is eaſy to ſee they made conformable to the Heb.

Ver. 2. grow by it] ſeveral with the Vulg. ſubjoin to Salvation, which Mills diſapproves of to be genuine, ſince ſuch might be put in, not left out; ſee beſides his Note Pro. 594, 647.

Ver. 3. Foraſmuch as] So in 2 Theſ. i. 6.

Ib. kind] The Gr. Word being Chreſtos, ſome have Chriſtos, Chriſt.

Ver. 5. living] as in the Ver. before.

Ib. The latter ſpiritual ſeemed to Mills to have crept from the Marg. though with all but the Syr. Tranſ. Pr. 1255.

Ver. 6. choſen] the ſame as in Ver. 4.

Ver. 7. an Honour] a Subſtantive ſo ſignifying, and a proper Antitheſis to aſhamed.

Ib. the ſame Stone &c.] to the End of our Ver. being only not in the Syriack, Grotius writes it was brought hither from Mat. xxi. 42. and does not belong to this Place; his imagining the latter being with him a Reaſon for the former.

Ib. is become] How, it may be aſked, to the Diſobedient? I anſwer, By their being convinced it was ſo.

Ver. 8. put] as the Gr. is, and even Beza tranſlates it: Caſtalio, from the other's rightly adviſing, as he ſays, the foregoing ſhould be turned, not obeying that to which they were, argues that the Verb belongs but to obeying, producing Luke vii 30. for it: but perhaps this is more ingenious, than right: nor is there Neceſſity for it, ſince put might not be by God, or elſe as in the Caſe of Pharaoh, Exod. ix. 16. or rather may belong to Word, not to diſobedient, which latter may be conſidered as in a Parentheſis. Ham. and Whit. labour alſo ineffectually at ſome good Meaning,

Ver. 9. Virtues] ſo Doddr.

Ver. 12. in what] as Ch. iii. 16. where ſee.

Ver. 13. Magiſtrate] Gr. Creature, or one created; ſo concurrent with King, &c.

Ver. 16. Wickedneſs] and Weſt. thus.

Ver. 17. Reſpect] If this was the ſame as to the King, the King would be included in all.

18. Servants, be ſubject to Maſters in all Reverence, not only to the good and gentle, but alſo to the froward.

19. For this is of Favour if any one for Conſcience to God endure Grief, when he ſuffers unjuſtly.

20. For what is the Glory, if when you are beat on doing amiſs, you bear it? But if when you ſuffer on doing well, you bear it, this is of Favour with God.

21. For to this you were called; ſince Chriſt alſo ſuffered for us, and left to us a Pattern, that you ſhould follow after his Steps:

22. Who did not commit Sin, nor was there Deceit found in his Mouth:

23. Who when he was railed at, did not rail again; when he ſuffered, did not threaten, but yielded up to him that judges juſtly:

24. Who himſelf carried up our Sins in his Body on the Tree, that as we were dead to Sins, we might be alive to Righteouſneſs; by whoſe Wheals you were healed.

25. For you were as Sheep that went aſtray; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overſeer of your Souls.

CHAP. III.

IN like Manner, Wives be ſubject to your Huſbands; that if any are diſobedient to the Word, they may, even without it, be gained by the Converſation of the Wives;

2. As they look on your chaſte Converſation in Reverence:

3. Whoſe Adorning let it not be outward, of plaiting the Hair, putting on of Gold, or wearing of Cloaths;

4. But the hidden Perſon of the Heart, in the incorruptible one of a meek and ſtill Spirit, which is valuable before God.

5. For ſo formerly alſo holy Women, who hoped in God, dreſſed themſelves; and were ſubject to their Huſbands:

6. As Sara obeyed Abraham, and called him Lord: whoſe Daughters you are in doing well, and not fearing any Conſternation.

7. Let the Huſbands in like Manner live together according to Knowledge, and render Reſpect to the Wife as a weaker Veſſel, as being alſo Heirs together of the Grace of Life; for your Prayers not to be hindered.

8. Finally, be all alike minded, be affected together, be in brotherly Friendſhip, compaſſionate, courteous:

9. And not render Evil for Evil, or Railing for Railing, but on the contrary Bleſſing; as you know that you were called to this, that you ſhould inherit Bleſſing.

10. For he who would love Life, and ſee good Age; let him make his Tongue ceaſe from Evil, and his Lips not ſpeak Deceit;

11. Let him turn aſide from Evil, and do Good; ſeek Peace, and purſue it.

12. Since the Eyes of the Lord are on the Righteous, and his Ears towards their Supplications; but the angry Countenance of the Lord is on them that do Evil.

Ver. 18. froward] The Vulg. Lat. has it by a Gr. Word, and not the ſame that is in the Original, which the Rhemiſh Tranſlators render waiward, and Nary froward, which might nearer be difficult or croſs. Mills ſuppoſes that was the right Word; perhaps it was in ſome Copy, but muſt all now give way to it? Yet that Tranſlator might put dyſcolis, a Word of like Import, to avoid the double Vowel in ſcoliis, or ſome other might afterwards.

Ver. 20. of Favour] the ſame with that in the Ver. before.

Ver. 21. ſuffered for us, and left to us] Notwithſtanding a few Copies have you for us both times, and others fewer, with which is the Vulg. inſtead of the latter; ſince Mills ſticks to the Received, giving good Reaſon for it, we may be ſecure therein.

Ver. 23. judges juſtly] Vulg. judged him unjuſtly, viz. Pilate; but as neither the Original Copies, nor Mills admit it, Pr. 594. the Roman Catholicks may keep it to themſelves.

Ver. 24. Wheals] the Marks made on the Fleſh by Whipping.

Ver. 1. Converſation] by Weſt. deportment.

Ver. 3. outward] an Adverb.

Ver. 4. incorruptible] viz. Adorning, Ver. 3.

Ver. 5. who hope] viz. holy Women indefinitely, the Gr. being in the pref. Tenſe, and is, I think, a fine Elegancy.

Ib. who hope in God] Mills ſuſpected for not being in the Eth. only.

Ver. 6. Conſternation] according as our Tranſlators turn its Verb terrified, Luke xxi. 9. & xxiv. 37. where theſe Words only occur.

Ver. 7. Reſpect] Doddr. deſcribes τιμη as ſignifying Subſiſtence or Maintenance to be fully confirmed by Tim. v. 17. yet renders it there Honour himſelf; and here allotting an honourable Subſiſtence to the Woman, as if they were to live apart.

Ib. hindered] Though divers have this, and Mills is for it, yet he puts cut off in the Text as the general Reading, which I doubt not is the right, for two more Reaſons; 1. Becauſe κκ being unuſual is much likelier to be altered to γκ that is common, than the contrary; 2. For that cut off does not ſeem ſo eaſy a Senſe, and who would change it into harder? I may add, that fruſtrated, according to the extenſive Signification both of the Heb. and Gr. Words for cutting off, would make an agreeable Meaning.

Ver. 8. courteous] The Vulg. has it double modeſt, humble, the latter to explain the other, and then the former was left out of ſome Copies, according to Mills in Not. and Pr. 594. if not rather, to do the Vulg. Juſtice, that was made from the two Readings.

Ver. 10. Age] agreeable to Pſa. xxxiv. 12. from whence it is quoted.

Ver. 12. on them] on being here the ſame as before in the Gr. ſo that the Difference may be betweeen Eyes and Countenance; the latter being taken for Anger in the Heb. Manner according to Beza, noting for and the other againſt.

13. And

13. And who will hurt you, if you are Imitators of Good?

14. Nay if you alſo ſuffer for Righteouſneſs, you are bleſſed: ſo do not fear as they do, nor be troubled.

15. But ſacredly reverence the Lord God in your Hearts; and be prepared always for a Defence, to every one that aſks you for the Reaſon concerning the Hope in you, with Meekneſs and Awe;

16. And have a good Conſcience; that in what they ſpeak againſt you as thoſe who do Evil, they may be aſhamed that moleſt your good Converſation in Chriſt.

17. For it is better if that would be the Will of God, to ſuffer by doing well, than doing ill.

18. Since Chriſt alſo ſuffered once for Sins, the Righteous One for the Unrighteous; that he might bring us to God, as he was put to death indeed in the Fleſh, but made to live in the Spirit:

19. In which alſo he went, and preached to the Spirits in Priſon;

20. Who were formerly diſobedient, when God's Forbearance once waited in the Days of Noe, when the Ark was making ready, in which few (that is eight) Perſons were kept ſafe by the Water.

21. Whoſe Model Baptiſm does alſo now ſave us, not the putting away the Filth of the Fleſh, but the Demand of a good Conſcience to God, by the Reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt:

22. Who is at the right Hand of God, gone into Heaven, and Angels, Authorities, and Powers are ſubject to him.

CHAP. IV.

CHRIST therefore having ſuffered for us in the Fleſh, be you alſo armed with the ſame Mind: ſince he who has ſuffered in the Fleſh, has ceaſed from Sin:

Ver. 13. Imitators] By ſome Emulators or Zealous, Mills believed from Tit. ii. 14.

Ver. 16. in what] the ſame as in Ver. 19. Ch. iv. 4.

Ib. as thoſe who do Evil] being not in the old Lat. Mills after Eſtius, ſuppoſes it came from Ch. ii. 12. but is not it likelier Peter uſed his own Phraſe in this, as well as that in what they ſpeak againſt you?

Ver. 18. ſuffered] died in the Vulg. at the Will of the Tranſlator; ſee Mills Pr. 594.

Ver. 19. he went] not by any local Motion, but by the Manifeſtation and Power of his Spirit. See Chap. iv. 14. Gen. vi. 3. Aſſembly's Annot. and ſee the like Eph. ii. 17.

Ib. preached to] as Gen. vi. 3. and alſo by Noah, 2 Epiſt. ii. 5. according to Hammond's Paraph. but more notably and largely in Whitby's Annot.

Ib. the Spirits in Priſon] This is the 4th and laſt of the Texts that Edwards made a Book of Enquiry into, and has handled the worſt and moſt improbably of all, interpreting this Preaching of Chriſt to be after his Aſcenſion by his Apoſtles, p. 249. though Calvin having expounded it of Chriſt's aſcending into Heaven (as more do of his deſcending into Hell) Edwards ſays, The main Thing which hinders my Aſſent to his Interpretation is this, that the Words have relation to Noah's Days, and the particular People of that Time, p. 235. but he has a Salvo for his own Scheme, though it might be applied alſo to Calvin's and others, if it would bear applying to any, that the People in the Apoſtles Days may be ſaid to be ſometime diſobedient, becauſe they are included in their Forefathers. Or rather this may be meant of the former Lives and Manners of thoſe individual Perſons who then lived, p. 239. if he had ſaid of Mankind it would have been a little more plauſible, for it could not be before Noah's Flood of thoſe individual Perſons who lived in the Apoſtles Days; and ſenſible himſelf, we may ſuppoſe, that this would not hold, he relinquiſhes it for the Addition of as before when in the next Verſe, which may do the Buſineſs, if granted; but it is very unlike the Inſtances which he produces for it: there is indeed ſome Reſemblance of Colour in as, but the Matter is quite different; for to mention one of them, Flee a Bird, Pſa. xi. 1. who can miſs of underſtanding as there? And how can it mean otherwiſe in ſuch Caſes? But let any give a parallel one to this.

Having ſet aſide his Interpretation, as he has others, the foregoing will ſtand confirmed, that theſe Spirits in Priſon were the Antediluvians, as Grotius alſo and divers others held: whether it is meant they were Spirits in Priſon when living, or now dead, is of leſs Conſideration; and thoſe who underſtand this Paſſage of Chriſt's preaching to them then, do, I think, take them for ſuch at that Time, of which ſee Whitby; yet if the latter Senſe be likewiſe included, the Expreſſion may be more fully accounted for, according to 2 Pet. ii. 4, 5.

Ib. in Priſon] The famous Commentator Nicholas de Lyra, in his 4th Vol. on the Scripture, which I have, printed ſo early as 1497 at Nuremburg (an Edition that I find neither in Mattaire's Annals of Printing, nor the Harleian Catal.) expounds this, legati conſuetudine peccandi, &c. bound by the Cuſtom of ſinning, according to that of Prov. v. 22.

Ver. 20. God's Forbearance—waited] Vulg. they waited for God's Patience, quite contrary to the Mind of the Apoſtle, ſays Mills, Pr. 595. and I don't find upheld by any Copy or other Verſion.

Ver. 21. Model] figure, in the Senſe uſed by our Tranſlators, appearing old; and Reſemblance, ſignifying Likeneſs, with Emblem, obſcure Likeneſs, not ſuiting well. It would likewiſe be odd to render the Gr. antitypon by Type, which alſo does not ſeem ſo proper either at Heb. ix. 24. or here, where the Word only is. But Model, a little Mode or Pattern will agree well in both. And if the Meaning of anti is taken ſeparately, it is contrary to, or oppoſite, not like. The particular ſaving of a Perſon by Baptiſm may rightly be a Model of the general at the Flood.

Ib. ſave us] agreeable to Tit. iii. 5. Iſa. iv. 4. & xlv. 22. Jer. iv. 14. Prov. xxviii. 18. Mark xvi. 16. 1 Pet. i. 22. Heb. ix. 13, 14.

Ib. Demand] or Enquiry, not anſwer, from the Verb to aſk, or aſk for; and according to Job x. 6. John iii. 20, 21. Eph. v. 13. as Noah's Water ſaved ſome, and drowned others.

Ib. By the Reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt] which introduced the ſpiritual Baptiſm, Acts i. 5.

Ver. 22. God] The Vulgate inſerts, ſwallowing Death, that we might be made Heirs of everlaſting Life; but unſupported by ſufficient Authority of the Greek.

Ver. 1. ſuffered in] This Gr. Prep. a few are without, for whom Mills pleads, becauſe the foregoing is not inſerted; which affords a contrary Reaſon to me, that Somebody left it out here to be like the other. As for his ſaying the very Senſe and Arguing of the Apoſtle indicates it, Pr. 984. he has left out informing us how, with an Amuſement of Words,

Ib. ſuffered in the Fleſh] to the Death of the fleſhly or carnal Part, as oppoſed to the ſpiritual, and as in Rom. vi. 6, 7. to agree with this before and after.

2. For

2. For him to live the reſt of the Time in the Fleſh, no more to the Luſts of Men, but to the Will of God.

3. Since the Time paſt of Life was ſufficient for us to work the Will of the Gentiles, when we went in Wantonneſs, Luſts, Exceſs of Wine, Revelling, Drinking, and unlawful Idolatries:

4. In which they think it ſtrange, and ſpeak evil, that you do not run together into the ſame extravagant Luxury;

5. Thoſe that will render Account to him who is ready to judge the Living and Dead.

6. For there was preaching to the Dead alſo for this, that they might be judged indeed according to Men in the Fleſh, but live according to God in the Spirit.

7. But the End of all Things draws near; be therefore ſober, and watch to Prayer:

8. Before all Things having alſo earneſt Love to each other; ſince Love will cover a Multitude of Sins.

9. Be hoſpitable one to another without Murmuring:

10. Every one according as he has received a Gift, miniſtring to each other, as good Stewards of the various Grace of God.

11. If any one ſpeak, let it be as the Oracles of God; if any one miniſter, as from the Might which God ſupplies: that in all Things God may be glorified, through Jeſus Chriſt; to whom there is Glory and Strength for evermore: ſo let it be.

12. Beloved, do not think ſtrange of the Burning in you, made for your Trial, as a ſtrange Thing come to paſs on you.

13. But rejoice, as you are Partakers of Chriſt's Sufferings; that at the Revelation of his Glory, you may alſo rejoice for Joy.

14. If you are reproached for the Name of Chriſt, you are bleſſed; ſince the Spirit of Glory and of God refreſhes you: according to them indeed he is ſpoken evil of, but according to you he is glorified.

15. For let none of you ſuffer as a Murderer, or Thief, or Criminal, or as a Spy over others;

16. But if as a Chriſtian, let him not be aſhamed, but glorify God in this Reſpect:

17. Becauſe the Time is for Judgment to begin at the Houſe of God; and if firſt at us, what will be the End of them that diſobey the Goſpel of God?

18. And if a righteous one will ſcarce be ſaved, where will an impious one and a Sinner appear?

19. So then let them alſo who ſuffer according to the Will of God, commit their Souls in doing well, as to a faithful Creator.

Ver. 2. To live] The Gr. Verb being infinitive, without any he, which appears ill applied to Chriſt in the com. Tranſ. ſee Gell in Eſſay, p. 432.

Ver. 3. of Life——for us] Mills writes were both inſerted for Clearneſs, Pr. 1209. when ſo unlikely, ſince it would have been clear enough without, though not ſo full; and but few Copies omit them, with three Verſions.

Ib. we went] But the Vulg. has is ſufficient for thoſe who have walked, which Wall affirms is the true reading, and has moſt authority from copies, and from fathers, though it does not appear any Copy has it (unleſs he impoſes on us by meaning the Lat. ones of the Vulg.) or that he knew of any ſuch Father; three or four Copies indeed have a Part. of the preſ. Tenſe, which might rather belong to the Gentiles, but that is not what he ſays.

Ver. 4. evil] by adding you, the who following may ſeem to belong to it, which the Gr. ſhews it does not.

Ver. 5. Thoſe that] who alone leaving it doubtful of which this is ſpoken.

Ver. 6. there was preaching to the Dead] as Caſtalio renders it, writing in the Marg. This Place I don't underſtand, and therefore tranſlate literally; yet I ſee no Difficulty in this Part, though our Tranſlators miſapprehended it to put are dead, as if bodily dead when Peter wrote it, inſtead of ſpiritually dead when they were preached to; for this latter Senſe read Whitby, with Edwards's Enquiry, p. 246. who ſays it hath mightily puzzled Expoſitors, and Tyndal in his 2d Edit. 1534. has the following Note on it; The dead are the ignorant of God, Lewis's Hiſt. of Tranſ. p. 85.

Ib. according to Men] viz. as ſuch Men in a natural State, condemned for their Evils, which might be illuſtrated by other Scriptures: ſo I underſtand it, nor have found any great Operoſity in the ſame; notwithſtanding I find Wall ſaying, how to fit the Words hardly any one knows. Beza tried at explaining, Grotius tried, and Hammond. It is hard to gueſs what κατὰ ἀνθρώπους (according to Men) ſtands here for, Crit. Notes. As for the Meaning which Hammond, Edwards and Whitby concur in, that to be judged according to Men in the Fleſh, ſignifies for them to mortify their own Fleſh, &c. I look upon to be forced beſide what the Words will bear.

Ver. 8. to each other] juſt as in Ver. 10.

Ver. 11. there is] ſo the Gr. therefore not be as elſewhere.

Ver. 12. Burning] as Weſt. alſo tranſlates; ſee 1 Cor. iii. 13, 15, 16.

Ib. in you] omitted in the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 14. Glory] I may mention that there are Books which have put in, and of Power.

Ib. and] Wall ſays, It is natural to ſurmiſe that the καὶ τὸ has been put in by Scribes, and that the Words ſhould be, or at leaſt the Senſe is, The Spirit of God's Glory. What ſhall be done with ſuch Criticks? How do they weaken their Credit in other Things that are right!

Ib. refreſhes] thus tranſlated, 1 Cor. xvi. 18. 2 Cor. vii. 13. Philem. 7, 20.

Ib. according to them &c.] As far as the End of the Ver. is not in four Copies, with that Number of Tranſlations, and ſome Writers, which therefore Mills ſays ſeems imported from ſome Gloſs. Raſh Judgment!

Ver. 15. Spy over] being elſewhere rendered Overſeer or Biſhop. The Liet. Covetor and Eng. buſy-body may go together, for Something of the Tranſlators deviſing; of the former ſee Mills, Pro. 597.

Ver. 16. Reſpect] The Vulg. and ſeveral others have Name; but ſee Mills in Prol. 595, better than 924, referred to by Kuſter.

Ver. 17. By Barton in Verſe, for Want of better, though ſome of his beſt,

The Time is come that Judgment muſt
At God's own Houſe begin:
And if it firſt attack the Juſt,
What Caſe are Sinners in? Hymn 93.

CHAP. V.

THE Elders among you I exhort, who am an Elder too, and a Witneſs of the Sufferings of Chriſt, who ſhall alſo be a Partaker of the Glory to be revealed hereafter;

2. Feed the Flock of God among you, and overlook not conſtrainedly, but willingly; not for filthy Gain, but readily;

3. Nor as though you were Lords over the Inheritance, but become Repreſentatives of the Flock.

4. And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive an unfading Crown of Glory.

5. In like Manner, younger ones, be ſubject to the elder; nay all being ſubject one to another, wear Humility: ſince God oppoſes the proud, but gives Grace to the humble ones.

6. Be humble therefore under the mighty Hand of God, that he may exalt you in Time:

7. And caſt all your Care upon him, becauſe he takes care concerning you.

8. Be ſober, watch; ſince your Adverſary the Devil, as a roaring Lion, goes about, ſeeking whom he may devour:

9. Whom reſiſt, being ſolid in Faith; as you know the ſame Sufferings to be accompliſhed on your Brotherhood in the World.

10. Now the God of all Grace, who has called us to his everlaſting Glory in Chriſt Jeſus, when you have ſuffered a little while, compleat you himſelf, eſtabliſh, enable, fix:

11. To him be Glory and Might, for evermore: ſo let it be.

12. By Silvanus, a faithful Brother to you (as I think) have I written by reaſon of a few Things; and exhort, as alſo bear witneſs, that this is the true Grace of God in which you ſtand.

13. She at Babylon choſen together ſalutes you, and Mark my Son.

14. Salute one another with a Kiſs of Love. Peace be to you all who are in Chriſt Jeſus: ſo let it be.

Ver. 1. who ſhall] as juſt before, not and.

Ver. 2. and overlook] The Conſent of Copies ſcarce hindered Mills, as he ſays, from counting this a marginal Gloſs, being not in two only, Pr. 1502.

Ib. overlook] by Doddr. againſt, if not more for, Epiſcopacy, diſcharge the Epiſcopal Office.

Ib. willingly] There being added to it by the Vulg. and ſome, according to God, ſee Mills's Pr. 596, 598.

Ver. 3. Flock] to which is put in the Vulg. from the Mind or heartily, though only a Comment, Mills Pr. 596.

Ver. 5. being ſubject] a ſmall Number are without, and Somebody added Mills ſays for a Supplement, Pr. 1502. like which are Inſtances enow elſewhere.

Ib. but] as Jam. iv. 6.

Ver. 6. Time] of Viſitation with the Vulg. and ſeveral; for which I may ſend the Reader, if he wants Satisfaction, to the Note of Mills, and his Prol. 596, 801.

Ver. 8. goes about] See Job i. 7.

Ver. 12. by reaſon of a few Things] according to the Gr. Words; there being not ἐν but δι'.

Ver. 13. She] This has been taken to be Peter's Wife, or ſome other Woman, Wall ſuppoſes firſt by Mills: as on the contrary the Lady 2 John 1. is conjectured by Whitby to be ſome Church; ſo it may be beſt to render both juſt as they are.

NOTES upon the Second Epiſtle of PETER.

CHAP. I.

SIMON Peter, a Servant and Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt; to thoſe who have obtained the like precious Faith with us, by the Righteouſneſs of our God, and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt.

2. Grace and Peace be increaſed to you, by the Knowledge of God, and of Jeſus our Lord;

3. As all Things belonging to Life and Piety, are of his divine Power that is given us, through the Knowledge of him who has called us, by Glory and Virtue:

4. Whereby very great and precious Promiſes are given us; that by theſe you may become Partakers of the divine Nature, in fleeing from the Corruption in the World through Luſt.

5. Nay and by employing all Carefulneſs on this ſame, make a Supply in your Faith of Virtue, in this of Knowledge,

6. In this of Temperance, in this of Patience, in this of Piety,

7. In this of brotherly Friendſhip, and in this of Love.

8. For while theſe Things are in you, and increaſe, they will make you not idle, nor unfruitful in the Knowledge of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

9. And he in whom theſe Things are not preſent is blind, being ſhort-ſighted, and got unmindful of the Cleanſing of his Sins formerly.

10. Therefore rather, Brethren, be careful to make your Calling and Choice firm: for by doing theſe Things you will never offend.

11. For thus there will richly be furniſhed to you, an Entrance into the everlaſting Kingdom of our Lord, and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt.

12. Therefore I will not neglect to put you always in Remembrance concerning theſe Things, notwithſtanding your having known, and been eſtabliſhed in the preſent Truth.

13. Nay I eſteem it righteous, as long as I am in this Tabernacle, to ſtir you up in Remembrance:

14. Since I know that there will be a ſpeedy putting off my Tabernacle, according as our Lord Jeſus Chriſt alſo has made manifeſt to me.

15. So I will be careful too, that you may continually have, after my Deceaſe, the making mention of theſe Things.

16. For we did not follow after Fables cunningly made, when we made known to you the Power and Preſence of our Lord

---

Tit. Tyndal in his Prologe writes, The fyrſt Chapter ſheweth howe it ſhulde go in the tyme of the pure and true goſpell. The ſeconde how it ſhulde go in the tyme of the pope and mennes doctrine. The thyrde how at the laſt men ſhulde beleue no thyng ner feare God at all. A notable Obſervation, and may ſeem little leſs than prophetick, as the Name of Deiſm was ſcarce known then.

Ib. Epiſtle] Written anno 67, as Mills computes.

Ver. 1. the like precious] Vulg. equal, which Mills obſerves does expreſs but Part of the Gr. Word, Prol. 597.

Ib. our God] our in the laſt Eng. Tranſ. being inadvertently, it ſeems, placed wrong.

Ver. 3. all Things belonging &c.] Let any one try whether he can make the Greek otherwiſe, beſides all Things of his divine Power that is given us, belong to Life and Piety, which muſt be leſs eligible; bating however Beza's Diſtortion of it, as if the genitive Caſe was abſolute with as, and the paſſive Participle active, and governed an Object.

Ib. by Glory] the ſame by as before the Knowledge; and if διὰ be changed into ἰδίᾳ, as with a few, it will be, by his own Glory.

Ver. 4. are given] a Paſſive of the ſame Verb as that in the foregoing Verſe, which may indicate that one as well as the other is to be taken in its proper Signification.

Ver. 5. Nay] Here is Nothing for beſides, ſays Wall; but that for ſame ſeems wildly rendered ſo.

Ib. Virtue] Weſt. courage, following Doddr. in his Faſhion; whereas this might be general with ſome ſpecial Particulars after.

Jeſus Chriſt; but were Spectators of his Majeſty.

17. For he received from God the Father Honour and Glory, when ſuch a Voice was brought to him from the magnificent Glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am pleaſed.

18. And this Voice brought from Heaven we heard, when we were with him on the holy Mountain.

19. We alſo have a firmer Word of Prophecy; to which when you give heed ye do well, as to a Light that appears in an obſcure Place, till the Day dawns, and the Morning-ſtar riſes in your Hearts:

20. As you know this firſt, that there is not any Prophecy of the Scripture of its own Expoſition.

21. For Prophecy was not carried on formerly by the Will of Man, but holy Men of God ſpoke, as they were carried on by the Holy Spirit.

CHAP. II.

BUT there were alſo falſe Prophets among the People; as there will too be falſe Teachers among you, who will bring in Hereſies of Deſtruction, and denying the Lord who bought them, will bring to themſelves ſpeedy Deſtruction.

2. And many will follow after their deſtructive Things, through whom the Way of Truth will be ſpoken evil of.

3. Nay in Covetouſneſs with feigned Words they will make merchandice of you; for whom Judgment of old is not idle, and their Deſtruction does not ſlumber.

4. For if God did not ſpare the Angels that ſinned, but put them into Hell in Chains of Gloomineſs, and delivered up to be kept for Judgment;

5. And did not ſpare the ancient World, but preſerved Noe the eighth Perſon, a Preacher of Righteouſneſs, bringing the Flood to the World of the Impious;

6. Moreover reduced the Cities of Sodom and Gomorra to Aſhes, and condemned with an Overthrow, making an Example to them that ſhould afterwards do impiouſly;

7. And delivered righteous Lot, who was fatigued by the Ungodly in the Wantonneſs of Converſation;

8. (For the righteous Man by ſeeing and hearing, as he dwelt among them, tormented his righteous Soul, Day after Day, by the unlawful Deeds:)

9. The Lord knows how to deliver the Pious out of Temptations, and to keep the Unrighteous for the Day of Judgment to be puniſhed;

10. But eſpecially thoſe that go after the Fleſh in Luſt of Defilement, and deſpiſe Dominion, are daring, as alſo pleaſe themſelves, and fear not to ſpeak evil of the Honourable:

11. Where Angels, who are ſuperior in Might and Power, do not bring reviling Judgment againſt them with the Lord.

12. But

12. But these as irrational natural Brutes, made to be caught, and be corrupt, that speak evil of the Things in which they are ignorant, will perish in their Corruption;

13. And receive the Reward of Unrighteousness, as they esteem Pleasure in the Day to be Delight, are Stains and Faults, moreover sport in their Deceivings, when they feast with you:

14. Who have Eyes full of Adultery, and without resting from Sin, as also entice unsteady Souls, and have a Heart exercised in Covetings, are cursed Children;

15. That leaving the right Way, are gone astray, and follow after the Way of Balaam Son of Bosor, who loved the Reward of Unrighteousness.

16. But he had the Reproof of his own Iniquity; as the dumb Ass spoke with human Voice, and forbade the Madness of the Prophet.

17. These are Fountains without Water, Clouds driven by the Whirlwind, for whom the Gloom of Darkness is kept for ever.

18. For while they speak Things too haughty of Vanity, they entice in the Lusts of the Flesh by Wantonness, those who really escaped from them that were conversant in Error.

19. And promise those Liberty, when they themselves are Servants of Corruption; since to whom any one is brought under, to the same also he is become a Servant.

20. For if when they have escaped from the Pollutions of the World, by the Knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, yet they are again entangled with the same, and are brought under; the latter Things become worse to them than the former.

21. For it would have been better to them not to have known the Way of Righteousness, than when they knew to turn from the holy Commandment delivered to them.

22. But that of the true Proverb is come to pass with them; The Dog is turned to what he vomited himself, and the Sow that was washed into rolling about in the Dirt.

CHAP. III.

THIS second Epistle now, Beloved, I write to you, and in them stir up your sincere Mind in Remembrance;

2. To remember the Words said before by the holy Prophets, and the Commandment of us the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3. As you know this first, that Scoffers will come in the latter Days, who will go on according to their own Desires;

4. And say, Where is the Promise of his Coming? For since the Fathers have slept, all Things continue so as from the Beginning of the Creation.

5. For they are willing this should be concealed from them, that the Heavens were of old, and the Earth standing together out of the Water and through it, by the Word of God.

6. By which Things the World then, being overflowed with Water, perished.

7. But the Heavens and Earth now, by the same Word, are laid up in store, and kept for Fire to the Day of Judgment, and of the Destruction of impious Men.

8. However let not this one Thing be concealed from you, Beloved, that one Day is with the Lord as a thousand Years, and a thousand Years as one Day.

9. The Lord does not delay the Promise (as some think it Delaying) but is forbearing to us, as he is not willing any should perish, but all come to Repentance.

Ver. 12. natural] The Vulg. in this Manner, naturally to be catched, leaving out made; of which see Mills, Pr. 600. not cited as often by Kuster.

Ib. made] being not in the Vulg. and a Copy or two, Erasmus supposes added.

Ver. 13. Faults] in Society, or Company.

Ib. Deceivings] Wall is positive, after Hammond was suspicious, the Word should be as in Jude 12. but two or three Copies only and two Vers. seem too weak to support it.

Ver. 15. leaving] The Greek that abundantly uses Participles instead of Verbs, having three, sometimes four together, and in Heb. vi. 4, 5, 6. & xi. 13. five, as I observed, has this here the eighth.

Ver. 17. for ever] A few being deficient in, Mills, with Estius vindicating the Vulg. says it crept from Jude 13. Pr. 500.

Ver. 18. really] Vulg. and some a little.

Ver. 20. if] But three Books having they instead of this, Grotius writes that is the true Reading, as if the major Authority of Copies was Nothing.

Ver. 22. that of] not according to.

Ib. and the] not two Proverbs as in the com. Transl. or rather this but a Piece of one.

Ver. 1. This &c.] Elegantly in Gr. by Position thus, This now, Beloved, second to you I write Epistle; and in Eloquence Peter seems to exceed Paul himself.

Ib. in] I know not why our Translators changed this into by way of, and to the same added by putting you, Ch. i. 13.

Ver. 2. holy] Mills suspects was brought from Chap. iv. 21. of this Epist. meaning perhaps Ch. i. two Copies being destitute of it.

Ver. 3. according to] for after may signify otherwise, such as the Gr. does not allow of.

Ver. 4. Promise of] Vulg. Promise or; and I don't see how it was done so likely, as by mistaking the Gr. Article n before Promise to be behind it, which might then stand for or, without the Aspiration and Accent, as formerly written. The mere adding or with Mills, Pr. 500. labours under Improbability.

Ver. 6. which Things] plur. viz. the Water and the Heavens, Gen. vii. 11. with the Earth's standing so; if not also their Infidelity and wilful Ignorance, such as in the two foregoing Verses.

10. The

10. Yet the Day of the Lord will come as a Thief in the Night; in which the Heavens will paſs away with a Noiſe, nay the Elements be ſcorched, and demoliſhed, as alſo the Earth with the Works on it be burnt up.

11. Since all theſe Things then will be demoliſhed, what Sort of Perſons ought you to be, in holy Converſation and Piety;

12. Waiting for, and making haſte to the Coming of the Day of God, by which the Heavens will be on fire and be demoliſhed, as likewiſe the Elements be ſcorched and diſſolved!

13. Nevertheleſs according to his Promiſe, we wait for new Heavens and a new Earth, in which Righteouſneſs dwells.

14. Therefore, Beloved, as you wait for theſe, be careful to be found by him in Peace, without Stain and Blemiſh.

15. And eſteem our Lord's Forbearance to be Salvation; even as our beloved Brother Paul, according to the Wiſdom given him, has written to you;

16. As likewiſe in all the Epiſtles, who ſpeaks therein concerning theſe Things: wherein are ſome difficult to be underſtood, which the Unlearned and Unſteady twiſt, as alſo the reſt of the Scriptures, to their very own Deſtruction.

17. Since you therefore, Beloved, know before, take heed that in being taken away too by the Error of the Ungodly, you may not fall from your own Stedfaſtneſs.

18. But grow in Grace, and the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt; to him be Glory, both now, and to the everlaſting Day: ſo let it be.

Ver. 10. in the Night] Some have not, and therefore has been thought tranſcribed from 1 Theſ. v. ii. but Whit. ſays, there is no Cauſe why this ſhould not be joined to Thief here, as well as there, and Mat. xxiv. 23. Luke xii. 39.

Ver. 16. wherein] ſo ſeven Copies and two Verſions, but others among which viz. Things.

Ver. 17. Ungodly] old Lat. ſimple, as Mills may rightly ſuppoſe, from unlearned in the laſt Verſe, Pr. 600.

NOTES upon the First Epistle of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

WHAT was from the Beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our Eyes, what we have looked upon, and our Hands have felt concerning the Word of Life;

2. (Which Life has been made manifest, and as we have seen, we testify, and tell you of the everlasting Life, that was with the Father, and has been made manifest to us)

3. What we have seen and heard, we tell you, that you also may have Communion with us; and our Communion is even with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4. And these Things we write to you, that your Joy may be full.

5. Now this is the Message which we have heard from him, and rehearse to you, that God is Light, and there is not any Darkness in him.

6. If we say that we have Communion with him, and go in Darkness; we lye, and do not according to the Truth.

7. But if we go in the Light, as he is in the Light; we have Communion one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all Sin.

8. If we say that we have not Sin; we seduce our selves, and the Truth is not in us.

9. If we confess our Sins; he is faithful and righteous, to forgive us the Sins, and cleanse us from all Unrighteousness.

10. If we say that we have not sinned; we make him false, and his Word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

MY little Children, these Things I write to you, that ye may not sin; and if any one sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous;

2. And he is an Atonement for our Sins, nay not for ours only, but also for the whole World's.

3. And by this we are sensible that we know him, that it is if we keep his Commandments.

4. He that says, I know him, and does not keep his Commandments; is a Liar, and the Truth is not in him.

5. But he who keeps his Word; in him truly the Love of God is made perfect: by this we know that we are in him.

6. He that says he remains in him, ought himself also so to walk, as he did.

7. Brethren, I write not a new Commandment to you, but the old one which you have had from the Beginning: the old Commandment is the Word that you have heard ever since.

8. Again I write a new Commandment to you, which Thing is true both in him and you; because the Darkness is passed away, and the true Light already shines.

9. He that says he is in the Light, and hates his Brother, is in Darkness till now.

10. He who loves his Brother, remains in the Light, and there is not Offence in him.

11. Whereas he that hates his Brother is in Darkness, and walks in it; nay does not know whither he is going, because Darkness has blinded his Eyes.

12. I write to you, little Children, because the Sins are forgiven you for the sake of his Name.

13. I write to you, Fathers, because ye have known him who was from the Beginning. I write to you, young Men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, Children, because ye have known the Father.

Tit. John] These three Epistles of his are each stated by Mills, to be written about the Year 91 or 92, being 24 or 25 Years after the last of Paul's and Peter's; and this at the City of Ephesus, according to the Subscriptions of some Copies.

Ver. 6. do not according to the Truth] after the Expression of Christ recorded by him, Book iii. 21.

Ver. 7. one another] Some Manuscripts read him, says Whitby, which either is the true Reading, or gives the true Sense of the other; but by Mills it appears that only a Copy of Curcellæus has that, which may be doubtful whether it was any, he was so uncertain a Collector.

Ib. his Son] seems added says Mills, only for the Eth. not having it.

Ver. 9. righteous] as Unrighteousness after it.

Ver. 10. we have not sinned] which is directly all one with we have not Sin, says Ham. and he expounds [we] not to be the Apostle and pious Christians, but those that walk in Darkness.

Ver. 3. that it is] See also Ch. v. 2.

Ver. 5. his Word] So the Gr. and so the Vulg. of which Mills says Nothing, yet Whitby in Examen. Mil. L. ii. 3. that it is not to be called a various Reading in the Vulg. but we are subject to dote sometimes.

Ver. 7. Brethren] The Vulg. and some have Beloved.

Ver. 13. Children] As τεκνια is little Children, Ver. 1. 12, 28. and other Places of this Epist. being the Diminutive of τέκνα Children; so παιδία here and Ver. 18. Children or little Boys from παῖδα Boys.

14. I have written to you, Fathers, becauſe ye have known him who was from the Beginning. I have written to you, young Men, becauſe ye are ſtrong, and the Word of God remains in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15. Do not love the World, nor the Things in it: if any one loves the World, there is not the Love of the Father in him.

16. Since every Thing that is in the World, the Deſire of the Fleſh, the Deſire of the Eyes, and the Haughtineſs of Life, is not of the Father, but is of the World.

17. And the World paſſes away, with the Deſire of it; but he who does the Will of God remains for ever.

18. Children, it is the laſt Seaſon: and according as you have heard that Antichriſt would come, even now there are many Antichriſts; whence we know that it is the laſt Seaſon.

19. They went out from us, but were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but it was in order to be made manifeſt, that all are not of us.

20. Moreover you have an Anointing from the Holy One, and you know all Things.

21. I have not written to you, becauſe ye do not know the Truth; but becauſe ye know it, and that there is not any Lye of the Truth.

22. Who is a Liar, unleſs he that denies that Jeſus is the Chriſt? This is Antichriſt, that denies the Father and the Son.

23. Every one who denies the Son, has not the Father.

24. Let what you have heard from the Beginning therefore remain in you: if that does, ye alſo will remain both in the Son and the Father.

25. And this is the Promiſe which he has made to us, everlaſting Life.

26. Theſe Things have I written to you, concerning thoſe who are ſeducing you.

27. And the Anointing which you have received from him remains in you, and ye have no Need that any one ſhould teach you; but as the ſame Anointing teaches you concerning all Things, and is true, and is no Lye: and according as it has taught you, ſhall ye remain in him.

28. And now, little Children, remain in him; to the end that when he is made manifeſt, we may have Boldneſs, and not be aſhamed at him in his Preſence.

29. If you know that he is righteous, you know that every one who does Righteouſneſs is born of him.

CHAP. III.

SEE what Sort of Love the Father has given us, that we ſhould be called the Children of God: for this reaſon the World knows us not, becauſe it did not know him.

2. Beloved, we are now the Children of God, and it is not yet made manifeſt what we ſhall be; but we know that when he is made manifeſt, we ſhall be like him, ſince we ſhall ſee him according as he is.

Ver. 14. I have written to you, Fathers, becauſe ye have known him who was from the Beginning] not in the vulg. Lat. and two or three Gr. Copies, plainly becauſe of the like in Ver. 13. and not by reaſon of this and the next Beginning with the ſame, as Mills would: for who can think ſuch a Chaſm would prevail in thoſe Copies by Overſight?

Ver. 16. Deſire] The Uſe of the Word Luſt being now commonly reſtricted to that of the Sexes, but here it is to be underſtood general as far as unlawful, and to comprehend Intemperance and Paſſion of ſeveral Kinds. Againſt which, under the Term of Pleaſure, ſee the manly exuberant Reaſoning of our Nation's preſent and juſtly admired Sage, in about half his Centaur not Fabulous.

Ver. 23. Father] Several Copies have what is Italick in our com. Verſion, excepting but, no fewer than fourteen which Mills found, and the Vulg. with three other Verſions beſides Authors, yet that Part was not thought by our Tranſlators ſufficiently eſtabliſhed, and if it had been in at firſt, it appears unlikely to be left out after, but on the contrary is eaſily ſeen that it might be put in for its Analogy with the foregoing and John viii. 19. and not therefore cut off, as Eſtius to vindicate the vulg. Lat. pleads againſt Senſe, and Mills ſeems tacitly to yield to him.

Ver. 27. ye have no Need that any one ſhould teach you] Nary in his Marg. ſays, John here alludes to John xvi. 12, 13. & xiv. 26. and calls the Holy Ghoſt the Unction which ſhall teach them all Things, ſo as that they need not to be taught by any Body elſe.

Ib. the ſame] For this the Vulg. and ſome others have his, by ἀυτᾶ inſtead of ἀυτὸ.

Ib. Anointing teaches you] Hammond in his Procedure as at Act. ii. 17. relates that the full meaning of this is, their having been inſtructed by thoſe on whom the Holy Ghoſt had deſcended, and confirmed by the giſt of miracles. But mind it is at the preſent Time, and ſo continuing; and had not he been determined to get rid of the plain Meaning at any Rate, he would ſcarce have interpreted the Anointing by having been inſtructed, that is the having been taught teaches, which is as good Senſe as a Book's having been written writes all the Things in it; thus confounding Paſſive with Active, and Paſt with Preſent. Whereas Whitby, though he oppoſed the Quakers by Name, would not throw away the Truth ſo, nor uſe ſuch Sophiſm, but ſays on Ver. 20. "That Unction is the Holy Spirit which he "hath given to them that believe." However Hammond's Interpretation running a ſmall Stream in New Light, Sect. 14. where he purpoſely treats of it, he ſays it hath been ſhewed at large on Acts x. a. but there I find it no more than on the Back of my Hand, both before my Eyes. Not content with putting it aſide thus, he expounds all things to be that Jeſus was the Chriſt; to which the Reader may expect no Anſwer.

Ver. 1. be called] added in the vulg. Lat. and ſome Copies, and be, Mills, Pr. 601. but miſquoted for Ch. ii. 28.

3. And

3. And every one who has this Hope in him, purifies himſelf, according as he is pure.

4. Every one that does Sin, does alſo an unlawful Thing; as Sin is an unlawful Thing.

5. And you know that he was made manifeſt, in order to take away our Sins; and there is no Sin in him.

6. Every one who remains in him, ſins not: every one that ſins, has not ſeen him, nor known him.

7, Little Children, let Nobody ſeduce you: he who does Righteouſneſs, is righteous, according as he is righteous:

8. He that does Sin, is of the Devil; ſince the Devil ſinned from the Beginning. For this was the Son of God made manifeſt, that he might demoliſh the Works of the Devil.

9. Every one who is born of God, does not commit Sin, becauſe his Seed remains in him; nay he cannot ſin, becauſe he is born of God.

10. In this the Children of God, and thoſe of the Devil are made manifeſt; every one that does not Righteouſneſs, is not of God, and he who loves not his Brother.

11. For this is the Meſſage which you have heard from the Beginning, that we ſhould love one another:

12. Not being as Cain was of the wicked one, and ſlew his Brother: and for what Cauſe did he ſlay him? Becauſe his Works were wicked, and thoſe of his Brother righteous.

13. Do not wonder, my Brethren, if the World hates you.

14. We know that we have departed from Death to Life, becauſe we love the Brethren: he who loves not a Brother, remains in Death.

15. Every one that hates his Brother, is a Murderer; and you know that no Murderer has everlaſting Life remaining in him.

16. In this we have known Love, that he yielded up his Life for us; and we ought to yield up our Lives for the Brethren.

17. But whoever has the Livelihood of the World, and ſees his Brother having Need, and ſhuts up his Bowels from him, how does the Love of God remain in him?

18. My little Children, let us not love with Word, nor Tongue; but with Work, and Truth.

19. And by this we know that we are of the Truth, and ſhall be confident in our Hearts before him:

20. That if our Heart condemn us, God is greater than our Heart, and knows all Things;

21. And Beloved, if our Heart does not condemn us, we have Boldneſs towards God.

22. And whatever we aſk for, we receive from him; becauſe we keep his Commandments, and do Things pleaſing before him.

23. And this is his Commandment, that we ſhould believe in the Name of his Son Jeſus Chriſt, and love one another, according as he has given us Commandment.

24. Now he who keeps his Commandments, remains in him, and himſelf in the other; and by this we know that he remains in us, through the Spirit which he has given us.

CHAP. IV.

BELOVED, do not believe every Spirit, but prove the Spirits whether they are of God; ſince there are many falſe Prophets gone forth into the World.

2. By this you know the Spirit of God; every Spirit that confeſſes Jeſus Chriſt come in the Fleſh, is of God.

3. And every Spirit that does not confeſs Jeſus Chriſt come in the Fleſh, is not of God; and this is Antichriſt's, which you have heard that it would come, and it is now in the World already.

Ver. 14. a Brother] is of ſome Reader, not of the Apoſtle himſelf, Mills writes, Pr. 1357. as the Vulg. is without it, and a few more; and when I thus mention the Vulg. it is for the Reader to underſtand, that the ſame might be the Occaſion of the reſt.

Ver. 16. have known] juſt as in Ch. iv. 16. 2 Cor. v. 16. not perceive either in Meaning or Tenſe.

Ib. Love] of God being but in very few Copies, and not the principal, ſince Spirit of it ſelf may ſignify ſo.

Ver. 17. remain] as often in this Epiſtle.

Ver. 19. by this] I underſtand it of the following, as in Ver. 16. Ch. iv. 2, 13. & v. 2. not the foregoing as Ham. viz. by the inward divine Witneſs condemning or clearing we know, being not may know, as in Whitby's Paraph. and as the foregoing would require, [That] with which the next Ver. begins demanding alſo the other.

Ib. know] ſhall be known by ſome, to be like the following Verb it may be ſuppoſed, though Mills with a weaker Cord pulls the other Way.

Ver. 20. That] It is not to be allowed for Ὅτι to begin a Sentence, nor do I allow it to ſignify for; and it is here the ſame which is rendered that in the Ver. before.

Ib. our Heart condemn us] on which Ham. paraphraſes, Our Hearts condemning us, is a ſure Argument that God will do ſo too.

Ver. 21. And] As Ver. 20. ſeems to belong to the firſt Part of Ver. 19. thus, we know that we are of the Truth, becauſe the inward Evidence which we have in our own Conſciences is according to that of God, though in a leſs Degree; ſo this Verſe appears to belong to the latter Part of that.

Ver. 24. the Spirit] Hammond interprets this to be the Temper, or pious Diſpoſition of Mind, PS. concerning New Light, Sect. 13. but does not tell us, as requiſite to ſuch Interpretation here, that the Temper is God, nor yet invalidate he abideth in us.

Ver. 2. you know] For know ye reads as if it were imperative. Some Copies have is known, unleſs αι is there put for ε, as ſometimes.

Ver. 2, 3. come] Some have to be come, which Mills thought genuine, Pr. 501. but I ſuppoſe was only an Attempt to mend John's Expreſſion, which ſeemed to want that is after confeſſes.

Ver. 3. for does not confeſs Jeſus Chriſt come in the Fleſh, the Vulg. and ſome of the old Writers have diſſolves

4. You

4. You are of God, little Children, and have overcome them; becauſe he that is in you is greater, than he that is in the World.

5. They are of the World; for this reaſon they ſpeak of it, and that hearkens to them.

6. We are of God: he who knows God, hearkens to us; he that is not of God, does not hearken to us. By this we know the Spirit of Truth, and the Spirit of Error.

7. Beloved, let us love one another: ſince Love is of God; and every one who loves, is born of God, and knows him.

8. He that does not love, knows not God; ſince God is Love.

9. In this was the Love of God made manifeſt to us, that God ſent his only begotten Son into the World, in order for us to live through him.

10. In this is Love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and ſent his Son to be an Atonement for our Sins.

11. Beloved, if God ſo loved us, we ought alſo to love one another.

12. Nobody has ever ſeen God: if we love one another, God remains in us, and his Love is made perfect in us.

13. By this we know that we remain in him, and he in us, becauſe he has given us of his Spirit.

14. And we have ſeen, and do teſtify, that the Father ſent his Son to be the Saviour of the World.

15. Whoever confeſſes that Jeſus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God.

16. And we have known and believed the Love which God has to us: God is Love; and he who remains in Love, remains in God, and God in him.

17. In this is Love made perfect with us, that we may have Boldneſs on the Day of Judgment; ſince according as he is, we are alſo in this World.

18. There is not Fear in Love, but perfect Love caſts that out, ſince Fear has Torment: he who fears is not made perfect in Love.

19. We love him, becauſe he loved us firſt.

20. If any one ſay, I love God; and hates his Brother, he is a Liar: for he that does not love his Brother, whom he has ſeen; how can he love God, whom he has not ſeen?

21. And this Commandment we have from him, that he who loves God, ſhould alſo love his Brother.

CHAP. V.

EVERY one who believes that Jeſus is the Chriſt, is born of God; and every one that loves him who begat, loves him alſo who is begotten by him.

2. By this we know that we love the Children of God, that it is when we love God, and keep his Commandments.

3. For this is the Love of God, that we keep his Commandments; and his Commandments are not heavy.

4. Since every Thing that is born of God, overcomes the World; and this is the Victory which does it, our Faith.

5. Who is it overcomes the World, but he who believes that Jeſus is the Son of God?

6. This is he who came by Water and Blood, Jeſus Chriſt; not with Water only, but with Water and Blood: and it is the Spirit teſtifies, becauſe the Spirit is Truth.

7. Since there are three that teſtify in Heaven, the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit; and theſe three are one.

Jeſus; and Mills ſhews how it was made, not by the Hereticks, but againſt them; but what then becomes of the Authentickneſs of that Lat. Bible? Wall thinks St. John means, confeſſeth not that Jeſus is the Chriſt, who came in the Fleſh, as very few did deny Jeſus to have come in the Fleſh; but this may be too curious, ſince many denied Chriſt to be ſo come, and make who came in the Fleſh ſuperfluous.

Ver. 4. them] Vulg. him, and by Mills cordially, but with too much Sophiſm: for is it to be thought ſome Reader made him into them, leſt it ſhould be referred to God? Would it be underſtood that they overcame him whom they were of, and who was in them? Surely ſuch a Scribe muſt either have very little Senſe himſelf, or elſe think others had. John might ſay them, as there were many Antichriſts, Chap. ii. 18. or for the Antichriſt he ſpoke of being not a ſingle Perſon; better than becauſe they follows, the Reaſon that Mills gives to his fancied Corrector; but that they is of great Force to ſhew this them is genuine.

Ib. he that is in you is greater, than he that is in the World] i. e. that good Spirit which dwells in pious Men, is more powerful in them than Satan is in wicked Men, Whitby's Append. to 2 Cor. vi.

Ver. 16. and God in him] If it were not for the unanimous Agreement of the Greek, Mills ſays he ſhould think this brought from the Verſe before, as not being in the Syriack, Pr. 1255.

Ver. 5. but he who believes &c.] ſignifying that he who will not believe this, does not overcome the World: for no more can be made of it; therefore not what Whitby pretends in Pref. to Galat. and on 2 Tim. iii. 16. (tho' here, and in the Pref. to this, he writes otherwiſe) that our Belief only that Jeſus is the Son of God, is the Victory over the World.

Ver. 7. Some Copies have not this Verſe; others differently, more particularly, as Mills ſays, who examined them cloſely, and treats of it largely; omittunt codices plurimi, moſt Copies (viz. MSS.) omit, in this and the next Verſe, what is between, Since there are three that teſtify——the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood, joining theſe together; yet he counts it authentick. But Clerc in his Epiſt. concerning Mills's Edit. ſays, what he has for it ſeems light and weak; and Wall that he has ſo

8. And there are three that teſtify on Earth, the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood; and the three are for one Thing.

9. If we receive the Teſtimony of Men, that of God is greater: ſince this is the Teſtimony of God, which he has teſtified concerning his Son.

10. He who believes in the Son of God, has the Teſtimony in himſelf: he that does not believe God, has made him falſe; becauſe he has not believed in the Teſtimony which God teſtified concerning his Son.

11. And this is the Teſtimony, that God has given to us everlaſting Life; and this Life is in his Son.

12. He who has the Son, has Life: he that has not the Son of God, has not Life.

13. Theſe Things have I written to you who believe in the Name of the Son of God, in order for you to know that you have everlaſting Life, and in order to believe in the Name of the Son of God.

14. And this is the Boldneſs which we have in him, that if we aſk for any Thing according to his Will, he hears us.

15. And if we know that he hears us, in whatever we aſk for, we know that we have the Requeſts which we aſk from him.

16. If any one ſee his Brother ſin a Sin not to Death, he ſhall aſk, and he will grant him Life for them who ſin not to Death: there is Sin to Death; I do not ſay that he ſhould pray for it.

17. All Unrighteouſneſs is Sin, and there is Sin not to Death.

18. We know that every one who is born of God, does not ſin; but he who is born of God, keeps himſelf, and the wicked one does not meddle with him.

19. We know that we are of God, and the whole World lies in Wickedneſs.

20. Nay we know that the Son of God is come, and has given us Senſe that we might know the True One; and we are in the True One, in his Son Jeſus Chriſt: he is the True God, and everlaſting Life.

21. Little Children, keep your ſelves from Idols: ſo let it be.

defended it, that he who thought it genuine before, will now conclude it to have been interpolated by ſome Latin Scribe firſt. However the Argument of Hammond ſeems of ſome Weight, that the Hereticks had more Cauſe to leave it out, than the Orthodox to put it in. Weſley tranſpoſes this and the next Verſe.

Ver. 8. the Water, and the Blood] Doddr. ſays this is a difficult Text; when theſe are apparently the ſame as in Ver. 6. and according to Beza, &c. where is alſo the Spirit as here, and there Doddr. himſelf paraphraſes well to the Matter on theſe Words as follows, 'whoſe great 'Deſign it was both to cleanſe and purify his People, and 'to make an Atonement to God for their Sins.' Accordingly this Water is that of Regeneration, as in John iii. 5. Tit. iii. 5. 1 Cor. vi. 11. & xii. 13. to which the Spirit is joined in each Place. But it is ſaid theſe bear witneſs or teſtify. And do they not eminently teſtify both to and for the Servants of God?

Ib. for one Thing] viz. Salvation; the Gr. having τὸ for Thing, but Nothing for agree.

Ver. 10. the Teſtimony in himſelf] Whit. in Par. that Spirit of God which gives this Teſtimony to Chriſt.

Ib. believe God] For God five or ſix Copies and four Verſ. have the Son, and Grot. ſays more rightly; but Whitby anſwers, that the following confirms ours; and I may add, that the Son ſeems ſubſtituted from the ſame before.

Ib. has made him falſe] i. e. according to that Unbelief.

Ib. God teſtified] One Copy and the Eth. have only the Verb he teſtified, at which Mills ſays God was written in, according to his imaginary Proceſs of Marg. and Text, to make it plain; what could not be wanting.

Ver. 12. of God] the Vulg. has not, which would not be worth mentioning, did not Mills ſpeak for it, Pr. 503. whereas it was evidently omitted, to make this Part concurrent with the preceding; and if added, would much likelier have been there.

Ver. 13. to you who believe &c.] No leſs than five Verſions, and as many Copies, have it thus, to you, in order for you to know that you have everlaſting Life, who believe in the Name of the Son of God; whereby theſe two Members of the Period are tranſpoſed, and the laſt in ours is cut off as it ſeems, and ſo is in Whitby's Pref. to Gal. tho' then the [&c.] after Θεᾶ in Mills's Note will be wrong; the latter by reaſon of the following and, Mills talks, Prol. 501. like what he did of Ch. ii. 14. but the true Cauſe as more apparent is, the Difficulty of written to you who believe ——that you may believe, and that in the ſame; yet may believe being future, will not if even taken rigorouſly interfere with the other, and may mean continue to believe, or believe more. Thoſe that are acquainted with this Apoſtle's Style, not adapted to curious Ears, may like it the better as undoubtedly his own.

Ver. 17. not] Mills is for caſting off, as being abſent from two Verſions, and an Author or two, though preſent in all Copies: his Reaſoning is of a Piece with it; taking it as granted that John had not this, he relates it was put in by Somebody, becauſe otherwiſe the Saying would ſeem ſuperfluous, ſince the Apoſtle had ſaid ſo in the Ver. before; but did not our Criticiſer conſider that it would firſt have ſeemed thus to John himſelf?

Ver. 18. he who is born] according as the very ſame is tranſlated where it occurs beſides, viz. Gal. iv. 29. Heb. xi. 23. Vulg. the Generation of God preſerves him; but ſee the Prol. of Mills, 601, 602.

Ver. 19. Wickedneſs] Weſt. the wicked one.

Ver. 20. the True One] Jeſus Chriſt; ſo the True God.

Ib. his] God's before.

Ib. Jeſus Chriſt] is of the Scribes, not of the Apoſtle, the Vulg. has not it, ſays Mills magiſterially, Pr. 755. when he might have ſaid more authoritatively, the Alexandrine Copy has it not! but how unavailing both!

Ver. 21. Idols] By Tyndal, Babes kepe your ſelves from ymages, which Sentence we are told was ſet at the Top of the Doors within the Churches, by the primitive Proteſtants here; and Bp. Bonner in Q. Mary's Reign ordered ſuch to be aboliſhed.

NOTES upon the Second Epiſtle of JOHN.

THE Elder, to the choſen Lady, and her Children; whom I love in the Truth, and not I only, but alſo all who know the Truth;

2. By reaſon of the Truth which remains in us, and will be with us for ever.

3. With you be Grace, Mercy, Peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt the Son of the Father, in Truth and Love.

4. I rejoiced greatly, that I found ſome of thy Children going in the Truth; according as we received Commandment from the Father.

5. And now I intreat thee, Lady, not as writing a new Commandment to thee, but that which we had from the Beginning, that we may love one another.

6. And this is Love, that we ſhould walk according to his Commandments: this is the Commandment, according as you heard from the Beginning, that you ſhould go in it.

7. Since many Seducers are come into the World, who do not confeſs Jeſus Chriſt is come in the Fleſh: this is a Seducer, and an Antichriſt.

8. Look to your ſelves, that we may not looſe the Things which we wrought, but may receive a full Reward.

9. Every one that tranſgreſſes, and does not remain in the Doctrine of Chriſt, has not God: he who remains in the Doctrine of Chriſt, the ſame has both the Father and the Son.

10. If there come any one to you, and does not bring this Doctrine, receive him not into the Houſe, nor ſpeak a Salutation to him.

11. For he that ſpeaks a Salutation to him, partakes of his wicked Deeds.

12. As I have many Things to write to you, I would not with Paper and Ink; but I hope to come to you, that our Joy may be fulfilled.

13. The Children of thy choſen Siſter ſalute thee: ſo let it be.

Ver. 1. Lady] Weſt. Kuria, for her proper Name.

Ver. 8. we] With ſeveral you in the three Verbs, by reaſon of the foregoing, as Mills remarks.

Ver. 10. Salutation] the Word rendered greeting in our com. Bib. Acts xv. 23. & xxiii. 26. James i. 1. and God ſpeed is old uncouth Engliſh.

Ver. 11. There is added at the End, Behold I have foretold you, that in the Day of the Lord you will not be aſhamed; poſſibly made from 1 Epiſt. ii. 28.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Third Epiſtle of JOHN.

THE Elder, to the beloved Gaius; whom I love in the Truth.

2. Beloved, concerning all Things I pray thou mayeſt proſper, and be well, according as thy Soul proſpers.

3. For I rejoiced greatly, when the Brethren came, and teſtified of thy Truth, according as thou goeſt in the Truth.

4. I have no greater Joy than theſe Things, that I hear my Children go in the Truth.

5. Beloved thou doeſt faithfully, whatever thou performeſt both to the Brethren, and Strangers;

6. Who have teſtified of thy Love before the Church: whom by conducting, as is worthy of God, thou wilt do well.

7. For they went forth for his Name, and took Nothing of the Gentiles.

8. We ought therefore to receive ſuch, that we may become Workers with the Truth.

9. I wrote to the Church; but Diotrephes, who loves to be the chief of them, did not receive us.

10. For this reaſon if I come, I ſhall remember his Deeds which he does, prating againſt us with wicked Words; and not ſatisfied with theſe, receives not the Brethren himſelf, nay thoſe who would he hinders, and caſts out of the Church.

11. Beloved, do not imitate Evil, but Good: he who does well, is of God; but he that does ill, has not ſeen God.

12. Demetrius is teſtified of by all, and by the Truth it ſelf; nay even we teſtify, and you know that our Teſtimony is true.

13. I have had many Things to write, yet I would not with Ink and Pen write to thee.

14. But I hope to ſee thee quickly, and that we ſhall ſpeak Mouth to Mouth. Peace be to thee. The Friends ſalute thee. Salute thou the Friends by Name.

Ver. 1. Gaius] This ſeems to be Gaius of Corinth, Rom. xvi. 23. ſays Whitby. But Wall writes as follows, Some make him a Biſhop of Pergamus. There is no body named whom they do not make a Biſhop. With Weſl. Caius, and elſewhere; though it begins with the Letter Gamma.

Ver. 5. and Strangers] Vulg. and this to Strangers by Interpolation, Mills, Pr. 602.

Ver. 6. worthy of God] as 1 Theſ. ii. 12. Col. i. 10,

Ver. 7. his] is but of little Authority, that of two MSS. and the Vulg. Becauſe it was underſtood, Mills ſays, the Tranſcribers brought it into the Text.

Ver. 9. I wrote] but with the Vulg. I ſhould have written perhaps, corrupt, M. Pr. 603.

Ver. 9, 10. The very Apoſtles, as Wall remarks, found continual Oppoſitions in the Churches.

Ver. 14. The Friends] with no Our.

NOTES

NOTES upon the Epiſtle of JUDE:

JUDE, a Servant of Jeſus Chriſt, and the Brother of James; to the called ones, who are ſanctified in God the Father, and preſerved by Jeſus Chriſt.

2. Mercy to you, with Peace, and Love be increaſed.

3. Beloved, as I uſed all Carefulneſs to write to you concerning the common Salvation, I had Need to write to you, to exhort ye ſhould ſtrive earneſtly for the Faith once delivered to the Saints.

4. For there are got in ſome Men, who were written of before formerly for this Condemnation, impious ones, who have turned away the Grace of our God into Wantonneſs, and denied the only Maſter God, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

5. And I would put you in remembrance, as ye once knew this, that when the Lord had ſaved the People from the Country of Egypt, he next deſtroyed them who did not believe.

6. Nay the Angels that did not keep their own Original, but left their Habitation, he has kept for the Judgment of the great Day, with eternal Bonds under Gloominess.

7. As Sodom and Gomorra, with the Cities about the ſame, which were given up to Whoredom in Manner like them, and went away after other Fleſh, are laid before for an Example, as they ſuffer the Judgment of everlaſting Fire.

8. In like Manner notwithſtanding theſe Dreamers alſo defile indeed the Fleſh, reject Dominion, and ſpeak evil of the Honourable.

9. Whereas the chief Angel Michael, when he debated with the Devil, and diſcourſed concerning the Body of Moſes, did not dare to bring againſt him Judgment with Reviling; but ſaid, The Lord rebuke thee.

10. But theſe indeed ſpeak evil of whatever Things they know not; yet whatever Things they know naturally, as irrational Brutes, in theſe they are corrupt.

11. Wo is to them, becauſe they are gone in the Way of Cain, are ruſhed out into the Error of Balaam for Reward, and are periſhed in the Contradiction of Core.

12. Theſe are Stains in your Love-feaſts, when they feaſt with you, who feed themſelves without Fear; are Clouds without Water, carried about by the Winds; Trees withered as in Autumn, without Fruit, twice dead, rooted up;

13. Wild Waves of the Sea, that foam up their own Shame; wandering Stars, for which the Gloom of Darkneſs is kept for ever.

14. And Enoch alſo, the ſeventh from Adam, propheſied of theſe as follows; Behold the Lord comes in ten thouſands of his Saints;

15. To execute Judgment againſt all, and to rebuke all the Impious of them, concerning all their Deeds of Impiety which they have done impiouſly, and concerning all the hard Things which impious Sinners have ſpoken againſt him.

16. Theſe are Murmurers, Finders of fault, who go on according to their Deſires; and their Mouth ſpeaks Things too haughty, while they admire Perſons for the ſake of Profit.

Ver. 1. Jude] Gr. Judas, as Luke vi. 16. Acts i. 13. John xiv. 22. and he appears to be the 3d Brother, Mark vi. 3. Mat. xxvii. 56. if not the 4th, Mat. xiii. 55. but being put ſo, perhaps he and Simon were Twins. Mills conjectures he wrote this about the Year 90, and has it for certain between the Years 67 and 95.

Ib. ſanctified] beloved with ſome; and ours, Mills ſays, crept in from 1 Cor. i. 2. Pr. 684. where the Expreſſion is different.

Ver. 4. written of before] by the Prophets; ſo Wm. Tyndal, of which it was written afore tyme: the Gr. undeniably ſignifying written, and not ordained, as in Rom. xv. 4. Eph. iii. 3. read Whitby and Wall. But the pref. Tranſ. followed the Geneva, which in Certaine queſtions and anſweres, put to ſome Editions, has, Queſt. Are not all ordained unto eternall life? Anſw. Some are veſſals of wrath ordayned unto deſtruction; and in the Note here, The contemners of religion and apoſtates are appoynted thereunto by the determinate counſell of God. Dodd. has regiſtered.

Ib. turned away] as being both nearer the Gr. and the Truth or Propriety of Expreſſion, than turning.

Ver. 5. next] Gr. ſecondly.

Ver. 7. them] left out of the com. Tranſ.

Ver. 8. notwithſtanding] viz. the Judgments on thoſe before, as Beza obſerves; but this is omitted in our Tranſ.

Ib. Dreamers] without filthy, and ſo not with reſpect to natural Dreams, but conceited Notions.

Ver. 12. Trees withered as in Autumn] according to the Original; and how could their Fruit be withered, when they had none?

Ver. 14. comes in ten thouſands] invigorating them to his Work, for ſo the Original as here rendered.

Ver. 16. Finders of fault] according as the Verb is every where turned, i. e. Mark vii. 2. Rom. ix. 19. Heb. viii. 8.

Ib. Deſires] The Gen. add in the Marg. in ungodlineſſe and iniquitie, tho' found only in one Copy, or rather but the Complutenſian Edition.

Ib. they admire] not the mouth, or uncertain which.

17. But do ye, Beloved, remember the Words ſaid before by the Apoſtles of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt;

18. That they told you, that in the latter Time there would be Scoffers, who would go on according to their own Deſires for Impieties.

19. Theſe are Separaters of themſelves, ſenſual, and have not the Spirit.

20. But you, Beloved, building up your ſelves in your moſt holy Faith, praying by the Holy Spirit;

21. Keep your ſelves in the Love of God, and look for the Mercy of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt to everlaſting Life.

22. However ſhew mercy indeed to ſome, making a difference:

23. And by Fear ſave ſome, catching out of the Fire, while you hate even the Garment ſtained by the Fleſh.

24. Now to him who is able to keep you without falling, and to make you ſtand before his Glory without Blemiſh in Joy;

25. To God only wiſe, our Saviour, be Glory and Majeſty, Might and Authority, both now and to all Ages: ſo let it be.

Ver. 19. ſenſual] which is miſprinted ſenſually in my Oxf. Bible, but perhaps to make the Eng. grammatical, as was wanting.

Ver. 22. ſhew mercy—making a difference] But the vulg. Lat. with a few Gr. Copies, reprove them that are judged; and with more after catching out of the Fire in the next Ver. and to others ſhew mercy in Fear.

Ver. 24. before] as tranſlated 2 Cor. xii. 19. Eph. i. 4. without adding the preſence of.

Ver. 25. wiſe] crept as it ſeems, ſays Mills, from Rom. xvi. 27. for ſome leave it out; but as there is no where To the only God, and as this alſo is in 1 Tim. i. 17. I ſuppoſe it ſhould be here.

NOTES

NOTES upon the REVELATION of JOHN the Divine.

CHAP. I.

THE Revelation of Jeſus Chriſt, which God gave him, to ſhew his Servants the Things that muſt come to paſs quickly; which he ſignified, and ſent by his Angel to his Servant John:

2. Who teſtified the Word of God, and the Teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt, with whatever Things he ſaw.

3. Bleſſed is he that reads, and they who hear the Words of the Prophecy, and keep the Things written in it: for the Time is near.

4. John, to the ſeven Churches that are in Aſia. Grace be to you, and Peace, from him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the ſeven Spirits that are before his Throne;

5. And from Jeſus Chriſt, the faithful Witneſs, the Firſt-born from the Dead, and the Ruler of the Kings of the Earth: to him who loved us, and waſhed us from our Sins with his Blood,

6. Nay has made us Kings and Prieſts to God and his Father; to him be Glory and Might for evermore: ſo let it be.

7. Behold he is coming with Clouds, and every Eye will ſee him, even they who pierced him; and all the Tribes of the Earth will lament at him: yes ſo let it be.

8. I am A and Z, the Beginning and the End, ſays the Lord, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

9. I John, who am alſo your Brother, and a Partaker in Affliction, and in the Kingdom and Patience of Jeſus Chriſt, was in the Iſle called Patmos, for the Word of God, and for the Teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt.

10. I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and heard behind me a great Voice, as of a Trumpet,

11. Saying, I am A and Z, the Firſt and the Laſt; and what thou beholdeſt write in a Book, and ſend to the ſeven Churches in Aſia, to Epheſus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.

12. Whereupon I turned to behold whoſe Voice ſpoke to me; and being turned, I ſaw ſeven golden Candleſticks;

13. And in the midſt of the ſeven Candleſticks one like the Man, cloathed with a Garment to the Feet, and girded about at the Breaſts with a golden Girdle.

14. Moreover his Head and Hairswere white as if it were Wool, white as ſnow; and his Eyes as a Flame of Fire;

15. His Feet too like fine Braſs, they burning as if in a Hearth; and his Voice as the Sound of much Water.

Ver. 1. come to paſs quickly] Ham. ſtrenuouſly inſiſts on this and the like, interpreting the Book accordingly; but the Meaning ſeems begin to come to paſs, or that the firſt of the Things would be ſoon.

Ver. 2. with] Mills tells was inſerted afterwards, ſeveral, and among them the Vulg. not having it.

Ver. 5. from the Dead] The Vulg. indeed and ſome more have not from, but only the Gen. Caſe, whereupon Mills ſays it is from Col. i. 18. but Ham. puts [from,] which, Wall alſo ſays, is more likely to be the true Reading, and that it ſhould be tranſlated here as there.

Ib. waſhed] Three or four Copies having λύσαντι for λύσαντι, i. e. let looſe or ſet free, inſtead of waſhed, Mills counts that entirely true and genuine; but Kuſter otherwiſe, as waſhed agrees ſo well with Blood.

Ver. 6. Kings] but by ſeveral a royal Family, which Mills ſays is the genuine Reading.

Ver. 7. coming] Look back to Mat. xxiv. 29, 30.

Ver. 8. A and Z] Alpha and Omega being the firſt and laſt Greek Letters, and put thus ſingle in the Original; nor is that counted the primitive and holy Tongue, for Chriſt to be called by thoſe Letters, and no other; but rather the firſt and laſt of all in each Language, according to Ver. 11.

Ver. 9. alſo] by ſome omitted, and ſo turned off by Mills, as if put for Emphaſis, Pr. 684.

Ib. in the Kingdom] This in is left out by a few, as not with Patience I ſuppoſe, though Mills ſeems to think otherwiſe, Pr. 685.

Ib. Chriſt] the laſt Mills ſays was added from Ver. 2. tho' abſent only in two Codes, the Vulg. and 1 Author.

Ver. 11. ſeven] Several with the Vulg. indeed have this, which Mills enumerates; but how many more then have not? inſomuch that he does not put it in the Text.

Ib. Epheſus, &c.] Brightman interprets theſe to be quite other People, as Epheſus the Primitive Church before the Time of Conſtantine, Sardis the firſt reformed Church of Germany, Laodicea that of England; whoſe wild Reveries Hammond expoſes.

Ver. 15. they burning] Some have this a Participle to the Braſs, but I look on it to be an Attempt at ſuch Refinement as ſhould be avoided in the Original Scripture; and ſee Ch. x. 1.

16. He

16. He having alſo in his right Hand ſeven Stars, and a ſharp two-edged Sword going out of his mouth, and his Face was as the Sun ſhines in its Power.

17. And when I ſaw him, I fell down at his Feet as dead; and he put his right Hand on me, ſaying to me: Do not fear; I am the Firſt and the Laſt,

18. As likewiſe he who am alive, and was dead, nay behold I am alive for evermore, ſo let it be; and I have the Keys of Hell and Death.

19. Write what Things thou haſt ſeen, and what there are, and what are about to be after theſe.

20. The Myſtery of the ſeven Stars which thou haſt ſeen in my right Hand, and the ſeven golden Candleſticks is; the ſeven Stars are the Angels of the ſeven Churches, and the ſeven Candleſticks which thou haſt ſeen, are the ſeven Churches.

CHAP. II.

TO the Angel of the Church of Epheſus write: Theſe Things ſays he who holds the ſeven Stars in his right Hand, who walks in the midſt of the ſeven golden Candleſticks;

2. I know thy Deeds, and thy Labour, with thy Patience, and that thou canſt not bear the evil ones: nay thou haſt tried thoſe who ſay they are Apoſtles, and are not, and haſt found them Liars.

3. Moreover thou haſt born, and had Patience; as alſo for my Name haſt laboured, and not been tired.

4. But I have againſt thee, that thou haſt left thy firſt Love.

5. Remember therefore whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the firſt Deeds; but if not, I will come to thee quickly, and move thy Candleſtick out of its Place, except thou doſt repent.

6. Yet this thou haſt, that thou hateſt the Deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I alſo hate.

7. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches, To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the Tree of Life, which is in the midſt of the Paradiſe of God.

8. And to the Angel of the Church of the Smyrnains write: Theſe Things ſays the Firſt and the Laſt, who was dead, and is alive;

9. I know thy Deeds, Affliction, and Poverty (yet thou art rich) with the Blaſphemy of thoſe who ſay they are Jews, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10. Fear none of the Things which thou wilt ſuffer: behold the Devil will throw ſome of you into priſon, that ye may be tried; and ye will have Affliction ten Days: be faithful till Death, and I will give thee a Crown of Life.

11. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches, He who overcomes ſhall not be hurt by the ſecond Death.

12. And to the Angel of the Church in Pergamos write: Theſe Things ſays he who has the ſharp two-edged Sword;

13. I know thy Deeds, and where thou dwelleſt, where the Throne of Satan is; yet thou holdeſt my Name, and haſt not denied my Faith, even in the Days wherein Antipas was my faithful Witneſs, who was killed with you, where Satan dwells.

14. But I have a few Things againſt thee, that thou haſt there ſuch as hold the Doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to throw an Offence before the Iſraelites, to eat Things offered to Idols, and to commit Whoredom:

15. So haſt thou alſo them that hold the Doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which I hate.

16. Repent; but if not, I will come to thee quickly, and fight againſt thoſe with the Sword of my Mouth.

Ver. 18. ſo let it be] The Gr. amen Mills ſays is of Ver. 6. Pr. 685. unlikely, and foreign to the Matter!

Ib. Hell and Death] tranſpoſed by ſeveral, probably becauſe Death is in Time before Hell, as likewiſe put ſo Ch. xx. 13, 14. by Weſt. are death and of Hades.

Ver. 3. Patience] From hence to the Verſe's End Mills would have it be right thus, for my Name, and not been weary; of which he gives this Account, according to his Conception of it, that by reaſon of he knows not what Repugnancy, when the Epheſian Church which is praiſed for Labour, Ver. 2. is here ſaid, not to have laboured (being the more uſual Signification of the Word than been weary, according to its Noun before for Labour) ſome ſtudious Perſon wrote over againſt the Verb, to explain it, ours for been tired; this the Tranſcriber thinking belonged to the Text, put it in (which is to make the former write, or the latter think, incredibly wrong) raſing out the not (but who would do that?) whereas if the Vulg. with its three Fellow-Verſions, and nine Copies are to be followed, the two firſt Verbs muſt alſo be tranſpoſed, contrary to his putting them.

Ver. 4. that] ſo tranſlated in the ſame Senſe, Ver. 6.

Ver. 8. of the Smyrnains] like that in Ch. iii. 14. but but ſome Copies have in there and here, which Mills ſhews.

Ver. 14. Things offered to Idols] Mills ſpeaks in behalf of this being out of the Vulg. only, as brought afterwards from Ver. 20. but beſides that ſuch Evidence is little to be regarded, it might rather have been put here, and underſtood after.

Ver. 15. which I hate] The Gr. ὃ μισῶ may be found in a few Exemplars changed into ὁμοίως likewiſe; for that being much the ſame as the firſt Word in the Verſe, is not to be thought the right.

17. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches, To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the hidden Manna, as likewiſe will give him a white Stone, and on the Stone a new Name written, which Nobody knows excepting the Receiver.

18. And to the Angel of the Church in Thyatira write: Theſe Things ſays the Son of God, who has his Eyes as a Flame of Fire, and his Feet like fine Braſs;

19. I know thy Deeds, and Love, and Miniſtry, and Faith, with thy Patience, nay thy laſt Deeds to be more than the firſt.

20. But I have a few Things againſt thee, that thou permitteſt the Woman Jezebel, who ſays ſhe is a Propheteſs, to teach and ſeduce my Servants, to commit Whoredom, and eat Things offered to Idols.

21. And I gave her Time that ſhe might repent of her Whoredom, and ſhe did not.

22. Behold I will throw her into a Bed, and them who commit Adultery with her into great Affliction, except they repent of their Deeds.

23. Nay I will kill her Children with Death; and all the Churches ſhall know, that I am the Searcher of the Reins and Hearts: and I will give each of you according to your Deeds.

24. But to you I ſay, even to the reſt in Thyatira, Whoever have not this Doctrine, and who have not known the Depths of Satan, as they ſpeak, I will put on you no other Burden.

25. Nevertheleſs what you have, hold faſt until I come.

26. And to him who overcomes, and keeps my Deeds till the End, I will give Power over the Nations.

27. And he ſhall manage them with an iron Rod, as Potters Veſſels ſhall they be broke in pieces; even as I received from my Father.

28. Moreover I will give him the Morning Star.

29. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches.

CHAP. III.

AND to the Angel of the Church in Sardis write: Theſe Things ſays he who has the ſeven Spirits of God, and the ſeven Stars; I know thy Deeds, that thou haſt a Name that thou art alive, yet art dead.

2. Be watchful, and eſtabliſh the reſt of the Things which are about to die: for I have not found thy Deeds compleat before God.

3. Remember therefore how thou haſt received and heard, then keep, and repent. If therefore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a Thief, and thou ſhalt not know what Hour I will come on thee.

4. Thou haſt a few Names even in Sardis, that have not defiled their Cloaths, and they ſhall walk with me in White, ſince they are worthy.

5. He who overcomes, the ſame ſhall be cloathed in white Cloaths; and I will not blot out his Name from the Book of Life, but will confeſs it both before my Father and his Angels.

6. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches.

7. And to the Angel of the Church in Philadelphia write: Theſe Things ſays the Holy, the True One, he who has the Key of David, who opens and none ſhuts, and ſhuts and none opens;

8. I know thy Deeds: behold I have put before thee an open Door, and none is able to ſhut it; ſince thou haſt a little Ability, and haſt kept my Word, and not denied my Name.

Ver. 17. to eat of] the Vulg. and Ethiop. Tr. have not, and Mills, who on ſuch Authority denies it to be John's, adds a Copy with Curcellæus and Veleſius; which might be the ſame, and not only ſo but made, or even no more than imagined, according to the revered Vulg. Lat.

Ver. 19. laſt Deeds] Divers having not the [and] between, which are particularized by Mills and Kuſter; and the Senſe requires it, to avoid a mere Tautology, and what is worſe, very improper Expreſſion of the ſame Meaning; ſo that Wall ſays and ſeems interpolated.

Ver. 20. the Woman] Several have thy Wife, and Grotius ſays all the Ancients, who ſuppoſes it was the Biſhop's Wife; which I think not unlikely, and that her Children, Ver. 23. might be thoſe whom ſhe ſeduced: for I think thy (the other being the ſame in the Gr.) more likely to be left out than put in.

Ver. 23. your] in the Vulg. alone his, to accord with each, which ſtands after you in the Gr. yet Mills is for that, Pr. 508.

Ver. 24. even] as is apparent, if this Conjunction is authentick; for ten Copies and four Verſions are without it, and Hammond is againſt it on Ch. i. 20.

Ver. 26. to him] the ſame as in Ver. 7, 17.

Ver. 28. give him the Morning Star] according to Nary, He ſhall ſhine in Heaven as bright as that doth in the Firmament.

Ver. 1. that thou art alive] A few inſtead of that have and, which, ſays Mills, is a little obſcurer, and therefore, as it ſeems, genuine; ſo preferring that which is both worſt, and of leaſt Authority.

Ver. 2. compleat] ſo Weſt. I ſince find.

Ib. God]. Weſt. my God, as ſome Copies have, and particularly the vulg. Lat. which he has commonly on his Side when he leaves our received Reading.

9. Behold I will cauſe thoſe of the Synagogue of Satan, that ſay they are Jews, and are not, but lye; behold I will make them come, and reverence before thy Feet, and know that I have loved thee.

10. Since thou haſt kept the Word of my Patience, I will alſo keep thee from the Hour of Trial, which will come on the whole World, to try them who dwell on the Earth.

11. Behold I am coming quickly; hold faſt what thou haſt, that none may take thy Crown.

12. Him who overcomes I will make a Pillar in the Temple of my God, and he ſhall go out no more; beſides I will write on him the Name of my God, and that of his City, new Jeruſalem which comes down out of Heaven from my God, and my new Name.

13. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches.

14. And to the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, Theſe Things ſays the So let it be, the Faithful and True Witneſs, the Beginning of the Creation of God;

15. I know thy Deeds, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would rather thou waſt one or the other.

16. Thus becauſe thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to ſpew thee out of my Mouth:

17. Since thou ſayeſt, I am wealthy, and become rich, and have need of Nothing; and doſt not know thou art wretched, miſerable, poor, blind and naked.

18. I counſel thee to buy Gold of me refined from the Fire, that thou mayeſt be rich: and white Cloaths, that thou mayeſt be cloathed, and the Shame of thy Nakedneſs may not appear: as alſo anoint thy Eyes with Salve, that thou mayeſt ſee.

19. As many ſoever as I love, I rebuke, and chaſten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20. Behold I ſtand at the Door, and knock: if any one will hear my Voice, and open the Door; I will come in to him, and ſup with him, and he with me.

21. To him who overcomes I will give to ſit with me in my Throne, as I alſo overcame, and ſate with my Father in his Throne.

22. He that has an Ear, let him hear what the Spirit ſays to the Churches.

CHAP. IV.

AFTER theſe Things I looked, and behold a Door was opened in Heaven; and the firſt Voice which I heard was as of a Trumpet thus ſpeaking to me, Come up hither, and I will ſhew thee what Things muſt be after theſe.

2. And preſently I was in the Spirit; when behold there was a Throne placed in Heaven, and one ſitting on the Throne.

3. Now he who ſate was to the Sight like a Jaſper and a Sardine Stone; and a Rainbow was round about the Throne, to the Sight like an Emerald.

4. Round about the Throne too were twenty four Thrones; and on the Thrones I ſaw twenty four Elders ſitting, cloathed in white Cloaths; and they had on their Heads golden Crowns.

5. And out of the Throne there came Lightnings, Thunders, and Voices; and ſeven Lamps of Fire were burning before the Throne, which are the ſeven Spirits of God.

6. Before the Throne alſo was a Sea of Glaſs like Cryſtal; and in the midſt of the Throne, as well as round about it, four living Creatures full of Eyes before and behind.

7. Moreover the firſt living Creature was like a Lion, and the ſecond like a Calf, and the third had a Face as a Man, and the fourth was like a flying Eagle.

8. Beſides the four living Creatures had each on himſelf ſix Wings apiece round about, and were full of Eyes within; and they have not Reſt Day and Night, ſaying, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.

9. And when the living Creatures give Glory, Honour, and Thankſgiving to him that ſits on the Throne, who lives for evermore;

Ver. 9. reverence] not worſhip thee certainly, which would be Idolatry; and what elſe ſhould it be before for?

Ver. 17. rich] as the ſame Word is turned in the next Verſe.

Ib. miſerable] Weſt. pitiable from Doddr. in his pitiful Manner, and a pitiful Word this.

Ver. 18. By Kennett, along with his Pſalms in Verſe,

I guide thee to thy better Claim,
Subſtantial Treaſures, Gold refin'd and pure,
And ſpotleſs Robes to ſhroud thy Shame,
And Heav'nly Balms thy mortal Sight to cure.

Ver. 20. at the Door] of Men's Hearts, ſays Nary in the Margin.

Ver. 21. give] as before, & vii. 2. & ix. 5,

Ver. 6. living Creatures] which the Gr. properly ſignifies, and beaſts is too contemptible; nay one of them was like an Eagle, and another had a Face as a Man; beſides there is another Word for Beaſts, Ch. vi. 8. and often ſing. in this Book, ſo that Wall at the Beginning blames the Eng. Tranſlation for confounding theſe Names.

Ver. 7. as a Man] by few of a Man, which Mills notwithſtanding thought authentick, and ſays was changed into ours.

Ver. 8. and were] that is, the living Creatures were full of Eyes, as Ham. ſhews from the Gr. and not the Wings, as they in our com. Reading intimates.

Ver. 9. ſits] the pref. Tenſe, as proper.

10. The twenty four Elders fall down before him that ſits on the Throne, and worſhip him who lives for evermore, and caſt their Crowns before the Throne, ſaying,

11. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive Glory, Honour and Power; becauſe thou haſt created all Things, and for thy Will they exiſt, and were created.

CHAP. V.

AND I ſaw in the right Hand of him that ſate on the Throne, a Book written within and without, ſealed with ſeven Seals.

2. I likewiſe ſaw a ſtrong Angel proclaiming aloud, Who is worthy to open the Book, and to undo the Seals of it?

3. And Nobody was able in Heaven, on the Earth, nor underneath it, to open the Book, nor to look on it.

4. Upon this I wept much, becauſe there was Nobody found worthy to open and read the Book, nor to look on it.

5. But one of the Elders ſaid to me, Do not weep; behold the Lion who is one of the Tribe of Juda, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the Book, and to undo the ſeven Seals of it.

6. Next I looked, and behold in the midſt of the Throne, and of the four living Creatures, and in the midſt of the Elders, was a Lamb ſtanding as if it were ſlain, that had ſeven Horns, and ſo many Eyes, which are the ſeven Spirits of God ſent into all the Earth.

7. Moreover he came, and took the Book out of the right Hand of him who ſate on the Throne.

8. And when he had taken the Book, the four living Creatures, and the twenty four Elders fell down before the Lamb, having each golden Harps, and Vials full of Perfumes, which are the Prayers of the Saints.

9. And they ſung a new Song as follows; Thou art worthy to take the Book, and to open the Seals of it; becauſe thou haſt been ſlain, and haſt purchaſed us to God by thy Blood, out of every Tribe, Tongue, People and Nation;

10. As alſo made us Kings and Prieſts to our God, ſo that we ſhall reign on the Earth.

11. Beſides as I looked, I heard the Voice of many Angels round about the Throne, and of the living Creatures and Elders, the Number of whom was a hundred Millions, and a Million,

12. Saying aloud, The Lamb that has been ſlain is worthy to receive Power, Riches, Wiſdom, Strength, Honour, Glory and Bleſſing.

13. Nay every Creature that is in Heaven, on the Earth, and underneath it, with thoſe who are in the Sea, even all that are in them, I heard ſay, To him who ſits on the Throne, and to the Lamb, be Bleſſing, Honour, Glory and Might, for evermore: ſo let it be.

14. The four living Creatures too ſaid, So let it be; and the twenty four Elders fell down, and worſhipped him who lives for evermore.

CHAP. VI.

AND I looked when the Lamb opened one of the Seals, and heard one of the four living Creatures ſay as the Sound of Thunder, Come, and ſee.

2. Accordingly I looked, and behold a white Horſe; and he who ſate on him had a Bow, there was alſo a Crown given him; thus he went out overcoming, and that he might overcome.

Ver. 11. exiſt] For are may be taken wrong, as belonging to created.

Ver. 4. and read] Mills ſays crept from the Marg. becauſe ſome have it not.

Ver. 5. who is] ſee Mills and Wetſten.

Ib. to undo] crept from Ver. 2. as Mills determines, Pr. 685. if not too haſtily, by ſome being without it.

Ver. 6. looked] as Ch. iv. 1. & vi. 8. & xiv. 1, 14.

Ver. 11. looked] not beheld——the voice.

Ib. a Million] as in Dan. vii. 10.

Ver. 14. twenty four] Mills thinks was brought from Ver 8. becauſe ſome are without it.

Ib. him who lives for evermore] ſeemed to Zeger added from ſome other like Place, foraſmuch as not here with ſome; but ſuch over-haſty condemning the eſtabliſhed Writing may better be ſpared.

Ver. 2. a white Horſe] Although this may pretty plainly denote the Goſpel, which the primitive Chriſtian Preachers went out to declare, and prevailed with; I would not attempt what may leſſen my Interpretation of other Scripture Prophecies, by a particular Application of John's Viſions to the Series of Hiſtory, or what would be far more uncertain to that of Futurity. How have ſome of great Name checked the Eſteem of their Capacity by it! What a Croud of Commentators, particularly in the laſt Century, has Time it ſelf confuted! And how little Certainty is to be expected in what is referred to hereafter, by others who make leſs Appearance of Judgment and diligent Search, than ſome of the foregoing! But if the circumſtantial fulfilling of Things here be unknown, the Deſcriptions are truly divine and noble; with the Uſefulneſs of which on many Occaſions, and the peculiar Diſcoveries the Servants of God have had, and may have, let us be humbly contented. Doddridge, as one of our lateſt Commentators of Note and Credit, prefers the Scheme of Lowman, which has the Accompliſhment of theſe Matters to the End divided into ſeven Periods, the third of which extends to A. D. 2016, and the fourth to 3005, yet Doddr. on Ch. xi. 18. writes, This repreſents the Judgment-day as now nearly approaching. It may perhaps be rightly remarked, that the various Years computed by many, for the Completion of the great Affairs here predicted, being paſſed over with a ſilent but full Anſwer to their laboured Hypotheſes; others of late

3. Moreover when he opened the ſecond Seal, I heard the ſecond living Creature ſay, Come, and ſee.

4. And another Horſe went out red: and to him who ſate on him was given to take Peace from the Earth, and that they might ſlay one another, and there was given him alſo a great Sword.

5. And when he opened the third Seal, I heard the third living Creature ſay, Come, and ſee. Whereupon I looked, and behold a black Horſe; and he who ſate on him had a Ballance in his Hand.

6. I further heard a Voice in the midſt of the four living Creatures ſay, A Meaſure of Wheat for a Penny, and three Meaſures of Barley for a Penny; and thou muſt do no injury to the Oil and Wine.

7. And when he opened the fourth Seal, I heard the Voice of the fourth living Creature ſay, Come, and ſee.

8. So I looked, and behold a pale Horſe; and the Name to him who ſate upon him was Death, and Hell followed with him: there was alſo Power given to them to kill on the fourth Part of the Earth, with the Sword, Famine and Death, as likewiſe by the Beaſts of the Earth.

9. And when he opened the fifth Seal, I beheld underneath the Altar the Souls of thoſe who were ſlain, for the Word of God, and for the Teſtimony which they had.

10. They alſo cried out aloud as follows, How long, O Lord, Holy and True, doſt thou not judge and revenge our Blood, from them that dwell on the Earth?

11. Whereupon white Robes were given to each one, and it was ſaid to them, that they ſhould reſt yet a little while, until their Fellow-Servants alſo, and their Brethren ſhould be filled up, who would be killed even as they.

12. Next I looked when he opened the ſixth Seal, and behold there was a great Earthquake, the Sun became as black as Sackcloth of Hair, the Moon became like Blood;

13. And the Stars of Heaven fell to the Earth, as a Fig-tree caſts its unripe Figs, when it is ſhaken by a great Wind.

14. Nay the Heaven departed away, as a Book rolled up; and every Mountain and Iſle were moved out of their Places.

15. At which the Kings of the Earth, the Grandees, rich Men, Commanders, and powerful Perſons, as likewiſe every one bound and free, hid themſelves in Caves and Rocks of the Mountains;

16. And ſaid to the Mountains and Rocks; Fall on us, and hide us from the Face of him who ſits on the Throne, and from the Wrath of the Lamb:

17. Becauſe the great Day of his Wrath is come; and who will be able to ſtand.

CHAP. VII.

AND after theſe Things I beheld four Angels ſtanding on the four Corners of the Earth, who held the four Winds of it; that they might neither blow on the Earth, the Sea, nor any Tree.

2. I likewiſe beheld another Angel coming down from the eaſtern Sun, who had the Seal of the Living God; and he cried out aloud to the four Angels, to whom it was given to do injury to the Earth and Sea,

3. Saying, Do no injury to the Earth, Sea, nor Trees, till we have ſealed the Servants of our God on their Foreheads.

4. And I heard the Number of thoſe who were ſealed, there being ſealed a hundred and forty four thouſand, of all the Tribes of the Iſraelites:

5. Of the Tribe of Juda were twelve thouſand ſealed, of the Tribe of Ruben twelve thouſand ſealed, of the Tribe of Gad twelve thouſand ſealed, have avoided this Refutation, by placing the grand Momenta long hence to come. But as Expectation has ſuch great Aſcendency over the human Mind, People on one hand are apt to look for Things too near, and on the other to expect what is already paſt, as the Coming of the Meſſiah by the Jews, whom may God in his great Mercy pity and convince. And I modeſtly ſuppoſe the bleſſed Reformation from Popery has gone far into this Revelation; yet as Mahometaniſm and Popery are ſtill in high Power, the Jews not reſtored, &c. there ſeem ſignal Matters yet to come, and by the Check already given to thoſe Powers not very far diſtant. So Beza from Ch. iii. to the End has moſtly few and ſmall Notes, unlike what he has to other Books, though more able Commentators are ſcarce to be found.

However his vilifying ours, that it roſe from the Ignorance of the Senſe of this Place, is not to be ſuffered, and the leſs as it is quite unſupported; on the contrary is not God and Chriſt one, John x. 30.

7. Of the Tribe of Symeon twelve thouſand ſealed, of the Tribe of Levi twelve thouſand ſealed, of the Tribe of Iſachar twelve thouſand ſealed,

8. Of the Tribe of Zabulon twelve thouſand ſealed, of the Tribe of Joſeph twelve thouſand ſealed, of the Tribe of Benjamin twelve thouſand ſealed.

9. After theſe Things I looked, and behold a great Company, which Nobody was able to number, of all Nations, Tribes, People, and Languages, ſtood before both the Throne and the Lamb, cloathed with white Robes, and Palm-branches in their Hands.

10. And they cried out thus aloud, Salvation belongs to our God who ſits on the Throne, and to the Lamb.

11. All the Angels too ſtood round about the Throne, the Elders and four living Creatures, then fell down before the Throne, and worſhipped God,

12. Saying, So let it be: Bleſſing, Glory, Wiſdom, Thankſgiving, Honour, Power and Strength, be to our God for evermore; ſo let it be.

13. Then one of the Elders ſpoke as follows to me, Who are theſe that are cloathed with white Robes, and whence do they come?

14. And I ſaid to him, Lord, thou knoweſt. Whereupon he replied to me; Theſe are they that are come out of great Affliction, and have waſhed their Robes, and whitened them in the Blood of the Lamb.

15. For this reaſon they are before the Throne of God, and ſerve him Day and Night in his Temple; and he who ſits on the Throne will inhabit among them.

16. They will be hungry no more, nor thirſty any more; neither will the Sun's nor any Heat fall on them.

17. Since the Lamb that is at the midſt of the Throne will feed them, and guide them to ſpringing Fountains of Waters; and God will wipe off all Tears from their Eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

AND when he opened the ſeventh Seal, there was Silence in Heaven as it were half an Hour.

2. I alſo beheld ſeven Angels who ſtood before God, and ſeven Trumpets were given them.

3. Another Angel too came, and ſtood at the Altar, who had a golden Cenſer; and much Incenſe was given him, that he might render it with the Prayers of all the Saints, on the golden Altar which was before the Throne.

4. And the Smoak of the Incenſe went up, with the Prayers of the Saints, out of the Hand of the Angel, before God.

5. Beſides the Angel took the Cenſer, and filled it from the Fire of the Altar, and threw into the Earth; upon which there were Sounds, Thunders, Lightnings and an Earthquake.

6. The ſeven Angels moreover, who had the ſeven Trumpets, got themſelves ready to ſound.

7. And the firſt Angel ſounded, when there was Hail and Fire, mixed with Blood, and they were thrown into the Earth; ſo that the third Part of the Trees was burnt up, as was likewiſe all green Graſs.

8. In the next place the ſecond Angel ſounded, and there was as it were a great Mountain burning with Fire thrown into the Sea; whereupon the third Part of the Sea became Blood:

9. Nay the third Part of the Creatures in the Sea that had Life died, and the third Part of the Ships periſhed.

10. Then the third Angel ſounded, and there fell down from Heaven a great Star, that

Ib. ſo that] Several have here beſides the following with us, the third Part of the Earth was burnt up, and; which might be left out, becauſe of the Difficulty in conceiving how the Earth was to be burnt up, excluſive of the Wood and Herbage; when the latter might be but a more explicite Account of the former, and might be connected to it with [even,] and ſo the other may the better be ſpared.

Ib. the third Part of the Trees] as it was not violent enough to deſtroy them all like the Graſs.

Ver. 9. periſhed] Mills found but three or four Copies that have it plur. like our Eng. yet he ſays rightly; but if ſo in ſome Senſe, it is the ſing. which is to be allowed right.

burnt as a Lamp; and it fell on the third Part of the Rivers, and on the Fountains of Waters.

11. And the Name of the Star is called Wormwood: ſo the third Part of the Waters became Wormwood, and many Men died of the Waters, becauſe they were bitter.

12. The fourth Angel likewiſe ſounded, and there was ſmitten the third Part of the Sun, and the ſame both of the Moon and Stars; that the third Part of them might be darkened, and the Day not ſhine a third Part of it, and the Night in like Manner.

13. I alſo beheld, and heard one Angel flying in the midſt of Heaven, ſay aloud, Wo, wo, wo is to them that dwell on the Earth, from the other Voices of the Trumpet of the three Angels, who are about to ſound.

CHAP. IX.

AND the fifth Angel ſounded, then I beheld a Star fall from Heaven into the Earth; and there was given him the Key to the Well of the Deep.

2. Upon this he opened the Well of the Deep, and Smoak went up from the Well as the Smoak of a great Hearth; ſo that the Sun and Air were darkened by the Smoak of the Well.

3. Moreover there came Locuſts out of the Smoak into the Earth; and Power was given them, as Scorpions of the Earth have Power.

4. And it was ſaid to them, that they ſhould do no injury to the Graſs of the Earth, nor any green Thing, nor any Tree; but to the Men only who have not the Seal of God on their Foreheads.

5. However it was given them, that they ſhould not kill theſe, but that they ſhould be tormented five Months; and their Torment was as that of a Scorpion, when he ſtrikes a Man.

6. So that in thoſe Days Men will ſeek Death, and not find it: as likewiſe will deſire to die, and Death will flee from them.

7. And the Likeneſſes of the Locuſts were like Horſes got ready to Battle, on their Heads too were as Crowns like Gold, and their Faces were as thoſe of Men;

8. They further had Hair as that of Women, and their Teeth were ſuch as Lions;

9. And they had Breaſt-plates like iron ones, with the Sound of their Wings as that of many Horſes running to Battle;

10. As they had alſo Tails like Scorpions, and there were Stings in their Tails, and their Power was to do injury to Men five Months.

11. And they had a King over them, the Angel of the Deep, to whom the Name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek has the Name Apollyon.

12. One Wo is gone, behold there are yet coming two Woes after theſe Things.

13. The ſixth Angel alſo ſounded, and I heard a Voice from the four Horns of the golden Altar before God,

14. Saying to the ſixth Angel who had the Trumpet, Let looſe the four Angels that are bound in the great River Euphrates.

15. Accordingly the four Angels were let looſe, who were got ready for an Hour, Day, Month and Year, that they might kill the third Part of Men.

16. Now the Number of the Warriors, being Horſemen, was two hundred Millions: for I heard the Number of them.

17. And thus I beheld the Horſes in the Viſion, and thoſe that ſate on them, having Breaſt-plates of Fire, Jacinth and Brimſtone; the Heads too of the Horſes were as Lions

Ver. 13. Angel] ſuppoſed by Mills to creep in inſtead of Eagle, which the Vulg. and ſeveral have; but it ſeems too ſtrange, and diſſonant from the reſt.

Ib. of the Trumpet] by the Vulg. Interpreter omitted, and in ſome pretended Gops from Veleſius; the Noun (as it were of the Sound) being left out by reaſon of its Verb. This Mills catches at in vain, Pr. 508.

Ib. from the Well] with the Vulg. and there only, the Smoak of the Well went up; whereupon Mills ſays ours is of a Scholiaſt, Pr. 508. Suppoſing his Hypotheſis of the Well, would People by that not have known the Smoak was from or out of it, without this Help of the imaginary Scholiaſt?

Ib. great] For this ſome have burning, which Mills puts among his genuine Readings.

Ver. 3. Locuſts] the Mahometans, as Mr. Mede and all do judge, writes Wall on Ch. xiii. 5.

Ver. 4. but] as Doddr. alſo renders, yet comments, The Uſe of the Particles, ει μη, here, is very remarkable; and it is apparently neceſſary, it ſhould be rendered only, rather than except. But what [it] ſhould be ſo rendered, the Uſe or the Particles? And it is μονος which is rendered only, and ει μη but, as Doddr. himſelf has; and who has ever rendered it here except? Though this is common, and the reſt may be aſcribed to Overſight.

Ver. 7. Crowns like Gold] Some have golden Crowns, and Mills ſays rightly; but it ſeems rather to avoid as and like being thus together, and for more uſual Expreſſion.

Ver. 10. and there were Stings &c.] for which ſome have, and Stings; and in their Tails they had Power to do injury; and that Wall favours.

Ver. 14. who had] with ſome he having, which Mills counts to be according to the Autograph, ſaying, This is certainly amiſs among that Greek of John which Nobody elſe can ſettle.

Ib. Euphrates] Wall at the Beginning gives this and the following, with Ch. xvi. 12. as an open and plain Prediction of the Turks.

Heads,

Heads, and out of their Mouths there came Fire, Smoak and Brimſtone.

18. By theſe three the third Part of Men was killed, through the Fire, Smoak, and Brimſtone which came out of their Mouths.

19. For the Power of the Horſes is in their Mouth, and in their Tails: for their Tails were like Serpents, they having Heads, and with them they do injury.

20. Yet the reſt of the Men who were not killed by theſe Plagues, did not repent of the Works of their Hands, that they might not worſhip Devils, and Idols of Gold, Silver, Braſs, Stone and Wood; which can neither ſee, hear, nor go:

21. Nay they did not repent either of their Murders, Witchcrafts, Whoredom, or Thefts.

CHAP. X.

AND I ſaw another ſtrong Angel come down from Heaven, cloathed with a Cloud, and a Rainbow on his Head, with his Face as the Sun, and his Feet as Pillars of Fire.

2. He alſo had in his Hand a little Book open; and he put his right Foot on the Sea, and the left on the Earth.

3. Beſides he cried out with a loud Voice, according as a Lion roars; and when he had cried out, ſeven Thunders uttered their Voices.

4. Which they having done, I was about to write; whereupon I heard a Voice from Heaven ſay to me, Seal up the Things which the ſeven Thunders uttered, but do not write them.

5. Moreover the Angel whom I ſaw ſtanding both on the Sea and Earth, lifted up his Hand to Heaven;

6. And ſware by him who lives for evermore, who created the Heaven and the Things in it, with the Earth and the Things in that, and the Sea with the Things therein, that the Time ſhould be no longer;

7. But in the Days of the ſeventh Angel's Voice, when he would ſound, the Myſtery of God ſhould be accompliſhed, as he had declared to his own Servants the Prophets.

8. And the Voice which I heard from Heaven ſpoke to me again in this manner, Go, take the little Book that is open in the Hand of the Angel, who ſtands both on the Sea and Earth.

9. So I went to the Angel, ſaying to him, Give me the little Book. And he anſwered me, Take, and eat it up; and it will make thy Belly bitter, but will be in thy Mouth as ſweet as Honey.

10. Accordingly I took the little Book out of the Angel's Hand, and eat it up, and it was in my Mouth as ſweet as Honey; and when I had eat it up, my Belly became bitter.

11. And he ſaid to me, Thou muſt propheſy again concerning many People, Nations, Tongues and Kings.

CHAP. XI.

THERE was further given me a Cane like a Rod, and the Angel ſtood, ſaying: Riſe up, and meaſure the Temple of God, with the Altar, and them who worſhip in it.

2. But the Court which is without the Temple throw out, and do not meaſure it, ſince it is given to the Gentiles; and they will tread down the holy City forty two Months.

3. And I will cauſe my two Witneſſes, that they ſhall propheſy a thouſand two hundred ſixty Days, cloathed with Sackcloth.

4. Theſe are two Olive-trees, and two Candleſticks, which ſtand before the God of the Earth.

Ver. 19. of the Horſes] The Copies, &c. that have Power ſing. with all but two and in their Tails, have this (one excepted that has Places for Horſes) which are under twenty; the other Reading that Mills puts in the Text is, For their Powers are in their Mouth, without and in their Tails; ſo that our com. Eng. is according to no Copy, nor ancient Verſion.

Ver. 20. Braſs] is of the Tranſcribers, not St. John, Mills affirms, though he found but ſix without it, and Kuſter one ſince.

Ver. 1. Pillars] in three Verſions a Pillar, which Mills approves of as genuine; but it is feaſible that columnæ, Pillars in the old Lat. might degenerate to columna, and the other follow it; more likely too, I preſume, than the Apoſtle's putting it Pillar.

Ver. 6. Time] which Ham. and Wall expound to mean Delay.

Ver. 7. would] not ſhall begin.

Ver. 8. again] as here follows.

Ver. 11. concerning] as Ham. and Wall ſhew; to the Gr. ſtrictly upon, and before is improbable for John, being now very ancient, and this but about three Years before his Death.

Ver. 1. and the Angel ſtood] Beza ſays he reſtores this from the Complutenſian Edition, when in others there is written only ſaying; but Mills produces three Copies and the Syr. alſo that have it, yet adds the MS. Copies gainſaying with a great Conſent, as likewiſe himſelf, who alſo ſufficiently anſwers Beza; ſo that it appears put in for the ſake of Perſpicuity, though that ſeems to me much wanted without theſe Words.

Ver. 2. without] Mills has within in the Text, as he found but about ſeven or eight Copies, &c. with ours, which however both he and Beza take to be the right Reading.

Ver. 4. which ſtand] A few have it maſc. who ſtand, agreeing with theſe and Witneſſes, which Mills counted genuine; but I fancy it was rather altered to that.

Ib. God] by ſome Lord, becauſe ſo in Zech. iv. 14. I ſuppoſe.

5. And

5. And if any will do them injury, Fire comes out of their Mouth, and devours their Enemies; ſo that if any one will do them injury, thus muſt he be killed.

6. Theſe have Power to ſhut Heaven, that it may yield no Rain in the Days of their Prophecy; nay have Power over Waters to turn them into Blood, and to ſmite the Earth with any Plague as often as they will.

7. And when they have accompliſhed their Teſtimony, the Beaſt that comes up out of the Deep, will make War with them, overcome them, and kill them.

8. Then their dead Bodies will be in the Street of the great City, which is ſpiritually called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord alſo was crucified.

9. Whereupon they of the People, Tribes, Tongues and Nations, will ſee their dead Bodies three Days and a half, and will not permit their dead Bodies to be put into Graves.

10. Nay thoſe that dwell on the Earth will rejoice at them, be merry, and ſend Gifts one to another; becauſe theſe two Prophets tormented them that dwelt on the Earth.

11. But after three Days and a half, a living Spirit from God entered into them; ſo that they ſtood on their Feet, and great Fear fell on thoſe who ſaw them.

12. They alſo heard a great Voice from Heaven, ſaying to them, Come up hither; accordingly they went up to Heaven in a Cloud, and their Enemies ſaw them.

13. And in that Hour there was a great Earthquake, ſo that the tenth Part of the City fell down, and the Names of Men killed in the Earthquake were ſeven thouſand; the reſt frighted at this, gave Glory to the God of Heaven.

14. The ſecond Wo is gone away, behold the third Wo will come quickly.

15. And the ſeventh Angel ſounded, at which there were great Voices in Heaven, that ſaid, The Kingdoms of the World are become our Lord's, and his Chriſt's, and he will reign for evermore.

16. The twenty-four Elders likewiſe, who ſate on their Thrones before God, fell down on their Faces, and worſhipped him,

17. Saying; We give thanks to thee, O Lord God Almighty, who art, and who waſt, and who art to come; becauſe thou haſt taken thy great Power, and haſt reigned.

18. And though the Nations were in a Wrath, thy Wrath is come, and the Time for the Dead to be judged, and to give Reward to thy Servants the Prophets, and to the Saints, with thoſe who fear thy Name, little and great, and to deſtroy them that deſtroy the Earth.

19. Beſides the Temple of God was opened in Heaven, and there appeared the Ark of his Covenant in his Temple; and were Lightnings, Voices, Thunders, an Earthquake, and great Hail.

CHAP. XII.

AND a great Sign appeared in Heaven, a Woman cloathed with the Sun, and the Moon was underneath her Feet, as likewiſe on her Head a Crown of twelve Stars.

2. Now ſhe was with Child, and cried out, as ſhe brought forth, and was in pain to be delivered.

3. There alſo appeared another Sign in Heaven, which behold was a great red Dragon, that had ſeven Heads, and ten Horns; and on his Heads ſeven Diadems.

4. Moreover his Tail haled the third Part of the Stars of Heaven, and threw them to the Earth; this Dragon ſtood before the Woman who was about to be delivered, that when ſhe was, he might devour her Child.

5. And ſhe was delivered of a male Child, who ſhould manage all Nations with an iron Rod; ſo her Infant was caught up to God and his Throne.

6. The Woman likewiſe fled into the Wilderneſs, where ſhe has a Place got ready by God, that they may nouriſh her there, a thouſand two hundred ſixty Days.

7. So there was Fighting in Heaven; Michael and his Angels fought againſt the Dragon, who fought and his Angels.

8. However he did not prevail, nor was there a Place found for them any more in Heaven.

Ver. 8. our] Several have their, and Mills ſays rightly; but the Vulg. might turn it that Way, together with the Antecedent.

Ib. alſo] a few miſs, as Mills ſuppoſes they ſhould; but the little Need of it might be likelier the Occaſion.

Ver. 15. Kingdoms—are become] by ſome Kingdom—is become, and Mills writes were made plural by ſome Reader. As Probability leans that Way, and Authority this, I muſt leave it doubtful; diſliking alſo to be dogmatical, which the many [mays] I have uſed may convince my Readers of.

Ver. 19. Thunders] not in the Vulg. and without Mills's Approbation, Pr. 507.

Ib. an Earthquake] not with half a dozen, and Mills ſays he knows not whether it crept from Ch. viii. 5. which is what I ſhould not ſuſpect at all, ſince one Sentence has not the Countenance of being copied from the other.

Ver. 1. Sign] as tranſlated Ch. xv. 1.

Ver. 2. was with Child] Gr. had in the Womb.

Ver. 4. ſhe was] not only by the Meaning of the Word in the Original, but its Poſition there in a Member of the Sentence before that wherein her Child is.

Ver. 6. may] the preſent Tenſe, as well as what that before requires.

Ver. 8. Place—for them] to be in there, not their place where they had been.

9. Thus the great Dragon was caſt out, the ancient Serpent, called the Devil and Satan, that ſeduces the whole World: he was caſt out to the Earth, as were his Angels with him.

10. Then I heard a loud Voice ſay in Heaven; Now there is come to be Salvation, Power, the Kingdom of our God, and the Authority of his Chriſt; ſince the Accuſer of our Brethren is caſt down, that accuſed them before our God Day and Night.

11. Him they overcame by the Blood of the Lamb, and by the Word of their Teſtimony; without loving their Lives till Death.

12. For this reaſon be glad, O Heavens, and thoſe that dwell in them: wo is to the Inhabitants of the Earth and Sea; ſince the Devil is come down to you, having great Wrath, as he knows that he has but a little Time.

13. And when the Dragon ſaw that he was caſt to the Earth, he perſecuted the Woman who was delivered of the Male.

14. Whereas there were given her two Wings of a great Eagle, that ſhe might fly into the Wilderneſs, to her Place; where ſhe is nouriſhed there a Time, and Times, and half a Time, from the Face of the Serpent.

15. And the Serpent caſt after the Woman, Water as a Flood out of his Mouth, that he might make her be carried away by the Flood.

16. But the Earth helped the Woman, ſince that opened its Mouth, and ſwallowed up the Flood which the Dragon caſt out of his Mouth.

17. Upon this the Dragon was in a Wrath at the Woman, and went to make War with the reſt of her Offspring, who keep the Commandments of God, and have the Teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt.

CHAP. XIII.

NOW I ſtood on the Sand of the Sea, and ſaw a Beaſt come up out of the Sea, which had ſeven Heads, and ten Horns; and on his Horns ten Diadems, as alſo on his Heads the Name of Blaſphemy.

2. And the Beaſt which I ſaw was like a Leopard, with his Feet as a Bear's, and his Mouth as that of a Lion; to whom the Dragon gave his Power, his Throne, and great Authority.

3. I ſaw further one of his Heads as it were cut to Death; but his deadly Wound became cured, and the whole Earth wondered after the Beaſt.

4. And they worſhipped the Dragon that gave Authority to the Beaſt, as they did alſo the Beaſt, ſaying, Who is like the Beaſt? Who is able to fight with him?

5. There was likewiſe given him a Mouth, that ſpoke great Things and Blaſphemies; beſides Authority was given him to act forty two Months.

6. And he opened his Mouth in Blaſphemy at God, to blaſpheme his Name, his Tabernacle, and thoſe who dwell in Heaven.

7. Nay it was given him to make War with the Saints, and to overcome them; even Authority was given him over every Tribe, Tongue and Nation.

8. So all that dwell on the Earth will worſhip him, whoſe Names are not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb that has been ſlain, from the founding of the World.

9. If any one has an Ear, let him hear.

10. If any one carries to Captivity, he will go into Captivity; if any one kills with the Sword, he muſt be killed with the Sword: here is the Patience and Faith of the Saints.

Ver. 14. there] The Gr. has this Pleonaſm.

Ver. 1. I ſtood] by a few he ſtood, though not he ſaw, which to Wall following Mede ſeemed probable to be the true Reading; but the Authority is too weak.

Ib. Beaſt] Weſt. wild beaſt.

Ib. Name] Names by ſome, as I ſuppoſe by reaſon of the Heads, the contrary being altogether unlikely: nor is it a mere verbal Diſparity, ſince Name denotes the ſame on each Head, Names implies Variety, or makes it uncertain; yet Wall favours that Reading.

Ver. 2. his Throne] the Vulg. is without, and ſome Copy of Veleſius framed or feigned, it ſeems, according to it.

Ver. 4. Authority] the ſame rendered ſo, Ver. 2.

Ib. as they did alſo the Beaſt] A Copy or two and the Syr. have not, whereupon Mills as often ſays, that without the very great Agreement of Books, he ſhould eſteem it inſerted from the Marg. where it was written for the ſake of Explanation, though, adds he, (to give it another Pull) the Coherence would be better to what follows without this; but muſt ſuch Arguments prevail over Authority?

Ver. 5. to act] as the Gr. is, not continue. Mills on the Authority of two Writers, if that be any Authority, eſpecially as they are both at ſecond Hand, rejects this; while ſome Copies have another Gr. Word, to be to make war.

Ver. 7. Nay it was given him to make War with the Saints, and to overcome them] All this two Copies and one Author are without, at which Grotius ſays, it is indeed enough comprehended in the Words before; but how can that be true? Or if it was, it would not be ſufficient Reaſon for leaving this out.

Ib. Tribe] Some Copies add here and People, theſe Words being all ſing. in the Original.

Ver. 8. has been] preterperfect.

Ib. from the founding of the World] Ham. here, and Whit. at John xvii. 5. &c. repreſent as certain that this belongs to written (as alſo Caſt. tranſlates) not to ſlain, by Ch. xvii. 8. yet it does not ſeem to quadrate well with the pref. Tenſe, and eſpecially with the fut. and will accord better with the Book of Life that was from the &c.

Ver. 10. If any one] the ſame as in the Ver. before.

Ib. here is the Patience and Faith] i. e. the Effect thereof, as Nary expounds, with a ſtrict Regard to the Words, and in his intelligent Manner, both very commendably.

11. Afterwards I beheld another Beaſt come up out of the Earth; and he had two Horns like a Lamb. and ſpoke as a Dragon.

12. And he exerciſes all the Authority of the firſt Beaſt before him, and cauſes the Earth, with them that dwell in it, to worſhip the firſt Beaſt, whoſe deadly Wound became cured.

13. He moreover does great Miracles, ſo that he even makes Fire come down from Heaven to the Earth before Men.

14. Thus he ſeduces them that dwell on the Earth, by reaſon of the Miracles which were given him to do before the Beaſt; ordering them that dwell on the Earth, to make an Image to the Beaſt, who had the Wound of a Sword, and did live.

15. And it was allowed him to give a Spirit to the Image of the Beaſt, that it might even ſpeak; and to cauſe that whoever did not worſhip the Image of the Beaſt ſhould be killed.

16. Beſides he cauſes all, little and great, both rich and poor, both free and bound, that there ſhould be given them a Mark on their right Hand, or on their Foreheads;

17. And that none ſhould buy or ſell, excepting he that had the Mark, or the Name of the Beaſt, or the Number of his Name.

18. Here is Wiſdom: let him who has Senſe count up the Number of the Beaſt; for it is that of a Man, and his Number ſix hundred ſixty ſix.

CHAP. XIV.

AGAIN I looked, and behold a Lamb ſtood on Mount Sion, and with him a hundred forty four thouſand, who had the Name of his Father written on their Foreheads.

2. I alſo heard a Voice from Heaven, as the Sound of many Waters, and as that of great Thunder; beſides I heard the Sound of Harpers playing on their Harps.

3. And they ſung as it were a new Song before the Throne, as likewiſe before the four living Creatures and the Elders; which Song none could learn, excepting the hundred forty four thouſand, who were redeemed from the Earth.

4. Theſe are they who were not defiled with Women, for they are Virgins: theſe are they who follow the Lamb whitherſoever he goes: theſe were redeemed from Men, the Firſt-fruits to God and the Lamb.

5. And there was not Deceit found in their Mouth; for they are without Blemiſh before the Throne of God.

6. Beſides I beheld another Angel flying in the midſt of Heaven, who had the everlaſting Goſpel to preach to them that dwell on the Earth, even to every Nation, Tribe, Tongue and People;

7. Saying aloud, Fear God, and give Glory to him, ſince the Hour of his Judgment is come; and worſhip him who made Heaven, Earth, the Sea, and Fountains of Waters.

Ver. 14. of a Sword, and did live] by a ſmall Number and did live from the Sword, which Mills ſays he can ſcarce but reckon among the genuine, adding, the Obſcurity of the true Reading (ſo he calls that) begot the preſent; yet various other Cauſes have produced various Readings.

Ver. 15. allowed] Gr. given, as Weſt. alſo renders it.

Ver. 16. both] This is added in once, and left out twice, by our laſt Tranſlators.

Ver. 18. Here is Wiſdom] in the following Myſtery.

Ib. 666] Nary writes, St. John gives us to underſtand that the Letters which make up this Number, will be thoſe of the Name of Antichriſt: what then is more likely than χαρτεινος, as Proteſtants urge, and even Irenæus exhibited, Lib. v. Cap. 30? The Letters of which ſtand for 30, 1, 300, 5, 10, 50, 70 and 200.

Ver. 1. who had the Name] Between is with ſome his Name and, which Mills thought authentick, ſaying it ſlipt out by an eaſy Fault becauſe of the other Name, Pr. 686. which indeed would be eaſier in the Gr. than Eng. yet it might on the contrary be taken from Ch. iii. 12. and this the Multitude of Copies without it may induce us to think.

Ver. 2. many Waters] or much Water, as Ch. i. 15. John iii. 23. where it is plur. alſo, as Water is throughout the Writings of the Old Teſt. but I have conformed to Ch. xix. 6. though Thunder is ſing. here: either Way it denotes the Greatneſs of the Sound; but does not juſtify a confuſed Noiſe which a numerous Congregation makes with their Reſponſes, as in the Pref. to Holy David clear'd: for Worſhip ſhould be orderly, and Singing harmonious, nor did Chriſt anſwer himſelf.

Ib. I heard the Sound] from ſome the Sound which I heard (with was wanting) as, and that Mills ranks as right, Pr. 686.

Ib. Harps] The Author of that before inſiſts hereon, Ib. We may be ſure the Scripture would never have decyphered to us the Church of God, either in Heaven or Earth, as worſhipping God with any Thing, in the Uſe of which would be any Fault; but would that of a Cenſer, Incenſe and Altar, Ch. viii. 3, 4. now be none? Beſides this Church was the Jewiſh, Ver. 1. Ch. vii. 4. Nay if this proves the Uſe of any Thing, it muſt be Harps themſelves.

Ver. 5. Deceit] By ſome Copies Falſehood, as thought perhaps more ſuitable to Mouth, with Reſpect alſo to Ch. xxi. 27. but Mills ſays ours is a Scholium from 1 Pet. ii. 22. Pr. 686.

Ver. 6. dwell] Mills calls ſit the true Reading, as ſome have it, Pr. 686. but though it is not likely to be changed from dwell to ſit, yet as the latter Word in Gr. denotes alſo to dwell, and as Mills informs us that is fitly to the Style of the Sept. the Change might be ſo, and ours ſtand good. Eraſmus, &c. putting both Readings may ſhew the Difficulty of chooſing, but not which is right, however further than in their Judgment.

Ver. 7. God] Some have the Lord, and according to Mills aright, Chriſt being meant; but that Diſtinction is without Proof, however Somebody might think ſo, and make it the Lord.

8. And

8. And another Angel followed, ſaying, Babylon, the great City, is fallen, fallen down; becauſe ſhe made all Nations drink of the Wine of the Wrath of her Whoredom.

9. A third Angel likewiſe followed them, ſaying aloud; If any one ſhall worſhip the Beaſt, and his Image, and receive the Mark either on his Forehead, or Hand;

10. Then he ſhall drink of the Wine of God's Wrath, poured out unmingled into the Cup of his Anger; and ſhall be tormented with Fire and Brimſtone, before both the holy Angels, and the Lamb:

11. Nay the Smoak of their Torment goes up for evermore; and they have not reſt Day and Night, that worſhip the Beaſt and his Image, and if any one receives the Mark of his Name.

12. Here is the Patience of the Saints: here are they who keep the Commandments of God, and the Faith of Jeſus.

13. And I heard a Voice from Heaven ſay to me; Write, The Dead are bleſſed who die in the Lord henceforth. Yes, ſays the Spirit, that they may reſt from their Labours, and their Works do follow with them.

14. Next I looked, and behold a white Cloud, and on the Cloud one ſitting like a Man, who had a golden Crown on his Head, and a ſharp Hook in his Hand.

15. And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying out aloud to him who ſate on the Cloud, Put in thy Hook, and reap; becauſe the Hour for thee to reap is come, ſince the Harveſt of the Earth is become dry.

16. Accordingly he who ſate on the Cloud, thruſt in his Hook on the Earth; and the Earth was reaped.

17. Moreover another Angel came out of the Temple in Heaven, who had likewiſe a ſharp Hook.

18. And another Angel came out from the Altar, who had Authority over Fire, and called with a loud Cry to him that had the ſharp Hook thus, Put in thy ſharp Hook, and pick the Bunches of the Vine of the Earth; ſince the Grapes of it are ripe.

19. So the Angel thruſt his Hook into the Earth, and picked the Vine of the Earth, and caſt into the great Wine-preſs of the Wrath of God.

20. And the Wine-preſs was trod without the City, ſo that the red Juice came out of the Wine-preſs to the Bridles of the Horſes, for a thouſand ſix hundred Furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

AND I beheld another Sign in Heaven, great and wonderful, ſeven Angels having the ſeven laſt Plagues; ſince the Wrath of God is accompliſhed in them.

2. I further beheld as it were a Sea of Glaſs, mixed with Fire; as alſo the Overcomers of the Beaſt, and his Image, and his Mark, of the Number of his Name, ſtanding on the Sea of Glaſs, who had the Harps of God.

3. And they ſung the Song of Moſes the Servant of God, and the Song of the Lamb, as follows; Thy Works are righteous and wonderful, O Lord God Almighty: thy Ways are great and true, O King of Saints.

4. Who ſhall not fear thee, Lord, and glorify thy Name? Since thou only art holy: for all Nations ſhall come, and worſhip before thee; ſince thy righteous Things are made manifeſt.

5. Now after theſe Things I looked, and behold there was opened the Temple of the Tabernacle of the Teſtimony in Heaven.

6. And the ſeven Angels, who had the ſeven Plagues, came out of the Temple, cloathed with pure and clear Linen, and girded about the Breaſts with golden Girdles.

7. Then one of the four living Creatures gave to the ſeven Angels, ſeven golden Vials full of the Wrath of God, who lives for evermore.

8. And the Temple was full of Smoak, by means both of the Glory of God and his Power; ſo that none was able to enter into the Temple, till the ſeven Plagues of the ſeven Angels were accompliſhed.

Ver. 8. of the Wrath] wanting but in a few printed Books, which are of ſmall Authority, yet to Mills ſeemed taken from Ver. 10. How unlikely!

Ver. 13. with] in Gr. ſo for preſent Reward.

Ver. 14. a Man] ſee on Ezek. ii. 1.

Ver. 18. pick] Weſt. lop, as if to cut off Limbs of a Tree with the ſickle, or as though that was the Manner of taking in Grapes. But the Bunches might be cut off with a Hook, though a different one from that in Ver. 15.

Ver. 20. a thouſand ſix hundred Furlongs] juſt 200 Miles.

Ver. 3. Saints] Divers have Nations, but Mills thought that of two Tranſlations genuine, viz. Ages (rendered by the Rhemiſts worldes) or with the other Noun everlaſting King; whereas he ſuppoſing the other was taken wrong from Jer. x. 7. gives a fair Occaſion to remark, ſo might his from the ſame Chap. Ver. 10. while he is put to it only ſay, the received Reading is a marginal Explanation. But what did it explain? Was it either of the other Readings? Would any be ſo ſenſeleſs as to pretend it? Or does either of them want explaining?

Ver. 6. out of the Temple] Mills ſays he can ſcarce but think this is a Gloſs here and at Chap. xvi. 1. taken from the foregoing Ver. The Support he had for it was five or ſix Copies.

Ib. Linen] Vulg. Lat. abſurdly Stone, from a Corruption of the Gr. λίνον into λίθον.

Ver. 8. by means of] If from had been intended, it is likely ἐκ would have been ἀπο, according to the Genius of the Gr. Tongue.

CHAP.

CHAP. XVI.

I ALSO heard a great Voice from the Temple, which ſaid to the ſeven Angels, Go, and pour out the Vials of God's Wrath into the Earth.

2. So the firſt went, and poured out his Vial on the Earth; whereby there became a bad and grievous Sore, on the Men that had the Mark of the Beaſt, and that worſhipped his Image.

3. And the ſecond Angel poured out his Vial into the Sea, and it became Blood as of one dead; ſo that every living Animal died in the Sea.

4. The third Angel likewiſe poured out his Vial into the Rivers and Fountains of Waters; and they became Blood.

5. And I heard the Angel of the Waters ſay; Thou art righteous, Lord, who doſt and who didſt exiſt, and who art holy, becauſe thou haſt judged thus:

6. Since they have ſhed the Blood of Saints and Prophets, ſo thou haſt given them Blood to drink; for they are deſerving of it.

7. And I heard another from the Altar ſay, Yes, O Lord God Almighty, thy Judgments are true and righteous.

8. Next the fourth Angel poured out his Vial on the Sun; upon which it was given him to ſcorch Men with Fire.

9. Thus Men were ſcorched with great Heat, and blaſphemed the Name of God, who has Authority over theſe Plagues; and they did not repent, to render Glory to him.

10. And the fifth Angel poured out his Vial on the Throne of the Beaſt; whereupon his Kingdom became dark, and they gnawed their Tongues for Pain;

11. As alſo blaſphemed the God of Heaven, for their Pains and Sores, and did not repent of their Deeds.

12. The ſixth Angel too poured out his Vial on the great River Euphrates; upon this the Water of it became dry, that the Way of the Kings from the eaſtern Sun might be got ready.

13. And I beheld out of the Mouth of the Dragon, the Mouth of the Beaſt, and that of the falſe Prophet, three unclean Spirits, like Frogs:

14. For they are the Spirits of Devils, that do Miracles, and go forth to the Kings of the Earth, nay of the whole World, to gather them together to the Battle of that great Day of God Almighty.

15. Behold I am coming as a Thief: he who watches, and preſerves his Cloaths is bleſſed, that he may not walk naked, and People ſee his Shame.

16. And he gathered them together into a Place, called in Hebrew Armageddon.

17. Laſtly the ſeventh Angel poured out his Vial into the Air; and a great Voice came out from the Temple of Heaven, from the Throne, ſaying, It is done.

18. Beſides there were Sounds, Thunders and Lightnings; as there was alſo a great Earthquake, ſuch as was not ſince Men were on the Earth, ſuch a mighty Earthquake, ſo great.

19. And the great City became into three Parts, as likewiſe the Cities of the Nations fell; and great Babylon was remembred before God, to give her the Cup of the Wine of the Wrath of his Diſpleaſure.

20. Every Iſle moreover fled away, and the Mountains were not found.

21. And great Hail as Weights came down from Heaven on Men; and they blaſphemed God for the Plague of Hail, becauſe the Plague of it was exceeding great.

Ver. 2. became] as Ver. 3, 4. not fell, nor noiſom.

Ver. 5. holy] ſhalt be only on Beza's ſlender Authority, that being not in all the various Readings of Mills, Kuſter, Wetſten, &c. though Doddr. ſays other Copies have it ſo, which however he does not follow. By Weſt. the Gracious one, but wrong.

Ver. 8. given] without power.

Ver. 10. became] as Ver. 3, 4. and ſo not was full.

Ver. 13. like] Some have as, but it being differently, I am for keeping what we are in Poſſeſſion of, notwithſtanding Mills's Writ of Ejectment.

Ver. 16. he gathered] Doddr. writes as if it muſt be God who did this, yet how contrary to Ver. 14! and even Beza, ſo far from underſtanding it thus, has they gathered. Perhaps the three Spirits acting together might be conſidered as one, otherwiſe the united Mouth or Call of the Dragon, Beaſt and falſe Prophet, Ver. 13. might gather the Kings together by means of thoſe Spirits. But there is not Neceſſity for ſuch grammatical Niceneſs, when he or it gathered them may only mean they were gathered, as a Verb active is put for paſſive, Lev. xiv. 5, 42. Num. xv. 9. 1 Kings xviii. 26. and elſewhere.

Ib. Armageddon] Mount Megiddo by Beza, with Probability.

Ver. 17. great] being not with a few, ſeemed to Mills brought from Ver. 1.

CHAP. XVII.

AFTERWARDS there came one of the ſeven Angels, who had the ſeven Vials, and ſpoke to me, in this manner; Come, I will ſhew thee the Judgment of the great Whore, that ſits on many Waters:

2. With whom the Kings of the Earth have committed Whoredom, and its Inhabitants have been drunk by the Wine of her Whoredom.

3. So he carried me away into the Wilderneſs, in the Spirit; and I beheld a Woman ſitting on a ſcarlet Beaſt, full of Names of Blaſphemy, it had alſo ſeven Heads and ten Horns.

4. And the Woman was cloathed with Purple and Scarlet, nay decked with Gold, precious Stone; and Pearls, having a golden Cup in her Hand, full of the Abominations and Uncleanneſs of her Whoredom.

5. On her Forchead alſo was a Name written, A Myſtery, Babylon the great, the Mother of Harlots, and Abominations of the Earth.

6. And I beheld the Woman drunk with the Blood of the Saints, and with that of the Witneſſes of Jeſus; ſo that I wondered a great deal, at beholding her.

7. Then the Angel ſaid to me: For what reaſon doſt thou wonder? I will tell thee the Myſtery of the Woman, and of the Beaſt that bears her, which has ſeven Heads and ten Horns.

8. The Beaſt that thou beheldeſt, was, and is not; and will hereafter come up out of the Deep, then go into Deſtruction; and they will wonder that dwell on the Earth (whoſe Names are not written in the Book of Life from the founding of the World) at ſeeing the Beaſt that was, and is not, though he is.

9. Here is the Mind that has Wiſdom: the ſeven Heads are ſeven Mountains, where the Woman ſits on them.

10. There are likewiſe ſeven Kings: five are fallen, and one is, the other is not yet come; and when he comes, he muſt remain but a little while.

11. And the Beaſt that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, as alſo is one of the ſeven, and goes into Deſtruction.

12. The ten Horns too which thou beheldeſt, are ten Kings, who have not yet received the Kingdom, but receive Authority as Kings a very little while with the Beaſt.

13. Theſe have one Mind, and give their Power and Authority to the Beaſt.

14. Theſe will fight with the Lamb, but he will overcome them: ſince he is the Lord of Lords, and King of Kings; and they who are with him are called, choſen and faithful.

15. He ſays further to me; The Waters which thou beheldeſt, where the Harlot ſits, People and a Multitude are, with Nations and Tongues.

16. And the ten Horns which thou beheldeſt on the Beaſt, theſe will hate the Harlot, as alſo make her deſolate and naked, nay eat her Fleſh, and burn her in the Fire.

17. For God has put into their Hearts to do his Mind, as likewiſe to act with one Mind, and to give their Kingdom to the Beaſt, till the Words of God ſhall be accompliſhed.

18. And the Woman whom thou beheldeſt, is the great City, which has a Kingdom over the Kings of the Earth.

Ver. 4. Uncleanneſs of her Whoredom] With a very few, which yet Mills declares genuine, being the Uncleanneſſes of the Whoredom of the Earth; but I am not ſo eaſily perſuaded to believe, ſince that is as near to ours, as ours to that in the Gr. and ſo might as eaſily be made from ours.

Ver. 8. at ſeeing] Some have of them who ſee, and Grot. not diſliking, Mills likes ſo much as to tell us the common was of ſome Student.

Ib. though he is] by Hammond, although it be, according as the Conjunction ſignifies, Mills would have an Addition, though it may be rather an Omiſſion in the two Tranſlations he mentions, becauſe of a ſeeming Inconſiſtency, and with ſeveral is and is to come, which Wall counts ſure; bnt by taking is not as before in the preſent Time of the Angel's ſpeaking it, and though he is in the preſent Time of their ſeeing him, the Difficulty will be removed.

Ver. 9. ſeven Mountains] There is ſcarce any Thing in theſe Prophecies more clear, than that this Place is Rome, being ſo ſituated, Virg. Geor. 2. & Æn. 6. Propert. Lib. 3. Eleg. 10.

Ver. 16. on the Beaſt] But half a Score MSS. three Verſions, and an Author have it and the Beaſt, concerning which Mills himſelf ſays, Aqua mihi hæret, that he is at a ſtand; let Authority then decide it, viz. that of Copies, to which it belongs. But Weſt. has and.

Ver. 17. as likewiſe to act with one Mind] the Vulg. Lat. and a Copy or two are without, whence Mills gives us his Sentiment, that were it not for the Unanimity of Copies, he ſhould believe it intruded in from Ver. 13. where the Word is indeed the ſame as in both Places here; but we are not to part with the holy Scripture ſo lightly.

Ver. 18. over the Kings] What can this be but Popery?

CHAP. XVIII.

MOREOVER after these Things I beheld another Angel come down from Heaven, who had great Authority, and the Earth was enlightened by his Glory.

2. And he cried out mightily with a loud Voice thus; Babylon the great is fallen, fallen down, and is become the Habitation of Devils, with the Prison of every unclean Spirit, as likewise that of every unclean and hateful Fowl;

3. Because all Nations have drunk of the Wine of the Wrath of her Whoredom, nay the Kings of the Earth have committed Whoredom with her, and the Merchants of the Earth are enriched by the Power of her Delicacies.

4. And I heard another Voice from Heaven as follows: Come out of her, my People, that you may not partake of her Sins, and that you may not receive of her Plagues;

5. Because her Sins have followed on to Heaven, and God has remembred her Injuries.

6. Render to her, even as she rendered to you, nay do it to her double, according to her Deeds: in the Cup which she has poured out, pour out double to her.

7. As much as she has glorified her self, and been delicate, so much Torment and Lamentation give her; since she says in her Heart, I sit a Queen, and am not a Widow, nor shall see Lamentation.

8. For this reason her Plagues will come at one Time, Death, Lamentation and Famine, besides she will be burnt in the Fire; since the Lord God is strong who judges her.

9. And the Kings of the Earth, who have committed Whoredom and been delicate with her, will bewail her, and lament at her, when they see the Smoak of her Burning;

10. While they stand far off for Fear of her Torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great City Babylon, the strong City; since thy Judgment is come at once.

11. And the Merchants of the Earth will weep, and lament at her; since none buys her Cargo any more:

12. The Cargo of Gold, Silver, precious Stone, Pearl, fine Linen, Purple, Silk, Scarlet, all Thyine Wood, all Instruments of Ivory, all those of most precious Wood, of Brass, Iron and Marble,

13. Cinnamon, Incense, Ointment, Frankincense, Wine, Oil, Flour, Wheat, Beasts, Sheep, Horses, Chariots, Slaves, and Persons of Men.

14. And the Fruits of thy Soul's Desire are gone from thee, as are all Things dainty and brilliant, so that thou wilt not find them at all any more.

15. The Merchants of these Things, who have been enriched by her, will stand far off for Fear of her Torment, where they will weep and lament,

16. As also say, Alas, alas, the great City, that was cloathed with fine Linen, Purple and Scarlet, and decked in Gold, precious Stone and Pearls; since so much Wealth is made desolate at once.

17. Every Master likewise, and all the Crew in Ships, with the Sailors, and whoever used the Sea stood far off;

18. And cried out thus, at seeing the Smoak of her Burning, What is like the great City?

19. Besides they threw Earth on their Heads, and cried out, weeping and lamenting, as follows, Alas, alas, the great City, in which all who had Ships in the Sea were enriched by her Excellency; since she is made desolate at once.

20. Rejoice at her, Heaven, with holy Apostles and Prophets; since God has executed your Judgment on her.

21. And one strong Angel took up a Stone, as a great Millstone, and threw down into the Sea, saying; Thus with Violence will Babylon the great City be thrown down, and not be found at all any more.

Ver. 2. with a loud Voice] which Mills reckons spurious, being not in the printed vulg. Lat. (tho' in MSS.) and one obscure Writer, Prol. 510.

Ver. 5. followed on] viz. one another, which some not understanding, and thinking perhaps they could not follow her to Heaven, put it as otherwise read joined; which is harder, and wants the same Interpretation: yet Mills puts that down for right.

Ver. 6. rendered] properly, and rewarded is as if they were the first Aggressors.

Ib. double] for the Heinousness of her Deeds to you, or her wicked Deeds otherwise; not double what she deserved, as the following Words demonstrate.

Ver. 8. judges] Some judged, which Mills thought genuine, because not so proper, Pr. 655.

Ver. 12. Stone] being sing. as Chap. xvii. 4.

Ver. 13. Cinnamon] Mills, from a few that have it, reckoned and Amomum followed.

Ver. 16. Stone] sing. as before, but not Pearls.

Ib. since] being in this Verse.

Ib. made desolate] the same as in Ver. 19.

Ver. 17. all the Crew in Ships] By some Copies, every one that sails in Ships, by others——in a Place, with the vulg. Lat. in lacum, into a Lake; but Grotius thought it should be locum, a Place; yet there is little Colour for either of these Readings to be preferred, and Mills has Vulg. wrong to the former.

Ver. 18. Smoak] in the Vulg. and two or three Copies, Place, so that ours seemed to Mills to have crept from Ver. 9. What a Wilderness of Uncertainty and Confusion would that Way lead into!

22. The Sound too of Harpers, Muſicians, Pipers, and Trumpeters will be heard no more at all in thee, and every Tradeſman of every Trade will be found no more at all in thee, as will the Sound of a Millſtone be heard no more at all in thee;

23. The Light of a Candle likewiſe will ſhine no more at all in thee, and the Voice of the Bridegroom and Bride will be heard no more at all in thee: becauſe as thy Merchants were the great Men of the Earth, all Nations were ſeduced by thy Witchcrafts.

24. In her alſo the Blood of the Prophets and Saints was found, even of all who were ſlain on the Earth.

CHAP. XIX.

AND after theſe Things I heard a great Voice of much Company in Heaven, ſaying; Praiſe the Lord; Salvation, Glory, Honour, and Power be to the Lord our God:

2. Becauſe his Judgments are true, and righteous; ſince he has judged the great Harlot, that corrupted the Earth by her Whoredom, and has revenged the Blood of his Servants on her Hand.

3. And the ſecond time they ſaid, Praiſe the Lord; then her Smoak went up for evermore.

4. There further fell down the four and twenty Elders, with the four living Creatures, and worſhipped God who ſate on the Throne, ſaying, So let it be; praiſe the Lord.

5. And a Voice came out from the Throne, which ſaid, Praiſe our God, all his Servants, and thoſe that fear him, little and great.

6. I heard likewiſe as if it were the Voice of a great Company, even as the Sound of many Waters, and like that of ſtrong Thunders, ſaying, Praiſe the Lord; ſince the Lord God Almighty reigns.

7. Let us be glad and joyful, and render Glory to him; ſince the Marriage of the Lamb is come, and his Wife has got her ſelf ready.

8. And it was given her, that ſhe ſhould be cloathed with pure and clear fine Linen: for the fine Linen is the righteous Things of the Saints.

9. Then he ſays to me; Write, They are bleſſed who are called to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. Moreover adds he to me, Theſe are the true Words of God.

10. And I fell down before his Feet, to worſhip him; whereupon he ſaid to me, See, do not; I am a Fellow-ſervant of thee, and of thy Brethren who have the Teſtimony of Jeſus; worſhip God: for the Teſtimony of Jeſus is the Spirit of Prophecy.

11. Next I beheld Heaven opened, and lo a white Horſe; and he that ſate on him was called faithful and true, who judges and fights in Righteouſneſs.

12. And his Eyes were as a Flame of Fire, and on his Head many Diadems; he had alſo a Name written, which none knew excepting himſelf.

13. Beſides he was cloathed with a Garment dipt in Blood, and his Name is called The Word of God.

14. And the Warriors that were in Heaven followed him on white Horſes, wearing white and pure fine Linen.

15. Out of his Mouth too goes a ſharp Sword, that he may ſmite the Nations with it, whom he himſelf will manage with an iron Rod; and he himſelf treads the Winepreſs of the Wrath, and Diſpleaſure of Almighty God.

16. He has moreover the Name written on the Garment, and on his Thigh, The King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.

17. I beheld alſo one Angel ſtanding in the Sun; and he cried out aloud, ſaying to all the Fowls that fly in the midſt of Heaven; Come, and gather together to the Supper of the Great God;

18. That you may eat the Fleſh of Kings, the Fleſh of Commanders, the Fleſh of ſtrong Men, the Fleſh of Horſes and of thoſe who ſit on them, nay the Fleſh of all, free and bound, both little and great.

19. Upon this I beheld the Beaſt, the Kings of the Earth, and their Armies gathered together, to make War with him who ſate on the Throne, and with his Army.

Ver. 22. The Sound] as proper, and as after in the Verſe.

Ver. 24. even] as is apparently the Senſe, however it was that the Tranſlators did not perceive it.

Ver. 2. on her Hand] with which ſhe perſecuted.

Ver. 7. joyful] For ἀγαλλιώμεθα in the middle Voice, three have ἀγαλλιῶμεν act. apparently to be like the preceding Χαίρωμεν; yet Mills puts that for genuine.

Ver. 8. righteous Things] being plural, and by Doddr. rendered righteous Acts; who alſo zealouſly pleads for it.

Ver. 15. and Diſpleaſure] Some of the Diſpleaſure, and Mills ſays rightly, as Ch. xvi. 19. but might it not more likely be made to that?

Ver. 16. the Garment] without his here.

Ver. 17. Supper of the Great God] with ſome great Supper of God, changed into ours Mills ſays; it is however an Objection that they have it differently.

20. And

20. And the Beaſt was apprehended, and with him the falſe Prophet, that did Miracles before him, with which he ſeduced them who received the Mark of the Beaſt, and ſuch as worſhipped his Image: theſe were both thrown alive into the Lake of Fire burning with Brimſtone;

21. And the reſt were killed by the Sword of him who ſate on the Horſe, which went out of his Mouth; and all the Fowls were filled with their Fleſh.

CHAP XX.

AFTERWARDS I beheld an Angel come down from Heaven, who had the Key of the Deep, and a great Chain in his Hand.

2. And he took hold of the Dragon, the old Serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him a thouſand Years.

3. Then he threw him into the Deep, and ſhut him in, nay ſealed him up; that he might ſeduce the Nations no more, till the thouſand Years ſhould be accompliſhed: and after theſe Things he muſt be let looſe a little while.

4. I alſo beheld Thrones, with thoſe that ſate on them, to whom there was Judgment given; as likewiſe the Souls of them that were beheaded for the Teſtimony of Jeſus, and for the Word of God, who alſo had not worſhipped the Beaſt nor his Image, and had not received the Mark on their Forehead and on their Head; ſo they lived and reigned with Chriſt a thouſand Years.

5. But the reſt of the Dead did not live again, till the thouſand Years were accompliſhed: this is the firſt Reſurrection.

6. He is bleſſed and holy, who has a Part in the firſt Reſurrection; over ſuch the ſecond Death has no Authority, but they will be Prieſts of God and Chriſt, and reign with him a thouſand Years.

7. And when the thouſand Years ſhall be accompliſhed, Satan will be let looſe from his Priſon.

8. Upon which he will go out to ſeduce the Nations, that are in the four Corners of the Earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to War; whoſe Number is as the Sand of the Sea.

9. And they went up on the Breadth of the Earth, and compaſſed about the Camp of the Saints, and the beloved City; but there came down Fire from God out of Heaven, and conſumed them.

10. The Devil too that ſeduced them, was thrown into the Lake of Fire and Brimſtone, where the Beaſt and the falſe Prophet are, and will be tormented Day and Night for evermore.

11. Moreover I beheld a great white Throne, and him who ſate on it; from whoſe Face the Earth and Heaven fled away, and there was not a Place found for them.

12. And I beheld the Dead, little and great, ſtanding before God, and the Books were opened; as alſo another Book was opened, which is of Life; and the Dead were judged by the Things written in the Books, according to their Deeds.

13. And the Sea gave up the Dead in it, as did likewiſe Death and Hell the Dead in them; and they were judged according to their reſpective Deeds.

14. Next Death and Hell were thrown into the Lake of Fire: this is the ſecond Death.

15. And if any one was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

Ver. 20. both] not in the Ethiop. only, ſo Mills ſays was inſerted for Explanation; but ſince that was not wanting, we may conclude it not inſerted as he means at all.

Ver. 4. with thoſe] for the ſake of Propriety, as he muſt alſo behold them.

Ver. 13. the Sea gave up the Dead in it] For it three printed Books have them, and Mills declares very rightly; when it is ſo manifeſtly taken (probably by Overſight) from the following, and the other Prints copying the firſt. But was not this great Author, may my Reader ſay, wiſe enough to know that the Sea was not them? Yes, he was too wiſe for that, wiſe enough to interpret them to be the Water and Sea, tho' Simplicity would have done better.

Ib. their reſpective] A common Hebraiſm, but the only one of this Kind in the Writings of the New Teſtament.

Ver. 14. Death and Hell were thrown] If John ſaw ſome Appearances which repreſented theſe, he might ſuitably ſee this done; and the Signification may be, that as they had given up their Dead, they ſhould then receive no more. What Doddr. mentions from Archbiſhop Dawes, that 'to talk of Hell being caſt into a Part of itſelf, is 'downright Nonſenſe;' does not appear to be unexceptionable Senſe it ſelf, nor very reverent to the Scripture: for Hell as it was before, and it is that muſt be ſpoken of, might be thrown into another Hell now, according as it is thought the Puniſhment will differ. So that Doddr. need not have ſubſtituted that hard Gr. Word Hades, which in the preceding Ver. he renders the unſeen World, which as it comprehends Heaven makes bad Senſe here indeed; and on Ch. xxi. 1. he argues from it as it is in the com. Tranſ.

CHAP. XXI.

I ALSO beheld a new Heaven and Earth: for the firſt Heaven and Earth were paſſed away, and there was Sea no more.

2. And I John beheld the holy City, new Jeruſalem, come down from God out of Heaven, got ready as a Bride adorned for her Huſband.

3. Beſides I heard a great Voice out of Heaven ſay; Behold the Tabernacle of God is with Men, and he will dwell with them, ſo that they ſhall be his People, and God himſelf will be with them their God.

4. And God will wipe off all Tears from their Eyes, and there ſhall be Death no more, nor Lamentation, nor Crying, nor will there be Pain any more; ſince the firſt Things are gone away.

5. As likewiſe he who ſate on the Throne ſaid, Behold I make all Things new: and he ſaid to me, Write; ſince theſe Words are true and faithful.

6. He ſaid further to me; It is done: I am A and Z, the Beginning and the End; I will give to him that is thirſty, ſome of the Fountain of the Water of Life for nothing.

7. He who overcomes ſhall inherit all Things, and I will be a God to him, as he ſhall a Son to me.

8. But on the other hand for the Fearful, Unbelieving, Abominable, the Murderers, Whoremongers, Sorcererers, Idolaters, and all Liars, their Part is in the Lake that burns with Fire and Brimſtone; which is the ſecond Death.

9. And there came to me one of the ſeven Angels, who had the ſeven Vials full of the ſeven laſt Plagues, and ſpoke to me as follows, Come, I will ſhew thee the Bride, the Lamb's Wife.

10. So he carried me away in the Spirit, upon a great and high Mountain, and ſhewed me the great City holy Jeruſalem, coming down out of Heaven from God;

11. Which had the Glory of God, and the Light of it was like a very precious Stone, as a Jaſper Stone like Cryſtal;

12. It had alſo a great and high Wall, that had twelve Gates, and at the Gates twelve Angels, with Names written on, which are of the twelve Tribes of the Iſraelites.

13. At the Eaſt were three Gates, at the North three Gates, at the South three Gates, at the Weſt three Gates.

14. And the Wall of the City had twelve Foundations, and on them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb.

15. Moreover he who ſpoke to me, had a Cane like Gold, that he might meaſure the City, its Gates, and the Wall of it.

16. And the City lies four-ſquare, with the Length of it as much as the Breadth; and he meaſured the City with the Cane at twelve thouſand Furlongs: the Length, Breadth, and Height of it are equal.

17. Next he meaſured the Wall of it a hundred forty four Cubits, by the Meaſure of the Man, that is of the Angel.

18. And the Building of its Wall was Jaſper; the City was alſo pure Gold like clear Glaſs.

19. Nay the Foundations of the Wall of the City were adorned with every precious Stone: the firſt Foundation was Jaſper, the ſecond Sapphire, the third Chalcedony, the fourth Emerald,

20. The fifth Sardonyx, the ſixth Sardius, the ſeventh Chryſolite, the eighth Beryl, the ninth Topaz, the tenth Chryſopraſus, the eleventh Jacinth, the twelfth Amethyſt.

21. And the twelve Gates were twelve Pearls, each particular Gate was of one Pearl; and the Street of the City was pure Gold, as tranſparent Glaſs.

22. However I did not behold a Temple in it: for the Lord God Almighty is the Temple of it, with the Lamb.

23. And the City had not Need of the Sun nor Moon, that they ſhould ſhine in it: for the Glory of God did enlighten it, and the Lamb is the Lamp of it.

Ver. 9. ſeven Vials] This ſeven being omitted only in the vulg. Lat. as underſtood by the other ſevens, Mills ſays it was taken from the laſt, Prol. 510. which was miſs'd in his Notes. Might he not as well have ſaid that ſeven, becauſe omitted in the Arabick, was taken from this?

Ver. 10. ſhewed me] This may ſeem a viſionary Deſcription of the Place of everlaſting Happineſs, as that mentioned in Ver. 8. is the Place of Miſery.

Ib. The latter great ſome with the Vulg. having not, Mills judges to be of an ill-knowing Scholiaſt; but how does it appear that he himſelf was well-knowing in ſo judging?

Ver. 13. at the Weſt]. Some Copies have and before each of the three laſt.

Ver. 16. twelve thouſand Furlongs] 1500 Miles.

Ib. Height] as ſuited to heavenly Spirits, who want not a Support for their Being, like earthly Bodies.

Ver. 17. Cubits] thick.

Ver. 18. like] namely the City was, but with ſome the Gold by a Difference of Gender, which latter Mills would have the right; but I am for the ſtrongeſt Party.

Ver. 19. ſecond] Our Tranſlators are here liberal of their Points.

Ib. Chalcedony] not with a, as if the Foundation was but one Stone.

Ver. 20. Jacinth] after the Gr. Spelling, like the reſt, and being alſo called Hyacinth, as in Johnſon's great Dictionary.

24. The Nations of thoſe too that are ſaved will walk in the Light of it; and the Kings of the Earth do bring their Glory and Honour into it.

25. And the Gates of it will not be ſhut at all by Day; though no Night will be there.

26. Beſides they will bring the Glory and Honour of the Nations into it.

27. And there will not enter into it at all any Thing that pollutes, or uſes Abomination or Falſehood; but they who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

CHAP. XXII.

AND he ſhewed me a pure River of the Water of Life, as clear as Cryſtal, which came out of the Throne of God and the Lamb.

2. In the Middle between its Street and the River, that were at each Side, was the Tree of Life, which yields twelve Fruits, and renders its Fruit each Month; and the Leaves of the Tree were for the Healing of the Nations.

3. And no Curſe will be there any more; but the Throne of God and the Lamb will be in it, and his Servants will ſerve him.

4. Nay they will ſee his Face, and his Name will be on their Foreheads.

5. Moreover no Night will be there, and they will have no Need of a Candle, or the Light of the Sun; ſince the Lord God enlightens them, and they will reign for evermore.

6. And he ſaid to me; Theſe Words are true, and faithful; beſides the Lord God of the holy Prophets has ſent his Angel, to ſhew his Servants the Things which muſt quickly be done.

7. Behold I come quickly: he is bleſſed who keeps the Words of the Prophecy of this Book.

8. Now I John ſaw theſe Things, and heard; and when I had heard and ſeen, I fell down to worſhip before the Feet of the Angel, who ſhewed me theſe Things.

9. Whereupon he ſays to me, See, do not: for I am a Fellow-ſervant of thee, and of thy Brethren the Prophets, and of them who keep the Words of this Book; worſhip God.

10. And he ſays to me; Do not ſeal up the Words of the Prophecy of this Book, becauſe the Time is near.

11. Let him that is unrighteous be yet unrighteous, and him that is filthy be yet filthy; as alſo let him that is righteous be yet righteous, and him that is holy be yet holy.

12. And behold I come quickly; and my Reward is with me, to render to each as his Work ſhall be.

13. I am A and Z, the Beginning and the End, the Firſt and the Laſt.

14. They are bleſſed who do his Commandments, that there may be a Privilege to them in the Tree of Life, and they may enter in at the Gates into the City.

15. For without are Dogs, Sorcerers, Whoremongers, Murderers, Idolaters, and every one that loves and makes a Lye.

Ver. 24. The Nations of thoſe that are ſaved will walk in the Light of it] But Mills puts for authentick, There will walk the Nations by the Light of it, as ſome have, and he ſays of thoſe that are ſaved is a marginal Expoſition; which he knew as much of as another may gueſs from theſe Readings, and that might be left out becauſe there is no ſuch to the Kings of the Earth: yet I confeſs I incline to his Opinion, ſince Nations may ſeem tranſpoſed to begin this Part, as Kings the next, and to hinder the latter from belonging to walk, in alſo might be thought more proper than by, tho' in the ſpiritual Signification it is not.

Ib. do bring] by being ſaved, and coming into this celeſtial City; as if they honoured it by their Preſence, and it was honoured by the ſaved ones of the Nations (who are truly glorious and honourable) coming thither, Ver. 26.

Ver. 25. though] Since the following can be no Reaſon for the foregoing, as it is in Ver. 23.

Ver. 1. a pure River of the Water of Life] Hammond ſays, Baptiſm is ſure expreſt by this, which he proceeds to expatiate on, that it was typified in Ezek. xlvii. viz. 5. the being baptized firſt in any great Pool, where they might be put under Water; afterwards with Fountain Water running into the Font; and ſo laſtly, as we may underſtand, by Sprinkling, according to Ezek. xlvii. 4, 3. but which unluckily falls out to be backward, and ſo contrary. In Concurrence with the above he goes on in theſe Words, The Throne of the Lamb is that Power which is by Chriſt enſtated on the Governours of the Church, of which the Power of Baptizing being one ſpecial Part, this River by which Baptiſm is expreſt is fitly ſaid to proceed out of the Throne. Aſtoniſhment, great as it is, will however ſuffer me to make a ſmall Remark or two, that this is ſitting in the Seat of God with a Witneſs, as in Ezek. xxviii. 2. 2 Theſ. ii. 4. for ſurely Hammond D. D. muſt be allowed a ſubſtantial Witneſs as here; and that ſuch Expoſition of the Scripture required the Authority of no leſs a Man, and a Governour of the Church, for it to be believed.

Ver. 2. In the Middle between its Street and the River] as Ham. ſhews, and thus the Gr. ſtands, with Middle governing and belonging to River as well as Street, and they at each Side like the two Thieves, John xix. 18. where the Gr. is the ſame; indeed how could the Tree be of either (for each) ſide of the river? And that there was but one Tree of Life, we may underſtand by the Figure of it, Gen. ii. 9.

Ib. for the Healing] as if invigorating, and ſupplying with eternal Life.

Ver. 6. has ſent] as Wall notes.

Ver. 10. he] God laſt mentioned; ſee alſo Ver. 12, 13, 16.

Ver. 14. do his Commandments] but waſh their Robes by a few, and that Mills takes to be genuine, as in Ch. vii. 14. yet how much likelier fetched hither from thence!

16. I Jeſus have ſent my Angel to teſtify theſe Things to you in the Churches: I am the Root and Race of David, the bright and Morning Star.

17. And the Spirit with the Bride ſay, Come; let him alſo who hears ſay, Come: and let him who is thirſty come, nay let him who is willing receive the Water of Life for nothing.

18. For I teſtify to every one that hears the Words of the Prophecy of this Book; If any one ſhall put to theſe Things, God will put on him the Plagues written in this Book:

19. And if any one ſhall take away from the Words of the Book of this Prophecy, God will take away his Part from the Book of Life, and out of the holy City, and of the Things written in this Book.

20. He who teſtifies theſe Things ſays, Yes, I come quickly; ſo let it be. Yes, come, Lord Jeſus.

21. The Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all: ſo let it be.

Ver. 17. receive] as being given; not take, as if in his own Power.
